Used up when it rains—an umbrella.

Dearer than life—fashionable funerals.

An object of interest—seven-thirties.

The winds merchants pray for—trade winds.

High words—conversation on Hount Hood.

Men who take things as they come—thieves.

The flowers of speech spring from the root of the tongue.

What goes most against a farmer's grain—his mowing-machine.

Light literature—the books of a gas company.

Be temperate in diet. Our first parents ate themselves out of house and home.

Young women should set good examples, for the young men are always following them.

Missouri Pike Bull, editor of the Coxmercial, is a chip of the old block, and his father is a buffalo.

"A prudent man," says a witty Frenchman, "is like a pin. His head prevents him going too far."

The most reliable organ in the world is the organ of speech in woman; it is an organ without stops.

Mark Twain says Horace Greely once tried to make a living as writing-master, and failed. His copy was, "Virtue has its own reward," and the scholars got it "washing with soap is wholly absurd."

OPPOSED TO THE POLICY.—We are informed that senators Williams & Corbett express their disapprobation of the policy of transferring the control of Indian Affairs into the hands of the military. There is little doubt but that when Congress meets, a large majority of the Senate will take the same ground.—[Unionist.

A peaceful disposition is not absolute protection against the turmoils of life. What's more peaceful than a clam? And yet, ten to one, it ends its life in a broil. And then how peaceable an oyster is? And yet how frequently it gets mixed up in a stew.

Characteristic of Webfoot

Near Roseburg, Oregon, a ruffian called at a house where a flag was flying, and threatened to drag it at the tail of his horse. There was nobody at home except a young and very pretty woman, who came out and politely requested him to let it alone and go away. That failing, she took down a rifle and told him to "get up and git." Which he prudently did.—[Ex.

An old lady was asked what she thought of her neighbors of the name of Jones, and with a knowing wink replied:

"Why I don't like to say much about my neighbors; but as to Mr. Jones, sometimes I think, and then again I don't know; after all I rather guess he'll turn out to be a good deal such a fellow as I took him for."

A GOOD CHINAMAN.—Tong Duck Chung, a Chinese merchant of this city, says that he made the last payment of $22, 447 39 coin, for duties on China goods imported by his house last summer in the French ship Jennie Alice, from Hong Kong. This same merchant does not include duties paid by other China merchants on goods brought over at the same time. Bully for Tong Duck Chung;—he's a good Chinaman.—Oregon Herald.

How does the above agree with your Sunday leaders, You-green Simple? Tong Duck Chung with one wave of the hand could buy up all such fellows as run Democratic papers. The most of them could be bought for a good square meal or a drink of bad whisky. Long Jow, Chinese editor of the O. C. Enterprise, please copy.

AN OREGON COURTSHIP.—A character in a well known play says.—"I never respect a man half so much as after I have fought with him."

There is a good deal of human nature in the remark. An incident, illustrating this same principle occurred lately in Oregon.—A country schoolmaster near Corvallis undertook to chastise one of his pupils, a large girl, endowed with good health and plenty of muscle. A long and spirited contest ensued, the result of which was awaited with breathless interest by the entire school.—The teacher finally reduced the spunky girl to subjection, but only after a gallant struggle on her part. The conflict, however, inspired them with such a mutual respect for each other, that a few days after they were married. We don't admire the Oregon style of courtship, but there may be something in it.—[Ex.

To James Fenimore Cooper.

BY ENOCH GEO. ADAMS.

Historian of our forest-land thou art,
Of tales long whispered to the green old trees,
That would not to Oblivion's tomb depart—
But linger, murmured by the boughs of these,
And sung by surges of our native seas—
Which, like old gray-haired minstrels, seem and make
Our shores the harps of deathless symphonies—
Whose mystic meaning then best learned to be ask,
And, prophet-like, to bid their ancient heroes wake.

And they rise up before us crowned with plumes,
Stole from the wings of birds of Paradise,
Shining amid the dark green forest glooms
Like suns we see 'mid tinted-leafed branches rise,
And they are glorious; in their mein and eyes
There is a grandeur that their forms expands
Till they gigantic seem in make and size
And heroes of the dim and shadowy lands
Where Summer smiles for aye, and Winter ne'er commands

Thou with magician's power dost also bring
Back the old forest-sons, have fallen low
What time they heard the woodmen's axes ring,
And felt on moss-grown trunk the deadly blow,
Once more they span the sky with leafy bow,
Once more the eagle screams from topmost limb,
As he darts downward on his prey below,
That in the near-by stream doth, sporting, swim,
Which 'neath the forest shade flows on so cool and dim.

But thou art dead, and by thy native lake,
Art sleeping in the damp and chilly grave to-night,
Would that I had the power to thee awake
And bring thee, Lazarus-like, to life and light.
But ah! I cannot—mine is mortal might—
But Nature weeps for thee, that shall console,
For thee the stars swing funeral torches bright,
For thee the tempest beats its thunder-roll
And Nature aye is saying masses for thy soul.

Calchas Condemns Himself.

Out of thine own mouth will we condemn thee, thou cowardly lying Calchas. You will say Mr. Calchas, "No gentleman will utter falsehoods against another." It is the assertion of nearly every person in Oregon City that attended our lecture that you lied about us, so according to your own words, you are "no gentleman." You say we talk about you obscenely. We have yet to learn that the gout is a disorder that requires delicacy in its mention. This false modesty is Democratic. True modesty is antagonistic to Democratic principles.

Who are the supporters of virtue public and private? They are not Democrats. It proves how vile Democracy is when it secures as a mouth-piece a lowsbred whelp like McKinney; too cowardly to attack the reputation of honest men under his own name, he borrows as a shield the name of Calchas.—You attacked us second-hand. You attributed to an unknown person your own lying assertions.

You call us a 'fellow.' We take it as an honor from one of your kind. Yes, we are the fellow that shouldered our musket as a private in 1861 at Abraham Lincoln's first call, and fought our way to rank and honor, and were brevetted as Major by a President and senate for "Gallant conduct during the war."—Where is your record, you traitorous, white livered, skim-milk faced renegade? You have written your name high up on the bluffs of Oregon City. "You will not mention our name in your paper." Your little dirty sheet is covered all over with Chinese characters like a Mongolian wash house.—Your body is a tub that carries around a big bundle of diseased intestines. You have earned yourself the title of brother of W. H. Newell of the Wallow Wallow Statesman.

Good Price.

In Victoria, Washington Territory, they give a man one hundred and fifty dollars and a suit of clothes for hanging a Chinaman. In a recent case, the hangee not being heavy enough to break his own neck, the hangor jumped on his shoulders and choaked him to death.—O. Herald.

Above is a specimen from the Ku Klux Organ of the brutal Democracy. A man that would write an article of that style in the last part of the nineteenth century must be a brute. The way it is mentioned, it appears the fool Semple applauds it. He is on a par with the Confederate that relieved a wounded Union soldier from his misery by cutting his throat. Does not the simpleton know that Christ came into the world to save sinners, and that to do this he assumed Mongolian flesh? It must stretch the plan of salvation almost to cracking to save a soul like his so demoralized and imbruted by Democracy. Destitute of the first principles of humanity is You-Green Simple. Feed on the festers of brutality, thou carrion bird! What people must they be that can tolerate a paper like the Oregon Herald?

The British Colonist says that a man named Clark borrowed a flour sack at Cowichan, a few days ago, with the remark that he wanted to "put something into it." A pair of boots were seen sticking out of the water, next morning near Harris's wharf; on raising which the body of Clark was found attached, with the above sack, containing a large stone, besides his head, tied tightly about his neck.

Wonder if it wasn't Frank Clarke?

Hon. J. W. Brazee, of the Lower Cascades, has just returned from the States. He went as far as Connecticut. He states that expenses are much greater in the East than here. At a hotel the charge is $4 50 in greenbacks, per diem. Says the rich in the East "feel their oats," and put on "heaps of airs."

Notice Extraordinary!

Rev. Mr. McKinstry of the Oregon City Enterprise will preach at the Hayes Settlement, near Bridgeport, Clackamas County, next Sunday. He will be assisted by the Rev. You-green Simple, of the Oregon Herald, and the Rev. Missouri Pike Bull, of the Coxmercial. Two Chinamen will be hired for "two bitty" to applaud. A song will be chanted by some copper-colored ladies for Calchas' special benefit. Words: "D. M. had one little Indian, two little Indian, three little Indian boy, three little Indian, two little Indian, one little Indian boy.." The exercises will close by the three Editors exclaiming in concert "Let us Bray." The sermon will be composed of Sunday Leaders from the Coxmercial and Herald, re hashed for the occasion. Text—"cursed be Ham and durn the Chinaman." Go in, Dirty Mud-turtle McKinstry!

A Ride With a Lunatic.

The pleasures of railway traveling in England are vividly illustrated by the following incident which happened on a line near London: A young lady got into a second-class carriage, where she was soon joined by a gentleman about thirty years old, whose manner seemed very strange and excited. They were alone in the carriage.

As soon as the train had started, this man got up all of a sudden, and began throwing his carpet-bag out of the window, saying:

"This carriage is much too heavy. Come we must lighten it as much as possible."

He then sat down again, but jumped up a minute after, screaming out:

"It's too heavy! It's too heavy!"

And, so saying, he sent his coat out of the window to join his carpet bag, and then went his waistcoat his cravat and his shoes!

He then sat down, and appeared to be thinking profoundly. All of a sudden he turned toward the young girl, who was as frightened as possible, and said:

"On your knees, Madam, on your knees! We will pray for the Duke of Gloucester!"

And he knelt down.

The poor girl immediately obeyed him. The stranger then began praying fervently for the Duke of Gloucester, then for the Duke of St. Albans, then for the Duke of York—in a word, for all the dukes in Great Britain and Ireland.

He then sat down again. The young lady, more dead than alive, was in a corner of the carriage a prey to the most profound terror.

Nevertheless, this strange person began to feel less quiet.

This can't go on," he said; "it is really much too heavy. The train will soon have to stop—it won't be able to go on. Come now, we must lighten it. One of us must get out. I won't; so suppose you jump out of the window!" And he walked resolutely up to the cowering girl.

But, she said to him crying:

"Oh, sir, do stay for one moment; we've not yet prayed for the Duke of Northumberland!"

They were still in deep prayer when train arrived at the station, and the young girl fainted in the arms of some friends who were waiting for her.

Her companion was arrested, and soon recognized as a lunatic who had escaped from Hanwell.

A Baby's Soliloquy.

I am here; And if this is what they call the world, I don't think much of it. It's a flannelly world, and smells of paregoric awfully. It's a dreadful light world and makes me blink, I tell you. And I don't know what to do with my hands; I think I'll put my fists in my eyes. No, I won't. I'll scratch at the corner of my blanket and chew it up, and then I'll holler; whatever happens I'll holler, and the more paregoric they give me, the louder I'll yell. That old nurse puts the spoon in the corner of my mouth in a very uneasy way, and keeps tasting my milk herself all the while. She spilled enuff in it last night, and when I hollered she treated me. That comes of being a two day's old baby. Never mind, when I'm a man I'll pay her back good. There's a pin sticking in me now, and if I say a word about it I will be fed or trotted, and I would rather have catnip tea. I'll tell you who I am. I found out to-day. I heard folks say, "hush, don't wake up Emeline's baby," and I suppose that pretty white faced woman over on the pillow is Emeline. No, I was mistaken, for a chap was in here just now, and wanted to see Bob's baby, and looked at me, and said "I was a funny little toad, and looked just like Bob." He smelt of cigars and I'm not used to them. I wonder who else I belong to. Yes, there's "gamma," Emeline told me, and she took me up, and held me against her soft cheek and said, "It was Gamma's baby, so I was." I declare I do not know who I do belong to; but I'll holler and maybe I'll find out. There comes Snuffy with catnip tea. The idea of giving babies catnip tea when they are crying for information! I'm going to sleep. I wonder if I don't look pretty red in the face? I wonder why my hands won't go where I want them to.

A Ship Load of Hair.

A curious cargo has just arrived at Havre. The French ship Prophete, from Vera Cruz comes ladened entirely with that commodity for which there never was at any time since the beginning of the world, so great a demand as now—false hair, or rather real hair to be used falsely. The hair in question is almost all black, and consists, in great part, of scalps of Apaches, Comanches and other native Mexican tribes. When the French army was in Mexico, many of the Indians fled in terror to get out of the way, but they first hid in caves and woods the bones of their ancestors, and trophies they had won in war. Among the latter, none are more sacred than the scalps of enemies with the long hair attached. Some smart French speculators, by the aid of bribery, contrived to discover the sanctuaries where these scalps were concealed, and the result is an acquisition for France which is expected at once to cause a fall in false hair in the great parts of Baittany, Normandy and Auvergne, in which provinces almost all the peasant girls sell their hair early, and wear a cotton handkerchief round their heads for the rest of their lives. At present the merchandise is filthy to behold, and smells so bad as to infect a whole part. But the owner say that when well washed and purified by steam, it will become beautifully soft and glossy; and no doubt, next season much of it will float over the most fashionable necks in Paris.—[Ex.

J. W. Woodward has returned from Tumwater, and is keeping the Taylor House in St. Helens. He prefers the vicinity of the Columbia River to Puget Sound.

Farmers take notice. Much flax is raised for the seed which is sold for the manufacture of oil. The lint is generally burned up.—This would be of great value if saved for the making of twine. More than ten thousand lbs. are used for fishing nets. Besides flax makes splendid brooms.

Ex-Governor Daniels has returned from White Pine. He owns some very fine ledges. They are not in the White Pine properly, but in the new District. One of the ledges bears the name of the White Cloud. He represents Nevada as a country rough and wild in the extreme.

Aug. 30. Four men arrived from Portland and started for the mines. Mr. Weeden fitted them out, selling them a horse, &c. They determined to go, and no persuasion could stop them. Texas, Thompson, Paddleford and Millican have gone on to the vicinity of Mount St. Helens.

The Oregon City Enterprise is more Myered than admired. A Rebel paper in Oregon City will mire those that find funds for that huge shad-bellied Arnold that betrayed his party because they would not boost his huge carcass into office.

Mr. Garfielde left Vancouver on the 31st ult., and took the steamer the same afternoon at Portland for San Francisco. He has been spending a few days with his family in Vancouver. Mr. Garfielde has employed his time while here in an examination into the wants and needs of the County. He visited Love's Mill and the immense water-power in that vicinity on Monday last. We wish some gentleman posted in these matters would write us an article on that subject. We believe Mr. Garfielde will do what he can for the interests of the whole Territory. We have faith in the man. The Transcript says he has thrown off on us, that we personally will have no favors—that his favors will be reserved for somebody else. This troubles us very little. Our legitimate business as a newspaper editor, with our circulation increasing every day, is better than most of offices on this coast. We own editors like Gunn & Gale need an office to keep them afloat. Their editorials are tame, flat and senseless like themselves. They started out in the late contest for Delegate before the party got ready, and made themselves ridiculous. They wrote to us to follow them as leaders. We couldn't see it. We intended to support the regular nominee, and we did it, and do not regret our course, provided he does give us a little one-horse office, for instance Assistan Ass[essor], an office Gunn held under S. D. Howe. Do not trouble your head about Major Adams. We are not afraid to trust in the magnanimity of Mr. Garfielde or of Gen. Grant. Whether we get favors or not, we will not turn our back on the Union cause for a loaf of bread like such loafers as Gunn & Gale or Calehas of Oregon City.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.—This distinguished statesman arrived at Portland from Victoria on Monday evening. He accepted the hospitality of Mr. Ben. Holladay, and on Tuesday was called upon by a numerous throng of friends. In company with Mr. Holladay and some other gentlemen, he took Wednesday morning's boat for the purpose of visiting the Cascades, Dalles, Celilo and possibly Wallula. His health is said to have improved considerably since his arrival on this coast and may perhaps be the means of prolonging his useful life for many years. His visit to Alaska confirmed his opinion of the real value of that country. The natives were particularly obsequious in their attentions when they learned that their visitor was the man who had bought that country from the Russians, and regarded themselves in the light of tenants at will. The generally received opinion that the timber of that region never reaches the size of that of this Territory, Mr. Seward disagrees with. He takes with him to his home at Auburn some specimen boards of Alaskan pine, among many other mementoes of that country. He will leave for the East on the Moses Taylor, which will sail about the 7th instant.

WHAT INFLUENCE!—Eugene Semple, with more than his characteristic impudence, tells Mr. Seward that a prominent citizen will take him in his carriage to Salem and Albany, and that if the said citizen does not, "see will." What condecension! "It seems never to have entered the mind of this writer of powerful 'leaders,'" says the Oregonian, "that Oregon's distinguished visitor and guest may possibly be desirous of selecting his own company." Besides such an offer is calculated to leave an erroneous impression on Mr. Seward's mind respecting the financial status of the offerer—leading him to believe that the editor of the Herald sports a coach and four of his own, with a complete retinue to come at his beck. How we apples swim!

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has just made known the world the startling fact that Lord Byron had become the father of a child by an incestuous liason with his sister. Mrs. Stowe's informant was no less a personage than Lady Byron herself. It was his consciousness that his wife had discovered the crime that drove him so near to madness, and inspired in his mind a hatred of her. The strangest thing about the whole affair is, however, that Mrs. Stowe could have kept such a rare bit of scandal locked in her bosom since 1856. Who dares to insinuate after that that a woman can't hold her tongue when she wants to.

Major Adams returned to Vancouver on Monday, after an asence of three weeks, and had just got comfortably in the harness, and was grinding out copy at a good rate, when he received a telegram summonning him to Portland on important business. We have since learned that he accepted a very pressing invitation to deliver his celebrated lecture on "The True Progress of Mankind," to the citizens of Milwaukie. The popularity of this lecture is largely due to the introduction of the Major's beautiful poem entitled "Oregon," which is conceded by literary critics to be a masterly production.

MONTICELLO, Aug. 30, 1869.

ED. REGISTER:—You are aware that there are a number of opposition boats on the lower river, [no less than four] from Portland to this place, and passage is only fifty cents. On some of the boats twenty-five cents. On the steamer Wenat they will land you at any way port for that fare.

Occasionally some very interesting and ludicrous scenes transpire. Capt. Smith tells the most interesting story of all, and attributes many of his trying perplexities to the indulgence and accommodating practices of Capt. Fisher while running an opposition boat on the lower river.

While passing up some time since he was hailed by a man seemingly in great distress. On landing the old gentleman demanded that he should take his cow home immediately; saying that it was much cheaper to boat his cow to pasture than to have her walk.

Since that reasonable demand was complied with, the Captain says that he has been in the habit of hunting up peoples' stock along the river, and taking them to and from pasture. He thinks it is something new for a steamboat captain to play the part of herdsman, but to secure the trade he is willing to do anything—be transferred to a scow if the Company desire it.

The last trip down convinced him that it was preferable and advisable to comply with the request of a Chinaman and turn around and take him back up the river four miles, which he did very cheerfully for twenty-five cents.

But the gentlemany Captain regrets very much the completion of Railroads, as he thinks Capt. Fisher will own and run a railroad—and railroad him as well as steamboat him,

A coal bank has been discovered on the Cowceman recently, measuring ten or eleven feet thick, and only five or six miles from this place.

A young man by the name of John Robinson, from Yamhill Co., was taken sick near Olympia a short time since, and sent for his parents to come and see him, as he did not expect to live long. They started immediately but did not arrive until one hour after his death. They passed through this town last Friday on their way home with the remains of their only son. A more distressing sight it has not been my lot to witness in many a year. His sister (Mary) was distressed beyond all human description. All along their route they found sympathizing friends. On viewing the scene I was impressed with the conviction that the love of parents and sisters is boundless—nothing this side of Heaven can equal it. C.

Hon. F. P. Dugan, accompanied by his wife, started in the early part of the week on his way to the Atlantic States. Mr. D. goes by way of San Francisco, and thence by railroad. We have already stated that it is Mr. D's. intention to deliver a series of lectures in the principal cities of the Union, in which he will set forth the peculiar inducements Washington Territory offers to immigrants, and more especially will endeavor to call attention to our own beautiful Valley of Walla Walla. The trip is made at the invitation of leading capitalists, here and elsewhere, who selected Mr. Dugan on account of his peculiar fitness for the work he has undertaken. He expects to occupy about two months in his lecturing tour, after which if nothing intervenes, he will at once return home. From time to time we expect to be posted as to the progress of Mr. D's. undertaking, and whatever information is thus obtained will be duly laid before our readers. Mr. D. and his amiable lady will accept our best wishes for a pleasant trip and a speedy return.—Statesman.

SUINGLES EXEMPT FROM TAX.—The subjec of taxing the manufacturers of shingles on sales, which has been before the Revenue Bureau lately, has been decided in favor of exempting the same, in accordance with the ruling of ex-Commissioner Rollins. The point raised by the assessors in the case was, that when shingles are sawed out they are completed and ready for consumption, and, therefore, are manufactured lumber; but the Bureau exempts boards and laths from tax precisely in this condition, because they may yet pass through second hands before they are completed or manufactured. The Commissioner thought the distinction too fine to be justly made, and, therefore, confirmed the previous ruling.

The brilliancy and power of the sun for the past week, says a cable dispatch of August 31st, has been highly favorable to the crops in the British Isles. No where in Europe has there been such a falling off in the price of cereals as in England. Unless greater encouragement is given it will be found that foreign imports will be on a much smaller scale, after the subsidence of the effects of the late rise.

SEATTLE DISTRICT COURT.—The August term of this Court convened on the 16th inst. Judge Jacobs presiding. Judgements by default were entered against Colman and Glidden for the aggregate sum of $16,400 75. Messrs. Marshall F. Moore, J. E. Wyche and Geo. N. McConaha were admitted to practice. four persons were naturalized. The Court had not adjourned at last accounts.

DECREASE OF THE NATIONAL DEBT.—The Department statement shows a decrease during the month of August of five millions six hundred thousand dollars, exclusive of eleven million dollars disbursed to pay pensions, which makes a decrease since March of forty nine millions five hundred thousand dollars.

Why can an editor never be a good Christian? Because a good Christian is ordered to eschew the devil and all his works, which an editor never can consistently do.

Trip to Strong's Battle Ground.

[Concluded]

No matter what we may wish on the subject, we cannot live for ourselves alone. The Universe is so constituted as to mind and matter that the character, acts and doings of each human being affect all other beings, human and others.

Dr. Hitchcock, in a course of lectures on Geology, delivered to a college class, expressed the idea that the Universe is a kind of telegraph on which every thought of men have an effect, and that although not perceptible to us in our material and gross condition on earth, yet when we shall have passed away, our spiritual vision will be enlarged, and that what we now see "as through a glass, darkly," we shall then see face to face. There is nothing more certain than that "man is fearfully and wonderfully made," mentally and physically. If the present was the only life we have to live, our existence here would be, in my opinion, of little value to us—but affecting as it does in the next, it should be considered of great value to us. We should not forget that as we improve and beautify the earth, we improve and beautify all Nature.

The earth being the abode of the living of our race, it demands our attention and improvement; and, as was remarked last week, every foot of lumber made and tree removed, entitle a man to the gratitude of the present and coming generations. There are few of us that realize the debt of gratitude we owe to our forefathers for the present condition of our country.

It is true we live in the North Western corner of our Republic, yet it is an excellent part of it, with a climate and soil unsurpassed for healthfulness and fertility, with 75,000 acres of arable land yet unsettled, and which can be had for the taking. Any healthy man that cannot live in Clarke County is lacking in all the essential elements of industry or ordinary business tact.

To all that need homes, I would say come and look at the vacant land in our County. Notwithstanding the fact that there are quite a large number of settlers at the Battle Ground, there is room for more, and I am sure all that go there will receive a hearty welcome from those there now.

Indeed, the people in all parts of the County that I have visited seem glad to entertain strangers. It is doubtful, however, whether in this day and generation they will "entertain Angels, unawares."

In conclusion, I say to all needing homes, pay us a visit, and let us see whether we may not be mutually benefitted thereby. M.

HORSE THIEVES.—The W. W. Statesman says: After an absence of several years, horse thieves have again made their appearance in this Valley, and are depredating upon the property of honest settlers. On Friday last a couple of horse theives who are known respectively by the names of James Love and William Ritchie, visited Mr. Geo. Ruckle's ranch, on the Tumwalum, and stole two valuable American horses. The thieves are well known in that locality, and it is hoped that the parties in pursuit will succeed in capturing them. Should these depredations be kept up, we shall not be at all surprised to hear that one or more of the depredators have come to grief. Our settlers have a summary way of dealing with this class of offenders, and recollecting the transactions of 1865, we think it would be well for the thieves to seek some otherfield of operation.

MATRIMONIAL.—The Walla Walla Union says: "Last week we noticed four divorces; this week we record four marriages. If the institution of marriage was not of so veteran able age, and had not much intrinsic worth, few there would be who would have the courage to embark on Life's voyage in company with another craft, and each would deem it the surest way to avoid Life's reefs and shallows, upon which so many have been stranded, is to "paddle his own canoe." The divorces and the weddings are a stand off but then we also publish the birth of a pair of twins. Four weddings and a pair of twins we call a smashing business in the line matrimonial.

WANTED IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—More workers, fewer talkers; more axemen, less "jumpers;" more farmers, fewer politicians; more brains, less balderdash; more common sense, no nonsense, more iron and coal mines, no office-seekers; more fishermen, no wire-pullers; more honesty, no knavery. If we "love the one and hate the other, hold fast to the one and despise the other," we shall see this beautiful Territory change to a prosperous State within another decade. What say you Washingtonians?—Tribune.

ESCAPE.—One French, a convict, escaped from the Penitentiary on Monday last. He was employed as cook and allowed more privileges than the other inmates, and hence walked off while the keepers little suspected it. Sheriff Carson has been diligent in searching for him, and we are informed has him "corralled," in the woods on Muck Prairie, near Mr. McDonald's place. $100 reward is offered for capture.—Steilacoom Star.

LAMENTED BUT NOT MISSED.—The extremely sensitive oracle who perpetrates plagiaristic editorials in the Mountaineer, has played the same game on us that the Enterprise fellow has on Enoch G.; viz, cut us off from the exchange list. This expedient, to prevent ourself from seeing what a cotemporary might say about us, we regard as the dernier of all resorts. Our friend Enoch is too magnanimous to do such a thing; he'd scorn such an alternative, "you bet he would." While we are not prepared yet to shed crocodile tears over anything we have uttered versus Mr. Leo, we are sorry to see him sensitive about a harmless repartee.—Evening Commercial.

Farmer's Creed.

We believe in small farms and thorough cultivation.

We believe the soil loves to eat as well as the owner, and ought, therefore to be well manured.

We believe in going to the bottom of things and, therefore, in deep ploughing and enough of it. All the better if it be a subsoil plough.

We believe in large crops, which leave the soil better than they found it—making both the farm and farmer rich at once.

We believe that every farm should own a good farmer.

We believe the best fertilizer of any soil is the spirit of industry, enterprise and intelligence—without this, lime, gypsum and guano will be of little use.

We believe in good fences, good barns, and good farm houses, good orchards and children enough to pick the fruit.

We believe in a clean kitchen, a clean wife in it, a clean cupboard, a clean dairy and a clean conscience.—[Dixie Farmer.

The Latest Gold Strike.

THE LOON CREEK DIGGINGS.

A fresh and very active mining excitement has raged throughout this Basin, and in Alturas and Ada counties as well, during the past weeks, and hundreds of miners and persons of other avocations have started for the new gold fields. Report of the discovery was brought here by Jo. Galation during last week, who had gone from his former trading post in Stanley Basin to the new diggings, and on his return not only packed thither his whole stock of merchandise from Stanley but hastened here, engaged J. G. Bryant's pack train, and rushed off sixteen thousand pounds more of goods, as a sure earnest of what he thought of the Loon creek gold diggings.—Boise Statesman.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning last, says the Olympia Tribune, while Michael Eustace was tending a threshing-machine in Pierce County, his clothing caught in the cog-wheels, drawing his person up to the machine and mangling him in a shocking manner. One arm was nearly torn from the socket, and his body much bruised in many places. When last heard from, Eustace was not expected to survive his injuries.

At a meeting of the members of the "bar," held on Monday last, it was agreed to lay over all the more important civil cases that otherwise would have been tried at the October term of the District Court. This in consequence of the large number of lawyers who will be at Olympia in October, in attendance on the Legislature.—W. W. Statesman.

OREGON CITY.—Last Sunday evening before it was yet dark, some thief entered the saloon of Paul Brisby, through a rear window, broke open a trunk and stole therefrom $330 in coin. Suspicion has fastened upon a man who fled to the mouth of Sandy and thence took passage for the Dalles. He will doubtless be intercepted and brought back.—Oyo:

ILL.—It is stated that Col. Ross, the new Indian Superintendent of Washington Territory, is seriously ill and compelled to keep within doors. He was poisoned with the alkali dust of the Plains, and will probably be confined to his house for two weeks.

Major Adams, Editor of the Vancouver Register, will lecture this [Thursday] evening at Milwaukie on the "True Progress of Mankind." It is his intention to lecture through the entire Willamette Valley soon.—Oregonian.

The Appetite for Tobacco Destroyed by Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

ORTON'S PREPARATION.

ESTABLISHED, 1866.

One box of Orton's Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco, in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. If it fails to any case the money will be refunded. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. It is impossible to break off the use of Tobacco by the more exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit firmly rooted. With the help of the Preparation, there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that Orton's Preparation completely destroys the appetite for Tobacco, and leaves the person as free from any desire for it, as before he commenced its use. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleaning the poison of Tobacco from the system and thus allaying the unnatural cravings for Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is warranted.

The time taken to allay all desire for tobacco by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons, the average time being about five days. Some have no desire for tobacco after using the Preparation two days.

The health and purse of every tobacco user in the country calls loudly, abandon the use of tobacco.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will certainly destroy the appetite for tobacco quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health and without creating an appetite either for the Preparation or any substitute.

[From Samuel Cassiday, editor of Journal and Argus]

Petaluma Cal. Dec. 14, 1868.

For almost twelve years I had used tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years had been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the extensive use of this narcotic seriously injured my health, I determined if possible to break myself of the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for tobacco, I sent to Portland, Maine, for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the first of November. A month has not yet elapsed and yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from my craving desire to use tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than common chewing gum, and I conscientiously believe the Preparation will have the promised and desired effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an earnest desire to assist others who wish to break away from the slavish appetite for tobacco, I offer this testimonial.

SAMUEL CASSIDAY.

Beware of counterfeits and all articles purporting to be like this, of the same name or otherwise. The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and inferior articles. Purchasers will please order directly from the proprietor, or his duly authenticated agents.

The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 00 per box, or six boxes for $10 00, sent by mail to any part of the country, securely sealed from observation, with postage paid on receipt of price.

How to send money by mail. Inclose the amount in a letter, seal carefully, register the letter and take a receipt for it of your Postmaster. Money sent by mail as above directed at my risk.

WALTHAM WATCHES

Let every one who wants a Watch, read this carefully.

Especially if in some remote out-of-the-way place.

Now that the railroad is open, we propose to give the residents of WASHINGTON TERRITORY the opportunity of getting single genuine Waltham Watches at the LOWEST NEW YORK WHOLESALE PRICES.

We sell more Waltham Watches than any other establishment in the country, either wholesale or retail; we send great numbers to every section of the country by Mail and Express, carefully packed, and in perfect running order. Our plan is this: You want a Watch, and see our advertisement; now, we want you first to write to us for our Descriptive and Illustrated Price List; we will send it, post-paid, by return mail. It explains all the different kinds, tells the weight and quality of the cases, with price of each; you then make a selection of the kind you prefer, and send us your order. We will then send you the Watch by Express, with the bill to collect on delivery. We give instructions to the Express Company to allow you to open the package and examine the Watch; if it suits, you can pay, and take it; if not, you are under no obligation to receive it; and if it is taken, and afterward does not prove satisfactory, we will exchange it, or REFUND THE MONEY.

As an indication of the Prices, we will quote one Watch from our list. The P. S. BARTLETT, Lever Movement, with Extra Jewels, Chronometer Balance, Patent Pinion, patent Dust cap, and all the other late improvements, in a Solid Coin Silver Case.

$28 in Greenbacks, or $30 in Coin.

All the other kinds, both gold and silver, in the same proportion. Do not order a Watch till you have sent us a Price List, as it contains a great deal of information, regarding these Watches that will enable you to make a intelligent selection. Don't forget, when you write, to state that you saw this advertisement in the VANCOUVER REGISTER and you need not put in stamps for return postage. Address in full,

DR. Joseph Walker's

"The Life of all Flesh is the Blood thereof"—Lev. 17th chapter and 14th verse. Purify the Blood and health will follow. It is a vegetable Purgative and Tonic.

These Bitters are not a alcohol pill, to deaden the eye or pimples on the face, but a medical preparation, composed of the ingredients.

CALIFORNIA

Vinegar Bitters,

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

CLEANSE the VITIATED BLOOD whenever you find its impurities bursting through the SKIN in Pimples Eruptions, or Sores; CLEANSE it when you find it obstructed or sluggish in the VEINS; CLEANSE it when it is foul, and your FEELINGS will tell you when. Keep the blood HEALTHY, and all will be well.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Copious Discharge of Urine, Pain in the Regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of this Dyspepsia. For these troubles take DR. WALKER'S Vinegar Bitters, and quickly all painful symptoms will disappear.

IT IS A GENTLE PURGATIVE AS WELL AS A TONIC.

Possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. In this respect, these Bitters have no equal.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS,

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient.

FOR INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.

These Bitters have been most successful. They are cured by vitiated blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the digestive organs.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands on this Coast, are effectually destroyed and removed.

MORBID CONDITION OF THE BLOOD.

This is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Tetter or Salt Rheum, Boils, Carbuncles, Sores, Ulcers, Pimples, and Eruptions of all kinds. For the cure of all these various affections, which are merely symptoms of a morbid condition of blood, medical science and skill have not, as yet, discovered a Blood purifier equal to Walker's Vinegar Bitters.

DISEASE OF THE BLOOD, LIVER, KIDNEYS AND BLADDER,

It thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor and bad taint, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition. It is perfectly harmless, never producing the slightest injury.

BILIOUS REMITTENT AND INTERMITTENT FEVERS,

Which are so prevalent in the Valleys of the Pacific coast especially those of the Sacramento, San Joaquin and their tributaries, during the Summer and Autumn, and especially during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied with extensive derangements of the stomach, and great torpor of the bowels, being clogged up with vitiated accumulations. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for this purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S Vinegar Bitters, as they will speedily remove the dark colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver and restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs generally. The universal popularity of this valuable remedy in regions subject to intermittent influences, is sufficient evidence of its power as a remedy in such diseases.

We beg leave to call the attention of the public to this long celebrated and unrivalled

FAMILY MEDICINE,

The PAIN KILLER is a purely vegetable compound, and while it is a most efficient remedy for Pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine given in the most unskillful hands.

FOR SUMMER COMPLAINT,

Or any other form of the bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt been more successful in curing the various kinds of

CHOLERA,

Than any other known remedy, or even the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is ever more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates

A SURE REMEDY.

AN ENGAGEMENT.—A gentleman down from Oregon City yesterday (Thursday) afternoon informed us that the presiding genii of the Oregon City Enterprise and the Vancouver REGISTER had a personal conflict with canes on the streets of Oregon City yesterday morning, shortly after the arrival of the boat from this place. The Enterprise man came down on the Major with a hickory in no easy way, while his blows were returned with equal energy by the Major with a gutta percha. Adams' weapon was however too brittle to punish his opponent very severely, and as a consequence, he was almost at the mercy of his antagonist, who plied his cane in good earnest until he was persuaded to desist.—Oregonian.

Brave McKinney! How well you have vindicated your wounded honor! 250 lbs. backed up with a hickory cane, against 150 lbs. and a gutta percha switch! Brave man! your courage can never be called in question again! Then the bystanders, too, cravens that they were, would have interfered and robbed you of your sweet revenge had it not been for the forethought of your friend Sheriff Myers, who forewarned them authoratively to let you beat an unarmed and a disabled soldier until your high sense of manly honor was fully appeased. Worsted with the ordinary weapons of the editorial profression he instinctively resorts for redress to the course of a common blackguard. The writer does not approve of the personalities which have precipitated this recontre, but as McKinney with an unblushing effronterty perversely perverted the language of Major Adams in a report of his lecture at Oregon City the simple telling of the truth was amply justifiable. Just so long as men whose private character is as assailable as McKinney's set themselves up as editors and the conservators of public morals, just so long will their foibles be held up to public scorn and execration when they lay themselves liable. What can speak louder for the private character of Maj. Adams than that after the closest scrutiny the argus eyes of a professional calumnistor could find no assailable point, and lashed to fury and writhing in impotent rage at the scathing sarcasms of an unassailable foe, it not to be wondered at that he should resort to physical strength for a satisfaction which he could he never hope to obtain in any other manner.

A WEALTHY FARMER CHARGED WITH RAPE.—James Jamison, who owns a farm on First Plain, about three miles from this city, and who has heretofore borne a good reputation, was arrested on Wednesday on the affidavit of a girl named Josephine Fulkerson, aged about 13 years, charging him with having committed a rape on her person about three years ago, and with having had criminal intercourse with her at regular intervals ever since. The accused was brought before Justice Smith, on Thursday, waived an examination, and was held to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $5,000, with Owen Mulligan, William Ryan, Smith Maynes, David Brown and Anton Young as surities.

About three years ago her mother was sent to the Territorial Insane Asylum where she is still confined as a hopeless maniac. Her father, Peter Fulkerson, went shortly afterward to California, but before leaving sent the girl to live in the family of Mr. Jamison, where she has since resided until within a few weeks. Her sworn statement of the systematic preparation for months ahead for her destruction on the part of her destroyer and the disgusting details, if they are to be relied upon, exhibit a depth of depravity seldom equalled in the annals of crime.

The Work.

All who have the success of Republican principles at heart should heed the suggestions contained in the following article:

"Although the Republican party have just passed through a sharply contested election and demonstrated by the victory achieved that a majority of the voters of the Territory maintain its principles and hold to its policy, yet the majority is so small it is also shown that parties are quite evenly divided. It is therefore apparent to every reflecting mind there is work for the Republicans of the Territory to perform in order to dissipate the dense clouds of ignorance and prejudice that overshadows the minds of a large percentage of our fellow citizens. Less than a year from this time another election for a a representative in Congress will take place and no time is to be lost in preparing to enter the canvass with confidence in the success of our cause and ticket. Republican organizations should be formed in every county in the Territory and sound Republican papers be scattered broadcast in every community. Personal difference should be forgotten and everything done to unite and strengthen the party and promote the cause dear to every friend of freedom and progress. We do not mean by this that traitors should be welcomed into the camp and warmed into life in order that they may accomplish their vile purposes, but whilst we determine "to make treason odious" let us do nothing that will deter persons from honestly supporting the cause and thereby strengthen the Republican party of the Territory. Let us to the work in good earnest, remembering that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and that one of the most effective ways of enlightening the public mind is to subscribe for and circulate Republican papers."

INFORMATION WANTED.—A boy named Mark Smith has been missing from this place since about the 20th May last. He is supposed to have gone either to Oak Point or Lewis river. Any one knowing of his whereabouts would relieve the anxiety of an aged father by addressing Malcom Smith, care of Rev. Father Mans, Vancouver.

In an article on Sauvie's Island last week the word "land" appeared a little too often. The compositor evidently was thinking of the many pretty girls on Sauvie's Island and got his brain badly muddled. Sauvie's Island is rich in pretty girls, you bet your "buton."

CHANGE OF WHARF.—The steamer Forest Troup will hereafter land at the American Exchange wharf, at Portland.

We are under obligations to Dr. Wall for many favors and among the latest for a donation of pencils. Besides a full assortment of drugs he has a complete stock of stationery.

Office As A Disease.

A contemporary, who evidently knows whereof he speaks, has the following, which will well repay perusal:

Office is sometimes sought merely as an object of ambition, and its attainment in that case results at first in what might be called an excess of health. The animal spirits rise, the conscience dilates, the sense of power swells out, but still keeps its official shape. The success achieved makes the man happy, too happy to be at once bad-tempered. He is an object of jolly ridicule rather than anger. Besides, there is about him a sort of modesty that comes from the consciousness that his position is yet an untried one, in which he is not altogether sure of success.—He feels mingling with his pride a little trembling; he has not yet conquered what he has won; the possibility of failure is, after all, not quite out of the question. What a virgin timorousness there is about the neophyte! How kindly, how even imploringly he looks round to see if eyes are critical, and to judge, from his living surroundings, whether his new dignity sits well upon him! What a humility in his early official blushes! How pliant, how anxious to feel that he fits his new seat!

But nothing remains new. The mingled timidity and joy, the plethora of health, soon yields, and the disease of office quietly sets in. How different the symptoms in different cases! The peculiarity of constitution is the mould of the disorder in in each patient. We have noticed a type of years' standing, in which the [illegible]swelling has never gone down, but the modesty and timidity having oozed out, and unmitigated officiality has supervened. If it were allowed to discourse so lightly of disease, we should say in covers him like a garment; only that, in this case, the garment is the skin itself, the gait, the manner of composing the countenance, of looking out of the eyes, and of rounding the voice. Nay, the whole is office, full of constrained dignity; the man has disappeared under the officer.

A type somewhat similar to this, only modified by lingering traits of the original temperament, is one in which the demands of office are not met by a sufficiently profound respect on the part of mankind. There he is, smooth and amiable but easily excited.—The trouble is that the world is not conscious of the official atmosphere which he carries about with him. It sees him for what he is, and treats his opinions and judgments according to their worth; and, touched in the center of his life, his temper gives way.

There is another style of the disease of a more doubtful character—that, namely, in which the patient, in his hallucinations, is true to the profits of his position. Here the disease is eminently deceitful. The pride of place disappears almost altogether. Not that the office is less desired, but only less honored. Its pretention falls off entirely, and is followed by the greatest condescension to the public, covered by an air of shrewdness that has in it the glare of greenbacks. The very politeness is keen, and the official air is translated into salary and good opportunities. The office is only fishing-tackel for angling in deep and doubtful waters.—This patient, however, is often very religious.

But strong as are the symptoms in office, they are often worse before the place has been achieved. Washington, we suppose, is the Mecca of officiality, as it certainly is the national hospital of office and its seekers.—In the place that bears the name of the Father of his Country, almost every man eats, either directly or indirectly, at the public crib. The fare, to be sure, is not always either dainty or abundant, but the disease of office has no respect to difficulties. Like the dust in Summer, and the mud in Winter, it covers the whole city. When it does not attack men directly, it affects them sympathetically. The cringing fellow who longs to button-hole every man he meets, whose look seems to say, "I'm your friend; I keep your pictures in my room; I had a nice item put into the papers about you; can't you help me to get in?" Or if he is in, he may feel that he needs underpinning, or, if confident of his present place, his symptoms will be strongly for promotion. His life is the gift of a Congressman, or of some one else; he eats and sleeps by permission; he stands in dread of a change of administration as of a famine, and if he succeeds in remaining in place, he becomes a very small part of a machine, a nail, a screw, or a tack, useless anywhere else than just where he is.

But this hunger for office riots everywhere. When a man sets his heart on some position as the crown of his life, one which fills the measure of his conception of honor, and promises freedom from pressing want for the rest of his life, what havoc it makes of his vitality! It benumbs him through and thro'. His great care is to keep on the track for the object of his hope. He fears to do anything but float. He must take no stand, and no side; and keep in with all, so as to be ready for the hoped for hour. He buries his grudges, swallows his insults, resists all temptations to committal, and hopes to ideamify himself for the loss of his independence when he clutches the glittering prize. Meantime his neutrality must pass for modesty or Christian humility, and even friendships are sought with the ulterior aim of making them only so many steppingstones.

Do such men fancy the are not seen thro'? They are mistaken; those before whom they act laugh in their sleeves at a bungling duplicity which claims to be humility, and is often caught peeping out from behind its mask.

In consequence of the spurious issues of ten dollar greenback notes, Secretary Boutwell has concluded to have a new issue of all denominations of greenbacks from 3 to $1000 note. The plates are now being engraved at the bureau of engraving and printing. The designs are entirely new. No likeness of any living man will be placed on any note. The engraving of the new issues and printing of the faces and seals of all denominations will be performed in the printing and engraving bureau, while the blocks will be printed in New York. There will be every possible precaution taken to prevent frauds, including the taking of lead impressions for electrotype plates.

Until further orders, Brevet Colonel J. T. Ghiselin, Surgeon, will perform the duties of Medical Director of the Department; relieving Bvt. Lieut. Col. Wirz, who avails himself of a leave of absence.

The Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F., of Oregon and Washington Territory, meets in Vancouver on the third Tuesday in October. The County Fair will be progressing at the same time.

THE SINGER

SEWING MACHINES.
THE SINGER MANUFACTURING CO'S NEW FAMILY MACHINE.—No other family Sewing Machine has so rapidly won favor in the households. The very large sale of that popular machine, as shown by the official returns for current three of any other company, and this fact or result has been owing to its real merits—hence its great and growing popularity. It is simple in construction, easily understood, easily operated—all its parts adjust correctly and accurately themselves—not liable to get out of order, has capacity for a great range and variety of work, sewing all kinds of cloth and with all kinds of thread, and with the numerous attachments for hemming, tucking, quilting, trimming, binding, braiding, &c., and embroidering of nearly the entire family and difficult designs, is the most perfect of all family sewing machines. Any one who will take the trouble to examine the merits of the different machines claiming attention, can soon discover whether we claim too much for ours. It would avail us nothing to make the above assertions if we were not ready to prove them, and all we ask is a trial, for observation alone can justly convey a clear impression of the many kinds of work of which our NEW FAMILY MACHINE is capable.
THE FOLDING CASES,
Which open with spacious tables to sustain the work, and fold into tables or boxes, to protect the machine, when not in use, from dust and mischievous fingers, are made from choice woods, embellished by pleasing designs, their making our new family machine not only an ornamental piece of furniture, but in some of the more elaborately finished machines, a work of real art.
THE ATTACHMENTS
Of our new family machine, above referred to, are not only numerous, but highly useful for the purposes for which they were intended. They need only a trial to show their great value. Among the most recent of the attachments is the EMBROIDERER.
Of the different attachments of our new family machine which have secured the attention and approval of our customers that for embroidering, like the Hemmer, is one of the few instruments which will most please and satisfy the observer of fine work. It is so simple in structure, that any one who can sew on our machine can use it, and without instruction. It may be attached to or detached from the machine in an instant. Without a lengthy description, and even then, it would be difficult to describe the great variety of work that this little instrument will do. The reader must not suppose that what we speak of is a mere chain stitch operation, which is sometimes humorously termed embroidery. It will use three colors of any kind of thread may be used at any one time, and the colors or thread may be changed at the will of the operator, by reversing the spools in use and putting others in their stead; then as many or as few colors may be run together as the operator wishes, in the embroidering of any garment. A great variety of results are produced by the manner in which the tensions are regulated. Different results may be produced while the machine is in motion by slightly varying the tension. Besides very accordion to the length of stitches, kinds, colors and textures of threads, as well as the size of the needles used. The Embroiderer will use any kinds of thread. The use of zephyr worsted for certain purposes gives very pleasing results. In order to get a fine line of this valuable attachment it will be necessary to use it in separation.
MANUFACTURING MACHINES.—We would ask attention to our new Button-hole Machine, which is the only PRACTICAL Button-hole Machine claiming public attention. Our other manufacturing machines, for other purposes, are too well known to need comments.
MACHINE TWIST.—We have recently embarked our own silk mills in Newark, N. J., and furnished them with the latest and most improved machinery, which is being operated by highly skilled labor. We know and feel the importance of not only supplying the users of our machines but the trade generally with the best quality of Machine Twist, which we sell by MEASURE rather than by weight. The system of selling by WEIGHT has given manufacturers the opportunity of so heavily weighting silk in the process of dyeing as not only to greatly injured its quality but also convey a wrong impression about its quantity.—In this respect we mean to be above suspicion. The manner in which the sizes of silk are graduated is also a matter of great importance, but we use the greatest possible care that the graduating shall be exceedingly accurate.—In addition to manufacturing from the best quality of raw silk, the evenness of thread and beauty of finish of the manufactured article will not, we think, be surpassed. Each spool manufactured by us, as also further also all better, irrespective of weight, contains the number of yards printed thereon. Length, strength, size, quality and finish of the thread are to be looked to rather than weight. We also now silk manufacturers on a large scale, and feel that a large trade can only be retained by us in forcing a superior article at a fair price. If other brands of Twist be offered at less price than ours, purchasers may rest assured that it is inferior in quality, deficient in quantity, or both.
We have and shall keep in stock at our General Office, and various agencies, Twist of all sizes, and of the various colors and shades of color in use, and which will be sold at New York prices.

GOLD MEDALS

AWARDED TO

WHEELER & WILSON FAMILY SEWING MACHINE!

Over 82 Competitors,

—AT THE—

Great Paris Exposition,

Being the highest honors and all the Gold Medals awarded any Sewing Machine Company at this Exposition.

As a HOLIDAY Present, Nothing will be more appreciated THAN ONE OF these MACHINES.

America, England and France, now unite in his grand Proclamation:

Good news! good news the cable brings,
Over all the wires it flies,
Wheeler & Wilson's sewing machine,
Brings back the golden prize.

Our "Uncle Sam" first struck the note,
"John Bull" then caught the sound;
Now comes from France the echo back,
Wheeler & Wilson's crowned.

And now, to please the people's whim,
So long it stood the test—
The thing is fairly nailed about
And they will baptize best.

☞ We can now supply those who wish to purchase "STODDARD'S PATENT TUCK-MARKER," one of the most useful attachments to the Machine yet invented, which, while sewing on tuck, makes the line of marks for the next.

GOLD MEDAL AT FAIR OF THE MECHANICS' ASSOCIATION, LOWELL, MASS.
GOLD MEDAL AT MARYLAND INSTITUTE FAIR, BALTIMORE.
FIRST PREMIUM AT NEW ENGLAND AGRICULTURAL FAIR, PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND.
AND AT THE NEW YORK STATE FAIR, BUFFALO,

THE FLORENCE WAS AWARDED

A Silver Medal at the Paris Exposition,

Silver Medals being the highest on Family Sewing Machines. The Gold Medals were awarded thus: One for Button-hole Machine, and the other to the original inventor of Sewing Machines.

The Committees on Family Sewing Machines

At the numerous Fairs held on the Pacific coast in the last four years, have unanimously decided in favor of the Florence, this machine having taken every First Premium since the Agency has been established in California. Among the gentlemen who served as judges we mention Messrs. Thomas Hansbrow, George Schneider, Painted Blair, J. N. Andrew, Thomas V. McHale, A. F. Hitchcock, and S. O. Bingham—men well known as being among the first and best mechanics in the State—establishing beyond question the superiority of the

WEBFOOT CHIEF.

WILL STAND FOR A LIMITED NUMBER of mares the season, at the stable of his owner, on the Lewisville road, in Clark county, W. T., at the following prices, to be paid as soon as the mare is known to be in foal, viz: Parties with the mares, however, before above known to be with foal to the undersigned, for the season will be charged $25 to insure a foal, for no liability will be assumed should any occur.

N. B.—No foals in half breed or Spanish mares will be taken. This fine, well bred young stallion is a beautiful bay, fifteen and a half hands high, and for size, form, temper and action is said unsurpassed in this state, and for disposition has no superior, being ambitious and spirited, yet docile and tractable. He recommends himself to good judges of horses, and parties who are anxious to improve their stock, we say to one and all, here is a good thing and continue yourselves that "Chief will sell." It is deemed unnecessary to say anything about his pedigree further than he was sired by Humboldt (Oregon) and by Lone Eagle, better known as Gray Eagle, dam, as f. Term Fifty. T. J. FLETCHER. 2-tf

Many years ago, the writer of these lines and an invalid physician, while visiting the Island of St. Croix for their health, experienced and witnessed many surprising and beneficial effects of the Rum there produced upon many of the invalids who were (like ourselves) seeking health; and, upon inquiry and investigation, obtained a full history of its medicinal virtues. He was delighted and surprised; and after his own recovery, which soon occurred, determined, if possible, to procure the sole right to manufacture and sell it in the United States.

The result of his labors was a glorious success for himself and suffering humanity, for the celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS was then made known to the world. PLANTATION BITTERS being an article of real merit, founded upon new principles, and relying wholly upon the vegetable world for its medicinal virtues, worked a rapid revolution in the history of medicine, and became as a household word all over the civilized world. The establishment S. T.—1869—at was a talisman of health, and the demand for the PLANTATION BITTERS soon far exceeded the abilities of the proprietors to supply.

Notwithstanding the large importation of St. Croix Rum, made expressly for the compounding of these Bitters, the quantity was inadequate. It therefore became necessary that arrangements upon an extensive scale abroad should be made forthwith, and an agent was dispatched to St. Thomas for that purpose. He was fortunate in securing and leasing several plantations on some of the largest and most productive estates on the island. Houses, stills and presses were erected as if by magic, which utterly "astonished the natives." The services of experienced men and natives of the island were procured, and very soon the proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS were in a position to supply their laboratory with all the peculiarly pure St. Croix Rum needed in manufacturing the GREAT DYSPEPTIC TONIC AND INVIGORATOR. The above cut represents the natives crushing the sugar-cane and otherwise preparing it for the mills and presses.

As an antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittents and Malarious Fevers, Dyspepsia, and other kindred diseases, the use of the PLANTATION BITTERS is unsurpassed in the history of the world. Over five million bottles are disposed of annually. They are adapted to old and young, male and female. They are agreeable in taste, and always produce an immediate beneficial result.

MANHOOD.—IN THE YOUNG and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye, and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influences is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, is too much enfeebled to give zest to the healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it feeds on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds with anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HEMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion, and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatality, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were both sexes, and about twenty years of

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences: HEMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Prepared at

H. T. HEMBOLD'S
Drug and Chemical Warehouse

RECOMMENDATIONS.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
Jan. 28th, 1868.

Mr. H. T. HEMBOLD,
Dear Sir:

Your communication requesting our terms of advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a Drug Store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your BUCHU. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Inclosed please find our rates of advertising.

Yours, &c.
T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Editor and Proprietor of Daily and Semi-Weekly TELEGRAPH.

N. Y. S. YOU. INSTITUTE,
Corner of 5th Avenue & 76th St.
(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. HEMBOLD:

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant, A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily anathemas of the chambermaid who has charge of his bedding. I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted,

I am respectfully yours,
COL. YOUNG,
General Sup't and Director.
