THE MAILS.—We cannot understand why it is that the Post Office Department of Washington, in arranging mail facilities under the laws, discriminates against the people of this portion of Puget Sound to a degree unparalleled in the history of that branch of the Government. The laws provide for a daily mail between Portland and San Francisco, from Portland to The Dalles, to Astoria, to Olympia, Steilacoom and Tacoma, and three times a week from Olympia to Seattle. The Postmaster General has, in his discretion, suspended the third service to Seattle till after the first of January, leaving Seattle, the largest town north of Portland, with more business than all the other towns provided with daily mails between that point and this, to be supplied but twice a week, notwithstanding the act of Congress which provides for such service three times a week. The consequence is, that our newspaper mails, daily accumulating at the way stations, reach here with no regularity, and many of them never reach here at all, and letters are often a week on the way which ought to be delivered here the day they are mailed at Portland. These things work a great hardship to the people of this town, and is all owing to the unjust discriminations of the Post Office Department against us. More than ten years ago, when Portland was not as much of a commercial town as Seattle is to day, it was supplied with an overland mail from San Francisco, at twenty times the cost of supplying this city with a daily mail now; but Portland had two senators and a Representative to look after her interests in Washington, and it appears we have nobody of any account.

RECENT STORM.—The Portland Oregonian gives the following particulars of the recent passage of the propeller California from these waters to Columbia River: "About 12 o'clock on Monday night the steamer California arrived here from Sitka and way ports. The steamer was over-due several days when she arrived, and in consequence of the boisterous weather at sea some slight apprehensions were experienced in regard to the safety of the vessel. It turns out that the occasion of the steamer's detention was the extremely rough weather she experienced. Since the California has been running on the northern coast, she has never before encountered such a rough gale as was experienced on the passage to this port. While on the way from Nainaimo to the Mouth of the Columbia, a terrible storm was encountered which lasted for several days and nights with unabated severity. The gale commenced on Friday and continued until Sunday. Wind and waves contended for the mastery, and at times it seemed as if the laboring vessel would not weather the storm. At times the sea ran so high as to sweep the decks. It became necessary to fasten down securely the forward hatches, and keep the stowage passages below for two days. Large quantities of water found its way into the hold through the hatches, and to be pumped out at considerable labor. For a long time the prospects of weathering the gale seemed very gloomy; but the gallant steamer rode through the storm in safety, and arrived off the bar soon after the storm subsided. Fortunately the vessel was loaded with coal and oil which could not be damaged by the water. After the storm abated, the steamer entered the river and reached her destination without further danger or detention. Before sailing, however, the California will undoubtedly undergo some repairs."

THAT ILLUMINATION.—The Intelligence in speaking of the Democratic celebration in this city, said: "Among the buildings brilliantly illuminated on that occasion, was the private residence of Mr. Brown, of the DISPATCH." This item having gone the rounds of the papers to show our sympathy with the party victory, it may be as well to say that our private residence was not illuminated on that occasion; that we have taken no part in party politics for several years past, or in any demonstration of rejoicing at party victories. If the late Democratic victories prove to be of material advantage to the country, we will then rejoice; but not till we see some of the beneficial effects, for we have lost all faith in party triumphs.

A HOUSE WHICH was being prepared for our residence, and occupied by a son of the editor, was illuminated by a youth bearing our name, who believes in Democratic victories. We had no part or lot in the matter.

WINTER IN CARBON.—The Sentinel says: "The 2nd of November ushered in the first instalment of winter. Snow commenced falling on that day and has continued falling every day since with the exception of yesterday, just in sufficient quantities not to interfere with traveling and to make sleighing good. Sleights have now taken the place of wheels and Wilnot has been doing a rubbing business this week, a large number of people having taken advantage of the fine weather to take a sleigh ride to Lightning in the fast four horse sleights of the Lightning Express."

TRANSFER OF PRISONERS.—The Portland Bulletin credits the report that the authorities of the Department of Justice at Washington City are about to remove all the United States convicts from the Penitentiary at Salem, to the prison in Washington Territory which belongs to the General Government.—The reason assigned for this move is that the Government can keep the prisoners in Washington Territory for four dollars per week per man, while at Salem it costs nearly nine dollars per man.

On motion of H. L. Pike, James H. McFarlane was elected recorder for the Skykomish mining district, after which the following laws were adopted:

ANCIENT PEOPLE OF COLORADO.—Tradition has it that once in the centuries gone by there lived a people in comfort, elegance and a reasonably high state of civilization—the royal Aztecs. Cortez came, the Montezumas called, their religion and their government were in peril, and, leaving home, and comfort and country, these true lieges of a sovereign whose throne rested on the centuries went down to the City of Mexico to fight for their traditions, and flag, and faith—fought and lost and died. Certain it is, that in Pueblo County there are traces of civilization and of substantial opulence, of which the very tradition has passed away here, and in which is neither Spanish nor Indian. Certain it is, that while the Indians, awed by the visible manifestations of the hand of God, came here to worship on State occasions, they did not use it as one of their permanent hunting-grounds or winter abodes. For centuries it seems hardly to have known the face of man as a dweller, and now, at a flash, it is open to all the world, and the silence of ages is broken by all the confused orchestra of modern life, the scream of the locomotive, the busy hum of industries, the whiff of machinery, the sounds of the gong and revelry, the crack of the rifle, the voice of prayer and praise, the music of children's voices and the quiet rhythm of happy homes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Passengers per Los Angeles for Victoria, B. C.: V. Denport and wife, James Stell, John Howell, J. P. Davis, Mrs. M. E. Easson, Mrs. Moun and child, Mr. O. F. Donnel, J. A. Khun, Capt. Bear, Mrs. Sarah Rodgers and 4 children, J. H. Howard, E. H. Anderson, Charles Humphrey, Frank L. Rowe, Miss S. M. McCallister, Miss Susan Petria, Thor. Griffith and 25 in the steerage.

A HANDSOME PRESENT.—We were shown this week the very handsome present received by Mr. J. C. Lipsky, from the firm of Schwabacher Bros. & Co., of this City. It consisted of a unique and very beautiful gold watch a hunter's stem-winder and setter, with lever movement and jeweled. It was purchased in Paris by Baily Gatzert, who had engraved on the inside case, while there, in the most artistic style, this inscription: "Presented by Schwabacher Bros. & Co. to J. C. Lipsky." It is a splendid and generous gift—an appreciative and a well merited one. Mr. Lipsky having occupied the responsible position of book-keeper for that firm, "which has been doing a business of $300,000 a year, for four years past.—Intelligence.

BERIAH BROWN, EDITOR. Seattle, W. T., Nov. 26, 1874

TWO MONEY KINGS.—Daniel Drew has the reputation of loving money for money's sake a little better than almost any other operator on Wall street.

A story illustrative of Drew's tactics is thus told: Being a large holder of Erie, he was trying to bull the stock in order to unload.

"My pious brother, I have a high esteem for you, and I'd kind o' like to put a real good thing in your way."

The dominion, who was not at all averse to making a little money in an entirely secular manner, mentioned the matter, in spite of Drew's injunction, to some of his wealthy parishioners, in order that he might induce them to lend him a few thousands of dollars.

The clergyman, naturally in deep distress of mind, called upon Drew to remind him of his promise. The cunning old fox, remarking that though he had lost a good deal himself, he would keep his word, gave the pulpit a check for the difference between what he paid and the then ruling rate.

The expounder of the gospel, on receiving the check, took occasion to observe: "Well, Mr. Drew, there are a number of our brethren to whom I should like to mention the probable rise in Erie, and all of them, to borrow my worldly phrase, 'went in' largely; and I am very much afraid that they have considerable of the stock on their hands."

"I'm very sorry," replied the hypocrite, no doubt the good Lord'll make good them losses, but I can't, you see, 'cause I've lost myself. Then, my dear brother, you remember what I told you 'bout keepin' the thing shaly. I'm glad to pay up yer difference, but 'other brethren must look out for themselves."

It cost Drew less than $400 to reimburse the preacher, while he made, by the information the preacher had imparted, not less than $10,000.

Drew is personally his antipodes.—His face and figure, everything about him, in fact, represent the undeveloped. He is a type of the yokel. In semblance he is vulgarity itself, with a certain cunning expression that rather hurts than helps any prepossession which one might possibly have in his favor.

The appearance of the two men shows how little there is in what is understood as good blood, or in the absence of it. Both of them have sprung from the people, and, so far as known, are the first of their name for generations who have had any wealth or any means of refinement, which they certainly have not improved.—N. Y. Cor. Chicago Times.

A POETIC TROUSSEAU.—A special telegram from Chicago about the Grant-Honore wedding says: "The trousseau was the result of months of skillful labor. Each garment is a poem in itself. Guiltless of extravagance, nicely pruned in its delicacy, it put to rest to shame."

If each of the bride's garments is a poem, what a fine literary the young couple will start out with. Perhaps the ultimate effect may be to make Fred literary.

ANCIENT TREES IN NEVADA.—In the bottom of the main shaft of the Virginia City Coal Company, El Dorado canon, Lyon County, has been encountered the trunk of a tree four feet in diameter, a lone relic of an ancient and extinct forest. Where cut through by the shaft this old tree is found to be perfectly carbonized—turned into coal.

CONTRASTS IN NEW YORK.—It is a common thing to contrast the old style of politeness and courtesy with the new style of impertinence and civility; the 18 hours of labor at the little pine desk with the "down at 11 and off at 3," which marks many of the modern business men.

IMPRISONED.—Jack Daniels got caught in a trap this morning. He went into Frank Hunt's fire proof cellar after something, and inadvertently closed the door, which, having been swollen by the recent damp weather, he could not open when he got ready to come out.

HOW TO GET RID OF A JOBBING CONGRESSMAN.—Cleveland has had a great rejoicing over its defeat of the commercial Dick Parsons for Congress, and his venerable and distinguished victor, A. B. Payne, said on the occasion: "But is there any hope for reform? Yes, and my solemn conviction is this, that the Democratic party alone, without the assistance of the Independent Republicans, can do nothing."

BRING OUT THE HOSE.—There was something malicious in the smile of a Michigan avenue saloon keeper yesterday as he dragged fifty feet of penstock hose out on the walk, turned on a full head of water, and remarked to a crowd of eight or ten boys that they could wash the walk. He went in and shut his door, and every boy in the crowd jumped for that nozzle. An old gent going by had his plug hat knocked into the street, and when he turned to remonstrate, the stream hit him in the eye, down behind the collar and on the back, and he galloped into a grocery and wildly inquired for a three barrel shot-gun and a hand grenade.

GENTLEMEN IN POLITICS.—That Fred Seward, son of the late Secretary of State, and Hamilton Fish, Jr., son of the present Secretary of State, have entered politics, and are running for the New York Assembly, strikes the New York Herald as a good thing. "Their entrance into politics," it says, "is a good augury of the time when gentlemen will form our Legislature."

Pere Hyacinthe recently applied for a Catholic Church in Geneva in which to lecture, but was refused because he was not a Catholic. He then applied for a Protestant church, where he was likewise refused because he was not a Protestant.

A census lately completed by the local authorities in Minnesota gives 650,000 as the present population of the State, and rates the taxable value of all property within its borders at $217,000,000—an average of a fraction over $393 to each inhabitant.

A man about two-thirds drunk, and his back covered with mud, stopped a policeman on the street and asked to be locked up. "Why, you are able to walk home, aren't you?" asked the officer. "Yes, I could get home all right, but I don't want to, and you wouldn't if you had my wife! Take me down, old fellow, and if she comes inquiring 'round, just say I've gone to Toledo on 'important business.'—Detroit Free Press.

loon-keeper came out and took the nozzle and exclaimed: "Poy! Poy! Poy! if you don't stop dis peeness I'll call for der perleece on dis beat!"—Detroit Free Press.

OLD MEN FOR OFFICE.—There seems to be a sort of tidal wave in the State of New York this year in the way of nominating old men for office. Both Dix and Tilden, the rival candidates for Governor, are over 70, while Clark, the temperance nominee, must be about the same age.

A man may borrow money, steal from a widow, discount his whiskey bill, "nip" a prayer book from a dying heathen, and still have some chance for pardon, but when he swindles a poor printer out of his bill, we think the devil has such a firm grip on the seal of his pantaloon that repentance and forgiveness are out of the question.

The Morning Argus is a democratic paper, and the other day the editor clipped from a republican sheet a long story about a frightful accident some where, and gave it to the foreman to put in the Argus. It so happened that the other side of the clipping contained a sporting editorial, in which the democratic party was fiercely denounced and Grant's claim to a third term strongly insisted upon.

Nineteen years ago a Tennessee father refused to let his young daughter go to a candy pull, and she disappeared. The other day she returned, lifted eleven children out of the wagon, and entered the house and took off her things as coolly as if she had not been gone over a day.

Four children were lately born at a birth—two of them alive—in the parish of Gosport, Herefordshire, England. The curate writes that the father, a toll-keeper in poor circumstances, and who has already four children to provide for, "though naturally confused, seems grateful."

Puget Sound Dispatch.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF SEATTLE, W. T., NOV. 26, 1874.

SHERIFF APPOINTED.—The Commissioners of Pierce county appointed G. M. Granger to fill the vacancy in the Sheriff's office occasioned by the death of D. W. C. Davison.

Notwithstanding the rumor to the contrary, there will be no postponement of the ball this evening on account of the weather.

Carriages will be in attendance for ladies. An invitation is extended to all.

THEATRE.—We are pleased to learn that Madame Duret, an artist well known at home and abroad, is now in our city, and intends giving us two or three evening's entertainments at the Pavilion.

Madame Duret is ably supported, and we advise the play-going public not to miss so good an opportunity.

SPECIAL TERM.—L. B. Andrews, clerk of the District Court, informs us that a special term of that Court will be held at the chambers of his honor Judge Jacobs, commencing on Monday, Dec. 7, and continuing from day to day until such business as shall come before the Court shall be transacted.

MARINE.—The J. B. Bell is loading coal at the Seattle Coal Co.'s wharf; the Deacon has finished loading and will sail soon; the Lovet Peacock is taking on the last of her cargo of coal at the Renton Co.'s bunkers.

The Addie went up to the Renton mine this morning with three large scows in tow.

POTATO PICKING.—On Thanksgiving evening, Thursday, Nov. 26, there will be a potato picking match at the Rink. Twenty-five potatoes will be gathered for a prize of $5. The six mentioned below will be the contestants: M. A. Kelly, S. C. Harris, J. L. Jamieson, W. Jones, R. K. Bonney, and E. H. Brown. Admission to the rink, 25 cents.

THEATRE.—Madame Duret and troupe played Tuesday evening to a very fair house. This troupe though small in numbers gives as good an entertainment as any troupe that has visited this city for some time past. Madame Duret is an accomplished artist and sustained her roles admirably.

The acting of all was good and the singing of Messrs. Archer and Fenton was loudly applauded. Mr. Archer has a first-class baritone voice, finely cultivated, and he rendered "Dublin Bay," "Little Maid" and the "Marseillaise Hymn" in a style that brought down the house.

LECTURE.—Miss A. Shepard, who has lectured with great eclat in many of the Eastern cities, gave her first lecture on this coast at the Pavilion on Sunday evening. Subject—"The Magdalen." She had been quite ill for some time past, as was far from being in a condition to do justice to her subject before an audience, but every critical person was satisfied that under more favorable circumstances she is a most attractive lecturer. Miss S. will give readings in character as soon as her health is sufficiently restored; say early next week; of which due notice will be given.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father in Steilacoom, November 18, by Rev. C. H. Hoxie, Jacob Hoover, Esq., to Miss Ella Harmon, daughter of Hill Harmon, Esq.

At the late election Jacob was elected to the Legislative Council on the Democratic ticket, and his father-in-law to the House of Representatives on the Republican ticket, from the same district, which is evidence of the popularity of both, and the family union conclusive of their liberality in politics. The bride and groom were both born in the Territory when Washington was included in Oregon, and are worthy representatives of the pioneer stock. We know Ella has got a first class husband, and believe Jacob has got an estimable wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Sailed, str. Los Angeles for Victoria; Whistler, Seattle; Jean Pierre, Port Townsend.

PORT DISCOVERY, Nov. 22.—Sailed, ship Beaver.

SEABECK, Nov. 16.—Arrived, Eureka from San Francisco.

Telegraphic

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The total number killed in the Warrenville coal mine, Yorkshire, is 24. Ten men have been rescued more or less injured.

The Fall Mail Gazette's Berlin special says: "It is stated that the British Government declines to accept Russia's proposal to adopt an international code, on the basis of negotiations at the Brussels conference."

Specials from Spain to the Standard state that large reinforcements are going forward to Miranda, where the Republican army is massing for operations in Nivare and Paraphelua. The Carlists are concentrating around Estella, under the command of Genl. Mendicari. The Basque battalions, with Don Carlos and Genl. Elio, are on the point of leaving Vera for Panteo La Reina.

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—Bismarck assures

the Turkish Minister here that the conclusion of direct treaties of commerce with Roumania will in no wise prejudice the political sovereignty of Turkey.—The negotiations are now in progress between the governments of Germany and Mexico for the conclusion of a treaty of commerce.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The cabinet session to-day continued nearly three hours. All the members except Postmaster General Jewell were present.—Arkansas matters were the subject of comment. Attorney General Williams submitted telegrams from Senator Clayton and several State officers, urging a recognition of the Smith party but the general opinion of the Cabinet was that since their last meeting nothing had occurred to alter the decision made at that time. The Government has in its possession no such information as would justify any interference with the controversy in that State. Governor Garland of Arkansas telegraphs to his counsel here to-day from Little Rock as follows: "All is peace; no disturbance."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 20.—Baker, U.S. Minister, recently received information that the residence of the American missionaries in Latakia, Syria, was violated by armed forces. He at once called upon the Grand Vizier and had a long conversation with him upon the subject of the outrage. The Grand Vizier said he was waiting for a report from the Government of Syria, and could take no action until it was received, but he promised most faithfully that the Porte would give the U. S. Government full and complete satisfaction, if wrong had been done.

HAVANA, Nov. 20.—Spanish mail steamer Isla de Cuba arrived here to-day, having disembarked 1,000 marines at Santiago de Cuba.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 20.—Smith is still hid. Peace and quiet prevail. Hon. Milton Saylor, of the Congressional Investigating Committee, arrived to-day.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Near the close of pool-selling last night bids suddenly changed and Fullerton became the first choice. Occident, second; Sam Purdy, third; at small odds. Weather is cloudy, but it is not likely rain will fall to compel a postponement of the race.

Greenbacks, 90@90 1/2. New York, Nov. 21.—A meeting of the Panama and the Pacific Mail directors is called for Monday to consider the reports of Messrs. Hatch and Park on the proposed consolidation of the two Companies. The Steamship Co. has increased the passenger rate to San Francisco twenty dollars.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Detectives Beach and Hester, who figured in Alabama so extensively before election, have returned to Washington.

Judge Poland says the reports telegraphed from St. Louis, purporting to give his opinions on the Arkansas troubles, were purely fictitious. He was waited on at St. Louis by a number of reporters, all of whom he received at the same time and absolutely refused to say anything upon the subject. Each reporter then published as a fact what he supposed Poland would have said had he said anything. The Judge says the difficulty is wholly susceptible of settlement in the Arkansas Courts, and that a case is now pending there, between Brooks and Baxter, involving all the issues between Smith and Garland.

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—In the trial of Sir John A. McDonald's election case the Judge has declared the election void, but said that personal bribery was not proven. Sir John is to pay all costs of the trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—At half past one o'clock the horses were called up by the Judges, scoring for the start. At quarter of two p. m. the horses had scored three times. Occident still nervous and excited, but finally got started. The first heat—Fullerton, first; Purdy, second; Occident, last. Time of first heat was 2:20 1/2, the best ever made to the wagon. The action of Occident in the first heat depressed the spirits of his friends. When Fullerton crossed under the wire, Occident's saddle was abreast the distance flag, but the Judges decided not to rule him out. Great dissatisfaction was expressed at the decision. The friends of Fullerton and Purdy claim he was four lengths back of the distance flag when Fullerton crossed under the wire. At four p. m. the horses had scored eight times, Occident breaking badly. Fullerton took the second heat; time 2:22 1/2. At the close of the heat, Purdy was 75 yards behind Fullerton and Occident 75 yards behind. Fullerton won the third heat and race; time 2:21 1/2.

New York, Nov. 21.—The Pacific Mail Company has begun an action against the Union Pacific Railroad Co. for $100,000 damages for alleged breach of contract. The two companies made stipulation that one company should not adopt a rate of freight below the other, and that the Union Pacific should send so much freight per month by the Pacific Mail, whose ships were to be in readiness to take it. The Pacific Mail alleges that it has kept its agreement, providing that each should be entitled to dissolve the contract on thirty days notice. The Pacific Mail gave notice and the Union Pacific failed to come to account, although it is alleged that it was debtor to the former company; hence the suit. To-day an order was obtained in the Supreme Court to show cause why the defendants should not furnish a bill of particulars.

New York, Nov. 21.—European correspondent states that in reply to an address of sympathy from the Catholic Congress at Bologna, the Prince Archbishop of Bristan said that the German ecclesiastical laws have been purposely framed to destroy the divine institution of the Church, and to subject the priests to the arbitrary rule of a non-Catholic Government, in order that in the end they might be driven from the country. The German Government has decided to prosecute the Brestan Scheische Volks Zeitung, which copied the Bishop's letter from an Italian Journal.
