SUMMARY OF NEWS BY LAST MAIL. The following news items we extract mainly from the Philadelphia Press, the San Francisco Times and Portland Standard. The reports of the Legislative Assembly so crowd upon our columns that we can only make brief extracts. We hope by another week to complete them, after which time, more space will be devoted to this department.

In the Senate, on the 8th, Judge Douglas, immediately after the reading of the President's Message, opened the Kansas ball in a few cautious but significant remarks, indicating his purpose to oppose the acceptance of the Lecompton Constitution. Messrs. Gwin of California, Stuart of Michigan, Trumbull, Hale and Seward likewise broke ground upon this exciting subject, sustaining the views of Judge Douglas.

Messrs. Jeff. Davis, Mason of Virginia and Bigler of Pennsylvania indicated their entire agreement with the President. On the 9th, the debate was further continued by Mr. Douglas, in fuller exposition and defense of "popular sovereignty," and Messrs. Mason of Virginia and Bigler of Pennsylvania in opposition. The speech of Senator Douglas is considered among the greatest he ever made. Mr. Mason wanted the galleries cleared for applauding Douglas at the close of his speech. Mr. Clay, of Ala., suggested that the applause began on the floor. Mr. Mason dropped the subject, with a threat that the galleries should be cleared next time. The discussion between Messrs. Douglas and Bigler was protracted, and was piquant and suggestive. Mr. Green, of Mo., delivered a lengthy speech in opposition to Mr. Douglas. It was courteous towards the latter, but abounded in technicalities and citations of precedent. He was anxious for peace, and affirmed that the Lecompton document represented the views of a majority of the people of Kansas. Mr. Douglas, in reply, said there could be no peace except upon the foundations of justice and right, and that to pursue the course marked out by Mr. Green would not only be death to the Democratic party, but would be a step sure to result in a civil war, to carry on which more than four regiments would be required. The debate was postponed until Monday.

The appointment of the standing committees had been announced in both the Senate and in the House. Several Republican Senators protested against the list as unfair.

CONGRESSIONAL AND POLITICAL.—On the 17th December, Mr. Hunter introduced in the Senate a bill for the issue of twenty millions in Treasury notes. As to the first six millions, the rate of interest is to be fixed by the Treasury Department; the balance is to be issued at the lowest rate of interest that will command the exchange of the notes at par for specie. What the policy is as to making these notes a part of the currency does not distinctly appear. Mr. Hunter urged the immediate consideration of the subject, but the matter was postponed.

On the 18th, both Houses of Congress were in session on the Administration project of an issue of Treasury notes to any amount below twenty millions of dollars. The course of debate in each renders probable the imposition of very material restrictions on this issue, alike as to the amount, rate of interest and duration of issue. Mr. Crittenden said the Government ought to increase its revenue by taxation in some form, and not undertake to meet its current expenses in time of peace by shunning.

On the 19th, the Senate passed the Treasury note bill, very slightly amended, by a mixed vote. Yeas 31, noes 18. Messrs. Crittenden, Foot, Hall, Kennedy, Seward and Wilson of the Opposition supported the bill, while Messrs. Broderick, Jeff. Davis, Johnson of Tennessee, and Pugh voted nay, with a majority of the Republicans. Mr. Douglas voted for the bill. It was amended so as to limit the duration of the notes to the ensuing year, and forbid the issue below the denomination of $100. In the House, Treasury notes were also discussed, but without result.

Major Harris of the Union was elected Senate Printer, Mr. Douglas declining to vote for him for "reasons satisfactory to himself." The House have elected Mr. Steadman of Ohio, the Democratic caucus candidate, Printer, by a vote of 121 to 89, for George M. Weston, (Repub.), and 4 scattering.

MR. DOUGLAS' KANSAS BILL.—Washington, Dec. 18.—The bill introduced by Mr. Douglas in the Senate to-day provides for a board of five persons, appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, to make an enumeration of the inhabitants of Kansas, and a fair apportionment of the members of the Convention to form the new Constitution. The election to be held on a day to be designated by the board to be not less than ninety nor more than one hundred and twenty days after the passage of the act. The board is to be entrusted with the appointment of judges and the selection of places of voting, the elective franchise to be confined to every free white male citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age, who may be a bona fide resident of the Territory on the 21st of December, and who shall have resided three months prior to said election in the county in which he offers to vote. The Convention to assemble in not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the election of delegates. The Constitution to be submitted to the legal voters for their free acceptance or rejection, and unless adopted by a majority of all the legal votes cast, shall be null and void. The bill also secures the personal and political rights of the people, including those of speech and the press.

ARIZONA.—On the 17th Dec., in the Senate, Mr. Gwin introduced a bill for the establishment of a Territorial Government in Arizona. He having previously presented a memorial from certain citizens of California and New Mexico asking the same.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—So much of the President's message as relates to the Pacific Railroad has been referred to a special commercial committee of nine, of which the mover, Mr. Gwin was made Chairman. A motion to table Mr. H. Bennett's resolution to raise a select committee on this subject has been voted down by 99 to 94. This looks favorable for the road.

KANSAS.—Hon. Robt. J. Walker has resigned his post as Governor of Kansas. Mr. Stanton, Secretary of this Territory, has been removed, and Gen. Denver appointed in his place. There has been some talk of giving him the office of Superintendent of Indian Affairs, previously held by Denver. A spirited debate, lasting several hours, took place before Gen. Denver was confirmed. The confirmation was by a strict party vote.

DESTRUCTION OF IRANISTAN.—The magnificent residence of P. T. Barnum, near Bridgeport, known as "Iranistan," was destroyed by fire on the night of December 17th.

The St. Louis Democrat learns that news has been received at Fort Leavenworth, from Major's and Russell's trains for Utah, that the Government animals were dying in great numbers on the plains. Col. Hoffman, who left Fort Leavenworth the last of October, arrived in St. Louis on Sunday night. He brings no news of the Utah expedition.

EARTHQUAKE IN VIRGINIA.—A slight shock of an earthquake was felt in Lewisburg, Greenbrier county, Virginia, about 10 o'clock on Thursday night. The same moment a very large landslide took place on the Greenbrier river, near Edgar's Mill. The Chronicle says that the whole end of a mountain gave way, and was precipitated into the valley and river below.

SOURCE OF HAPPINESS.—If you would enjoy the theatre, pay your admission; if you would stand well with your friends, give them good dinners, and plenty of them; if you are anxious to spend a fortune, publish books at your own expense; if you are fond of scandal, live in a boarding house; if you have a taste for law, buy horses; and be sure you have a warrant with each of them; if you would sleep soundly, keep the baby out of the room; if you would live happily with your wife, never contradict her; and above all, use the Graefenberg Family Medicines, if you would enjoy perfect health, which is the true secret of happiness.

Pioneer and Democrat. OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON TERRITORY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1858. J. W. WILEY AND E. FURST, EDITORS.

"Truth crush'd to earth will rise again, The eternal years of God are hers."

CALLED SESSION.—The late Legislature having called an extra session of the Supreme court, the same was convened here on yesterday—Associate Justice O. B. McFADDEN, presiding. The case of the Indian Chief Leschi, who was sentenced to be hung on the 22d ult., by this tribunal at its late December term, will constitute one of the cases coming before it. The execution of the sentence of that court, it will be remembered, was prevented by the baseness, knavery, or criminal ignorance of the sheriff of Pierce county, combined with the unextinguished exertions of a few notoriety-seeking army graduates, who had they but one-half the knowledge which they exhibit in pretension, ought to have known better than to engage in the transactions of that day; a knavish pettifoggery attorney, and a military-fawning U. S. Commissioner.

The prisoner was again remanded for sentence on Wednesday last, and will probably be re-sentenced to-day. He is now in safe custody, and in hands from whom he will not make his escape. About a week or ten days since, he made an attempt of this kind, but was prevented; subsequent to this, he also attempted to take his life by hanging, but also failed. This will be the third time this unhappy man has had his sentence pronounced.

Messrs. Williams, sheriff, J. M. Bachelder, commissioner, and Lieuts. Kautz and McKibben will also be heard in defence of their conduct in resisting the execution of the law in Pierce county on the day above mentioned. They are here, as well as some others, to purge themselves of a contempt of its mandates. We hope they may succeed.

Whatever may be said of martial law, late occurrences conclusively show that it is the only law of any effect in Pierce county—the civil is inoperative.

TRUTH TELLER.—A 10 x 12 sheet bearing this name has made its appearance in our midst, bearing date at Steilacoom. It is devoted entirely to the defamation of the character of our worthy executive, and in bolstering up the rotten characters of a few with whom the citizens of the Territory have neither sympathy or feeling. It contains a card from the sheriff of Pierce county, Mr. Williams; a long communication and dissertation upon law and equity (!) from that proficient rogue and attorney, F. Clark; one from his honor (once upon a time) J. M. Bachelder, U. S. Commissioner; Lieut. McKibben, and a beautiful picture of the "bloody swamp" and battle field at Connell's prairie, in black, thus dressed, we presume, to commemorate the treacherous and bloody fate of the lamented McALLISTER, CONNELL, MOSES and MILES, who here met their fate and untimely end at the instigation of Leschi, now under sentence of death for his connection therewith, whose probable fate is more deeply deplored by the regular army than the reverence which our citizens entertain for the memory of the dead. Their united eloquence and argument will be insufficient to ever reinstate them in the good opinion of honest men.

These young and ardent spirits should have learned one lesson (perhaps the only one he is competent to teach,) from their senior officer, Lieut. Col. Casey, and kept mum. It is the wounded bird that flutters, and they are but "kicking against the pricks."

In conclusion, we would suggest to the army and its officers to stand aloof from everything appertaining to civil law, or they may get their fingers burned. Our citizens will attend to that. While they can have nothing to do with it save to enforce it, they may yet learn before the Supreme court adjourns, that it can have something to do with them.

For the information of those whom it may concern, we would state that the place to obtain anything in the clothing line at reasonable prices, is at the establishment of Mr. ROSENHEIM, at the building formerly occupied as the express office of Wells, Fargo, & Co. He has a large stock, and will give satisfaction to all, both as to quality and prices.

FLOUR.—This article now meets with ready sale at from twelve to fourteen dollars per barrel. We understand that parties here are purchasing with a view of shipment to California. There is but little of either wheat or flour in the county, probably not more than sufficient for home consumption. In Portland it is worth $10, and at Salem and other parts of the upper Willamette but from $7 to $8.

Reuben P. Boise has been appointed Associate Justice for the Supreme Court of Oregon, in place of Judge Olney, who declined a re-appointment.

REMOVED.—J. M. BACHELDER, a U. S. Commissioner in this Territory, having proved himself a corrupt officer, disgraced our laws and the citizens of the Territory, was removed a few days since by his honor, Justice CHENOWETH, upon a petition presented to him for that purpose. It is signed by some 75 gentlemen and 50 ladies, and is now in our possession. Already is deserved censure being passed upon this individual by those who know him best, among whom he has resided for the last five years, and whose esteem and good will, rather than that of a few migratory army officers, he should have endeavored to secure. You are surely short-sighted, Mr. B., or you certainly would reflect upon the course you are pursuing. Remember that those gentlemen whose favors you court may travel at a moment's notice—they are subject to orders, which we hope may be received at an early day. In the meantime, within the walls of Fort Steilacoom, you and the enemies of our people—(the hostile Indian—the murder of innocent women and children,) can find sympathy and hide your shame.

KILLED.—An Indian was killed on the night of Wednesday last by a couple of his red brethren during the frenzy and fury of a whiskey row. The guilty parties are now in the custody of Mr. Armstrong, who designs delivering them over to the friends and relatives of the deceased, to be dealt with according to Indian custom—alone with a price the value of life. One of the prisoners came very near making his escape yesterday, but after having had four shots from a revolver fired at him without taking effect, was headed off by some persons in the streets and again secured. Liquor has been uncommonly plenty among them of late, and fighting, quarreling, noise and disturbance has been in proportion.

The proceedings and resolutions of a mass meeting held in Pierce county, expressive of the sense of a majority of the people of said county at the conduct of certain men conspicuous in the farce enacted at Steilacoom on the 22d ult., are unavoidably crowded out this week. They are decidedly severe as well as rich, and administer a scathing castigation to the persons therein mentioned. The resolutions are signed by some 80 or 90 names. They shall appear in our next.

FROM FORT COLVILLE.—We see by the Oregonian of 30th January, received by last mail, that a meeting of the citizens and miners of Colville valley was held on the 23d November last, for the purpose of appointing a "code of officers" the better to protect the lives and property of the residents thereof. The object of the meeting, as stated by the Chairman, was—"1st.—That in consequence of some recent hostile demonstrations made by the Indians, it was thought expedient to petition for a company of soldiers to be located in the valley to better secure the lives and property of the citizens and miners. 2d. That in consequence of several attempts at murder being committed, which in one or two cases proved serious, it was thought expedient that some civil officers should be appointed to better maintain peace and equity among the inhabitants."

By a private letter received from the Dalles, bearing date the 14th ult., we are informed that a rumor was there current and generally credited, that the settlers in the Walla Walla, Simcoe, and Cllickat valleys had sought safety in Fort Walla Walla, apprehending serious difficulties from the Indians in that quarter. Also, that on the night of the 11th ult., a party of Indians (supposed to be Snakes) had made an onslaught on Stock Whitley's band, killing twenty-three, and capturing all their horses. The writer does not state the origin of the rumor.

The proceedings of the meeting we will publish in our next—if possible.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 5, 1858. J. W. WILEY, Esq.—Dear Sir: In the proceedings, published in your last week's issue, of the meeting held by the citizens of this place, I am made to say things I never uttered. I called upon Mr. J. T. Turner, the Secretary of the meeting, to make the necessary correction which he promised to do, but his time has been so much engaged toward the close of the session of the Legislature, that he has been unable to do so. I must therefore make it for myself.

When called upon, I simply said I was not the person to give the meeting the facts in the matter, but Mr. Mason was, and moved that he be sent for, which motion was adopted, and there ended all my part in the meeting except as a listener.

Yours, &c., JAMES M. HUNT.

CLAIMS.—By referring to the notice of Superintendent NESBITT, in our advertising columns, our readers holding claims against the Indian Department will be gratified to learn that the money to liquidate those claims will be placed in the hands of agents Simmons and Lansdale as soon as the funds can be obtained from San Francisco. The indebtedness thus outstanding amounts to nearly $14,000. Persons should therefore have their claims authenticated as soon as possible.

The Legislative Assembly adjourned sine die, on Thursday last, after a most harmonious session of nearly nine weeks, during which time a great amount of useful labor has been disposed of. Among other matters, in which the county of Thurston is most directly interested, the new apportionment gives to us six members, as heretofore, instead of five, of which sixth member we were unjustly robbed the session before.

Whatever may have been the politics of the members composing the late Legislature, this topic has entered less than ever heretofore in the labors of Legislation.—Party politics were very wisely excluded almost entirely therefrom. A spirit to legislate for the public good seems to have actuated all, and the fruits of their labor, we doubt not, will soon be apparent.

To-day, (Friday) our town looks comparatively deserted; many members have already taken their departure, and by Monday our town will again have assumed its usual appearance of quiet, and scarcely a single distant member remain here.

That uninterrupted health and prosperity may attend them through life, is our earnest wish to all.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—JOSEPH CORBETT, of Eastport, Maine, was instantly killed on board the bark Friendship, lying at the Puget Mill Co's wharf at Tekalet, on the 12th inst. Mr. Corbett was assisting in getting the main yard aloft, and while standing on the yard, with his head over the collar of the main stay, he standing ready to hook the sling chain, the hook of the upper purchase block gave way and the yard fell to the deck—one part of the tackle caught him over the neck and nearly severed his head from his body—he hanging by a small piece of his neck over the stay until a rope was sent up to lower the lifeless body on deck.

He was 28 years of age, and has a mother and brothers at Eastport. (Eastern papers please copy.)

RE-SENTENCED.—The Supreme Court, (now in session,) has again re-sentenced Leschi to be hung, and the day of execution fixed on Friday, the 19th inst. The sheriff of Thurston county has been appointed to carry into execution the sentence of the court.

NEWSPAPERS—WHAT THEY ARE AND WHAT THEY DO.—The Richmond Whig, in an article suggestive of taking its Christmas and New Year's "gifts" in the shape of new subscribers, has the following:

"It is a circumstance bordering almost on the marvellous, and certainly in the highest degree discreditable, that there should be one or two hundred thousand voters in the State, and yet fully two-thirds of them, if not more, living from year's end to year's end without ever seeing a newspaper, unless they be so fortunate as to fall in with a stray number belonging to somebody else. Not less than one hundred and fifty thousand qualified voters of the State—grown up men, over twenty-one years of age, with beards upon their faces, and perhaps with a family of children surrounding them—take no newspaper, thus cutting themselves off from sources of information and enjoyment, the loss of which can be compensated for in no other direction whatever. Not even books—the best books of the best authors—can possibly supply the place of a newspaper. Books are more of the nature of a luxury, while a newspaper is a living, daily necessity—as much so as meats, or drink, or the vital air. A newspaper is a history of daily contemporaneous life, public and social—a record of facts, events and circumstances daily and hourly transpiring, and alike interesting to all—a map of busy life, its fluctuations and its vast concerns"—while books for the most part tell us only a tale of the past, not as important by half to our every day well being, enjoyment, progress, and as the curious, important, or entertaining things which the newspaper daily dispenses with such a habit of pleasantness and with such clock-like regularity.

Apart, however, from the actual pleasure derived from the habitual perusal of a good newspaper, it is the solemn, social and political duty of every head of a family and of every voter in the land to subscribe to some public journal or other. No man does justice to himself or his children, unless he is the recipient of a well-conducted newspaper. Nor can any one of the vast number of freemen in the State, who now take no paper, vote understandingly in any election or upon any question, without taking a newspaper. It is not with subjects that engaged the thoughts and consideration of past generations that we of the present have to deal; but it is with present questions, lately arisen and now arising, which we are called upon to investigate and decide—and these questions all bear a close and intimate relationship both to our individual interests and to the national welfare. As men and as citizens, therefore, it is our duty to inform ourselves in respect to them, and this can only be done successfully by reading carefully the newspaper, where subjects of every hue and variety are daily considered and discussed, and where useful hints and suggestions enough may be picked up in the course of a week to excite the reflections and interest of the reader for a whole year.

contract, to perform the service proposed, with good and sufficient sureties. This we do understanding distinctly the obligations and liabilities assumed by guarantors, under the 27th section of the act of Congress of July 2, 1836.

Dated _____ CERTIFICATE. The undersigned, postmaster of _____ State of _____, certifies, under his oath of office, that he is acquainted with the above guarantors, and knows them to be persons of property and able to make good the guarantee.

15. Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn. Each bid must be guaranteed by two responsible persons. General guarantees cannot be admitted.

16. The bid should be sealed, and subscribed "Mail Proposals, State or Territory of, (as the case may be) _____, Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office, sent by mail, not by express, to an agent and postmaster, with the proposals (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the department by or before the 1st of August, 1858, but the service must be commenced on the 1st of July, or the mail day next after that date, whether the contracts are received or not. No proposition for altered bids will be received until the contracts are executed and received at the department; and then no transfers will be allowed unless good and sufficient reasons therefor are given, to be determined by the department.

18. Section 18 of an act of Congress, approved March 3, 1845, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be let "in every case to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarantees for the good performance, without other conditions, of the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due delivery, certainty, and security of such transportation." Under this law a new description of bids has been prescribed, which are to specify a mode of conveyance, bid, engage to take the entire mail each trip with certainty, certainty, and security, using the terms of the law. These bids are styled "star bids," and are to be prepared and sealed on the books of the department, "Star Bids," and they will be construed as providing for the conveyance of the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode necessary to insure its "certainty, certainty, and security."

19. In all cases where the lowest grade of service is believed to be sufficient, the lowest bid will be accepted, if duly guaranteed, in preference to a "star" bid.

When the lowest bid is not a star bid, and specifies either no mode or an inadequate mode of conveyance, it will not be accepted, but set aside for a specific bid proposing the necessary service.

When the bid does not specify a mode of conveyance, also, when it proposes to carry "according to the advertisement," but without such specification, it will be considered as a proposal for horseback service.

A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with a regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids.

21. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors or sureties without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; and the bidders, guarantors, and sureties are distinctly notified that, on a failure to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the accepted bids, their legal liabilities will be enforced against them.

Present contractors, and persons known at the department, must, equally with others, procure guarantors and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster or by a judge of a court of record.

AARON V. BROWN, Postmaster General.

And Whereas, information has been received by the Government that gold exists upon, and in the soil of the said districts, and that certain persons have commenced, or are about to commence searching, and digging for the same, for their own use, without leave or other authority from Her Majesty.

I do further notify and declare that such regulations, as may be found expedient, will be prepared and published, setting forth the terms on which licenses will be issued for this purpose, on the payment of a reasonable fee.

Given under my hand and seal at the Government Office, Victoria, this twenty-eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and in the twenty-first year of Her Majesty, JAMES DOUGLAS, Governor Vancouver's Island.

3d. The licenses can be obtained at Victoria, Vancouver's Island, until a Commissioner is appointed by His Excellency, the Governor, to carry out the regulations, and who will be authorized to receive the fee payable thereon.

4th. Rules adjusting the extent and position of land to be covered by each license, and for the prevention of confusion, and the interference of one license with another, will be regulated by the said Commissioner.

SILAS GALLIHER, Proprietor.

THE PROPRIETOR has recently erected, in connection with, and as a part of, the "Washington Hotel" a large two story building—20 by 60 feet—by which he is enabled to provide the travelling public with a larger number of spacious, comfortable and excellently ventilated apartments than can be afforded by any other public house in Washington Territory. An idea of his ability to accommodate the public may be judged from the fact that the Hotel contains twenty-five private rooms—(exclusive of family apartments)—six of which are large drawing rooms, or parlors.

Thankful to the public for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to the proprietor, and having thus enlarged upon his former business, he feels confident he can render the sojourn of strangers with him comfortable and pleasant, and no pains shall be spared to set his table as well as any in like business.
Beds and bed-rooms furnished to such as may desire them.
Board by the day and week.
A good stable is attached to this establishment, which will be amply supplied with forage for the accommodation of animals of the travelling public.
A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

New Year's Call.
PERSONS knowing themselves indebted to M. Louissou & Co. are requested to make us a New Year's call, and surprise us and our pockets by promptly paying up. Such as have owed us for the last three years, and are unable to pay, are requested to call in and inform us of this fact, when further time will be given and credit entered on our books for the call. We shall deem it as an evidence of the honest intent of such as may comply with the request of this notice, and lay the delay to their inability to pay. The contrary will be our opinion of such as do not, and who may seem disposed to shrink and "shy" the faces of old creditors and honest friends.
