ELECTION RETURNS.

By Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Three hundred election districts out of 688 give Folger 21,389; Cleveland 53,701.

8 P. M.—The Express, republican, estimates Cleveland's majority in that state at from 80,000 to 100,000. The Express bulletin says: Edson is undoubtedly elected for mayor; estimated majority, 50,000.

The bulletin also says that Massachusetts gives Butler's election by a large majority.

The Express says that Mahone claims the majority on his ticket in Virginia is 25,000.

The Commercial Advertiser, stalwart, admits that Cleveland, democrat, for governor, will probably have 60,000 majority.

CAMDEN CITY, N. J., Nov. 7.—Robeson, the republican candidate for congress, defeated by Ferrel, democratic candidate, by about 500 majority. Brewer, the republican candidate for congress from the second district, is reelected by about 700 majority.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 7.—Returns received from every town in two congressional districts. In first district, Spooner, republican, has 3,575; Latham, 1,491; scattering, 15; Spooner's majority 2,000. In second district, Jonathan Chase, republican, 3,349; Wheeler, democrat, 1,831.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 7.—Waller's majority about 35,000. Legislature republican on joint ballot.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—Ex-Senator Chaffee, chairman of the republican state central committee, in an interview with a western press reporter said our telegrams are decidedly encouraging to the republicans, and we confidently predict Campbell's election for governor by 2,000 majority. Ex-congressman L. M. Patterson, chairman of the democratic state committee, said: "We estimate Grant's election by 1500. Neither chairman ventures a prediction on the legislature or congressman."

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 7.—The indications are that the democratic state ticket is elected by a greater majority than in 1880. The legislature is undoubtedly democratic. The congressional delegation will probably be composed of eight democrats and one republican. A Philadelphia dispatch gives Ferrel a democratic majority of 500 over Robeson, republican candidate for congress; democratic gain, 170.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 7.—Full vote; both parties claim the state. The majority either way will be in the hundreds.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—Weather fine and vote fair, indications sweeping democratic majority throughout the state. The count will be slow as there are four scratched city tickets.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The election in the city is very quiet, and an average vote polled owing to length of tickets and poor arrangements for gathering returns nothing can be known of the result tonight. Much scratching has been done and it is probable that some will be elected on both tickets, but the commonly received opinion is that the democrats have received from two to three thousand majority. Reports from the interior indicate a full vote. It is believed that the prohibition ticket will have about five thousand votes in the state at large, and that with defection from republicans on account of the Sunday law is likely to give the state to the democrats.

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—Democrats swept northern Texas. Lanham, Willborn, Throckmorton, Smith and Mills are elected to congress by increased majorities. Ireland, for governor, and the entire democratic state ticket is elected by an enormous majority. The legislature is overwhelmingly democratic.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 7.—The election of White, Wakefield, Stuart and Washburne in the first, second, third and fourth districts, are considered certain by the republicans.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—10:30 P. M.—Republicans concede Butler's election by 20,000 majority. Democrats claim 25,000 for Wm. Whitney, representative to congress from the eleventh district. Geo. D. Robinson, republican, is elected from the twelfth district.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 7.—Returns from congressional districts indicate the election of Dibble, Tollman, Auken and Evans, democrats, and Mackey, republican. Other districts in doubt.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—10 P. M.—It now looks as if Cleveland's majority in King county will nearly reach 40,000, so far as heard from. Folger has not carried a single election precinct.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—General Butler's managers claim the state for him by 1500. Republicans hope to elect Bishop by 5000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Gibson telegraphs: Hunt and Ellis, democrats, elected in Louisiana, and the prospects are good for the entire state.

In Virginia the colored votes adhered close to Mahone.

Reports from Pennsylvania show Beaver defeated by 30,000 majority.

Brooklin, New York, gives Cleveland 8100 majority a democratic gain of 2800 over the vote for secretary of state in 1881.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 6.—The vote from two hundred and twenty-four towns indicates a slight republican gain.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The German vote, heretofore largely republican, is being cast almost solidly for the democratic state ticket.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—7:15 P. M.—Six cities in Massachusetts gives the following for governor: Bishop, 10,776; Butler, 11,256.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—The election is progressing quietly. The weather is warm. The fight in Arapahoe county is very bitter, and scratching is done in all tickets. A heavy vote is being polled.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—Dispatches from the entire democratic delegation except in the district, which is regarded doubtful.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Congressman Washburn states that his majority will be not less than 3,000 in the Fifth District, Nelson is undoubtedly elected, making the Minnesota delegation entirely Republican. The legislature will be Republican by a somewhat reduced majority, and the estimate is that three-fourth of the republican members are in favor of the re-election of Senator Windom.

RALEIGH, Nov. 8.—Meager returns indicate the election of Bennett, Dem., Congressman at large. The Democrats have elected every Congressman except in the Second District, where O'Hara, Rep., had no opposition. The Legislature is Democratic.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8.—Complete returns from the entire State give Stockler, Dem., for Governor, a majority of 1,335; for Congress, Lore, Dem., has a majority of 2200.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Times extra puts Cleveland's majority at 174,000, on returns to 10 A. M., and makes the Legislature Democratic strongly. Latest reports increase the Democratic majority everywhere, and indicate 45 of 60 counties in the State gone Democratic.

CARSON, Nev., Nov. 8.—Democrats claim the State. It is believed Adams is elected by trading off the whole ticket. Republicans claim the State with the exception of Governor.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 8.—Hall, Rep., is probably re-elected Governor. The Senate will stand seventeen Republicans and seven Democrats. There will be more than 60 Republican majority in the House of Representatives. The Council will stand four Republicans and one Democrat. Both Republican candidates for Congressmen are chosen.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 8.—Forty-nine precincts throughout the State outside of Denver gives Grant, Dem., for Governor a majority of 379; Wallace, Democrat, for Congress 93 majority. Grant and Wallace will undoubtedly carry the State.

CHICAGO, 12:50 A. M.—The chairman of the State Republican Committee, who has received private dispatches from all parts of the state, says that the Republicans have carried the State and Legislature, and will hold their own on Congressmen, with a possible gain of one. The committee could furnish no figures of majorities tonight. Senator Logan told the Western Associated Press reporter shortly after 12 o'clock, that in his opinion the state would give a good Republican majority; that all the Republican Congressmen in Chicago were elected, and that there would probably be a gain of one in the state. He had received no dispatches concerning the result elsewhere.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—1:40 A. M.—The Democrats claim the election of Congressmen in the first, third, sixth and eighth districts. Coalitionists claim the election of John P. Wise by a large 15,000. They also claim Congressmen in the first, second, fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth districts.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—The Congressmen elected are Covington in the First District, Hobbell in the Third, Findley in the Fourth, Democrats; a Democrat in the Second, and Patton in the Fifth, and McComas in the Sixth, Republicans.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—During the week ending November 5th, 4,032,900 standard silver dollars were put in circulation by the U. S. mints. For the same period last year but 360,400 were circulated.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald's Washington special says Postmaster-General Howe will, in his forthcoming report, urge Congress the necessity for the government enlivening the domain of postal telegraphy. He says it is business of the postoffice department to facilitate prompt and rapid intercourse between the people. We have, says the postmaster general, at present a monopoly, in fact an undisputed one, of all the slow methods for transmitting letters, while the corporators enjoy the exclusive privilege of sending by the rapid system, messages and business communications. In my opinion the postoffice department ought to be equipped with every facility for postal telegraphy. The government can do it cheaper than companies, and certainly only with the same promptness.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—S. S. Cox is elected to Congress from the Sixth District by 10,000.

REMINISCENCES OF OLD TIMES IN CALIFORNIA.

By one who was there.]

EDITOR ARGUS:—

Mark Twain and Bret Harte have made themselves famous by writing pictures of old California, which are very interesting, although a small fringe of truth surrounds their tales.

I am well aware that I never could shoot the quill with the glib ease of many writers, nor do I aspire to the shadow of their fame. But thinking a few reminiscences of the truthful past may interest many of your readers, I send you the following:

In '52, the great river mining era of California, when the Yuba river above Poverty Bar to Downeyville was one string of flumes and wing dams. In places miles of the river were connected by flumes by one dam. The dams increased fearfully as the winter approached. I was connected with Union Co. to several other companies by one dam, which I am sorry to say was not sufficient, for after we had drained the river, ten thousand dams would not have been sufficient to work out our wrath. Yet in those days to be interested in a river claim was considered a home stake, which everyone was playing for, not thinking that more wealth lay in what was termed the plains and dry hills than all the gold mined since '49.

Everyone thought the river was the grand deposit of all the hill washings since Noah, and to drain any part of it where there was a ripple was a fortune. All they had to do was to drain by flume or wing dam and scoop up the gold by the shovelful. In fact I heard men say at that time that gold would be so plentiful that silver would take its place.

Well do I remember the hard work we had to do; all the timber and lumber had to be brought from a distance; mills were scarce and far apart on creeks and ravines where water power could be got. Roads had to be made, and a hundred dollars per thousand paid or promised at the mill, we doing our own hauling, paying $12 per day for one yoke of cattle.

All the lumber and timber we delivered on the top of the mountain abreast of the claims, and it had to be hauled down by hand, each man taking a short piece of rope and tying two or three boards together and running down hill to the claim, making two or three trips a day. Often when the horn blew for dinner men have sought the shade of a Buckeye, and rested in preference to going to dinner, so tired and worn out were they. Yet when the horns, too, sounded with hopes of future wealth, they shook themselves and went to work with a will, and night found many of them, after taking a few mouthfuls of food, asleep in their wet clothes.

After getting in the flume and draining the claim, we had many heavy boulders to start in order to get to the bed rock. Our blaster was a young man from Pautucket, R. I., who was called "Charlie." He had a partner named Ned Booth, young men and old schoolmates. One morning Charlie was brought into camp fearfully mangled by a premature blast. Ned came with him as nurse, and for weeks poor Charlie lingered between life and death, Ned never leaving his bed side but for a few moments at a time, doing all in his power to alleviate his sufferings, which at times were intense, and often brought tears to the eyes of the burly miners, who would congregate after meals around his couch. At length he died, and all hands quit work to follow in silent procession to the little grave dug on the hillside. After all was over and poor Charlie was laid to rest, Ned, his nurse and schoolmate, said: "Well, I will take a bath in the river and then get a good sleep, for I have not had one for three weeks."

All hands scattered to different parts of the diggings discussing the many chances a man had for just such a funeral before he made his pile, when a loud cry came from the flume, a rush was made and poor Ned was landed on the bar a corpse.

After the funeral he said he would take a bath; he took off his clothes, went to the flume which was carrying all the running water of the Yuba river, leaving a stagnant pond on the claim to be pumped out. When the pumps were put in, he jumped off head first, as he thought, into a deep hole. But alas! a large boulder was but a few inches below the muddy surface on which he struck breaking his neck, and dying instantly. We brought him to camp and prepared him for the grave, and dug a hole alongside his late friend Charlie, and placed them side by side, schoolmates, playmates and workmates now sleep their last sleep on a hillside at Liars' Flat, on the Yuba mines, with no mark but a cairn of stones set up by RUSTLER. The Swallows.

These are the light cavalry of the vast army of birds; always on the skirmish line, ever on the move—their wings are tireless. From early morn till night they forage the field of air. Constantly on the alert to cut off any straggler from the insect camps, they miss no opportunity to destroy these enemies of the farmer. The swallows, from time immemorial, have been the friends and companions of men. Wherever he has had literature it has always embalmed the praises of the swallows. "The twittering of the swallows in the thatch" has aroused the peasant at daybreak to resume his daily labor, and "when the swallows homeward fly" he has returned to his cabin to rest, ever since that time. In the olden days, when the ovens—all over-baked, you may be sure, by centuries! These loaves are now dispersed throughout the principal museums of the world. A public school was indicated by its own amusing sign-board; a rough picture represents one of another's back, and the master with the birch-rod, as my guide said in broken English, "give him a licking!" And over one of the houses I saw this motto inscribed: "Ostia locus hic non est. Discede, morator!" to which I give the following translation:

"No place for idlers here to stay; Lounge, arise and go thy way."

A Time-Honored Remedy.

"Uncle Pomp," said Col. M. to a former slave, "I hear that some of you darkies down on the lower place are afflicted with the itch." "Bein' as it's you, boss," replied old Pompey, hesitatingly, "I mus' confess dat de Lawd has seed fit to afflict us dat way, fer a fac'." "Ah! Doing anything for it?" "Y, a, sah; oh yes, sah!" "What?" "Why, wa— we um scratchin' fer it."

OFFICIAL PAPER OF JEFFERSON COUNTY

ALLEN WEIR, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1882

TELEGRAPHIC.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Everyone having legal residence outside the District of Columbia has gone home to vote. It is rumored that a great number of colored men from here have been imported to Virginia to vote against straight out.

The rumor of Postmaster-General Howe's intention to resign is again renewed. Persons claiming to know, say the resignation of his son Frank, as chief clerk of the department, is evidence that the old gentleman contemplates following.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—During the week ending Nov. 4th, 1,032,900 standard silver dollars were put in circulation by United States mints. During the same period last year but 339,400 were circulated.

The revenue marine service of the Treasury Department received advices from the commander of the revenue cutter Corwin. The communication was dated Unalaska. It states that the Corwin had steamed within a short distance of Point Barrow, on the Arctic, and found clear water as far as they could see. The commander ventures the opinion that if he had been prepared and had any object in making the attempt, that he could have taken the vessel directly through to New York. The communication will be made public. The statement that the Corwin arrived in San Francisco lately was erroneous.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The French steamship Ronea, from Havre to New York, put in at Falmouth with her cylinder broken.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 6.—Report has reached here that the Danish Arctic exploring expedition met with a serious disaster by the wreck of their steamer on the Siberian coast.

DUBLIN, Nov. 6.—An Irish Times correspondent says great distress exists in County Clare, owing to the failure of the potato crop, epidemic among pigs, and the dear prices asked for all kinds of food which are caused by the enormous tax levied on farmers by the crimes act, and which has proved a very heavy burden. The county presents a most melancholy and uninviting appearance, fields and meadows are deluged with water, men, women, children, pigs, calves, cows, dogs, horses, chickens, etc., all are herded together in miserable dwellings, unfit for the habitation of any human beings. The parish priest at Meloun writes a gloomy letter to the Dublin Freeman's Journal, stating that before a month has passed at least one hundred families of the poorest in the parish will be destitute and compelled to call on charity for subsistence. He appeals for aid to prevent them from starving.

ST PETERSBURG, Nov. 6.—The weather is extremely cold, and navigation is closed. The river Neva is blocked with ice.

CAROLINA, Nov. 6.—The Committee for the prosecution of the rebels are holding daily sessions here, and have tried 380 prisoners, of whom 50 were found guilty. They will have a trial by court martial as soon as it can be convened.

Eight thousand troops are on the point of starting to Zitakim to oppose the new insurrection. A reserve force of 300 has been retained to remain at Keroska, and guard that point.

The King of Corea has concluded a treaty of commerce with England upon the same basis as the present Corean-American treaty.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Dispatches received by the Acting Secretary of the Navy this morning, from the commander of the United States ship Alaska at Honolulu, report a serious state of affairs there, growing out of dissatisfaction among the sugar planters. The planters have formed a protective union, and made a protest to the King against the selection of his cabinet. They urged a more liberal and progressive policy than is indicated by the King's movement. The King, in replying, recognized the right of all to make suggestions if they entertained any grievance, and assured the planters their appeal would be considered. Meantime there has been no change in the situation, and the King issued a proclamation that he will be crowned February 12.

RED BANK, N. J., Nov. 6.—A fire last night destroyed twenty stores and offices. The loss is estimated at $250,000; partly insured.

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—Articles were filed today incorporating the Portland Flouring Mills. The capital stock is fixed at $200,000. The incorporators are Wm. M. Ladd, Donald McClay, James Steele, W. S. Stilson and S. Farrell. The company will build a large steam mill here. Work on the same will be commenced at an early day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Henry Ward Beecher, at a Republican mass meeting tonight, in the interest of the local self-government, said he would never vote for Folger for Governor [prolonged applause and hissing]. Not that he was a bad man, and at another time he would like to see him Governor, but not now, whether he was nominated by forgery [applause and hisses] had anything to do with it. They had a Governor who had administered honestly the affairs of the State. The movement to supplant him was a corrupt one and which they were bound to rebuke. He (Beecher) would vote for Cleveland [applause and hisses] and he would urge every republican to vote for Cleveland, and elect him by a hundred thousand majority. [Applause and hisses].

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—At today's meeting of freight agents and general managers of roads in Iowa, trunk lines in Colorado traffic, and the southwestern railroad associations, an agreement was reached. Percentages on freight were apportioned among the various lines. What those percentages are, participants in the meeting decline to state.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The action of Germany in prohibiting the importation of American pork into that country is causing much comment on the produce exchange. T. D. Grant, a broker in pork, said: "I do not think the position taken by the German government will have much effect upon the market here. When the French government made war on our pork there was cause for apprehending our trade would be injured, and such was the case until the prohibition was removed. We do not send as much pork to Germany as to France. I do not think that there is any good reason for the German government resorting to such an extreme measure."

Shipping Items.

PORT TOWNSEND, Nov. 4.—The German bark Don Enrique left here last evening in tow of the steamer Tacoma, lumber laden. When below Point Wilson, early in the evening, Charles Martin, second mate, while assisting in fusing the anchor, fell overboard and was drowned. He was a native of Norway, aged about 30 years.

The steamship Geo. W. Elder brought 106 tons freight to Port Townsend, 595 tons to Seattle, 247 tons for Tacoma and 165 tons for Olympia, besides 247 tons for Victoria, 19 to Port Townsend, 101 to Seattle, 28 for Tacoma and 18 for Olympia.

A CHINA CHARTER.—The barkentine, John Smith, of 1,000 tons capacity, dead weight, owned in San Francisco, and now on her way with a cargo of lumber from Hanson & Co's mill to Shanghai, has been chartered by Sing Lee, the leading Chinese Merchant of this city, for the return voyage with a cargo of rice, teas and assorted merchandise consigned to the commission house of Sahn & Barlow, New Tacoma. She is expected to arrive here about the first of next March.—Ledger.

GUYNAS Nov. 4.—The schooner Excelsior, Captain Winding, is reported lost off Alaska on the 28th ult. One of the crew was found on the reef. The others are supposed to be lost.

The steamer Evangel has proved to be a very unfortunate craft. Her latest mishap occurred Tuesday while she was towing the bark Mary A. McNeil into port. With the object of getting on the lee side of the bark, she attempted to cross her bows while the vessel was still in motion, and was caught by the vessel's yards carrying away her mainmast and damaging her deck houses. The damage done will amount to about $200.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—British ship Cleomen, 1839 tons, wheat to Cork, £2 5s. 3d; ship Mermou, 1294 tons, wheat to Cork, east coast excluded, Havre or Antwerp, £2 5s., or to Liverpool, Havre Antwerp, direct, £2 20s. 6d.

Last night, while the British man-of-war Kingfisher was coming up the harbor, she struck the pilot boat J. H. Allen, carrying away the latter's bowsprit and doing other damage. The Allen was lying anchored at the time, below Meigs wharf. It will cost several hundred dollars to repair the damage.

MENDOCINO CITY, Cal., Nov. 6.—The Chilean bark Marie Marino, from Valparaiso, Chili, was sighted off Navo, yesterday morning, waterlogged and abandoned. Her sails were split, boats gone and deckload of lumber gone. She is supposed to be from Puget Sound bound for Chili. The steamer Crescent City took her in tow, and at 7 o'clock this evening the steamer Ferndale met them opposite Mendocino City and turned back with them. She is supposed to have three or four hundred thousand feet of lumber in her hold.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 7.—The steamer Isis, founded today during a gale on St. Johns river. Four of the crew were drowned.

Sunday Reading.

Adversity is the trial of principle. Without it, a man hardly knows whether he is honest or not.

Last Sunday, as an Austin clergyman was wending his way to the sanctuary, he saw a boy with a fishing pole over his shoulder, going in an opposite direction. "Don't you know you are a bad boy?" "Yes, sir." "Don't your father ever punish you?" "Yes, sir. Last summer he made me go to Sunday-school twice."

Endeavor to be always patient of the faults and imperfections of others; for thou hast faults and imperfections of thy own that require a reciprocation of forbearance. If thou art not able to make thyself that which thou wishest to be, how canst thou expect to mould another in conformity to thy will?—Kempis.

When Luther began his reformation, eighty out of the one-hundred millions who owed allegiance to Christian rulers were under Papal rule; the remainder, chiefly under the Patriarch of the Greek Church. In A. D. 1700, the Roman Catholic people had increased to 90,000,000; the Eastern Christians to 33,000,000; while those of Protestant faith were numbered 32,000,000, or about one-fifth of nominal Christian people. In 1800, there were under Protestant governments, 194,000,000; under Papal, 134,000,000; and under governments owing to the Greek Church, 60,000,000. In 1876 the record stands as follows: Under governments professedly Roman Catholic, 181,000,000; Greek Church, 96,000,000; and under rule professedly Protestant, 438,000,000.

The port of entry for the District of Puget Sound moves slowly but steadily on in the march of improvement. The old resident and frequent visitor can easily mark the changes from year to year. Water street, that long years ago was the beach or shore line, and across which the spray dashed during every considerable gale, is now raised and is a level, hard, dry street, one of the best in the territory. And back of it where was a swamp of several acres, filled with stagnant water, filth and disease, are now streets, houses and handsome lots, a system of drainage and earth filling, covering up or expelling the objectionable matter there before. From being one of the most repulsive sites for the building of a town to be found anywhere, it has become of the most presentable and attractive. The hilltop, upon which are located the churches, schools and residences, is a beautiful spot, and is dear to the hearts of all citizens. The growth of Port Townsend has never been rapid; it has never experienced the real estate excitements of Olympia, Tacoma and Seattle; but it has had its dull seasons, and its seasons of life and improvement, and the latter have been the rule rather than the exception during the last ten years.—Post-Intelligencer.

Old-fashioned remedies are rapidly giving ground before the advance of this conquering specific, and old-fashioned ideas in regard to depletion as a means of cure, have been quite exploded by the success of the great renovant, which tones the system, tranquilizes the nerves, neutralizes malarial, purgates and enriches the blood, rouses the liver when dormant, and promotes a regular habit of body.

2 A True Heroine.

"Forgive it, Tom? Yes, and forget it, and love her to boot!"

"You are quite sure, my dear Jack, that this enthusiasm is unalterable?"

"As a Persian law!"

"Then you shall see her."

"Where? You don't mean, Tom, we're to take a trip to Edinburgh?"

"Jack, my boy, that story was not in the book. I read it out of this venerable head. The place was not Edinburgh, but San Francisco."

"The dance it was."

"You're an old stager, Tom, and know everything. I wish you would post me a little."

"If you'll discard expressions suggestive of my age, I'll do anything for you, my boy."

"Well, then, I'll say a young stager, or a middle stager, so you'll tell me what to do."

"Willingly. About what?"

"Lots of things. First, about this ring. Do I give it to the minister, or do I put it on her finger myself?"

"You give it to the minister, my boy."

"What do I have to say?"

"You put in a general affirmative answer to everything that is asked you, and you repeat the words of the minister as audibly as your embarrassment will allow."

"GLASS put in," he yelled, as the door opened and an Italian put his head in.

"An Irish gentleman in the poetic line has turned the Kilkenny cats into Greek. Translated this new version of an old song reads thus:

LINCOLN'S LOVE.

How a Match Was Broken.

My cousin, Nancy Green, had a great strapping baby that she was in the habit of lugging about wherever she went.

"You've walked yer for more'n a mile with us—a great, strong feller like you—and let that woman carry a baby that weighs nigh onto forty pounds, and never so much as lifted yer finger to her. That's what ails me."

"Why, she never asked me," said Lincoln.

"O, she didn't! And you hadn't politeness enough to offer to help her, but must wait to be asked."

"Why, I never thought of it," returned Lincoln. "I always supposed she would be afraid to let a fellow like me touch the baby, for fear he might break it, or something. I'd carry a bundle of 'em for you, Mary."

"Yes, now," said Mary, bitterly. "Any time," said Lincoln.

"If I asked you?" responded Mary. "Well, I reckon you could ask me, if you wanted them carried," retorted Lincoln.

"I just tell you what it is, Abe Lincoln," cried Mary, getting excited. "Any man as is fit to be a husband would have offered to a-carried that child when he could see its mother was near about tired to death."

"And I didn't offer?" said Lincoln. "No, you didn't," responded Mary. "And so I ain't fit to be a husband?" said Lincoln.

"That's just the fact, you hain't," said Mary.

Lincoln turned about with a laugh, and didn't appear to think much more of the matter.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF PORT TOWNSEND.

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Politics "mighty onartin."
Have you heard the new mill whistle?
Very few intoxicated men were seen on our streets yesterday.
We notice a few Port Discovery people in town today.
Mr. Bradshaw has polled a very heavy vote throughout the district.
Wonder what the "independents" think now? Their leader did need those 75 votes on election day—and more, too—didn't he?
A. L. FRANCIS, professional piano tuner, will be in Port Townsend about the 12th inst., to attend to all business in his line.
If General Butler is really elected Governor of Massachusetts this year it will be attributable to his untiring persistence. He has dogged that office for years.
Prof Kerr is very likely likely councilman elect for this district. His majority in this county will be something like 75 votes, and he will probably carry both Clalam and San Juan counties.
It is generally conceded that the handsome republican majorities in Jefferson County this year are due largely to the able management of Hon. C. M. Bradshaw, chairman of the county central committee.
If Mr. Callow has polled a good vote Mason county he is undoubtedly elected Joint Representative for Mason Jefferson and Clalam. Kuhn is 9 votes behind in this county, so far, with Quilcine and Duckaboos to hear from.

The vote in Port Townsend this year indicates a considerable gain in population. Two years ago the vote cast was 167; yesterday 249 votes were polled. Averaging according to estimates elsewhere, this would indicate a population of 1,250.

From Thursday's Daily.
Mrs. M. A. McDonnell is to start soon for New Orleans, La.
WHOOP-EE!—Mr. Kerr's majority in San Juan county is about 80.
It is probable that the new mill will be turned over to the owners for acceptance this week.
Some street improvements have been made at the head of the grade leading up from Quincy street.
Mr. James shows his appreciation of honors by a card of thanks to those who voted for him Tuesday.
We hear a very pleasant report from the Presbyterian social last evening. A most enjoyable time was had. The collection amounted to $9.50.

DROWNED.—We learn that a resident of Orcas Island, known as "Cap. Smith," was drowned a few days ago, while returning home from Lopez in a boat.
The present is what despondent republicans call an "off year" in politics—and that is one reason why you should be off to Clinger's auction store to buy cheap goods.
We have received a copy of Wilford's Microcosm, a very interesting scientific monthly published by Hall & Co., 23, Park Row, N. Y., and edited by A. Wilford Hall. Price $1.00 per year. It is well worthy of patronage.

THE MAGIC DOLL.—As will be seen by announcement elsewhere, the Boston Comic Opera Company will produce their musical extravaganza, "The Magic Doll," at Good Templars' Hall, on Wednesday evening next. The plot of this piece is admirably adapted for the introduction of comical situations. An old toy-maker of Nuremberg believes he can endow one of his toys with life by calling upon his satanic majesty for assistance. By a curious coincidence his apprentice appears before him, dressed for a masquerade as Mephistopheles, and his sweetheart dons the clothes of the doll, and convinces the old man that she is the result of his handiwork and compact with the evil one. He does not find his dolly perfect, for she nearly worries him to death with her mischievous pranks, until he finally relegates her to blockism in a room which is irresistibly funny. The most taking airs from the popular comic operas of the day are introduced with telling effect. The company comes to us with the highest endorsements from the press, and as they have given thorough satisfaction wherever they have appeared a treat may be expected.

Commissioner McFarland, replying to questions of a land attorney, says, relative to the location of soldier's homestead rights on non-continuous land, that the land office does not construe the law so as to refer to tracts entered other than continuous. In regard to homesteads he holds it to be a fundamental principle of law that entries shall be made only for the use, occupation and benefit of the homesteading party.

The Malheur Indian Reservation, or nearly all of it, has at last been restored to the public domain. The territory thus opened to settlement is about sixty miles square, and lies partly in Baker City and partly in Grant county, all but a small portion being in the latter. It is probably the best stock country today in eastern Oregon, while a considerable part of it is adapted to the growth of small grain. The Oregon Short Line Railroad will pass within forty or fifty miles of it, and possibly may cross the tract. The executive order restoring the reservation to the public domain bears date of September 12th.

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

The Easter Bonnet.

Susan had an Easter bonnet
Broad and lofty—six by nine;
Flounces and ribbons grafted on it—
Gracious goodness! what a flue!

Susan wore that Easter bonnet
Into church on Easter day;
When the women gazed upon it,
Prestidigit of embroidery awa'!

For it was a perfect daisy,
Titled daintily fore and aft—
Calculated to be crazy,
Half the giddy female craft!

Susan thought the service splendid
As she felt that bonnet boom,
And was sorry when it ended,
And the bonnet ceased to bloom!

Fate seems cruel, as we can't see;
Fate left Anna in the lurch—
Anna had no Easter bonnet,
And she wouldn't go to church.

Vain her ma's advice upon it—
Nought could check her misery's tide;
" 'Tis not in church without a bonnet!"
Foolish Anna, sweeping, cried.

Which the better, to your choosing—
Answer, if I please or you can—
Vain and silly Mrs. Susan,
Or the vain and silly Ann?

THE GOLDEN WEDDING.

BY WILL M. CARLETON.

Wake up, wife!—the black cloak of Night begins to fade,
And far in the east the Morning his kitchen fire has made;

Mind you what I was doin', just fifty years ago!
Brushin' my Sunday raiment, an' puttin' my best boots on;

Ten mile west an' bramble, an' three mile field an'
dew,
In the cold sun's of mornin' I waited to marry you;

And then our country wedding—brimful o' grief
an' glee,
With every one a-pettin' an' jokin' you an' me;

There was your old father, dressed up in weddin' shirts,
With all the homespun finery that he could rake an'
scrape;

Also your sisters an' brothers, who hardly seemed to know
they could scare up courage to go;

And there was the victuals, seasoned with kind regards an' love,
And holly wreaths, with breastpins of rubies, up to the nose;

OFFICIAL PAPER OF PORT TOWNSEND.

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

From Monday's Daily.

HEAVY rains the past few days. Be sure and vote for somebody tomorrow.

THE Alaska steamer will sail from this place about the 14th or 15 inst., so Capt. Tibbals informs us.

MR. J. E. PUGH, of Port Discovery who returned from California recently, is looking much improved in health.

AT the school election on Saturday, C. M. Bradshaw was elected Director to succeed Dr. Minor, and Jno. Law Clerk to succeed D. H. Hill.

MR. J. McCURDY and family of San Juan, arrived last Thursday, since which time Mr. McCurdy has been up the Sound and returned.

S. P. SMILEY, the gentlemanly agent of Tatum & Bowen, S. F., called on us Friday. He has been making a successful tour of the Sound.

WE are requested to announce a social to be held at the Presbyterian parsonage on Wednesday evening next. The public is cordially invited.

TODAY the regular issue of the DAILY ARGUS is resumed, after a rest of four days. With returning health we hope to shortly resume our usual daily tasks.

DURING the month of October 125 vessels entered and cleared at the Port Townsend custom house. During the same time $5,752 was collected in custom dues.

WE learn that Messrs J. A. Kuhn and T. T. Minor have sold their saw mill stock to Mr. Al Plummer. An election for president and director will of course be in order.

LOOK OUT.—See to it that you are not imposed on by any of the bogus tickets in circulation. All the genuine republican tickets have a cut of an eagle at their head.

FROM Mr. Herman Zaal, of this county, we learn that his mother and grandmother are both living at Woerden, Holland, the last named being 111 years old. Quite a long lived family.

WE received a present the other day from Dungeness. It did not prove to be a Seattle girl's shoe last, as was at first supposed, but was found to be a monstrous potato of the late rose variety, from Mr. Hall Davis' dairy farm. It weighed 4 lbs., strong. Next!

THE Western Plowman, a very excellent farm journal, now in its second volume, has reached our table. It is published at Moline, Ill., every month, contains sixteen pages closely filled with excellent reading matter, and costs but 50 cents a year. Try it.

INDEPENDENTS (?) object to Prof. Kerr because he has resided here but four years—yet they cordially support Mr. R. C. Hill who has been here but a few months. We have no special war to make on Mr. Hill, but would like to see people consistent—sometimes.

WE learn that Mr. J. M. Hernandez, a shoemaker located here for a year or more past, was united in marriage on Saturday last to a sister of Mr. Jas. Simms; (we did not learn her name). "Two souls (soles) with but a single thought." It is hoped that they are awl in awl to each other, and last, though not least, that their love may wear stronger from year to year.

THE democrats have nominated Judge Swan for one of the justices of the peace for this precinct. We are informed that the republican county committee will endorse the nomination by putting the Judge's name on the republican ticket; also, that they will run Major Van Bokkelen again for justice, he being at present committing magistrate. They will probably both be elected.

AT the teachers' examination on Wednesday and Thursday, conducted by Miss V. Hancock, county superintendent, assisted by Prof. Kerr and Mr. J. J. Calhoun, the following certificates were granted: 1st grade, Miss Cora Bash; 2d grade, Miss McPhee; 3d grade, Miss Mary Wood, Miss Bessie Biles, Miss Anna Jones, Miss Lillie Miller and Miss Blossom Sheehan.

From Tuesday's Daily.

QUIET election. A ROUSING meeting was held at Seattle Monday evening.

DO NOT forget the social at the Presbyterian parsonage, tomorrow night.

MR. BARTHOLOMEW has been confined to his room with a stroke of paralysis.

A LATESONG "My heart Pants for Thee," is about to be dedicated to Dr. Mary Walker.

THE New Tacoma News has been enlarged and greatly improved. It will now be newsier than ever.

MR. J. O. CORNISH came up from San Francisco on the last ocean steamer. He is looking well and has met many old friends.

IT is said that a council of turkeys has been called, and that a proposition to roost higher in view of the uncertainty attending thanksgiving season is being seriously discussed. A resolution of censure upon President Arthur and Governor Newell is also on the point of being made public.

ONE sight that gratified our citizens today was Hon. H. A. Webster coming down to the polls to vote—the first time, we believe, that he has been out on the street since he returned from San Francisco. He was driven down in one of Mr. Hammond's carriages, and was met in front of the polls by the inspector who courteously received his vote from the carriage. Everybody is glad that Mr. Webster is improving.

EXPLANATION.—In a recent article in this paper, occurred the following paragraph: "We do not believe it right to introduce the Bible promiscuously in the public schools, where the money of infidels, free thinkers, Catholics, Hebrews all counts just the same as that of Christians for educational purposes." A gentleman objects to the above as being an imputation by inference that none of those mentioned by name are Christians. We will simply say that the term "Christian" was used as an adjective to designate those belonging to what are called orthodox churches, and was not intended to cast any reflection whatever upon any others.

MEET HIS FATE.—Harry Sutton, whom many of our readers will remember as the slayer of pilot Howard at the saloon on Union wharf, and who subsequently escaped from the jail in this city nearly five years ago, is reported by a telegram in a S. F. paper, to have been fatally shot at Nogales, a mining town in Arizona, by one John Brickwood, proprietor of a gambling saloon. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide. Thus has another desperado met a fate not uncommon with his class. The declaration in holy writ that "whosoever sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed" is a rule that has few exceptions. Sutton was a wild, turbulent spirit who yielded to his baser passions till there was no depth of iniquity too low for him. His fate will not be surprising to those who knew him.

GOVERNOR NEWELL returned from Victoria Thursday, and called on us Friday morning, having been presented to the Governor-General of Canada and Princess Louise. He invited them to visit Washington Territory which, for want of time, they were obliged to decline. The Governor speaks of the interview as having been very pleasant. He was accompanied by Mr. Jordan, U. S. N., and his daughters, Mrs. Jordan and Miss Newell. We are gratified to know that our Governor had the good taste to extend an invitation to British Columbia's distinguished visitors to come and see Washington for themselves. Our citizens generally would warmly second such an invitation, and would strive to make the royal visitors welcome if the opportunity offered.

SHIPPING NEWS.

Exports from the Hawaiian Kingdom during the year that closed September 30th last was a little over $7,000,000, a larger export in proportion to the population than that of any other country in the world.

EX-Governor Hendericks, of Indiana, is suffering with senile gangrene in the left foot, an ailment of which his father died. One of the attending physicians says that there is not one chance in a hundred for recovery.

A paper published at Tampa, Fla., says: "There is an old grey mule in the stables at Fort Brooks that is forty years old and more. This mule served through the Mexican war and also the late war. He is allowed a ration and a half, and does no work except in cases of necessity."

It is announced that three new papers are shortly to be started in Portland, viz: the daily evening Times, by Ireland & Bates; the Argus, to issue at 10 A. M., by Col. Irons; and the daily morning News, by Nathan Cole, with full telegraphic news. All are to be stalwart republican papers.

The democrats are already discussing the chances of the Speakership in the next House of Representatives. It seems to be admitted that the choice lies between Randall, of Pennsylvania, and Carlisle, of Kentucky. The following of each is so strong that some observers believe that the struggle will be between the two.

Milton sawmill, on Seattle bay will resume the cutting of lumber on or about the 1st of January. This mill has been shut down for several years under subsidy to the Lumberman's Association of the Pacific Coast, receiving at first $750 a month for its idleness, and later $900. The mill will employ about 42 men and will cut about 50,000 feet of lumber per day. It will enter upon the supply of the California and foreign markets. Capt. E. L. Marshall, the owner will have personal charge of the mill and its business. The resumption of work in this establishment will be of visible help to our city.—Post-Intelligencer.

"Your mind is in a twilight state," observed a good man. "You cannot differentiate the grains of mistrust from the molecules of a reasonable confidence. You are traveling the border-land, the frontier between the paradise of faith and the Arctic regions of incredulity. You are an agnostic." "Divil a bit," said Pat with mingled amazement and indignation. "I'm a Dimmycrat, ivery inch o'me."

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF WASHINGTON.

PROCLAMATION.

Thanks and adoration are due and will be heartily rendered to Almighty God for the manifold benefactions which He has bestowed upon us as a people.

Possessed of large domains replete with all elements of agricultural, mineral, manufacturing and commercial prosperity and greatness, healthful influences and fruitful harvests; ever exempt from poverty, epidemic diseases, tempests, floods, or droughts, blessed with free self-government; with liberty to worship God, each inhabitant from his own standpoint of conscience and duty, all these inspire us with gratitude and constrain us to offer our tributes of thankfulness with willing hearts to the giver of all good.

The President of the United States has designated Thursday, the 30th day of November, 1882, to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and praise throughout the nation.

Therefore I William A. Newell, Governor of Washington, do recommend to the people of the Territory that they abstain from secular pursuits on that day, and assemble in their places of public worship to give thanks and homage to the Creator and Benefactor of mankind for His merciful forbearance and tender care.

Given at Olympia on this, the 1st day of November, 1882, under the great seal of Washington Territory. WM. A. NEWELL.

By the Governor: N. H. OWINGS, Secretary of the Territory.

THE LEADING SCIENTISTS OF TODAY ordered Kidneys or liver. If, therefore, the kidneys and liver are kept in perfect order, perfect health will be the result. This truth has only been known a short time, and for years people suffered great agony without being able to find relief. The discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure marks a new era in the treatment of these troubles. Made from a simple tropical leaf of rare value, it contains just the elements necessary to nourish and invigorate both of these great organs, and safely restores and keeps them in order. It is a POSITIVE REMEDY for all diseases that cause pain in the lower part of the body—for Torpid Liver—Headache—Jaundice—Dizziness—Gravel—Fever, Ague—Malarial Fever and all difficulties of the Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs. It is an excellent and safe remedy for females during Pregnancy. It will control Menstruation, and is invaluable for Leucorrhoea or Falling of the Womb. As a Blood Purifier it is unequalled, for it cures the organs that make the blood. READ THE RECORD. "I saved my life."—E. R. Lakey, Selma, Ala. "It is the remedy that will cure the many diseases peculiar to women."—Mother's Magazine. "It has passed severe tests and won endorsements from some of the highest medical talent in the country."—New York World. "No remedy has ever before discovered can be held for one moment in comparison with it."—Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., Washington, D. C. This remedy which has done such wonders is put up in the largest sized bottle of any medicine upon the market, and is sold by druggists and all dealers at $1.25 per bottle. For Diabetes, Inquire for WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE. It is a positive remedy. F. H. WARNER & CO., Rochester, N. Y.

The Cutavaco Cures PITYRIASIS, or Dandruff, with which many are afflicted. ALOPECIA, or Baldness, also depends upon a fungus destroying the roots of the hair. A spot may first arise where first inoculated, spreading in a circular form and so enlarging by degrees that the whole hair is swept away, leaving a glistening scalp; or, the disease may first appear in various places. The hair is dull and lustreless and easily extracted, or it begins to fall, and progressing by degrees is soon lost unless remedied. The Cutavaco will cause the hair to grow, because it at once destroys the offending cause which prevents; the hair is at once preserved, and the scalp and bulbs made healthy and vigorous. Parties from a distance must send the price of bottle with the order. Price 75 cents. Prepared and sold by WM. KORTER, P. O. Box 85, Port Townsend, W. T.
