PUGET SOUND WEEKLY ARGUS.

VOL. 6 PORT TOWNSEND, W. T., FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1876. NO. 13.

...ove is pretty certain. Nothing so in-...flames them, nothing they so much covet, ...so opposition. They long to be [illegible] forward.

All the time when love-matches are ...usually made, all idea of practicability is ignored; and yet matrimony is eminently practical. The raw lovers deem it unworthy, unromantic, ungenerous, to bestow any thought upon the actualities of life—upon such vulgar entities as food and raiment, expenses and income, health and investments. They have a vague notion that they shall live in the ideal fashion; shall be above the low needs of appetite and apparel; shall enjoy a condition so exalted that none of the wants and weaknesses of earth shall ever reach them. They fancy they shall sit perpetually on a sofa, their arms about one another, talking emotional nonsense, and occasionally condescending to glance out at the passing world as they might at a poor panorama which had lost its interest to souls enjoying such beatitude as theirs.

What a rare frame of mind is that to cope with the manifold obligations of wedlock! It is as if one should advance to battle with the belief that the side should be victorious that would assume the more graceful attitudes, and deliver the more finely-turned compliments.

Love-mates are curious through their ingenuousness and ignorance. The few opinions they have are palpably absurd, and the more absurd they are the more stubbornly they cleave to them. One of these is that they were made for one another, which, from their unconquerable silliness, and the fitness belonging to mutually amorous folly, might indicate malignant design on the part of Nature. This, however, it is hardly necessary to say, is not their meaning. They affect to believe their souls so exquisitely attuned that but for their immediate union each must wander aimlessly, misunderstood, and unappreciated forevermore. Callow creatures, they think fables, and talk vacuity. They are made, like all men and women, for any one of a dozen, or a hundred, or a thousand, whose tastes and temperaments accord with theirs.

Nature has few peculiar moulds in her foundry of humanity. They are pretty much alike. When first taken out, the casts have the same shape, and must depend for their variation on future handling.

While we are very young, while the early consciousness of sex is restless within us, we are liable to love or to think we love, any one of the proper gender who does not persistently drive us away. Love, as we call it, is, then, simply propinquity. He or she who is nearest, and is not positively hostile, wins all the heart we have to win in the days of our midsummer madness.

And then to hear those precious nonsensical prating of being born for one another; that they never shall or can love anybody but Clara or Paul, and that without their kindred soul there must be wasting away, and a distressing funeral, and a little grave decked with violets and whitest rosebuds! Something occurs to throw them apart. [illegible] takes the place of Paul, and [illegible] and Harry of Willie, [illegible] and French boots, and have occupied himself, mayhap, with looking regretfully forward.

All the time when love-matches are usually made, all idea of practicability is ignored; and yet matrimony is eminently practical. The raw lovers deem it unworthy, unromantic, ungenerous, to bestow any thought upon the actualities of life—upon such vulgar entities as food and raiment, expenses and income, health and investments. They have a vague notion that they shall live in the ideal fashion; shall be above the low needs of appetite and apparel; shall enjoy a condition so exalted that none of the wants and weaknesses of earth shall ever reach them. They fancy they shall sit perpetually on a sofa, their arms about one another, talking emotional nonsense, and occasionally condescending to glance out at the passing world as they might at a poor panorama which had lost its interest to souls enjoying such beatitude as theirs.

What a rare frame of mind is that to cope with the manifold obligations of wedlock! It is as if one should advance to battle with the belief that the side should be victorious that would assume the more graceful attitudes, and deliver the more finely-turned compliments.

Love-mates are curious through their ingenuousness and ignorance. The few opinions they have are palpably absurd, and the more absurd they are the more stubbornly they cleave to them. One of these is that they were made for one another, which, from their unconquerable silliness, and the fitness belonging to mutually amorous folly, might indicate malignant design on the part of Nature. This, however, it is hardly necessary to say, is not their meaning. They affect to believe their souls so exquisitely attuned that but for their immediate union each must wander aimlessly, misunderstood, and unappreciated forevermore. Callow creatures, they think fables, and talk vacuity. They are made, like all men and women, for any one of a dozen, or a hundred, or a thousand, whose tastes and temperaments accord with theirs.

Nature has few peculiar moulds in her foundry of humanity. They are pretty much alike. When first taken out, the casts have the same shape, and must depend for their variation on future handling.

While we are very young, while the early consciousness of sex is restless within us, we are liable to love or to think we love, any one of the proper gender who does not persistently drive us away. Love, as we call it, is, then, simply propinquity. He or she who is nearest, and is not positively hostile, wins all the heart we have to win in the days of our midsummer madness.

And then to hear those precious nonsensical prating of being born for one another; that they never shall or can love anybody but Clara or Paul, and that without their kindred soul there must be wasting away, and a distressing funeral, and a little grave decked with violets and whitest rosebuds! Something occurs to throw them apart. [illegible] takes the place of Paul, and [illegible] and Harry of Willie, [illegible]

Plain Truth.

In domestic happiness the wife's influence is much greater than her husband's; for the one the fear cause—mutual love and confidence—being granted, the whole comfort of the household depends upon trifles more immediately under her jurisdiction. By her management of small sums her husband's respectability and credit are created or destroyed. No fortune can stand the constant leakages of extravagance and mismanagement; and more is spent in trifles than women would easily believe. The one great expense, whatever it may be, is turned over and carefully reflected on, ere incurred; the income is prepared to meet it; but it is pennies unexpectedly sliding away which do mischief, and this the wife alone can stop, for it does not come within a man's province. There is often an unexpected trifle to be saved in every household. It is not in economy alone that the wife's attention is so necessary, but in those matters which make a well-regulated house. An unfurnished court-card, a missing key, a buttonless shirt, a soiled table-cloth, a smutted pot with its old contents sticking hard and brown about it, are really nothings; but each can raise an angry word, or cause discomfort.

Depend upon it, there is a great deal of domestic happiness in a well-ground mutton chop, or a tidy breakfast table. Men grow sated of beauty, tired of music, are often too wearied for conversation (however intellectual), but they can always appreciate a well-aired hearth and smiling comfort. A woman may love her husband devotedly—may sacrifice friends, family, country for him—she may have the genius of a Sappho, the enchanted heartles of dreams; but—a melancholy fact!—if with these she fails to make his home comfortable, his heart will inevitably escape her. Kind women live so entirely in the affections, that, without love, their existence is a void. Better submit them, to household trials, however repugnant they may be to your tastes, than doom yourself to a loveless home. Women of a higher order of mind will not run this risk; they know that their feminine, their domestic, are their first duties.

BAKED BREAD PUDDING.—Housekeepers often have sundry scraps—crusts and remnants of bread left in the bread tin. If they are not mouldy or mouldie, no matter how dry they may be, a good pudding can be made from them. Break them up into small bits, and pour over them enough boiling hot milk just to cover them when dry, but no let them soak out well. Chop fine three tablespoonfuls of suet and add to the milk. Also put in salt and sugar to taste. Put in an egg or two, beat all well, then mix it up, with a spoon, and add three well beaten eggs to each quart of milk, and a cupful of raisins and currants mixed. Turn it into a pudding dish; put a few bits of butter over the top, and also some raisins, and bake for twenty minutes, or until the milk becomes set. If three or four eggs are added and two tablespoonfuls of wheat flour, it can be boiled in a tin pudding-mould and turned out on a dish and served with sauce.

[illegible] SELECT.—Pick and wash the [illegible] until soaked, drain and [illegible], put in a saucepan with [illegible] and a little [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] and 1776. 1876.

GRAND CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION!

ON THE

FOURTH OF JULY,

AT

PORT TOWNSEND, W. T.

At Sunrise a Salute of 21 guns.

At 9 o'clock Boat and Canoe Races for purses.

At 10:30 A. M. a procession will be formed at the Masonic Hall under direction of Capt. G. H. Burton, Chief Marshal, in the following order:

Port Townsend Brass Band.
Port Townsend Lodge No. 6, F. and A. M.
Strict Observance Lodge No. 23, F. and A. M.
Jefferson Lodge No. 12, Order of Good Templars.
Washehll Tribe No. 3, Imp. O. of R. M.
Clalam Tribe No. 2, Imp. O. of R. M.
Chemakum Tribe No. 1, Imp. O. of R. M.
School Children.
Officers and Soldiers of the U. S. Army.
Officers and seamen of the U. S. Marine service.
Invited Guests.
Citizens generally.

The procession will leave the Masonic Hall at 11 o'clock A. M. and proceed to a place on the hill selected for the purpose.

At 12 M. a grand salute of 21 guns.
Reading of the Declaration of Independence by D. W. Smith.
Orations by Hons. H. G. Struve and C. M. Bradshaw.
After the oration the procession will reform and march back to the Masonic Hall and disband.

At 2 o'clock P. M. horse-racing for a purse.
Foot races for a purse.
Wheelbarrow and sack races for a purse.
Salute at sundown of 21 guns.

The whole to conclude with a

GRAND CENTENNIAL BALL

At Fowler's Hall.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS:
A. F. Learned, Sigmund Waterman, Horace Tucker, Capt. Jas. M. Selden.

COMMITTEES OF INVITATIONS:
VICTORIA.—Doctor J. W. Powell, Hon. David Eckstein, H. L. Tibbals, D. W. Higgins.
PORT TOWNSEND.—H. A. Webster, L. B. Hastings, O. F. Gerrish, S. I. Katz, Capt. J. M. Selden.
PORT DISCOVERY.—C. B. P. Wood, Andrew Waymouth.
DUNGENESS.—Edward Pilcher, Richard McDonald, John Morris.
SAN JUAN.—James McCurdy, I. Katz.
WHIDBY ISLAND.—G. O. Haller, B. C. Hill.
PORT LUDLOW.—George W. Harris, Frank Bowers, Frank Harris.
RECEPTION COMMITTEE:
Chas. Gerrish, L. B. Hastings, Jr., Wm. Katz, Frank Bartlett.
FLOOR MANAGERS.
Sigmund Waterman, Frank Hastings, John T. Norris, David Littlefield, J. P. Keene, Wm. Korter.

THE BEST MUSIC IN THE TERRITORY will be employed for this occasion, and no efforts will be spared to make one of the grandest and most successful Balls ever given in W.

A CORDIAL INVITATION IS EXTENDED

Supper will be prepared by J. J. Hunt.

Tickets, including Supper.....$5.00

FOR SALE AT
Rothschild & Co.'s, Waterman & Katz's and F. [illegible]
WM. H. H. LEARN[illegible]

D. W. SMITH, Secretary.

JEWELRY

1776. 1876.

GRAND CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

AT SEATTLE, W. T.,

July 4th, 1876.

THE CITIZENS OF SEATTLE HAVE determined to celebrate the

CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY

OF

AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE

ON THE COMING FOURTH OF JULY.

And, in order to observe the day in a manner befitting the occasion, hereby extend a

CORDIAL INVITATION

To every body throughout our Territory to join them and make it worthy of the great event.

By order of the Committee. 6-4

THOMAS PHILLIPS,

REAL ESTATE AGENT

Collector and Conv[illegible]

Houses to rent, money loan[illegible] paid for non residents.
Homestead and preemption [illegible] patent, and titles to claims [illegible] anything and everything [illegible] soils.
☞ It will be to the advan[illegible] buying, selling or renting [illegible] me by letter, or at my office, Port Townsend.

NOTICE

IN THE MATTER OF THOMAS [illegible] Bankrupt.

BY VIRTUE OF AN ORDER OF [illegible] District Court of the Third Judicial District of Washington Territory, sitting in Bankruptcy, I will sell the Umiaky now [illegible] store, store-chart, tarpaulin sloop, [illegible] their appurtenances, for the term of 6 [illegible] year.

For particulars inquire of, or address, the undersigned, at Umiaky, W. T., or Daniel A. Blanchard, his Attorneys at Port Townsend, W. T.

SAMUEL B. HOYT,
Assignee of the Estate of Thomas [illegible] Bankrupt.
Port Townsend, April 20, 1876.

LATEST NEWS.

By Telegraph and Mail.

Gold, in New York on the 17th inst., 112[illegible].

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 89; selling 90.

The steamer Quong Se arrived at San Francisco on Tuesday bringing nearly a thousand Chinese.

New developments continue to be made in whiskey frauds in San Francisco.

Forty-five of the Boston colony have arrived at Prescott, Arizona. They are indignant, and say the whole colony are disappointed, and will advise their friends to stay at home.

Nearly the whole of the business portion of Darlington, S. C., was burned on the 16th.

Moody and Sankey are holding meetings in St. Louis.

The paying admission on the 3d day of the Centennial was $16,000.

It is officially announced that one hundred and ten thousand people entered the Centennial grounds on the 10th inst., the opening day. Dispatches from various places throughout the country show that the day was observed as a Centennial holiday. The President delivered a short but effective speech which was loudly cheered, the Emperor of Brazil rising in his seat and joining in the demonstration by vigorously waving his hat. Amid cheers on all sides, bells ringing, and bands playing in all directions, the Centennial Exhibition of 1876 was opened. The Empress of Brazil visited the Women's Pavilion in the afternoon. Dom Pedro also visited it and gave emphatic approval of the work displayed there. One of the most impressive scenes of the day took place in Machinery Hall [illegible] President, assisted by [illegible] the crank which [illegible] and turned it seve[illegible] was at once heard [illegible] that the engine wa[illegible] The monstrous [illegible] gan to [illegible] and till it was travelling at full[illegible] Gen. Hawley started the flat which was taken up by the multitude. Philadelphia was grandly illuminated that evening.

The sailing ship Sumatra arrived in San Francisco on the 13th inst. with 350 Chinamen on board.

Williams, Blanchard & Co. have been appointed agents at San Francisco for the new Panama Transit steamship company. The South Carolina, the pioneer steamer of the line, will arrive from Panama this week.

The six Chinese companies of San Francisco have sent a dispatch to Hong Kong telling their partners there not to ship any goods in vessels carrying more than 100 Chinamen, so as to put a check upon the influx of their countrymen.

Many people are attracted to the Machinery Hall at the Centennial to see the numerous printing presses upon which editions of the New York papers are being worked off.

Iowa shows among exhibits in Agricultural Hall specimens of soils from 50 counties, in glass tubes six feet long, showing the depth of loam.

Oregon's exhibit is rich in wheat, oats, woods and dried fruit.

Washington Territory shows the tallest wheat and oats exhibited.

California prodigies of cacti excite general wonder.

The receipts on the opening day of the Centennial were $40,000; on the second day, $30,000.

The London Times had a warm, congratulatory editorial on the successful opening of the American Centennial Exhibition.

Reports from various parts of Maine and New Hampshire announce very destructive floods in the rivers, and the water is still rising. Great excitement prevails. No loss of life has thus far occurred, but the destruction of property is immense.

Dom Pedro visited the Naval Academy at Maryland, on the 13th, as the guest of Admiral Rogers and Governor Carrol. The visit was entirely informal.

The Executive Committee of the New York Liberal Republicans last week passed a resolution that inasmuch as no Liberal organization is known to exist in any State except New York, they fail to recognize the organized existence of the Liberal Republicans whom in their national capacity recently issued a call for a national convention of the party they claim to represent. They therefore advise the Liberals of New York to await the action of the conventions at Cincinnati and St. Louis with a view of supporting the least objectionable candidate thereby nominated.

At a meeting of the Union League Club in New York the following resolutions were adopted:

"That the Republican party must be faithful and leave no ground for doubt; that it intends to be truthful to the three great and paramount principles to which it has long been publicly pledged, and for which it has done more and is capable of doing more than any other party—

First, that all citizens shall be equal before the laws and shall be protected by the Federal power.

Second, That specie payment and gold as a standard of value shall be speedily restored.

Third, that the civil service shall be reformed on these points at least, and that both resolutions and nominees of the approaching Republican National Convention should be such as to leave no ground for doubt or distrust.

Dispatches received at London from Athens say that a vessel has arrived from Salonica which brings news that the American Consul was in Salonica at the time of the murder. The Christians took his carriage, which chanced to be at the railway station, put the girl into it and drove her to the consulate. The provisional council and the mob met in the mosque; the governor was present when the consuls were murdered. He merely protested and treated the matter lightly. The Turks filed past the corpses and spat upon them. The body of the French consul had 34 wounds. It is reported that the bodies of the murdered consuls remain unburied at Constantinople. The excitement is so great it would be dangerous to attempt a funeral. The lower classes of Mohammedans are purchasing daggers and revolvers with money supplied by those hoping for the massacre and plunder of Christians. European residents are leaving en masse. Salonica has been blockaded. Non[illegible] the inhabitants are allowed to le[illegible] town until the inquiry into th[illegible] rage is terminated. Two [illegible] iron-clads and two fri[illegible] way to Salonica.

Cholera is ra[illegible] tent in some [illegible] rumored [illegible] led [illegible]

Many people who [illegible] the E[illegible] of cou[illegible] eliet in the [illegible] intimation [illegible] in Japan, as [illegible] the troubl[illegible] execution [illegible] the severe [illegible] deemed to de[illegible] think that if the [illegible] kari were a little more popular in the United States, there would soon be greater purity in the civil service.

A TROUPE [illegible] Amphitheatre, Port Townsend

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

For Sale or Rent.

RESIDENCE OF WM. KORTER, situated corner of Lawrence and Fillmore streets, containing nine rooms, principally hard finished, with cistern attached, holding 200 gallons of water. On the ground, comprising [illegible] acre square, are a variety of fruit trees, shrubbery, etc. Terms easy.

Parlor, dining-room and kitchen furniture for sale.

Apply to WILLIAM KORTER,
Port Ludlow,

Or on the premises.

—ALSO,—

One good milch cow for sale for $25.00.
Port Townsend, May 16, 1876. 12-tf

PROF. J. KORTER'S

Scalp Reinvigorator!

—FOR—

IMPROVING THE HAIR, IMPARTING Vitality and Action to the Scalp; also, a sure cure for Dandruff. Price $1.50 per bottle.

Go to the Shaving and Hair-dressing Emporium at the Free Library room.

☞ Good Work Guaranteed. ☜

Wm. H. H. LEARNED,

AUCTIONEER

—AND—

COMMISSION MERCHANT,

Port Townsend, W. T.

Keeps on hand a general assortment of New and Second Hand Goods of all descriptions; also dealer in Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Vegetables, Candies, etc., etc.

Goods taken on Consignment.

Hawaiian Bark Lunalilo.

NEITHER CAPTAIN W. H. MARSTON, of the Hawaiian bark Lunalilo, nor the undersigned Agents of the above-named bark, will be responsible for debts contracted by the officers or crew.

ROTHSCHILD & CO., Agents.
Port Townsend, May 15, 1876.

British Ship Clara.

NEITHER CAPT. WILLIAM SA[illegible] of the British ship Clara, nor the signed Agents of the above-named [illegible] be responsible for debts contract[illegible] officers or crew.

ROTHSCHILD
Port Townsend, April 25, 1876.

Chilian Ship Erminia

NEITHER CAPT. J. J. [illegible] Chilian ship Erminia, nor the undersigned Agents of the said named ship will be [illegible] tracted by the officers [illegible]

ROTHS[illegible]
Port Townsend, Ap[illegible]

Italian Sh[illegible]

NEITHER CAPTA[illegible] the Italian ship [illegible] signed Agents of the [illegible] be responsible for [illegible] officers or crew.

ROT[illegible]
Port Townsend [illegible]

Bark

NEITHER CAPT[illegible] the bark Cos[illegible] Agents of the s[illegible] sponsible for d[illegible] or crew.

Por[illegible]

THE PUGET SOUND WEEKLY ARGUS

IS PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT

Port Townsend, Washington Territory,

BY C. W. PHILBRICK.

Terms of subscription.—$3.00 per annum in advance; six months, $1.50.

ADVERTISING RATES.—One inch, first insertion, $1.50; each subsequent insertion, 50 cts. Yearly advertisements taken at liberal rates.

☞ All Accounts Settled Monthly. ☜

FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1876.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE PICNIC.—As per announcement through our columns last Friday, the grand picnic excursion of the season, given by Capt. Selden of the steam revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott to the school children, took place on Saturday last. "The face of "Old Sol" wore a clouded expression in the early morning hours, but as it neared nine o'clock the veil was lifted and he shone forth great brilliancy, reflecting beams of sunshine on the countenances and feelings of the nearly 200 ladies, children and gentlemen that were assembled on board the Wolcott to take a pleasant ride to Port Ludlow. The bright faces and fresh and pretty attires of the little ones as they gamboled about on deck made a very pleasing and pretty scene, while the inspiriting airs discoursed by Port Townsend Brass Band animated [illegible] The time having arrived the lines were soon cast off gallant steamer proceeded via the Fort, where several the party. The officers I used every precaution did occur to may the enit should prove a pleasthe children and their Ludlow was reached of flags and handkerwharf, to welcome the the genial and popular Mr. Phinney, who imopen his elegant house Good Templars' Hall and ing-room for the benefit of all. h the party dispersed, some in on and some in another, as indictated. A goodly number eir way to the Hall where they the light fantastic" for about to excellent music furnished by Hook on the violin and Mr. the flute, with Frank Bowers of ceremonies. How discharge[illegible]

WE LEARN that the Washington Hotel is to be re-opened by Mr. S. Stränge.

THE Eliza Anderson has been put on the ways at Seattle and will undergo repairs to the extent of $10,000.

DR. SPARLING, formerly of this town, has been appointed resident physician of the Insane Asylum, at Steilacoom.

THE bark Bronto, has undergone repairs and is again on her way to San Francisco with a cargo of lumber.

DURING the absence of the County Treasurer east, his son, L. B. Hastings, Jr., is authorized to transact the business of the office.

G. M. HALLER, Esq., will visit LaConner, Whatcom Co., on May 30th, professionally. All legal business and conveyancing will receive prompt attention.

THREE-QUARTERS of the ship Pride' of the Port, 1,173 tons, now at Burrard Inlet, has been sold, and will be commanded by Capt. Chas. Sawyer, late of the wrecked ship Orpheus.—Ex.

IN Justices's Court this week the following business was transacted: Territory of Washington vs. E. Lewer and T. Barnum; charge of assault and battery. C. M. Bradshaw appeared for the Territory, G. Morris Haller on behalf of the defence. Jury trial, occupying half a day. Verdict for the defence. Defendants discharged.

DURING the past week we have been practicing the manly and emotoning art of whitewashing and paper-hanging, and now consider ourself a proficient in the business. Parties requiring work done in this line can bring it to the ARGUS office, situated on Bay View corner. Ceilings, fences, or other heavy articles can be sent by the express wagons at our risk.

The weather during the first part of the week was remarkably cold. On Tuesday there was a fall of three inches of snow at Port Gamble and a heavy rain here. The steamer Goliah arrived here from Port Gamble at 7 A. M. that day, and back of her wheel house there was enough snow unmelted to enable Capt. Libby and others to have a lively little game of snow-balling people on the wharf.

THE [illegible] purchased by Commissioner for the Centennial was found, [illegible] in San Francisco to be too [illegible] across the continent on [illegible] and has been sawed [illegible] part will be transmaking a difference and a saving of [illegible] in the cost of [illegible] probably not ar[illegible] to be exhibited will be taken to [illegible] in the National [illegible] whole of Judge Swan's [illegible] manufactures will ul[illegible] placed.

[illegible] ship City of Panama arrived [illegible] isco last Sunday. In enter[illegible] she ran into and damaged [illegible] new British steamship Zea[illegible] arrived from Australia. "En[illegible] a friend from Victoria, Informa[illegible] re was considerable indigna[illegible] expressed in that city last [illegible] account of the Panama not leav[illegible] mails at the advertised sched[illegible] Wednesday, May 10th [illegible] The Victoria Agents, [illegible] tals, had every [illegible] ested to the [illegible] all ready for [illegible] vided, but to [illegible] the announce[illegible]

[illegible] gine was out [illegible] could not leave [illegible] gine had been [illegible] load [illegible] chief [illegible] sined [illegible]

Boat Racing.

The following prizes will be awarded at the aquatic contest to take place at Port Townsend on the Fourth of July:

At 9 A. M.—Whaleboat boats, pull race, one pair oars, $40.

Indian canoe, paddle race, 1st prize, $10; 2d prize, $5. Each canoe to be manned by eight indians in costume.

At 3 P. M.—Sail-boat race; every description allowed to enter; 1st prize, $25, 2d prize, $10.

Full-boats will be required to pay an entrance fee of $5, and sail-boats $3.

All entries for either race must be made by 2 P. M., July 3, 1876, at the office of the Secretary.

W. H. H. LEARNED,
Chairman Executive Committee.
D. W. SMITH, Secretary. 13

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Music for Everybody!

I have on hand a number of

Brass Band Instruments,

Of the Stratton Manufacture, which I will dispose of CHEAP if called for soon.

W. H. H. LEARNED.
Port Townsend, May 18, 1876. 13

Custom House Sale.

CUSTOM HOUSE, DIST. OF PUGET SOUND,
Port Townsend, May 18, 1876.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE following described articles, seized for violation of the U. S. Revenue Laws, will be sold at Public Auction for cash to the highest bidder, at the Custom House in Port Townsend, W. T., JUNE 19th, 1876, at 2 o'clock P. M.:

No. of Seizure.	Date of Seizure.	Where Seized.	Articles Seized.
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

H. A. WEBSTER,
13-td Collector of Customs.

NOTICE.

THE COPARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing between William H. Newton and James Keynes, under the firm name of Newton & Keynes, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued by Wm. H. Newton, who will pay all claims against and receive and collect all moneys due the late firm.

WM. H. NEWTON.
JAMES KEYNES.
Port Townsend, May 1, 1876. 12-1w

Music Lessons!

PARTIES WISHING TO TAKE LESSONS on the Organ are now presented with an opportunity for so doing. For particulars, or terms apply to MRS. F. H. VEDDER.
Port Townsend, May 4, 1876. 11-tf

NOTICE.

I WILL SELL ALL MY LAND BETween Sequim Bay and Port Angeles, [illegible] W. T., for seventy-five cents

WILLIAM CRASWELL.
Jr., May 1, 1876.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

O. F. GERRISH & CO

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

GENERAL

MERCHANDISE

OF EXTRA QUALITY.

HARDWARE,

House and Ship Carpenter's Tools,

SHIP CHANDLERY,

GROCERIES,

PROVISIONS,

Boots and Shoes,

WINES,

LIQUORS,

CIGARS, &C., &C.

AGRICULTURAL

IMPLEMENTS

Of all Kinds.

AGENTS FOR THE

BUCKEYE

MOWER & REAPER

HAINE'S HEADER

SWEEPSTAKE THRESHERS,

SEED-DRILLS

Taylor's Sulky Rakes,

LINE PLOWS.

Farm Wagons

&c., &c.,

[illegible]ices

W. T.

[illegible]

S

E!

[illegible]ttle Saw-Mill and Mill Property, by H. L. Yesler, will be the Prize of $100,000

[illegible]ker's Corner,

d the perty

GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

WATERMAN & KATZ,

SHIPPING AND COMMISSION

MERCHANTS

AND DEALERS IN

General Merchandise,

Keep Constantly on Hand

THE LARGEST STOCK

OF

ALL KINDS OF GOODS,

And will Sell

CHEAPER FOR CASH,

Than any House on Puget Sound.

E. J. CURLEY & CO.'S

Blue Grass Whiskey,

Pure and Unadulterated, below San Francisco Prices

Our Facilities for Purchasing in the Leading Markets are Superior to any.

We will give and take Exchange on

SAN FRANCISCO AND NEW YORK,

At the most Liberal Discount.

WATERMAN & KATZ.

GRAND

LOTTERY!

First Grand Lottery of Washington Territory,

LEGALIZED

By an Act of the Legislature, approved Nov. 12, 1875, [illegible] His Excellency, E. P. [illegible], Governor of the Territory.

CAPITAL

$300,000,

DIVIDED INTO

60,000 TICKETS,

AT $5.00 COIN EACH,

Or eleven for $50

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF KING County, Washington Territory, appointed M. S. Booth, Esq., Auditor King County; Hon. George H. Hill, U. S. A., Treasurer King County; and John Collins, Esq., Trustees, into whose hands the whole of the property is deeded in trust for the prize-holders.

TIBBALS & CO.'S

Superior Teams.

Teaming of all kinds done,

Vessels Discharged.

Best of Cord Wood, Cheap!

Water furnished to vessels & families;

FORWARDING AND COMMISSION BUSIness promptly attended to.

ALL BUSINESS ENTRUSTED TO OUR care will receive prompt and careful attention.

GOODS DELIVERED AND FREIGHTS collected by

H. L. TIBBALS & CO.,
Port Townsend, W. T.

DRUGS AND MEDICINES.

DRUGS,

PAINTS, OILS

STATIONERY, &C.,

Wholesale and Retail, by

N. D. HILL,

Port Townsend, W. T.

DRUGS,

MEDICINES,

CHEMICALS,

AND TRUSSES;

Patent Medicines of all Kinds.

GLASS,

[illegible]IR OILS,

[illegible]s used for the Toilet,

&c. &c. &c.

Quick Sales & Small Profits

☞ Prescriptions carefully compounded.

A Rare Chance!

SALOON AND BUSINESS FOR SALE.

THE UNDERSIGNED WILL DISPOSE of his Saloon, including stock and fixtures, on reasonable terms, if it has a good run of business, and will prove a safe investment. For particulars inquire on the premises, opposite the Cosmopolitan Hotel.

GEORGE STEMMING.
Port Townsend, Nov. 4, 1875.

P. S.

ONE YOK[illegible] LARGE WORK [illegible]

for Sale. For terms apply to

JOHN H. BARTLETT.
Port Townsend, April 27, 1876. 10-4w

GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

ROTHSCHILD & CO.

Forwarding

AND

Commission

MERCHANTS,

Port Townsend, W. T.

IMPORTERS,

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

DRY GOODS,

CLOTHING

Boots & Shoes,

SHIP CHANDLERY,

Tobacco and Cigars,

LIQUORS,

HARDWARE,

CROCKERY,

STATIONERY, &C.

EXCHANGE

On San Francisco, Eastern, and Principal Cities of Europe Bought and Sold.

Liberal Advances

MADE ON

Consignments.

The Highest Price Paid for Wool, Hides, Furs and Produce.

GOODS

Bought and Sold on

COMMISSION.

ROTHSCHILD & CO.

CALIFORNIA WINES, IMPORTED by us directly from the vineyards, in pipes, barrels, or quantities to suit. For sale at San Francisco rates by ROTHSCHILD & CO.

NEW AND FASHIONABLE Spring and Summer Goods received by the last steamer.
ROTHSCHILD & CO.

NEW DRESS GOODS, TRIMMED Hats, Ribbons, Buttons, Flowers, Embroideries, etc., latest styles.
ROTHSCHILD & CO.

GENTLEMEN'S CLOTHING and Furnishing Goods.
ROTHSCHILD & CO.

BEST ASSORTMENT OF CALIfornia manufactured Gold Sets, Ear Rings, Finger Rings, Breast and Cuff Pins, Sleeve and Collar Buttons Studs, Lockets, &c., that have ever been offered for sale on Puget Sound, received by last steamer, and for sale
ROTHSCHILD & CO.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PORT TOWNSEND

Boot & Shoe

STORE.

MEN'S, BOYS' LADIES', MISSES, AND CHILDREN'S

Boots & Shoes

Of the very best qualities and of the Latest Patterns.

Gent's and Ladies'

Arctic Over-Shoes.

Gent's, Ladies', Misses and Children's

Rubber Over-Shoes

Shoe Findings, Rigging Leather, Etc.

A complete assortment of Miscellaneous Stock!

Custom Work

And Repairing executed as usual, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ A fair share of the patronage of the public is solicited.

J. FITZPATRICK.

North Pacific Saloon

GERMANIA BEER HALL,

Opposite Delgardno's Hotel.

C. LOUIS SCHUR, PROPRIETOR.

THE BEST OF

LAGER, ALE & PORTER

Constantly on hand. Also, the BEST BRANDS OF CIGARS & TOBACCOS

Detroit Currency.

THE Empress of India is on good terms with Queen Victoria.

TROY exhibits 150 Centennial Sunday hats. Secure your railroad tickets now.

SETH GREENE has no sympathy for whales. He got too many of them when he was a schoolboy.

THE death of A. T Stewart will probably be taken by some men as another warning not to get rich.

AN Iowa Sunday-school doesn't mean to be fooled this year, and has fixed for a May-day party on the 1st of July.

DOM PEDRO'S wife is a little bit of a woman with dancing eyes, and she dances a quid of gum in her mouth when not in society.

IT is noticed that a man is just as mad if you point an empty gun at him as he is when the gun is loaded. Therefore put in a load.

SOME one has been stealing spittoons from the Louisiana State House. Can't lay it to the members, for they spit on the floor and walls.

A MEMBER of the Louisiana Legislature sent his wife sixteen calico dresses when he drew his first pay. Susan B. may deny it, but the facts are there.

A CINCINNATI physician says that people catch cold through their ears. He admits that his assertion is not meant to cover any case outside of that city.

BRIGHAM YOUNG has four family physicians, and he pays them by the year. His idea of a good doctor is: "A man who kills or cures within a week."

IT was a very kind-hearted man who proposed to ballast a new Southern railroad with sawdust, so that people wouldn't be hurt much when they fell off the cars.

INDIANA papers have found out that California beats the Hoosier State for divorces. A Sacramento judge isn't over twelve minutes breaking a family all to pieces.

THE Chinese cheapen American labor in California, but are not white men patriotic enough to work for the same wages which a blamed foreigner can get rich on?

THE St. Louis Republican calls for a city ordinance to force tramps to earn their bread and butter. Suppose a tramp doesn't like bread and butter, but wants sweetcake?

A BOSTON doctor says that people who chew gum a great deal are apt to have softening of the brain. Some doctors believe that the softening comes before the chewing.

THE Rochester Chronicle wants to know why any man who can get out of St. Louis will stay there. Some one has to remain to take care of the mud and keep the postoffice open.

AN old railroad traveler says there are not ten hotels in the United States where a man can get a good cup of coffee. He thinks all hotel drinks can be put under the head of "slops."

A DEAF man living in Connecticut always walks on the railroad track when he can. He has been lifted off several times by locomotives, but he sticks to it that railroad routes save time.

A BROKEN heart can't be seen and is easily mended. A broken nose knocks a man's beauty all to pieces. And yet Wisconsin juries put a broken heart at $5,000 damage, and a broken nose at $200.

A MAN from Michigan has been a clerk in government service at Washington for the last sixteen years, and he brags that he has had to change his political and religious views but two hundred and eight times.

IT would do some of the first settlers of Jamestown, Virginia, good to come to life and take a peep at that town. They would find everything about as they left it, only a little older, with more knotholes to be seen.

A Revolutionary Incident.

A most thrilling reminiscence of the American Revolution is related of Gen. Muhlenberg, whose ashes repose in the old Trappe Church, Montgomery county, Virginia.

When the war broke out, Muhlenberg was a rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Dunmore county. On a Sunday morning he administered the communion of the Lord's Supper to his charge, stating that in the afternoon of that day he would preach a sermon on "The duties men owe to their country." At the appointed time the building was crowded with anxious listeners. The discourse was founded on a text from Solomon, "There is a time for every purpose and for every work." The sermon burned with patriotic fire; every sentence and intonation told the speaker's deep earnestness in what he was saying. Pausing a moment at the close of his discourse, he repeated the words of the text, and then in a tone of thunder exclaimed: "The time to preach is past; the time to fight has come!" and suiting the action to the word he threw from his shoulders his robes, and stood before the congregation in military uniform. Drumming for recruits was commenced on the spot, and it is said that almost every male of suitable age in the congregation enlisted forthwith.

A DYING MAN'S HEROISM.—Superintendent Flint, of the Midland railroad, after a severe snow storm, mounted the engine which propelled a snow plough and proceeded to clear the track. The snow plough and engine which started half an hour in advance of the mail train had arrived at the trestle work crossing of the Willowemoc, when, with a sudden crash, the whole expedition was precipitated twenty feet into the rocky bed of the stream below—engine, snow plough, rails and bridge timbers in one confused mass. All escaped uninjured except Superintendent Flint. He was entangled in the ruins. Held fast by an iron monster that had fallen across his lower extremities, enveloped in clouds of escaping steam, he was found by his companions who endeavored to extricate him from his perilous position, and though suffering agony, rallied his ebbing strength and called out, "Stop that mail train." Having said this, he died. The train was stopped, and its load of passengers that an instant before were rushing on to quick and certain destruction, gathered around and tenderly took up the remains of him who, in his dying agony, had remembered their peril, and by averting it had won his right to the title of hero.—Hudson Star.

A MAN in Providence, who was recently bitten by a mad dog, has paid all his bills and made his will. It may be very wicked, but some of the tailors and shoemakers in Providence are now praying that a large number of the young men of the place may be bitten by mad dogs, too. —Chicago Tribune.

Marshal Stalk.—A Shakespearean Character.

Adrien de Montfort says in his reminiscences of actors in Wilkes' Spirit: It was very generally known in the community, particularly among scholars and the journalistic profession, that the celebrated comedian W. E. Burton had gathered the finest Shakespearean libraries in the country, and it was not an unusual thing for him to receive applications for the privilege to examine some particular work, apropos of some question of construction or debatable point of peculiar meanings and phrases, etc. These privileges were generally accorded, as they flattered the very pardonable pride of the owner of such valuable text-books. On one occasion a young gentleman was admitted with an introduction from a well known legal practitioner at the New York bar, who desired to "read up" on certain points about which a wager had been made.

"The bearer," the letter went on to say, "is a student at Columbia College, and to him has been left the decision of the most question. You will permit him, I feel assured, to examine the authorities."

The comedian introduced the stranger to his library, and as he had "business abroad" left him among the precious volumes. Later in the day, when Burton returned to his house, he found the student still occupied in his researches. He judged from the number of displaced volumes, that he had been badly engaged in the search. At last, thinking he might be of service to the young gentleman, an offer of assistance was made and accepted.

"What particular passage do you seek?" inquired Burton.

"I am looking for one of the dramatis personæ," was the reply, "but thus far I have been unsuccessful. The assertion has been made that there is one character mentioned in some one of Shakespeare's plays which is never cast; indeed, that although it is always named, no one has ever been known to perform it."

"And what may the character be?"

"Marshal Stalk," replied the verdant youth.

The "Governor" at once perceived that a practical joke had been perpetrated upon the student, and so he came to his relief.

"You will find it in Hamlet," he said; "but you will perceive that, although he accompanies the Ghost to the wings, and even to the spot from which he is seen by other characters, he never comes upon the stage."

"Then," inquired the victim, "how do we know that he really exists?"

"Simply because those who see him record the fact. Here is the line:

'See where he comes with martial stalk.'

Of course, did they not see him, they could not mention him."

The argument was convincing, and the young man went away to settle the wager according to the light that had been given him. Burton used to relate the incident with keen appreciation.

The Victim of a Parisian Upholsterer.

The Paris correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin says there is just now a "exhibiting" published in Paris, the interior of a private hotel charmingly situated in the Avenue Gabriel, facing the Champs Elysees. It was purchased a year or two ago, by a wealthy Peruvian, or who supposed himself to be wealthy, as a speculator in mines. This is just the sort of individual, rolling in ready money, whom a fatuitous Parisian upholsterer and decorator delights to get hold of and "bleed" while his veins are full. The poor man is probably only just removed from a savage, very fond of finery and display, grossly ignorant and uneducated, and hardly able to do more than write checks on his banker, which is, no doubt, quite enough for the purposes he is wanted for. Well, this luckless wight fell into the hands of a first-rate Parisian house, well known for its taste—and itscharges. They indulged him with an ambition to "furnish and decorate;" and, moreover, to give them a carte blanche as to expenditure. I wish I could hope to convey to you any idea of what the result has been. One result, indeed, is easily told, which you will readily anticipate, and that is that the unfortunate gentleman has been "used up" almost before he had settled himself in his hotel, after some three years spent in "furnishing and decorating" at a cost (besides the price of the hotel) of more than a million. Considering that the house is not large, and that the above sum has been expended solely in "furnishing," properly so-called—that is to say, without works of art or objects to the price of which there is no limit—you may well suppose that all mere "upholstering" could do has been done. And such, in fact, is the case; and our Peruvian can hardly complain that in that respect he has not had his money's worth, such as it is. Never, perhaps, was a more costly and beautiful exhibition seen of modern French furniture of the highest quality. The house has been thrown open for public exhibition the whole of this week, previous to a sale the week after. It is left precisely in the state in which it has just been finished, and hardly inhabited. Four almost gigantic statues on revolving pedestals, of the "Four Seasons," placed in the four corners of the principal saloon, and which cost 150,000 francs, were brought home, an attendant told me, only two days ago! Everything is still brand new; and it was pitiable to see a motley crowd treading upon the exquisite Aubusson carpets, handling draperies of Lyons silks so rich that they would stand upright of themselves, or sitting down upon chairs and couches of the finest Gobelins tapestry [illegible] no description could convey [illegible] on idea of the costliness and [illegible] this millions' worth of decora[illegible] been reduced bring it under th[illegible] tioneer.

[illegible] master of the violin [illegible] rics of concerts in P[illegible] some of the fire of [illegible] violin is still, as eve[illegible] part of his tall, swo[illegible] caressed it and hugged it clos[illegible] one would a petted child; an[illegible] touch of his gentle, coaxing bo[illegible] from it such sweet, melodious [illegible] far-away tender recollections, [illegible] glimpses of another and b[illegible] world; There is not the fine technic[illegible] Joachim, but with Ole Bull one is glad to be rid of it. It is like the music of the Æolian harp, to which we listen transfixed, and care not to know whence comes the power that captivates and bewilders us. This is the last tour the old master will ever make, after which he will retire to his old Norwegian home.—Home Journal.

THE Kentucky Legislature has passed a bill taxing all dogs over three years of age $2 each. Dogs refusing to give their ages to the census enumerators will be dealt with summarily.

Old Rome and New Romans.

BY JOAQUIN MILLER.

Out yonder to the south, beyond the walls of Rome, and five, ten, twenty miles away, lies old Rome, lifting here and there above the earth some broken bit of the skeleton of her own mighty proportions. And down here by the Tiber, immediately under us as we stand on the Spanish steps and look west, we see shafts of marble, old columns that lift like mossy tombstones on the grave of the great dead city. There lies Rome on the banks of the Tiber, old Rome dead, very dead, and buried in the dust and the debris of ten and fifteen centuries.

On the side of this dead city, out of the side of its grave, as it were, even out of the dust and bones and ashes of this great dead city, has grown a sort of mushroom. The mushroom is modern Rome.

New Rome is here, pushed back from the Tiber, back on to the higher land, for they could not build closer, because of the immense ruins; and then the Tiber overflowed, too. But here is new Rome to-day—a very rickety town it is, too, compared with the old one. You might call it a toadstool grown up out of the bones of the dead, and not be far wrong.

Here are shops, banks, saloons for refreshments, fashionable resorts for fashionable gamblers and fast women; fashionable modern improvements of civilization.

Here are sidewalks and wide streets, and well-paved drives, all giving the new town an infinite advantage over the old town there in the Ghetto where the Jews are.

Here are also pained women, fast and frivolous; gay young men, giving their fortunes free rein; broken foreigners and threadbare Romans; and many other things which make a man who is in egress with the world and himself infinitely prefer the old town, even as it is now, with all its rags and wretchedness, to the new. New Rome is, in fact, a kind of imitation Paris. It may not be quite so wicked, but it certainly does its best, and is improving in that direction every season. I met with an artist my first year in Rome, and I saw old Rome thoroughly, and liked it far better than the new.

In Rome ours was a life of extremes. We had been among the miserable all winter. We had settled away down to the very dregs from what was reckoned about the fashionable world. This I had done by choice; but now that the sun was out again, and winter nearly gone in fact and in fancy, and a new life was being offered, we both chose to accept it. We had ranged society in all its shades and grades with a freedom and a facility that was amusing even to ourselves to think of.

"I have seen it all," said my friend, "from the open-air reception of the crossing-sweeper up to the first step of the throne. It is a little better than a comedy down about the bottom, but not quite so good as a funeral as you get to the top. Perhaps the best place for the whole range is a calling acquaintance with those who are just a little below or a good distance above 'shop.'"

In mushroom Rome you always find this Italian at the door. He is the faithful sentinel. When Rome comes to be destroyed like Pompeii, as it probably will, it will be this man, this porter with the military cap, with its gold band, and military clothes with gold stripes, who sits at every door of fashionable Rome, who will, centuries after, be found in the ashes and ruins, dead at his post!

No, it will not be the Roman soldier this time! It will be the Italian porter with the military cap and military clothes, for he will be sound asleep and cannot escape.

This porter of mushroom Rome seems to never do anything whatever but sleep—but to take toll and sleep. He wakes up just long enough to take the payment of your frane, or half-frane, and then he settles back in his coffin at the side of the door, and peacefully sleeps right before your eyes.

What a conscience he must have!

Down in old Rome, real Rome, they also have porters. But these porters are shoemakers, and they sit either outside the door or inside the hall. There is no house so humble in Rome that it has not its porter. And these porters of the Ghetto are great men. They sit there all day, and talk and work, and work and talk, and truly seem to be very wise and learned. They know even more than the French barber, and, if such a thing were possible, could even talk faster than he. There is always a crowd around the porter in the Ghetto. He is a sort of bulletin-board, and the poor Jews, and the fishermen, and the chestnut women come and stand before him, and read the news as he prods, and pegs, and pokes, and pounds away at his knees.

When you first visit this part of old Rome, you wonder why in the world there are so many shoemakers. After you have walked half a mile over the villainous sharp little stones set up pavement and sidewalk, you cease wonder.

It was a strange dress for [illegible] ave this. But in this intense and [illegible] sionate country, where the bl[illegible] warm, and the imagination is [illegible] fired by beauty and boastin[illegible] the work-bench is languid [illegible] the body clad [illegible] sunshine, colo[illegible] only admire.

The common [illegible] unite in mo[illegible]

Thanks "From the Depths of the Heart."

WELLINGTON, Lorain Co., O., Aug. 24, 1874.
DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
Dear Sir—Your medicines, Golden Medical Discovery, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, have proved of the greatest service to me. Six months ago no one thought that I could possibly live long. I had a complication of diseases,—scrofula, manifesting itself in eruptions and great blotches on my head that made it so sore that I could not have my hair combed without causing me much suffering; also causing swollen glands, tonsils enlarged, sores on my neck, and large and numerous boils. I also suffered from a terrible Chronic Catarrh, and in fact I was so diseased that life was a burden to me. I had tried many doctors with no benefit. I finally procured one-half dozen bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery and one dozen Sage's Catarrh Remedy and commenced their use. At first I was badly discouraged, but after taking four bottles of the Discovery I began to improve, and when I had taken the remaining I was well. In addition to the use of Discovery I applied a solution of Iodine to the Goitre or thick neck, as you advise in pamphlet wrapping, and it entirely disappeared. Your Discovery is certainly the most wonderful blood medicine ever invented. I thank God and you, from the depths of my heart, for the great good it has done me.
Very gratefully,
MRS. L. CHAFFEE.

Most medicines which are advertised as blood purifiers and liver medicines contain either mercury, in some form, or potassium and iodine variously combined. All of these agents have strong tendency to break down the blood corpuscles, and debilitate and otherwise injure the human system, and should therefore be discarded. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, on the other hand, being composed of the fluid extracts of native plants, barks and roots, will in no case prove the least injury, its effects being strengthening and curative only. Sarsaparilla, which used to enjoy quite a reputation as a blood purifier, is a remedy of thirty years ago, and may well give place as it is doing, to the more positive and valuable vegetable alteratives which later medical investigation and discovery has brought to light. In Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammation, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin and Sore Eyes as in all other blood diseases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has shown its great remedial powers, curing the most obstinate and intractable cases. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Wonderful.

The rapid growth in popularity of the Yerba Buena Bitters is something wonderful. In a little more than two years from its first introduction to the public, without the aid of capital to push it, but simply upon its own unparalleled merits as a cathartic and regulator, it has attained to a degree of importance as a remedial agency unknown in the annals of medicine. From its first starting-point, its first trial, it has been advancing step by step, from city to city, from town to town, from state to state, until to-day it is being sold by every respectable druggist, and has become a household necessity in every family upon this coast. The prestiges of its forty-year disease has been wafted by the grateful voices of thousands of restored sufferers to other lands; and from all quarters of the earth come inquiries and orders for California's sovereign remedy for the suffering. Among important foreign houses that have requested and obtained exclusive agencies for and ordered large invoices, are Duke & Co., of Calcutta, India, and Harvey & Jamieson, of Constantinople, Turkey. James A. Scoville, of Chicago, has also solicited the exclusive agency of that city, and ordered a large bill of Bitters. The manufacturers have now in this State four wagons traveling in the farming districts, that are selling at the rate of twelve gross per week, and orders are coming in for goods faster than with their present facilities the firm is able to fill. They have recently doubled it twice within two years, and from present prospects will be compelled soon to enlarge again. We are glad to see them thus upon a success so eminently deserved.

CANCER CAN BE CURED.—DR. BOND, of Philadelphia, announces his discovery for the radical cure of Cancer, No Knife! No Pain! No Caustic! Remedies with full directions sent any where. Physicians and sufferers are sent free. Address with stamp, Dr. H. T. BOND, 839 North Broad st., Philadelphia, Pa.

ANY disease of the bladder and kidneys, dropsical swellings, gravel, diabetes and Bright's disease speedily subdued by the infallible Dr. Kearney's Extract Buchu, the only reliable remedy for those diseases in male or female. Sold by druggists everywhere.

CURED FOR FOUR DIMES.—After spending hundreds of dollars for doctors' fees, I was cured at last of rheumatism by investing four bits in a flask of Trapper's Indian Oil."

MULLER'S PEBBLE SPECTACLES
DIRECTION AND PRICE LIST MAILED
Orders by mail receive prompt attention forwarded per mail, Freight & Co., C.O.D.
approval. Address C. MULLER, Opt' factory 34, near Fourth, San Francisco.

HEALD'S BUSINESS C[illegible]
THIS IS AN EMPHATIC WORD FOR IT
Is educated thoroughly and fully. Young men should examine it [illegible] new term. For [illegible]
the office, 11 Post St., or address E. P

MODERN PALACE OF ART, 9
St., San Francisco
EVERY PAS[illegible]
Made by Agents.
$10 a $25 per d[illegible]
$5 a $20 per day at h[illegible]
$60 [illegible] new. Stea[illegible]
$250 [illegible]
PERFECT PE[illegible]
1,000 Illus[illegible]
Endorsed by [illegible]
Agents wanted.
GO!
A. WRIG[illegible]

CALVERT'S
CARBOLIC
SHEEP WASH
1 per gallon.
T. W. CALVERT, San Francisco, sole Agent for United States and Canada.

C. & P. H. TIRRELL & CO.,
IMPORTERS AND MANUFACTURERS OF
BOOTS AND SHOES,
NO. 419 CLAY STREET,
Between Sansome and Battery, SAN FRANCISCO
Manufacturers of Men's, Boys', Youth's, and Children's FINE CALF BOOTS.
Orders solicited and promptly filled. All sizes and qualities made at the lowest market prices.
Former Factories for Boots and Shoes

CANCER CAN BE TREATED WITH SUCCESS
At the home of the patient Without the use of the KNIFE OR CAUSTICS and without pain. Address DR. R. H. BROWN, NEW HAVEN, CONN.
Correspondence from physicians also solicited.

WAKELEE'S
Squirrel and Gopher
EXTERMINATOR
THE MOST CONVENIENT AND ECONOMICAL agent for the destruction of Squirrels, Gophers, Mice, etc. Is accepted by the Squirrel Inspectors and principal farmers in nearly every county in California. Received the premium of the State Agricultural Society, 1875.
Testimonials could be furnished from our most experienced farmers, but a trial is all that is required.
H. P. WAKELEE & CO.,
Druggists,
Importers Drugs, Chemicals, etc.
[illegible] Agents and Managers Golden City Chemical Works.
OFFICE—COR. MONTGOMERY & BUSH STS., S. F.

You should Insure your Life in the PACIFIC
Mutual Life Insurance Co.
OF CALIFORNIA,
No. 41 Second St., Sacramento.
ACCUMULATED FUND, NEARLY
$1,650,000.
$100,000 Approved Securities deposited with the California State Department as Security for Policy-Holders everywhere.
LELAND STANFORD, ... President.
J. H. CARROLL, ... Vice-President.
A. C. VALLIANT, ... Secretary.
Issues every description of approved Life, Endowment, and Joint Life Policies, payable in gold or currency, at the option of the insurer, at rates not higher than other companies. Policyholders receive a higher rate of interest on its investments than is received by any other Life Insurance Company in the country.
Insure Now, for though you may be well to-day, next week or next month you may become uninsurable.
JEFFRESS & CRAWFORD,
GENERAL AGENTS,
215 Sansome Street, • San Francisco.

V. S. W. PARKHURST,
CORNER of Market and Fremont streets, San Francisco, Cal., has the exclusive agency on the Pacific Coast for the MARGINAL INDEX DIARY,
(Patented). Price $2.00, sent to any address on receipt of price.
The size of this book is 9x12 inches, and contains 52 pages, ruled and printed on the [illegible] quality of tinted writing paper, and is neatly bound in [illegible] leather, in pocket book style. You can turn from [illegible] to any day in the year. Every one [illegible] to [illegible] Diary. Every one [illegible] use it. Manufactured by the [illegible] Manufacturing Company, [illegible] Montgomery Block, [illegible] Francisco. Wholesale [illegible] or sent postpaid to [illegible] address on receipt of [illegible] Liberal discount [illegible] Agents wanted. [illegible]

FISH BROS. & CO.'S
Pacific Farm, Spring and Header Wagons.
The best painted, the best proportioned, the best ironed, and the Best Wagon on Wheels, we can sell a better SPRING WAGON FOR LESS MONEY than any firm in California, comprising Two Spring "Specie Beds" and Platform Spring Delivery Wagons; Three and Four Spring Express Wagons both with pouts and Barnes's Best Patent Wheels.
Linforth, Kellogg & Co.,
General Agents for Pacific Coast.
3 and 5 FRONT ST., SAN FRANCISCO.
KELLER & CO., Agents, SACRAMENTO.

REMOVAL.
GEO. W. CLARK,
Formerly of 833 Pine Street,
HAS REMOVED TO 645 MARKET ST.,
Two Doors West of Palace Hotel,
SAN FRANCISCO.
WHERE HE NOW OFFERS TO THE TRADE and at Retail an elegant stock of Paper-Hangings and Decorations!
AT REDUCED PRICES.
Comprising Designs suitable for Parlors, Dining-Rooms, Halls, Chambers, Offices, etc., etc.
King's Superior Beaded Window Hollands of all colors and widths. WINDOW SHADES of every description manufactured to order.

BAKER & HAMILTON,
7 to 19 Front St., SAN FRANCISCO. | 9 to 15 J Street, SACRAMENTO.

ROOFING!
PLASTIC ROOFING IN ROLLS: ANY ONE CAN put it on. Any kind of a roof. Worn Roofs Painted put up in cans and barrels, for old Tin Roofs. Warehouse Floors laid with Asphalt. Work done in any part of the State. Send for circulars.
N. P. FERRIS, 625 Market St., S. F.
CALIFORNIA WIRE WORKS,
Established in 1858.
ECKFELDT & CO.,
WIRE CO
Of all kinds. Agents for Holloway quincy, 442 Clay Street
Send for circular and price list.

COLE
MEDAL AWARDED
[illegible] PACIFIC [illegible]
STEAM PUMPS
WILCOCK PATENT FEED
114 and 116 BEALE ST., SAN FRANCISCO

AGENTS WANTED.
CENTENNIAL MEDALLIC
Struck in solid Alaska Fruit, equal in appearance to gold. Fruit, equal in appearance to gold. Fruit, equal in appearance to gold.