GAMBLING IN NEW YORK.—The gambling house reporter of a New York paper gives the following report of losses: A well known newspaper publisher and politician has lost over a quarter of a million of dollars. A paymaster in the army was a defaulter $42,000, lost in the same way. A well known Californian has lost over $60,000. A well known citizen of Jersey City, doing a large manufacturing business, was completely ruined within a short time at the faro table. A young man, keeping books at Williamsburg, became a defaulter for $12,000; he was the only support of an aged mother, and was obliged to flee his home. A man, for over twenty years in the employ of an express company, and having the unbounded confidence of his employers, took to gambling and in an evil moment, to get money to play with, robbed his employers, was detected, and sent to the State Prison for a term of years. A young man came into possession, on the 12th of May last, of $56,000, and to-day he has not got a dollar, having lost it all at the gaming table.

SISKIYOU SODA SPRINGS.—At the foot of the Siskiyou, on the California side, in the vicinity of the Oregon boundary line, are four excellent soda springs of pure cold water, with a favorite and pleasing mineral flavor. Three of them are small, and are located about two miles north-west of the lower Cole's, while the other is a little west of the Upper Cole's, quite large, and measures one hundred feet in circumference, running almost a straight head outlet.—Ex.

On a recent trip of one of the Illinois river packets—a light draft one, as there was only two feet of water in the channel—the passengers were startled by the cry of "Man overboard!" The steamer was stopped and preparations were made for saving him, when he was heard exclaiming: "Go ahead with your darned old steamboat! I'll walk behind you!"

RAILROAD BILL PASSED.—The bill to aid in the construction of the Oregon Central Railroad passed the Legislature, and is now a law.

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.—Shortly before the departure of the lamented Heber for India, he preached a sermon which contained this exquisite illustration:

Life bears us on like the stream of a mighty river. Our boat first glides down the narrow channel—through the playful murmurings of the little brook and the windings of its grassy borders. The trees shed their blossoms over our young heads; the flowers seem to offer themselves to the young hands; we are happy in hope, and grasp eagerly at the beauty about us, but the stream hurries on, and still our hands are empty. Our course in youth and manhood is along a deeper and wider flood, among objects more striking and magnificent. We are animated at the moving pictures of enjoyment and industry all around us; we are excited at some short-lived disappointment. The stream bears us on, and our joys and our sorrows are alike left behind us. We may be shipwrecked, but we cannot be delayed; rough or smooth, the river hastens on till the roar of the ocean is in our ears, and the tossing of the waves is beneath our feet, and the floods are lifted up around us, and we take our leave of earth and its inhabitants, until there is not a witness save the Infinite and Eternal.

LINCOLN'S ORATION AT GETTYSBURG.—Speaking of Abraham Lincoln's oration at the consecration of the burial ground at Gettysburg, the Westminster Review says:

It has but one equal—in that pronounced upon those who fell during the first year of the Peloponnesian war, and in one respect it is superior to that great speech. It is not only more natural, fuller of feeling, more touching, and pathetic, but we know with absolute certainty that it was really delivered. Nature here fairly takes precedence of art, even though it be the art of Thucydides.

Thirty-two years ago, remarks the New York Tribune, when Douglas left his Green Mountain home for Illinois, his great rival, Lincoln, was keeping a post-office, fresh from the glories of the Black Hawk war; Andrew Johnson was mayor of a little mountain town in Tennessee, Jefferson Davis, a lieutenant of dragoons, was chasing the Indians, Seward was grieving over his defeat as Governor. Breckenridge was studying the orations of Cicero against Cataline at a Kentucky college. Chase was endeavoring to gain a law practice in Cincinnati. Sumner was entering the Boston bar. Broderick was cutting stone. Grant was a schoolboy in his teens, and Farragut was watching the honor of his flag on the torrid coast of Brazil.

NAPOLEON.—If we believe the Paris letter-writers, Napoleon II has the inflammatory rheumatism, diabetes, dyspepsia, Bright's disease, Smith's disease, sciatic gout, aurora, borealis, integral calculus, and several other things; he was almost poisoned at Vichy; but he manages to survive all, even Bismarck's dose of Prussic acid.

A SINGULAR PHENOMENON.—One of the strangest phenomena ever witnessed, occurred at Stevenson's farm, near Petroleum Centre, Pa. At about 12 o'clock at night, the people were awakened by a terrible explosion, that shook the earth for a mile around. It was caused by the gas taking fire from a lamp. The well where the fire occurred (15 Stephenson farm) now being drilled, is about 350 feet deep. The drillers were changing tools, when a few drops of burning oil dropped from the lamp and set the gas on fire. It flashed up at once in a flame to the top of the derrick, where, by some strange cause, a draft was created the other way. The flame was sucked down and burst out at No. 34, producing a well, distant 200 feet. The derrick floor was completely shivered to pieces, but aside from that very little damage was done. The tank at No. 34 was covered for the purpose of saving gas. The shock partially raised the lid of the gas tank, and set the gas on fire. The engineer climbed on the top of the tank and extinguished the flames. The fire burning from the well outside the tubing was extinguished with some wet cloths.

HYMEN.—Danchet, the French poet, tells us that Hymen was a young man of Athens, obscurely born, but extremely handsome. Falling in love with a lady of rank, he disguised himself in female attire, the better to carry on his amour; and as he was one day on the seashore celebrating the Eleusinian rites with his mistress and her female companions, a gang of pirates came upon them by surprise and carried them off to a distant land, where the pirates got drunk for joy and fell asleep. Hymen then armed the virgins, and dispatched the pirates upon the island, he sped to Athens, told his adventure, and demanded his love in marriage as her ransom. His request was granted. So fortunate was the marriage that the name of Hymen was ever after invoked on all future nuptials, and in process of time the Greeks enrolled him among their gods.

WASTED TIME.—Josh Billings says: "We are told that there want ennything made in vain, and this is sum so, but I hev thought the time spent in manufacktring musketoze want. How they was put together I never could tell, and there is one commercial peculiarity about the muskeeter trade, and that is the supply always exceeds the demand, and yet the product is not diminished; I kaut understand this no how. They are born of poor but industrious parents, and brot up with great care under the auspices of sum of our best families. They hev also konsumit kurreg. I hev known a single muskeeter to fite a man and his wife awl nite long, and draw the fast blud. It is very easy to kill muskeetoze when you kaan. But in striking them you are very apt to hit the exact place whar they recently wuz. They are cheerful little cusses, singing as they toil."

One hundred dogs are killed in New York daily.

It seems from the tenor of the dispatches this week, that the United States Government has entered into some kind of an arrangement with the Liberal Government of Mexico, whereby we are to acquire the States of Sonora and Chihuahua. What the arrangement is, the meagre and disconnected dispatches do not clearly state, but lead us to suppose, from the fact that a strong column of troops are to be placed on the Rio Grande and the fleet held in readiness, that armed intervention is contemplated in Mexican affairs. If such should prove to be true, and the territory named be incorporated into the United States, it would not only open a rich mining and agricultural section to the enterprise of our people, but it would also furnish a route for a railroad from Guaymas to some point on the Mississippi, which would take a large share of the commerce between this coast and the Atlantic States, and build up a rival city to San Francisco, at Guaymas. To this end, railroad men are already said to be looking. Much might be said as to the advantages we would derive from the possession of this territory, but the rumor is too uncertain to base speculation upon.

PASSENGERS BY THE JOSIE McNEAR.—The following passengers arrived by the steamer Josie McNear, from Victoria, Nov. 1st: Miss Birch, R. Rollins, T. Clancy, C. P. Potter, A. J. Latham, W. F. Foster, W. F. Graves, and C. A. Dorago.

The bark W. H. Gawley was to leave Port Madison on the 2d inst. for San Francisco. The Josie received 16 tons of freight for Olympia, from the bark Legal Tender. Brought 10,000 lath to Seattle.

On Thursday last some of the machinery in the mill of H. L. Yesler & Co. was broken, causing a stoppage of the mill for a short time to repair damages.

An Accused Man calls upon God to strike him Dead and falls instantly a Corpse.

Whatever version may be given to a circumstance that occurred in this city yesterday afternoon, the most thoughtless must perforce admit that the result is most strange and startling, and well calculated to turn the serious man to more profound meditation, and even stay the reckless man in his course. A man of robust health, and in the prime of life, is accused of a crime under circumstances of almost positive proofs of guilt, and, while he calls upon God to bear witness to his innocence, is struck dead almost before the appeal has left his lips. Incredible as the circumstances may appear, they are literally true.

A little over a year ago, there lived in a small village in Sweden, a man by the name of Rosencrist, whose ostensible pursuit was that of a tailor, but rumor had it that his principle revenue was derived from poaching and stealing, and at last this impression was so strongly confirmed that he suddenly left that village to evade the arm of justice. He came to this country about eight months ago and took up his residence in Chicago where he again worked at his trade. Having a family, he found it difficult to support them in the city, and consequently sent them to a farm about fourteen miles from Chicago. He thereupon took lodging at a boarding-house, No. 144 Burnside street, and for a long time no suspicions were entertained as to his character. Recently several valuable articles belonging to boarders were found missing, but no clew as to the perpetrator could be detected. Yesterday afternoon another theft was discovered and the proofs of guilt pointed directly to Rosencrist—no one else having been near the apartment since the time the articles stolen were last seen. On being accused he stoutly denied the theft, but finding no credence was given the denial, he suddenly grew more passionate, and lifting up his hand towards heaven, exclaimed that he hoped his "tongue would rot in his mouth, his head drop from his shoulders, and God strike him dead on the spot," if he was guilty. No sooner had these words escaped his lips, when he suddenly began to reel and stagger, and before support could be given, he fell to the floor—dead. The excitement this incident created among the bystanders can better be imagined than described. Strong men stood paralyzed, women fainted, and none were able to speak for some minutes. The occurrence was so horrible, this apparent retribution so terrible, that men doubted their senses. But the dead man remained prostrate on the floor—a ghastly proof of the reality. The rumor of this strange and startling fatality soon spread through the neighborhood, and in a few minutes the house was filled with horror-stricken people, none of whom doubted that the hand of God was thus made visible. A physician was called, who pronounced the cause of death to be disease of the heart, produced by over excitement. The body was conveyed to the dead-house, where an inquest will be held to day.—Chicago Times.

Exploring Expedition.

On the arrival of the steamer Mumford from the north, in August last, we learned that Capt. Butler, in charge of the Coast Exploration of the Western Union Telegraph Co., was packing provisions and material from the head of navigation on the Skeena river to Fort Stager, the point where Mr. Conway was expected to arrive with the line. We now learn from the Captain that the line met Fort Stager early in September, and he and Mr. Conway having come down the river, took Indians and went up the Naus river to explore. They found the Indians in a state of whisky on this river as also in Portland Sound. They are very jealous of either white men or strange Coast Indians making their appearance among them, fearing interference in their trade with Indians from the interior. Mr. Conway having returned to Fort Simpson, Capt. Butler proceeded with his men to Stekin, and established depots at the mouth of the mouth of the river and at Snakesville. The Indians, both at the ranch and up the river, are well supplied with whisky. The Coast Indians take liquor up and trade for furs. On the Taco, the natives were also in a state of whisky and shooting each other.

The party did not explore north of Stekin, the season being too far advanced, and the snow in the mountain passes too soft. There were two feet of snow on the banks of the river about the Big Glacier. Mr. Elwyn remains in the Stekin district with 20 men and plenty of provisions to conduct the winter explorations. There is a large quantity of material at the Highfield depot ready for the opening of the next season's campaign. The men, with one exception, returned in good health, although the season was very wet. The Mumford proved herself a good and efficient sea boat.—Colonist & Chronicle.

A WILD GIRL.—A very curious event lately occurred in Hungary during a bear hunt. A very savage she bear had just been wounded, when all at once a girl about 12 years of age, rushed out of the bushes, threw herself upon the body of the expiring beast, giving utterance to the most lamentable cries. After a good deal of difficulty this young savage was captured by nets and cords. It has been discovered that a peasant woman, some 12 years ago, lost a child—a little girl—in the confines of the forest and had never been able to obtain any more tidings of her. A certain Countess Odoele has taken the girl under her care, and is obliged to feed her on roots, honey and raw meat, the usual food of bears.

We hear from Paris of a new musical instrument of striking power and sweetness, and at the same time extremely simple construction. It resembles a piano with upright strings, except that the latter are replaced by tuning-forks which to strengthen the sound are arranged between two small tubes, one above and the other below them. The tuning forks are sounded by hammers, and are brought to silence at the proper time by means of dampers. The sounds thus produced, which somewhat resemble those of the harmonium, are extremely pure and penetrating. They are very persistent, yet instantly arrested by the use of the dampers. The invention has elicited great admiration.

WE THINK THERE IS no Medicine so efficacious in removing humors from the blood as SCOVILL'S BLOOD & LIVER SYRUP.

It is recommended by Physicians in all parts of the country, for the cure of Scrofula, and other diseases of the Cuticle. Pimples or Sores indicate that the system is out of order. Unless something is done to cleanse the blood of these impurities, the result may be a more serious disease, such as Scrofula, Syphilis, etc. Those who wish to find a most efficacious remedy, and yet have no confidence in Patent Medicines generally, will never regret a trial of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup.

REDINGTON & CO'S
Essence of Jamaica Ginger.

This valuable preparation containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to nausea, caused by riding in a railroad-car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes.

It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

PUGET SOUND WEEKLY.

MONDAY, November 5, 1866.

THE NEW EXCITEMENT AT BIG BEND.—The following is from the Walla Walla Statesman: We learn from Mr. John O'Donald, who is down from the Colville, that quite an excitement existed in that place at the time he left, in regard to some very extensive mining ground just discovered on Arrow Lake, about halfway between Colville and the Big Bend country. Nearly the whole population stampeded for the new diggings. About five miles of country has been prospected over, and Mr. O'Donald was assured that from ten cents to six bits to the pan was easily obtained. The steamer "49," Capt. Len. White, runs past the new diggings en route to the Big Bend mines. Mr. O'Donald brought quite a lot of the dust with him, and it is pronounced to be worth $18 per ounce; the dust resembles Mormon Gulch gold of California. It is certainly good for sore eyes to get a sight of such dust as "Uncle John" has on exhibition. Capt. White is in good spirits. The last trip of the "49" took up 40 passengers and a large lot of goods to the new diggings. We are glad to learn that we have such diggings so close to hand, and hope they may prove not only rich but extensive.

While some cattle were being driven over the bridge in front of the Washington Brewery, one day last week, a sill gave way, precipitating six or eight head of them to the ground underneath, a distance of fourteen feet—none of the cattle, however, were injured. It was fortunate it was not a team and wagon that went down, as it is not likely they would have escaped without damage. The bridge should have new sills, or another break-down may be more serious.

A department of Medicine and Surgery has been organized in connection with the Willamette University, at Salem Oregon.

John Malowanski, Captain of the Indian trading schooner Langly, was shot and severely wounded on Naas River recently, by a savage. The Indian's father was killed some years ago by a white man. By Indian law, if a member of a tribe is killed by a member of another tribe, the duty devolves on the murdered man's nearest relative to avenge his death by taking the life of the first member of the murderer's tribe that he encounters. In observance of this law, Malowanski visited Naas River to trade, the Indian came forward with a double-barreled gun, and, while pretending to examine its lock, pulled the trigger and fired the contents of both barrels at Malowanski. One ball passed through the victim's right arm and the other through one of his legs. The assassin professed to have shot Malowanski accidentally; but he was instantly killed by order of the chief. The wounded man was likely to recover at last accounts.—Colonist.

Grain Crops of Grand Ronde.

In speaking of the grain crops of Grand Ronde Valley, the Idaho World says we have obtained some very interesting information of the present produce and future prospects of that noted Valley. The total product of the Valley for this year, of grain alone, is over 1,000,000 bushels, of which 500,000 are wheat, the remainder mostly oats, with a little corn and barely. The total quantity of flour will be full 100,000 barrels—almost entirely made from white wheat of superior quality. There are now three flouring mills in the Valley, and two more will soon be in active operation. Mr. Wilkinson's alone will turn out 12,000 barrels of flour, from this year's wheat.

In addition to this large quantity of grain—furnishing sufficient flour to supply this whole upper country—over 100,000 pounds of bacon have been made in the Valley, and a very large quantity of hay. Several persons are preparing to engage heavily in the bacon trade next year, and the prospects for a far greater future supply are most favorable.

There are also some who propose to turn their attention to fruit, but it is yet to be ascertained how well the experiment will succeed.

The wheat product is certainly surprising. The average yield per acre the present year has been a trifle over thirty-seven bushels—in some places fifty or sixty bushels per acre. The average product of oats was about seventy-five bushels, and in one small area, full one hundred and ten bushels per acre!

DESCENDANT OF COLUMBUS.—A gentleman in Rome, writing to a friend in Boston, makes the following reference to a descendant of Christopher Columbus: "I have had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Monsignore Colombo, the only living descendant of Christopher Columbus. I first met him at a breakfast given by Cardinal Reisach, at Monastery St. Cecilia, and accepted an invitation to dine with him. He is a very genial, pleasant man, about sixty, manifests great interest in the affairs of our country, and expressed a great desire to visit us. The Pope has granted him permission to be absent next year, and he intends to visit America. I hope he may do so, and that our people will give him a cordial, generous reception, he being the only living descendant of one whom Americans should gratefully remember and love to honor. He possesses many interesting relics, formerly belonging to Columbus, among which are two fine oil paintings of him. He has written a life of Columbus, and presented me with a copy in Italian. I believe it has been translated into English, German, and French. Monsignore resides in Rome most of the year, passing a few months at his castle near Genoa."

At the type-founder's feast, held at the Crystal Palace on the 11th, Mr. Calson mentioned the curious fact that the matrices from paucheons originally cut by William Calson in 1725 were now taken down for daily use, after having been laid aside since 1772 as obsolete. With the returning taste for the beautiful in form, a necessary consequence of the greater popularization of art in our times, the old faced type had come to be regarded as the most elegant letters within the range of typography.

The Broken Atlantic Cable—A Thrilling Story.

The London Spectator tells the following singular and most interesting story:

Night and day, for a whole year, an electrician has always been on duty watching the tiny ray of light through which signals are given, and twice every day the whole length of wire, one thousand two hundred and forty miles, has been tested for conductivity and insulation. * * * The object of observing the ray of light was, of course, not any expectation of a message, but simply to keep an accurate record of the wire. Sometimes, indeed, wild, incoherent messages from the deep did come, but they were merely the results of magnetic storms and earth currents, which deflected the galvanometer rapidly, and sometimes even sentences of nonsense, upon the graduated scale before the mirror. Suddenly last Saturday morning, at a quarter to six o'clock, while the light was being watched by Mr. May, he observed a peculiar indication about it which showed at once to his experienced eye that a message was at hand. In a few minutes afterwards the unsteady flickering was changed to coherency, if we may use such a term, and at once the cable began to speak, to transmit, that is, at regular intervals, the appointed signals which indicated human purpose and method at the other end, instead of the hurried sighs, broken speech and inarticulate cries of the still illiterate Atlantic. After the long interval in which it had brought us nothing but the moody and often delirious mutterings of the sea stammering over its alphabet in vain, the words "Canning to Glass" must have seemed like the first rational word uttered by a high-fever patient when the ravings have ceased, and his consciousness returns.

FIGHT WITH A BEAR.—The San Jose Patriot, of October 16th, says:

Yesterday a number of persons were at the Fair grounds, when a Mr. Fulton, of this city, rode out and was anxious to see the bear let out of the cage, so that he could have a fair view of him. To gratify him it was done, and the bear, upon finding himself free from the cage, by an exercise of his great strength, broke the rope and fastening by which he was held, and made at once a rush for the crowd of persons around. A Mexican, named Donasio Escobar, of Monterey, was seized by the enraged animal and was badly bitten under the nipple on the breast, on the side of the face, and had several of his fingers nearly bitten off—the rest of the crowd got as rapidly as possible out of harm's way, while the Mexican (Donasio Escobar) and the bear were in mortal strife. At this moment two native Californians, mounted on horses, with lasso in hand, approached the bear, when the animal quit his hold upon Donasio and ran towards the fence, and jumped over it. Pursuit was made, and the bear was soon overtaken and lassoed by Captain Pico. With a great deal of effort, and after being badly beaten with clubs, the animal was secured and taken back to the cage, but died shortly after he was put into it. He weighed about 400 pounds. Donasio is not dangerously wounded.

Misery loves company, and so do marriageable young ladies.

A great many side hits are being made at the Plantation Bitters, by a score or two of disinterested friends who have endeavored to imitate or counterfeit them. It's all of no use. The people won't be long imposed upon. The Plantation Bitters are increasing in use and popularity every day, and "that's what's the matter." They are in the same sized bottle, and made just as they were at first, and will continue to be, or we shall stop making them.

The Plantation Bitters purify, strengthen and invigorate.

They create a healthy appetite.

They are an antidote to change of water and diet.

They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.

They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.

They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.

They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.

They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.

They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus.

They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The Recipe and full Circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, Merchants, and persons whose sedentary habits induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, liver complaint, constipation, &c., will find IMMEDIATE and permanent relief in these Bitters. But above all, they are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers.

They are sold by all respectable merchants. See that each bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork and steel-plate side label.

Beware of refilled bottles. See that the stamp has not been tampered with. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is a swindler and impostor, and should be immediately reported to us.

MUSTANG LINIMENT.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS SAVED.

Gentlemen:—"I had a negro man worth $1,200 who took cold from a bad hurt in the leg, and was useless for over a year. I had used everything I could hear of without benefit, until I tried the Mexican Mustang Liniment. It soon effected a permanent cure."

J. L. DOWNING.

Montgomery, Ala., June 17, 1869.

"I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scratches or Galls on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism, &c., and all say it acts like magic. J. W. HEWITT.

Foreman American, Wells, Fargo's and Harding's Express.

"The sprain of my daughter's ankle, occasioned while skating last winter, was entirely cured in one week, after she commenced using your celebrated Mustang Liniment." ED. SEELY.

Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 1, 1865.

It is an admitted fact that the Mexican Mustang Liniment performs more cures in shorter time, on man and beast, than any article ever discovered. Families, livery men and planters should always have it on hand. Quick and sure it certainly is. All genuine is wrapped in steelplate engravings, bearing U. S. Stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. over the top.

An effort has been made to counterfeit it with a cheap stone-plate label. Look closely.

Lyon's Katharion,

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing. It eradicates scurf and dandruff.

It keeps the head cool and clean.

It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.

It prevents hair turning gray and falling out.

It restores hair upon prematurely bald heads.

This is what Lyon's Katharion will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is literally sold by the cart-load, and yet its incredible demand is almost daily increasing, until there is hardly a country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it.

E. THOMAS LYON, Chemist, N. Y.

Lyon's Extract Ginger.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, Flatulency, &c., where a warming stimulant is required. Its careful preparation and entire purity make a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold every where at 50 cents per bottle. Ask for "Lyon's" PURE EXTRACT. Take no other.

CAUTION—See that the private U. S. Stamp of Demas, Barnes & Co. is over the cork of each bottle. None other is genuine.

Lyon's Flea Powder.

DEATH TO FLEAS.—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Maguetic Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of fleas, ticks, bed-bugs, roaches, &c.; that it is perfectly poison to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to the human species and domestic animals.

The genuine has the signature of E. LYON, and the private stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation or counterfeit—Any druggist will procure the genuine if you insist you will have no other.

MEDICAL INSTITUTE!
ESTABLISHED BY
DR. J. C. YOUNG IN 1850.
536 Washington Street,
Below Montgomery,
San Francisco, California.

Consultation by Letter, or otherwise, Free.

It would be equally useless and unnecessary to enumerate here the diseases cured at the Institute. All classes of complaints are treated; but I consider it my duty to mention those of a special nature, as upon such the unfeeling and irresponsible quack dwells, with phrases well calculated to deceive those ignorant of the emptiness of his profession. First among the special complaints is

Seminal Weakness.

I am aware that by dwelling upon so unenviable a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may asperse my motive; but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms: Weakness of the back and limbs; languishing feelings; loss of muscular power; nervousness; irritability; cold feet and hands, accompanied by hot head; symptoms of consumption; short breath; flushings of the face; aversion to society; confusion of the mind; loss of memory; nightly emissions; colorless, slight discharges upon the least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the heart; irregular appetite; variable temper, etc.

Young men, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may secure health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even in the slightest degree, you have the seeds of the weakness in your system, and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its great danger; for while the patient is being treated for some supposed affection of the heart, lungs, brain or digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal weakness. See in the bent form and languishing steps, the poor victim of that fascinating vice! Mark the course of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye! Drowsiness is one of the promontory symptoms. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights succeed days of depression. It is the nature of the complaint to assume sudden changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your fond hopes and blast your honest aspiration. Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the occasion, suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable condition, from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepit and degenerate.

of our institutions for the safety of those who are afflicted with mental troubles, bear fearful testimony of the wide spread, and disastrous influences of this dreadful complaint—but such notices as the following, that hardly at the time arrest the eye, give to the world the only intelligence it has:

Insanity.

Sent to the Insane Asylum.—The following insane persons were examined yesterday by Judge Blake, of the probate court, and sent to the Insane Asylum at Stockton: T. W. Plummer, native of Maine, aged 21 years, single, and by occupation a farmer. His malady appeared about five months ago, and is the result of secret vices. John Wall is another victim of solitary habits.—San Francisco Call, Oct. 12, 1865.

Yet the quotation speaks for itself in unmistakable language. It points out with unerring fidelity to every person afflicted with seminal weakness, one of the ultimate ends of that degrading complaint. At any time before reason became unseated, these poor victims had they read the warning and followed its advice, might have been saved. Let others, similarly afflicted, who have not yet passed the barrier where all hope is left behind, take warning by their untimely fate, and seek that relief which alone can secure them life and happiness. Consult then, at once, a physician whom long practice and research has made thoroughly conversant with every disease; one who will sympathize with your sufferings, giving to each and all assurance of a perfect and permanent cure, without hindrance from business, change of diet, or fear of exposure, or ask compensation for their trouble, and in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be reposed.

An unsolicited Testimonial of Cure.

Let all who are afflicted with Seminal Weakness read the sworn-to certificate first published without the Doctor's knowledge. A remarkable case. [Revenue stamp.] This is to certify that I was afflicted with Seminal Weakness to a degree that brought on severe fits. The troubles commenced about three years ago, when I first learned that the practice of self-abuse was ruining me. I first had nervous tremblings of the limbs, pains in my back, and trouble in my mind, a confusion and loss of memory, and other debilitating symptoms of seminal weakness. I gradually grew worse and worse until finally (the fits came on). At first I only had a momentary loss of mind, a dizziness. This grew worse, until in a short time, I would remain in a confused state—for some time after I had them in my sleep. I was satisfied that I must be cured, or I would perish miserably in one of the attacks that now became as frequent as twelve or three times a day, seizing me without warning and prostrating me to the earth, where I would remain for an hour insensible. I lost all recollection of persons and things. I could remember nothing for two minutes, but my great suffering. I swallowed bottle after bottle, and box after box of patent medicines. Nothing did me good. In despair of ever being well, I prayed for death; but I was not to die for help was at hand. My friends visited the Dr. J. C. Young Institute, and I was placed under the care of Dr. Benj. F. Josselyn. I very soon experienced a change; I grew better and better, and I could go to work. My mind became clear; the fits grew lighter; I was soon perfectly free from them, and now, for over two months I have not experienced them at all. All the symptoms of seminal weakness are gone, and I feel as well as I ever did. It is to DR. BENJ. F. JOSSELYN that, under God, I owe my life; and from the gratitude I owe him, I give this, my testimony of his skill and success. If this should induce any one unfortunately afflicted with seminal weakness to submit their case to him, I shall feel that I have, in part at least, paid the great debt I owe.

BENJ. BROWN. [Seal] Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of December 1864. [Notarial seal] W. O. ANDREWS, Notary Public.

Important to Persons

afflicted with Venereal: There are no maladies worse than those arising from the contamination of venereal poison. None are more terrible in their effects, or more disastrous in their results. After upwards of twenty years' practice in diseases of a private nature—fifteen of which have been in this city—I unhesitatingly declare that Mercury will not cure Venereal, but dries it on the surface, to allow it to poison the blood, to reappear in hideous marks upon the body, and in the throat, mouth and nose. Those who have had any form of Venereal, and were treated with mercury were not cured, but they still have the festering virus lingering in the system and feeding upon the delicate tissues, to be communicated to the wife or transmitted to the children. As terrible as it is in the person who contracts it, it becomes of still greater importance when transmitted to innocent offspring, whose sore heads, cankered mouths, diseased limbs, running eyes and blotched skin are the constant reproaches to the sins of the parent. Be warned in time and secure health by applying at the Dr J C Young Institute. The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration, without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business, whether in doors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cure always guaranteed or no pay required. Only purely vegetable remedies used.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry should be, "where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community?" The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female diseases for 20 years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing—Therefore, families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation, by letter or otherwise, free. See address below. The celebrated Female remedies compounded from the private prescriptions of Dr. YOUNG, have now obtained a most extensive popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimony of efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these renovating agents. None genuine unless prepared at this office. Sent by mail or express to any part of the State. The great Female Medicine—Preventive Powders for married ladies. New, safe and infallible, lasting from four to six months. Price $10. French Lunar, or Female Monthly Pills, for suppressions. After fifty years of use these pills stand unrivalled in efficacy. Price $5 per box.

To Correspondents:

Persons in the interior are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time or incur the expense of a visit to the city.—To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and information bearing upon the complaint will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen only by the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either returned or destroyed. Consultation free! Address thus—

WE THINK THERE IS no Medicine so efficacious in removing humors from the blood as SCOVILL'S BLOOD & LIVER SYRUP. It is recommended by Physicians in all parts of the country, for the cure of Scrofula, and other diseases of the Cuticle. Pimples or Sores indicate that the system is out of order. Unless something is done to cleanse the blood of these impurities, the result may be a more serious disease, such as Scrofula, Syphilis, etc. Those who wish to find a most efficacious remedy, and yet have no confidence in Patent Medicines generally, will never regret a trial of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE.

DR. JULIEN PERRAULT, Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University, Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptist Society of San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT has pleasure to inform patients, and others seeking confidential medical advice, that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall Building, North-East corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. Rooms No. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

DR. PERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long afterward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urethra on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and that Sight and Hearing are weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have external rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease, should apply immediately to DR. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

DR. PERRAULT'S diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases, can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfill our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and what advertised physician, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor with the assurance of relief.

FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS.

DR. PERRAULT is the only agent in California for DR. BIOT'S Female Monthly Pills. Their immense sale has established their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other remedy for suppressions and irregularities, and other obstructions in females. On the receipt of five dollars, these Pills will be sent by mail or express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to DR. PERRAULT, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, P. O. San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc. All communications confidential.
