Rev. Jas. Agnew desires us to state that there will be communion service at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning next.

MARINE.—The bark Mary Glover arrived at Port Discovery on Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock. Ship Sagamore arrived same day at Port Gamble.

Rev. S. A. Starr will preach in Dungeness on Sunday next, morning and evening. The M. E. church here will be closed in the morning—regular service in the evening.

ELECTION.—The school election on Saturday resulted as follows: School Director—H. L. Tibbals, 79 votes; L. B. Hastings, 41. School Clerk—C. M. Gurrish, 63 votes; W. A. Inman, 52 votes.

SHIPPING.—The bark Tidal wave, from Port Madison arrived in San Francisco on the 1st inst. The Dashing Wave, for Tacoma and bark Oakland for Madison, sailed on the same day. The schooner Reporter and bark Montana are loading for the Sound.

The barkentine Free Trade, which was recently abandoned in the Straits by the captain and crew, has been towed into Port Madison and examined. The cargo of lumber is comparatively intact, only about 30,000 feet of the deck-load having been swept away. The masts are all in place, and uninjured, and most, if not all of the rigging has been secured. The hull, it is supposed, is but slightly damaged.

The N. P. "Times" vents its petty spleen and malice upon Governor Ferry on all occasions, rarely observing any of the principles of truth. An instance in point is the assertion that the Governor has never invested a dollar in the Territory. Not having made special inquiry we do not know of all the land he may own, but he does own a large body of land in Whatcom county, considerable town property in Seattle, and, we are confident, is also the owner of several lots in Tacoma.—"Courier."

SUDDEN DEATH.—Last Friday, Mr. J. C. Huntington, the well-known photographer, and son of Rev. C. A. Huntington of Olympia, was found dead in the public hall, La Conner. At the time of his death he seemed to be in perfect health, and had been at work in the hall, where he was found lying upon his face. It is supposed he died from heart disease. The deceased has not been on this coast very long, having recently graduated at the State University at Burlington, Vermont. One his brothers, B. C. Huntington, is a partner with Mr. Marshall Blinn, in stock raising in Yakima county and was a delegate to the Republican Territorial Convention. The remains were brought to this city by the Fanny Lake and taken to Olympia for interment.—"Intelligencer."

The Snohomish "Star" says: The reports from the Sultan river mines are quite favorable. Robert Barrett, one of the original prospectors and discoverers of the new beach diggings reports finding a true bedrock in the old elevated river bed, and a continuous deposit of gold from the surface down to the bedrock. While the earth is not rich enough to pay for working with a pan or rocker, they regard it as demonstrated that it will pay them to work all next summer at hydraulic mining, and that the indications are that it will pay wages with ordinary sluice boxes. This last point cannot be fully determined before next spring. The mines are so situated, that it will pay for any one to work there next summer; it will afford work for several thousand men. Mr. Cotton and the Barretts feel encouraged to continue their present systematic and thorough prospecting all this present winter.

WANDERINGS OF A PRINTER.

PORT TOWNSEND, Oct. 30, '78.

EDITOR ARGUS:—During my extended travels in the East and West, it fell my lot to meet with many a curious specimen of humanity. At one time, while sojourning at Winnemucca, Nev., in the month of January, when the wild wintry winds whistled, and all nature was clothed with a raiment of spotless snow, there tumbled into our office one of the most peculiar specimens of mankind that ever befell our lot to meet with. He was clad in a worn-out suit of clothes, all tatters and rags, with no shoes on his feet and no crown to his hat. He asked for employment and being informed that there was none for him, asked for a pencil, and picking up an old proof-sheet from off the floor, sat himself down by the stove and was soon lost in deep meditation. It was some time before he arose, and then advancing to our desk, held the following sweet gem of poetical inspiration before us:

'Twas upon a Spring day dreary,
While I wandered weak and weary,
Seeking for employment as tramping is no enjoyment,
I came upon a village and thought my journey ended.
I asked the foreman as a favor, to give me a few day's labor—
Just a few to help me out.

He replied I would with pleasure,
Add to your store of treasure
If the times were not so hard,
But we cannot get the cash
For to keep ourselves in cash,
So you had better travel on.

I traveled on, am traveling yet,
Seeking for a place where there's type to set;
Long printer or agate, 'tis all the same,
Anything! Anything! Just to make name.

The patheticness of such an appeal reached the hearts of all present. He was soon fitted out in a warm, comfortable suit, and foot gear that would well protect his feet, and several dollars in money collected for him. He then thanked them, and shaking hands all round, bade us God speed in the journey toward the setting sun, valed as noiselessly as he came. There are many such as he, in this vast wilderness of eternal wanderers.
"SLUG 5."

The Pacific Mail S. S. Alaska sailed from San Francisco October 30, 1878, having on board 56 passengers, 28 bags mail and 3620 pkgs mdse—250 tons. Passengers for the Sound: Capt. W. T. Seward, G. Simpson and wife, E. Erickson, Meyer Jacobs, Rev. Geo. H. Watson and wife, A. A. Smith, Jno McAuley, Mrs. E. Martin and daughter, F. Cohen, Capt. C. Williston, Louis E. Cardwell, T. C. Van epps, and 34 in the steerage. Mdse. for Port Townsend, 16 tons; for Seattle, 117 tons; for Tacoma, 18 tons; for Olympia, 11 tons.

DIED.
In Dungeness on Friday, Nov. 1, 1878, Wm. Plicher, aged about 29 years. Deceased was an invalid all his life, being subject to epileptic fits, so that his sudden demise was not altogether a surprise to his friends. The bereaved relatives have heartfelt sympathy from all.

The American steamer Olympia has been sold by George S. Wright to the Hudson Bay Company for $55,000. She will be placed on the route between Victoria and New Westminster in opposition to the W. G. Hunt. The Olympia was registered as a British bottom.

About 15,000 tons of Wheat have been shipped over the Walla Walla railroad this year, which the "Statesman" thinks is not half the grain raised in that valley. Farmers are breaking up ground in every direction and with a fair season the grain product of next year will be 60,000 tons.

W. L. Chapman has hidden good bye to journalism, having disposed of the evening "Bee" to D. H. Stearns & Co. The new firm have taken charge of the paper and if report be true, many improvements will be made in that already sprightly sheet.—"Astorian."

A barefoot girl kicked a burglar out of a house, and an observing mule went behind the barn and wept.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Texan man shot his opponent in a duel, and is now writing a poem about it. It looks as if the wrong man had been shot.

"How one thing brings up another!" said a lady absorbed in pleasing retrospection. "Yes," replied the practical Dobbs, "an emetic, for instance."

Wheat is still advancing in San Francisco, and is now quotable at $1.71@1.75 per cental. Flour is firm in consequence of the advance in wheat.

The great journalists are rapidly dropping off. Raymond, Bennett, Greeley, and now Bryant. And our physician has advised us to take exercise.

Topic: Geological discussion. Principal—"Was it colder or warmer a hundred years ago than at present?" Pupil [honestly]—"I really don't recollect, sir."

The "Boss Tramp," otherwise known as the "Oregon Mechanic," and ex-editor of the defunct "Labor World," is haranguing small crowds at Sacramento, California.

The excess of exports over imports from the United States for the nine months ending September 30, 1878, was $209,130,487. It cannot be long ere prosperity returns with such a balance sheet in our favor.

Gold and silver can now be sent through the mails as third class matter at the rate of one cent an ounce, not exceeding four pounds in a package. Paper money has been ruled to be "written matter" and costs six cents an ounce.

For years after Secretary Seward had closed the bargain for the purchase of Alaska, eastern papers were in the habit of writing down that country. They declared that it was of no earthly value. That nothing could be obtained from it. Every ignorant writer had his sling about Alaska. The New York papers were conspicuous for that business. Now these papers are just beginning to discover that it has great natural wealth. It has a climate milder than Scotland, and it has greater natural resources than the six New England States. The Hartford "Post," making this admission, says: Alaska is endowed with the solid elements of prosperity. It contains deposits of gold, silver, copper, graphite, lead, iron, sulphur and coal. Its waters swarm with fish; millions of salmon of the finest quality frequent its inlets and rivers, and there are halibut, codfish, and its islands and coasts are the favorite haunts of countless seals. Its mountains are covered with pine forests and ship-building timber, and there is prairie land and pasture grounds near the coast. After Oregon and Washington, Alaska is to day the most valuable timber country in the possession of the federal government. It will soon become a great timber depot.—"Astorian."

APPROVED SOLDIER'S ADDITIONAL HOMESTEADS can be located upon any lands, either single or double minimum lands, subject to homestead whether timbered or not, and having the only first class paper in the country, have made arrangements with the following gentlemen in Western Washington:
A. Mackintosh, Seattle,
John R. Wheat, Olympia,
G. Morris Haller, Port Townsend,
Henry Jackson, Snohomish City.
Who will have on hand, at all times, my scrip for the accommodation of those desiring to purchase, at the rate of $3.25 per acre for 80s and 120s, and $3.75 per acre for 40s; fractions special. Another fraudulent class of scrip known as 'floats' can be gotten at much less rates; but no title can be given, and is, of course, not so valuable. A deed can be gotten from the original applicant of any land located by scrip purchased of me, as I in no case buy from other than the original homesteader, and know where to address him for a deed if one be required. Full investigation is asked that the worth of my paper may be known. Call upon or write any of the gentlemen named above, who will sell you the Talbot additional homestead scrip which will ensure you a patent to your land as well as a perfect title, and also as cheap as you can buy it of me.

Port Townsend Hospital.

The above institution having been placed on a permanent footing, as the United States Hospital for Marine Patients on Puget Sound, the proprietor takes pleasure in announcing that no pains or expense will be spared in ministering to the comfort and convenience of private patients. This is the largest General Hospital north of San Francisco, and by far the most complete in equipment. It has been thoroughly refitted and refurnished. Its general wards have accommodations for about one hundred patients and are peculiarly adapted for cases requiring the most careful treatment and constant supervision at limited expense. Those who desire them will be furnished with private rooms, entirely separate and distinct, at a slight additional cost.

The attention of Mill owners, and those interested in shipping, is called to the fact that seamen suffering from contagious diseases will be treated outside the Hospital without expense to the vessel.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF JEFFERSON CO.

ALLEN WEIR, Editor and Proprietor.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1878.

OUR NEXT DELEGATE.

Hon. Thos. H. Brents has about completed the canvass of the Territory; at least such portions of it as his limited time would permit, and now the decision of our voters is anxiously awaited. From all points where he has been the most encouraging reports are returned. His positions are clearly and forcibly pronounced, his platform meets with the strongest favor among the people, and his integrity and ability are admitted by all. We believe he will emerge from the contest with flying colors. His victory is not absolutely certain, but pretty well assured. Mr. Caton's avowed views regarding the N. P. R. Co. are fair enough, but his hands will be virtually tied upon that question. Upon the Indian question his position is positively untenable, so we say by all means elect Mr. Brents.

"THAT AWFUL RING."

A neighboring journal recently made a statement something like this: "There is such a thing in Jefferson county as a party made up of political soreheads from both parties."

Like one who, groping about in the darkness, occasionally stumbles upon the right path, this remarkably incorrect and unreliable oracle accidentally told the truth for once. This sorehead party is composed of sundry individuals who—craving favors and patronage from a few Custom House officials of this place, yet realizing that their own misdeeds in the past and their general unworthiness at present preclude the possibility of receiving fraternal sympathy and support from those officials—are continually haunted by an imaginary bugbear which they term the "Custom House Ring." This mythical compact, to whose agency they attribute the failure of each and every petty scheme of fraud attempted by one of their number, is heartily abused on all occasions. In fact when one of them barks his shins or does anything calculated to make him feel like "cussing" he attributes his misfortune to "that infernal clique." The fact is these Custom House folks do not realize the number or the magnitude of the sins for which they will be called into account. The next thing that may be reasonably expected will be to hear them berated for influencing the weather; at least that might as well be added to their long category of alleged offenses.

A great deal has been said against a few inoffensive citizens who are charged with being members of this "Ring." Hon. H. A. Webster and Col. L. H. Briggs, U. S. Collector of Customs and Deputy Collector respectively, and Dr. T. T. Minor, of the U. S. Marine hospital service, are the chief objects of abuse. What does all this blatant howl amount to? We, in common with many others, are becoming slightly disgusted. During all the time that these gentlemen have been so violently attacked, what have they done?—simply discharged their official and private duties in a quiet manner, paying no attention whatever to their calumniators. 'Tis true they have taken an interest in local politics—such an interest as all good citizens feel, who desire to see the affairs of the commonwealth [of which they form a part] in honest and faithful hands. Col. Briggs, well known to be a gentleman and thoroughly conscientious official, has perhaps been most prominently assailed during the past few weeks. The reason of this may be very briefly explained. Some time ago C. M. Bradshaw [presumably on account of jealousy of Col. Briggs' popularity in the party] commenced a systematic course of opposition to that gentleman, losing no opportunity, especially privately, to injure his official and personal character. This course he persistently maintained until a short time ago, when, coveting the nomination for Prosecuting Attorney, and desiring to secure all the help possible, he obtained the help of a third party to ask the Col. if he could forgive all that he [Bradshaw] had maliciously done against him and bury the hatchet? To which an emphatic answer was sent back that Bradshaw need not expect any affiliation whatever after his treacherous and uncalculated persecution. After this, Bradshaw assuming the leadership of the sorehead party, it can be easily imagined how readily the effort would be renewed along the whole line, and how the abuse would be redoubled.

This imaginary ring has lately enlarged its borders very rapidly. The opposition have carried their talk so far that every man in the county who does not support every one-horse scheme they may originate is immediately set upon, be he Republican or Democrat, and denounced as either a member or tool of the "Ring." This policy has been extended even to the affairs of Clalam and San Juan, as is evidenced by the fact that poor "Billy" Garfield, when he could find nothing else to accuse Capt. Morris of, declared him to be the "candidate of the Custom House Ring, of Port Townsend." The aforesaid Garfield is but a foundling, picked up by Bradshaw who secured him the nomination for Joint Representative from those two counties, and expects to consider him personal property henceforth.

We have been quietly watching developments in these matters for some time; and, while we expect no special favor, from either side in the matter, our manhood and love of fair dealing between men prompt us to gently lift the curtain and let the public see exactly "how the old thing works." The fight has been entirely one-sided so far, but it has produced a healthy and desirable effect after all. The festive renegades from both political parties have by natural affinities sought the company of their kind, and have gradually "pooled their issues," so that like certain ichorous collections which troubled the patriarch Job they are being worked off and expelled from the local political system. No doubt it will be better to bury them all at once and then the political atmosphere will be purified. Meanwhile we predict that the better portion of the public will not suffer from this terrible "Ring" nightmare.

Be sure and vote for adopting the State Constitution. Its few faults are easily remedied when the proper time comes; and, on the other hand, the advantages to be gained by taking on statehood invite every citizen to work heart and soul toward that result. Who ever heard of the voters of any state, in the aggregate, desiring to change their form of government back to that of a territory after having had a practical demonstration of the advantages to be derived by assuming a position of equality with the mass of voting population in the United States? Yes, let us adopt the constitution, and do what we can toward obtaining a voice in the national councils. See to it, then, that your ballot pronounces emphatically "For Constitution."

As an item of some importance, we note the fact that during the recent conflagration at Mr. Clinger's residence a can of coal oil sat in the kitchen and the oil did not ignite although the whole top of the can melted off. It came from the store of Dr. N. D. Hill.

FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

The candidates for this position in the 3d Judicial District have been the subject of a great deal of comment and gossip of late. While we are entirely free from personal bias in the matter, and while we have thus far taken strictly neutral ground on account of the fact that political considerations should be left entirely out of the fight, we have lately come in possession of knowledge which our duty as a journalist constrains us to make public. That the attorney should be chosen with an especial view to his legal ability and qualifications none will gainsay. In voting, act from the same considerations that would guide us in selecting an attorney to conduct a private case in court. The victorious candidate will be simply retained by the PEOPLE to see that they get their rights in a court of justice, and to conduct their suits against offenders of the law.

The managers of the "Democratic Press" sent one of their strikers to Mr. G. M. Haller, about the time of the Brents Caton discussion at this place, with the positive offer that the paper would advocate his [Haller's] election if he would pay them twenty-five dollars; at the same time the threat was also announced that they would oppose him if he did not accede to their demands. Mr. Haller replied that he had not yet subsidized ANY newspaper in this canvass, and did not intend to do so as he would not stoop to do such a thing; that he wanted Blanchard to do just what he felt to be his duty in the case. The "Press" representative then proposed that the paper should support Haller if he would PLEDGE HIMSELF, provided he were elected, to throw professional patronage in the way of Blanchard. "No," said Haller, "I'll make no promises whatever. If I can't be elected fairly and squarely by the PEOPLE, and in consideration of my fitness for the position, I'd rather be defeated. Let Blanchard assist or oppose me as he deems best." The above statement, we doubt not in the least, is truthful—first, because it comports so well with the general character of the vile and unprincipled publishing company who conduct the "Press," and secondly because we received it direct from a source which makes it perfectly reliable. We can substantiate it if necessary. Our readers have seen in what a subtle though characteristically weak manner the paper DID assail Mr. Haller in its last issue. After endeavoring to be little his professional career as much as possible; and, through alleged communication, attacking his personal and private character, it proceeds to declare itself entirely unprejudiced. If we are correctly informed, and there seems to be no doubt about the matter, the "Press" folks made a pretty good haul by their duplicity, after all. We have, from very good authority, the statement that subsequent to the little episode we have just related, Mr. Ballard paid a hundred dollars for the support of the "Press." We were loth to believe this, and hoped it were not true, so strongly that we hesitated about making it public, but we are FORCED to the humiliating concession that it must be the case.

Now, we ask, what is a conscientious voter to do? Our preference was decidedly with the Republican candidate, other things being equal, but upon a showing like this what ought we to do but make it public? We have endeavored to stand for the right heretofore, and we may as well say right here that we NEVER WILL tolerate bribery or corruption, either in the party or out of it; and, although the time may come when to expose it would defeat a personal friend, we will still fearlessly discharge our duties. At times we feel as though it would be a decided relief to be out of a profession which makes our duty that of cutting right and left, incurring the personal enmity of those we will not shield, and laying FACTS before the public; but until we resign the tripod unpleasant duties as well as pleasant ones must be discharged.

We honor Mr. Haller for the stand which he took, and are willing to give him the benefit of it before the public. At least we are willing to see that he gets JUSTICE in this matter. We are proud to say that the staunch character of the ARGUS is so generally known that no candidate or political intriguer has ever yet even HINTED at trading or dickered for our support, so that we have been spared the insult of an offer to compromise our honor. It is true that the "Democratic Press" has abused us in many ways, frequently referring to us as "Parson" Weir, not forgetting to use italics to emphasize its sneers. If there is any disgrace in being a member of a Christian Church, then we DESERVE sneers, but still we would not exchange places with our neighbor for all his ill-gotten gains.

FOR SHAME!—The medical gentleman who peened that woman's rights correspondence in the last issue of the "Press" succeeded admirably, with his ghoul-like instincts, in dragging a lady again before the public to have her name bandied about and be made a general topic of conversation in connection with the issues of the present campaign. Whatever mistakes she may have made, her punishment in public exposure and censure has certainly been sufficient in all conscience; and, as she is married, raising a respectable family and leading a blameless life before the world, in the name of human decency why not at least allow her to rest? We have yet to learn that Morris Haller has attempted or desires to defend HIS past conduct in the matter. He offers no palliating excuse, but tries to be a MAN and outlive the effects of such disgrace; then why, we ask again, invade the sanctity of a private family and drag forth one of its heads in order merely to manufacture campaign capital? If Mr. Haller were the only one to suffer by such a course it would be different, but such is not the case.

How's 'lection going?
 Mrs. Geo. Gerrish, of Dungeness, has been quite ill.

Mr. Wm. King, of Dungeness, has been in town for a few days.

Mr. Sheehan's stock of new stoves makes his store look like old times.

Mr. Louis Schur has removed his saloon to the Newton & Keynes corner.

We learn that the mill at Port Madison is to be "shut down" to-day for repairs.

It is about time for the different Sunday schools to begin preparing for Christmas.

A LARGE amount of wheat is being sown in Clallam county during the present fall season.

Go to Rothschild & Co. if you are hunting the largest stock of goods in town to select from.

REPORT is once more current about the Eliza Anderson being on the eve of fitting up and renewing activity.

THE work of raising the old U. S. hotel building has been completed, and the carpenter work will soon be done.

CAN any one explain the reason why yellow-legged chickens and healthy spring turkeys are beginning to roost high?

Mr. W. H. H. Learned is to remove, post office and all, to the building purchased by him from the Fowler estate.

Mr. Eisenbeis' new building looks just perfectly splendid. If there were more like it in the town, all would be better off.

SEATTLE has escaped the yellow fever plague and the small-pox, but it is to have a visitation in the shape of an amateur theatrical troupe.

THE steamer Dispatch is to be laid up for repairs. She would be very much improved if her engine was replaced by a more powerful one, as she could then make her trips in less time and call at most of her way ports in daylight. As it is, many of her stoppages are made at unreasonable hours, discommoding the public.

Mr. T. G. Lowe, of the firm of Crosby & Lowe, of Olympia, and who is well-known on the Sound as having been identified with the interests of this Territory for a number of years, has disposed of his interest in the above named firm, to Mr. Davis of San Francisco. Mr. Lowe will, we understand, visit the scenes of his boyhood's day, in the Sunny South. May good luck attend you hence, friend Tom.

IN voting for sheriff pay no attention whatever to the sickly whine about "taking the bread out of orphan children's mouths," but select the best and most capable man to fill the office. We want good officers, and common sense will teach any one that the desired end is not likely to be gained by distributing the offices around as a matter of CHARITY. Mr. Drummond has been sought after to fill the position, and he will be secured.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Pacific Mail Steamship Alaska sailed at noon to-day for Victoria and Sound ports with the following passengers.

Port Townsend—Capt. W. T. Sayward.
 Seattle—G. Simpson and wife, E. Ericson, Meyer Jacobs, Rev. G. H. Watson and wife, A. A. Smith, John McAulay, Mrs. E. Martin and daughter, T. Cohen, Capt. C. Williston, L. S. Winans, Jas. McCabe, Mrs. Kate Harrington, Mrs. O'Neal, sons and daughter, Samuel French, Harry, Alfred, and Chas. Martiu, T. Notian, Mike Burns, Chas. Bradleigh.
 Tacoma—Louis C. Caldwell, W. C. Skinner.
 Olympia—T. C. Van Epps, W. Jones

LA CONNER ITEMS.—Judge Dale, a lawyer, residing ten miles below La Conner, died last Tuesday evening. He was a highly respected citizen and his loss will be severely felt in the neighborhood, where he has resided for a long time. . . .
 Milk Cook, well-known in this city, has just opened a large hotel in La Conner and on Tuesday night last, he gave a grand free ball in the new building, at which there was a very large attendance. . . .
 Jas. A. Gilliland has been appointed by Judge Lewis as clerk of the La Conner court. We believe no more satisfactory appointment could have been made. . . .
 Four new buildings are under way at La Conner, one of which will be used as a furniture manufacturing establishment, and Messrs. Dwelly & Co., will be the proprietors. . . .
 The construction of a steam grist mill will soon be commenced and it will be in operation in time to grind this next season's crop. —"Intelligencer."

A BIG STICK.—Dan. Vamer, a logger near Olympia, put into the water a few days ago some fine specimens of the timber grown in our forests. One of the logs measured 105 feet in length, 5 feet through at the larger end, and 46 inches at the top.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.—The name of C. W. Philbrick is mentioned this week as being very prominently [?] before the people of Jefferson county for Representative in the next Territorial Legislature. He is spoken of as a man of "Education, varied experience, ability," &c. Well, his experience certainly HAS BEEN VARIED. He has been educated to look out for No. 1, and would doubtless be shrewd enough in the legislative halls—should he ever get there—to dispose of his vote every time to the best advantage. He is also mentioned as being "not a rabid politician of either stripe." This is true, as we can testify. He is NOT rabid in any case unless PAID to be so, and even then his efforts are decidedly weak. When we purchased the ARGUS from him he confidently assured us that he had no political principles or affinities, but stated that he always went "where there was most money." At the same time he volunteered a little advice to us regarding the best method of making the paper PAY. His claims to being non-partisan are abundantly sustained, as is well known, from the fact that when publishing the ARGUS he was easily hired to make it a straight Republican journal during one campaign and was more easily induced to make it a rank and blatant Democratic sheet during the succeeding campaign. At the latter time referred to, the ponderous influence of the journal under his management commanded the munificent sum of FIFTY DOLLARS. What admirable command he must have had over his feelings and convictions to succeed in reversing them during the WHOLE CAMPAIGN for even that immense hire. We are gratified to know that his present prominent (?) position before the people makes the publication of these facts a duty on our part to the voters of the county. With unfeigned pleasure we bear testimony to his many noble[?] qualities; now, in order to dispose of his newspaper to a good advantage, he promised never to start in the printing business again in Port Townsend if we would but purchase, and how he subsequently conjured up a brilliant stroke of financial policy by threatening to start another paper if we did not either purchase or rent his property; how he carried his threat into execution and then brazenly denied ever having made a promise "either express or implied" regarding the establishing of a business conflicting with the old one, &c Nice man to send to the legislature! Why, he could actually barter away the rights of his constituents if they were not enterprising enough to pay him more for supporting their measures than any one else would advance against them. We never like to support a man for a position of trust without being able to give substantial and important reasons therefor; but then it is such a rare thing to have the privilege of voting for one who has the hardihood to do what Philbrick has done, and the cheek to solicit the suffrages of the people afterward, that we cannot forbear ventilating our feelings. To put such a highly [un]principled individual forward for so important a position is but an insult to the intelligence of the county, and it must be in a deplorable condition indeed if he is a representative man of even a score of its citizens.

MANY outsiders are somewhat amused at the reiteration, by a certain journal, of its imbecile and singularly pointless mouthings over a correspondence to the ARGUS from "An honest farmer of San Juan." It fires off some of its old wadding, and then explains that Joe. Kuhn is the man it is aiming at [its readers would not have known otherwise] when in reality Mr. Kuhn is not a resident of San Juan and never saw the communication referred to until it appeared in print.

COMMUNICATED.

PORT TOWNSEND, Nov. 1st.
 EDITOR ARGUS:—Feeling that many in this community have been misrepresented, yea, even slandered, and knowing you side with what is just, it is hoped you will allow me to clear away a few accusations, and point out a few facts.

The 'black-mailer' of this place has the audacity to say anything, disregarding the truth, and in fact it seems they prefer to falsify. Every SINCERE Democrat knows that the "Press" has done more to weaken their party on the lower Sound than could have a dozen Republican papers. The men who are banner leaders here have been picked out as the objects of its spleen. And now it claims that our universally respected townsman, Dr. N. D. Hill, is trying to sow discord in the Democratic ranks, who with others had remained quiet till compelled to decide between right and wrong. But, who are they that we can number with Dr. Hill—men who have stood firmly by the Democratic party—men who are respected by Republicans for their sincerity in principles, and men who have been honest, efficient and faithful in discharge of office duties? We will name a few and the Doctor can be proud of his associates: Chas. Eisenbeis, N. D. Hill, J. A. Kuhn, F. W. Pettigrove, D. C. H. Rothschild, G. M. Haller, J. F. Sheehan, and when alive, our lamented and highly esteemed citizen, O. F. Gerrish. These are the gentlemen the "Press" and its yelpers have made war against. And why? Simply because their moral sense of justice and decency wouldn't allow them to do the bidding of A. F. Learned, Jas. Jones, F. James, one-armed Smith, Dr. Willison, Rice, Philbrick, and lastly, "My party," "Me and Charley". Isn't that a sweet-scented crowd to claim recognition as Democrats and to assail such men as first named?

The respectable portion of the Democratic party of the lower Sound no doubt are sorry that such a demoralizing faction should claim to be Democrats. They are a fire-brand in any community, socially or commercially. We've evidences of the latter, and the people of this place are having their eyes opened to the fact that of the enterprising citizens who are endeavoring to build up Port Townsend, none are found of the Blanchard-Willison ilk who are helping to advance our general interest; but on the contrary, they are trying to pull down our best men, those who HAVE money and are willing to invest it. All this trouble is being occasioned by parties who are envious and constitutionally bilious, but it is hoped that some day they will be "cured."

P. S.—Mr. Editor, I am sorry to have included in the batch two unfortunate ones of the penitentiary, who no doubt have repented ere this, but by doing this I had hoped to point out how near the balance were to the penitentiary. And I notice I have done them another injustice by placing their names as right and left support of Dr. Willison [one wishing to have the custody of school interest]; and for which I most humbly beg the pardon of Smith and Rice.

FAIR PLAY.

HAYES' TITLE.

However varied may be the opinions concerning the validity of Hayes' title to the Presidency, there is not a question in the minds of either Democrats or Republicans upon one important point, viz: the unquestionable right of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines to the title of the Standard Remedies of the age. Listen to the voice of the sovereign people.

NEW ORLEANS, June 10th, 1878.
 Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
 DEAR SIR—Your Pleasant Purgative Pellets seem to be particularly adapted to the wants of the people in this warm climate, where bilious affections are particularly prevalent. I regard them as the best cathartic I have ever tried.
 Yours truly,
 JOHN C. HENDERSON,

OFFICIAL PAPER OF JEFFERSON CO.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1878.

THE STRUGGLE OVER.

ELECTION RETURNS.

We append below a statement of returns as far as heard from. The names of the Republicans candidates, for each office, are given first and that of their opponents come second, except in case of the "Press" ticket which we put by itself. It will be remembered that a few Democrats were on the regular Republican ticket, and several Republicans were on the regular Democratic ticket.

We have received, and permitted the publication of a semi-facetious communication which hacks right and left and includes the names of Mr. Jas. Jones, F. W. James, H. C. Willson, A. F. Learned and others in a few comparisons which, to say the least, are decidedly uncomplimentary to those gentlemen. The communication in question aroused the ire of a few of the parties named, and they demanded that an explanation be made, and that the name of its author be published. As the gentlemen are well-known to be supporters of the "Democratic Press," we deem a few words opportune, upon the subject. First, as to disclosing names; it will be remembered that some months ago a communication was published in the "Press," which contained a positive lie, reflecting upon the character of the editor of this paper. We publicly stamped it as a fabrication, and called for the name of the author; whereupon the "Press" editorially ridiculed the idea of giving the name of the party. We therefore concluded that, although in this instance the name of the party is of little consequence, what was right for one ought to be at least justifiable in the other. So we declined to make any disclosures. The "Press" has repeatedly slandered the names of respectable citizens, ourself among the number, and the parties named are among its principal supporters. By helping it to live, they become in a measure, responsible for its infamous work whether they write its articles or not. Messrs. Jones and James have each threatened us with a libel suit unless we disclose the name of our author. We here and now disclaim any desire to injure either of those gentlemen in any way. On reading the communication when it was placed in our hands we did not see that it did either of them injustice, and we fail now to see how it does. We beg to decline disclosing the name of its author and announce that we hold ourselves responsible for the entire article, not only in law but at the bar of public opinion.

THAT HIRE.—A few days ago we published some information which recently came to our ears to the effect that the support of the "Democratic Press" crowd had been purchased for Mr. Ballard for the sum of a hundred dollars. On the morning of election day Mr. Inman, of this place, showed us a telegram from himself to Mr. Ballard, stating what the ARGUS EXTRA had said, and also a reply from Mr. Ballard stating that the charge was false. We will now state, as has been publicly done, that the information in question came from Mr. Brents, and that we considered him good authority on the subject. We merely stated at the time that we had "very good authority" for our statement. It was certainly of public importance, if true, and we have yet to receive undoubted proof that there was no corrupt bargain made, or that no money paid for their support. We are informed that Mr. Ballard, in a speech at White River, King Co., used the identical language made use of by the "Press," and that too on the evening before the edition of the "Press," containing it, reached that point. At Port Discovery the statement was made before Mr. Blanchard, by Dr. Minor. At first, the Doctor, by mistake, used the name of Mr. Inman instead of Mr. Ballard, whereupon Mr. Blanchard interposed with, "I deny that." The Doctor immediately gave the source of the information, getting the name of Mr. Ballard this time properly, and Mr. Blanchard said not a word. If we did Mr. Ballard an injustice, we are sorry for it, and hope to be corrected.

We received a pleasant call this week from Mr. Van Epps, of the firm of Woodruff & Van Epps, of Olympia. Mr. Van Epps has just returned from a visit to San Francisco, whither he had gone to bring up a stock of goods for the fall and winter trade. The firm deals largely in books and stationery.

BRIGGS & FIELDS.

PUGET SOUND ARGUS.
LOCAL NEWS.

The "Press" ticket was sadly swamped. In Port Townsend the election passed off rather quietly.

We have a few buttons that have weathered the campaign.

REPORT says that a dozen or two libel suits are about to be entered.

PURSER Wafer, of the Alaska, and Agent Tibbals have our thanks for favors.

THE "Press" crowd has a lot of sick candidates on hand—laid by till wanted.

ELECTION returns will continue to pour in for the next week to come. What the Territorial result will be seems very doubtful.

We learn that a most horrible murder was committed near Seattle a few days since. The particulars have not all reached us, but we hear it was a most atrocious affair.

We understand that Mr. Lawrence Nessel, recently of Dungeness light house, has received the appointment as principal keeper of the light house at Admiralty Head.

The schooner Mist arrived from Dungeness on Tuesday night, having on board a load of freight. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ward came up for a brief visit to this place.

ELECTION returns indicate that the voters of Jefferson county disagreed slightly with Mr. James in his estimate of Dr. Hill, of this place; so that Mr. J. doesn't want any more scalps.

The steamer North Pacific looks just as natural as of yore when steaming alongside of Union wharf. Always a favorite with the travelling public, she will be doubly appreciated since her return to active duty.

OWING to indisposition, Prof. Roberts was obliged to postpone his dance until Wednesday evening of next week. He desired us to make the announcement that there might be no misunderstanding in the matter on the part of the public.

The "hefty" influence of the "Democratic Press" may be demonstrated by the vote which was given to J. A. Kuhn and B. S. Miller in the recent county election. These two gentlemen are the ones upon whom that sheet has made its principal fight.

THE four inside pages of our issue of to-day are printed, without change, from the ARGUS EXTRA of Saturday. There are some unpleasant allusions which we would have taken out of the weekly edition if we had had time to fill up the space with other; but election week made it necessary to be out and stirring to a certain extent, so that our readers will excuse us.

WE understood on Saturday last that one argument which the "Press" crowd or members thereof, used in favor of the election of Mr. Hastings as a school director, was that if he were elected they could influence him to further their ends. We are sorry to see such an estimable citizen as Mr. Hastings sacrificed upon a plea of that nature; but it had the effect of beating him by a large majority, although he is an old and respected citizen.

WE give, to-day, the election returns as far as heard from. By the time our next issue is published, the result in the whole Territory will perhaps be known. Enough is known to demonstrate almost to a certainty that Ballard is elected over Haller, for Prosecuting Attorney, by a large majority. Mr. Brents is also a long way ahead as far as known. His majority in Jefferson County will not be far from a hundred.

POLITICAL MEETING.—On Monday evening a meeting was held in Port Discovery, at which Dr. Minor, A. R. Huffman, Thos. Drummond, C. W. Philbrick, H. L. Blanchard and Allen Weir, addressed the voters of that precinct. There was a goodly attendance, and considerable interest was manifested, especially when Philbrick received such a raking that he slunk out of the door and away, refusing to come forward and answer any questions regarding his past actions. Dr. Minor, whose speech came last on the programme, gave poor Blanchard such a literal dressing down that none but an adamant cheek could have braved the audience against it, proceeded to discuss the merits and demerits of the various candidates for local positions, and then wound up with a most eloquent and thrilling review of Territorial and national political questions. He was frequently and loudly applauded.

ON Sunday last, our reporter visited the various Sunday schools in this city, and was surprised to see what a large attendance there were to them all. The first call was made at the Presbyterian; there were present, by actual count, including teachers, 28. The Methodist Sunday school was the next point of observation, and we hear he had the pleasure of listening to some very good singing. There were, as near as he could judge, about 25 present, although he was informed that a good many were absent. The next and last call was made at the Episcopal Church, where Rev. E. Davis presides as superintendent. He stated that when all were present the number reached 50, all told. This makes quite a good showing for a place the size of Port Townsend. The sum total, including teachers, is 103. Our reporter expressed himself gratified at receiving courtesies from all.

Mrs. S. Troy, of Dungeness, is quite ill.

Telegraphic Summary.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Methodist Episcopal missionary society resumed its deliberations this morning. The question of making appropriations was taken up and the following amounts were appropriated: Denmark, $8,000; Norway, $11,000; Northern India, $60,000; South India, $1,000; Bulgaria, $5,000; Italy, $22,000; Mexico, $22,000.

MOBILE, Nov. 2.—Quarantine restrictions are removed against every place.

NAPLES, Nov. 2.—Mount Vesuvius continues spasmodic. There is an increased discharge of lava on Thursday night—but Friday the volcano was again quiet.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—It looks less warlike again. There is a growing feeling that the postponement of the British expedition against Afghanistan means its abandonment. Leading Russian authority takes the same view, and all parties to the general European war appear to be again seeking a diplomatic solution of vexed problems. Meantime the fact remains that Russia has not relinquished one foot of ground occupied by her at the end of the war, and all evidences of her warlike preparations indicate that she has no intention to retire.

It is stated that Great Britain has concluded to purchase Delagoa Bay in South-eastern Africa from Portugal for three millions of dollars.

PRIVATE telegrams confirm the statement that the government of India contemplate the adoption of gold currency, making English gold coin a legal tender throughout the country. The importation of bar silver will probably be prohibited after a given time and the rupee and other smaller coins used as fractional currency.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Oldham cotton operatives Saturday unanimously resolved to resist the proposed reduction of ten per cent. of their wages. Twenty thousand hands and eight million spinners will be affected by this action.

Territorial University.

The University of Washington Territory, with its corps of six instructors, is fully prepared to give the following instruction through the Freshman year of a full classical course:

- A THREE YEARS' SCIENTIFIC COURSE.
 - A TWO YEARS' NORMAL COURSE.
 - A COMPLETE COURSE IN BOOK-KEEPING.
- Pupils not fully prepared to enter any course, can receive a thorough drilling in the common branches.

Vocal and instrumental music, painting drawing, military tactics and telegraphing taught in connection with the institution.

In the University boarding houses and in private families, there is abundant provision for boarding pupils.

The fall term begins September 2, 1878. For catalogue or admission, apply to the President.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

MR. James wants scalps, and is going to have them—provided the voters do not disagree with him on Tuesday.

IN order that the "Press" may maintain its reputation for "fair dealing," we would suggest that it have a regular auction sale of support hereafter. This thing of making private sales hardly gives all candidates a fair chance, whereas they might compete in a more public manner and raise enthusiasm enough to bid more.

THAT enterprising firm which would sell anything it can get hold of is offering to the public a lot of election tickets which do not belong to it. If its managers can make any electioneering capital out of the mistakes of others, they are welcome to the profits of all such dirty advantages.

WE have a little question to ask the public, and shall wait patiently for an answer prompted by logical deductions in the premises. It is this: If Morris Haller is as low down and contemptible as the "Press" pretends he is, and yet its managers made a proposition to support him for the pitiful sum of twenty-five dollars, how mean and utterly despicable must a man get to be to preclude the possibility of hiring that sheet to support him? Let those of its very few admirers, who are experts, rise and explain.

JUST THE MAN.—Mr. Ryan is admitted, even by his opposers, to be a thorough gentleman; and no one questions his possession of all the qualifications necessary to render him an efficient and acceptable servant of the people in the next legislature. His election is assured by a rousing majority, such a vote as he deserves. Those who have no other argument to offer against his election than that he cannot leave his school are hard pushed for something to say. We have no words of objection to offer against Mr. Tucker, but a great many in favor of Mr. Ryan.

IN casting your ballot, don't forget to vote on the separate articles to be decided upon in connection with the proposed state constitution. Most of the tickets printed will have a blank before "Separate Article" in each case, so that if you do not write "For" or "Against" in the proper places, your vote upon the article left blank will not be counted. Remember that separate articles Nos. 1 and 2 grant to the female sex the right to vote and to hold office, respectively. We believe they will be voted down by a large majority. No. 3 should by all means be endorsed "For," as it grants a local option law which means simply that each county may decide by its own vote whether licenses to sell intoxicating liquors within its limits may be granted or not.

BECAUSE the "Press" managers failed in their attempts to browbeat Mr. Kuhn into playing second fiddle for them, they ask with much gravity regarding an alleged remark made by him to the effect that he owed his election as a member of the last Territorial Council to Republican votes. When one considers the facts that Mr. Kuhn is a Democrat and ran as a Democrat in a council district which is strongly Republican, the silly aspect of this grave (?) question needs no pointing out. What would be more natural than that he should make just such a remark? He was elected, as we understand, to represent the whole people of the district; and, if he discharged his duties faithfully without trying especially to favor the Democratic minority of his constituents, it is certainly the province of none but very small politicians to accuse him of dishonorable action. Some writers have no ideas save those which run in the narrowest possible grooves.

FORT LEAVENWORTH CORRESPONDENCE.

The following letter from our lady correspondent, which has been unavoidably delayed, will interest our readers; particularly those who are conversant with life in a military post.

FT. LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS, }
September 29, 1878, }

EDITOR ARGUS:—I should like exceedingly to give you a glowing account of the "fete champetre," which was half promised to us by Mrs. Gen. Davis and tell you how we danced all night by the bright moonlight and came home with the boys in the morning. But I shall have to disappoint you in this respect and substitute in place of a romantic "al fresco party," one, which by comparison, may be termed a prosaic lunch party, composed entirely of the fair sex, or, as I heard some one here sacrilegiously denominate it, a "hen party." However, as the gentlemen themselves style their club dinners, composed entirely of "men folks," as "gender goes," it seems a little more complimentary to style our assemblage as resembling a collection of another branch of the feathered tribe, rather than to have called us a flock of geese. The invitations were sent around the day previous and were worded as follows:

Mrs. D.—s, compliments, and I would be happy to have you lunch with her to-morrow afternoon, Sept. 25th, at 2 o'clock, to meet Mrs. B. Please answer.

Quite a flutter went around amongst the ladies of the garrison at the prospect of a full dress lunch, and immediately upon the receipt of the above notes, skillful fingers were at work finishing up or making alterations in the toilets to be worn the next day, for, although we were aware that no gentlemen were to be invited, we still felt that for that very reason perhaps, we should want to present a particularly fine appearance. Our ardor, however, was considerably dampened the morning of the 25th, by the announcement that companies D. and G. were ordered to Fort Wallace, Kansas, to join the other two companies which had been sent from here two weeks previous, leaving in this large garrison but one company with three officers, to amuse and protect the "girls I left behind me."

The order was first communicated by Gen. Davis, who was to take command in person of all the troops assembled at Fort Wallace, to the officers in the adjutant's office, and after informing them of their speedy departure, the General said: "Please, gentlemen, don't tell my wife as it will spoil her pleasure in her lunch party."

Mrs. G.—, my sister and myself, reached Gen. Davis' house a few minutes after the appointed time, and after taking off our hats and shawls, and seeing that our crinoline dresses generally were "comme il faut," we proceeded to the drawing room where we found most of the company already assembled. Soon after our arrival, the General's lady gave the signal, and we walked by two into the back parlor, where little tables to the number of five, with plates for four persons at each table, were set around the room, looking most inviting with their snowy covers, and each with a beautiful arrangement of fruits and flowers in their midst. In the centre of the apartment a large extension table was also profusely decorated with fruits and flowers. The room was darkened, and illuminated with artificial lights. At our table were three young ladies and one very attractive young married woman. The latter was most becomingly attired in a silk dress of rich garnet hue, with a beautiful little collarette of monogram dimes (which are all the rage here now) suspended from a silver chain fastened round her throat. Two of us young ladies were attired in black silks with black velvet trims and trappings. I think some of that silver with the Haldah Indians of Queen Charlotte Islands make, such as bracelets, finger-rings and ear ornaments, which I have seen in Victoria and Port Townsend, would have been highly appreciated by all the company present.

The courses consisted of raw oysters, omelette with hot biscuits, cold chicken with currant jelly, ham garnished with parsley, frozen Roman punch which, "though I say it as shouldn't," was delicious; scalloped oysters, ice cream and cake, champagne, and for the course of fruits we were obliged to disturb the beautiful pyramid in front of us. Then came nuts, and lastly delicious coffee. Upon sitting down at first to lunch, we were all rather subdued, but shortly after, the regimental band, who were stationed in front of the commandant's house, began playing some lovely airs which were wafted through the front parlor windows, and this seemed to give an impulse to the party, for almost immediately we all began talking, and soon the conversation became so lively that only snatches of the music could be heard from time to time, reminding one of a lot of dull canary birds in a parlor, who will begin to chirp and twitter at the sound of a piano, and soon will sing till their shrill notes quite take precedence over all other sounds. Our pretty friend in the garnet dress, notwithstanding the brightness of the scene, was in a very melancholy mood and I kept prophesying the most wonderful results for the approaching campaign. Saying, she knew something dreadful was going to happen, and rolling her expressive eyes about in quite a dramatic manner. I noticed, however, that towards the end of the collation, even her mournful mood began to vanish beneath the genial influences that surrounded her both from within and without, and when the band struck up "Il Bacio," a smile dawned over her countenance and she exclaimed with animation, "O don't you wish we could dance," to which sentiment we all responded most heartily. Mrs. Davis hearing us, said in her sweet charming way, "get up girls and have a waltz." We hesitated for a few seconds, but about this time the black waiters coming in with fresh dainties, the balance turned in favor of the tables instead of the floor, and the idea of a waltz was abandoned. One of the ladies was called out of the room during the entertainment, and upon returning she remarked, "You have no idea how pretty you all look; you remind me of those colored stereoscopic views which represent an evening party with the lights all lit."

The oldest lady of the party, a very stately, whole-souled woman from "Pike" as we here call all Missourians, was requested by our hostess to give a toast, whereupon she said, holding up in her hand a glass of sparkling champagne, "May your husbands return to you in safety," one of the gentle splinters here spoke up, "but we haven't got any husbands." You will pardon her grammar when you remember that she had "no one to love, none to caress." "May your sweethearts," continued the dignified Missourian, not heeding the interruption, but looking at the offender in a freezing manner, "be restored to you;" and then a sudden twinkle coming into the corner of her eyes, "may those who have no sweet heart, soon obtain the desire of their hearts." The toast was received not exactly with a burst of applause but certainly with a loud murmur of assent and with merry peals of rippling laughter. The company separated at about six p. m., pronouncing the lunch to have been a decided success, notwithstanding that our husbands, sweethearts and expectations were soon to leave us. The departure of so many troops from this post will leave us quite dull the coming winter, but something may occur worthy of note which may interest your readers, and if so, you will hear more anon from OLYMPIA.

A Living Witness.

Do not despair of ever finding relief from that dreadful disease dyspepsia, or its mate liver complaint. A single trial of White's Prairie Flower will make you a witness to its infallibility. Druggists say they never sold a medicine they can more heartily recommend. It cures chronic rheumatism, entaneous and ulcers scrotula, organic debility, nervousness, etc. etc. For female complaint it has no equal. Prairie Flower is gathered from the prairie of the far west, and then carefully prepared in the form of a liquid medicine by an experienced physician. Is positively purely vegetable and harmless in any reasonable amount, yet a powerful purgative if taken in over doses. Directions in full are with each bottle. For sale by all druggists. Trial size, 25 cts. Large size, 75 cts.

APPROVED SOLDIER'S ADDITIONAL HOMESTEADS can be located upon any lands, either single or double minimum lands, subject to homestead whether timbered or not, and having the only first class paper in the country, have made arrangements with the following gentlemen in Western Washington:

- A. Mackintosh, Seattle,
- John R. Wheat, Olympia,
- G. Morris Haller, Port Townsend,
- Henry Jackson, Snohomish City.

Who will have on hand, at all times, my scrip for the accommodation of those desiring to purchase, at the rate of $3.25 per acre for 80s and 120s, and $3.75 per acre for 40s; fractions special. Another transient class of scrip known as "floats" can be gotten at much less rates; but no title can be given, and is, of course, not so valuable. A deed can be gotten from the original applicant of any land located by scrip purchased of me, as I in no case buy from other than the original homesteader, and know where to address him for a deed if one be required. Full investigation is asked that the worth of my paper may be known. Call upon or write any of the gentlemen named above, who will sell you the Talbot additional homestead scrip which will ensure you a patent to your land as well as a perfect title, and also as cheap as you can buy it of me.

HOW'S YOUR LIVER?

If the skin be yellow and muddy, the bowels constipated; if you have ringing in your ears, dull pains in the side, sick headache, sour stomach, hot or dry skin, spots before the eyes, bad taste in the mouth, cold feet and hands, sleepiness, giddiness, loss of appetite, bad circulation of the blood, swelled limbs, &c., you may safely conclude your liver is out of order. The liver is more apt to become disordered than any other organ of the body, as its duty is to filter the purities from the blood. When it becomes weak, obstructed and diseased it must fail to do its duty, and the whole body suffers. Try White's Prairie Flower, the greatest known liver panacea in the world. Sample bottle 25 cents, large size 75 cents. For sale everywhere.

BATTISTE'S HAIR INVIGORATOR.

M. Battiste Delaitang, Tonsorial artiste of Port Townsend, Washington Territory, begs to inform his numerous patrons and the public generally, that he has prepared from the original receipt of Professor Montalbert, the celebrated chemist of Paris, and from chemical extracts of rare medicinal plants found only on the North-west coast of America, a most elegant addition to the usual toilette articles in the shape of an invigorator and rejuvenator of the hair. This delightful preparation cleanses the hair from all impurities; prevents dandruff, heals all skin disease of the head, imparts a gloss and softness and beautiful color to the hair; restores its growth by its healthy and tonic action, and prevents its falling off. In short

Battiste's Hair Invigorator is the "sine qua non" of all the inventions for the improvement, beautifying and growth of the hair. The material of which it is composed are harmless and can be used freely according to directions accompanying each bottle. Every lady desirous of having beautiful hair should consider her toilette table incomplete without a bottle of this delicate and elegant cosmetic. Prepared and for sale by

OLD,
TRIED,
AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that Great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN
Mustang Liniment,
FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe. The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast. To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable. A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep. It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life. It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc. The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners. It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure. Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING.—On Wednesday, the Coquimbo arrived in San Francisco from Port Madison; the Comser from Port Blakely, and the ship Alaska sailed the same day for the Sound.

WE acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to a grand ball known as "The first re-union hop," to be given at Seattle, on Friday evening, Nov. 8th, by the Grand Army of the Republic.

AS WILL be seen by the ticket which we publish to-day, the name of Mr. Jno. T. Norris appears in place of that of Mr. W. A. Inman for the office of Justice of the Peace for this precinct. Mr. Norris is well-known throughout the precinct, and needs no complimentary mention. His qualifications for the position, we believe to be ample, and should the public utilize them we see no reason for condemning the action.

SINCE writing an item about Mr. Philbrick having sold out the support of his paper two years ago to the Democrats, we learn that we did him a slight injustice. The amount paid him to effect a change in his politics from the course of an earnest Republican to that of a red-hot Democrat, was ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS instead of FIFTY. We further learn that he would not even take THAT amount from them until he found that the Republicans would not buy him at all.

WE understand that Judge Hastings is coming out as an Independent candidate for County Treasurer—not because he wants or expects to get the office but to spite Mr. Bartlett for running Independent a few years ago when Mr. Hastings was the regular Republican nominee. The Judge is quite hostile, we understand, because his declination of the Blanchard-Willison nomination was published. Our explanation is simply that we received the declination with the understanding that it was to be published if necessary, and we thought proper to make it as public as was his nomination on their ticket.

JUDGE JACOBS was present at Mr. Caton's address at Whatcom the other evening, but the latter would not entertain the proposition of the Republicans to allow the Judge to speak in reply. Now, if Mr. Caton's cause was just, why should he refuse to allow the representative of his competitor and opponent to meet the argument. The fact is, Mr. C. knew full well that Judge Jacobs could shatter the whole fabric of his evening's discourse in a ten minutes' speech. Of course the Democratic candidate had a perfect right to refuse, but then there were a great many Republicans if not Democrats who would have been gratified to hear Judge Jacobs, who has so creditably represented us in Congress during the past four years.

—B. B. Mail.

FOR PROBATE JUDGE.—Should there ever be a pantomime gotten up here of Milton's Paradise Lost, we will endeavor to secure the services of Mr. Bradshaw to take the part of Satan. That personage, failing to destroy heaven, descended and tried to rule the lower regions—Mr. B., after failing to ruin the Republican party, now steps down to rule the Democrats. He is succeeding to a very limited extent. We are informed by a member of the Blanchard-Willison county convention, that they nominated Blanchard for Probate Judge with the understanding that he would resign in Bradshaw's favor if the latter failed to secure the Republican nomination for Prosecuting Attorney. Be this as it may, Mr. B. has been provided for; and, we understand, takes Blanchard's place on the ticket. Blanchard got scared and backed out. The other B. stands about as much chance of being elected as a grunting bird does of flying.

WE have just perused a copy of a circular sent out to defeat Mr. Caton for Delegate to Congress. It gives, as a reason for opposing him, the argument that he favors Judge Lewis and will favor the re-appointment of the latter, should he be elected. We do not favor the election of Mr. Caton, but it is no better argument is brought against him than to say that he is in favor of continuing Judge Lewis in office, his opposers will make votes for him in this part of the country. The truth is, Mr. Caton is on the wrong platform and stands in a false position toward the N. P. R. Co., but his friendship for Judge Lewis is a feather in his cap.

CAPT. Floyd is up from the Tatoosh light house, having tendered his resignation as principal keeper at that place. He has been appointed to the position of head keeper at Point Adams light house, on the coast of Oregon. His place at Tatoosh has been filled by the appointment of Capt. Alex. Sampson who was until recently first assistant at that point.

SOME one has told the people of Clallam that many of the Republicans of Jefferson were going to support Mr. Caton. They might about as well disabuse their minds of that fallacy, as there are no grounds for believing that such is the case.

THE trial of Clawson and Davidson, for murder, has been suspended to secure evidence.

NOTICE.

UNITED STATES DIST. LAND OFFICE, OLYMPIA, Wash. Terr., Sept. 11, 1878. COMPLAINT HAVING BEEN ENTERED at this office by W. L. Rogers, of Clallam county, W. T., against Joseph Jacobs, for abandoning his homestead, entry No. 2081, dated May 9th, 1877, upon the SE 1/4 of Section No. 36, in township No. 39 north, of Range No. 5 west, Willamette Meridian, in Clallam county, Washington Territory, with a view to the cancellation of said entry; the said parties are hereby summoned to appear at this office on the 13th day of November, 1878, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to respond and furnish testimony concerning said alleged abandonment.

J. T. BROWN, Register.
ROBERT G. STUART, Receiver.

It appearing from the affidavit filed in this case that Joseph Jacobs has left this Territory and that personal service of notice cannot be made; and there being no newspaper published in the county of Clallam wherein the above described land lies, it is ordered that this notice be published in the Puget Sound Argus, a newspaper published at Port Townsend, Jefferson county, W. T., for a period of six or successive weeks prior to the day set for hearing. J. T. BROWN, Register, Sept 11, 1878.
