HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

TO Purify the Blood.

These Pills have been placed by the common consent of mankind at the head of all remedies for removing obnoxious humors from the blood, and cleansing all the tissues of the body. They have saved thousands, year after year, from falling a sacrifice to the effects of dyspepsia, dysentery, diarrhea, constipation, liver complaint, &c., a fast acted by myriads of witnesses. Executive weakness and debility, the warnings of decaying organic energy and vital decay, are restored as I reanimating with vigor and beautiful action in every organ throughout the system, and restoring and establishing the influence of its medicine.

Female Complaints.

All disorders of the sex, and diseases in every critical period to the life and health of woman, whether acute or chronic, may be radically and quickly cured, without risk or trouble, by a few doses of these Pills, taken according to the printed directions.

Indigestion with languor and want of energy.

The efficacy of Holloway's Pills in Dropsy is extraordinary. They act with peculiar effect upon the system, that the fluids arising from this disease are imperceptibly carried off and prevented from accumulating. The sufferer requires a quantity of spirits, and repose in a completely renovated condition; but it is indispensably necessary that the Ointment should be most effectually rubbed into the complaining parts.

Those who suffer from bile and liver complaints should try the effects of this valuable remedy, a few doses of which will make the sufferer feel elastic and vigorous, and give all improprieties a healthy action to the liver. If bilious attacks be allowed to continue, serious casualties may arise, and the sufferer be constrained to a bed of sickness. In all disorders of the kidneys, the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back once or twice a day; and the Pills, acting in union, will cure any complaint arising from these organs.

PUGET SOUND HERALD.

STEILACOOM, W. T., Thursday Evening, April 2, 1863.

IN AFFLICTION.—The present editor of the Puget Sound Herald is seemingly in painful affliction regarding a supposed insecurity of human life hereabouts.

A considerable portion of the paper of the 23d ult. was devoted to that subject, and he again advertises to it in the last issue.

He needs no aid of lacking the moral aid necessary to protect him, we feel safe in promising, if he pursues such a course as will merit it.

We have published a paper (the Herald) here for five years, and, though, threats have several times been made to "blow the top of our head off," we have not yet experienced any serious apprehensions for our personal safety. Nor do we think that we should incur any greater risk in Olympia.

If a man is determined to make a martyr of himself, righteously or otherwise, he can easily be accommodated, and especially in the business of publishing a newspaper.

But it is as easy to avoid it as it is to incur the risk. For our part, we know of no portion of the Union where we should feel more safe than just here, on Puget Sound, in Washington Territory; and it has ever been a source of rejoicing to us that our "lines were cast in such pleasant places."

CASHIERS.—By a private letter from California, we learn that Lieut. E. B. Blake, late of Capt. Crowninshield's company, stationed at this post last year, has been cashiered.

Some months since, Capt. Crowninshield was dismissed from the service. Newton Israel, second lieutenant, a faithful officer and worthy young gentleman, is thus left in command of the company.

During the retention of Crowninshield, and Blake combined to persecute, with the view of forcing out of the service Lieut. Israel; and it is no matter of relating to all who know the latter that he has triumphed over them.

The army does not contain a more zealous and loyal man, nor one more deserving the confidence of his superiors. The history of this company affords an unfavorable commentary on the system of electing officers adopted by some of the California regiments.

A DAMP PROJECT.—The people of New Orleans are in fear of an inundation. The levees above the city, in many places, had great gaps made in them by guerrillas, for the purpose of bringing guns to bear upon the steamers plying up and down. The river at the last accounts was rising, and the water within a few feet of an overflow.

Nearly the whole surface of the State is several feet below the river at high water mark, and if the rise continued, it was feared that the whole country would soon be several feet under water. Not only Louisiana, but a great portion of Arkansas and Mississippi would be thus submerged.

SUCCESS SEVER SOULCIED.—The Equal Rights Reporter, a rabid Scotch sheet published at Yuba, Tulare Co., Cal., was recently squelched by a company of volunteers stationed at a post near by. It indulged in violent and insulting abuse of the Federal authorities and the volunteers, until the latter could endure it no longer, when they went in force to the office and destroyed it. An old humorist known as "Long Primer" Hall was the editor. The act was justifiable, and none but rebel sympathizers condemn it.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—We are informed that it is in contemplation to send either the Sixth Regiment of California Infantry, now recruiting in that State, Capt. Williams, of the Topographical Engineers, visited the stations below last week, with the view of ascertaining their condition prior to the departure from San Francisco of the above regiment. The purpose is supposed to be to garrison the posts with the W. T. Volunteers.

NEW BAR.—A man in this town having built his house in the street, the sectioner, in calling it, last week, and while dilating upon its advantages, gave this as one; saying the occupant of the dwelling could get into the street without going out of doors.

MELAN FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The barkentine Constitution arrived at Victoria on Thursday last, from Honolulu, S. I., with seventy males on board. She was eighteen days from the Islands to the Straits.

ARRIVAL.—The bark, the Commodore, Capt. Chandler, arrived at Victoria Tuesday night last, with quartermaster, etc. She will take a cargo of lumber at South Bay Mill, for San Francisco.

WHOLESALE DEPARTURE.—On Sunday evening, 23d ult., seventeen of the crew of the ship Wild Rover, at Tunkalet, deserted in a body. Only two of the entire crew remained.

A farmer in Sacramento county intends ploughing eight acres in cotton, this season.

THE PIRATE AND THE SHUBRICK.

The relations concerning the designs of the parties implicated in the J. W. Chapman affair, which has lately given the San Francisco people such a shock, have led to a variety of suggestions in the press for the protection of that city and the better security of its commerce.

The importance of adopting immediate measures to that end is strenuously and wisely urged, and the State is counseled to unite with the Federal Government in these measures.

With the means at their command, in vessels and war materiel, this would be attended with very little difficulty. Already are there several war vessels there, ready for instant service, in an emergency; and, if more be needed, there is no lack of powerful steamers that could, within thirty days, be put in good fighting trim.

One of the swiftest—the Federal war steamer, the Saginaw, at the date of the seizure of the pirate, was ready for sea and effective service. To these may be added the harbor defenses of Fort Point and Alcatraz. Surely we should suppose that with these means San Francisco was abundantly able to protect herself against any force the Confederates could bring to bear, by land or water, without the feeble aid of a steamer like the Shubrick, which a single well-directed round shot would sink.

One of the San Francisco journals, evidently on the strength of representations made by somebody from hostile motives to Victor Smith and the present efficient officers of the steamer, says the Shubrick is lying here idle, with nothing to do. Under her late commander this was in a measure true; under her present commander it is not true. Nothing for her to do, indeed! We hazard nothing in asserting that the Government has not a vessel in service that is more actively and more profitably employed than the Shubrick.

For the past four months she has been incessantly engaged in the revenue, the quartermaster's, the postal, and the light-house services, performing each and all alternately. For protecting the revenue from frauds by smuggling, she is peculiarly adapted for this, one of the most important collection districts in the United States.

With the free port of Victoria so conveniently located, the temptation to smuggle is very great; and such is the nature of these waters that a sailing cutter is poorly calculated to check it. Her presence here, we have reason to know, exerts a salutary influence in this respect. At all seasons, too, she can render efficient aid to shipping when a sailing vessel would be powerless to aid. Add to these the moral effect upon the Indians of her presence on the Sound, and no one, with the knowledge that we have of all these facts, will venture to say that such a vessel is not required here. It may not be amiss to state, in this connection, that the expenses of the Shubrick have lately been at least fifty per cent less than formerly.

With the means possessed by San Francisco, it is easy to make provision for any contingency, likely to arise which would require the services of an armed steamer. For immediate warlike use, if need be, besides the Saginaw, (a much faster steamer than the Shubrick, we are informed) there is the Opone, recently arrived, and a cutter in good condition. A dozen or more steamers, of all kinds, including several strong tugs, are within call at any hour. Having comparatively none of these means of defense or protection here, we should be at the mercy of any crew of pirates that might be bold enough to enter the Sound for plunder; or, in the event of an Indian outbreak, which would again occur if the troops and steamer were withdrawn, our people would be placed at a serious disadvantage, to say the least. It is therefore earnestly to be hoped that the Shubrick will be suffered to remain here, where she is rendering the most effective service to the Government and the public, and at a cost scarcely half that of former years.

MAILS ON THE SOUND.—Mr. John Wright has got the contract for carrying the mails on Puget Sound, from Olympia to Victoria, for the sum of $20,000 a year, making weekly trips, and touching at all the way ports. The steamer Eliza Anderson is to commence this service to-day. It seems, from this, that Mr. Keach, the former contractor, failing to procure a steamer for the service, has been forced to give up the contract, and the Government agent has awarded the contract to Capt. John Wright, who, no doubt, will perform the service promptly and satisfactorily.

The above is copied from the Oregonian of Monday last, 30th ult. Somebody has been imposing upon that journal, we apprehend, for there is no truth in these statements. In the first place, the Postmaster at Olympia has received no notice of any such contract being awarded to John Wright; in the second, the Miss Anderson did not take the mail on Monday last; and in the third, Mr. Keach has not given up the contract. The facts in this matter may be briefly stated thus:

Mr. Keach has given bonds for the performance of this service, and has partially entered upon the service; having for some weeks been carrying the mails over a portion of the route, between Fort Townsend and San Juan Island and Whatcom. He has not yet received notice of an approval of his bonds; sufficient time not having elapsed since they were forwarded—barely ten days, for them to reach Washington. If, in fact, for the coast during the winter season such as to render it safe for a river steamer to make the passage from San Francisco to Puget Sound at that season, he would long since have had a suitable boat performing the service; but, foreseeing this difficulty, the Department in advance came to his aid, and tendered the use of the Shubrick until he could obtain a steamer. He has not presumed to take advantage of this indulgence, but proceeded, immediately after being notified of the award of the contract, to purchase a steamer. Negotiations were entered into for the Eliza Anderson; but Wright would not sell at any price; hoping ultimately to defeat Keach as contractor, and obtain the contract himself. With this hope he has thrown every possible obstacle in Mr. Keach's way; notwithstanding which, he (Keach) succeeded in contracting for a new steamer on the stocks, nearly finished, and has since had another, also nearly finished, offered to him. He has thus two steamers at his command, both of which will be finished within a month; should the first fail him, the second will not. In a month, at most, he will have a new and staunch boat distributing the mails on the Sound, at eight thousand dollars less than Wright demands. This does not look much like giving up the contract.

THE J. W. CHAPMAN. In our files of the San Francisco Bulletin we find a complete account of this craft, briefly noticed by us last week as designed for a pirate. A portion of this account affords a positive confirmation of the statements made some time since by the Victoria Chronicle; the programme (in which doubtless some or all of the parties found in the Chapman, and now in custody at Alcatraz, were to take part) being substantially the same as published by that journal. For fifteen months the authorities at San Francisco have been cognizant of the intentions of these pirates, and were kept informed of their proceedings up to the hour when the J. W. Chapman weighed anchor. To their vigilance alone is the commerce of the Pacific indebted for its present safety.

We extract the following, which we are compelled to condense, from the Bulletin of the 16th and 17th ult.:

Visiting the Chapman this morning, we saw on the table 10 or 12 Colt's revolvers, one large navy pistol, and 10 or 12 new bowie knives. The pistols were all loaded and capped. On this table were several account books with locks on and locked, and a package consisting of the fragments of the papers torn up by the parties when arrested in the hold.

Although many letters and papers were undoubtedly destroyed, enough have been found to place beyond any doubt the practical errand she was about to go on. Among other things found was a copy of the oath of secrecy to be taken by all hands when she would be ready to commit her piracies. A Mr. Maglado was yesterday arrested on shore for shipping these arms and munitions of war under the pretense of machinery, he making out invoices of the same.

The parties concerned for detection of vessel, were all armed with heavy revolvers, loaded and capped, and each man had a very large-sized bowie-knife on his person. The names of the parties arrested, as given to Chief Burke, are as follows: Ridgeley Greathouse, ostensible owner; A. Rubery, an Englishman, who claims to be a passenger; Libbie, first officer of the schooner; Aubrey Harpending, Thos. Reole, Joseph W. Smith, alias Snyder, natives of Kentucky; W. Arnold, of Ottawa, C. W.; J. C. Boyd, of Delaware; R. H. Day, of Florida; and the following parties, natives unknown: W. D. Moore, J. W. McPadden, Wm. W. Brown, John E. Kent, Albin T. Crow, D. W. Maron, John Fletcher, Jas. Smith, Geo. Smith, Geo. W. Davis, M. Marshall, and five sailors, cook, steward, etc. Capt. Law was not on board at the time of seizure, but about an hour afterwards he came on board, and, finding the vessel seized, tried to force the thing out; threatening to bring suits for damages against the parties concerned for detection of vessel, and to take two or more of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s steamers, with treasure on board, and destroy them, when the enterprise was to be wound up by going to Victoria and dividing the spoils.

A further examination has resulted in the finding of additional evidence of the purpose of the parties on board to engage in piracy. On examining the carpet-bags mentioned yesterday, the searchers found in almost every instance a suit of uniform consisting of a blue flannel coat, vest and pants. In four or five instances, instead of the pants being made of flannel cloth, they were found of blue cottonade.

A large number of letters and other written papers were found, in which the proposed purpose of the expedition was either clearly set forth or mentioned in such a way as to convey the impression that the intentions of the party were inimical to the Government of the United States. Among these papers was the oath above alluded to, which bound them by every possible means and opportunity to act for the Southern Confederacy; and also, in case any one of the number should prove recreant, that the others individually should never rest until he had perished by violence at their hands. Another paper found, also in the same handwriting, was intended to have been printed and circulated among the Secessionists, that they might by a concerted action possess themselves of the forts throughout the States. The plan to fire the Southern heart of New York. In the same trunk was found one of Rees's patent breech-loading rifles, with a sabre bayonet and ammunition, and a certificate of nationality from a British consul. In another trunk were found three certificates, showing that the party had taken the oath of allegiance to the United States three separate times, before different magistrates.

In one of the trunks was found an entire suit of Zouave uniform; also papers showing the former had been a member of the Excelsior brigade of New York. In the same trunk was found one of Rees's patent breech-loading rifles, with a sabre bayonet and ammunition, and a certificate of nationality from a British consul. In another trunk were found three certificates, showing that the party had taken the oath of allegiance to the United States three separate times, before different magistrates.

Among the cargo was found the following contraband of war: 3 brass 12-pounders, bomb howitzers and carriage complete; 5 cases powder, containing 6 kegs each; 1 case containing 20 sea rifles, and 100 pounds of revolver and rifle balls; 8 cases, containing 200 loaded shells, suitable for hand-grenades or howitzer purposes; 8 cases, containing 108 12-pound shells, unfilled; 1 box fuses for shells, and a package of percussion primers for the cannon; 15 navy revolver caps, 40,000 navy revolver caps, 25,000 6-inch revolver caps, 1 package of powder flasks, 1 dozen leather belts and 1 dozen pistol holsters. In the boxes containing the brass cannon and equipments were found leather bags, showing that they had been purchased of the firm of Treadwell & Co., of this city.

ORDERED EAST.—Lieut. Morrison, late of the Revenue service on the Sound, has been ordered East, and took his departure, we believe, on the last steamer from Victoria.

The celebrated horse Ethan Allen has been purchased by Frank Baker, of San Francisco, for $16,000.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

To A. D. Bache, Superintendent of the U. S. Coast Survey Office, at Washington, we are indebted for a sketch of Arkansas Post, recently captured by the Federals.

From Jerry Sullivan, San Francisco news agent, we received, on Sunday last, a bundle of pictorial and newspapers.

To Mr. Finch, of the Anderson, we are indebted for Victoria and San Francisco papers, last week; and to Engineer Winship, of the Shubrick, for Victoria papers.

M. Martin Junel, gardener, has laid us under obligations for a generous supply of garden seeds, cuttings and plants; and Peter Rinquest, the blacksmith, presented us with a specimen of his mechanical skill in the shape of a very nice garden rake, which we hope to find time to use to advantage, ere the spring has passed. Our citizens have had too many evidences of Peter's excellence as a smith to require any encomium from us.

YEAST POWDER.—Every housekeeper knows how difficult it is to make good bread, and we therefore take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that to insure uniformly good, light, sweet and nutritious bread, it is only necessary to use Redington & Co.'s Yeast Powders, which in every respect excel all similar preparations ever offered to the public. See advertisement, in another column.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Self Preservation—How many thousands irrevocably lose their health through neglect of early derangements and carelessness of the first symptoms of disordered action? Had Holloway's Pills been taken, all would have been rectified, all morbid humors would have been expelled and everything obnoxious to the system removed. For cleansing the entire body, and preserving the health, no drug or combination of drugs, equals in potency Holloway's Pills. All who have tried them, have united in bestowing unqualified praise upon them for the ease, cheerfulness, and vigor they beget. The excellence of these Pills has been asserted and confirmed by people in all parts of the globe; their wonderful efficacy in preventing or curing diseases is universally admitted.

Various appliances are furnished for regulating the operation. The machine is supplied with a variety of which the edge of the fabric, as it passes through, is turned down and handsewnly stitched. Thousands of these machines are used by families, seamstresses, dress-makers, tailors, manufacturers of shirts, collars, neckties, clothing, hats, caps, corsets, ladies' gowns, umbrellas, parasols, silk and linen goods, with complete success; some from one to two hundred are used in a single manufactory.

Read what the Scientific American says:—"We are having a great many inquiries for Sewing Machines from various parts of the country, and as we cannot conveniently reply to them all by mail, we have thought it proper to state our opinion in regard to them in this public manner. We have used Wilson's patent, manufactured by the Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company, No. 508 Broadway, and we can say, in regard to it, that it is without a rival. It is simple, not easily put out of order, and it does not require much oil. No other machine stands ahead of it. We use it much in regard to the excellent machine upon our own responsibility. A simple supply of these first premium machines will be received by every steamer from New York, by H. C. Hayden, Agent in San Francisco."
