Local News.

From Daily of Saturday:

WELSH RAREBITS—If there is any thing that Piper excels in, it is making Welsh rarebits. We knew a man to go in there for one, last Saturday night, and he said it was good. An hour later he went to sleep in a bar-room and when he woke up about daylight, there were seven big buck rats, sitting up on their other ends on the floor and enjoying the luxury of smelling his breath. Talk about cheese, Seattle is the place for it. And a Welsh rarebit is a meal for the gods—provided they are willing to pay for it.

CITY OF PANAMA—This steamer sailed from Esquimalt on Thursday at noon, for San Francisco. Her passenger list bore the names of J. H. Turner, Mrs. W. W. Riggs and daughter, Mrs. L. J. Gofford, D. Gear, C. Winters, M. Cluett, J. C. Hill, L. Cramer, S. J. Katz, Ed. Lenning, Eugene Hughes, A. Rives, T. Colin, M. W. Waitt, C. Gates, A. Lawrence, Chas. Hutchinson, D. A. Hern, Morris Hern.

HARD WORK—The street laborers who are grading Madison street alongside Dr. Weed's residence, have struck a bed of cement in which gravel and cobblestones are interspersed. It looks nearly as hard to cut through as the famous "Bloomer cut" near Auburn, on the Central Pacific Railroad.

NANAIMO ITEMS—The bark Penang is loading at the Douglas wharf; the Wildwood and W. A. Holcomb at the Wellington, the Nicaraguan bark Renijo at the Harewood; and the T. D. Harrison at the Newcastle. The presence of so many vessels, akes lively times at Nanaimo.

CLUB MEETING—A meeting of the members of the Ivy Social Club will be held in the office of Thorn & Snow, at 8 o'clock on Monday evening next. By order of the President.

PIANOS—Prof. Roberts, of Olympia, well known as a pianist and teacher of music, is spending a few days in this city. Those desiring pianos tuned will leave orders at Pumphrey's.

The Wenat came down with two barges of Talbot coal, yesterday afternoon. Repairs on the Annie Stewart are being carried on by Engineer Chapman, under the advice of G. W. Bullen. The Success is to be launched to-day.

INCORPORATION—Articles of incorporation for the Young Men's Christian Association of Seattle, have been filed in the Auditor's office. The incorporators are Dexter Horton, C. D. Young, J. H. RENTON COAL—The Otter towed down two barges of this coal to the ship Washington Libby, lying in the stream and went back for more yesterday afternoon.

From the Daily of Sunday

BIG STORM—The great storm which prevailed here on Wednesday night and Thursday morning seems to have extended pretty well along the Sound and down the Straits. The ship El Dorado, which left here on Tuesday with a cargo of Seattle coal split her foretop-sail off Dungeness and returned to Port Townsend where she anchored, but the violence of the gale caused her to drag her anchor clear across Admiralty Inlet, where she finally slipped it with fifteen fathoms of chain. Bark Northwest was also out in the blow, and Capt. Farnham made sail and put back to Townsend. The Alida found it so rough at Steilacoom, that night, that Capt. Browner took the safe side of the case and would not land.

ELECTION—The stockholders of the Puget Sound Telegraph Company met at the office in Port Townsend, on the 8th instant, and re-elected the old Board of Directors: O. F. Gerrish, D. C. H. Rothschild, Cyrus Walker, Wm. Renton and Marshall Blinn. The officers are O. F. Gerrish, President; J. J. H. Van Bokkelen, Secretary; Cyrus Walker, Treasurer; and R. Robinson, Superintendent. The whole number of votes represented at the election was 206.

A SUBSTANTIAL PRESENT—George Foster, the obliging and industrious wharfinger of Yesler's wharf, has been the recipient of quite a substantial Christmas gift from his employer. It consists of four lots worth at least $1,000 in yellow boys. Well, Uncle Henry is a slow sort of an old gentleman, but he never does things by halves when he once gets started. George is a lucky man.

THE FANNY LAKE—Our evening contemporary suggests that a new mail route should be established on the Skagit and Stilligumish rivers, where the Fanny Lake is building up quite a fine trade. We would like to see it done, for the Fanny is a very nice boat and her Captain a most courteous and competent gentleman.

FILLING UP—The report comes to us, that the small towns and the Sound and interior, are fast being increased by the influx of immigration. This we are glad to learn as will many of our readers.

WON'T HAVE IT—President Calhoun offered the rooms and furniture of the University to the Directors of Seattle School District for $20 per month, but they rejected it as excessive.

POSTAL—Our local Nasby is making many changes for the better since he first took the Post-office. He keeps the general delivery open from 9 to 10 A. M. on Sundays, and the front door unlocked for the accommodation of box-holders, all day long. Newspaper men understand the value of these things, however.

ELECTED—At the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, held last night, J. M. Nelson was elected Chief of Police, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of R. H. Turnbull. The new man is a stout and active one, who will make up in vigilance what he lacks in experience.

THE DAKOTA—Up to the closing at the telegraph office (at 9 o'clock last night,) no news of the Dakota's arrival at Esquimalt. The wires had been down for two days, however, and private dispatches may have excluded all news for the time being.

PROBATE—Hon. Thomas Burke will hold an adjourned term of the Probate Court at his office in the Frauenthal block, Commercial street, on Monday next.

CHANGE—The prayer meetings held in the reading room opposite the Tremont House, have been changed to Wednesday night, hereafter.

From the Daily of Tuesday

A LACK OF SUPPLY—It is a matter of much comment, by many of our citizens, of the comparative small supply to be had and extreme prices asked for such commodities as oysters, clams, crabs, smelt, etc., which so plentifully abound in the waters of the Sound, and which, were the market well and regularly supplied, would have an immense consumption by those among our citizens who are inclined to good living. At Olympia these dainties are cheap and plentiful, and we know no reason why some of our markets could not do well by making this branch of their business a specialty. It is a rule of commerce that in order to create a steady demand for an article there must be a steady supply. Now, why cannot this deficiency be corrected? We call the attention of fishermen to this matter, that they can avail themselves of it, and not only better themselves, but cause two blades of grass to grow, where only one grew before.

LOSS OF THE SHIP COMMODORE—In a frightful gale on Wednesday, the 10th inst, the ship Commodore, 1200 tons, Capt. Hastorf commanding, was lost off Cape Flattery and nothing saved but the chronometer and the crew. The vessel sailed on the 20th from San Francisco bound to Seattle for a cargo of coal. The ship had a tempestuous voyage all the way, when upon reaching the cape, a tremendous squall from the northwest drove her ashore, notwithstanding that her masts were finally cut away and both anchors let go. The fury of the gale may be best appreciated when we relate that the ship tore her bows completely away while straining upon her cables. The crew upon reaching the shore, immediately made for Neah Bay, where the captain sold the remains of the wreck for $475, to Mr. Lands, of that place. The Commodore was owned by Capt. Saml. Blair of San Francisco, and Mr. Arthur Phinney of Port Ludlow, and was valued at $20,000.

POLICE COURT—An unfortunate, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, was fined five dollars, without costs. Costs were remitted on account of defendant being unknown in police circles, and it being his first offense. Committed in default, for 10 days, to city jail.

PERSONAL—Judge J. R. Lewis returned last evening upon the steamer Messenger from Steilacoom, where he has been holding Court for the past two weeks.

SOCIABLE—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give one of their enjoyable sociables at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Whitworth, on Wednesday evening next. These affairs are not only of aid to the financial well-being of churches, but enable many a poor wanderer to find social enjoyment other than that of more objectionable methods. The Presbyterians, we understand from the comments of our bachelor friends, not only strive to make their entertainments agreeable to all, but pay special attention to those who are on the wing, and who in a strange place, miss the sweet amenities of home. Carried on in the sweet spirit akin to that of the sermon on the mount, we know of nothing more apt for the prevention of ennui than the pleasant affairs which our church-going citizens give from time to time.

CITY COUNCIL—A meeting of the City Council was held on Saturday evening last. Further time was given the Finance Committee to examine and report upon the condition of the books of the City Clerk. For work done upon Front and Madison streets, warrants to the aggregate amount of $917 39 were ordered drawn in favor of contractor Edwards. Bills were ordered and made out and presented to the Commissioners of the County for payment, for the cost of maintaining the quarantine, attending the sick, and burial expenses, in the recent smallpox cases in this city. J. M. Nelson was elected Chief of Police, in place of R. H. Turnbull, resigned. Another meeting of the City Council will be held on Wednesday.

POPULAR LECTURES—Dr. Paul M. Brennan, who arrived from San Francisco on the last trip of the Dakota, will deliver a free lecture on Saturday evening at Yesler's Hall, on the "Throne of the Mind," illustrating the influences of the mind on the human body, both in health and disease. The Doctor proposes to prove that man is endowed with but three intelligent senses, instead of five. This will be the first of a series of popular medical discourses on the preservation of the body and the cheerfulness of the mind, and many will no doubt avail themselves of this opportunity to listen to the merits of a new philosophy.

MURDER IN PIERCE COUNTY—The grand jury of Pierce county adjourned without finding any indictments for serious offenses. They were hardly discharged, however, until the demon of bloodshed was let loose. On that evening a lot of Indians who work about town got into a drunken spree. One of them called Goodtime's Charley armed himself with a revolver and dirk knife, and succeeded in killing one called Pineus' Charley, and also in mortally wounding another, a brother of the one that was killed. It is rumored that the people of Steilacoom have taken the law in their own hands and have strung up the murderer.

DEAD—The young man Lebeau, who was run over last week by a loaded car on the S. C. & T. Co.'s track, went to his final account on Saturday last. Mortification having set in in his injured limbs, it was found necessary to amputate them, but such recourse was found unavailing. He was buried yesterday from the Catholic Church with full honors of the Society of God Tempers. We understand he leaves no relatives in this part of the country.

NEW CHIEF OF POLICE—Mr. J. M. Nelson, who was appointed Chief of Police by the Council on Saturday night, formerly occupied that position on the San Jose police force for several years. We were not advised of that fact when we noticed his appointment in our Sunday issue. He will in a probability meet the full demands made upon him in his new trust.

MASQUERADE—The citizens of Seattle will have the opportunity of enjoying themselves on the 14th of next month at the masquerade to be given under the auspices of the Sing Verine Germania. Good music and lots of fun will no doubt be the portion of all partakers in the festive entertainment.

UNION MEETING—The sermon of the Rev. Mr. Hetzler was listened to with rapt attention on Sunday last. The church was filled to overflowing and many were compelled to turn away unable to find ingress to the church.

QUERY—Why would it not be a good plan during these wet days, when the cross-walks are in such a deplorable condition, to keep the city prisoners at work upon the crossings of our main streets.

THE SITUATION.

"These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and sunshine patriot will sink beneath this crisis, but he who stands it now, deserves the thanks of both man and woman."

To-day the citizen must judge whether the adventurous politician with his ignorant cohorts, has ruled the South to the benefit of the nation. To-day, the citizen must judge whether the rancor of a civil war has so subsided as to warrant the belief, that he of Southern soil, is worthy of the trust reposed in patriotism.

The South, as has been oftentimes declared by her leading spokesmen, was too impoverished by the late war to wish another similar scene. The North, groaning under the status of commercial inertia, with its attendant evils, will neither submit to the curtailment of national rights which threaten us now, or to the decision of any one faction.

With their decision the country would be satisfied, and internecine strife averted, and the threatening clouds of war which we have spoken, would soon pass away. National men stand at the bar of popular judgment.

The money that has been given to the heroes of the Stagit jam, has not been given in vain. Notwithstanding the indifference of the general government to the condition of the river and harbor improvements of Washington Territory, we are yet led to believe that the hopes of our business men will be realized in the opening of this river to Seattle's commerce.

For another scare-crow and appeal to bye gone prejudices, the New York Tribune gives the following as per cable from London: "The sale of Confederate bonds in London, when it was believed Tilden was elected, began. The story comes from another source, entirely reliable, dated at London, and directed to a high official in this city. The price they sold for was 4 1/4 to 5 and under."

As will be seen by our telegraphic dispatches the Republican Senatorial Committee have asked the Democrats equivalently, to not recount the electoral vote, and they would concede the government of Louisiana to Nichols (Dem.) "Anything to return Federal patronage," is the cry of the partisans of the other side.

The best joke of the season is in the testimony of Gov. Kellogg of Louisiana, who testifies to one named Morgan as being an adventurer. For lofty impudence and brazen cheek, we have never seen this equalled.

NAPOLEON WAS RIGHT.

The situation of European matters, especially the attitude of Russia towards the Sublime Porte, recalls vividly the remarks of Napoleon to the English surgeon, Barry O'Meara, at St. Helena. The dethroned Emperor claimed that England and France had no cause of quarrel and that theirs was common cause against the aggressions of the Muscovites.

The great Corsican's prophetic wisdom was vindicated even twenty years ago, by the Crimean war, in which, but for the assistance lent England by France, Turkey would have been blotted out of existence and the Bosphorus converted into a mere toll-gate with the cross of St. Vladimir in place of the crescent of Mohammed. The world has less to deplore in that war than in the American war, for there was no Andersonville and no Belle Isle, to shock the soul with the sickening recital of starved prisoners and brutal guards.

And now comes again the war-cry from lands where waves the crescent and the voice of the muezzin at sunset summons the faithful to prayers. Turkey is a power only in name and the first stroke of the Russian sword will extinguish her nationality if England does not interpose the sabre of Wellington. She cannot do it alone. She needs the help of France, and France cannot stand the shock of a war so soon after her escape from the clutches of Prussia.

A party by the name of Chapman, formerly a resident of Stellacoom but living in Portland, has been showing the length of his ears by preferring charges of venality and malfeasance in office, against Hon. William McMicken, Surveyor General of Washington Territory. The matter came up in the United States Senate on the 15th, upon a question of privilege by Senator Windom, of Minnesota, who read an article charging him with retaining Gen. McMicken in office. He (Senator Windom) denied the assertion and demanded an investigation by the Senate.

The money that has been given to the heroes of the Stagit jam, has not been given in vain. Notwithstanding the indifference of the general government to the condition of the river and harbor improvements of Washington Territory, we are yet led to believe that the hopes of our business men will be realized in the opening of this river to Seattle's commerce.

The cloven foot is at last being fully shown by Grant in the Louisiana perplexity, in which he offers to sustain Packard, if he could "hold out forty-eight hours longer." Does he not see that such a course is certain to bring about a revolution. Thousands stand ready to strike the second blow. God save him whose mad fury provokes the first one.

Robert B. Hargadine, of Ashland, Jackson County, Oregon, died of disease of the heart at San Francisco, last Monday. He was the first man to introduce Angora goats into that section, and was a man of great enterprise. He leaves a large family in good circumstances.

It is said that the money required to relieve the sufferings by famine in Bombay and Madras, will not fall far short of six million pounds.

The Supreme Court is the latest thing for which the Man with the Cigar says he don't care.

COMING TO THE POINT.

The plan proposed by Senator Booth, of California, to make the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States participants in the counting of the electoral vote of the several States, struck us as being possessed of much merit. It has more fairness in it than any scheme yet put forward by the Republican side, and reflects great credit upon the sagacity of the California Senator.

The great and staunch reform element of the nation, desires no victory at the cost of self-abasement or degradation in the eyes of posterity. It has long toiled in obscurity and courts no success but one that will be lasting. If we win this election on a trick or technicality, then we may look for an overwhelming defeat in 1880. There are cases in which a victory proves only a temporary advantage, ultimately resulting in defeat and dishonor.

The bonanza stocks are down to the bottom of the pit, California being quoted at 30 1/4. This panic enables Flood & O'Brien to scoop in all the small stockholders; and when that is accomplished, look out for the "Spring rise."

At last the telegrams in the election cases are to be begun up. Orton might as well submit first as last, or a postal telegraph bill would materially affect the value of his watered telegraph stocks.

Grant's playing fast-and-loose with Packard in the Louisiana affair. Hesen Packard word that he will help him and then he does not want to be understood as recognizing anybody in particular.

James Gordon Bennett, who would be called the "Professor" if he were to travel on the Dakota, is now in Florida. He is accompanied by four friends and "May be happy yet."

Peter Larkin, for many years a ringer of the fire alarm bells in San Francisco, is to be hung to-day at Virginia City, Nevada, for murder. He is about 53 years of age.

Henry Rhodes, of Victoria, is now in Ottawa, for the purpose of obtaining increased mail service between San Francisco and Victoria.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 16.--The Pacheco-Wigginton mandamus case was argued before the Supreme Court to-day and taken under advisement.

Jan. 17.--The Supreme Court has rendered no decision in the Pacheco-Wigginton case. The general opinion of the bar is that an elaborate decision is being prepared, which will be a finality in the case.

Throughout to-day it has been raining at intervals lightly, with sky densely overcast, wind westerly. In the afternoon it cleared up partially, but soon clouded up again: Towards night the wind hailed to the south and blew freshly; barometer steadily falling all day.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17. -- The Sierra Nevada Mining Co. held their annual meeting to-day. The old trustees were re-elected. The only income for the year has been from assessment from which five of $100,000 each have been collected. This has been expended, and there is an indebtedness of $23,400.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

More Snow--New Years Calls--Scenes at the White House--The President and Mrs. Grant--Something for the Ladies--Diplomatists and Army Officers--What "well dressed" may stand for--The lame, the halt, and the blind.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3, 1877. Not since 1859 has Washington experienced anything like the furious snow storm, which, commencing on New Years eve, continued uninterruptedly for upwards of thirty-six hours, covering streets and areas with from eighteen to thirty inches depth of that "beautiful snow," which it is pleasant enough to read about and admire in the abstract, sitting by a cosy fireside, but extremely unpleasant to have to wade through when making New Year's calls.

Naturally, the centre of attraction on New Years day was the White House, where the President held his last annual levee preparatory to withdrawing to private life after the 4th of March next. As usual on such occasions, the curtains of all the rooms were drawn and the chandeliers lighted, and the air was redolent with the perfume of numerous bouquets, attractively disposed in vases and jardiniere. The Marine Band, consisting of thirty-six pieces, was stationed in an alcove in the Hall outside the Blue Room, and discoursed sweet music during the reception, which lasted from eleven o'clock till one.

The President, attired a la riveur in black broadcloth, white vest and white cravat, and Mrs. Grant dressed in a superb toilette of black Lyons velvet, cut en train and trimmed with jet and lace, were stationed on the east side of the Blue Room; on Mrs. Grant's right was her daughter, Mrs. Sartoris, known in former days as "Nellie," and next to her was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Grant. Ranged behind them, were the wife and daughter of ex-Senator Carpenter's cousin, Miss Drexel, daughter of the well known Philadelphia banker, and Mrs. and Miss Paul, also of Philadelphia. These ladies formed a pretty and interesting group of which the little daughter of Mrs. Fred Grant, a bright baby only six months old, was the center-piece.

peraded by the dark blue dress coats and cooked hats of our naval heroes, who, led by Admiral Porter, paid their respects to the Chief Executive and Mrs. Grant with that grace and courtesy of manner for which they have always been noted, both at home and abroad.

But the most amusing, if least showy reception was that of the "public," and id omni genus. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the crowd of plebeians was smaller than usual, but there were enough to keep the President's hand and arm going like a pump-handle without a moment's interruption for upwards of an hour. Men and women, young and old, rich and poor, and white and colored, were jostled together in their eagerness to wish the President of the United States a "Happy New Year," in a truly Republican manner; and General Grant, as well as Mrs. Grant, had a polite bow and a hand-shake for them all. Invalids on crutches, blind men led by boys, decrepit old negroes, and boot-blacks and news-boys were among this crowd, for the doors of the Executive Mansion stood open to all well-dressed persons; and as regards the exact meaning of this phrase, the ushers seemed willing to stretch a point. So that if a man did not appear in his shirt-sleeves, he might be considered "well dressed," and this broad latitude was taken advantage of to the utmost. For upwards of an hour, this stream of miscellaneous humanity continued to flow through the Blue Room, past the President, and into the East Room, where it dissolved.

To-morrow, the first annual "State Dinner" will come off, to which only the Cabinet and attaches of the foreign legation had been invited, because the State Dining-room will only seat thirty-six guests. At the next, which will take place about a month hence, the members of the Supreme Court and Court of Claims will be invited.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 25th, 1876. DR. People are well acquainted with me, and believe what I say in regard to my cure, and I gladly recommend the WIGHTMAN PROCESS to them, as I have full confidence in your remedy. Local News.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

BIBLE MEETING.—At the Union Bible meeting in the Congregational Church last Sunday evening a very large audience was assembled, thereby evincing their interest in the bible cause. Dexter Horton, the President of the King county branch of the Territorial Bible Society, presided. There were brief five-minute addresses from the city pastors,—Revs. Ellis, Wirth, Atwood, Bagley and Macree, all touching upon the importance of the study of the "Word." And Rev. P. C. Hetzler, the Agent of the Bible Society for Oregon and Washington, briefly and pointedly presented the merits of the work of publishing and distributing the Bible, after which a collection was taken up, amounting to about $35. The report of the Treasurer was read, showing that Bibles to the amount of $38 85 had been sold and donated during the year. The following officers of the Society were elected for the ensuing year: President, B. A. Hill; Vice Presidents, the resident city pastors; Treasurer, D. Bagley; Secretary, F. H. Whitworth. Members of the Executive Committee, D. Horton, J. C. Sanderson and Robert Knipe.

COMPLAINTS.—We have had several complaints come to us from some of our leading citizens in relation to the changes that have been made concerning the teachers of our public schools. Do the parties interested wish a full expose on the subject? If, as from the testimony it appears to us, such proves to be the case, the public may look out for a pyrotechnic display of hot shot from this quarter—quarter, none will be given or asked by good citizens in such a case as this.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.—The total number of transfers filed for record in Auditor's office of King county for the year 1876, was 1,350, including 11 leases, 90 bills of sale, 240 mortgages and 1,009 deeds. The average sum for which mortgages were drawn is estimated at $500 each, and for deeds $400. The aggregate amount represented by these deeds and mortgages was over $500,000.

NEW SHIPPING MASTER.—Mr. Jas. Balchin, late steward of the Fauntleroy, proposes to enter in the shipping, and also the intelligence business. In the latter Seattle will meet the fulfillment of a long felt want; in the former, Mr. Balchin, with 35 years sea experience, will fill the bill.

MAIL SERVICE.—A telegram was received yesterday, by Bailey Gatzert, Esq., from Delegate Jacobs, announcing that a semi-weekly mail from Seattle to La Conner had been ordered by the Department to commence March 1st. This increase of mail service will be hailed by our citizens with joy.

NEW TUG.—The Freeport mill company have purchased of Goodall, Nelson & Perkins, the staunch little steam propeller Donald, heretofore running from San Francisco to southern coast ports. The Donald is 105 feet in length, 23 feet breadth of beam and 12 feet deep.

PERSONAL.—Hill Harmon, Esq., the genial and popular "hotelier" of Steilacoom is in town. Dr. Paul M. Brennan has taken a suit of rooms in the Tremont building. E. F. Dollarhide, the well known photographer, returned from San Francisco on the Dakota.

TAXES UNPAID.—Only about one-half of the taxes of King county for 1876 have been paid thus far, the amount remaining due being somewhere in the neighborhood of $21,000.

SOCIABLE.—The Baptists of this city extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend their next sociable, which occurs on the 17th inst., at the Baptist Church.

SOCIABLE.—We again call notice to the sociable to be given by the Presbyterian Church Society, this evening. An enjoyable time may be anticipated.

APPOINTMENT.—J. H. Wilbur has been appointed Indian Agent at Yakima, Washington Territory.

THE SCHOOLS.—Prof. Ingraham, under the authority of the School Directors of the district, commenced school in the University building, this morning, with an attendance of 60 pupils. This is a sensible course on the part of the Board, as by this action they save at least $20 per month. However, a meeting of citizens of the School District has been called for Saturday evening, when the action of the board will doubtless be fully endorsed. Misses Clayton and Bean have been assigned positions in the Central School.

FAST.—Dr. Eggers, fourteen years ago, says the Echo, gave Hon. Elwood Evans two Lombardy poplars, about the size of a lady's riding whip. One of them—a noble tree—was felled recently. Two feet from the ground the stump measured thirty inches in diameter; and the trunk, with such of the branches as could be utilized, made about two cords of fire-wood.

GAY TIMES.—After the social party given for the benefit of the insane inmates of the Steilacoom Asylum, the citizens enjoyed the rest of the night in tripping the light fantastic toe. Dr. Sparling is evidently determined to keep up to his army record, and enjoy to the utmost in peace, the fruits of war.

NEW RESTAURANT.—Last evening, by invitation, we partook, in our reportorial capacity, of a nice tenderloin beef steak at Philpott's restaurant on Occidental square. He demonstrated by ocular proof that all customers will be served as were we.

PASSED THROUGH.—Billy Arlington, the well known minstrel, passed through here yesterday on his way to Portland, where he will open the Orofino Theatre as a melodeon.

From the Daily of Thursday.

SOLLEE DANSANTE.—The party of the season, was the one which took place at Yessler's Hall last night, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Boat Club. This association consists of Miss Lou Shinn, Miss I. G. Bowden, Miss Vivian Hyde, Mrs. J. S. Hill and Miss Constance Kuttner. The latter young lady has been spending some months here with her sister, Mrs. Mundt, and goes down by the Dakota to-morrow to make a visit of three or four months. Well, these young ladies commenced inviting their legion of friends and soon found that Reinig's Hall would be too small for them; so they hired the Pavilion, and set about decorations. Their invitations were verbal but the responses were almost unanimous. The dancing began at a little before 9 p. m., to Brotherhood's excellent music, and continued to a very late hour. It was a very pretty compliment to a very agreeable young lady; for whose speedy return to Seattle, more than one of our bachelor friends will steadfastly pray.

THE TACOMA MILL.—John W. Ackerson, resident managing partner of the firm of Hanson & Ackerson, has just put in a new gang saw, which is said to be the latest thing in this line. Instead of working at a direct perpendicular as most sash-saws do, it is set with the "gibbs" at an incline, so that the saws come down with a forward motion and rise with a backward stroke, thus cleaning the cut as the saws work and preventing their choking. It is driven by a new engine, set upon a heavy iron casting that weighs over four tons. It will be a great auxiliary to the success of the mill.

PERSONALITIES.—Capt. L. M. Starr was in town yesterday, looking at the repairs on the Annie Stewart. J. B. Montgomery, the Napoleon of contractors, has been staying in town for a couple of days and goes to Port Townsend to-day. Dean Blanchard, of Rainier, is taking a stroll about Seattle and watching the chances. Hill Harmon, of Steilacoom, is in town with some of his family. He leaves for San Francisco on the Dakota, and has our best wishes for a safe return.

OPENING A LETTER.—A man named Francisco Watrigan was arrested yesterday and taken before Justice Selve, on the charge of opening a letter addressed to another party. The Justice, finding that there was no foundation for the complaint, discharged the prisoner.

NEARLY ONE.—The village of Belltown, lying to the northward of Seattle, which was started up by William N. Bell, Esq., a little over two years ago, was at first regarded as a chimerical scheme of a visionary and somewhat enthusiastic old gentleman. But the old pioneer is a shrewd observer and knew very well what kind of grounds are required for residences. He knew that men of business do not want to live in the very same house nor on the same street where they toil, for we all must win by labor of some sort. And as the value of lots forbid the erection of residences near the wharves, men must either climb hills or go to the northward, as the south end of the town will, when the Seattle & Walla Walla railroad is complete, be the location for foundries and shops of all kinds. At first, every man who moved to Belltown was the subject of condolence. Now Belltown lots are in demand and the once dense forest is the site of new homes. We walked down there yesterday, and the welcome din of hammer and saw greeted our ear on every side. Burning stumps in every direction, bespoke the advent of gardens and orchards in the future; while the continuation of buildings along the street is such that one can hardly tell where Seattle leaves off or Belltown begins. We half begin to look forward to the day when we shall reside in the northern suburb and hurry to close our labors by eleven at night, so as to catch the last street car for Belltown.

THE FREEPORT TUG.—The steamer Donald, which has been purchased by the Freeport Milling Company, is one of the staunchest little crafts ever built. She was originally constructed for a gunboat and after the war was sold to Moss & Beadle, of San Francisco; and she derives her name from Mr. Donald Beadle, of that firm. She was sold in 1871 to Goodall, Nelson & Perkins, who have since kept her in the Half Moon Bay and Tomales trades. But she had an expensive boiler for her engines and consumed large quantities of fuel. Since her purchase by the Freeport Company, she has had that boiler torn out and replaced by one which gives increased heating surface and saves fuel. With this tug at their disposal, the Freeport Company will be enabled to handle their own vessels and not depend upon the convenience of tugs owned by other companies. This of course will greatly expediate the dispatch of their vessels. Capt. E. L. Marshall, the former master of the bark Moneynick, is the resident partner here and says that one good tug is worth a dozen little puffing-pigs that cannot handle a big vessel in a hard blow. We sincerely hope the Donald may realize all his expectations in this respect.

CHAMPIONS OF THE RED CROSS.—An encampment of Champions of the Red Cross, was organized at Good Templers' Hall on Tuesday evening by Grand Counselor W. H. Arnell, of Port Townsend, assisted by J. H. Munson and Mrs. A. R. Ellicott, of Olympia, with a full list of twenty-five charter members.—The following is a list of the officers for the term ending June 30th: R. C. Graves, Commander; Mrs. Libbie Ward, Junior Commander; Kirk C. Ward, Recording Secretary; R. H. Denny, Captain of the Host; J. H. Waugh, Financial Secretary; Miss Jennie Wright, Treasurer; Mrs. E. L. Hall, Inside Guard; J. H. Hill, Outside Guard; Benj. A. Hill, Chaplain; Mrs. Mary E. Bond, C. of R. C.; Mrs. L. C. Calvert, M. of C.; Mrs. Isobel Parker, L.; Mrs. Ada D. Blackman, C.; E. Calvert, G.; J. T. Price, P. C. The encampment was named Western Star. Its meetings will be held every Monday evening and deserves the encouragement and support of all friends of good morals in the community.

CONTRIBUTIONS.—We are requested to say, in behalf of Rev. Mr. Hetzler, that the contribution at the Bible Society meeting on Sunday evening last, was $38 50 instead of $24 47, as previously reported. Since then Mr. Hetzler has received from other sources sufficient to swell the amount to fifty dollars. From the interest manifested at the meeting on Sunday night last, Mr. Hetzler thinks he has reached a good field for the progress of the Bible Society.

ARTIFICIAL STONE.—The strange warfare that has been going on in the Victoria papers for some days, over the merits of Leathers' Artificial Stone, culminated on Monday last by the commencement of singular proceedings against Col. J. H. Thorp, one of the patentees. He left Victoria more than a week ago, his wife remaining behind. On the North Pacific last Tuesday, Mrs. Thorp was a passenger to Tacoma, where she took the cars for Kalama and Portland. On the same train were two gentlemen—not of Verona but of Victoria, who were exceedingly anxious to obtain an interview with the aforesaid Col. Thorp. They visited every newspaper office along the route and inserted advertisements to caution people from negotiating certain promissory notes given to the said J. H. Thorp and L. L. Leathers, which notes they claim he discounted at one-half their face. They regarded this as a most singular way of obtaining money, and began to think they had exchanged their sovereigns for a very queer article. What the merits or demerits of the case may be, it is hard to say. We are no architects, and never did a day's work outside of a newspaper office or a steamboat, in our life. Hence, we have no right to say one word, for or against it. There are some twenty-eight or thirty patents for artificial stone in America, of which the Frear patent is the one generally in use. That men of standard business reputation, like Messrs. Davies, Sayward, and their associates, must necessarily be surprised to find their paper hawked off at fifty cents upon the dollar, is not to be wondered at. Nor is the supposition an unnatural one, that property obtained under such circumstances, would be regarded dear at half the money. One thing which militated very much against Messrs. Thorp & Leathers was their love of display and the profusion of jewelry they wore. It does not require a gallon of whisky per hour to persuade sane men to purchase anything of standard value; nor does the giving of charitable raffles, entitle a man to be considered responsible alone. Messrs. Thorp & Leathers may be men of honest intentions, and we know nothing to the contrary. But their haste to leave the country with anything they could realize from the notes of first-rate business men, was naturally calculated to engender suspicion in the minds of anybody.

MARRIED.—Capt. Thos. A. Wright, the popular commander of the Zephyr, was to have been united in matrimony last night to Miss Olivia G. O'Brien, of Olympia. The bride is one of the many belles that have adorned Olympia society for the past four years, and the happy couple will enter upon their new life with the good wishes of all who know them. As the Captain is one of our earliest friends, we fling the old slipper of good luck after him and his bride.

MASQUERADE.—As the carnival season opens we are apprised of two masquerade balls, which are to take place, one at Port Townsend and the other here. That at the entree will be on the 22d February under the management of Capt. Jas. M. Selden, J. J. Hunt and other well-known citizens, whose names are a sufficient guarantee of its success. The one in this city comes off on the 13th of next month and will be gotten up by the Sing-Verein Germania. Among the managers it is only necessary to mention the names of Messrs. Maydenbauer, Reinig, Wald, Naeher, Gatzert, Levy and Piper, to insure a carnival of fun, unmarred by the slightest approach to vulgarity or the intrusion of any person whom the most fastidious of our citizens would exclude from their drawing-rooms. The Sing Verein are entitled to the patronage, on this occasion, of all who love refined music and believe in the cultivation of esthetic tastes. As long as the crags of the Drachenfels rise above the blue Rhein, so long shall German song find its echo in the hearts of the men who have left the land of "Unser Fritz" to assist in building up our Western empire of free labor.

FELL OVERBOARD.—At Victoria the other evening, says the Colonist, as two ladies were in the act of going aboard the steamer Maude for Nanaimo, one of them walked off the end of the foot gang-plank and fell between the wharf and the steamer into the water. Mr. Morris, mate of the Maude, hearing screams, seized a boathook and succeeded in hooking the lady's dress as she was sinking for the third time. He sustained her above the surface until Mr. Scott, the steward, came, when the two succeeded in rescuing the lady in a half drowned state. On the following day, as the North Pacific was leaving, a gentleman ran down the wharf in a great hurry as the steamer was swinging away from the wharf and backing on her stern line. The gentleman made a very wild jump and fell short, striking his head against the boat's guard (being off his own guard) and inflicting a severe contusion. He dragged himself on board and was soon none the worse for his accident. Moral—when you are too late for a side-wheel boat always get aboard at the stern.

Summons.

In the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Washington, holding Terms at the City of Seattle, in and for the Counties of King and Kitsap. Eliza Olive Pennell, Plaintiff, vs. Richard K. Pennell, Defendant. Complaint filed in the County of King, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court, of the United States of America and Greeting to Richard K. Pennell, Defendant. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the District Court of the Territory of Washington, holding Terms at the City of Seattle, in the County of King, for the Counties of King and Kitsap, and answer the complaint filed therein, within twenty days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this Summons, or if served within the said County of King, or if served out of that County, but in this District within thirty days, otherwise within sixty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of the complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree of divorce, forever fully and finally dissolving the bonds of matrimony, now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, so that the relation of husband and wife shall no longer exist between them, in the ground of abandonment of plaintiff by the defendant for more than one year, and for other and further grounds of divorce in said complaint fully set forth. The said plaintiff also claims custody of the children of said plaintiff and defendant. And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will cause your default to be entered, and thereafter apply to the Court for the relief demanded in her said complaint. NOT FREEHOLDERS.

Judge Lewis has created a sensation at Stillscoom court by excusing grand jurors who were single men.

The ruling might at the first blush be regarded as absurd. Were it not that Judge Lewis is one of those men who believe that the surest way to repeal obnoxious laws, is to insist upon their enforcement, we should think that Judge Lewis was addicted to hair-splitting.

We were not favorably impressed with Judge Lewis on a first acquaintance, but his frank and manly ways are calculated to disarm prejudice and make him friends where he least expects them.

There is a prospect of the immediate passage of the salmon-hatching bill introduced by the Republican Senator from Oregon.

The difficulties of the Lick estate have all been amicably arranged, and John H. Lick goes back to Pennsylvania with his pocket full of spandulix.

The Oregonian suggests that some of its country exchanges take down their political poney, as they look frost-bitten.

The little town of Ashland, Jackson county, Oregon, where we taught school seven years ago, was then a dull and dreary little village.

The Coos County Record, organized to break up the Coos Bay News, has for a second time failed of its mission.

A SPECK OF WAR.

Things begin to look like a resort to arms, and we regret to see it. Louisiana has her militia, armed by her lawfully elected Governor, Nichols, to protect the Treasury against the machinations of the rascal Kellogg and his tool, Packard.

We don't apprehend an outbreak from anything that has yet transpired. "It is one thing to fight a mob and another to fight the people," as General Sherman remarked to the Governor of California in 1856.

The action of Judge Wheeler, of San Francisco, in granting perpetual injunction against the News Letter's ever mentioning the name of Frederick Clay's bogus banking operations, is a piece of downright tyranny.

Senator Booth, of California, has delivered the great speech of the season in the United States Senate. It is not only replete with patriotic sentiment, but as a literary production it is worthy of special admiration.

If anything was wanting to prove the mildness of our Territorial winters, the fact that we reached the 13th day of January before a single flake of snow fell, should tell the whole story.

Flax-seed is becoming a great staple of the Walla Walla valley. The Salem oil factory pays the farmers two cents per pound for the flaxseed, besides furnishing the seed for the crop.

Suppose Grant did send soldiers down to "bull-dose" the elections in South Carolina, is that any reason why a man should buy a candle to hunt for a lost roll of silver and find only a clay pipe?

Snow.—The "frozen tears of Heaven" fell thickly last night, for the first time this winter.

EPH HORN.

DEATH OF A CALIFORNIA PIONEER MINSTREL.

On the second day of the present month, in New York, died one of the most remarkable men that ever lived. We do not claim that his was an example worthy of imitation, like that of many men whose lives have been sketched in these columns; but he certainly was the quaintest being we ever knew.

Or "Eph," as he was familiarly called by professional associates and the play-going public, was born in Philadelphia in 1815 and grew up in obscurity. His father was a Welshman, while his mother came from the Emerald Isle.

The remaining three performing on fiddles and banjos. Burnt cork was no novelty even in those days, for "Daddy Rice" had been jumping "Jim Crow" all over England for six years previously.

At a salary of a dollar a day. He was not long in pulling out the ribs from corned beef and converting them into custanets. One night, while practicing in his room, he broke one of the bones and was obliged to supply its place with a piece of oak wood from the back of an old chair.

In connection with Earl Pierce, the original "Pompey" of Christy's Minstrels. Pierce dissolved the connection in 1852 and when we came to San Francisco in 1854, we found Horn playing at San Francisco Hall, afterwards the site of Maguire's Opera House.

Who procured him an engagement in Wood's Minstrels. After he came to San Francisco under engagement to Maguire he offended Eph Horn about something and they did not speak. One night, Horn was ready to go the stage in one of his eccentric acts and Henry was standing in the wing, so that Horn could not pass him.

Yet a complete child of Nature. Education he had none, for he could not write his own name on the day he died, though he could read a little. It was slow work for him and he has been known to give a boy a quarter to read the New York Clipper aloud to him.

By his old associate Samuel Adams Wells, the greatest basso and "middle man" that ever wore cork on his face, Wells was a man of splendid education and a grandson of Samuel Adams, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

He once had a row with a San Francisco manager who paid him all the salary he owed him for past performances, but cancelled his engagement which had six months to run.

and for whom we entertain the most lasting respect. The old office on Montgomery street was a queer little den, to be sure. Mr. Chase, now a bonanza man worth $200,000,

And acted as foreman of the newspaper. One day Eph Horn came in and got some tickets worked for his benefit, to take place two days later. The day was rather warm, and as Horn went out he inquired if the programmes had been printed yet.

They are not done yet sir," said Mr. Chase in his usual polite way. "How's this," cried Horn; "when I was here this morning Mr. Merry said they would be ready at two."

Replied Mr. Chase with some severity. "He's here to help edit a newspaper, and not to run a job office. It's a pretty good man, who does what he is paid to do," he added tartly.

He darted out of the door at a rate in which a game of casino could have been played on his coat-tails. He was not gone more than ten minutes before he came back with a pair of white linen pants on his person.

Upon a portion of his figure where his eyes could not reach. Chase and ourselves roared with laughter as the serious comedian pulled on his long tailed coat and started down the stairs.

Together with his passion for gambling, kept him continually poor. He liked a man at all, and that man asked a loan, he was just as apt to give him twenty dollars as two and a half.

One of the octagon gold pieces that have now disappeared from circulation. In reply to our remark that we never desired any such pay for a few hours' work, Horn said "Well, my boy, I guess you'd better take it and keep it—"

Or he would exclaim "An honest man is bound to win in the long run—by industry we thrive." His drollery never forsook him. A fellow named Laughland was a pensioner on Horn's mistaken charity for years.

He once had a row with a San Francisco manager who paid him all the salary he owed him for past performances, but cancelled his engagement which had six months to run.

HIS OLD NIGGER

Was the root from whence sprang all the since famous performances of Billy Emerson, Charley Howard and Dan Bryant. Such a make-up as it was. Who ever saw him in the "Power of Music" and forgot the wonderfully master-like way in which the aged individual from "way down Souf" evinced his love for the banjo?

Mrs. Harriet Schrecker Blowe, As he styled her. The old black pokebonnet, the white handkerchief in Quaker style, the reticule with a bottled labelled "Gin" in it, all bespoke the painstaking performer who had made himself the high priest of absurdity.

He was put to a practical use some years ago. He originated a society eligible only to showmen, minstrels and actors, called the "Benevolent Order of American Elks," by which money is given to the performer himself during sickness and an annuity secured to his widow after the member's death.

Just two days, having outlived nearly all the great performers of his era. For the past five years he had been supported by the charity of his brother professionals. He survived Sam Wells, the polished gentleman and sparkling wit; Sherwood Campbell, the graceful and elegant vocalist, who was fitly named the "Santley of America"; Nelse Seymour, who was Horn's nearest rival in eccentric delineations; George Christy, whose performances in black face, equalled those of Burton in white; Mat Peel, the greatest "sassy nigger" ever on any stage; and last and best of all, dear general Dan Bryant, the kindest and gentlest of men.

Around the corner," on the day that poor old Horn was laid under the snow. What an array of wit and talent must have gathered about the bier, to take a last look at the departed clay whose face will never be blackened again. Life is at best but a mask. Some of us get "on the end," while others plod along and are content to carry a "stuffed club" till the curtain rings down.

Must ring for us all, ere long. Let us see that if we are not "dead-letter perfect," we are at least free from imperfections that result from vicious associations. It cost probably $2,000 to telegraph this poor idiotic creature's death from one end of the Union to the other; and as much more to publish it in the thousands of papers that take press telegrams. He had received twenty times that sum during his life-time, but had squandered it all. He had made a score of managers rich, but died in abject poverty. Let it be a lesson to us then, that we take care of the profits on our labor and do not "sow for others to reap."

HOW THE BULLS AND BEARS WORK.

When the tablets of the law were first handed to the great Hebrew patriarch, on Mount Sinai, the world was young and society in a rather primitive condition.

That the foregoing commandment is good law, cannot be denied. But that it is equal to meeting the numerous complications that have arisen in this enlightened era, no one will pretend.

And the "Christian Soldier," who got away with the darkies' small change, had not yet come into the world, "mewing and puking into his nurse's arms."

The most enlightened and refined method of stealing of the present day, is in operating silver mines. The most refined method of gambling is to be a broker or operator in the stocks or shares of these mines.

Did not frequent the abodes of Prince Monte and King Faro. But with stocks, the most infatuated victims are the young men of good families, whose fathers toiled hard to amass enough wealth to enable their sons to live in idleness.

Would only be too happy to unlock the door for Jim Keene or Bonyng, the 729th survivor of the "Charge of the Six Hundred."

Of a mushroom age. Out of some sixty millionaires of San Francisco, about half a dozen have got rich by legitimate business, and the balance by so-called speculation.

Of Brokers, was started by a few soreheads, the members of the old Board combined the audacity of Jack Shepherd with the invulnerability of Achilles, himself.

the purchases on their shirt cuffs and if stocks were in the rise, never report to their partners in the office. But if the market fell before adjournment, every transaction was reported at the office with the most faithful accuracy.

He is the most reckless of speculators and the most constant of friends. Ten years ago he caused a friend to sink eight thousand dollars in Hale & Norcross. The unlucky man kept out of sight till about the time of the first rise in Con. Virginia.

Who keeps the Grand Hotel bar in partnership with the heir-at-law of Falstaff--Pete Hopkins. Paul has all of Badd's gratitude to his friends and is a more cautious operator, in the bargain.

Which he put into the partnership against their capital. Five months later the firm was in the condition which the Maoris of Australia call "puckarapu"--that is "ruptured."

And has never touched stocks since. He bought a few sailing vessels and is content with a legitimate living. The curse of stock-gambling pervades all classes of society.

So they are mum. In this way a few men, like Sharon, Flood, O'Brien, Baldwin, Hayward and Jim Keene, bleed the city to the tune of a million dollars per month.

Chief owners in the Bullion and Exchange mines at Gold Hill. Hayward tried it last summer and slipped up. Everything in the shape of a dirty conspiracy was tried and had to be abandoned.

At the best, and Jim Fair's operations are such that people ask what has become of the other thirty-nine? Haward was once enormously rich and rode over everybody.

There may be a "skeleton in every house" but some of these wealthy San Francisco families appear to have their own private dissecting-rooms. Let us warn the young against these entanglements.

The "Centennial" and the National Gold Medal were awarded to Bradley & Rolofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna medal for the best in the world.

The Funny Darkies.

The indigenes humorist of the Atlanta (Ga) Constitution is certainly the most fluent of all dialect writers. He has an ease of style about him that few men possess, nothing in his humor being forced or labored.

We asked Amos how his boy was getting on at school. "Leg take dat boy, I done tuck him 'way from that school!" "Why, what for?" "Uh, oh! he waz gittin' mos' too smart down dar wid dat book larin'."

"Yes, sah, I did dat! Why, Boss, ef dat boy hed kep dat book on me tell now he'd done own dat bous an' gyardin patch an' bin 'chargin' me an' ole mammy fer bed an' bread! I tell yer dis hyar book-larin' is unip' dis young breed ob niggers, 'tis shore!"

They were playing poker and Pomp held a full hand. His eyes glistened with conscious triumph as he put up a ten-cent ante and gazed at his partner expectantly.

"Not by a long chalk. Dis case will now be referred to de returnin' board, who will examine into de particulars." "Dar's plenty more good cards in de pack, and why didn't I get 'em."

Then the other side deemed the right of the returning board to decide, and when the reporter left the horrible demon of civil war was dancing a wild dance in the neighborhood, and a policeman was marching up to mediate with a club.

[FROM THE DAILY OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15.—The Evening Democrat, referring to the probability of Gov. Packard's attempting to regain the courts and stations, says Packard, however, is playing a dangerous game. The patience of this people is well-nigh exhausted; and if they are forced into a conflict which is calculated and designed to again rob them of the government of their choice and the blessings of an honest and efficient administration, they will be difficult to restrain; and we, for one, hope no hand will be able to restrain it. If Packard forces this conflict, we appeal to our friends to spare, as far as final and complete victory will permit, the lives of metropolitans and negro dupes. We advise them to let the full wrath of their vengeance fall upon the leaders of this iniquitous, murderous and most damnable scheme, and follow Packard into his hotel, and, if need be, into the custom-house itself, and hang him from the highest window.

The committee considered the East Feliciana case, but found nothing startling. The Senate sub-committee took West Feliciana and the House committee heard general testimony as to the correctness of Sherman's report. Gov. Kellogg testified at some length concerning supervisors and their appointments. He declared that Morgan had perjured himself in his testimony concerning conversations between witness, Anderson, and himself, and gave a description of Morgan showing him in the light of an adventurer and black-mailer.

The World's New Orleans special says that Pinchback to-day received telegrams from Chandler and Morton asking him and his friends to retrace their steps. He answered that he could not do so; and, when they should learn the reason for his course, they would justify him. Tonight he is in conference with the Republicans of the Senate committee, who are much distressed by what has taken place. Wadleigh and Oglesby did not sign the telegram asking for the recognition of the Packard government. They say, if the Legislature will pass a joint resolution not to interfere with the re-canvas of the electoral vote, they will join in the application for the recognition of the Nichols government. A resolution to that effect will be introduced to-morrow. Pitkin left for Washington two days ago, with affidavits manufactured at the State House and some samples of custom-house affidavits taken before the Senate committee. Casey left last night in pursuit of Pitkin, with the object of circumventing him at Washington.

It is ascertained that four more Senators and members of the House will come into the legal Legislature to-morrow. Great efforts are making here to prevent a re-canvas of the electoral vote.

The Times' Washington special says President Grant has no doubt as to the legality of the Packard government; he thinks it cannot be questioned.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Early this morning a heavy snow storm, accompanied by a violent northeast wind, set in and has continued up to midnight to-night, without diminishing in violence. The street cars have managed to keep their tracks clear through for occasional trips, and railroads have not been completely stopped, but all of them have been delayed greatly, and probably some freight trains will be laid off to-night. Advices from several stations in the west show that the storm is great and that from one to three feet of snow are on the ground.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The World's special from Pittsburg places the loss there by floating ice at $3,000,000; 400 coal barges and nine steamboats destroyed. The loss of life was small, only three or four fatalities being reported, but there were many miraculous escapes. The ice piled up 20 and 30 feet in places. Alleghany river did not break up. This circumstance saved millions of property and many lives, as both rivers gaging at one would have submerged large portions of Pittsburg and Alleghany.

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—The Advertiser to-morrow will declare that the statement that President Seelye would accept the Massachusetts senatorship is without authority from him.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—The Tribune's St. Paul special says: Forsythe, the alleged ineligible elector, states he has taken out his first papers, besides becoming naturalized under the act of 1848. The Democrats claim they can make out a case showing him not elected on account of ineligibility.

BUFFALO, Jan. 15.—The late snow storm has so completely blocked Eastern roads that no live stock has been sent from this point for the Eastern market since Friday.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The Times' Washington special says the almost universal belief is that all efforts to make any arrangement in advance of the time for making the count will be fruitless, and that at last the President of the Senate must himself count the vote. The opinion is gaining converts rapidly that he has the right, under the constitution and in the absence of legislation, to perform this function; and not only this, but that it is his imperative duty to make the count.

DETROIT, Jan. 17.—T. W. Ferry was to-day re-elected U. S. Senator by a unanimous Republican vote in the Assembly.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The Tribune's Washington special says Democrats and Republicans alike consider that the President's dispatch recognizes Packard as Governor of Louisiana, despite his statement that he did not intend to be thus understood.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15.—A Times' extra says: Judge Shaw has issued a writ of habeas corpus, requiring the sheriff to produce the assistant sergeant-at-arms, now in the parish prison, who were arrested by Baylaw's police, and while attempting to arrest senators at Pinchback's house.

The sixth district court has issued an order to Sheriff Handy, reciting that one S. B. Packard, a wicked and shameless impostor, has issued a proclamation, and that considering his pretensions to be governor have no foundation except in that he pretends to be supported by irresistible power of the national government, it is ordered that the civil sheriff of this parish, Handy, provide sufficient force to guard this court from any violence or intrusion.

Sheriff Bourges, representing the Supreme Court, over which Chief Justice Ludeling presides, made a demand for the court house this morning, which was refused. The court house is now held by three companies of Nichols' militia, and the first precinct station by a battery of the same forces.

SPRINGFIELD, (Ill.) Jan. 16.—This morning, in the House, Mr. Morrison nominated John A. Logan as candidate for U. S. Senator. Cook and others seconded the nomination. Perrington nominated Gov. John M. Palmer; Herron, in behalf of the Independents in the House, nominated Judge David Davis. In the Senate Logan and Haller were nominated, and Gen. Anderson by the Independents. The first informal ballot resulted in the House—Logan 77, Palmer 67, Davis 70; in the Senate—Logan 20, Palmer 22, Anderson 6, Washington 1; Haynes not voting.

LATER.—The Speaker declared that Logan, having received a majority of all the votes in the House, was the choice of the House for Senator. Both Houses meet in joint ballot to-morrow, when Logan expects more votes.

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 16.—James G. Blaine has been elected U. S. Senator for the long and short terms. The vote for U. S. Senator, both for the short and long terms, was to-day taken in the Maine Legislature, and was precisely the same in both cases. In the Senate Blaine had 26 and Haynes 3; in the House Blaine had 113 and Haynes 31; a strict party legislature, and was precisely the same vote in both branches.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Col. Pelton said last evening he had no explanation to make; there was none to make regarding the $3,000 said to have been sent by him to Oregon. No check for that amount had been drawn; therefore none could be traced to him or any one else. Damon has told the entire story; it was simply a transfer of credit, which he (Damon) was the instrument of and of which he (Pelton) was cognizant from certain persons in this city to meet expenses believed to be growing out of the late election in that State.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times says advices received there confirm the impression that the Porte will, at the very last moment, accept the compromise offered by the powers. The compromise will probably prove to be that the Porte be asked to accept the programme, not as unalterable, but only as a sort of basis for discussion.

The Indian Office publishes a dispatch dated Jan. 1st from Lord Carnarvon, acting Under Secretary in the absence of Lord Salisbury, to Lord Lytton, Governor General of India. It requests that a weekly sum may be henceforth sent by telegraph, giving the main features in regard to the famine. Lord Carnarvon, summing up the information he had hitherto received, considers it alarming, and says that 840,000 persons are already employed on the relief works in Madras and 250,000 in the Bombay provinces. More estimates show that the famine in Bombay will gradually increase, reaching the maximum in April, when a million persons will require relief; after which it will gradually decrease. In Madras the prospect is proportionately worse. The districts affected in Madras cover eighty thousand square miles and contain a population of eighteen millions. In Bombay the famine-stricken territory covers 54,000 square miles and has a population of eight million, five millions of whom are in distress and more immediately affected.

PACIFIC COAST

Henry C. Bennett, ex-pension agent, convicted of embezzling the government money, was brought before the U. S. Circuit Court at two o'clock this afternoon for sentence. His counsel moved for arrest of judgment on the ground that the indictment does not state an offense under the statute. A motion was also made for a new trial, on the ground of insufficiency of evidence to justify the verdict. Judge Sawyer said he would examine the matter, and the sentence would stand over until Friday morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The street to-day is full of rumors of the failures of stock brokers and operators, but as yet only one unimportant case is verified, that of J. C. Duncan, of the Pacific Board, and well informed parties consider the worst about over.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Announcement is made of the failure of Hughes & Co., put and call stock brokers, who suspended payment Saturday last. The nucleus of the firm was Samuel McKee, who was at the head of the Put and Call establishment of McKee & Co., which failed about a year ago. The firm state their assets considerably in excess of liabilities, and the suspension only temporary.

In Admiralty.

United States of America, Territory of Washington, Third Judicial District, ss.—In the District Court for the Third Judicial District of Washington Territory, holding terms at Seattle.

Robert Johnson, vs. Bark Cambridge and A. McIntyre.—In Admiralty. Whereas a libel has been filed in the District Court for the Third Judicial District of Washington Territory holding terms at Seattle, on the 8th day of January, 1877, by Robert Johnson, libellant, against the American bark or vessel called the Cambridge, her tackle, apparel and furniture alleging in substance that on the 12th day of June, 1876, at Port Blakely, Kitsap county, Washington Territory, A. McIntyre, master of said vessel, did ship and hire the libellant to serve as able seaman on board said vessel, for the period of six months at $15 per month; that on August 12, 1876, libellant became seriously injured whereby his right hand was crushed and wholly and permanently injured, whereby libellant was and is wholly and permanently disabled and entirely incapacitated from ever again following his avocation as a seaman; which injury was caused by the gross and want of negligence and carelessness of the said A. McIntyre then master of the said vessel; that no part of his said wages have been paid except $70, and libellant claims $140 for balance of his wages and also the sum of $3,000 damages for said injury, and praying process against said bark or vessel called the Cambridge, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and that the same may be condemned and sold to pay the said demands of the said libellant with costs, charges and expenses. Now therefore, in pursuance of the monition, under the seal of the said court, to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said bark or vessel called the Cambridge, her tackle, apparel and furniture, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held at the City of Seattle, in the said Third Judicial District of Washington Territory, on the fifth Tuesday of January, A. D. 1877, to wit:—

January 30th, 1877, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of that day (provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction, otherwise on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter) then and there to interpose their claims, and to make their allegations in that behalf. Dated this 10th day of January, 1877. CHARLES HOPKINS, U. S. Marshal for Washington Territory. By L. V. Wycroft, Deputy. G. M. Bradshaw, Larabee, Hall & Andrews, Proctors for Libellant. 1613-2w

LOCAL NEWS.

From Daily of Friday.

THE DAKOTA.—This fine steamer leaves for Victoria and San Francisco this morning at 7, with the genial Morse in command. Porse Brewster will be found in the ticket office, with clerk Hoff in the freight department. The culinary affairs are in charge of Mr. Marin, while the "mill" is under the superintendence of that most incorrigible of all practical jokes, Wm. McClure. Her passenger list consists of Mrs. Couthrey, W. J. Harrington, Austin A. Bell, Dr. Angell, R. P. Shoecraft, Mrs. Rich and boy, Miss L. Wells, and six in the steerage. She also has the following cargo: 1,120 bags oats; 15 cords siave bolts; 30 empty kegs; 76 barrels oil; 250 wet hides, 6 bales wool, 26 packages chair stocks; 10 bales skias; 4 packages specie, valued at $5,000; assorted merchandise; 50 bags seed, 56 bags coal; 1 crate chickens.

SHIPPING MATTER.—Mr. Balchin, formerly attached to the U.S. schooner Fauntelroy, has opened a shipping and employment office in this city and publishes his business card in another column. In one particular this fills a long-needed want of our city—a general employment agency. Mr. Balchin will not only supply vessels with crews, but also obtain situations for farm-labors and mill-hands. He will also be able to fill orders for logging-hands, which will be a great aid to log and pile contractors. If well attended to, it must prove the nucleus of a very lucrative business.

PER WEATHER.—If ever there was weather calculated to put new blood in one's veins and new life in the heart, it was yesterday. The sharp frost of Wednesday night seemed to purify the atmosphere till the great Olympic range across the Sound, seemed as though it was no less than ten miles away. From Freeport and Blakely the great slab-fles sent up their smoke-breaths like pillars of cloud by day and fire by night, like the guide given by Providence to the Hebrew pilgrims of old.

THE FANNY LAKE.—This swift and commodious little steamer is making trips to the lower Sound every Tuesday and Friday. Capt. Hill is building up a large trade for his boat by being not only a good pilot, but a most accommodating gentleman. He saves the farmer's many a trip by doing their little errands and is making a good name for his boat.

CRAWFORD & HARRINGTON.—The junior member of this popular firm is among the Dakota's passengers hence, this morning for San Francisco. We commend him to the fatherly care and hospitality of the genial officers who preside over the several departments of about the last American styled steamer in these waters; and wish him also a safe and speedy return.

REMEMBER US.—Judge Jacobs sends us something from Congress by nearly every mail. Nearly every bill of importance, as well as the daily Congressional Record comes to our table by the courtesy of our Delegate, who will please accept our thanks.

UNFORTUNATE.—We regret to learn that Mr. James A. Gilliland has had the misfortune to lose two of his children, (probably by diphtheria.) He is telegraph operator at Laconner and his many friends sympathize with him in his heavy bereavement.

GOING BELOW.—Austin A. Bell, a former proprietor of this paper and for months our familiar associate in this office, goes below on the Dakota this morning and carries our good wishes with him. It is said that in the Sacramento valley, he hopes to find a lily to transplant in the garden of his northern home. Bon voyage!

CITY COUNCIL.—The municipal dads met last night and appointed D. T. Wheeler City Clerk. Bills to pay the expenses of the recent quarantine were allowed, and the Board adjourned till Wednesday evening next.

DRUNK.—A man who had over-beveraged himself and "sassed" the entire community, was fined $5 and costs by Justice Selye, yesterday.

MARINE.—The Goliath came up from Port Gamble last night to tow down the ship Washington Libby, the bark Aureola having previously sailed in tow of the Favorite. As there is clear northerly weather prevailing, she will probably keep the lead all the way to San Francisco. We regret that the Frithof and American Girl could not have got out together, as they are rival specimens of the architecture of Coos Bay and Puget Sound, as well as excellent sailors both. And while we claim Puget Sound to be the great ship-building section of the coast, we must do Coos Bay the justice to say that she is the only place which has any just pretensions to rivalry with us. Ship War Hawk, Capt. Doyle, sailed from Port Discovery, on Monday, with lumber. Barks Oregon and Columbia arrived at Port Townsend on the 17th, both destined for Seabeck. The bark Montana has arrived at San Francisco from Seattle. Also sailed from San Francisco for Sound ports—Ship Dashing Wave, Tacoma; bark Forest Queen, Port Ludlow; bark Lizzie Williams, Seattle; bark Powhattan, Port Gamble; bark Marmion and Wellington, for Nanaimo.

THREE HIGHLYEYS.—Three of the fastest sailing vessels ever built in America are now on their way to Puget Sound, two for lumber and one for coal. The first two are the bark Forest Queen and the ship Dashing Wave, bound for Tacoma and Port Ludlow, respectively. The coal ship is bound for this port, being no other than the renowned ship Western Shore, which made two trips from San Francisco in 101 and 104 days, and one from Liverpool to San Francisco in 110. We should like to see the whole three turn loose at Point Wilson together, going down.

NEW BOATERS.—Steamer Goliath, the old swift-and-sure tug owned by the Puget Mill Company, is to have her old boilers taken out at Port Gamble and replaced by new ones. The work will be commenced on the 24th, after which time the steamer will be out of service till further notice. Her work will be performed by the side-wheel steamer Favorite, Capt. Williams, as far as she is able; but no boat can fully replace the Goliath. She is now 23 years old and seems fit to do faithful service for a quarter of a century to come.

LAN AGROUND.—While working up the Sound towards Port Blakely on Wednesday night, the bark Oak Hill got aground on a sand-spit at the mouth of Eagle Harbor, exactly opposite this city. Unfortunately, it was top of high water when she went ashore, hence it will be a job to get her off. The Blakely took a pull at her on the next full tide, but could not move her. It is thought that by discharging her ballast she can be got off unhurt. It looks to us like a good chance to get some ballast for macadamizing our streets.

ALMS HOUSE.—The County Auditor of King county will receive proposals under seal, for the care of the indigent poor for the year commencing on the 1st day of March, A. D., 1877. These bids must be made separately, first for board, lodging and clothing; and secondly, for their medical and surgical attendance. All proposals to be handed to the Auditor on or before the 3d day of February next. Of course, the Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

FOREIGN CHARTERS.—Ship Annie Fish, of 1,496 tons measurement, is coming here for a cargo of lumber to take to Callao, for which she will receive $115 per thousand, going thence with grain to Cork. The new barkentine Quickstep, built at Port Ludlow, is coming to the Sound for a cargo of lumber to take to Valparaiso, on owners' account.

PREMATURE.—We were a little ahead of time in announcing the marriage of Miss Olivia O'Brien, of Olympia, and Capt. Thomas A. Wright, of Seattle. We took the item from the Tribune, the editor of which was formerly a resident of Olympia and supposed to be better posted than ourself in matters relating to said city.

LECTURE.—Don't forget that Dr. Paul Brennan gives a lecture on "The Human Mind" at Yesler's Hall on Saturday evening. No charge for admission will be made at the doors.

EN ROUTE EAST.—On this trip of the Dakota, Mr. Pearson, formerly chief clerk of the Surveyor-General's office at Olympia, and R. P. Shoecraft, of the same place, will leave for the East. Mr. Pearson goes for good. Mr. Shoecraft will return to his adopted Territory, on or about the first of March.

LAY SERVICE.—There will be but lay reading at Trinity Church next Sunday, in consequence of the absence of Rev. Mr. Bonnell, who will go to Port Townsend to preach that day. The usual Friday evening service will be dispensed with.

EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Boutwell presented a resolution of the Portland Board of Trade, asking Congress to provide for the appointment of a commission to meet commissioners from other countries and consider the expediency of remonetizing silver coin, and to authorize the President to request foreign nations to appoint similar commissions for fixing the value of silver in relation to gold coin, and until such international convention silver shall not be made a legal tender for any sum above ten dollars; referred.

The Senate resumed the consideration of unfinished business, to wit, the House bill to perfect the revision of the U. S. statutes.

Edmunds presented the annual report of the Librarian; engrossed and ordered printed. The report shows 311,000 books in the library and a half million pamphlets. The law library has 38,000 volumes. Copyrights entered during 1876, 100,000. During the past year the publication of the first volume of original historical documents relative to French discoveries and explorations in the north-west portion of the United States and on the Mississippi has been made. The whole work will cover a vast collection of letters, etc. in original French, relating to La Salle's and other explorations in United States territory.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—There is no change in the situation this morning. The orders by General Augur, forbidding aggressive movements by either party, will doubtless prevent a collision. All eyes are on Washington, awaiting events.

Gov. Packard has commissioned A. S. Badger as Major General of the Louisiana State Guard, and ordered him to organize the first division to-day.

In the Senate investigation Judge Lyons testified that the colored Republicans in East Feliciana nominated Democrats for the Legislature, because they believed they were better men than their own. He testified to the bad character of John McGair. Judge McVeigh corroborated this testimony.

It is reported that Capt. McGlovin's company of Nichols' militia has taken possession of the office of Recorder of mortgages and Register of Conveyances. It is doubtful whether an election for Senator will take place to-day, even if a quorum of the joint Assembly can be had, which is doubtful. It is understood to be the policy of some members to prevent an election until the solution of the present difficulty in regard to the State Government is settled. It is generally conceded that the question turns at present upon which of the Supreme Courts is the legal one, and on this subject the authorities at Washington are being fully informed by both sides.

RICHMOND, Jan. 11.—A passenger car on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad this morning made a 45-foot jump down an embankment upon solid ice, without going through. Several persons were hurt, but none fatally.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The annual sale of pews in Plymouth Church took place to-night. Total amount realized, $48,421, which is $15,000 less than last year.

The House committee on privileges, powers and duties of the House of Representatives in counting the electoral vote, held a long session to-night and finished their report on the subject. Their conclusions are, first, that the power to count electoral votes is not conferred by the constitution upon the President of the Senate; second, that this power is conferred by the constitution upon the Senate and House of Representatives; third, that in the execution of the power to count the electoral votes the House of Representatives is at least co-ordinate and equal with the Senate; fourth, that in counting the electoral votes no vote can be counted against the judgment and without the assent of the House. These propositions were agreed to by a strict party vote; Representatives Knott, Tucker, Marsh and Sparks, Democrats, in the affirmative; Representatives

Seelye, Burchard, of Illinois, and McDill, Republicans, in the negative. Knott will make a report to-morrow and will ask that a day be fixed for its consideration.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The Times' Washington special says: There is some talk of increasing the number of the House constitutional prerogatives committee. The Democrats are said to be afraid of one of their men, and it will be impossible to report that the House has the right and power to reject a State's electoral vote without the Senate's concurrence; hence more Democrats are necessary, as the committee stands 4 to 3.

Representative Knott will move in the House that two more members be added to the committee, additional labor having been imposed upon it by the resolution of Representative Willis, which instructs the committee to inquire whether any votes have been given contrary to the prohibition contained in the first section of the second article of the constitution, as also the inquiry directed by Kasson, to ascertain whether any electoral votes have been cast by persons whose political disabilities had not been removed.

The Times' Washington special says: Morton will to-morrow, or soon after, offer a resolution in the Senate declaring that the States of Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina having voted for President and Vice President, and the result having been determined and declared through the properly constituted authorities of these States, there is no power in the State Courts, nor in Congress, nor in any other tribunal whatever to revise or change the results as thus determined.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The New York Times this morning publishes what it calls the truth of the Bennett-May duel, the details having been procured from the very highest authority. The duel was a farce from beginning to end. After one shot was fired Bennett said he was satisfied. Being the challenging party he had the right to do so. The proposition was accepted. Neither party received a scratch. There was no hand-shaking and reconciliation. The story that Bennett had married May's sister and sailed via Philadelphia is a pure invention.

Dr. Phelps, who is now figuring in the courts in connection with the duel, is police surgeon, and will be most likely to lose his position in any event.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 12.—There is no change in the situation since yesterday. Both parties are awaiting advices from Washington before taking any further action.

This morning a dead negro was carried out of the State house, and reported to have died with heart disease. It has transpired however that during the debauch of last night, about 1 o'clock, a melee occurred in which two metropolitans were shot, and one named Ancin, died. It was with great difficulty that a stampede was prevented. The wounded man is still in the State house.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 12.—The Russian squadron is expected to-morrow; the flagship has already arrived at Hampton Roads with the Grand Duke Alexis and the Admiral Boulojoff.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Jan. 12.—Alexander Barton, cashier of the Fishkill National Bank, is charged with a deficiency of from $20,000 to $60,000, and the bank is temporarily suspended. He claims that he can explain the matter.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The Times' special from Gloucester, Mass., says: The sorrowful news has come to hand to-day that ten schooners of the fishing fleet from this port are missing and doubtless lost, and that the crews of them have probably perished.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Lucille Western died at the Pierpont House, Brooklyn, to-night, of congestion of the lungs, the result of a cold contracted during recent engagements at Philadelphia.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 12.—The Republican legislature had another ballot for U. S. Senator: Pinchback, 29; Antoine, 22; Beattie, 12; Lewis, 16; remainder scattering. In the House, Delaney, of Rapides, stated in a speech he had offered $10,000 to go with the Democrats. A resolution was introduced and read declaring vacant the seats of Barret and Kennedy, who have gone over to the Democrats.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 12.—Representative New left this evening for Washington, and the following will leave to-morrow: Messrs. Beebe, Joyce, Blackburn, Hurlburt and Phelps, leaving Chairman Morrison, Jenks and Townsend, who will remain a few days longer.

O. H. Brewster, Republican candidate for Senator in Ouachita, testified to the sub-Committee he had been offered money to vote for Tilden. He refused to give the name of the person who offered the money. The committee decided to report the refusal to the whole committee. Several witnesses testified against the character of Gov. Wells.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 14.—The Exchange Bank was burned this morning. Loss $100,000. Insured.

NEW YORK.—The World says Miss Jeanette Bennett, Mr. Howe and Mr. Robbins and private Secretary sailed in the City of Richmond yesterday with Mr. Bennett. Paris is understood to be the destination of the party.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 13.—The Russian fregate Svettes has arrived, with the Grand Duke Alexis in command. Svettes is the flagship of the Russian squadron, commanded by Count Boulakoff. Alexis came ashore and visited Baron Shehty, Russian Minister. The Grand Duke Constantine is also on the Svettes. He is about 18 years old, and is the second child of the Emperor's brother, Constantine. Other vessels of the fleet not yet arrived.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 14.—The river at 10 P. M. was running full of ice. It broke in the upper Monongeha yesterday and reached here at six this morning. The Bennett and Chieftain, two side-wheel packets, were torn from their moorings and totally wrecked. Value and insurance unknown. The work of destruction lasted several hours. Six tug boats sunk. The Grand Lake Company lost fourteen loaded boats and a number of empty barges. Brown & Co. had 38 loaded and sixty-seven empty boats swept away; probably all lost. Several other firms here and at McKee's Port lose a number of boats and barges. The entire fleet above Franktown was swept away. The damage to the coal interest is such that it will require two months to place the mines in working order. All dry docks this side of Birmingham are carried away with one exception. Dams of Stockwater Navigation Company escaped with slight injuries. Anything like the estimate of the total loss cannot be given, but probably over two millions. It is feared several lives are lost, but the confusion on the wharves is so great that it is impossible to verify all the rumors. But one body recovered as yet.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—To-day's action of House appropriation committee providing for a 10 per cent reduction in salaries of all civil officers throughout the country, and for further reduction of the force to the basis which the House unsuccessfully contended for last year has no chance of enactment into law, and is probably intended for political effect. It is very doubtful whether the House will this session support these recommendations of the committee. In view of the present vast accumulation of work in the Pension Bureau, Land Department, Patent office and almost all other branches of the public service and the thorough discussion of the salary question, last session, it may be considered certain that the Senate will not pass the bill, even if the House sanctions, and thereby renew the last year's struggle. It is more than certain that President Grant would veto the bill in any such shape and one or the other of these obstacles would compel the House to rescind from the support of its committee or else allow the bill to fail. The latter contingency would mean a call for an extra session of Congress, at which the bills enacted in accordance with the views of the Senate could be successfully resisted.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The political excitement has been greatly revived by yesterday's published reports that the Senate committee on the electoral count had agreed on a plan which would remit the settlement of the Presidential dispute to chance. The fact that these reports are premature and conjectural and that members of the committee say that no plan is likely to be agreed upon which shall not embrace much more important propositions whose nature has not yet been guessed at by the public, is not yet generally known. Comments are still based on the assumption that the joint committee will recommend a reference of all controverted questions to a new conglomerate tribunal, in which one party or the other shall control the decision according as a Republican or Democrat shall be elected by lot. The project seems to find favor with the Democrats, but a large number of dispassionate members of both parties concede that there is no possible ground for a compromise in which the element of chance shall be excluded; for neither party will consent to abide by the decision of any tribunal whose stature can be definitely measured in advance.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—At the request of the commissioner of the general land office, Secretary Chandler has recalled his recent decision in the case of "Last Chance" mineral claimants against Sacramento Mining Co., of Utah. The land office is naturally dissatisfied with the material curtailments of its power and jurisdiction involved in this decision, and suggests sundry modifications which, however, are not likely to be conceded. A final decision is expected within a fortnight.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—The Journal's Washington special declares that all reports that the Senate committee on electoral count have agreed are unfounded, and the plans telegraphed from Washington, purporting to be the basis of agreement, are condemned alike by Democrats and Republicans in the committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—D. M. Frost the alleged ineligible Democrat Missouri elector testified before the committee on privileges and elections that he was chosen elector and received a certificate; didn't attend the meeting of the electoral college, however, and his place was filled. He produced a pardon removing his political disabilities, issued by President Johnson, October 23d, 1865, and his examination terminated.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—General Augur states that there has been no change in the situation, or his orders in relation to the rival parties.

Judge Shaw has just opened Supreme Court in the State House building. He has the seal and minute books of the court.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—No ballot for U. S. Senator has been had in the Republican legislature. The Senate is still without a quorum. Senator Dreaux, who left the Republican Senate yesterday, was sworn into the Democratic Senate to-day. Representative Brown also left the Republican House saying, although returned elected by the returning board, he did not believe he was elected and would not ask for a seat. The Democratic legislature had another ballot for U. S. Senator. No choice.
