 DAILY DISPATCH.—We to-day present to the public the first number of our daily, diminutive in size, but as large as prudent considerations will at present justify, allowing any capacity for expansion. The cost of even so small a publication daily, considering the large expense of telegraph dispatches, leaves no margin for profits; and we shall fully realize our expectation for the present if the cost does not exceed the income; our chief motive to the undertaking being to fairly represent the enterprise and business capacities of the town to the advancement of which our labors and future prospects are pledged. To make this project a success, we shall need a liberal support from all who take an interest in the prosperity of the town, and especially from the business men, upon which we confidently rely.

Austin A. Bell will have exclusive control of the circulation of the Daily in this City, and all subscriptions to the same must be paid to him, at the rate of 25 cents a week.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—On Saturday last Mr John M. Murphy, Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, said in his paper that the popular sentiment of the Democracy of the Territory was clearly expressed against the call of another Convention, unmistakably intimating his intentions to abide by that decision. A few days subsequently we find in the Tribune, Grant organ, a call for a Democratic Territorial Convention signed by John M. Murphy alone; and this without consultation with the other members of the Committee, and in confessed disregard of the popular sentiment. In the meantime Mr. Newell's paper came to hand, rebuking the insolence of the King County Reform Club for presuming to suggest to Democratic party, and denouncing the Central Committee for abandoning the party organization, and assailing the DISPATCH for assuming to speak without party authority. This was evidently the key note to this new movement which a Grant paper is the first medium of announcing to the public.

We owe no allegiance to any political party, and would be false to our conviction and our pledges if we should consent to become the instrument of any.
 We have no desire and no intention of dictating or taking any part in party management, or profiting by party success. We went into the support of Judge McFadden knowing that he cordially approved the reform movement which was endorsed by the Convention which nominated him, and believed he would abide by the same in spirit and intent. If, however, the "Brick Pomeranoys" and "Blatant Duncans" of the party in this Territory are bent upon defeating these ends, they can easily do so, by organizing the party as a close corporation, intent only on rule or ruin; by ignoring the seven hundred majority for Garfield at the last election as having no voice in the nomination of a candidate; by putting the nominee under contribution to every party bumper in the Territory, to be first skinned and then have his hide hung on the fence—as in the case of Frank Clark, Marshal Moore and J. D. Mix. This has been the prevailing policy heretofore, and will result in the same way as often as it is repeated. We will have no part or lot in any such management, and we are very certain that Judge McFadden has too much experience to be victimized by it.

"SHORT, SHARP AND DECISIVE."—In the Oregonian of Wednesday last appears the following card:
 "With this issue my connection with the Oregonian ceases, and I shall no longer be responsible for what appears in its columns."
 H. W. SCOTT.
 "I shall no longer be responsible." That is decidedly rich, in view of the fact that Scott never was held responsible for what appeared in the columns of the Oregonian. Mr. Pittock employed him to make up the editorials of the paper under his own direction, with the censorship of Judge Deady, and no intelligent reader ever dreamed of holding Scott responsible for the course of the paper, though he is entitled to and has received much credit for the manner in which he performed the service for which he was paid, and Mr.
 Pittock will find difficulty in supplying his place.

USURY.—Bro. Struve, of the Courier, devotes large space in his valuable paper to a supposed disagreement between the Walla Walla Statesman and other supporters of McFadden. We are led to infer that no such misunderstanding exists among the supporters of the regular Garfield ticket from the pet notice he gives one of his contemporaries:
 "The dirty, drunken scab of the Kalama sheet is informed that the so-called bogus candidate has not retired from the field, and when he says that the individual is not a citizen of the United States, he lies in his throat.
 We hate to be obliged to give a parting kick such a wretched vagabond."

N. P. RAILROAD.—A New York dispatch of Sept. 5, says: John Gregory Smith has resigned the Presidency of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and George W. Cass, recently President of the Fort Wayne Railroad was elected to fill his place.

FINE FRUIT.—D. N. Hyle, Esq., of this city, presented us with a collection of fruit, all the product of his own garden, including peaches, apples and plums, of as good size and flavor as can be produced in any country. What surprised us most were the peaches, which were equal to the best California product, as it is generally believed that this fruit cannot be produced in perfection in this humid atmosphere. All of Mr. Hyde's trees have been transplanted from an Oregon nursery within the last three years, and he has now a good supply of fruit of various kinds for family use.

PERIODICALS.—Combs & Pumphrey received by last steamer an unusually large supply of pictorials and other periodicals.

THE ZEPHYRUS.—This active little steamer is making up for lost time since it was released by the Inspector. Beside its regular trip to the Snohomish, it has made two trips to Olympia and one to Gamble, Ludlow and Townsend this week, carrying good loads of freight and passengers each trip.

A WASHINGTON TERRITORY CALL AN-SWERED.—The Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch gets off the following:
 "A newspaper in Washington Territory appeals to the East to 'Send us Wives!' The editor is probably not aware that polygamy is prohibited in this part of the country, and that it will consequently be impossible for any generous, whole-souled philanthropist among us to comply with his request.
 Hardly any man here has more wives than he absolutely wants. The practice of marrying half a dozen at a time was abandoned as soon as it was discovered that William Penn left so many widows that charitable people were compelled to build the Penn Widow's Asylum in order to give them a decent and comfortable home. Now, if it had been motioned in law that they want in Washington Territory, there would have been no trouble. Almost any man can spare a mother-in-law, and we know a man who has been married several times who would be willing to send three or four away to a distant land for ever and ever, to oblige a friend. We are entirely destitute of generosity, here at the East."

OREGON LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature commenced on Monday last. The following is a dispatch to the Oregonian of the 9th: SALEM, September 8.—Nearly all the members of both Houses have arrived.
 Many other persons from different parts of the State are present.
 Canvassing on the Senator question is active. The only candidates talked of are Mitchell and Corbet. Developments are not sufficient to indicate just how the canvass stands. The prevailing opinion is that a caucus will be held to decide the question.
 A consultation of the Republican members of the House has been held, and an agreement reached by which that body will probably organize by electing Rufus Mallory, of Marion, as Speaker; S. A. Clarke, of Marion, Chief Clerk; Sam. Simpson, of Benton, Assistant Clerk; Roach, of Linn, Enrolling Clerk; Dr. Dodge, of Multnomah, Engrossing Clerk; E. Hatheway, of Yamhill, Sergeant-at-Arms.
 This body will organize promptly tomorrow morning.
 The Senate being a tie, its speedy organization is uncertain. The two parties in that body will probably be forced to a consultation to bring about an organization—dividing the offices between them.

MAGNIFICENT CONTRIBUTION.—At the recent Oregon Conference of the M. E.
 Church, a collection was taken up to liquidate a debt of $20,000 upon the Willamette University. The Salem Statesman says:
 "Father Walker and Rev. J. S. Parrisch, at the close of a few well directed remarks, headed the list with a handsome contribution each. Their offerings were quickly followed by the subscription of several other magnificent sums; and one by one the entire Conference gave in the amount each would give, until, in two hours time, the entire amount was contributed and the result announced amid the loudest enthusiasm."

LOST.—Mr. Fisher of this city, one day of the past week started to go to his claim on the East side of Lake Washington. He was turned from the trailing fallen timber, lost his reckoning, and spent nearly two days in the woods, before he found his way out, with only a few crackers in his pocket and no water.
 He got home last evening much exhausted and disgusted with his trip.

Who are the Liars?

The Intelligencer charges that we willfully lied in saying the publisher of that paper charged more than advertised rates for the publication of the tax sales, and the "small boy" of the Argus echoes the accusation. The following letter will throw some light on this subject:

OLYMPIA, Sept. 14th, 1872.
 To the Editor of the Seattle Dispatch, Sir:—A friend in this county has shown me a letter from a tax official of King county, which is made especially interesting by a list of items connected with the taxes on a small bit of property in Seattle. I submit it as a curiosity to all tax-payers:

Special School tax.....	$0 07
Advertising.....	2 50
Certificate of Sale.....	3 00
Comm. on Sale.....	0 01
County and Territorial tax.....	0 68
Interest on purchase price.....	0 08
Postage.....	0 06
	$5.40.

It seems that this property was sold for the school tax, 7 cents, (the other taxes being paid by the purchaser after he bought it) on this seven cents $4 51 of the cost was made, or six thousand four hundred per cent. of the original tax. I suppose it is all right according to the financial ethics of King County.
 I only exhibit it as a financial curiosity.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.
 We have in our possession a similar statement, identical in amounts, over the signature of E. Bryan, Collector of School tax. The description of property in each of these cases was one lot, making one printed line, which, as will be seen, is charged to the tax-payers at two dollars and fifty cents for three publications as we stated. The school tax advertisement embraced, we believe, two hundred and seventeen descriptions —it might have been two or three more or less—making about forty squares, of twelve lines each, in the paper—which any one can see, at two dollars and fifty cents a description, would make an aggregate of $542 50. The highest advertised rates—which are double the usual rates for legal advertising—would have been four dollars a square; say $160, leaving a balance of $382 50.— The Intelligencer positively asserts that the publisher only received regular advertised rates. If that is true, then the Collector is guilty of gross malfeasance in office in obtaining money under false pretences, and the Sheriff is equally implicated to a much larger amount, and the publisher is a subsidized party to the villainous transaction. Such swindling transactions have a most damning effect upon the city and county, and we should be direct in our duty to the public if we failed to expose and denounce them, and no personal assaults upon our character will turn us from this purpose.

We learn from the DISPATCH that there will be no Democratic Territorial Convention, but that McFadden will run as an independent candidate. This may insure his election.—Vancouver Register.
 This is an honest admission by a paper which supports Grant and Garfield; but the prospect suggested has been somewhat diminished by the action of those holding party authority, who thought more of magnifying their own positions than of the success of their candidate, and deemed no nomination a Washington Territory regular which was not the result of private bargain looking to a division of the spoils.
 Judge McFadden has had no hand in bringing about this new deal, and will certainly not be a party to any private bargain; we may therefore confidently hope that he will be elected in spite of the party obstructionists.

TELEGRAPHIC
 EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE DAILY DISPATCH.

NAPA CITY, Cal., Sept. 13.—The first meeting of the Board of Directors of the Branch Insane Asylum was held today. Dr. Morse of San Francisco was elected President, James H. Goodwin, of Napa, Vice President. Adjourned to meet here on the 19th.

DOWNSVILLE, Cal., Sept. 13.—An explosion took place in Harry Mason's store, at Pointview, to-day about 12 o'clock. Two men had legs broken, several others injured. The store is in ruins. The explosion cannot be accounted for as no powder or explosives were kept in the store.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—Discovery of gold ledges in Grizzly Mountains, ten miles by road from Havilah, Kern Co., caused a great stampede from that place.
 Grizzly Mountains is the wildest and most inaccessible range about five miles from Havilah, in an air line. Along this range twelve miles is a precipitous and rocky ravine, the abode of grizzly bears. From this fact and the rough location it has never been explored but gold has been supposed to exist there as placer gold has been found leading out therefrom. Recent prospectors venturing there found good float quartz and discovered a fair quartz lode which had been laid open from the action of a waterspout. The entire ravine filled with dry undergrowth was burned and the whole country was laid bare. Within a few days several very rich lodes, 1 to 10 feet wide were found. Every one in Havilah has gone to the mines, the excitement in that locality is very great.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Detective Dixon, of the police force of this city, arrested, to-day in Milwaukee, John Biddle the supposed murderer of Calkhan. There is little doubt of Biddle's guilt.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Gen. Burnside has made from the Republican headquarters an announcement to the effect that the Convention of Soldiers and Sailors at Pittsburg will be a mass Convention. Credentials of membership will be furnished at Pittsburg to those who served in the Union Army or Navy during the war whether regularly appointed delegates or not.

GENEVA, Sept. 13.—The gentlemen of the Court of Arbitration returned to Geneva to-day and express themselves highly gratified at their reception at Berne and Interlachen. The final settling of the Board to-morrow will be private with the reception of the presence of a few ladies and distinguished persons specially invited.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Capt. J. H.
 Reese returned from Chonmagin Island this afternoon with 50,000 cod-fish.
 This is the fourth cargo received here from Northern fishing banks this season.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 13.—Secretary Fish was serenaded at the American Hotel last evening. He acknowledged the compliment in a brief speech congratulating the Vermonters on the late Republican victory.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Ex-Governor Curtin in a letter published to-day declines his nomination for Congress by the Republican Central Committee of Pennsylvania. James Morris declined the Liberal nomination for Congress from the Second District.

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 13.—Liberal Mass Meeting held here this afternoon and evening. Speeches were made by Senator Trumbull and W. W. O'Brien.
 There was a torch light procession over two miles long.

LOUISVILLE, Penna., Sept. 13.—Immense Republican meeting here tonight at the Opera House. Buckalew Liberal candidate spoke.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—The Post's Washington special says one of Senator Sumner's most intimate friends here who has believed that Greeley would be elected gives up the contest now and says that the Maine election has virtually decided the matter and that Greeley gets as many electoral votes as Seymour did in 1868 he will be very fortunate.

CANSON, Sept. 13.—At half-past ten o'clock this morning Pierce of the Capitol Saloon shot and instantly killed Geo. Watson who was in the former's saloon. They had words when Watson attempted to strike Pierce with a cane when Pierce immediately drew a revolver firing four shots, all taking effect.
 Pierce is in jail. The citizens are very indignant at the murder; some strong threats being made.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The President has issued a proclamation abolishing all duties on imports from Japan in Japanese vessels as long as Japan reciprocates by a similar rule in regard to exports to that country from the U. S.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—This evening a number of committee appointed at Louisville tendered O'Connor his nomination. O'Connor did not refuse nomination, but expressed hearty sympathy with Louisville convention.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The War Department has received dispatches from General Sheridan dated Dulata, Sept.
 8th, saying Col. Baxter after reaching Yellow Stone Valley, was obliged to come back on account of the Surveying Engineers refusing to go farther for fear of Indians therefore the expedition is a failure.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The following call is published this morning signed by 70 of the most prominent citizens: "The frequent occurrences of cold-blooded murder in our midst cannot longer be allowed to pass unnoticed by our citizens. With a due regard to the safety of society, the people of Chicago must demand that murderers shall be hanged. To this end we invite all good citizens to meet in mass meeting on Market street corner Mason on Thursday evening, Sept. 12th, at 4 o'clock." The fact that there are now six murderers in the County Jail has aroused the citizens to a determination the laws shall be executed and that murder shall not progress here as it has in the past few months.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Judge Leonard to-day dismissed the writ of habeas corpus and remanded Forester to jail.

The Bank statement shows a decrease in specie of $664,500.

Thos. Hughes is reported to have died in Jersey City this morning. It is believed that he was poisoned in Broadway Concert Saloon.

Last night Edward Wellington was shot by a bookkeeper named Edward Perkins.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—A quarrel between Hugh Langran and C. E. Robinson, well known citizens of Chester Ill., resulted in one receiving a mortal injury from a club, and the other from a pistol ball.

BERIAH BROWN, EDITOR.

Vol. 1. No. 43.

Seattle, Thursday, Sept. 19, 1872.

JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION.—This is one of the titles of Liverpool's Weekly pictorial. The character of most of its political cartoons exhibit anything but civilized sentiments or a Christian spirit. No publication in the United States has done so much to cultivate the most unchristian and illiberal passions and prejudices, and promote sectional, sectarian and party hostility. The moral and religious sentiments which it disseminates are all based on the gospel of hate, the savage doctrine of revenge, instead of love and good will to man. Its caricatures of foreign-born citizens, especially Germans and Irishmen, uniformly represent them as brutal and lawless, the lowest and most degraded elements of society. All of these things are evidently done with an eye to the main chance; to make a sale of the paper, regardless of its moral effect upon community. Before the war, when this paper had a large Southern circulation, it pandered to the sectional prejudices of that region in a like manner. It gave a picture representing George Washington being driven from the communion table by Northern Abolitionists, and another representing Mr. Lincoln as a clown, entertaining a crowd of drunken companions with buffoonery. Amongst the burlesques and travesties upon Christianity in French infidel prints we have never seen so gross an attempt to cast ridicule upon the highest and holiest sentiments of the Christian religion as a picture in a late number of that paper representing Charles Sumner casting flowers upon the grave of "Bully Brooks," as he is called in the label.—When professed Christians thus hold up to public scorn and ridicule the sentiment of forgiveness upon which their religion is founded, their hypocrisy is too manifest to deceive any but those who are blinded by bigotry; they but show their willingness to subordinate religion, good morals and the public peace to the success of party and political power.

PARTY POLITICS IN EVERYTHING.—We have received, with "the compliments of the Secretary of the Interior," the report of a visit to the Sioux and Ponka Indians on the Missouri River, made by William Welch, Esq., a head of the Christian Commission for the Indian Department, which is a mixture devoted partly to relating the progress of the savages in Christianity and partly to advocating the re-election of Grant. The author quotes an uncomplimentary notice of himself from a dissatisfied Republican paper, and says: "I was truly thankful for this editorial as it enabled me to realize the designs of some of the men who are striving to divide the Republican party."

In the same envelope with this report under the frank of the Secretary of the Interior, as "official business," was a printed speech of Mr. Delano, the Secretary, made in North Carolina, in defence of the Administration. We can remember the time when it would have been regarded as a burning disgrace to the Administration and the country for the President to send out the members of his Cabinet to electioneer for him from the stump, and partisan appeals in an official report would have been deemed greatly out of place. But times have changed.

KIND WORDS.—The following notice is especially gratifying as coming from a political opponent, and in marked contrast to the prevailing style in this country of assailing every man personally with whom they disagree in sentiment. It is copied from the Vancouver Register, lately edited by Mr. Struve, now of the Courier:

The Puget Sound DISPATCH which has been published for the past year by Col. C. H. Larrabee, now passes to Beriah and Edward H. Brown. The DISPATCH has been enlarged, additions have been made to the material in the job department and within the next two weeks the paper will be issued daily and weekly. We are glad to see Mr. Brown thus prospering. Probably no editor on this coast has met with such vicissitudes of fortune as he has. Having been acquainted with Mr. Brown and his family for the past sixteen years we believe he deserves all the blessings Providence is vouchsafing him.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—We only see the Courier once a week, which is a matter of great embarrassment to us, as without it we cannot keep up with "modern inventions;" but a friend had furnished us with a copy of the daily of Saturday last, in which we are accused of finding and publishing in our own paper a communication signed "Lifelong Republican." There are men occasionally contributing to the newspapers who depreciate personal newspaper notoriety, and it is among the established courtesies of the profession to respect the prejudices of such, so long as their articles are truthful and within the bounds of proper subjects for newspaper discussion. So long as our correspondents adhere to these rules, the public have only to do with the matter and not the name of the author. If they depart from them it is not only an offence to the public, but to the editor, which in our case will always be followed by prompt exposure. In this case, the Courier distinctly charges us with forgery and false pretences in the use of the signature. Now, to test this matter, we will submit the name of the writer of that communication, confidentially, to any gentleman Mr. Struve may select, and if it is not satisfactorily proved to him that said writer has been a uniformly party Republican from the organization of the Republican party, without having once during that time voted a Democratic ticket, then we will pay to Mr. Struve, on demand, the price of a first-rate suit of clothes, upon condition that he will first agree to pay to us the same amount in case we prove what we say in regard to this matter.—We hold this offer good, not only in this case, but in every other matter appearing in our paper which Mr. Struve may regard as a falsehood or a forgery. Dare he take a like responsibility in regard to his own publications.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?—We find in the last issue of the Vancouver Register, the paper lately edited by Mr. Struve, now of the Courier, the following mysterious paragraph:

The Democrats of this County propose to hold a County Convention in this city on the 21st inst. to nominate county officers. It is suggested that primary meetings for Delegates to the Vancouver Convention be held on the 14th inst. The Kalamazoo Beacon informs us that there is a strong disposition among the outside precincts to repudiate at their next convention the bargain entered into last spring between Struve and a clique of the Democracy in Vancouver, by which they pledged him that the Democratic convention should omit to nominate a candidate for council, and that Struve's name should be printed on their ticket—he agreeing to carry into effect a bargain we ventilated a week or two ago. We intend to inquire into this matter and inform our readers next week.

Will Mr. Struve dispose of this matter by calling his successor "a drunken scoundrel," as he did the charges of his Kalamazoo party cotemporary? Or will he be silent under the imputation of making secret bargains with Democrats to serve them in office for a personal consideration. All these indications are to the effect that the Olympia ring have not mistaken their man if they can succeed in holding him to the principle of "honor among thieves."

NEW RAILROAD TOWN.—The Northern Pacific Railroad Company have selected a site on section 8, township 13 north, range 2 west, half a mile south of the Newaukum River, for a station, to accommodate the Chehalis, Boifort and Newaukum country. Gen. Titton is now laying out a town to be called Newaukum. The Railroad Company will immediately open roads to connect the new town with neighboring roads. They will also pursue a liberal policy, in order to foster the growth of this place, which is the most important point on the 65 miles of railroad built thus far. Two blocks are offered the county for public buildings; two blocks for schools; two lots each for churches; for other purposes, $100 per lot will be asked, and a liberal discount made to persons making valuable improvements.—Transcript.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The Capital newspaper yesterday contained an article based on one from the New York Sun, reflecting on Judge Louis Dent and General Dent in the matter of the appointment by the President of William J. Farnold as Consul at Callao and J. H. Wethey as Commissioner to settle the claims of the citizens of the United States against Peru, charging that certain moneys were paid the Dents for their influence. This morning Judge Dent visited the Capital office, and after inquiry for Henry Reed, one of the editors, was directed to his room up stairs. Calling Reed's attention to the article, he asked who was the author, when Reed replied that he was responsible for it, whereupon Dent pronounced it false, and called upon Reed to defend himself. Then raising his walking stick he struck Reed several times over the head, breaking his cane, Reed got to his feet, and a struggle ensued, which ended by some attaches of the paper rushing in and separating the combatants. The police took them into custody, and charged Dent with assault and battery. The hearing of the case is postponed until to-morrow. Reed claims that the assault was made without other warning than the question asked.

POSTER, Sept. 4.—It was Sumner's intention to deliver a speech on the Presidential election last night, but as he informs T. W. Bird in a letter, his health has become so impaired, that his physician forbade his speaking and prescribed absolute rest. The speech is therefore published. It is devoted to elaborate comparisons of Grant and Greeley, in which he repeats the former charges against the President, and lands the history and character of Greeley. He takes the ground that the one term principle is the road to reform in the civil service, and that reconciliation is the principal and the most important issue ever presented to the American people. He regards the support of the Cincinnati platform and nominees by the Democrats as a matter for the greatest rejoicing and a hopeful sign, and says their votes will be a new bond of peace and a new assurance for the great principles upon which the Republic is founded.

IN A DILEMMA.—The Prosecuting Attorney of Vallejo, Judge C., was recently visited by the wife of a man whose conviction he had secured. She came in with three small children at her heels and begged to have her better-half released, urging that her circumstances were destitute, and she knew not how to feed her children or herself while her husband was in prison. He told her that the thing couldn't be accomplished. "Well," she ejaculated, half despairingly half resigned, "if you won't do that, you'll have to keep these young ones until his time is out, for I've got nothing to feed 'em on." The Judge thought the matter a good joke until he started to leave the office, when the woman told her little blessings to "go along with the gentleman, children." The little cherubs were obedient, and followed their newly-constituted father with as much affection as if they had been part of his bone and flesh. The Judge was in a dilemma. The children stuck like burrs and no way offered of getting rid of them. He finally effected a compromise by offering the woman a sack of flour in consideration of her calling her children off and again assuming guardianship.

RAILROAD GROWTH.—Bainerd is one of the new towns started by and upon the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad. The progress of the town of a year's growth, may be judged by the following from the Bainerd Tribune of Aug. 17:

Measures have been taken, as we understand, to incorporate Bainerd into a city, with all the machinery necessary to bring our town under the lawful discipline so necessary to the well being of every community of the proportions and importance of ours. We commend the movement, highly; if all things looking to the consummation of the object be done "decently and in order." Two thousand inhabitants are necessary to effect an organization of the kind, and we dare say the census now being taken will show nearer 2,500 than 2,000.

SOME FODDER.—The Visalia (California) Delta of a recent date, speaks of a patch of alfalfa in that neighborhood, some of which had been cut three or four times this season, yielding five tons an acre at each cutting. Twenty tons of fodder to an acre, the growth of a single season! Any grass crop raised in Visalia could be greatly exceeded upon our rich river bottoms, which produce eight hundred bushels of potatoes to the acre. The alfalfa in a green state fattens hogs readily, and when cured is more nutritive than dried clover, and is claimed by some farmers to be fully equal to timothy hay for stock. It has a vital tenacity almost equal to the Canada thistle. We think it would be worth a trial on the gravelly prairies in the rear of Steilacoom.

COUNTY INDEBTEDNESS.—The report of the Territorial Treasurer, made on the 3d of September, says there is due from King county, exclusive of the assessments of 1872, $1,482 89; the assessment for this year $9,340 80. Whose fault is it that these arrears should be allowed to accumulate, or that King county, with its wealth and resources, should owe the Territory anything? What becomes of the enormous taxes levied and collected in this county? The county has nothing to show for it but two safes, where there is only use for one, and a small amount of second-hand furniture in a rented county office; no court house or other public building, but a small block jail scarcely fit for a hog pen. Is it not about time that the voters and tax-payers should look after these matters themselves and not leave them any longer to the management of a ring intent only on their personal aggrandizement.

Judge Slatkoff, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Oregon, and a leading member of the Republican party, has accepted the nomination of Elector on the Greeley ticket and will stump the State.

ONE CASE WHERE FARMING PAID.—An Englishman who came to this country in 1855 has gone back to his old home, and his story is thought worthy of being told in The London Agricultural Gazette: There is nothing especially remarkable about it—it is simply one of many cases where a competency has followed steady work on a farm. Briefly it is this, as we find it epitomized in The Western Farmer: Charles Butcher, unable to read or write, accompanied by a grown-up son and daughter, arrived in New York in May, 1855. The father and son found work on a farm in Monroe County, N. Y., at $16 per month each—the daughter finding work in a family, and not again appearing in the story. They were so poor that when harvest came they had not money enough to pay for the mittens needed as a protection against the thistles. They worked on, accumulating between $500 and $600 in three years. They then bought a farm of 64 acres for $50 an acre, paying $500 in cash. The farm was in bad condition, subject to overflow and the ravages of the wire worm. The skillful application of labor stopped the overflow, and good cultivation was given. The son married. In five years the farm was paid for and fairly stocked. After a year or two a better farm of 140 acres was purchased at $95 per acre, the old one being sold for $85 per acre. This is paid for, and the whole property is valued at something over $15,000. The father, at the age of 58, has sold his interest to the son for $10,000, payable in 12 years, with 7 per cent interest, and feels himself entitled to the rest and pleasures of a visit to his native country and old friends.

THE SMALLEST ENGINE IN THE WORLD.—Mr. D. A. A. Buck, jeweler, of Worcester, has built the smallest engine in the world. It is made of gold and silver, and fastened together with screws, the largest of which is one-eighth of an inch in size. The engine, boiler, governor, and pumps stand in a space seven-sixteenths of an inch square, and five-eighths of an inch high. Perhaps a better idea of its smallness will be conveyed by saying that the whole affair may be completely covered with a common tailor's thimble. The engine alone weighs but fifteen grains, and yet every part is completed, as may be seen by a microscopic examination; and it may be set in motion by filling the boiler with water and applying heat, being supplied with all valves, etc., to be found upon an ordinary upright engine. To attempt an estimate of its power would seem like rather small business but for a guess, a span of well-fed, flea-would furnish more force if they were properly harnessed and shod. The little thing would tug away several minutes if encouraged by a drop of water heated by the application of a burnt finger.

THE INLAND SEA OF JAPAN.—This Japan, I re-declare, is the most beautiful country in the world—and I have now seen a good part of the world. I have come down through the inland sea by what shall I say to give an American an idea of it? through Lake Champlain, say, through Lake George, the thousand islands of the St. Lawrence, the Rocky Mountain ranges, and the Columbia river in Oregon, Puget Sound in Washington Territory, etc. There is nothing surpasses it, scarcely anything that equals it, in our country. The Scotchman here has his Loch Lomond, or Loch Katrine; the Swiss, his Geneva Lake; the Englishman Westmoreland; the Irishman, his Killarney. We have been sailing for twenty-four hours, ten miles an hour, through a succession of changeable scenery, an idea of which you can only have by bearing in mind the beautiful home spots I have named. The hills are covered to the very tops with the liveliest green, or these hills are terraced generally with garden-spots, one overhanging the other. Along many of the hills and on the very summits, are strings of lofty trees, so trained as to make a seeming continuous march of forest to forest over every hill-top.—Brooks' "Seven Months' Run."

ACCIDENT TO A STEAMER.—On Wednesday evening, near Dungeness, while towing a Spanish bark to sea, the Goliath burst her cylinder-head, thereby disabling the steamer and preventing either her further progress or return. As the wind was fair, the bark turned and ran to Port Townsend, where she communicated the news. Collector Drew immediately sent the cutter Lincoln to the relief of the Goliath, and, acting for the Puget Sound Mill Company, chartered the tug Favorite to take the bark out again. Before this, the Goliath is doubtless in port and undergoing necessary repairs.—Colonist.

ANOTHER RAID.—On Monday evening last at the parsonage of the M.E. Church a regular raid, by way of surprise, was made upon the parson and his excellent lady by many of the leading citizens and members of the various Protestant denominations of the town. After a hearty greeting of fellowship, song, speeches, etc., the enthusiastic visitors retired, leaving in possession of the Pastor and family various presents of linens, muslins, etc., besides a glass dish of golden preserves (coin) amounting to nearly $70, as an expression of appreciative love. The people of Seattle know how to estimate a consistent life and a persistent effort. The contributors of the above will please accept this public expression of devout thanks upon the part of the favored ones. May the blessing of the gospel of peace rest upon them both in this life and that which is to come. VROIL.

GRAY'S HARBOR.—Geo. W. Weidler, business manager for Ben. Holliday, has been making an examination of Gray's Harbor lately, and the Olympia Tribune says: "It is stated that Ben. Holliday will run a line of steamers from Gray's Harbor to within eight miles of Olympia by traversing the Chehalis and Black Rivers, and a stage line to this city will make the connection complete."

LAUDABLE.—Mr. Peterfield Turpin, Esq., of Olympia, is collecting photographs of the pioneers of Washington Territory, with a view to their preservation and possible publication. In this collection are included all who settled in the Territory prior to Jan. 1, 1859, men, women, and children, and especially native-born Washingtonians. As it is impracticable for Mr. Turpin to see such parties and make a personal request, we ask for his collection a card picture from each, with the endorsement thereon of age, place of nativity, date of arrival in the Territory and residence. Address Mr. Turpin through the post office or advise in person.—Tribune.

FOUND DROWNED.—A letter from Robt. Watkinson, Esq., Sheriff of Mason county, dated 2d inst., states that the bodies of two white men were found on the beach at the entrance of the Liliwap, near Union city. Although the remains were in an advanced stage of decomposition, they were ascertained to be those of Andrew Atkins, an old resident on Hood's Canal, and James Dewel, late of Michigan, and believed to be representing the firm of Lond & Co., of Ansbala, Mich. The bodies were decently entered on Bald Point, the day the letter was written. No inquest was held, but the unanimous opinion was that the deceased came to their death by drowning.—Standard.

Thirty-six jurors, of a panel of 200 summoned in Mrs. Fair's case, were called, sworn and examined as to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the case, in San Francisco the 8th inst. All but two had formed an opinion, one was excused and another had conscientious scruples against the death penalty. The court ordered triers to be called to decide as to the fitness of the last, but no triers could be found who was qualified. It looks as if the empanelling of a jury would last as long as the former trial, which occupied twenty-four days,

PUGET SOUND EXPORTS.—During August, Puget Sound sent to foreign ports $91,205 worth of her products, divided as follows: To British Columbia.....$36,849 China.....6,532 England.....5,111 Chile.....8,733 Peru.....21,000 New Zealand.....8,000 Sandwich Islands.....4,180

We have had a good deal of meaningless spread-eagleism about this national destiny. But, denuded of hyperbole, we take it to mean this, that by the blessing of God and the Constitution of our country, one American is as good as another, and not a great deal better, as Pat had it; that each of us is supposed to start even in the race for preferment and honors; and that because a man carries about his person a white skin or a black skin, or happened in times gone by to wear a blue coat or a gray coat, is not to darken his life or diminish his liberty or obstruct his pursuit of happiness.—Louisville Courier Journal.

Gerrit Smith, says the Albany Argus, goes for Grant, but he does not seem to have much influence even with his own family. His son, Greene Smith, is President of a Greeley and Brown Club at Smithfield, Madison county. Gerrit H. Smith, a nephew, is President of a Greeley and Brown Club at Geneva. John Cochrane, also a nephew of the erratic Gerrit, is Chairman of the Liberal Republican State Committee.

Three California Governors have died and eight are living. The deceased are McDougal, Bigler and Johnson. The living are Barnett, in San Francisco; Weller, in New Orleans; Latham, in San Francisco; Downey, in Los Angeles; Stanford, in Sacramento; Low, in China; Haight, in San Francisco; and Booth, in Sacramento.

A dying Irishman, asked by his confessor if he was ready to renounce the devil and all his works, replied: "Do not ask me that; I'm going to a strange country, and I don't intend to make my self enemies."

Dr. McElroy, of New York, being about to marry his fourth wife, some one asked his daughter who was going to perform the ceremony. She replied "I don't know, but I presume it will be Dr. Spring. He generally marries father."

PURSON.—In Brooklyn, New York, the Grant party and the Brick Pomeroy party have united on a fusion ticket, composed of half of each. This is eminently proper; they were united in common sympathy and should make common cause in interest.

Trade during the week has been quiet. A

It will be well for our business public to remember that after October 1, no revenue stamps will be required on any instruments except two cents on Bank Checks.

Real Estate Speculators. We learn that a few a good thing. Land that 20 days ago was having taken round two corners it was whispered

CATERPILLARS.—The Common Council of the city of Olympia have passed an ordinance requiring all owners of fruit or shade trees infested by caterpillars or other vermin, to destroy the same by burning, within one week, or it will be done by the Marshal at the expense of the owner. That is a good ordinance.

ASSAULT.—Charles Voss, who had a letter mislaid and detained at the Post Office, in this city, went into the office and assaulted Mr. Gilliam in very violent and abusive language. In forcibly putting him out blows were exchanged, and Mr. Voss got a black eye, in some way.

He entered a complaint before Judge Perkins, who after hearing the case, discharged Mr. Gilliam at the cost of complainant.

TRAVEL on the Sound seems to have been greatly improved within the past week or two. The trips have been increased and every passenger steamer arriving and departing from this port seems unusually crowded.

BERLIN, Sept. 17.—The government has issued a second circular, in still more threatening terms than the original, against emigrants, whom it declares will be threatened with outlaws. Despite the government, emigration has only been slightly affected.

PARIS, Sept. 17.—DeKernat, Minister of Foreign Affairs, assures the friends of about that he has strong hopes that their energetic intervention with the government will result in his release.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Tory journals are bitter over the result of the Geneva arbitration. The Advertiser says: "What a farce has been played at Geneva where

England has been adjudged to pay tributes to a bully who repudiates its own obligations. America is not content with the settlement of the claims against

England," etc. The Standard breathes defiance and hatred against the Americans, and says that "The breach between the two countries would have been evident.

Of course had the arbitrators decided upon a larger sum for indemnity England would pay it; if they had awarded nothing America could but show her teeth. What humiliation next awaits the award in a similar strain and says:

"We went to Geneva for justice and reconciliation, but instead met with in-vectives from the American Counsel and partially adverse awards, dictated rather by a desire for compromise than by equity. The whole proceedings in connection with the arbitration are entirely unsatisfactory to England."

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A letter from

President Grant is published congratulating Gen. Dix and the people of New York on his nomination for Governor,

and predicting his certain election.

An unauthenticated report is in circulation that the Union and Central Pacific Railroads are to be consolidated.

This afternoon five hundred and eighty two Mormon emigrants, composed of Scandinavians and English, who arrived

by the steamer Minn sota on Monday,

nsylvania Railway.

PARIS, Sept. 17.—The French government has issued string-ent regulations to they would give him a unanimous vote in November.

A dispatch was read from the ex-Confederate soldiers of Louisiana stating that the war would never have occurred but for the promises of assistance held out by the same party now striving to elect Greeley. That they repudiate the action of the Baltimore Convention and honor Grant's magnanimity to Lee and the soldiers of the Confederacy; and believe, in spite of lies and sneers, that the coming campaign was to be devoted to the happiness and prosperity of the Southern people.

After addresses by Gen. Logan, Senator Wilson, Jno. A. Garfield and Stewart L. Woodford, the Convention ad-journeled till to-morrow.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—A call was is-ued to-day for a convention of straight-out Democrats at Columbus, to select a Democratic State Central Committee, nominate electors and make other arrangements for the coming election.

been slightly affected.

defiance and hatred against the Americans,

two countries would have been evident.

the award in a similar strain and says:

President Grant is published congrat-

cific Railroads are to be consolidated.

nsylvania Railway.

prevent the introduction and spread of Marine Intelligence.

California Correspondence.

COLUMBIA, Cal., Aug. 28, 1872. Editor Dispatch:—After a longer delay than I intended at the date of my last, I have again seated myself to indite you a short letter, though the times seem singularly barren of "matters and things" worth writing about. The excessive hot weather, which has prevailed this summer throughout the interior of California, still continues. The inhabitants of this region are panting in the unintercepted glare (save during the night-time) of burning sunshine. Not a cloud has come to our relief for months past, and the "face of the earth" hereabouts is well baked and presents a barren and dreary aspect. Heat and dust, with dust and heat for a change, make up the full accounts of weather matters. If you have a surplus of vapory screens up in the Sound country, a profitable trade might be carried on by sending them in this direction. Shadows are in great request and eagerly sought for here and hereabouts at this time, and a few cargoes of the article named above would go off at high figures. Send us something to cool us if convenient. A keg of cool beverage from Stuart Chrichton & Co., or a frigid "editorial" in the DISPATCH, would have a salutary effect upon many. The Pomeroys Democrats need a cooling cataplasm to allay their fever of opposition to the Greeley and Brown ticket—though to do them square justice I must give them credit for already having "cooled off" considerably. They will be all right by the 5th of November, by and through the application of a few soothing poultices. Let them have them.

The grain crop is all cut, or about all, much of it threshed, but only a small part secured, and great fear is entertained by many that much of the crop will be lost, for want of time to move it before the advent of the rainy season. Immense quantities of sacked grain are now lying at places remote from either railroad or water communication and will require months to be hauled out by teams, while still larger quantities are lying at usual landing places along the rivers, the waters of which are now too low to admit river crafts of any kind to approach them. After the extreme heat and dryness of the spring and summer months, it ought not to surprise any one if heavy rains should come unusually early in the fall months, and if they should, an immense amount of damage would unavoidably result to the grain-growers and others who have invested large sums in the present crop. We hope for the best, but while we are hoping the world wags in its own way, there's no use of talking to the contrary, the weather maker will have her way in spite of us. Nature can't be "reconstructed" and controlled by human power. She's altogether too strong for us, and therefore and consequently we always did and always will have to succumb to the demands of Nature. She's the grand acting Queen of the universe. Raining is Nature's concern altogether; harvesting and taking care of the grain belongs to "us fellows."

The Presidential contest waxes more and more ardent as time rolls on, but the hottest of the battle has not yet been reached. The contending parties are only skirmishing as yet. How the great battle will terminate of course no one can foretell, but the chances of victory seem now to be largely on the Greeley and Brown side. Most people I see seem to think that the country has had quite as much of a little more than is for its interest of the rule of the now dominant party, and are in favor of a change of administrators. Let the change come, I think the country can stand it. From what I read in the Sound papers it appears that political matters on the Sound are getting sounder, as well as other parts of the country. Political affairs have waxed exceedingly rotten, and a regeneration and purification of them is now demanded by the country's welfare. I like the course and sentiment of the DISPATCH on the Presidential question. The idea of a union of all parties of like political desires for the accomplishment of a common object, appears both sound and practicable. Union is strength, and if strength is needed to remove a public evil it is certainly wise to obtain it, if it can be consistently done. But somebody will be President, whether the right or wrong man be the successful one, unless the machinery of the Government fails to operate. We hope for the best, but while we are hoping the world indifferently whistles along upon its own trail.

Tenure of Office.

While we, as citizens of a Territory, can have no voice in our national affairs, yet it may be fortunate, in this: That we have more time to attend to our own immediate concerns; to purify our own body politic. Reform in the administration of public affairs is the universal cry, and upon this theory the trammels of party and of party discipline are being thrown off, party distinctions are being laid aside, and the great majority of all parties will unite in the one purpose of placing in office only those having the pre-requisites of honesty and capability. That a complete and radical change in our own county affairs is absolutely necessary, there can be no doubt. The statements of the officials themselves, are sufficient to establish this fact, even if other evidence was wanting. The cause is plain, a long continuance of the same men in office invariably tends to corruption; there is no chance for a satisfactory investigation of their official acts; they assume "prerogatives," and to rule and dictate to their masters, and finally end by themselves becoming the slaves of their own former corrupt instrument, who in their turn, claim the offices, to dispose of them to the highest bidder. The remedy for all this is plain: By legislative enactment, all executive and fiduciary officers should be ineligible to the same office for more than two consecutive terms; in this way all official acts, especially those pertaining to finance, will necessarily be received, at least once in four years, thereby removing, to a great extent, temptations to malfeasance and speculation. Let reform commence now, selecting such men for office as are honest and capable, regardless of former party affiliations, and above all, elect such representatives to the next legislature as will advocate the passage of a law limiting the term of office.

OREGON SENATOR.—They are having their usual excitement in the Oregon Legislature over the election of a United States Senator. The most prominent candidates are Corbett and Mitchell, the Attorney of Holliday, with the Railroad influence to back him, and believed at the beginning of the canvass to have a decided majority of the Republican members, which now appears to be doubtful. The Bulletin, Holliday organ, of Sept. 10, says "the Corbett Republicans and the Democrats entered into a combination yesterday afternoon for the purpose of defeating the permanent organization of the Senate, and thereby throwing the Senatorial election off for two weeks."

A majority of the members of both Houses subsequently held a conference, of which the Bulletin says "At the conference Corbett developed a strength that surprises his opponents and caused some of Mitchell's friends to feel less sanguine than heretofore. They, however, are willing to stand by the decision of the caucus, as they originally urged it and it is the established usage of the party. There has been no vote taken on the Senatorial question, and it is not known exactly what strength the candidates have; but there is one thing plainly evident, and that is that several persons supposed to be for Mitchell have turned up in the Corbett camp. One member from Marion county and another from Lane county, elected as Mitchell men, have gone over to Corbett, causing their friends sincere regret. During the day, yesterday, there were many rumors that Mr. Brown, of Marion, had gone over to the Greeleyites, and at one time threats were made by citizens of Salem of burning him in effigy; but better counsils prevailed and no attempt at anything of the kind was made."

The Bulletin further says: "Last night and this morning there has been some very ugly rumors about concerning a bargain being made between the Democrats and Corbett managers, by which, in consideration of the support of the Democrats, he (Mr. Corbett) agrees to come out, work for and support Greeley and Brown. I confess that the rumors are of a character to call upon my largest credulity, but there are, as you well know, stronger things than even such a combination; and as politics makes strange bed fellows, there is no telling where those who want office will turn up. But if such a bargain has been made, we warn those who have engaged in it to halt and consider where they are drifting."

The Oregonian has changed hands and is now edited by Win. Lair Bill, who took an active part at the last election in the reform movement against the Holliday Republicans, and now supports Corbett.

RAILROAD PROGRESS.—Track-laying is progressing at the rate of three-fourths of a mile per day and has reached a distance from Kalama, the place of beginning, of thirty-three miles. The celebrated bridge at Pumphrey's is finished, and the first train passed over it on Saturday last. A station has been located a half a mile from Pumphrey's house, on a forty-acre tract of land donated by him for the purpose. One bridge, over the Olauqua, is in a finishing condition, and, when completed, the track will be laid to the end of the work, at the rate of one and a half to two miles per day.—Tribune 11th.

The Great Medical Discovery of Washington Territory! MERCER'S PANACEA! Prepared by Dr. Thomas Mercer at Seattle, Washington Territory. This preparation is carefully prepared by Dr. Mercer, who gives his personal attention thereto. After years of experience he presents this compound Tonic and Cathartic to the public, as better calculated to assist in overcoming disease than anything yet offered by the faculty, in all cases of General Derangement of the System. It promotes digestion and stimulates the deficient organs into healthy action. AS AN APPETIZER IT HAS NO EQUAL. It is particularly beneficial in eradicating from the system the Effects of Syphilis. AS A CATHARTIC it is unsurpassed, being unaccompanied with griping and pain. DR. MERCER has also a preparation, which he calls THE LADIES BALM, Being expressly designed for female derangements. He has also prepared a Pulmonary Syrup Which is unsurpassed for COUGHS, COLD and all derangements of the lungs. All the above medicines are purely vegetable. For Sale AT THE DRUG STORES AT SEATTLE.
