GEN. McMICKEN.

This pleasant and affable gentleman has gone East to vindicate his reputation as an officer at Washington, as charges have been made against him by one Chapman. What the whole thing will amount to, it is hard to say, but if Chapman has the cheek to continue his attacks upon McMicken after the polishing-off he received at the hands of Gen. James Tilton, well known to every old resident of the Territory.

But there is evidently some deep-laid conspiracy against Gen. McMicken, or he would not feel obliged to go to Washington, to save his position or his reputation as an officer. The latter is something that affects his future, the former does not. At best he has but sixty days or so to serve; for Tilden is certain to be President and he would not be apt to appoint any Republicans to office.

"HOSEATTLE."

[The first number of the Academic Journal, published by the pupils of the Olympia Union Academy, and edited by Allan Weir, one of the scholars in that institution, is now upon our table. We must congratulate that young gentleman in having got out a very readable paper, assisted as he is by a very able corps of young contributors.

"Hoseattle is a small harbor situated about fifteen miles from Tatoosh lighthouse, at the mouth of the straits of Juan De Fuca. Tatoosh lighthouse is built upon a small island just outside of Cape Flattery. Around this place, in the winter season, fogs and mists almost continually settle during the day-time, and are blown away by the winds at night, so that it usually presents a gray and sombre aspect.

Traveling along the shore in a southerly direction toward Hoseattle, the cliffs become more bold and forbidding—the shore having been lashed, by the fury of the waves, into frightful chasms and yawning gulfs. Looking outward, the great Pacific stretches as far as the eye can reach, and even in his calmest moments, is a fitting type of unrest.

Eastward the landscape rises into a scene of the wildest grandeur. Piled high up toward Heaven are successive ridges surmounted by stately forests, or bared to the fury of the elements.

The $800,000 claim of Ben Holladay, for miles run off by the Indians on the plains in 1863-64, and for which he has already been paid fully all they were worth, will come up in the present Congress.

Justice Bradley was yesterday chosen the fifth member of the judicial branch of the electoral commission.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

That burning planet in the "Swan"—A visit to the U. S. Naval Observatory—An institution that has escaped notice by the Press—"Camp Hill," and its history—The "Greenwich," of the United States—Beginning of an interesting sketch—Etc., etc.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17, 1877.

The recent discovery of an "exploded" planet in the constellation of the Swan has set the astronomers to thinking, and speculating upon the possibility of a similar catastrophe happening to our own mother earth. From the published reports, it appears that most of the eminent astronomers of the present day both in this country and in Europe, opine that we are in no immediate danger, and that if such a calamity should happen, it will probably be some 8,000,000 years before it occurs; and a great many others (among the eminent astronomer and scientist, Professor Parkhurst,) think that the peculiar condition of affairs now witnessed in that remote star are the same as those to which our own planet was subjected while in a gaseous state, and before it assumed its solid form.

It was this reflection which caused your correspondent to make a trip out to the Naval Observatory on "Camp Hill," despite the rain and slush. The day was anything but favorable; dark, dreary and dismal; and even at night the heavens were clouded, so that there was not the remotest chance of getting a glimpse at the coveted star.

Before arriving, it had been my purpose to simply ask some questions in regard to the phenomena in the "Swan" constellation; but finding so much of interest to be seen there, which, as I afterwards learned, had never "appeared in print" before, I concluded to make a more thorough investigation, for, curious to say, while almost every possible subject, from the Capitol down to the dog-pond, in the Nition's Capital has been "written up" at some time or other, the observatory seems to remain an exception; which is probably owing to the fact that it is so disagreeable and difficult of access, especially in winter.

To "begin with the beginning," then, the so-called Naval Observatory is located on an eminence in the southwest part of Washington, known as "Camp Hill." This name was attributed to the hill in question from the fact that it was occupied by the American army as a camping ground in the years 1813 and 1814.

Referring to some old files of the National Intelligencer, I find that on August 23, 1814, a brigade of militia, including Stull's and Peter's riflemen, and a battalion of troops from Alexandria, having camped on the hill on the evening of August 23, advanced the following morning on Bladensburg, for the defence of Washington against the threatened attacks of General Ross and Admiral Cockburn.

Indeed, the earliest trace on record identifying Camp Hill, appears to be in connection with General Braddock's march against Fort Duquesne, in the early part of the Colonial wars. By reference to a volume of "Braddock's Expedition," by Winthrop Sargent, in the Congressional Library, I find there in the following entries: "April 11, 1755, four companies of the forty-fourth regiment under command of Lieutenant Gage, and a detachment of sailors from Alexandria, landed this day from the boats of the Sea Horse and the Nightingale, and pitched their tents on a high elevation on the borders of the Potomac, a short distance east of Rock Creek." No other elevation than this could possibly be referred to.

So much for the early history of the site where the Naval Observatory is now located. "National" Observatory it used to be called formerly, and with more propriety; for although under the immediate control and supervision of the Secretary of the Navy, the Observatory is national in character and in the scope of its operations, and is confined to no one sphere of action, nor limited to any one Department.

In my next letter, I will give some account of the progress of this institution down to the present day, and of the work that has been accomplished there, quietly and unostentatiously, to be sure, but none the less important.

NEW TO-DAY.

A CARD

TO ALL THOSE WHO SUBSCRIBED AID FOR REMOVING THE SKAGIT RIVER JAM.

I desire to correct certain false insinuations, reflecting upon my honesty, that appeared in a recent number of the "Daily Intelligencer." Having resided a long time adjacent to the Skagit river settlement, where all my interests are centered, and being actuated by a generous desire to assist my neighbors to prosper and to render whatever enterprising aid I could to open up our section of the country to settlement, meeting some of the party at Seattle, I volunteered to visit some of the towns on the Sound to solicit what aid I could for the benefit of those men who voluntarily undertook to cut out the jams in the Skagit river.

[FROM THE DAILY OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Associate Justice Davis, as soon as the bill passed both Houses constituting the electoral vote commission, notified his associates and other friends that in the event of his being offered a place on the judicial branch of the commission, under no circumstances would he suffer his name to be used in this connection. He considers it indelicate, after being elected a Senator, to take a position open to criticism. He declines absolutely to reconsider his decision.

The four members of the Supreme Court required by the electoral act to serve on the judicial branch of the commission were this afternoon each furnished with a certified copy of the act by the Secretary of State. They will to-morrow meet and select the fifth associate, in accordance with its provisions.

The President, in his message approving the act providing for counting the electoral votes, says he believes the bill gives assurance of the result of the election, and will be accepted without resistance from the supporters of the disappointed candidates, and that the highest officer of the government shall not hold his place with a questioned title or right. The message also alludes to the imminent peril the country has escaped through the adoption of the act. The document further declares that in no instance had the President of the Senate exercised the power of deciding the disputed election returns in such a case as this, where the result is involved in doubt. It is the duty of the law-making power to provide in advance a lawful mode of settling the difficulty. One of the two candidates must have been elected, and it would be a deplorable sight to witness a controversy as to which should receive or hold the office. No party of citizens loving their country can sacrifice too much in preserving their country. Law, liberty and progress can only exist through cheerful obedience to constitutional law. The bill is calculated to meet the present question. The country requires peace and harmony between all sections.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Alexander H. Stephens, representative from Georgia, is dead. [Later dispatches contradict the above report.]

The President signed the electoral bill at noon to-day.

Democratic Senators in caucus this afternoon selected Thurman and Bayard as the Senators from the Democratic side of the chamber to act as members of the commission of fifteen, to be appointed to-morrow under the electoral count bill.

At the adjourned meeting of the Republican caucus this afternoon Edmunds, Morton and Frelinghuysen were unanimously chosen to be members of the Senate branch of the commission, and they will be formally elected to-morrow, together with Thurman and Bayard. All five, it will be noticed, were members of the joint commission which framed and reported the compromise bill. The proceedings of the caucus this afternoon were entirely harmonious.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Some comments have recently been made respecting Associate Justice Swayne in connection with the judicial branches of the electoral vote, the commission arising out of the alleged business relations with Tilden. There is authority for saying this gentleman never was engaged in any speculation with Tilden, nor did they ever own jointly or separately interests in stock of the same corporation, or in the same property of any kind, real estate, personal or mixed. They were associated with others as counsel in a single railroad case, but that case was closed and Swayne's connection with it terminated before he became judge of the Supreme Court in 1862.

The World's Washington special says of Pelton's Oregon telegrams: The dispatches in cipher relate to expenses incurred for counsel and other purposes, in all $6,200—a $3,000 retaining fee to the Republican firm when it was supposed the case would go before the courts, $3,000 to Cronin and $300 traveling expenses. Some of the cipher dispatches were read last night and the rest will be. None, it may be said upon authority, contain compromise statements; all relating to the use of money just indicated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The Republican caucus has chosen Garfield and Hoar representatives of the party on the House branch to tripartite electoral commission. McCrary declined the nomination. Hoar had 42 votes to 40 for Hale. Garfield's election was unanimous.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Herald's Washington special says: Morton declines to serve on the electoral commission. Bayard and Thurman will probably be the Democratic members. The Democrats in the House will probably choose Hunton and Lamar; for the other places, Abbott, McMahon, Lynde, Jinks and Knott are the favorites.

The Times' Washington special says as to formation of the commission on electoral count, possibly the Senate commission will consist of Edmunds, Frelinghuysen and Morton. There is a strong desire to have Morton on the commission, and it is possible one member of it may be chosen who was not on the joint committee. Some are opposed to including any member of that committee. No doubt Edmunds and Frelinghuysen desire Hayes inaugurated, and believe him to have been lawfully elected, but they have taken a rather curious method to convey that information.

ROME, Jan. 29.—The congregation of Cardinals which was ordered by the Pope for examination of the clerical-abuses bill has unanimously declared that it violates the liberty of the clergy. It is said that the Pope will publicly protest.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The Times has a story that many consuls and American merchants are guilty of robbing the government in the matter of importations. No names are mentioned, but the whole affair is likely to be published.

John Kain, aged six years, son of wealthy parents, was yesterday abducted from the school connected with the Church of the Transfiguration by an unknown man, who gave him money and sweetmeats.

Silver bars, 30%; silver coin, par; gold closed at 5 1/2 @ 5 1/4.

A gang of fire insurance policy swindlers has been broken up by the arrest to-day of Wm. S. Hale, of Plainfield, N. J. The swindling firm of which the accused was a member was that of Hale, Whitney, Porter & Co., having an office at 175 Broadway. Over fifty victims have been swindled out of sums ranging from $500 to $2500.

The Times says Tilden, O'Connor, Pelham and Schell had a conference to-day at the Astor House. Several other lawyers and politicians were also present, including Gen. Fremont. The result, if any was arrived at, is unknown.

Yesterday a gentleman called on the President of the East River Bank, stating that his name was Cyrus G. Clark, and took from his pocket a number of Central Pacific Railroad bonds, representing a face value of $21,000. On these he asked a loan of $12,000. The President asked to have them left for examination, when they proved to be counterfeit. Clark was held for examination.

The report of Fackler, the expert appointed to examine into the affairs of the New Jersey Mutual Life Insurance Company, shows that the annual statement was grossly incorrect. The books showed many strange entries, not explainable by any one but the missing President. The assets are estimated at $128,000; liabilities, $1,630,000. Its business has been loosely conducted, the books carelessly kept, etc.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Treasury Department to-day destroyed $1,070,000 in legal tenders, being 80 per cent. of the National Bank circulation issued during the month.

Four batteries of artillery stationed at the arsenal, have been ordered to Fortress Monroe. It is thought other troops will leave for the North and West to-day.

At 3 o'clock one of the Associate Justices stated that they had not yet finished the matter of the selection of the fifth member of the judicial branch of the electoral commission. The commission will consist of the following members: Senators, Edmunds, Morton, Frelinghuysen and Bayard; Representatives Payne, Hunt, Abbott, Garfield and Hoar; Supreme Court Justices Clifford, Strong, Miller and Field. The fifth member is to be selected from among Associate Justices Swayne, Davis, Bradley and Hunt.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—Daniel O'Neill, editor of the Pittsburgh Dispatch and widely known, is dead.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 30.—By the capsizing of a skiff, this afternoon, four young men were washed over the falls; two losing their lives and the others being rescued.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The Standard's dispatch from Vienna says negotiations between the Ottoman ambassadors and the Serbian diplomatic agent have already commenced.

The Pera correspondent of the Telegraph announces positively that Gortschakoff has resolved to retire, and his resignation is merely a question of a few days. The same correspondent declares that the Russian army of the south is about to be withdrawn, and only eight thousand men will remain there.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says that the memorandum of Powers was settled shortly before the conclusion of the conference. Since the conference closed, however, hesitation seems to have arisen which explains Russia's silence.

A special from Vienna reports that, in consequence of the refusal of France to send instructions for the proposed gen d'armes to Turkey, the Porte has now made overtures to Austria.

A special from Pera says Turkey wishes to have Mr. Chave as financial administrator. England's intentions are unknown, but it is understood she will not nominate a minister for Turkey until peace is decided. A Vienna telegram to the same paper says that England as well as Russia has advised Prince Milan to conclude peace, if he can do so on proper terms.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The committee on the Florida election reported to-night. They say it is difficult to conceive of more wanton attempts to defeat the will of the people and impose on the State and country, officers not their choice, than is here presented. It has been judicially ascertained that the persons named upon the face of the returns as having received the highest number of votes, were elected, and the committee say that in order to ascertain who were chosen Presidential electors, the House has only to look upon the face of the record and read the words and figures which determine that result. The committee are of the opinion that the facts have been judicially determined, and that the Hayes electors did not receive a majority of the votes cast at the election. And in this is involved a denial of their right to cast their votes as Presidential electors, and no determination, other than that which has been made by the Supreme Court of Florida, is required to show that the act of these electors in casting their votes for President and Vice President is illegal and void. All papers before the canvassing board applying to them all the statutes of Florida, will give 90 majority for Tilden and Hendricks beyond dispute.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Judge Lawrence has denied the application of Rufus Hatch and other stockholders of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad Company for a mandamus to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, to give access to give access to transfer books of the railroad, the object being to communicate with the rest of the stockholders as to the alleged mismanagement of the road by W. H. Vanderbilt and other directors. The court hold that no exigency exists for the writ, as allegations are fully met in respondent's affidavit.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Jan. 31.—Jacob Strab, a citizen of Springfield, just returned from a visit to his parents near Strosburg, Prussia, gives the particulars of his arrest by Prussian officials, and enforced service in the army. He finally escaped to France after many hardships and embarked for this country. His friends will call attention of the State department at Washington to the case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Speaker Randall having decided to appoint two Democrats as tellers to count the electoral votes, President Ferry will appoint two Republicans. Ferry desired one of each party to be appointed, but Randall demurred.

The Commission will meet to-morrow at 11 o'clock and adopt rules, choose clerks, marshal, stenographers, and decide whether the sessions shall be public or secret.

PACIFIC COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—Negotiations have been opened looking to the purchase of the Grand Opera House by John McCollough, of the California Theatre.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The schooner John Bright arrived this evening from Tahiti, having on board Captain Stewart, of the British ship Ada Iredale, and three apprentice boys, Wm. Lightfoot, Wm. Denwood and Frederick Joice. The Captain reports that the ship left Adrossan, Scotland, June 20th, with coal for this port. October 13th. Latitude 15 south, longitude 108 west, fire was discovered in the lower hold, it being evident that the whole body of the coal had ignited. The crew worked down in the cargo until the gas and heat drove them from the hold. Water was pumped down, but to no effect. In 36 hours gas generated and blew up the decks, and the boats, three in number, were lowered and the ship's company consisting of the captain, two mates, carpenter, cook, steward, 5 boys and 12 able seamen entered them. The captain took with him the ships papers, nautical instruments, charts, and such amount of bread and water as could be stowed, and shaped his course for Galapagos Islands, about 1,200 miles distant. Soon after leaving the ship the captain's boat capsized and every instrument lost except the sextant, and the provisions on board. The boat was righted again and the men picked up. In a few days finding the wind and currents setting him back, the captain abandoned the design of reaching the Galapagos Islands, 2,300 miles distant. All the food and water on the capsized boat were lost, and from that time until November 9th, they were restricted to three wine-glasses of water per day, and throughout the time in the boats to two biscuits per day. They found the schooner John Bright at Marquesas, in which all hands took passage for Tahiti, arriving Dec. 12th. Here the Captain paid off the officers and crew in bills on England.

SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 27.—Last evening, about 10:30 o'clock, the double water-wheel mill at the powder works blew up. The cause of the explosion is not known. No one was hurt, the only damage was the blowing off of the roof and sides of the building, leaving the machinery in place.

THE SUICIDE MANIA.

The wreck of ambition and blight of hopes, too frequently finds vent in self-destruction on the Pacific Coast. Whether it be loss of fortune or disappointment in love—domestic infelicity, or the disgrace consequent upon a breach of trust—the same ending comes in almost every instance.

Only four suicides in one day, and the old cry "loss of work." What has made loss of work in San Francisco? We answer, without the slightest hesitation, that the chief cause is stock-gambling.

Testimonials.

Of the merits of the WIGHTMAN PROCESS for the cure of Piles or Hemorrhoids, I would respectfully call attention to the following testimonials:

OREGON CITY, Jan. 28th, 1876. DR. WIGHTMAN—DEAR SIR: Since using your valuable Process, I have been entirely free from the Piles, or Hemorrhoids; with the exception of two or three times, have never had any symptoms of it, and then it was entirely my own fault.

J. M. BACON, P. M., Oregon City.

The above is from one of the most energetic business men of San Francisco, on the merits of the "Wightman Process" for the cure of HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES.

DR. C. F. WIGHTMAN, Mr. C. B. Farleman, Agent of Washington Territory.

Mr. Farleman is at present in Seattle, where he will remain for some time, and is fully prepared to treat this disease. Persons afflicted are invited to call on him at his office in the Occidental Hotel, Room 19. Jan 16-17

A DIVIDED HOUSE.

"Rats leave a sinking ship."—OLD ADAGE. The division of sentiment upon the Electoral question in the United States Senate, is significant of the discordance of the leaders in the Republican party.

On the other hand Frelinghuysen is a man of marked intellect and ripe culture. Bred to the practice of law, in a bar that boasted such members as Joseph Hornblower, Asa Whitehead, J. P. Bradley, Benjamin Williamson, William and Alexander Pennington, he has never disgraced an honorable profession by low chicanery.

This schism in the Radical party portends its speedy disintegration. So long as its ablest men would take the initiative in all its important measures, just so long it could hope for success; but as soon as men of the talent and reputation of Frelinghuysen, Conkling and Edmunds, look back and refuse to march to the crack of the party lash, just so soon its doom becomes a certainty.

The election of Hon. David Davis to the United States Senate from Illinois, to succeed the demagogue Logan, is a triumph of popular decency over the trickery of professional politicians.

Quite a number of "toughs" from Portland have come to this Territory on account of the opening of the Coal Road up the Puyallup valley. They "stood up" Capt. Babbidge for their fare on the Emma Hayward and refused to walk ashore when requested so to do.

The Oregonian states that Col. Thorp got aboard the express train at the machine shop on Wednesday and left the State by the overland route. The whereabouts of Leathers are still a mystery.

Four Portland butchers in the employ of A. H. Johnson, of Portland, slaughtered and dressed two hundred head of sheep in the space of ten hours. We doubt if this feat has been surpassed, if equalled.

John Gates, the Napoleon of high-pressure steamboat engineers, has gone East to superintend the construction of engines for the large steamer now in process of construction by the Oregon Steam Navigation Company.

UNOPENED AVENUES.

UNTRIED INDUSTRIES OF A NEW COUNTRY.

INVESTMENTS FOR SMALL CAPITAL.

We find too many who come among us for employment and who, because they do not find work in the channels of industry already opened, go away saying that Puget Sound is no country for a poor man. The truth is, that it is the best country for a poor man that ever "laid out doors."

Would require but little capital to start it and would reimburse its projectors liberally after the first year. Most of the salt in use on the Pacific Coast, comes from the lagoons at Carmen Island in Lower California, which is a portion of Mexico.

A pump, to be run by a windmill, must be then placed in deep water to pump up the salt water and fill the troughs for evaporation. During the winter months, the amount of salt realized would be comparatively small; but from April to November, the yield would be very great.

Command ready sale in San Francisco and Honolulu at $50 to $60 per thousand, according to quality. In the latter market, they are used exclusively in the sugar trade for half-barrels and syrup kegs.

Could be established in the vicinity of Olympia, Port Townsend and Seattle, to work up a great deal of calf that now goes to rot. Wherever there are two or more slaughter-houses, glue can be made in quantities that will pay one or two men's labor.

Is an article originally manufactured in Russia from the spawn of the sturgeon. It is an acquired taste to like it, but when a man's palate once becomes habituated to it, a sandwich of caviar on rye bread washes down very nicely with a glass of foaming lager.

Is sometimes needed here by the growing commerce on the Sound. Of course every vessel in this trade has duplicate sails to cover disasters, but the establishment of a sail loft here would give a great deal of work to two or three men.

Is a good likeness, though better than the one it gave of Cronin. It lacks the Governor's clear eye and frank expression that wins for him so many friends on a first acquaintance.

HALIBUT FISHING

Will yet prove an important resource of Puget Sound, but it can only be done by building vessels capable of carrying the fish alive into San Francisco, or salting them on board the vessel and smoking them after their arrival at the port of destination.

A COMMON DECK-HAND

On one of the smacks. From the cheapness of the raw material, we are confident that any man who is thoroughly conversant with the business, could get a suitable smack built here or at Port Madison, by paying one-half in cash and giving a bottomy bond on his vessel for the balance.

HIDDEN TREASURES.

On the Cocos Islands, or digging for the buried plunder of defunct throat-cutters. The real treasures are at our own doors, if we only work for them with patience and save what we earn.

THE NATURAL WEALTH

Of our Territory is not restricted to valley, mountain or sea, but can be derived from all three by industry. The mountains have their bonanzas of coal and iron; the valleys, their wealth of golden grain and fat cattle; the forests, their opulence of unequalled timber.

Wm. K. Neil was hanged at Albany, Oregon, on Friday last for the murder of Seth Hayes, at Halsey some time last Summer. This was the first execution by the law, that has taken place in Oregon since Beale and Baker were hanged for the murder of Delany at Salem.

Schooner Oregonian, from Portland to San Francisco, is reported ashore on the beach near the mouth of the Coquille river. Her captain, H. C. Houdlett, attributes the disaster to the inaccuracy of his chronometer.

The new tug Columbia, built at Knappton, W. T., for towing on the Columbia river bar, has safely arrived at Astoria from San Francisco, whither she went to receive her machinery.

We are promised two interesting sketches for our next Sunday's issue—one of Gen. Custer, from a former member of his staff and the other, a memoir of Gen. Isaac I. Stevens, whose name and fame as a soldier and a Christian gentleman, are a portion of our history as a people.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has had the bad taste to pass resolutions, expressing the belief that Hayes is the constitutionally elected President of the United States. This too, at a time when the better men of both parties are content to leave the matter to the integrity of the Supreme Court.

The Oregonian thinks that the Olympia and Tenino railroad is placing us lower Sound folks on the anxious seat. We beg leave to differ with our portly contemporary. It will help Olympia without hurting this part of the Sound for the value of a dollar.

Frank Leslie's has a portrait of Governor Grover, of Oregon, which is by no means a good likeness, though better than the one it gave of Cronin. It lacks the Governor's clear eye and frank expression that wins for him so many friends on a first acquaintance.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

A Sleighting Carnival—Democratic Mass Meeting—The Patent Office without a Head—A Bill to Abolish the Duty on Books, etc.—The Louisiana Ambroglio—Anticipated Arrival of the Russian Grand Duke.

The week just past has been one of considerable excitement, socially and politically. The Bennett duel in which Mr. May, who is well known here in Washington, was one of the principals, the death of Vanderbilt, the recent treasury robbery, the Democratic mass-meeting on Monday last, the promised arrival of the Grand Duke Alexis—all these have furnished topics of conversation that have been eagerly indulged in at the dinner parties and soirees of which the week was so prolific.

I should have mentioned, as another event quite unusual in this latitude and, therefore, hailed with more than ordinary delight, the sleighting carnival which came off on Pennsylvania Avenue on Saturday last. The rain and sleet notwithstanding, it was a grand success, and as grotesque as it was grand.

Some years ago, San Francisco paid old Col. Von Schmidt a large sum to blast out Blossom Rock, a formidable obstruction to bay navigation. After it was done, the soundings on the rock were given at 24 feet on low tide. On Saturday last the ships Highland Light and Blanchard, while in tow of the tug Monarch, struck on Blossom rock, off Alcatraz. The Highland Light went over, the Blanchard stuck fast half an hour. Both were loaded with wheat from Vallejo, the former drawing 22, the latter 23 feet of water.

What has become of the Dalles Tribune and Walla Walla Statesman? It is nearly three weeks since we saw either of them, and we can only conclude that they are having a "big thing on ice" in the Columbia river.

New England Hotel, COR. COMMERCIAL AND MAIN STS., Seattle, Wash. Territory. L. C. HARMON, Proprietor.

This Hotel is newly built and hard finished throughout, has well furnished rooms, and first-class Board, at Moderate Prices. The Best Hotel in the City.

Notice. ALL PERSONS are cautioned against negotiating certain promissory notes for three thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($3,750) each, dated Victoria, B. C., December 14th, 1876, given to L. L. Leathers by Charles Morton, William Sterling and Robert Lipssett.

port duty on books, etc., which provides, in brief, that on and after April 1st, 1877, no import duty shall be levied or collected on books, periodicals, pamphlets, engravings, maps or charts brought from other countries into the United States.

The news from Louisiana received by telegraph last night caused less excitement here than would have been supposed, and beyond the calling of an extra session of the Cabinet, and the issuance of an order to General Angur, commanding in New Orleans, to preserve the peace, no steps have been taken to interfere. It is expected, however, that the Louisiana affairs will be made the subject of discussion in the Senate to-day, and large crowds are now on their way to the Capitol to witness the proceedings.

The Grand Duke Alexis, whose last visit to Washington is remembered with pleasure by all who met him, is expected here the latter part of the week. The Johnson House, adjoining the Arlington Hotel, has been set aside for himself and suite, consisting of seventeen persons. While here, he will be officially received by the President, and the programme includes a State Dinner, a reception by Secretary Fish, and a large ball to be given in honor of the citizens of Washington, if the Duke can be prevailed upon to stay long enough to make his acceptance of the invitation possible.

SATURDAY..... FEB. 3, 1877

TRAVELERS' GUIDE.

FOR VICTORIA—Steamer North Pacific, Clancy, Master, every Monday and Thursday at 5 A. M.

Local News.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

POOR ECONOMY.—The low rate of coal charters, compels masters of vessels to run their craft as economically as possible and avoid heavy expense.

BROKE DOWN.—The steamer Wenat, which is employed in towing barges from the Talbot mine to vessels in the harbor, deranged her machinery yesterday afternoon and has been thrown out of service.

FREEPORT.—Capt. Marshall has quite woke up the Rip Van Winkle sleep of the Saucelito of Puget Sound, since he took hold of matters there.

DRUNKS.—Two drunk and disorderly individuals were arraigned before Justice Selye yesterday, and obliged to pay the usual fine or stand committed.

QUICK TRIP.—The bark James Cheston arrived at Port Gamble yesterday from San Francisco, in the remarkably good time of seven days.

BAPTIST SOCIABLE.—A general invitation is extended to all to attend the Baptist sociable to be held at Mrs. McAllister's on Union street, this evening.

COTTAGES.—Mr. Clancey is having erected on Washington street two neat little cottages 18x32 feet in size.

LECTURE.—A large audience listened to the remarks of Rev. Mr. Gilvin, of Portland, at the Congregational Church last evening.

NORTH PACIFIC.—This boat left at 9 o'clock last night for Olympia, in lieu of the Alida.

LOADING.—The schooner Courser is loading coal and the schooner Aurora is taking in a load of lumber.

A COSTLY SUPPER.—In the case of the Territory vs. James, indicted for assault and battery, on trial in the District Court yesterday, W. H. Bow, one of the jurors, asked permission of the officer in charge to step outside for a moment, after the jury had retired to deliberate upon a verdict.

BALLASTING STREETS.—Much discussion has been going on in the public prints relative to repairing the streets of this city with ballast taken from the holds of vessels, which come here without freight from San Francisco.

DR. BRENNAN.—Another large audience greeted this gentleman last evening in his lecture on the "Mysteries of Life." The Doctor will remain with us for a short time longer, and can be consulted professionally at his rooms in the Tremont House.

READY FOR BUSINESS.—The Seattle bunkers have been full for several days of large coal, but have been emptying screenings, or nut coal, into the hold of the schooner Courser. There are about 2,000 tons in the bunkers now, hence the first vessel alongside the wharf will have ready dispatch.

DROWNED.—A special dispatch from La Conner, received last night, states that a boat containing two brothers named Kelly, was capsized in Bellingham Bay yesterday, and both men drowned.

NEW FRONT.—Mr. Carkeek has commenced work on the new stone front, for Crawford & Harrington's store. It will be built of Bellingham Bay sandstone and finished in the highest style of the art.

FAST TIME.—Bark James Cheston, Capt. Swanton, arrived at Port Gamble on Tuesday, in the excellent time of seven days from San Francisco. When we remember that the Cheston is a full-built vessel, and not especially designed for speed, we call this a fast trip.

BULL-DOSING.—For too vigorously caressing the cranium of a sailor, with the soft side of a capstan bar, the second mate of the schooner Courser will be arrested to-day, and compelled to testify before an investigating committee of one in the person of his Honor, Judge Lewis.

MISSING.—The Victoria Colonist of Jan. 28th, says that the American ship King Phillip, which sailed from San Francisco for Port Gamble thirty-two days ago, has not been heard of since, and it is feared she has been lost.

LETTER LIST.—Postmaster Prosch advertises a list of 103 letters remaining in the Seattle Post-office for the week ending Jan. 27th.

PERSONAL.—Major G. O. Haller, of Whidby Island, arrived in this city last evening.

SANITARY.—The young gentleman who dishes up the medical articles for the Intelligencer had a very readable article on the medical properties of the Eucalyptus tree, in yesterday's paper. It is all very well as far as it goes, but why didn't the young man publish it a week ago, before we were taken down with the chills.

DRAINAGE.—We see no good reason why Seattle should not be a healthy city; at least she should never become unhealthy for want of proper drainage. Cities built on low and flat ground, like Sacramento and Marysville have not sufficient fall to carry off impurities; but Seattle has a steep grade and can be made a self-draining city by laying a box drain through the center of each street, ending with tide water.

DEAD.—Mrs. K. Martin, wife of Abner Martin, and mother of Mrs. Phillip Keach, of this city, died yesterday in Pierce county, at the ripe age of 73 years. She was a native of South Carolina, and had resided in the Territory more than a quarter of a century.

THE DAKOTA.—This steamer will probably arrive here on Saturday, February 4th, having left San Francisco at noon on Tuesday. Following is her list of passengers: For Seattle—Helman Glossman, A. Guiler, Mrs. D. Gotta, and 35 others in the steerage.

STEATITE FELTING.—Nation & Murray, who have the patent right for Puget Sound, have just introduced an excellent covering for boilers called air-space steatite felting, a sort of cement covering that keeps off the cold, retains heat, saves fuel, and lasts as long as the iron on which it is applied.

A CANARD.—The item published by a contemporary a few days since to the effect that the Gussie Telfair had run ashore is entirely false, the steamer being merely beached for the purpose of receiving a new screw. Only this, and nothing more.

SMART BOAT.—The steamer Messenger arrived here yesterday at five minutes before three o'clock, having made the run from Olympia to this place in six hours and fifty-five minutes. She made the run from Olympia to Steilacoom in an hour and fifty-two minutes.

CHINA FLEET.—The Colonist learns that a cable telegram has been received to the effect that a portion of the China fleet has been ordered to rendezvous at Esquimalt. Seven ships, two of them ironclads, are reported to be already on the way across.

SKATING.—The ice at Snohomish City lasted five days and afforded good skating. That at Olympia did not last so long; and while it did last, a son of Governor Ferry broke through the ice and was barely rescued in time.

HEAVILY FINED.—As we intimated in our last issue, W. H. Bow, the recalcitrant juror, was yesterday fined $300 and one month's imprisonment in the county jail for contempt of court.

District Court.

Territory of Washington vs. Fred. A. Dyer.—Indicted for keeping a gambling house. Plea of not guilty entered.

Territory of Washington vs. Robert G. Folliet.—Indicted for grand larceny. Plea of not guilty entered.

B. L. Johns vs. Phelps and Wadleigh.—Plaintiff filed demurrer to defendant's answer, which was overruled by the Court, whereupon the plaintiff dismissed the cause without prejudice, and the costs of defendants in the suit were taxed upon plaintiff.

Robert Johnston vs. A. McIntyre.—In Admiralty. Commission was ordered issued to Joseph O'Brien, U. S. Commissioner at San Francisco, to take testimony.

Three indictments on the part of the Territory were presented by the G and J jury.

Wm. H. Bryant vs. the City of Seattle.—Suit for damages. Verdict for defendant.

Territory vs. James.—Assault and battery upon Steinweig. Verdict of not guilty.

The United States vs. James Dixon.—Indictment for impeding witnesses. Plea entered of not guilty.

The Grand Jury reported three bills of indictment, two true ones and one not true. The latter was against W. I. Wadleigh and Wm. Stephenson, for malicious trespass.

Territory of Washington vs. James.—Assault and battery. Verdict of guilty of assault and battery, with the recommendation of the prisoner to the mercy of the Court.

Territory of Washington vs. Han Yan.—Indicted for nuisance. Plea entered of not guilty.

Territory of Washington vs. W. H. Bow.—The Prosecuting Attorney was ordered to file an information by way of affidavit as provided by law against W. H. Bow, for contempt of Court.

Territory of Washington vs. Philip Thomas.—Indicted for exhibiting deadly weapon. Verdict rendered finding defendant not guilty of the charge preferred against him.

Territory of Washington vs. Frederick A. Dyer.—Indicted for keeping a gambling house. Case partially tried and continued until the day following.

Territory of Washington vs. W. H. Bow.—Contempt of Court. Defendant given until day following to answer complaint made against him.

United States vs. Ben, an Indian.—Indicted for impeding witnesses. Plea of guilty entered, and prisoner fined $20 and costs.

United States vs. James Dixon.—Indicted for impeding witnesses. Plea of guilty entered, and prisoner fined $100 and costs.

NOVEL GIFT.—A resident of Worcester, Mass., received a short time since through the Post-office, from Olympia, W. T., a package which contained a large potato. It had been cut in two, and the inside scooped out, and in the cavity were found flowers and leaves, which, as he learned by a note previously received, had been picked up in a garden in the open air on the 26th of December.

THE WESTERN SHORE.—This celebrated ship, which sailed from San Francisco on the 6th of the present month, put back again on account of heavy weather. She sailed again on the 11th, and is now twenty days out, Brig North Star also sailed for this port on the 8th, and should be here by this time. She is a very strong vessel, comparatively new, and ought to stand as much heavy weather as any vessel in the trade.

PORT BLAKELY.—From the officers of the steamer Linnie, which came over here yesterday for a new anchor, we learn that the barkentine R. K. Ham, arrived at that place from San Francisco on Monday night. The brig Tanner, which sailed for San Pedro on Monday, was the fourth vessel dispatched to Southern California by Renton Holmes & Co. during the present month.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—An employee of Hammond's fishery, at Port Madison, whose name we did not ascertain, accidentally upset a kettle of boiling water on his foot at that place Tuesday, whereby that member was shockingly scalded. The injured man was brought over to the hospital in this city for treatment.

From Daily of Friday]

PIGGERIES.—We are informed on what we deem credible authority, that there are quite a number of places within the city limits where swine are kept. This we believe to be contrary to the good health of the city and urge that steps should at once be taken to abate the nuisance.

A Good JOKE.—Some wag who loves his fun and puts it to practical use, got in his work at the Occidental Hotel, where he walked in and signed the name of "Thomas Nast, New York," upon the register.

So THEY GO.—The way that the old-timers are handing in their ivories at the matrimonial bank, is a caution to the census marshals. The latest victim to the snare of Hymen, is the plump and rosy Sheriff of Snohomish county, who was captured by Miss Melvina Hartsock, of Olympia.

REPAIRED.—The steamship City of Panama, during her stay at Nainaimo, had the broken blade taken out of her propeller, and replaced with a good one. She sailed yesterday from Victoria for San Francisco. Among her passengers were Mrs. J. R. Robbins of this city, and General Wm. McMicken of Olympia.

CHANGES.—Victor Tull has been appointed second clerk in the Surveyor General's office at Olympia, vice Mr. Cowles, who has been promoted to the chief clerkship made vacant by the retirement of Pearson who went east on the previous trip of the Dakota.

THE OTTER.—Capt. Starr has been fortunate enough to charter the Otter to carry the mails between this place and New Tacoma during the time the Alida is laid up for her repairs.

ACQUITTED.—Frederick Dyer, whose trial on a charge of keeping a gaming house, has occupied the attention of the Court for two days past, was acquitted by the jury yesterday afternoon.

YESLER'S HALL.—An entertainment will be given at the above hall on Saturday night, by L. J. Allison, of Port Gamble. It will embrace literary discourses and recitations.

SENT UP.—Stewart, the brutal second mate of the bark Atalanta, who was arrested on Wednesday for battering a sailor on the head with a heavy capstan bar, simply because the man refused to take a pipe out of his mouth when commanded to, was brought up before Judge Lewis yesterday, and sentenced to three months' imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

W. B. MOORE.—This gentleman, who was charged some days ago with eloping with funds collected in aid of removing the Skagit Jam, is in town and prepared to meet and confront his accusers. We should be pleased to hear both sides of the question before publishing anything about a man who has always borne a good name among his neighbors.

INCREASE.—The Puget Sound Transportation Company have submitted to the stockholders a proposition to increase the capital stock of said company from twenty thousand to thirty thousand dollars. This company is the one which built and own the steamer Messenger now plying between this port and Olympia.

FOR REPAIRS.—The mail boat Alida has been temporarily hauled off to undergo extensive and much-needed repairs. Meanwhile her place will be filled by either the steamer Messenger or Zephyr. The Alida will probably not be able to resume her position on the route before next week.

LEFT US.—We understand that our energetic young merchant, John L. Jamieson, has bid Seattle a fond farewell, he having left here last night for Portland, to take a position in one of the leading jewelry stores of that city.

ENDED ITS MISSION.

The practice of interviewing persons of note by reporters, is bad enough when accurately carried out and faithfully reported. It is a breach of etiquette to pin a man down to the witness chair and violate all decency by forcing him to answer conundrums. It is impertinent enough to do this and faithfully report all the conversation. But when no interview has taken place, to put words in a man's mouth that he has never uttered, is a disgrace to the calling of a journalist.

This break will about finish the interviewing business for the Chronicle, which was the first to introduce it on this coast. It has long been a subject of exaggeration and a medium of scarcely justifiable fiction. The frequency with which it has been resorted to, together with the manifest disregard of truth on nearly every occasion, has rendered it stale and barren of benefit. It never had anything to recommend it, save its novelty, and now that it has outlived its usefulness, let us hope that henceforth these intrusions upon the privacy of respectable citizens will be come a thing of the past.

The practice of selling liquor to Indians is one that should be prevented at all hazards; and if preventive punishments cannot be provided, then those of a vindictive nature must be resorted to. The squaw dance-houses have been the curse of this place and Victoria, too. They have been plague-sores upon the good name of our fair young city, and have scattered the seed of disease and misery in every direction.

Some years ago, San Francisco paid old Col. Von Schmidt a large sum to blast out Blossom Rock, a formidable obstruction to bay navigation. After it was done, the soundings on the rock were given at 24 feet on low tide. On Saturday last the ships Highland Light and Blanchard, while in tow of the tug Monarch, struck on Blossom rock, off Alcatraz. The Highland Light went over, the Blanchard stuck fast half an hour. Both were loaded with wheat from Vallejo, the former drawing 22, the latter 23 feet of water. It is evident either that San Francisco bay is shoal from the drought, or else old "Von" wants another job.

The revival of placer mining in Southern Oregon, speaks well for that section of country, especially when conducted by capital sent thither from Portland. We notice that a company for hydraulic mining in Josephine county, has been incorporated at Portland by Capt. A. P. Ankney and others. During the days of rockers and long-toms, the placers of Josephine county paid enormously, but of late years they have scarcely yielded bread and meat. The introduction of improved hydraulic machinery owned by a company which has no water rents to pay, will soon render those mines profitable once more.

Diphtheria is still prevalent in and about Salem, two children named Simpson having died there in one day. As the Oregon papers never omit a chance to mention diphtheria in Seattle, when it occurs, we trust they will give this fact equal publicity.

The Hospital of the Good Samaritan is the latest public charity devised by the people of Portland. Among its directors we notice many of the prominent citizens of Portland, both of native and foreign parentage.

After a dignified sojourn of nearly three months, the Steilacoom Express is again to make its appearance in the newspaper world.

The welcome rain is again visiting the southern portion of California.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

Recent accounts from the Puyallup valley report the discovery of a large and valuable deposit of limestone. It would be impossible at the outset, to count upon and determine the exact value of this discovery to Pierce county. At present, more lime is shipped to Portland for the use of the iron works at Oswego, seven miles above that city, than is consumed in all towns on Puget Sound, taken together. Most of this lime comes from the islands of San Juan and Orcas, and while the new discoveries may work a hardship upon the people of those islands, yet it will be a great benefit to the people of Pierce county. It may not be generally known that the celebrated blue grass of Kentucky, so famed as food for horses and cattle, will grow luxuriantly wherever there is limestone in the soil. The four counties of Fayette, Woodford, Scott and Bourbon, are continuous pastures of this nutritive grass. The great wealth of that section arises mainly from the princely revenues of prominent cattle breeders residing there. One needs only to reflect that this grass springs up in the latter part of February and grows luxuriantly till the last of November, to see the great amount of profit derived from feeding cattle on these pastures. The great herds of Alexander, Grigsby, Clay, Sotham and Warfield, could never have yielded such vast amounts of beef except from rich and nutritious pastures like those of central Kentucky.

Therefore we believe that the discovery of limestone in Pierce county will be followed by experiments in the culture of blue grass. It has never failed to grow upon soil containing limestone; and should it thrive luxuriantly there, would soon enhance the value four-fold of all lands where this grass is susceptible of cultivation. If our surmise is correct, the quarrying of limestone and burning of lime, are the least important results to be apprehended from this discovery. The real wealth will be in the fat cattle and magnificent horses fattened upon the nutritious grasses of her superb pastures; and this would soon render Pierce county one of the most opulent in the Territory.

Some people think Judge Lewis has been excessively severe with the juror who slipped out quietly to get his supper at the Occidental. While we admit that hunger is an imperious master and that "nature abhors a vacuum," yet it is high time that people were learning something about rules of order in court. Somebody certainly had to be made an example of, and we do not know why one man should not serve as well as another for that purpose. The laxity of discipline in the Oregon courts, outside of Judge Deady's court, has been the subject of much unfriendly criticism, a great deal of which has been fully deserved. The leaving of his seat by a juror, has put the county to the expense of a new trial without the slightest cause or provocation. And while many think that Judge Lewis has acted with undue severity in the premises, there will be quite as many to endorse his action and applaud his Spartan notions of justice.

An individual whose definition of the laws of meum and tuum evidently does not include anything for anybody but himself, had the exceeding bad taste to allude to a gentleman of Victoria as a "Christkiller." We are not so astonished at that, however, as that a newspaper could be found to publish such an odious expression. The benevolence and enterprise of the Jews of our day are manifest in a thousand undertakings for the good of mankind. The Rothschilds in finance, Disraeli in polite literature, Montefiore in enlarged public charities, all show how empty and senseless are the prejudices of society against these oppressed people.

FUNERALS AS DISEASE BREEDERS. — There is good reason to believe that disease is occasionally disseminated through the medium of funerals. We have at least one fairly authenticated instance in this country of diphtheria being diffused broadcast through the crowding incidental occasionally to the last ceremony. In America this question is beginning to receive much attention, and several cases have been reported of late where the transmission of the disease from the corpse seemed highly probable. The Suffolk District Medical Society sent out four hundred circulars to medical practitioners, with a view to ascertain the opinion of the profession on the alleged danger of permitting public funerals of persons who had died from diphtheria. Two hundred and thirty-nine answers were received. Of these one hundred and forty-three writers expressed a belief in the possible danger of contagion at such funerals; seventeen believe that there is danger from funerals in the houses of the dead, but none in the churches; twenty-nine fancy that, in the present state of knowledge, there is no justification in prohibiting public funerals; and eight recorded circumstances which occurred in their own experience confirmatory of the proposition that peril may ensue, but the testimony these latter advance is not quite satisfactory. The Society, after due consideration, recommend that funerals at the houses of those who have died of diphtheria should be private, owing to possible exposure to the poison of the disease. — [Lancet.

CURIOUS CLIPPINGS.

A gentleman of Luneville, France, recently sought to leave a world of which he was weary by converting himself into a mess of pottage. At 9 A. M., M. D., carefully dressed, presented himself at the bath of St. Peter, ordered a bath, and sent off a boy with a ten franc piece to buy him a supply of cayenne pepper, a bottle of white wine, and a bottle of whisky, carrots, turnips, tomatoes, onions, and cloves. He received his purchases a quarter of an hour later, and having dismissed the boy, he emptied the bath, refilled it with boiling water, threw in the white wine, and the vegetables carefully sliced and the condiments, and finally jumped in himself, crying aloud so as to be heard outside, "Adieu, all of you I am going to cook myself a l'Americaine!" The door was instantly burst open, and he was dragged out and taken to the hospital, but, as might be expected, returned somewhat incoherent answer to all inquiries on the part of the police and the authorities of the hospital. His condition is pronounced to be desperate.

The London News describes the discovery of the remains of the last of the Plantagenets in the chapel within the precincts of the Tower of London known as St. Peter's ad vincula. It was here that the state prisoners who died in the Tower, or were beheaded on the adjoining hill, were generally interred, but according to the custom, in plain deal coffins, often with quicklime to destroy the remains more rapidly, and always without plates by which their bodies might be subsequently identified. The Tower records have been carefully searched, and the information has been applied to each coffin as it was brought to light. First among them was one lying far down the nave containing bones which, according to the opinion of the surgeon, were those of a woman of at least 65 or 70 years of age. The records show that in some such spot was interred the body of Margaret Pole, Countess of Salisbury, whom Henry VIII caused to be beheaded in 1541. Near the altar, "in a common chest made to put arrows in," were the remains of another woman, young and delicately made, and whose "lyttle necke" would give the headman so little trouble to sever. These are almost certainly those of Anne Boleyn. Not far off the diggers came upon the remains of what must have been a man of more than ordinary stature, and on comparing coteremporary chronicles with the official records, these were identified as the remains of Dudley, Duke of Northumberland. Of his daughter, the unhappy Lady Jane Grey, no trace has as yet been discovered.

DR. PAUL M. BREMAN,

.....THE RENOWNED.....

MEDICAL LECTURER

.....AND.....

PRACTITIONER.

Would respectfully inform the public that he can be consulted free of charge, at his parlors, Tremont House, Rooms 8 and 9.

DR. BREMAN can tell the patient's disease the moment he comes in contact with them, no matter how complicated the case may be, without asking them a word. His accounts in part for his wonderful success in the treatment of chronic and difficult diseases, is his knowledge of the physiology, pathology, and human character, which he is at a glance, enables him to understand the wants of each individual with whom he comes in contact, and his perfect medical knowledge enables him to prescribe the proper remedy with unerring certainty.

DR. BREMAN has traveled so much, and has been in contact with so many people by means of his lectures, both in Europe and America, that he has become a perfect master in his line of business. The laws of life and health, and the physical wants of man and woman have been his constant study. Few men in the profession have had his broad experience, and fewer still possess his keen and accurate mind to dive into the mysteries of human nature and search out her individual wants, to attempt to treat disease without being able to tell what the matter is with the patient is like looking into the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky for the lost ark of Egypt.

Above all price of wealth, The body's jewel not for minds profane, Or hands to tamper with in practice vain, Like to woman's virtue is man's health; A heavenly gift with a daily shrine, To be approached and touched with serious fear By hands made pure and hearts of faith sincere.

Even as the priesthood of the ONE divine, DR. BREMAN has astonished skeptics by his wonderful power in reading disease and curing the same after some of the best physicians had failed. A timely call upon the doctor will cost you nothing, and may be the means of saving you weeks and months of pain and suffering, a broken down constitution and an early death. DR. BREMAN has lectured to ladies for years, and thoroughly understands the delicate and refined organization of woman, and how liable she is to suffering and disease, that man seems young so little a part. Thousands of ladies, young and old, who scarcely see a well day in the year, and thousands more who fill premature graves might be made healthy and happy by calling in time on the Doctor.

WHAT ARE YOU BEST ADAPTED FOR? Dr. Breman can tell your disposition, what you are best adapted for, and what you best succeed in, describe a proper partner for life, one whom you can live and be happy with, and in fact will point out the true path to Health, Happiness and Prosperity.

YOUNG MEN Will remember that Dr. Breman has lectured on Marriage for years, and is perfectly familiar with the wants of all, both young and middle age, who are troubled with Nervous Debility or premature breaking down of the constitution.

Many who are weak and debilitated wait too long and let their systems break down before seeking for relief. Dr. Breman never fails to restore youthful vigor and rebuild up the body and mind to its natural condition. Everything strictly confidential and honorable with the Dr., and five minutes interview will convince any intelligent person that he thoroughly understands his profession. You will always find him social and glad to receive you.

Office Hours: From 10 to 12 A. M., 2 to 6, and 7 to 9 P. M.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Dr. Paul M. Breman is a graduate of many of the principal European and American colleges, and formerly of the city of Dublin, Ireland. The public can depend upon the most scientific treatment as the doctor has treated thousands of cases, and performed almost every operation known to surgery, in all the principal cities of Europe and America, affording to the public a rare opportunity of receiving medical treatment on the most scientific principles known to the profession. Thousands of living witnesses can testify to his skillful operations, and the benefits they have received from his medical treatment, as his book of testimonials, open to the inspection of all, will show. — Missouri Democrat, St. Louis.

DR. PAUL M. BREMAN.—This celebrated, popular physician and medical lecturer, has set up his headquarters at 127 Montgomery street, San Francisco, California, where he is ready to dispense his medical assistance and ability in aid of all the sick, afflicted and unfortunate, who may see fit to give him a call. Dr. Breman's competency and efficiency as a thorough, reliable physician and medical adviser is too well known to need any extended commendation at our hands. Persons in need of a competent physician should not fail to read his advertisement under "New to-day." — Oakland News.

REMARKABLE SUCCESS.—Dr. Paul M. Breman has been successful without exception in his treatment of obstinate and difficult cases, heretofore regarded as incurable. Some of his cures have astonished the patients themselves, and thoroughly convinced them that he is all that he professes to be—a successful physician. His reputation is attracting to his office many cases of long standing, and in no instance has he failed to give relief. Persons afflicted should consult him without delay, at his room, No. 14, Quincy House. — Quincy (Ill.) Herald, Jan 28-1877.

PROPOSALS

FOR CARE OF INDIGENT POOR.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the Board of Commissioners of King county, W. T., invite Sealed Proposals for the care of the "Indigent Poor" of said county for one year from and including the first day of March, A. D., 1877. Said Proposals are solicited separately for the Board, Care and Lodging of said Poor, and for their Medical and surgical attendance; and, collectively, for their Board, Care, Lodging and Medical and Surgical attendance. All bids to be delivered to the Auditor of said county on or before the 3d day of February, 1877, and to be opened and acted upon by the Board during their regular session to commence February 5th, 1877—the Board reserving the right to reject any and all bids.

[FROM THE DAILY OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 25.—The Republican House has passed a resolution expressing full faith and confidence in the president of the Senate, and requesting the Senators and Representatives from Louisiana to oppose the passage of the electoral bill.

Gov. Packard yesterday addressed a note to Gen. Anger, saying he was informed that the parish officers holding commissions from Nichols took possession of the offices in Ouachita parish Jan. 17th, in violation of the statu quo. Gen. Anger called Gov. Nichol's attention to the complaint of Packard. Nichols replied that he would have the matter investigated and the ousted officials reinstated.

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 25.—A terrible double murder was committed last night in the Gentry settlement, Saline county. Two women, named Mrs. H. B. Taylor and Mrs. M. Staver, wives of esteemed planters, have been most brutally murdered in cold blood for money. The robbers escaped.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says that Judge Davis evinced the greatest interest in the Springfield balloting to-day, and had the ballots brought to him on the bench.

SPRINGFIELD, (Ill.) Jan. 25.—Judge David Davis was elected U. S. Senator to-day by the combined votes of the Democrats and Independents.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Judge Davis was on the bench of the Supreme Court, to-day, when he received a telegram from Springfield informing him of his election to the U. S. Senatorship. After the adjournment of the Court he was called on by his Illinois friends, who congratulated him on the result and inquired as to his acceptance of the office. He did not say whether he would accept or not; but if he should conclude to do so, he will not resign before the 4th of March, the Senatorial term not beginning until that time. He said he had not been consulted regarding the use of his name for candidate, and he had not authorized it.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Southern members appeal to Northern Democrats for aid to pass the Southern Pacific railway bill, saying in effect: You have long made use of us to further your political schemes. Now show some gratitude by giving us a measure which we believe will help the industries and business of our people. Some of the Northern Democrats appreciate the force of this argument. There are others though, who insist that the Democracy are hostile to all grants. Finding they are not likely to get the assistance they think they have a right to in their own party, the Southern members appeal to Republicans. A considerable number of Republican members, including most of the Pennsylvania delegation, are strong friends of the measure and, of course, it is not to them that appeal is made. It is addressed to opponents of subsidies, and the gist of it is, it would be a generous thing for you Republicans to assist in building up prosperity in the South. We should not be engulfed for such act on your part, and if disintegration of parties is, as many think, approaching in our section, your party could not fail to benefit by the kindly feeling the passage of the bill would engender. The minority report is noticeably mild.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The committee on powers and privileges of the House, on counting the electoral vote, examined, to-day, J. B. Deberry, telegraph operator at the railroad depot, Tallahassee. Question by Field—Do you remember any telegrams passing between Z. Chandler and Gov. Stearns between the 6th and 12th of November? Witness answered, that the first telegram of which he knew was from Z. Chandler to Gov. Stearns in substance as follows: "We are now absolutely certain of so many electoral votes for Hayes (witness did not remember the number), and we must have Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida by fair means or otherwise." He couldn't give the exact language. Chandler also telegraphed Gov. Stearns, in substance: "Send courier to each county and secure returns; they must be made to show a majority for Hayes." Z. Chandler also telegraphed to Gov. Stearns: "Wm. E. Chandler leaves to-night for Philadelphia on important business." Between the 8th and the 12th of November, Frank R. Sherman, engaged with Governor Stearns, handed him a telegram for transmission, signed by the latter and addressed to Z. Chandler, in which mention was made of a train carrying couriers sent out for returns being kulluxed, followed by the remark: "We cannot carry the State for Hayes unless we have troops and money immediately." These were not the exact words, but the substance.

Judge Black, who has heretofore notably opposed the compromise bill as unconstitutional, has to-day turned around and is an active adviser of the Democrats working for its passage.

BOSTON, Jan. 24.—In the House to-day a resolution was adopted favoring the electoral bill, and an amendment to the constitution clearly prescribing the mode of counting the electoral vote, only 19 dissenting.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The Times' Springfield, Ill., special says Tilden's agent is dissatisfied with the election of Davis to the Senate, and declares Tilden's programme was not carried out, which required McCormack's election. Democrats say Davis will not resign the judgeship till the 4th of March; for if he does, Howe, of Wisconsin, will be appointed his successor. It is also stated that Davis will be their next candidate for President, and that is why he consents to descend from the bench. The result of the Senatorial contest is regarded as a draw. The Democrats being thankful they escaped the responsibility of electing Anderson, and Republicans that they escaped Haines.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—All telegrams in relation to the Oregon case, passing between New York and Oregon during December, are in the hands of the Senate committee but not examined. The committee continued the investigation in the Oregon case this evening. Senator Mitchell introduced a large number of dispatches, many in cipher and without signature. The following are among them:

"NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Hon. J. Kelly, Portland: Upon investigation, the legal opinion is, votes cast for Federal office holders as electors are void, and the person receiving the next highest number of votes should receive certificate of appointment. Canvassing officer should act on this rule and the Governor's certificate of appointment be given to elector accordingly, and a subsequent certificate of votes enclosed be duly made, specifying how they voted. This will force Congress to go behind the certificates and open the way to go into the minutes in all cases, which is not only right but will relieve embarrassment of the situation. Signed A. S. Hewitt."

"NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Hon. L. F. Grover, Salem, Oregon: We have private advices that your State is close and the official count will be required to determine it, and that Republicans are devising fraudulent schemes to defeat us and to decide against you in the expression as to the result. Be careful that the count is honest and be certain of the result before you give it. A. S. Hewitt, Chairman Democratic Committee."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The House Committee on Commerce are at work preparing the annual River and Harbor bill, but have not yet reached the Pacific coast estimates.

The investigation of the Committee on Privileges and Duties of the House, in counting the electoral vote, is likely to continue several weeks. The sergeant-at-arms has sent special deputies to Ohio and elsewhere for witnesses.

Several of the eminent constitutional lawyers have volunteered their services to the Republicans without fee.

CHEYENNE, Jan. 26.—Three men were overwhelmed and carried down a mountain near the Centennial mine yesterday by a snow slide. One of them, Thos. Hodgson, of Holland, Michigan, was killed. The other two, Capt. Kelly and Geo. B. Davis, escaped with slight injury. The avalanche was set in motion by the discharge of a blast in a prospect hole.

RIO JANEIRO, Jan. 26.—The ship Blue Jacket, from San Francisco Oct. 11th, for New York, is here leaking. She must discharge and dock.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The Journal's Washington dispatch says up to 2 o'clock eleven speeches had been made in the House by Democrats and three by Republicans. The three on the Republican side were by Hubbard, Baker and Lapham.

Justice Davis, it is authoritatively announced, has not determined whether he will resign until the 4th of March. Leading Democrats are anxious that he shall not, so as to prevent President Grant appointing his successor. Politics will not, however, figure in his action on the matter.

Ben Hill's speech was warmly applauded. The interest at 3 o'clock was on the increase, and the crowd becoming greater in the galleries and on the floor.

CHEYENNE, Jan. 27.—The mail carrier from the Indian agencies arrived at Hot Creek to-day and reports all quiet at the agencies along the route.

Jose Rooks, one of the partners of the Hot Creek Ranch, left Red Cloud last Tuesday for home, and has not been heard of since. Much anxiety is felt for his safety.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The Republican caucus has chosen Garfield and Hoar representatives of the party on the House branch to tripartite electoral commission. McCrary declined the nomination. Hoar had 42 votes to 40 for Hale. Garfield's election was unanimous.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Harold's Washington special says: Morton declines to serve on the electoral commission. Bayard and Thurman will probably be the Democratic members. The Democrats in the House will probably choose Hunt and Lamar; for the other places, Abbott, McMahon, Lynde, Jinks and Knott are the favorites.

The Times' Washington special says as to formation of the commission on electoral count, possibly the Senate commission will consist of Edmunds, Frelinghuysen and Morton. There is a strong desire to have Morton on the commission, and it is possible one member of it may be chosen who was not on the joint committee. Some are opposed to including any member of that committee. No doubt Edmunds and Frelinghuysen desire Hayes inaugurated, and believe him to have been lawfully elected, but they have taken a rather curious method to convey that information.

PACIFIC COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—The Pacific Mail steamer Granada, from Panama and Mexican ports, arrived about noon to-day. Soon after the steamer left Acapulco, there were rumors that ex-President Lerdo would board the vessel at some point up the coast and take passage for San Francisco. The rumor was confirmed by officers of the steamer and the coast was closely watched for the party without avail. At Manzanillo, which was reached next day, ex-Chief Justice Inglesias and party, including Cabinet officers, military men and other officials, with followers numbering 58 men, came off to the Granada in boats, nearly all armed to the teeth. Most of the party were refused permission to board the steamer until the U. S. Consul requested that they be received. The destination of the party proved to be Mazatlan, which Inglesias supposed favored his cause, and where he intended to organize a government and resume the struggle for the Presidency.

A Virginia City dispatch of to-day says a plot to destroy the hoisting works in the Gould and Curry shaft was discovered on Monday morning. Just as the engineers had called the shifts, the man (who had just come on) tried the valve-cocks and was astonished to find no water in the lower one. He turned on the pumps at once, but was still unable to fill the boilers. It was then discovered that the blow-off cocks of the shaft boilers had all been turned on, so the water was blown out as the pumps forced steam and water from the blow-off pipes and carried a long distance down hill from the works, so the engineer could not tell at first what the trouble was. A few minutes later there would have been a terrible explosion, resulting in the destruction of the works and great loss of life.

Last Friday night an attempt was made to fire the hoisting works of the Consolidated Virginia mine, which was discovered and frustrated by the watchmen. The incendiary escaped. The force of watchmen around all the works of the Bonanza mines has been increased, and all supplied with shotguns. The belief is that both of these attempts have been made by scoundrels in the employ of bear operators in San Francisco.

ALL ABOUT WOMEN.

Mrs. M. H. Carpenter wears invisible purple. She was dropped heavily on a sidewalk, and the sawdust burst from her arms and legs in profusion. She was a doll.

The Airdrie Justice in Scotland have fined an engine driver employed on the North British Railway £5 for kissing a young lady in a first-class carriage against her will.

The handsomest girl in Rockford (Ill.) Seminary endeavored to elope with two young men at once by trying to jump from a second story window upon a buffalo robe held by them. The attempt was frustrated by the police.

Mart Taylor's wife had him arrested at Walls Walla last week for threatening to kill her. The Judge decided that the threats were conditional and not of a dangerous nature, and big-nosed Mart was discharged.

The wind was blowing sixty miles an hour as he ploughed around the corner of the street trying to get home, and his dear wife stood in the darkness and knew his voice four blocks away. She said she never failed to detect the accent of Third avenue clover.

Brown has just asked his new slavery (whom he has had specially from the country so she shall be free from London servants' tricks) if she is sure she posted that important letter all right last night. Here's her reply:—"Yes, sir, I put it into the letter box in the 'all door sir. But it ain't gone yet, sir."

The Salt Lake Tribune says there is an eternal fitness of things. But what is more absurd than to hear a Mormon elder whistle "Home, sweet home," as he stands on the corner in doubt as to which of his nine wives has enough coal and affection in the house to keep him over night.

Women have been able fighters in war; have managed commercial enterprises; have painted, written, ploughed, shoveled in coal, governed kingdoms, inspired great social enterprises; and there is no reason why they should not preach, if they can save souls. There is one thing, however, that a woman cannot do—she cannot decently share a lead pencil.

A lady a short time back presented a telegram at a London post office. The message was enclosed in an envelope. On receiving it the official proceeded to open it. "What are you about?" exclaimed the lady. The clerk explained that he could not send a message without first seeing it. "Then," observed the lady, angrily, "do you suppose I'm going to let you read my private affairs? I won't send it at all!" And forthwith she flounced out of the office in disgust.

A young English lady is engaged in making a cloak entirely of partridge feathers. In it will be at least 10,000 feathers of different sizes, the lower portion of the cloak being made of the tail feathers and then ranging up. The breast feathers come next, while the variegated plumage round the neck of the bird encircle the white throat of the lady. It will require about 100 partridges to fill out the regular course of feathers, which are placed in layers similar to the way in which they grow on the bird.

United States of America, Territory of Washington, Third Judicial District, in the District Court for the Third Judicial District of Washington Territory, holding terms at Seattle.

Whereas a libel has been filed in the District Court for the Third Judicial District of Washington Territory holding terms at Seattle, on the 8th day of January, 1877, by Robert Johnson, libellant, against the American bark or vessel called the Cambridge, her tackle, apparel and furniture, alleged to be substance that on the 12th day of June, 1876, at Port Blakely, Kitsap county, Washington Territory, A. McIntyre, master of said vessel, did ship and hire the libellant to serve as able seaman on board said vessel for the period of six months at $35 per month; that on August 12, 1876, libellant became seriously injured whereby his right hand was crushed and wholly and permanently injured, whereby libellant was at that time wholly and permanently disabled and entirely incapacitated from ever again following his avocation as a seaman; which injury was caused by the gross and wanton negligence and carelessness of the said A. McIntyre, master of the said vessel; that no part of said wages have been paid except $70, and libellant claims $140 for balance of his wages and also the sum of $3,000 damages for said injury, and praying process against said bark or vessel called the "Cambridge," her tackle, apparel and furniture, and that the same may be condemned and sold to pay the said demands of the said libellant with costs, charges and expenses.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the monition under the seal of the said court, to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said bark or vessel called the Cambridge, her tackle, apparel and furniture, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held at the City of Seattle, in the said Third Judicial District of Washington Territory, on the fifth Tuesday of January, A. D. 1877, to wit—

January 30th, 1877. At 11 o'clock in the forenoon of that day (provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction, otherwise on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter) then and there to interpose their claims, and so make their allegations in that behalf.

Dated this 10th day of January, 1877.

CHARLES HOPKINS,
U. S. Marshal for Washington Territory,
By L. V. WYCKOFF, Deputy.

NOTICE. I HAVE ENGAGED MR. C. B. FARLEMAN to act as my Agent in Washington Territory for the treatment of Hemorrhoids or Piles

BY THE WIGHTMAN PROCESS!

Persons suffering from the above terrible disease will do well to call and see him. Mr. Farleman will be at Occidental Hotel till the 26th, and stop one week only, and then visit Port Townsend.

D. C. F. WIGHTMAN.

N. B.—Mr. Farleman is perfectly competent, as he treats the disease under my direction.

The Wightman Process gives immediate relief and positive cure. Piles or Hemorrhoids, Fistula in ano, Proctolaps Recti, and all other diseases of the Rectum can be relieved at once and cured in a very short time without recourse to the knife, ligature, or caustic, in nine cases out of ten. Having made the above distressing complaint and diseases my special and careful study, I have found that the right treatment is WITHOUT MEDICINE, as generally understood, and having treated many cases of twenty and thirty years' standing, with entire satisfaction to the parties treated, I consider myself perfect master of the above diseases and offer my services with the honest conviction of saying,

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. To those that try the "Process," examination not always necessary, but personal interview desirable. If unable to visit me the remedies may be sent by Express. C. O. D. (not Mail). All letters strictly confidential, and must contain stamp for return postage. I mean what I say, immediate relief from pain and distress.
