OFFICIAL PAPER OF JEFFERSON COUNTY. FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1881.

REPUBLICANS TRIUMPHANT.

After several years of democratic rule in both houses of Congress, and all but the election of a democratic executive in 1876, all branches of the federal government are again in the hands of the republican party.

According to recently published views, ex-President Hayes claims (and justly, too, we think) having saved the republican party from utter rout and ruin in the last national contest, by his pacification policy toward the southern states.

A squib in the ARGUS conveys the impression that its relations with the Collector of Customs are not the most amicable. Come, friend Reid, you mustn't kick out of the traces just as the band wagon starts out on a parade.

GAS. Specific advertisements by 2,000 men to work on the railroad, and says, in private conversation, that he will employ 5,000 should they make applications for work.

The President has nominated Judge Wm. Robertson for Collector of Customs at New York, and the loudly Rosece is "on his ear" about it. Judge Robertson was the leader of the anti Grant faction of New York delegates in the last national convention.

After an immense amount of newspaper puffing the New York World's Fair threatens to collapse utterly. This result is no marvel, as the scheme was almost purely local and has been engineered by men who expect to make money out of it.

PRESIDENT Garfield seems to be taking a very decided stand on the polygamy question. That his war upon this monstrous evil will be of an aggressive and determined character, is foreshadowed by a declaration recently made by him to a senator to the effect that "polygamy is a foul blot upon our civilization that must and shall be wiped out."

LOUISIANA has concluded to try the South America experiment of substituting Italian for negro labor in its cane and cotton fields. The British ship Scindia, which arrived in New Orleans from Palermo recently, brought 210 emigrants from that country.

The lodge of A. O. U. W., instituted in this place last night, by Dr. O. G. Root district deputy G. M. W., contains 23 charter members.

The railroad from the Dalles to Walla Walla will be completed in a few days ready for business. Two Pullman sleeping cars are now on their way out from the East for this road.

A serious question seems to be brewing at Washington, as to whether an extra session of Congress is to be called or not. Evidently, President Garfield doesn't intend to call one if he can help it.

Ayer's Hair Vigor. FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR. It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not immediately cured. It checks falling of the hair, keeps it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair. The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence. PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chemists. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF PORT TOWNSEND.

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS.

Go to Honolulu's for nice, fresh catches.

PKENTY business in Justice Court these times.

Do you join the A. O. U. W? They're looting.

The Wolcott took a cruise to Olympia last week.

Miss Frank P. Myers made a brief visit to Seattle this week.

SHIFFER Whitefield, of Snohomish Co., was in town this week.

The new telegraph line to Port Discovery is progressing finely.

"CHEAP for cash" is a popular motto at present among our merchants.

The custom of displaying goods in front of stores is coming in vogue.

CAPT. Wm. Delaney and wife, of Port Discovery, went to Seattle this week.

STEAMER Virginia every day to Honolulu and return; also to Ebeys Landing.

BORN.—In Port Townsend, on the 16th inst., to the wife of C. Bradburn, a son.

The equinoctial storm this week was not as severe as might have been expected.

ROADS are rapidly drying up, and early spring planting has commenced in earnest.

The steamer Virginia carries freight at reasonable rates, and with prompt dispatch.

Mr. J. T. Norris says he is now selling 30 yards of tin for a dollar—warranted to wear.

Mr. James Jones has erected a neat awning or shed roof in front of his fruit and variety store.

The steamer Dakota has been handsomely repaired and will probably be on duty again soon.

The Virginia isn't quite as big as the Great Eastern, but she's just as safe and easy to ride on.

Dr. Hill has been refitting one of his tenet houses near the drug store. It looks much improved already.

Mr. Geo. Cooper, sheriff of Clallam county, is in town under medical treatment for an affection of the lungs.

We are authorized to say that there will be a social dance in town on the 7th of next month, given by the Firemen.

If you want good eggs, nice fruit, or fresh catches, go to James Jones, head of Union wharf, opposite Central Hotel.

Mr. Hinchman, foreman in the Port Discovery mill, was in town yesterday, as was also Mr. James Smith, of that place.

Mr. C. M. Haller returned on Wednesday from Southport City, where he had been attending a term of the District Court.

Mr. Fitzpatrick is selling off books and shoes at greatly reduced prices, for cash, to make room for a large stock of custom goods.

Dr. Root, of Seattle, called on us yesterday. He returned to Seattle, having organized the lodge of A. O. U. W. last night.

Mrs. Gross has a sign displayed at the old Franklin hotel building, announcing her readiness to do plain sewing and stitching.

The Gross Bros. sell goods cheaper than they have ever sold before in Port Townsend. They also propose to continue the same.

Messrs. Waterman & Katz have sent out a large number of posters announcing a great reduction in their prices to make room for a new spring stock.

HEAD Prof. Frosch's school in today's paper. He will be in town a few days, for his should attend to it as usual.

WANT to ride on the Virginia, do you? Well, just step aboard. Capt. Hastings will attend to your case.

Mr. Frank Hastings is exercising his abilities as a salesman in the store of Gross Bros. He used to be in this business, and takes to it again naturally enough.

EGGS WANTED.—All kinds of birds' eggs—of hawks, grouse, woodpecker, ducks and other birds, will be taken and paid for at good prices, by Judge Kuhn, of this place.

Mr. A. W. Jones, of Seattle, came here last week, and Dr. Root organized a lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. The lodge bids fair to be very prosperous.

Mr. A. W. Jones went over to Port Discovery in the interest of the order of A. O. U. W., as soon as a suitable building can be obtained for holding meetings in, a lodge will be organized at that place.

NEW DWELLING.—Mr. McCabe has erected a substantial and fine looking dwelling near his other house. Its comely proportions and new paint greatly enhance the architectural beauty of the neighborhood.

The board of health held a second meeting on Wednesday, taking their steps toward furnishing the pest house with cooking stoves and dishes, and opening a road to it so as to care for any patients without delay.

Mrs. Jones, who preached such an interesting discourse here last Sunday, goes to Comptell today, and will doubtless remain there over next Sabbath. Her husband, Mr. A. W. Jones, also goes in the interest of the order of A. O. U. W.

CHINESE pheasants are being introduced into Oregon, and a pair was recently given to Mr. E. H. Brown, of this place, who purposed liberating them on Smith's Island. One of them, however, escaped the other day and has not been recovered yet.

BOARD OF HEALTH.—Mr. C. C. Bartlett has been appointed a member of the board of health of Washington Territory.

by Gov. Newell, in place of Mr. L. B. Hastings, resigned. On Saturday last the board held its first regular meeting. Present—C. Eisenbeis, C. C. Bartlett and Allen Weir. Organized by electing C. C. Bartlett as chairman. On motion, J. A. Kuhn, clerk of the former board, was continued in that position. On motion, Dr. T. T. Minor, health officer, was continued as such. On motion, Allen Weir and Dr. T. T. Minor were appointed a committee to compile the quarantine regulations and report same to the board preparatory to printing same for distribution among masters and owners of vessels. The board has since visited the pest house and grounds, and made examination as to the necessity and feasibility of making a road thereto.

ADVERTISING.—The Seattle "Intelligencer" tells of a gentleman who is now a firm believer in the value of advertising, because of a highly profitable venture that he recently made in that direction. There is a gentleman in Port Townsend who was convinced equally as powerfully last week, though in a different way. He had arranged for a St. Patrick's ball, and went to the expense of hiring a hall, music, etc. Not deeming it necessary, however, to get posters placed on a notice inserted in the local paper, he simply went out a few notices and posted them. The result was a flat failure by reason of non-attendance, and consequent pecuniary loss. Next time he will adopt a different course.

Mrs. Jones, a lady local preacher of the M. E. Church, of Seattle, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here last Sunday evening and delivered a very interesting sermon. On Monday evening she lectured on Temperance at Good Templars' Hall, to an appreciative audience. She is organizing lodges of Champions of Honor, but did not organize at this place—mainly on account of the Good Templars occupying the field.

The card of Miss Louise Tibbals, in this issue of the ARGUS, informs the public of her readiness to accommodate all pupils in instrumental music, either on piano or organ. Miss Tibbals has had considerable experience in this line herebefore, is a most excellent and accomplished performer, and her flattering success as a teacher insures complete satisfaction to those who may wish to employ her. We speak for her a lucrative business.

NEW TOWN SITE.—A few days ago a town site was laid out near the iron works on our bay. It is to be called Harbortown, and is upon land owned, or at least represented by J. P. Johnson, of Olympia. A broad avenue is to be cleared from the iron furnace to the main street of the proposed town, and the site of lots will soon commence. We are not advised as to the price of these lots, but that will perhaps be regulated by the demand for them.

Now that Governor Newell is putting so much time bestowing to the people of the territory, and that his lectures are so well received, we suggest that the literary society of this place send him an invitation to come here. Port Townsend people would like to see the Governor, get acquainted with him and hear him talk. Why not invite him to come? His expenses could easily be met.

FOURTEENTH.—We learn that our friend, Don. C. Parrish has succeeded in obtaining a lucrative position in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co., east of the mountains and that he will at once proceed thither to assume his duties. Don is a worthy young man, and we wish him such success as he is entitled to.

MISHAP.—The iron industry at this place received a temporary set back this week by the melting of fire brick on the inside of the furnace. We learn that new fire brick will be obtained and the inside of the furnace rebuilt for some distance from the base, though the stoppage will be but temporary.

We have just received No. 2 of Vol. 1, of "The Illustrated Scientific News," published by Munu & Co., 37 Park Row, New York. It is a very interesting 16-page monthly, devoted to the sciences and their application in the arts and industries. Price, $1.50 per annum.

SHIPPING NEWS.

The bark Rainier arrived from the Sandwich Islands on Tuesday night.

The schooner Eubora, Captain S. F. Oliver, arrived from Neah Bay on Monday night.

The Dispatch brought up a few passengers from Dungeness this week, among whom were: Capt. Thos. Abernethy, Mrs. M. A. McDonnell and Mr. Heczekiah Davis.

AMONG the passengers from this place, on the Dispatch, this week, were Mr. Wm. Payne and Mrs. R. Delaney, for Dungeness, also Rev. W. I. Cooper, of the M. E. Church here, for same place.

The brig T. W. Lucas, Capt. E. C. Westworth, arrived in our harbor yesterday, from Honolulu. We are indebted to the Captain, and to Mr. Ed. H. Brown, of the Custom House, for late Sandwich Islands papers.

The schooner Harney, Capt. H. H. Lloyd, of Comptell, took a load of hay last week from Dungeness to Victoria, from the farm of Mr. Hall Davis. She went down again, to take a load to Pysch river. The Harney is adapted to the trade of that section, and, since the sale of the Perkin, there is a very good opening for her.

THERE will be no occasion for anybody to stand on the street corners this season and rail against the Chinamen for doing all the work. Employment is likely to be abundant, though wages are very low. More white labor is in demand than ever before.

COMMUNICATED.

The following was received by us a few days ago. We insert it in hopes that others who are in arrears may take warning:

EDITOR ARGUS.—In reading your paper last week, my eye fell on a paragraph relating to delinquent subscribers. That was nothing in itself, for I make it a point never to read any thing relating to such things; but this time my curiosity overcame me and I read—and I read it again, then I felt the paper glow. I shut my eyes, but still it was before me. I turned the paper, but still the paragraph danced before me and for the first time I remembered that I was delinquent.

My wife called me to bed and when I arrived my appearance startled her, she said I looked white. I said "strange" and went to bed. I dreamed that I died and my spirit went a wandering in company with another who knew all about the business. He brought me to a gate; a book was handed out; I signed my name and for the first time I found that I could not speak. This was to keep me from lying; my writing was recognized as the hand of a delinquent, and my conductor was ordered to show me the torture of such, before I was myself tortured. I had to go naked just as I was through paths crossed by thorn bushes and the flints cut my feet; as we advanced it grew colder; my limbs turned blue, my teeth chattered, while the wind whistled diabolically across the open country through which we were now passing. The ground was frozen and snow flakes commenced to fall, but still I could not speak. My blood felt like boiling water; I made no scream with pain. I arrived at a large vat formed in a snow bank, full of spirits. A man stood on the edge of the vat with a pitchfork in his hand, and sticking the fork into one of the spirits placed it on a large cake of circular ice giving the ice a circular motion; around and around spun the spirit; shriek followed shriek until turned from a red to a purple; and then to a white color when it was tossed into the vat and a new one taken out; thus it continued through eternity, and so here was the air that every breath seemed to cut like a knife. In a twinkling I was in a place distant to behold. The sun bit my flesh, the hot land blistered my feet, my tongue cleave to my mouth and still I had to go on; my suffering was so great I could not scream. How I wished I was back in the world; I would pay up, if I had to steal the money. Directly the air became so hot that every breath burned my nostrils, my blood felt like boiling water; I made no sign that I wanted to go back and pay up, but I was too late I had to suffer; at last we came to a large vat and just as we got to the gate a fellow caught me by the nose with a pair of red hot tongs and commenced leading me on, and in my struggle I awoke to find my wife pulling my nose and asking what I meant by yelling "good Mr. Devil I will pay you for—"

Mr. Editor—enclosed find the amount due your paper. I will not trust myself another night until that is paid.

AGAS.

RIGHT SOLD.—Yesterday Mr. James Cameron disposed of the right to manufacture his patent self-cleaning egg packer to the Seattle Lumbering Co. The sale covers the entire territory. The patent invented by Mr. Cameron, is most excellent and new, and is respected by a large number of persons yesterday, and pronounced perfect for the credit packing and rapid counting of eggs. Mr. Cameron goes back to Victoria this morning.

Mr. Cameron is steward of the steamer Isabel, and has devoted some of his leisure moments to studying up original ideas. It is claimed that his egg packer is the best ever invented. It consists of a frame with small cords so interwoven across it as to leave space for the eggs to be placed in so as to keep them from touching and also to prevent any pressure on the egg. Mr. Cameron says that eggs dipped in alum water and placed in one of his packers can be kept fresh for several months by simply reversing the position of the packer once a week.
