

PUGET SOUND HERALD.

STEILACOOM, W. T., Thursday Morning, April 24, 1862.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS.

St. Louis, March 31. The Federal loss at the recent battle near Winchester has been ascertained as follows: One hundred killed, forty-four wounded and twenty-four missing.

General Halleck is about to take the most summary and effective measures to suppress guerrillas. They will be treated as outlaws, and in no case recognized as or treated with the amenities of regular organized troops.

On the 13th (7) a band of eight hundred Rebels attacked four companies of Federal troops in Polk county, southwestern Missouri, but were repulsed. Fifteen rebels were killed and a large number wounded.

General Halleck is about to take the most summary and effective measures to suppress guerrillas. They will be treated as outlaws, and in no case recognized as or treated with the amenities of regular organized troops.

Yesterday Colonel Bufford surprised a Rebel camp at Union City, Tennessee, killed twenty, took one hundred prisoners, and seized two hundred horses, a large amount of stores and five hundred stand of arms.

Further accounts of the affair at Union City represent the retreat of the rebels as being very precipitate. They were breakfasting, unsuspecting an attack, when our forces attacked and opened upon them with artillery.

Intelligence has been received from Island No. 10. No injury whatever occurred to the mortar gunboats by the torpedoes.

Col. Roberts, with 50 picked men of the 42d Illinois, went on an expedition to the upper rebel battery. On arriving, they were fired on by the sentries, who immediately fled.

Major Leonardson, from New Mexico, arrived today, and says the rebels hold every position of value, except Forts Craig and Union. The latter, which is the most important in the West, contains $1,000,000 worth of Government stores.

The following intelligence is from the special correspondent at Fort Monroe of the Baltimore American: The number of rebels in Fort Pulaski was reported by deserters at 500.

A Key West correspondent of a Boston Journal, under date of March 24th, says the fleet was represented at the battle of Passes by four or five Hartford and Brooklyn, and a large portion of Commander Porter's mortar flotilla.

During the night of the 24th, the rebels erected a new battery opposite Point Pleasant. After firing some time with no effect, it was silenced by our guns.

Forty or fifty soldiers have come into Hickman, given up their arms and desired to return to their allegiance and joined the Federal army. They reported a large number of rebel troops disbanded.

A spirited skirmish took place at Warrensburg on Wednesday last, between a detachment of Phillips' Missouri regiment and Quantilla's guerrillas. The conflict was obstinate.

Nineteen fishing vessels were lost in a gale, between the 1st and 4th of February, off Gloucester, Mass. By the loss of these vessels one hundred and thirty eight fishermen were drowned.

The Texan troops are very much disheartened at the death of McCullough. The Arkansas troops feel severely the loss of Medford. The Indians have mostly retired to the Indian Nation, being panic struck with the effects of our artillery.

The name of the Merrimack has been changed to the Virginia. On the night of the 26th, a force of between 600 and 800 Rebels attacked two companies of State Militia at Harmonville, Pike county, after a sharp fight, were defeated with a loss of 15 killed and a large number wounded.

On the 20th of March, it was declared that no State has a constitutional right to separate from the Union.

The bill contains an amendment by Mr. Sumner that in taking testimony before a Court, no witness be excluded on account of color; and another for the appropriation of $100,000 to aid voluntary emigration to Liberia.

Special dispatches to the New York papers announce that today the rebels had decided to burn Richmond, on the approach of the Union army.

The rebels were abandoning their most important works on the southern coast. St. Louis, April 3d. Col. Canby is still shut up in Fort Craig. The Texana, 1400 strong, were at Albuquerque, with twenty pieces of artillery.

Notice has been given to the Governors of States that no new enlistments are to be made until further orders from the War Department—other force now in the field being deemed amply sufficient to suppress the rebellion, and bring the war to a speedy termination.

Mention has been made of late to a diverted portion of Gen. McClellan's force, numbering from 5,000 to 6,000 men, who embarked on transports on the Potomac some days since to rendezvous at Fortress Monroe.

Rebel accounts say that the Union feeling in a portion of North Carolina prevails to an alarming extent, and is increasing. In the Senate, to-day, Mr. McDougall, from the Special Committee, reported a bill for the construction of a railroad and telegraph line to the Pacific.

The World says information from a reliable source says Beauregard has been outflanked at Corinth, and compelled to fall back, and that a heavy body of troops are between him and the Mississippi.

April 6.—The Senate bill to establish a steam line between California and China was made the special order for April 10th. The order prohibiting reporters accompanying the army is revoked.

A corps of picked men from Excelsior Brigade left Liverpool Point under command of Gen. Sickles, early on Thursday morning, for Stafford Court House. On arrival, his troops took Slough Point batteries, marched thence to Port Dauntless, and through Aquia to Stafford Court House.

From Brooke Station a force of 1,200 rebel infantry and a battery of six field pieces were moving up to support their cavalry. After remaining three hours in Stafford, camp fires were built on the hills, to deceive the rebels while our forces withdrew from the place.

A dispatch dated Denver City, March 7, says: Mr. J. Kiskadden was just arrived with important news from New Mexico. On the 26th ult. the command under Col. Slough, numbering about 1,800 men, reached Apache Pass.

The command under Col. Slough kept on its way, encountering no enemy until arriving at Pigeon Ranch, 10 miles from Santa Fe, where it met at the mouth of the Canon 1,100 Texans. This was on Friday, Feb. 28th—engagement commencing about noon.

Mr. Kiskadden left the morning after the fight, and expects before this contest has been decided one way or the other. Col. Canby was within a short distance of Santa Fe. Communication between him and Col. Slough was continually kept up, and the prospects were that Slough was in a tight fix.

Mr. Kiskadden will soon return to the command. Headquarters Dep't of the Mississippi, St. Louis, 8th April—8:30 A.M. To Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War, Washington.

Gen. Pope crossed the Mississippi river yesterday, captured the enemy's floating battery, carrying 14 guns, and occupied Tiptonville. The enemy were driven from all their works below New Madrid, leaving behind their artillery, baggage and sick.

Gen. Pope will attack Island No. 10 to-day, and hopes to get in the rear of the enemy's upper battery before night. H. W. HALLECK, Major-General Commanding.

LATER.—Island No. 10 has surrendered. The enemy have abandoned the upper land batteries, and are endeavoring to escape across a swamp. Gen. Pope is trying to cut them off. They abandoned everything.

Brig. Gen. W. F. Machel, late of the U. S. Adjutant General's Department, and over 3000 of the rebel forces, have surrendered to Gen. Pope, and it is expected that many more will be captured to-day.

Gen. Pope has captured three generals, 6000 prisoners of war, 100 siege pieces, and several field batteries, with immense quantities of small arms, tents, wagons, horses and provisions.

Washington, April 6. Soon after the publication of Montgomery Blair's letter to Gen. Fremont, in which the writer criticized somewhat freely the President, the Postmaster-General tendered his resignation; but Mr. Lincoln refused to receive it, and it is said the relations between this Cabinet Minister and the President were never more kindly than at present.

A special dispatch to the New York World says: It has been ascertained that the rebel traitors are grievously disappointed and disconcerted by the change of programme in the disposition of the army of the Potomac.

The following, in regard to the Merrimack, has been received at the Navy Department: When she ran for Norfolk, (Sunday, March 9th) she had seven feet of water in her hold.

The Tribune's Tennessee correspondent writes that the rebel army has been greatly overrated, and that his whole force in Southern Mississippi does not exceed 30,000 men, and that half of those are raw recruits.

A Ship Island letter of the 24th ult. reports the arrival of Gen. Butler on the 20th. A rebel fleet of seven gunboats had made their appearance in Mobile Bay.

The U. S. gunboat Santiago de Cuba chased a steamer laden with cotton on the coast of Louisiana, and threw a shell into her, burning her to the water's edge.

A dispatch from Gen. Halleck states that Gen. Sturgis goes to Kansas and Gen. Craig to the Indian Territory. Gen. Bull's advance guard had reached Gen. Grant.

Gen. Halleck will soon take the field in person. Andrew Johnson, Military Governor of Tennessee, reports that the arrest of several prominent persons engaged in the rebellion has been made, and that the Union cause is working well.

A special dispatch to the N. Y. Times says a telegram just received here informs us that the rebels are retreating before our forces under Gen. Milroy, who has advanced from Cheat Mountain, and now holds Camp Alleghany, lately evacuated by the rebels.

forces at Pittsburg, Tenn., were attacked by two regiments of infantry, two pieces of artillery, and a large force of cavalry. Our forces were immediately got into line of battle, and prepared to receive the attack.

Gen. Grant was at Savannah, but immediately left for the field of action. It is supposed only to have been a reconnaissance in force of the enemy, to find out the strength of our forces, and finding more than they expected, they beat a hasty retreat to Corinth.
