 FROM DAILY OF THURSDAY.
THE FAIR.—The attendance on the Fair of the Western Washington Industrial Association at Olympia has not been as large as usual, owing to the almost continuous rain. The following are the principal entries so far, according to the Olympia Echo of yesterday morning:
 Mrs. Alpha C. Hurst, Lowell, Snohomish county, has 81 varieties of cut flowers, a most wonderful display of patience and ingenuity. They came up on the Zephyr in tip-top condition. Mrs. Hurst will get Vick's premium, we think.
 A. J. Chambers has two squashes on exhibition; one weighs over 80 pounds.
 W. Owen Bush, of Thurston county, has 80 feet of wall and table filled with his productions; 42 kinds of fruit, among which is a plate of tempting peaches; 44 different kinds of potatoes; 118 kinds of grain. His family also have many fine samples of domestic hand-work.
 The fine art department is filling up and is a display worthy of the Territory.
UTSALADY.—We have the following news from Utsalady. The favorite is laid up and being altered to a tug boat. Her cabin arrangements will be the same as before she was put on the mail route.
 The barkentine Constitution is loaded with 260 cords of cottonwood bolts for some Chinamen who are getting them out on the Skagit river and have two cargoes more on hand. They have built a large capable of carrying 60 cords and keep it busy all the time carrying bolts from Skagit to Utsalady.
TO THE FAIR.—To afford every body an opportunity to go to the fair, the Zephyr is going to make an accommodation trip to Olympia to-morrow. She is to leave here at 7 A. M., arriving in Olympia at 2 30 P. M., in time to see a good deal of the fair and to go to the ball in the evening. Returning, she leaves Olympia at 10 A. M. on Saturday.
THEATRE.—Fanny Morgan Phelps and troupe have returned from the Oregon State Fair, and this week played three nights in Olympia. They will be here to-morrow evening and play the sensational five act drama: "The Lancashire Lass," to be followed by the farce, "The Debutante, or a Peep Behind the Scenes."
KEACH'S STORE.—The large new store of Mr. Phillip Keach is finished and nothing is wanting except the shelves and counters, which carpenters are at work putting in now. We see Mr. Keach's name among the passengers by the Dakota and suppose he has with him the stock of goods for his new store.
MENAGERIE.—We have been requested to state that the menagerie will be here sooner than expected and will consequently open to-morrow night, instead of Saturday, as advertised.
MORE SALOONS.—Two more saloons have been opened in the last week. Seattle will be acquiring quite a reputation as a thirsty place if they keep on at this rate. In 1871 there were 9 saloons in this place and now there are nearly 30.
CONCERT.—Miss Fannie Marston, the celebrated young California prima donna, is to give a concert in this city about the 26th or 27th of this month. Miss Marston is spoken of in the highest terms by the press of California.
FROM WHATCOM.—The steamer Libby arrived here during the night from Whatcom. She had a very large amount of freight, consisting of potatoes and grain, together with a quantity of flour from the Tulalip Reservation for the Puayllup Reservation.
FROM WHITE RIVER.—A scow owned by parties up the river came down from White River yesterday with a large load of hay. She went up the river to day after a load of hardwood lumber from McCallister's saw-mill.

TERRITORIAL PRISONERS.—Sheriff Billings of Thurston County has submitted a proposition to the legislature, to keep all the Territorial prisoners, in a suitable building, for the sum of $1 per diem, apiece.
 FROM DAILY OF FRIDAY.
 There will be no lack of amusements here for the next day or so. There is to be a concert, theatre, menagerie, spiritual seances, dramatic readings and other things too numerous to mention.
POLICE COURT.—Bob and Jim, two Indians, were up before Justice Scott on the charge of drunk, disorderly and fighting. They were released on payment of $3 and costs.
SPIRITUAL SEANCES.—We give below the account of three gentlemen, all non-believers in spiritualism, who were present at a seance of Mr. Jacobs last night. While we do not believe in spiritualism and think that all these phenomena are either trickery or can be explained by natural laws, we give place to their account and allow the reader to make his own deduction:
 At the residence of D. N. Crane, Esq., last evening there were assembled about 30 persons to witness the manifestations produced through Mr. Jacobs, a famous medium. An aperture was cut, 10x12 inches, through a door leading into a small bedroom. A committee was selected during the day—Wm. Hammond and S. F. Coombs to prepare matters for a test. They got from Sheriff Wyckoff a pair of patent handcuffs and shackles and a staple, and a ring of 11 inch iron, six inches across, was taken up to the house in the evening. The shackles were fastened to the floor by the staple and the chair was also fastened to the floor. Mr. Hammond and Mr. Briggs were appointed a committee to secure Jacobs. His shoes and coat off his feet placed in shackles, also handcuffs with a spliced rope going over the chain connecting the handcuffs and around one of the rounds of the chair, so that he was compelled to sit in a stooping position. The ring, together with three small bells, a large dinner bell and a harmonica were placed on the stand. The door was not closed one eighth of a minute before a hand or a shadow of one was seen at the aperture, and only half a minute elapsed before Jacobs said: "open the door and bring a light. The committee, first to go in, found the ring on his right arm and the handcuff's on the same as when put on.
 We have not space for any more extracts from the committee's report. Suffice to say that while handcuffed in this position he rung the bells, played the harmonica and put on his coat—or, as he says, the spirits did it for him—being always found in the same position when the door opened. Mr. Jacobs is evidently quite an artist in his peculiar line.
MARRIED.—At the Congregational Church, in this city, on the evening of the 21st inst., by Rev. Jas. Hall, John M. Blanchard to Hattie E. Shinn, all of this city.
THE BARK MENSHIKOFF.—The bark Menshikoff has finished loading with Renton coal and gone over to Freeport to take on a deck load of lumber. The schooner Superior has commenced loading with Renton coal from scows.
POLICE COURT.—A person giving the name of "Billy Snooks" was up before Justice Scott this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was fined $3 and costs.
THEATRE.—The Fanny Morgan Phelps dramatic troupe will not perform here to-night, as advertised. A telegram to that effect was received here at noon to-day.
THE REVENUE CUTTER OLIVER WOLCOTT came in to-day.
HORSE TRAINING.—Messrs. Rockway and Hurlburt will be in this city on October 28th, 29th and 30th, and instruct a class in the art of horse training. Their ad. will appear in Monday's paper.

As we see no signs of a tent being put up, we suppose the menagerie will fail to put in an appearance to-night.
SEANCE.—The seance of Mr. Jacobs last evening, at the residence of D. N. Crane, was very well attended. The harmony was not as good as the night before, he said, so the manifestations were not so numerous. His hands were filled with flour and handcuffed, and shortly after the door was closed a hand appeared through the opening. Bells were rung, as the night before, and the ring put on his arm. Altogether, the seance was very good. No evidence of trickery has been found as yet, though there is little doubt in our mind that the phenomena are produced by natural causes. There is another seance to-night.
THE PHELPS TROUPE.—We have received a letter from Mrs. Fanny Morgan Phelps, explaining the reason of her not fulfilling the engagement to play here last evening. In leaving Olympia the Alida got stuck in the mud and did not get off in time to enable the troupe to reach here in time to fill their engagements. Mrs. Phelps has gone to Portland to play for a week or so and will be here about the 5th of November.
HORTON'S BANK.—The partition has been put up dividing the building into two rooms, and plastering has commenced, and carpenters are at work fitting casements, etc. The building will be finished in the course of the next few weeks.
THE REPAIRS TO THE WENAT are very nearly finished. Her hull has been almost entirely rebuilt and when she goes off the ways she will be almost as good as new. She will be launched next Tuesday or Wednesday.
THANKS.—To Mr. Frank Stadler for a big jug of fresh, sweet cider of an excellent quality.—Go to his house on 2d street, corner Columbia and try it yourself.
MENAGERIE.—The menagerie came down on the steamer yesterday and last night put up the tent. They open this afternoon at 2 o'clock and also this evening.
THE ALIDA came down from Olympia to-day with quite a number of passengers and one of the largest freights she has landed here for a long time.
THE STEAMER BLAKELEY was over here this afternoon and took on some shingles for Port Blakeley.
THE STEAMER MASTICK came over here last night to coal from the Talbot bunkers. She left this morning at 8 o'clock.
HAIR JEWELRY.—We call attention to the advertisement of Mrs. Hall, maker of hair jewelry. We have seen some specimens of the jewelry and they are very neat indeed.
FROM WHITE RIVER.—Morrill & Morris' scow came down the from White River last night with 300 bushels of vegetables and some 20 tons of hay.
THE BRIGANTINE LEVI STEVENS, loaded with Seattle coal, sailed this morning at about half past seven.
PORT TOWNSEND.—A soldier named Martin Gelvin, serving in the garrison at the Fort, who had only about 10 days more to serve, and had $300 due to him for service, fell overboard from Tibball's wharf and was drowned on Saturday. The body was found Monday afternoon on the beach near Fort Hudson.

Snohomish Correspondence.
 SKOONOMISH CITY, October 18th 1875.
 The steamer Fanny Lake on her last trip was unable to obtain a load, and I am sorry to say had to go away without it. She came for hay, but though she telegraphed to parties here from whom she expected to get it, for some reason they failed to have it ready and although hay is one of the leading articles of industry here, none of our farmers in this vicinity had any hay of the quality the Fanny Lake wanted, baled ready for market. There is a very large hay-crop of the very best quality, stored in barns here, unbaled. Why it is not baled and ready, I suppose, because the owners are waiting for something to turn up. There is a large surplus over and above what the stock and loggers can consume here at home, and if farmers don't bail it, and have it ready, now that steamers are ready and anxious to freight it away to other parts of the Sound, no one will hereafter sympathize with them when they complain that there is no market for produce in Washington Territory. There is a market, and farmers are getting a better average price for their produce here than they are in Oregon or California. The truth is, they want to sell for such a price as to be able to clear as much off of a few acres as farmers elsewhere make off of a full claim.
 The Zephyr came yesterday at about her usual time. She brought a family who are enroute to join the Swedish colony already planted above here on the banks of the Snoqualmie. She brought other passengers, likewise freight for our merchants and logging-camps.
 Hon. E. C. Ferguson and lady and Mrs. M. A. Sinclair were among the out-going passengers. Mr. E. goes back to Olympia to resume his duties as representative and the others to visit, attend the fair and have a good time. I wish I could get elected to some office so my expenses would be paid just for a little run out on the Sound, even if I didn't get any further than Seattle. Can't you pass round the hat for me.
 Oct. 20th.
 Almost incessant rain for the last three days. Loggers are preparing for the fall raise of the river. A very large anchor has been brought from Port Gamble and placed in position at the head of Eby Slough. A sheer boom has been placed there for the purpose of turning all logs down the Slough. It is thought that this will prevent the usual loss of logs attendant on sudden raises in the river, which has always happened and probably always would so long as the boom remained above the town.
 The Yakama came up last night. She brought but little freight and few passengers. She was after logs at the mouth of the river. She is owned by and run in the interest of Puget Mill Co., and of course cannot make regular trips. For that reason her freight and passenger list is liable to be light. She is the largest boat running here, and as the business of the river increases she will no doubt run regularly.
 The Fanny Lake has just arrived. She brings freight to E. C. Ferguson and others. She is to load at Reynolds' ranch with hay and will not leave until morning.
 New Tow-boat.—A new tow-boat is about to be constructed by McAllister Bros. It will be built of yellow cedar or cypress, will have 162 feet keel, a breadth of 27 feet, and 12 feet depth of hold. The hull will be built at Port Essington, Skeenamouth, where the brothers have erected a saw-mill expressly for the purpose of cutting all the timber for their craft. The engines will be on the compound principle, with a H. P. 125, nominal, and are now being built at Glasgow, Scotland. The tug will be a side-wheeler, and it is believed that that style of boat is best adapted for towing in these waters. In points of power and strength of hull the new will be one of the most powerful afloat in the Pacific.—Colonist.
 A QUEEN WATCHMAN.—A fellow coming home from California had a monster rattlesnake in a wicker cage, which he deposited, with his other plunder, under his bed at Chagres. The room contained fifty beds—half full of drunk and sick fellows. During a temporary absence of the owner, the snake got loose, and the owner coming in and finding his critter gone, yelled out "Everlastin' misery! who's seen my watchman?"
 Many heads popped up from the flea-infested dirty beds, but nobody had seen the missing article.
 "What was he, ole fellow, you're inquiring for?" said a bald headed man.
 "Why, why, watchman; all my dust is under my bed here, and I left a guard with it, but he's gone!"
 "Guard—was he a nigger or a white feller?"
 "No, he was a California rattlesnake, nine feet long, and fifty two rattles in his tail. Have any of you fellers seen the tarmal critter crawl'n' round here?"
 They hadn't—but all who are able to get out of bed and mizzle, did so in hurry.

Notice.
 TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
 WHEREAS, THE COMMISSIONER OF THE General Land Office, in letter dated July 15, 1874, ordered that the lands in Township 23 North, Range 5 East, in the district of lands subject to sale at Olympia, W. BERRIAR BROWN, EDITOR. Seattle, W. T., Oct. 28, 1875.

Telegraphic

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The natives of Porto Rico in New York and neighboring cities are preparing to form a committee in this city after the manner of Cuban patriots and co-operate with their countrymen at home in their efforts to throw off the Spanish yoke.

In the suit of the city against the estate of the late Jas. Watson who was the former King's County Auditor, judgment has been given for the recovery of $940,804, as part of the alleged six million stolen by the King.

23.—Gold closed at 14 1/4. Money 2 1/2 @ 3.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—Capt. Johnston, of the Steamship Royalist arrived from Liverpool, reports that he fell in with the burning wreck of the iron ship Aurora. The lower hold was a perfect mass of fire, everything else that could burn having been consumed and finding it impossible to save it he scuttled it.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—A man named Baker has received from Nebe Booth a letter stating that he assisted to abduct Charlie Ross and intimating that he is in the hands of a man known as Gusto whose real name is Sam. Hurlbert and who is now in England. Booth says he gave the boy to Hurlbert as his own son. Baker has obtained Booth's order for the child and starts for England to see if he can find the boy. While there is no certainty but that it is another hoax, there is some hopes that Baker will succeed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The order of nolle prosequi in the indictments against Tilton and Moulton for libel in connection with the Beecher case was made and granted because no public interests were likely to be reached by the revival of the scandal, as no new evidence of consequence is obtainable. Judge Nelson cordially approves the motion. It looks now as if Tweed and his confederates were disposed to make heavy pecuniary restitution to the city in settlement of the pending civil suits but nothing is yet accepted by the authorities.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 23.—Col. S. R. Cockrell, ex-Member of Congress, died this morning at his residence at West Union, Ohio.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 23.—The remains of Gen. George C. Pickett reached this city to-day from Norfolk in charge of a committee from that city, Petersburg and Richmond. The veterans of Pickett's division and other officers and men of the Confederate army and navy, the military of Richmond, including colored troops, civic societies, etc., will escort them to Hollywood Cemetery.

The unveiling of Stonewall Jackson's statue will be a grand affair and will be attended by civic and military organizations.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The first of Moody and Sankey's revival services was held at Brooklyn rink this afternoon. Fully 5,000 persons were waiting for the doors to be opened, when services commenced the building was filled throughout. A chorus of 250 opened services. Services were also held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the building was packed with people and at least 50,000 were unable to gain admittance. A large gathering of clergy men were on the platform.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—A Washington special says there are intimations that the President will take a very decided position in his message to Congress with respect to the recognition of the Cuban belligerents. These rumors have their origin in sources friendly to the Cuban insurgents.

Secretary Chandler left to-night for Michigan without making any changes in the Interior Department. It is certain a considerable number of Democratic clerks will be removed. There is a prospect that the Indian Department will be turned over to the War Department. When Chandler was in the Senate he advocated such a change in more than one speech. Statements have been put in circulation that at least three of Grant's cabinet are disgusted at Mr. Chandler's appointment and it has even been said there was a probability that one or more of them would resign in consequence.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Postmasters appointed, W. H. Dodge, Bruneport, Chelais County, W. T.; Edgar Byran, Coupeville, Island County, W. T.

MILAN, Oct. 23.—The Emperor of Germany leaves this evening for Berlin.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—A special from Berlin says it is reported that Count Von Armin's sentence will be commuted to a fine.

The Post's telegram from Berlin says it is reported that Prince Bismarck contemplates resigning office in consequence of ill health.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—The recent statement that the San Francisco Board of Brokers had passed resolutions forbidding transactions with the members of the Pacific Exchange was premature. It was referred to a committee to report in five days.

PORT MADISON, Oct. 26.—It was discovered this morning that James Stewart, one of the crew of the bark Oakland, was missing and a book being

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—A man named Joseph Dalton, stable keeper near Tehacapie Pass, Kern county, was brought to this city to-day for treatment for wounds received at the hands of a band of outlaws on the 16th inst. Dalton was in the stable alone when the gang entered. He was attacked and stabbed twice, his horses were run off and Dalton left for dead. He was brought up on a litter upon the train to-day, accompanied by a physician, and taken to St. Mary's hospital. His medical attendant reports the wounds likely to prove fatal.

The board of supervisors met at 10 o'clock this morning for the purpose of canvassing the returns of the late election. Carr is found to have a majority of 1,811 over Fitzgerald for superintendent of public instruction. For police judge Londerback's majority is 2,109.

St. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—As Stephen Lewis, a fisherman and ferryman was taking a load of colored people across the Mississippi river, from South St. Louis to East Corondolett, yesterday afternoon the skiff sprang a leak above the water line, and Lillie Smith being frightened, sprang to her feet, capsized the boat, and all were drowned, except two. Lewis, in attempting to save two women, was lost himself. The names of the drowned are as follows: Perry Glover, Stephen Lewis, Bettie Slaughter, Lillie Smith, Louis Jackson, and a boy three years old.

found near the edge of the wharf belonging to him it was thought he had fallen overboard. Grapples were put down and the body found. It is supposed in going on board in the dark last night he slipped and fell overboard, and in falling struck the edge of the wharf, stunning him, as he was an excellent swimmer. An inquest was held this morning.

At the commencement exercises of Abbott Academy, Andover, Mass., Prof. Smith told the young ladies that while he was not "prepared to send them forth as captains in the social ship there would never be any difficulty in their finding situations as first mates."

It is coming election time, when the weary, waiting wife sits before the smouldering fire at 1 o'clock in the morning, and sobs and thinks of the sunny days of her childhood, and chafes the handle of the poker as soon as she hears the click of her husband's night-key.

The Gilroy Leader says: Advertising is a great bother. It only brings a lot of folks to your place of business. If they want you let them hunt you up. Then if you get your name in the paper, you will be bored with drummers, and people from the country will call on you, and you will have to show them goods, and like enough have to do up bundles which will exhaust your stock so much that you will be obliged to buy more goods, which is great trouble. If you advertise, too, it gives your place a reputation abroad; folks will go there and crowd you, and make it too lively. If you don't want to do anything, keep as still as you can.

A Tennessee girl told a fellow she would give him a kiss if he would catch her. She ran well till she got out of sight of the old folks, and then gave in. This shows what a Tennessee girl will do when she is hard run.

Economy is beginning to prevail again. At a funeral, Saturday, nine men appeared with unlacked boot heels.

A TOM-CAT ROMANCE.—Robbid Watkins had a tom-cat concern under his house. He closed his eyes, but sleep refused his soothing presence. He raised the sash, stuck out his head, and said: "S-s-s, git, s cat," with as much emphasis as he could bring to bear. There was a momentary lull; then the concert went on with renewed energy. Watkins sat down with his elbow on his knee, resting his chin on his hand, in deep meditation. Finally he took his shotgun, started down stairs into the yard. His wife sat by the open chamber window watching him as he, dressed in his white robe de chambre, stalked with measured tread about the yard. Watkins saw a pair of fiery eyeballs ahead of him, and he raised his gun slowly and fired. There was a terrible scamping around the shrubbery. One of the feline minstrels mistook the bottom of Watkins' garment for an avenue of escape, and made for it. Watkins dropped his gun and started for the house like a streak of lightning. He fell over an osage orange hedge, but that did not delay him long, as the cat urged him on, and he landed at the top of the stairs, he didn't know how. He didn't sleep much that night, nor the next.

A BIG TURNUP.—Our friend Stephen Cleveger has been aware for some time that a monstrous turnip was growing in Monterey county, which put anything in the vegetable line, ever before heard of, far in the shade. He did not, inform us of the item until Sunday, because he feared we would disbelieve the statement. On Sunday he brought to this office, as his authority, Mel. Byerly, of the Salinas City Index, who agreed to make affidavit to the following: That about two weeks ago he saw, growing on the Seaside Ranch, about 65 miles below Monterey, a turnip which measured five feet two inches in circumference. Another grew by its side which was as large as a common tub. The land upon which this big vegetable grew is near the Hot Springs, and is warm and moist all the year round.

To the best of our recollection, he was an Arkansas clergyman who had been accused of trailin' his "true inwardness" in the company of the wrong woman. Under these painful circumstances, his wife was frequently compared to a "noble Roman matron;" but she didn't seem to mind it, and firmly declared her belief in her husband's innocence. When the day of trial arrived, she sat in court beside him, and moved the jury to tears by arranging a 50 cent bouquet in a buttonhole of his coat. The case was at last opened and the witnesses for the prosecution called. There were thirty or forty of them; but before half a dozen had testified, a change came over the face of the wife, and getting up and addressing her remarks to the Bench she said: "See here, Judge, I'm satisfied if you are. Don't mind me. I can stand it. I reckon its into me, Judge, to get even. Just hold on to him till called for, and if any woman wants him, he's hers, and no questions asked." Then, turning to her husband, and snatching the floral tributes from his buttonhole, she bitterly exclaimed: "Remember from this time forward my home is a den of ragin' lions, and you ain't no Daniel."

TRIED BY HIS PEERS.—Mr. Parsons, a lawyer in Chicago, was trying a case before a jury, but counsel for the prisoner. The judge was very hard upon him, and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Mr. Parsons moved for a new trial. The judge denied the motion, and remarked: "The court and the jury think the prisoner a knave and a fool." The counsel promptly replied: "The prisoner wishes me to say he is perfectly satisfied—he has been tried by a court and jury of his peers!"

"Elastic" writes:—"I am a Pennsylvania democrat; my party in Ohio favors inflation, in New York it favors contraction. What shall I think?" If your pantaloons bag at the knee hurrah for Eilly Allen, but if your feet are so big that you have to get out of bed to turn over 'rah for Sammy Tilden.

From Daily of Wednesday

Snohomish Correspondence.

SNOHOMISH CITY, October 22nd 1875. The Fanny Lake left this morning with a partial freight and several passengers for Seattle. Our farmers must wake up. They have been Rip Van Wicketing too long already for their own good. We now average four boats weekly, and they are all anxious to obtain freight, if only placed on the bank ready for shipment. Farmers cannot expect the crew of steamboats to bale their hay or haul it to the landing for them. They will take it to any part of the Sound at a reasonable figure. Now it is known that we have more hay than is needed for home consumption. Why not go out on the Sound, make a market for produce and let the steamers freight it out? It is not often that buyers come among us. Farmers must seek their market themselves. If they fold their hands and wait for purchasers to come to them, the winter will pass, and they will find themselves with this year's crop on their hands unsold and no room in their barns for next season's produce. But few can afford to hold over for better prices. Better bale and sell it for all it will bring, pay debts rather than interest, and get ready for the better times indicated as coming next year.

Another carpenter with his family has located here. There are not houses enough here to accommodate all the families desirous of locating here. Why not some one build a few tenements and supply the deficiency?

Messrs. Dickinson & Duvall and the Elwells have turned loose nine round booms up at their logging camps on the Snoqualmie. That stream has raised about two feet, making a very good stage of water for driving. There will be no trouble now for steamers to go up to Falls City. Can't the citizens of Seattle get up an excursion for the falls? They would be joined by some of the settlers here and along the river above. Where's the Fanny Lake? She is ready to undertake anything, and it seems to me an arrangement could be made for a grand excursion and a good time. Have you no one in Seattle who takes an interest in such things? or are you so absorbed in steamers, railroads, coal mines and saw mills, and so busy buying and selling that you cannot spare an hour of your population to make up an excursion to view the grandest of all sights in Western Washington—the Falls of the Snoqualmie.

There was a social dance at the school house last night. All who attended appeared to enjoy themselves. Arrangements have been made to have a dance every Saturday night from this on till after the holidays.

This morning the river is full of logs from the camps on the Snoqualmie and Skykomish. There are nearly four million that will go down on this rise of the river. The sheer boom at the head of Eby Slough is working all right. By this arrangement all danger of losing logs on this river is obviated and will give a fresh impetus to that branch of industry this winter and next summer. Both the Snoqualmie and Skykomish have an abundance of excellent timber. Heretofore, so great has been the loss when running logs, on account of sudden high water, that many have been afraid to log above the town. But the sheer boom at the head of Eby Slough and the new boom across that slough at the cut-off catches all the logs and renders logging as safe as anywhere on the Sound. We shall all be greatly benefited by this new arrangement.

SAILED.—The bark Lizzie Williams, loaded with 1,300 tons of Seattle coal, sailed this morning for San Francisco.

The Fanny Lake will, in future, make her weekly trips to Snohomish City on Thursday morning, returning Friday morning.

STEAMSHIP DAKOTA.—The steamship Dakota, Capt. Morse, arrived here this morning at an early hour. The Dakota is by far the largest vessel that ever entered this harbor. She was built at Greenport, N. Y., in 1866. She is a sidewheeler, has 3 decks and her dimensions are as follows: length, 270 feet; breadth of beam, 40 feet; depth of hold, 20 feet; registered tonnage, 2,135. She was built by W. H. Webb for the Australian line. After discharging her freight here she is to go on to Olympia, where she will receive the Governor and Legislature on board, as we have already mentioned, returning here about Friday morning. We have already published her passenger list for this place, but the following is the total number she brought:

For Victoria, 46 cabin and 37 steerage; Port Townsend, 2 cabin and 11 steerage; Seattle, 25 cabin, 23 steerage; Portland, 28 cabin, 3 steerage; Olympia, 3 cabin, 1 steerage.

The following is her freight list: W. Clancey, 1 pkg.; S. P. Andrews, 19; Ira Goodenough, 23; David Ross, 7; Schwabacher Bros & Co, 119; L. Reing, 6; M. A. Messrs. Sprout & Co. have learned that a seam of fine bituminous coal has been found on the mill property at Barclay Sound, within a quarter of a mile of the wharf. The value of the seam will be tested. Should it prove extensive the contiguity of Barclay Sound to the ocean will render it a favorite resort for shipping seeking coal cargoes.

Every one who knew him will have a green spot in his memory for Lieut. Commander Fitzgerald of H. M. S. Boxer, who went home more than two years ago in ill health. Letters received by last mail state that Lieut. Fitzgerald died at Torquay on the 28th of August of congestion of the lungs. Ten years ago, when an officer of H. M. S. Scout, one cold winter's day a sailor fell from the yardarm of the Scout into the Straits near Cape Flattery, Lieut. Fitzgerald leaped overboard and held the man up until a boat was lowered and both were rescued, but not until the brave lieutenant had contracted a cold from the effects of which he never fully recovered. For this gallant act Lieut. Fitzgerald received the medal of the Humane Society.

Friday afternoon two little boys aged about seven years, were playing on the logs near Spratt's wharf. One of the logs rolled over and threw both of them into deep water. The accident was fortunately observed by Mr. McKinley, on Dickson & Campbell's wharf, who instantly rushed to their assistance, plunged into the water and succeeded in rescuing both of them. One child had sank to the bottom and was taken out lifeless, but Mr. McKinley adopted the usual means of restoring drowned persons and in fifteen minutes succeeded in bringing him to life again. The greatest praise is due to Mr. McKinley for his noble conduct in the affair.

A Chinese Lunatic was brought down on board the Enterprise yesterday. It appears that he was cleaned out of his money at cards, and took it so much to heart that he attempted to commit suicide while coming down in the stage from Thompson River. He afterwards jumped overboard from the steamer Royal City into the Fraser and sank once or twice; but was rescued by some Indians in a canoe and transferred to the Enterprise, and kept under lock and key on the trip down. He was received and taken charge of by two of his countrymen on arrival here.

THE BETWEEN LAWYERS.—A good joke was perpetrated on the Hon. J. C. Burch, one of the late Code Commissioners, during the argument of the contested election case yesterday in the County Court. Mr. Burch appeared as one of the counsel for contestants, and W. E. Turner for respondents. Turner, in the closing argument, commenced by saying that "among the contestants' counsel was one whose name was familiar to every lawyer in the State, and more especially to the young lawyers, who, in endeavoring to master the intricacies of the Code, had oftentimes blessed the noble codifier." Mr. Burch responded sotto voce, "let us pray!" "Yes," said Mr. Turner, you may well say 'let us pray,' for it is only by prayer we can ever hope to understand the Code. The mind of a man is unable to grapple with its mysteries, and God alone knows what you codifiers intended."—Oakland Transcript, Oct. 1

THE STEAMSHIP DAKOTA.—The new Williams & Guion steamship Dakota, sister ship to the Montana, of which extended notice has been made in these columns, arrived at this port on Saturday, on her first voyage from Liverpool. She is of the same peculiar, and withal handsome model as the Montana, 325 feet long, 45 feet beam, and 36 feet depth of hold. The Dakota can steam sixteen knots an hour, and has accommodation for 80 cabin and 1,500 steerage passengers. She is commanded by Capt. Forsyth. The Dakota made her initial trip across the Atlantic in less than nine days, and did not steam at full speed. Three days out she passed an immense iceberg.—New York Evening Mail.

Mr. William H. Munday, of Seneca Falls, is reported to have played recently at that place twenty-four games of chess at one sitting against twenty-four different players without sight of men or board, which is said to be eleven more games than was ever attempted before. The playing was done at the residence of Judge Josiah T. Miller, the player sitting on the stoop, talking in the mean time and answering questions about the game. There was a dispute about the position of two of the pieces in two games, when Mr. Munday stood up and called off all the moves that had been made in the game and the positions of the pieces on the board. Mr. Munday once played six games at Hudson, New York. When fourteen years of age it is said he beat most of the best players.

How to Furnish a House.—The New York Times draws a picture of the time when our houses shall be furnished as they should be: "Heavy rugs will partly cover the polished floors. Paper of some neutral tint, free from glaring figures, will streach from the richly-colored dado at the bottom of the gay border at the top. The picture-rod will not be of the eternal gilt that wears us now. It will be painted some decided color that will harmonize with the prevailing shade of the whole room.

THE DEATH OF DE KALB.—Above them all towered the gallant German at their head. His sword was stained deepest, his battle cry rang clearest; there was triumph in the keen flash of his eye—if not the victor's triumph, the triumph of duty done. Three times he led his willing men to the charge. Three times they were forced back by superior numbers. For numbers began to tell. His horse was shot under him. His head was laid open by a sabre stroke. Jaquette, the Adjutant of the Delaware Regiment, bound up the wound with a scarf and besought him to withdraw from the fight. Without heeding the appeal, De Kalb led the charge on foot. Wound followed wound, but he held his ground desperately. At last, concentrating his strength in a final charge, Cornwallis came on. The Marylanders broke. De Kalb fell, bleeding from eleven wounds, still at this supreme moment strong enough to cut down a soldier who was aiming his bayonet at his breast. "The rebel General, the rebel General!" shouted the enemy, as they caught sight of his epaulettes. "Spare the Baron De Kalb," cried the Adjutant, Dubuyson, vainly throwing himself upon his body and trying to shield it with his own from the thirsty bayonets. He spoke to hearts hardened by the fierce spirit of battle. The furious English raised the helpless warrior from the ground and leaning him against a wagon began to strip him. At this moment Cornwallis and his suite rode up. They found him already stripped to the shirt, and with blood streaming from the eleven wounds. "I regret to see you so badly wounded, but am glad to have defeated you," said the victorious General, and immediately gave orders that his brave antagonist should be properly cared for. For three days his strong frame struggled manfully with death. Dubuyson watched by his bedside. English officers came to express their sympathy and regret. Soldier to the last, his thoughts were with the brave men who had faced the enemy so gallantly at his command, and just before he expired he charged his faithful Adjutant to give them his "thanks for their valor, and bid them an affectionate farewell." On the 10th he died, three days after the battle. The Masons of the British army took part at his funeral, and buried him with Masonic rites. Gates announced his death to Congress in terms of warm admiration, and Congress voted a monument to his memory, which has never been erected.—The Atlantic.

WELL SATISFIED.—A middle-aged man very ragged and forlorn, hung around a Detroit hotel the other day for an hour or two, and then tried to skulk in to dinner. The clerk nabbed him and said: "You want to prance right out here!" "I won't!" was the blunt reply. "Then I'll coerce you!" said the clerk, and he took the fellow by the hair, walked him to the door and "lifted" him heavy, saying: "Now, go to the police if you want to."

TO MEET THE PRESSING WANTS OF many persons on Puget Sound needing Medical and Surgical aid, and for comfortable rooms, good care and moderate prices, I have fitted up a Hospital, where every convenience and comfort will be provided in connection with experienced and skillful Medical and Surgical attendance.

Seattle being centrally located, with regard to these interests, and more accessible than any other point, we mean with the aid of these advantages, and by giving personal and thorough attention to its entire management, to build up an Institution indispensable to the sick and disabled who have no homes, and worthy of their confidence and that of the public.
