Local News.

From Daily of Saturday:

A DEVIL FISH.—A large specimen of the sepia octopus or devil fish, so graphically described in Victor Hugo's book entitled the "Travailleurs de la Mer," was on exhibition at the fish market near the foot of Mill street. It measured over six feet across the extremities and would be an ugly customer to catch a bather and hold him under water long enough for his wife and mother-in-law to divide the life insurance money.

NOT THERE EITHER.—The young man who gets up the locals on the Intelligencer, need not take us to task for not attending Dr. Brennan's lectures. He couldn't go himself. He was too busy ransacking his files of the San Diego World for eucalyptus items to re-write and wring in as local matters of King county, W. T.

NEW SOCIETY.—Our friend, Prof. W. H. Roberts, of Olympia, has been in town for a couple of days past. He is a devoted advocate of temperance and we learn that he proposes to organize a new society which forbids eating mackerel for breakfast. This is striking at the root of the evil, certainly.

ALL SAFE.—The missing man, Drew, cousin of our friend Mike at Port Gamble, has turned up safe and sound, in Pierce county, where he devotes the bulk of his time to reading the obituaries and eulogies upon his virtues, that have appeared in the Sound papers since his supposed demise.

POLICE COURT.—Another disorderly individual was arraigned before Justice Selye yesterday, and being unable to furnish the customary "equivalent" he is of necessity compelled to accept the hospitalities of the city prison for the next six days.

INSANE.—A farmer from Dungeness who had been on a visit to Nazaimo, became crazy on a recent voyage of the schooner Perkins from the latter place to Victoria. He is now in the Insane Hospital at the island city.

A CONSUMMATE RASCAL.—A professional swindler, who has been operating at various towns in Oregon and Washington Territory recently, has succeeded in bilking a firm in this city quite extensively, and getting away with the spoils. The fellow has recently been traveling under the name of Meyers, but while operating in the vicinity of Albany and Harrisburg, Oregon, went by the name of Davis. Some months ago he was employed by Toklas & Singerman of this city, to sell goods in various towns about the Sound, and he being quite successful in his sales his employers were well satisfied with him and reposed the utmost confidence in his honesty. He had not been heard from for a week, and a few days since the firm received information which confirmed their fears, that the guileless Meyers had suddenly "folded his tent like the Arab, and silently stole away," taking with him some $360 belonging to the above firm, besides several smaller sums from various parties hereabouts. This fellow Meyers, alias Davis, is evidently no novice at this business, he having been engaged in several very questionable transactions in the Webfoot country, among others that of "skedaddling" with the funds belonging to the Italian C. i. us, while acting in the capacity of manager pro tem. Meyers, alias Davis, is a short thick-set man, about 5 feet 6 inches in height, with strongly-marked Jewish features and a round bullet-head of a very peculiar shape, with hair cropped close; is very glib of tongue, and has the faculty of easily worming himself into the good graces of his victims. Look out for him.

Real Estate Transactions.

The following is a list of real estate sales in King county for the week ending Thursday, January 31, 1877:

- S. & W. W. R. R. Co. to John F. Olsen, block 54 in Union City. $ 75

- Jas. McNaught and wife to C. M. Bradshaw, lots 2 and 9, block 73, Central Seattle. 100

STINGY CLUB.—The formation of an association with the above title was effected yesterday by a number of young men in this city. One of the principal rules of the club is, members must never spend a cent when it can possibly be avoided. No person can join the club unless he can furnish satisfactory evidence that he is head over heels in debt. Any member caught "treating" will be expelled. We are promised a full account of the transactions of the club at their next meeting. Sic semper stingyus.

COAL.—The largest shipment of coal during January was 1750 tons, by ship El Dorado, and the smallest 366 tons by steamer Dakota. The total amount shipped was 10,691 tons, of which the Seattle Co. shipped 8,750, 1,510 by the Talbot and 425 by the Kenton.

EASTWICK, MORRIS & Co.—This firm of civil engineers are getting out a map of this portion of the Territory. They will have it printed East at a low rate so as to be within easy reach of immigrants. It is something that has long been needed and should command a ready sale.

A GOOD VESSEL.—The bark King Phillip, which was a full-rigged ship until within a few months, is one of the best business vessels in the entire coasting trade. She belongs to the Puget Mill Co., which corporation does not go as much on speed as upon good carrying capacity. She made ten round trips during the year 1876, and while she is hardly up to the Forest Queen or Dashing Wave, for speed, she greatly surpasses both in the size of cargoes carried by her. In the ten trips above mentioned, the King Phillip carried into San Francisco 8,371,666 feet of lumber, against 7,095,000 feet for the Dashing Wave and 6,546,000 for the Forest Queen. Some gentlemen at Port Gamble think "all three did well," and his head is particularly level. In fact, the prejudice in favor of concave lines is almost entirely obliterated by the experience of the past quarter-century. The famous Stag-hound, Ino, Swordfish, Flying Cloud and Challenge, all had their day and have been superseded by ships of a model that is sharp only under water. When the Forest Queen came to San Francisco, they said she was an overgrown Italian fishing-boat; and the Western Shore was called "Ace Simpson's Ark." But just as soon as these vessels establish a reputation for speed, these same iconoclasts begin to discover rare marks of beauty about them. They are all pretty enough, if they only make money.

BASKETS.—We were shown some baskets of various sizes yesterday at T. P. Freeman's store, that were made from the vine maple which grows upon White River. By buying these baskets when you need them, you encourage home industry and help to keep coin in the country.

SALE OF FURNITURE.—Now then, is your chance to lay in a good stock of furniture. The household fixtures of Mrs. Robbins are to be sold at auction on the 15th inst., and all the articles, being of very choice character, should command ready sale.

From the Daily of Sunday

A LIVELY SCENE.—How we longed for an hour of poor Billy Fife's graphic pencil, yesterday. It was nearly one o'clock as the revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott steamed away from the Talbot bunkers, saluting the Tacoma as the latter swung the ship Western Shore at her anchors. Just then the heavy bass whistle of the Dakota sounded abreast of the Belltown wharf. It would have been a correct view of a lively day in Seattle.

GOT AGROUND.—Schooner Alice (three-masted) left Port Gamble day before yesterday in tow of the steamer Cyrus Walker, but a heavy wind was blowing at the time and the steamer was unable to handle her. She kept on making leeway and finally got aground upon Whiskey Spit, but was got off uninjured and proceeded on her voyage without need of repairs.

HON. H. A. WEBSTER.—This gentleman, one of the few survivors of the "days of '49," gave us a domiciliary visit yesterday morning and returned home on the Oliver Wolcott. The collector is one of the few men in political life whose friendships soar above the sordid considerations of partisan feelings, hence his personal popularity.

THE "TACOMA."—Yesterday this fine tug came into the harbor with two first-class vessels in tow—the renowned Coos Bay clipper ship Western Shore and the sturdy reliable old ship Shirley. Leaving the Oregon ship at anchor, off Crawford & Harrington's wharf, she went off with the Shirley to Tacoma.

ON DECK.—Capt. Tom Wright has resumed charge of the Zephyr since his return from the British possessions. She leaves for Olympia to-morrow.

THE WESTERN SHORE.—This justly famous vessel has hauled into Crawford & Harrington's wharf to unload her ballast, after which she will drop down to the Renton bunkers to receive her coal. Capt. J. W. McAlle is still in command of her and keeps her in apple-pie order. She has as fine masts as the Wildwood or Cassandra Adams, and handsomer decks than any other vessel that sails out of San Francisco. Her decks are of yellow cedar, the same as that cut at Port Essington, and although she is nearly three years old yet you cannot see a splinter sticking up from her decks. Her cabin was built by an old German at Coos Bay and is constructed of Sandwich Island tamana, Coos Bay laurel and black walnut; and we consider hers the prettiest cabin of any vessel in this trade. This ship has made two Eastward voyages to England since her construction, 104 days from San Francisco to Liverpool and 101 days from Astoria to Cork. On her return, she made one trip in 110 days from Liverpool to San Francisco and another of 126 days from Hull to the same port. She also made the run in 58 hours from San Francisco to Astoria, beating the steamer Oriflamme, eight hours on the trip. In her two trips to the United Kingdom she only wet nine sacks of wheat and delivers uniformly dry cargoes everywhere.

QUICK TRIP.—Bark Gem of the Ocean arrived at Port Townsend yesterday, also the barkentine Ella from Anaheim. The Gem is regarded as a good, reliable vessel but not extraordinarily fast, but on this occasion she has got up her name among the fast crabs for she only left San Francisco on the 30th of January. She carried the southerly weather all the way with her and had she met the same weather at Port Townsend which prevailed here all day yesterday, she might have equalled some of the fast passages of the Forest Queen or Dashing Wave. Capt. Gray will be here in a day or two and receive the congratulations of our business men, among whom he has always been a prime favorite. He will load coal from the Seattle bunkers, but we are not yet apprised as to whom the bark Ella comes consigned. She loaded lumber at Freeport on her last visit to these diggings.

A FRIZZLE.—A gentleman named Allison from Port Gamble, undertook to give dramatic and poetic readings at Yessler's Hall last night, but the performance had hardly begun ere the lecturer, or reader, as you please, was greeted with a volley of vegetables and over-ripe "Shanghai berries." We apprehend a "corner" in beets, turnips, etc., and shall proceed to plant sixty acres in vegetables next year, with a view of preventing such a calamity.

SOLD.—On Thursday last the steamer J. B. Libby, together with the mail contract to Bellingham Bay and way ports, was sold by Samuel Coulter & Son to Capt. Brittain, who owns the Teaser and Dispatch. This will probably throw out of a billet one of the best and most accommodating gentlemen in the trade—Capt. Tom Brennan; but his excellent business qualifications and universal popularity will soon find him another position.

NORTH PACIFIC RURAL.—The February number of this magazine lies on our table and will be found worthy of perusal. Get a copy of it and send it to your friends in Passamaquoddy, to let 'em see that you have something else to read here beside the Magtober number of Harper's Octazine.

INDISPOSED.—Quite a number of our citizens are under the weather, though some are convalescent. Among the invalids are A. W. Piper, Len Diller, and one whom modesty forbids us to mention, as Jasper J. W. Johnson used to say.

From the Swinomish.

LA CONNER, Feb. 2, 1877.

FRIENDLY DISPATCH.—Within two short weeks just passed, "The angel of death spread his wings on the blast, and breathed in the face of our children as he passed," laying desolate the hearts of four families here. Five children have gone hence to return no more. Two of the children died within a few hours after being first seized by the disease. The three others lingered from eight to fourteen days. Four others are still sick, also one adult, but we feel confident they are recovering.

Your physician calls the disease the "spotted fever." This fever, I understand, is not uncommon in some of the Western States. It is new here, we heretofore having enjoyed a singular immunity from all malarial diseases. Can it be that as we reclaim the flats, dyking off the salt water, we are engendering malaria in its worst form? Are we, whilst turning out the finest grain on the coast, fostering the most malignant of malaria? If the shutting out of the salt water has caused this disease, will it not increase from year to year, as the lands are reclaimed? If it arises from this cause and has been so violent during the winter months, what are we to expect during the summer? If it has been imported here by recent immigrants, will it die out? Three of the children died at La Conner; one on a farm on the flats about a mile and a half from town; another about three miles from town.

Report says a small boat containing two brothers Kelly, was capsized in Bellingham Bay on Wednesday, and the men supposed to have been drowned.

Fears are entertained for the safety of the Bellingham Bay Coal Co.'s bark Amethyst now twenty-seven days out from San Francisco bound for Sehome, in ballast. She is supposed to be at least disabled.

We were visited this morning by an extreme high tide which overflowed several dykes in this vicinity but did very slight damage beyond saturating the newly plowed lands with salt.

At 5 P. M. the welcome whistle of the steamer J. B. Libby greeted our ears and a few minutes after her arrival the genial countenance of Capt. Tom Brennan illuminated our door, with the "Seattle MORNING DISPATCH" in his hands. "All that glitters is not gold," but Tom is a rough diamond, and were there more such men in the world the rest of us would be happier for it. X. S.

ARRIVAL OF THE DAKOTA.—P. M. S. S. Dakota, Capt. H. G. Morse, left San Francisco Jan. 30 at 12:30 P. M.; first 48 hours out thick fog, light southerly winds; thence to Victoria heavy south east gales and thick weather. Left Victoria at 4:15 A. McCrea, 4; J. McPherson, 1; Seattle Gas Light Co.; in all 68 tons.

APOLOGISTIC.—Much to our regret we are obliged to omit the specialty articles usually introduced into our Sunday issue. The reason for this is our recent recovery from a severe bilious attack and the fear of a relapse if we should overwork ourselves too soon after getting out.

STEAMBOAT NEWS.—The Yakima came up from Port Gamble yesterday with a load of lumber for Stetson & Post. She had some sixteen or seventeen passengers, among them Capt. Swanton of the ship James Cheston, and Keller of the King Phillip. Several ladies were among the passengers and kept all the milliners and dry-goods clerks in town busy for two or three hours. The Libby had a lot of Swinomish produce and a few passengers. She leaves for Bellingham Bay and way ports to-morrow morning. The Nellie will leave for Snohomish to-morrow, the Zephyr for Olympia and the North Pacific for Victoria. Chapman, who repaired the Annie Stewart's engines, has been putting in the last few days on the Alida's boilers and has got her all right again. The Fanny Lake will be due from the Skagit this morning.

Local News.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

THE MASQUERADE.—Great preparations are being made for the bal masque of the Sing Verein Germania, to be held in this city on Tuesday evening next.

CHINESE ROW.—About two o'clock yesterday afternoon, a bareheaded Chinaman was seen running down Washington street with an umbrella in his hand.

MARINE.—The vessels now in port are the steamship Dakota and the ship Western Shore; barks Rival, Osmyn, Gem of the Ocean and Montana; barkentine Malay and schooner Aurora.

CHURCH CONCERTS.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a concert at Yesler's Hall this evening. The programme embraces many choice selections, to be performed by Mrs. Howell, Miss Katie Mills, Mrs. Snyder, Miss Emery and Messrs. Whitworth, Chase and Ward.

THE MALAY.—This fine barkentine reached here yesterday morning and Capt. Foster claims to have made the run from San Francisco to Port Townsend in four days and eight hours.

DISMISSED.—Capt. Sanders, of the bark Osmyn, was the subject of a warrant issued from Justice Selye's court yesterday. The charge was assault and battery committed while the vessel was on the high seas, during a voyage to this port.

MISSING.—Charles McCrimmon, of the Seattle Soap Works is among the missing. He has not been seen since the 20th of last month, and some fear that he has met with foul play.

IN A BAD FIX.—A German named Meisel, who has been drinking very hard of late and wallowing the wading out of his better half, occasionally, tried to choke himself to death in jail the other night.

LICENSES.—The County Board of Commissioners were engaged all day yesterday in reissuing licenses to the several retail liquor dealers in this city, to conform to the rulings made by Judge Lewis in the Pierce county cases.

STAR MILLS.—We called at these mills on Monday afternoon, where we found Mr. Buzby hard at work and everything in full blast.

THREE ACQUITTED.—Frederick A. Dyer was tried yesterday upon a charge of maintaining a gambling house, and acquitted. This is the third prosecution brought against him by Kellogg and Thorndike, at the present term of Court, and not a single conviction has been had.

THE NOOKSACK JAM.—From the Bellingham Bay Mail we glean the welcome intelligence that the jam of logs which has hitherto obstructed the passage of steamboats up the Nooksack river, is now nearly adrift and will soon be cut out altogether.

THE RIVAL.—This bark arrived here yesterday afternoon from San Francisco, having made the run from Race Rocks to Sandy Point in eight hours. She drifted about in front of the city several hours after the wind died out, when the Zephyr came along and towed her into port.

IN CONTEMPT.—We learn that P. D. Forbes, of Victoria, in whose office the Dei majores of the artificial stone business made their headquarters, has been committed to jail at Victoria for contempt of court, in refusing to answer what became of certain papers connected with the operations of Leathers and Thorp.

THE DAKOTA.—At half past seven o'clock yesterday morning, the above steamer came in from Tacoma and hauled alongside the Seattle bunkers. She completed her load of coal last night and will come up to Yesler's wharf this morning, whence she will take her departure for San Francisco on Friday morning.

PROGRESSING.—The new wharves of Stacey, Maddocks and others are going ahead finely and will soon find plenty of occupants. The old wharves are often overcrowded when sixteen or twenty steamers get in here at once.

OFF FOR CASSIAR.—The Gussie Telfair, which left Victoria for Sitka on Monday, carried the advance guard of Cassiar miners, some twenty men in all. Gold is worth seventeen dollars per ounce, but how much does it cost to get it?

BONDS.—The belligerent heathen who drew a knife to make mince-meat of one of his countrymen, yesterday, was arrested and put under $500 bonds to appear before Justice Selye, this morning.

OATS.—Schooner C. C. Perry, Capt. Bowden, arrived from La Conner last night with 1,000 bushels of oats for Gaches Bros., which will be reshipped to San Francisco by the Dakota to-day.

NORTH PACIFIC.—This steamer arrived about 9 o'clock last night with some forty passengers. She proceeded up to Olympia, shortly after her arrival.

THE YALE LOCK.—The new safe having been placed in the bank, Mr. Horton took us behind the counter to see the locks work. The Yale time lock is something entirely independent of the combination which opens the twenty bolts in the door. It is a clock incased in glass and fastened on the inside of the door and set at 8 and 7. One of the twenty bolts goes into this clock. At 8 P. M. a lever falls on this bolt and nobody (not even Mr. Horton, Mr. Denny nor "any other man") can open the safe till the next morning at 7 o'clock.

CHURCH CONCERT.—Yesler's Hall was well filled last evening, on the occasion of a concert in behalf of the Presbyterian Church. Prof. Ward acted as conductor, while Mrs. Calhoun and Miss Jamieson presided alternately at the piano. Mrs. Howell has a voice of great power and sang "Kathleen Mavourneen" very well, but would have done better with a proper accompaniment.

NOT HEARD FROM.—The fate of the schooner Clara Light, which sailed from here over a month ago, is still a matter of conjecture. She was built at Steilacoom by Pincus & Packsher, some years ago, but has been owned in San Francisco since 1873 and engaged mostly in the Coos Bay trade.

SAFE AND SOUND.—We mentioned, last week, that two brothers named Kelly, had been caught out in a small sloop, during the prevalence of a heavy gale which swept over Bellingham Bay on Tuesday of last week.

GOING BELOW.—Among the passengers of the Dakota which leaves here on Friday, are Bailey Gatzert and wife. Our ex-Mayor merely goes down to accompany his wife to some of the watering places, as her health is very poor.

NORTH STAR.—This brig passed Port Townsend on her way up the Sound, last Tuesday night. She ought to have got here before the Malay, as it would not have taken more than half as long to load her.

PERSONALS.—We received a call from Col. H. C. Paige, of Wells, Fargo & Co., yesterday morning and he had scarcely gone out ere Secretary Struve came in. Ted Marks, of San Francisco, is here selling cigars by the shipload. Samuel Coulter, Esq., of Olympia, the man of a thousand smiles, shows his beaming countenance on our streets.

STEILACOOM.—This place is beginning to liven up a trifle. Water works, to supply steamers at the dock, are to be constructed. They even went so far as to get up a fight there and fine a man forty dollars for it. That town is bound to come out, in the Spring.

SHINGLES.—These are very plenty and very cheap, in consequence of a sloop having arrived with 100,000 of them from San Juan Island. We wish our milkman would buy some of them and shingle his cows.

District Court.

Territory vs. F. A. Dyer.—Keeping a nuisance. Indictment quashed. Territory of Washington vs. Han Yan.—Keeping a nuisance. Nolle prosequi entered.

Territory of Washington vs. George Jantjani.—Grand larceny. Plea of not guilty. Verdict also not guilty. The report of the Grand Jury was handed in, and the Jury, after commendation from the Court, were discharged.

Territory vs. Robert G. Follier.—Grand larceny. Verdict of guilty, and property stolen assessed in value at $50. Sentence passed upon him of two years' imprisonment in the jail of Jefferson county, at hard labor.

Otto Ranke vs. M. J. Carkeek. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for full amount claimed—$72 50.

DR. P. M. BRENNAN.—This gentleman goes out to the coal mines some time next week, to lecture to the citizens of Newcastle upon subjects of varied character. His versatility and fluency of diction, render him very attractive as a speaker, while his imitative powers are superior to many who have essayed the "sock and buskin" of the legitimate drama.

COUNTY JAIL.—The position taken by this paper in reference to the new county jail, about two months ago, is fully borne out by the recent report of the Grand Jury. That body says it has been erected, at a cost of $13,865.99, upon lots purchased of H. L. Yesler, for which he has been paid $3500, making the total cost $17,365.22.

MARINE.—Bark Lizzie Williams arrived here from San Francisco yesterday afternoon; also brig Deacon at Port Discovery and bark Adelaide Cooper at Port Ludlow. The departures yesterday were British bark Ella from Port Blakely and Courser from Freeport; the former is bound for Callao and the latter for San Francisco.

FELL OVERBOARD.—All day yesterday, a muchly overbeveraged individual from the Stilligumish paraded our streets in the belief that he was a street car and was full. About four o'clock he went down to Crawford & Harrington's wharf and got into a yawl boat with only one oar.

RECOVERED HIM.—The good people of Port Gamble did not know the real value of Dr. J. S. Houghton till they had lost him, so on Saturday last they shanghaied him on the steamer Yakima and carried him back to his old stamping ground in Kitsap county. The Doctor is a genial gentleman and is an accession to any place where he may take up his residence.

AND WHY?—Oh why, can anybody tell us, was it that the venerable Uhlfelder (supposed to be German for Othello) went to bed last night, singing "Life your napur os yourself. Os de world's your draveling droo. You never haf health and don't got wealth Of on don'd baddle your own ganoo."

REMOVED.—The books and papers of the Seattle Library have been removed from the hall over Boyd, Poncin and Young's to the rooms of Young Men's Christian Association.

From Daily of Friday

COAL SHIPMENTS.—Never since the inauguration of coal-mining in this Territory, has as much activity prevailed as at present. This is the 9th day of the shortest month of the year and as yet but a little over 400 tons—the amount furnished to steamer Dakota—has been shipped. Yet such is the activity manifested by the three companies that the shipments for February will compare favorably with those of any month in the past fifteen.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—Steamer Dakota leaves for San Francisco, via Esquimault, to-day at 5 A. M. She will leave Esquimault at noon tomorrow. Following is her memorandum of freight and passengers: Freight—82 pkgs tallow, 3 deer skins, 12 asst. skins, 595 green hides, 215 dry hides, 5 bales wool, 22 pkgs merchandise, 9 pkgs seeds, 144 bales hops, 20 1/2 cords cedar wood, 25 M ft lumber, 10 bbls oil, 1008 sks oats, 1 pkg coin, value $800.

GOING BELOW.—Among the passengers by the Dakota which leaves us this morning, is Mr. Fourier Le Clerc, who has been employed as pressman in this office for some months. He goes to California to attend to some business in Sonoma county, after which he will return to this Territory and take up his residence in Yakima county, where he purchased a stock-ranch. May good fortune attend him in the land of the orange and fig, and may he return to us with one of these help-meets, without whose life on a farm is very dull music.

S. BAXTER & Co.—This firm have done very well since they opened out business on Front street, notwithstanding their location is somewhat remote from the main business center. Bob Flynn, their popular clerk, is on a "drumming" tour in Pierce county and makes plenty of sales. Their stock contains the very best of everything drinkable.

DEPARTURES.—The steamer Dispatch left for Port Townsend and Semiahmoo last night. Those leaving this morning are the Zephyr for Olympia, the Nellie for Snohomish, J. B. Libby for La Conner; and the North Pacific for Tacoma this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THEATRICAL.—John Jack telegraphed from Victoria for the theater two nights—Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. On learning that the hall was engaged for a masquerade on the first of those evenings, he concluded to try it on some other time.

WUSTHOFF & WALD.—This firm has been appointed agent for the sale of a new patent platform and counter scale for which W. B. Wilshire was traveling agent. He has appointed D. T. Wheeler as agent for the McNeale & Urban safes.

DISMISSED.—The man who was arrested for shooting at Swan Anderson in his saloon at Port Orchard, has been discharged from custody, it being proven that the shooting was accidental.

TOWED UP.—Brig North Star, Capt. Davis, arrived here yesterday afternoon in tow of the steam tug Blakely. She will load Taibot coal and follow the Malay.

RELEASED.—Judge Lewis has decided that the prosecutions brought against the Chinese women in December last, are frivolous, and therefore he dismissed them.

SAILED.—The handsome schooner Aurora, Capt. Birkholm, sailed here for San Francisco, with a load of lumber, yesterday morning.

COLLISION.—As the steamer Alida was backing out from the slip between Yesler's and Crawford's wharves, yesterday about noon, a puff of wind struck her. The bow of the steamship Dakota overlapped the end of Yesler's wharf, about thirty feet, but it was impossible to haul her any further astern on account of the crowded condition of the dock. The Alida has a very small hull and a very large house on it, so when the flaw of wind struck her she went with a bang against the stem of the Dakota, tearing off a piece of timber about eight feet in length, which was easily replaced. The Alida's injuries are more serious, however. Her port wheel-guard, a piece of timber eight inches thick, is entirely cut in two, letting down the pillow-block on which the shaft rests so that the shaft is out of life.

LA CONNER AND VICINITY.—A letter from La Conner, dated last Wednesday, says that an attachment was to-day served on the Skagit Jam Co. doing business under the firm name of Marvin, Minnick & Co., on the complaint of G. A. Meigs & Co., for $363.75 for goods, merchandise, etc., furnished them between April and July last. Report says the Jam Co. never received over $150 in tools, grub and a little cash, from the proceeds of some $750 subscribed up the Sound. A man on the Skagit river, Charles Washburne by name, whilst returning from his clear tripped and fell on his axe, severely cutting, if not entirely severing his nose from his face. No new cases of spotted fever and all the old cases are convalescent.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—We have examined some specimens of photography executed by E. F. Dollarhide since his return from California, and we must say he made good use of his time while he was gone. He has been under instructions of George D. Morse, and has acquired all that knowledge of repose in figures that has made Morse such a celebrity in the business.

JUSTICE COURT.—Bernard Crosson was bound over in the penal sum of $500, to answer the charge of renting houses to Chinese for purposes of prostitution. Fred A. Dyer was arrested on a charge of keeping a gaming house and waived an examination till Saturday.

WATER WORKS.—An interesting article upon this subject from the pen of a very practical citizen, is promised us, for publication next week. The rapid growth of our city demands some investigation of this matter.

AT NEWCASTLE.—Dr. J. Leary, whose arrival among us we mentioned some days ago, has accepted the position of Resident Surgeon of the Seattle Coal and Transportation Co. and will make Newcastle his future place of residence.

VALENTINES.—The stationery stores of Pumfrey and Jamieson are besieged from morning till night, with purchasers of gilt-edged nonsense. This makes additional work for the post-office clerks without additional compensation.

STEAMER RUBY.—This tidy little craft arrived here yesterday, it being her first visit since Monday. She has been occupied with towing about Port Madison for a day or two.

(FROM THE DAILY OREGONIAN.)
EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Senate to-day confirmed Nicholas S. Owings as Secretary of Washington Territory.

Gen. John G. Corse, of Chicago, was before the Senate committee on privileges and elections, this morning. In reply to Senator Mitchell he testified that Col. W. T. Pelton telegraphed him about the 18th of November, asking him to go to Oregon to look after an ineligible elector. Witness replied to Pelton, saying he would go, but it would take him ten days to go to Oregon; but witness thought it better that some one should go from San Francisco. Witness admitted sending the following dispatches:

"CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Perry H. Smith, New Orleans: If the Louisiana electoral vote is stolen from us, we will get California and Oregon. We have 160,000 ex-soldiers now enrolled, and vast numbers of Republicans with us. Stand firm. J. Corse."

"CHICAGO, (No date).—Hon. J. M. Palmer, New Orleans: Two hundred thousand ex-Union soldiers, embracing thousands who voted for Hayes, will sustain you if Tilden is fraudulently counted out in Louisiana. The end is not yet. You have us behind you." Signed Corse and Cameron.

Witness received the following:
"New York, Nov. 21, 1876.—Gen. J. G. Corse, Chicago: If you think it necessary, you can pay two hundred and draw on me at sight."
W. T. PELTON."

The above referred to the paying of a bill for printing in the National Democrat, a German newspaper published in Chicago. The following dispatches were also offered in evidence:

"SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—Hon. A. S. Hewitt, New York: Senator Kelly of Oregon is here. Telegraph him to return there immediately."
E. CASSELY."

"NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Hon. Jas. K. Kelly, San Francisco: Circumstances require your immediate return to Oregon to consult the Governor."
A. S. HEWITT."

No more testimony will be taken in connection with Oregon unless Senator Kernan shall desire to recall some of the witnesses who previously testified.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—On Saturday the old and respected firm of Buck & Hunting, at Sag Harbor, L. I., failed. The sufferers by the failure are to be found in almost every station of life. It will occasion much want and suffering.

The cashier of the First National Bank of Montrose, Pa., was taken before the Court to-day and held in $10,000 bail on the charge of forgery; also in $5,000 bail to await a requisition from the Governor of Pennsylvania on a charge of the misappropriation of $90,000 in that State.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 4.—The locomotive house of the Pennsylvania Railroad was burned to-day. Eight engines were damaged to the amount of $750,000.

OMAHA, Feb. 5.—Grasshoppers' eggs are about to hatch under the effects of the continued warm weather.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The agents of the Cromwell steamship line received the following telegram to-day:

"St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 5.—Bedding, pork and flour, marked 'Geo. Washington,' picked up at Mistaken Point, Cape Race. A lawyer of this city has received a letter from a friend who recently went to Europe on the Inman steamship City of Richmond, stating that James Gordon Bennett and his party were among his companions on the voyage."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Friends of the Texas Pacific Railroad bill intend to make another effort to-morrow to have a day assigned for action on that measure. They will, however, encounter not only ordinary obstacles, but serious, and perhaps insuperable difficulty to-morrow in the point of order which will be raised, to the effect that under the provisions of the electoral bill both houses are still nominally in session, and motions to suspend the rules are not in order except on Mondays and during the last week of each session. This objection, if sustained, will absolutely prevent any action being taken of the Texas Pacific bill until the count of the Presidential vote is completed or the embarrassing provisions of the electoral act is repealed.

Action on the Pacific Railroad sinking fund bills in the Senate is delayed on account of the absence of Thurman, Edmunds and Frelinghuysen, who are daily engaged by the sessions of the electoral commission.

The Senate military affairs committee have agreed to recommend the passage of the bill, urged by the Oregon Senators and approved by the interior department, providing for the appraisal and sale of the Dalles military reservation to the highest bidder at not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—A special dispatch from Frankfort says the treaty between Roumania and Russia is on the point of coming into operation. The Russian army received orders on Saturday to be prepared to cross the Pruth if the Porte concentrates troops on the Dalmatian frontier.

The Standard's special from Rome says Gen. Kanoler, nominal Minister of War and commander of the Papal army, resigned in consequence of differences with Monsiegnur Simon, the new Cardinal and Secretary of State.

The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day was £74,000.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 5.—Midhat Pasha has been dismissed from the office of Grand Vizier, and left for Syria to-day. Edheim Pasha, Turkish Plenipotentiary to the conference, and noted for his violent opposition to the proposals of the European powers, has been appointed Grand Vizier.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—At the annual meeting of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce to-day the president said, the Sheffield manufactures and workmen had only themselves to blame for the loss of trade with America and successful American competition with foreign countries. Sheffield had not come up to the make and style required by customers. Mundella, member of parliament of Sheffield, said, American competition was successful, because Americans excelled in the rapidity of their adoption of labor-saving machinery. If peace was preserved the English trade had nothing to fear, and in any case the English colonies furnished a most promising market. Mundella referred to the importation of American beef as a great benefit to England and a striking instance of what enterprise and invention could do.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—A St. Paul dispatch, received to-day officially at military headquarters here, says the following is just received via Bozeman and Helena:

"Headquarters Command on Yellowstone, Jan. 20, 1877.—I have the honor to report that this command fought the hostile tribes of the Cheyennes and Ogallala Sioux, under Crazy Horse, in skirmishes on the 1st, 3d and 7th of January, and in a five hour's engagement on the 8th instant. Their camp, some six hundred lodges, extended for three miles along the valley of Tongue river, below Hanging Women's Creek. They were driven through the Canyons of Wolf or Panther mountains. Their fighting strength outnumbered mine two or three to one, but by taking advantage of the ground we had them at a disadvantage, for their loss is known to be very severe. Our loss is three killed and eight wounded. They fought entirely dismounted and charged on foot to within fifty yards of Capt. Carey's line, but were taken in front and flank by Capt. Butler's and Lieut. McDonald's companies. They were whipped at every point and driven from the field and pursued as far as my limited supplies and worn-down animals would carry my command. The Indians appear to have plenty of arms and ammunition, but otherwise are in a destitute condition. Some of the prisoners now in our hands were captured with frozen limbs and were living on horse meat. The weather has been very severe and the snow from one to three feet deep. The command is in good condition."

NELSON A. MILES."

I desire to invite the attention of the Lieutenant-General to the great vigor and zeal which have been displayed by Gen. Miles and his officers and men with extremely limited means and under the most disadvantageous circumstances.

ALFRED S. TERRY, Brig. Gen.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Isaac Rish, a German Swiss, reached this city to-day from Indiana in charge of a detective. The Swiss government have taken proceedings to extradite him on a charge of violating the persons of school girls under his charge as teacher.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 6.—Saml. Hall, of the firm of Nelson & Co., was stabbed fifteen times, had his face smashed and jugular vein cut, and was otherwise injured, by some unknown party.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—This morning an unfavorable change occurred in the state of Alexander H. Stephens's health, growing weaker. He cannot recover.

The Republicans continue hopeful regarding the proceedings of the electoral tribunal, while the Democrats (including Jerry Black) are discouraged and hopeless. long time, but are so far unsuccessful. It is not known whether the depositions were committed on the Central Pacific road or east of their line.

HALIFAX, Feb. 6.—The steamer George Washington, of Cromwell, hence on the 18th of January for St. John, N. F., went ashore at Cape Race. She became a total wreck, and all hands were drowned. Fourteen bodies were washed ashore. It is supposed she drove ashore during the snow storm on the 21st ult.

MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—E. H. Charles Locnas, proprietor of the Dominion Foundry, has made an assignment. Liabilities estimated at $100,000; assets large.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—The worst apprehensions are felt of a strike of the Durham colliers, in consequence of differences with the masters about the recent arbitration awards. The strike would affect directly from thirty to forty thousand men, and would involve a stoppage of the Cleveland iron industry.

The Court of Exchequer affirmed the decision of the Huddersfield magistrate, convicting Dr. Monck, the spiritualist medium, under the vagrancy act, and sentenced him to three months' imprisonment.

The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day was £29,000.

A telegram from Bucharest says another Turkish band invaded the Roumanian territory, and have been repulsed by the frontier guard. One of the Turks killed two persons.

MANCHESTER, Feb. 6.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, the President said the exports of Manchester goods to the United States, which formerly afforded an excellent market, were now nothing, and there is considerable trade in Manchester in cotton fabrics manufactured in America.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 6.—The Turkish ambassador in Rome has notified the Porte that arms for Crete are being purchased in Italy. The Turkish garrison on that island has consequently been strengthened.

BERLIN, Feb. 6.—It is said that a formidable Russian ironclad squadron will enter the Mediterranean in the spring. Grand Duke Constantine will command it, and Admiral Poffel will be chief of staff.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7th.—The Electoral Commission, by a vote of 8 against 7, have decided that no evidence can be admitted or considered by them in the Florida case except the various electoral certificates and such evidence as shall be submitted on the question of the eligibility of Humphreys as Presidential elector. The vote stood in favor of the decision: Justices Miller, Strong and Bradley, and Senators Edmunds, Morton and Frelinghuysen and Representatives Garfield and Hoar. Against: Justices Clifford and Field, Senators Thurman and Bayard, and Representatives Hunton, Payne and Abbott. The Court adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow, when the proceedings will be public.

Humphreys is one of the Republican electors, and the question raised as to his eligibility is that he was, at the date of his election, a U. S. Shipping Commissioner, which is alleged to be such an office of trust or profit as to disqualify him for acting as elector, but which office the Republicans assert he resigned before the election.

The following dispatch was received at the Internal Revenue office to-day from Greensboro, N. C.:

"To Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington: Deputy Marshal Robertson, of South Carolina, has just reported that two men were killed and several wounded by the illicit distillers raising on him without troops. Am hurrying to provide Major Stewart with horses. He can stop this resistance."

N. WAGNER, Rev. Ag't.

Washington, Feb. 7.—To-day's action of the electoral commission is the universal topic of conversation to-night, and there are many conflicting speculations as to its ultimate results, but there seems to be no diversity of opinion among Republicans, and comparatively little among Democrats, regarding the two propositions; first, that it secures the vote of Florida for Hayes and Wheeler, and, second, that the Louisiana case will promptly be decided in the same way. A considerable number of Republicans are apprehensive, however, that the admission of evidence regarding the eligibility of one of the Florida electors foreshadows the establishment of a general principle which may work to the great disadvantage of the party in the Oregon case, and also in relation to the alleged disability of one of the Illinois electors.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The ravages of the smallpox are again increasing. In this city there were 103 deaths from the disease last week; the largest number during the present epidemic except in the first week of January.

The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day was £60,000.

FRANKLIN, (Ind.) Feb. 7.—An absconding cashier of the First National Bank here took about $100,000 and left a note saying they need not expect to see him again; that Chicago speculators caused the trouble.

WILKESBARRE, (Pa.) Feb. 7.—Hildreth & Co.'s store and four adjacent buildings, at East Nanticoke, were burned to-day. Loss $50,000; insured.

POTTSVILLE, (Pa.) Feb. 7.—Eleven hundred miners of the Stanton colliery struck to-day on account of a small reduction in their pay.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 7.—All but three of the students who, on St. Nicholas d'y, during service in the cathedral of Kazar, made a demonstration and unfurled a red flag bearing the inscription "Union and Liberty," have been sentenced to penal servitude or transportation.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—A prospectus is published of the twelfth series of the Russian mortgage credit bonds for ten million silver roubles. The bonds are to be placed in Amsterdam, Berlin, Frankfort, Brussels, Antwerp and Russia.

PACIFIC COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—It is ascertained that for a long time past an extensive system of thieving has been practiced on the overland freight trains. Some three weeks ago two cars arrived at the Central Pacific depot in this city with their contents thoroughly rifled. One case of valuable drygoods had been entirely cleaned out, and the cases, comprising boots, shoes, and other goods, were nearly all gone. Officers of the Central Pacific have been on the watch for the robbers for a

San Francisco, February 7th.—Dispatches from Tucson, Arizona, state that the Apaches are killing and plundering in Southeastern Arizona. Ten were killed in Senorita valley on the 4th inst., and the work is still going on. Governor Safford has sent a message to the legislature, recounting the depredations and murders committed, and dwelling on the insufficient manner in which the military operations are being conducted. Troops are moving slowly with heavy trains, and unable to reach more readily the enemy.

THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION.

This body is now in full organization at the National Capital, with authority to send for persons and papers. The appointments by the Senate are good, the three Republicans being at the head of their party for true Senatorial reputation, aside from Morton whose hatred of Southern men seems like a chronic hydrophobia.

Joseph P. Bradley, one of the two Republican justices on the Commission, was a resident of New Jersey at the time of his appointment, an event which followed his presenting the Presidential Cottage at Long Branch to the Man with the Cigar, after a lapse of less than three weeks.

The other member of the Commission, on the part of the Supreme Court, whom we deem objectionable, is Stephen J. Field, of California. The Judge is not popular with any old residents of that State, especially with those who lived in Marysville.

Acting Governor Chadwick of Oregon has pardoned Dr. G. C. Glass, imprisoned in the penitentiary of that State for causing the death of a girl upon whom he was operating with a view of relieving her from the cares of maternity.

The telegrams convey the unwelcome intelligence that N. H. Owings has been appointed Secretary of this Territory, vice Hon. H. G. Struve, whose official term had expired.

Jeff. Peabody is putting up twelve tons of ice per day at Wallula and employs fifteen men. We will go up there next Summer, if he will only plant a few sprigs of mint in the meantime.

A provincial poultry show is to be held at Victoria, and the public is respectfully cautioned against venturing its collateral upon the Shanghai.

A BIG STEAL.

The Alaska ship-building bill now pending before Congress, is a matter that needs looking into. There never was a subsidy bill that proposed to give any of the public money or public domains to poor men.

We favor subsidies only as encouragements to experiments, but Pacific coast ship-building is not an experiment. It is a fixed fact and the records of the Western Shore, Forest Queen, Wildwood and Cassandra Adams are already a portion of the commercial history of the Pacific States.

And what are these gentlemen to do as a guarantee of their desire to encourage American ship-building? Why they are to build a ship of not less than twelve hundred tons register. And as their reward for that alarming self-sacrifice, they are to receive an island worth a quarter of a million dollars.

The idea of giving away the public domain to corporations, is what has really done more to exasperate the people against the Republican party, than anything else.

Curiosity was on tiptoe yesterday, to know who was Owings, the new Secretary of State? Struve has always been an accommodating officer and the Democrats could not see the sense of removing him when his party was, rationally speaking, in articulo mortis.

The man who does up the racing articles for the Chronicle, refers to Governor Stanford's recent purchase of trotting horses under the stunning head of "thoroughbreds."

In California the late rains have made the agricultural outlook full of promise. A large area of land was dry plowed and sowed previous to the rains.

POSTAL TELEGRAPHY.

A proposition is before Congress to create a postal system of telegraphy, similar to that in vogue in England and France. The matter was brought up in Congress about four years ago and only failed on account of the enormous price that Orton wanted for his watered telegraph stock, which paid a dividend of three per cent upon the watered figures last year, equal to seventy-five per cent on the actual cost of the several lines comprised in the Western Union Telegraph Co.

The exorbitant charges of the telegraph companies is the least objection to the present system, but it is a strong one. The real objection to them is the manner in which they discriminate. For instance, all during the war, a combination existed in California, composed of the Alta and Bulletin in San Francisco, and Union in Sacramento, which got all their war dispatches from the East at three cents per word, while every other paper in the State was obliged to pay for news at "commercial rates."

If the Government has the right to carry the mails, it also has the right to carry the telegrams and become the general medium for the transaction of all business. William Orton has no more right to carry telegrams than he has to have his portrait stamped upon letter envelopes and to carry the mails.

The report published in the Portland Standard concerning the loss of the ship Western Shore, which is said to have capsized in a gale of wind off the California coast, is happily proven to be untrue, as is shown by the good ship's being safe and sound, alongside our wharves, without a spar broken or a shroud out of place.

A FALSE RUMOR.

The report published in the Portland Standard concerning the loss of the ship Western Shore, which is said to have capsized in a gale of wind off the California coast, is happily proven to be untrue, as is shown by the good ship's being safe and sound, alongside our wharves, without a spar broken or a shroud out of place.

We have received the holiday number of the West Shore, containing many fine views of Oregon and Washington Territory scenery. The one representing our city was good enough for the time it was taken, not less than four years ago; but it does not look much like Seattle of the present day.

Mrs. Julia Jenkins attempted suicide at San Jose on Saturday, in consequence of a divorce by the terms of which one of her children was taken from her. Her father is a wealthy farmer of Napa Valley, Cal., and she has hitherto moved in the very best society.

The Oregonian is now in the seventeenth year of its existence as a daily newspaper. As it always treats us bulgion sheets with courtesy, we say, go on and become a bloated rickocrat like the London Times. Who's a holdin' yer?

The steamship Colombo, of Hull, plying between that city and New York, is supposed to be lost with 47 passengers. Also the steamships Cromwell and Washington, each with thirty passengers, plying between St. John's, N. B., and New York.

I desire to correct certain false insinuations, reflecting upon my honesty, that appeared in a recent number of the "Daily Intelligencer." Having resided a long time adjacent to the Skagit river settlement, where all my interests are centered, and being actuated by a generous desire to assist my neighbors to prosper and to render whatever enterprising aid I could to open up our section of the country to settlement, meeting some of the party at Seattle as soon as I received them, they being highly pleased with this unexpected gratuity.

FOR VICTORIA—Steamer North Pacific, Clancy, Master, every Monday and Thursday at 8 A. M.

LOCAL NEWS.

From the Daily of Today.

BIG SAFE.—By the Dakota, a safe was received by Dexter Horton & Co., weighing 8,200 pounds, the lock covering the entire front door and so delicately poised that its massive bolts could be shot forth in all directions with the same ease that an ordinary cupboard lock can be turned.

THE LAST MAN.—A big crowd was gathered on the wharf yesterday afternoon as the North Pacific was swinging off from the pier. They had just had a good deal of "chin-chin, old man" and "Good-bye, Jawn" when along came a little Dutchman who lives at Port Gamble.

"GEM OF THE OCEAN."—This bark got aground on a sandspit near Useless Bay on Sunday while in tow of the propeller Favorite. She was subsequently got off without any serious damage and reached here yesterday.

HOMICIDE.—A drunken man came to Swan Anderson's saloon, near Port Blakely, on Sunday night, and discharged a shot gun at Anderson, a portion of the charge striking him in the forehead, but a greater portion lodged in the back of the head of another man who stood between them.

NEL SIKES.—We regret to hear that this gentleman, formerly a hotel keeper in Olympia and latterly a cigar drummer in San Francisco, was killed by the appalling railroad disaster near Ashtabula, Ohio, last month.

THE PLANTER.—This schooner has arrived from Whidby Island, with potatoes to Craig & Marshall. Owing to the high rates at which farmers hold them, there is a scarcity of the Fenian oranges which are worth as much on the Island as they are here.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—Our county board of commissioners has been in session all day yesterday, but no very important business transacted. We shall give full particulars in Friday's issue.

THE OTTER.—This boat took a trip down to Snohomish on Sunday with a party of immigrants who had arrived from the Eastern States on the Dakota. She returned at a late hour, the same night.

THE OSMYN.—This ancient and respectable bark arrived here yesterday after a lingering passage of some twenty-eight days from the California metropolis. At these times when coal charters are low, Capt. Sanders always carries a big stock of harpoons and bomb-lances. If he falls in with a school of whales, over goes his boats at the cry of "there she blows," and he keeps "outing in" till he gets enough oil to pay off his crew in Seattle and take Capt. Sam Blair to the Cliff House on his return.

THAT LECTURE.—We need something like police regulations to make the youthful hoodlums behave themselves when exhibitions are given here. The behavior of the gang at Yesler's Hall, last Saturday night, was a stupid affair; there was no charge at the doors and all that people had to do was to walk off quietly if they did not like it.

THE ATALANTA.—Steamer Yakima, from Port Gamble, darted in here through the fog of last Sunday morning and towed out the Atalanta with some 1,400 tons of Talbot coal. The barkentine Malay is fully due here to-day and the brig North Star should have been here before this.

NORTH PACIFIC.—This steamer struck a log on the passage over from Victoria on Friday night last, and went up to Tacoma where she was hauled out on Starr's grider and her fore-foot repaired. This delayed her a good deal and she did not reach here till yesterday at 1 P. M., when she lay at the wharf an hour and then left for Victoria with about forty passengers.

PREMATURE.—The story of Capt. Thos. Brennan being the future commander of the steamer Isabel, depends altogether upon the passage of a bill before Congress, to create a mail route between Port Townsend and Fort Wrangle. He is a good officer and Capt. Starr knows it as well as anybody.

BENEDICTED.—Among the passengers by the Dakota was George D. Shannon, well known about Kalama, and Tacoma in the palmy days of the Northern Pacific Railroad. He has brought back with him a wife and we welcome him back, with his bride, to God's country.

PAINTING UP.—The recent lull in coal shipments, occasioned by the non-arrival of the coal fleet, has given Capt. Taylor a chance to overhaul the steamers Addie and Lena C. Gray which have been neatly repainted.

DIVORCES.—The following unlimbered connubialities have been accomplished by the present term of District Court: G. C. Hubbard from F. A. Hubbard, Elizabeth Rhineheimer from Henry Rhineheimer, and L. S. Smith from Anna Smith.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB.—This society met at Dr. Weed's last night and read "Hamlet." The association has already over twenty members. Their next reading takes place on the 19th and will embrace the "Merchant of Venice."

IVY CLUB.—This association will meet at our editorial rooms on Wednesday (to-morrow) evening. Be on hand, sharp.

STRIKE.—There were fourteen men driven off work by a gang of strikers on the Walla Walla railroad, yesterday morning.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE DAVIS' is the simplest and best. FRED BARKER has some splendid cigars, and excellent brands of tobacco, pipes, cigar holders, pocket cutlery, etc.

COME ONE, COME ALL, and get one of the extra Mince Pies at the Eureka Bakery.

THE DAVIS' is light running, and noiseless, and does its work thoroughly. THE DAVIS' is in every respect a FIRST CLASS MACHINE, and worthy the attention of all who deem the best article a wash the best.

JAMES LICK did not leave any of his money to Jack Levy, but Jack has inherited a taste for good cigars and knows how to sell them to others.

CALL and see the new Davis Sewing Machine, at E. H. Hall's, Cherry street. FRED STAND is the place to get the best cigars in the city. Give him a call.

LOOK AT THIS.—To those that are suffering with the PILES can be cured in a very short time by calling on U. B. Farleman, at the Occidental Hotel.

If you want anything in the line of Drugs, Perfumery, Trusses, in fact, anything usually kept in a Drug Store, call on M. R. Maddocks, Seattle Drug Store.

AN examination of the DAVIS SEWING MACHINE will at once demonstrate the fact that it combines the great simplicity in construction, durability in work and wear, and most perfect ease and certainty in operation.

THE REASON WHY.—It has now transpired that the reason why Bennett and May shed no blood in the duel, was because they loaded the pistols with cream cakes. Piper has some of the same kind.

NOT ADJOURNED.—The Centennial at Philadelphia has closed its doors for a hundred years, but the Centennial Saloon of Seattle is still open, and Vergen is always on hand to meet his many friends.

THE "Centennial" and the National Gold Medal were awarded to Bradley & Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna medal for the best in the world. 429 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

A slight sketch of the mode of proceeding adopted may be worth notice, showing, as it does, that horses of high courage under proper treatment exhibit a wonderful amount of intelligence, and soon become accustomed to the sight and behavior of the wildest and most terrible of brutes. The first object is to avoid anything like a sudden fright, and to have sufficient time and space at command to enable those engaged in such an undertaking to run no risk of failure. It therefore required many days to practice their introduction to the various wild animals they are hereafter likely to meet in the jungle. It was only early in the morning, and before visitors were admitted, that these experiments could be carried out. It was decided that each horse should be mounted by an experienced and good rider. Mr. Prince, the stud-groom to his Royal Highness, and two grooms selected for the purpose, arrived at the appointed time, and, instead of entering the gardens at once, were slowly ridden up to the park fence, on the road known as the Outer Circle, and from this position they could clearly see the large male African elephant walking about in the paddock; in this way they felt somewhat safe, as they had the open road before them, and the elephant behind the fence. As soon as the horses had recovered their surprise at the sight of this animal, they were ridden into the gardens, and brought near enough to the elephant to make a close inspection of his general appearance. They were a little nervous at first, more especially when the great brute set up his large ears, and made an attempt to rush toward the horses, and utter his shrill note of alarm; they, however, soon began to acquire confidence, and cease to start or jump from him, and, after a day or two, would allow him, when let out with them, to come close enough to touch the end of his trunk. The next thing was to introduce to their notice the large male Indian rhinoceros. However quiet the horses were inclined to be, this savage monster was extremely angry at the sight of the men on horseback in so close proximity to his abode, and he rushed and snorted about in and around his paddock in a frightful state of excitement, and had it been in his power to get at them, he would, doubtless, have made short work with his new acquaintances. Notwithstanding his fury, Coomassie behaved in a cool and composed manner. It was delightful to witness the watchful and intelligent gaze with which this beautiful animal kept his eyes upon the frantic and enraged rhinoceros, without exhibiting any particular fear or alarm; and no doubt this coolness on his part assisted greatly to quiet his two companions, Cockney and Dashwood. It soon became evident that the task would be safely and perfectly accomplished. The camels were soon afterwards tried, and these appeared likely, at first, to afford rather more trouble than the elephant and rhinoceros. Their long, shaggy hair, the strange humps, and queer heads and necks seemed to puzzle the horses considerably; but after a while they allowed them to come near enough to smell them, and gradually acquire more confidence, until they would stand side by side and pass round or between them, touching them with their noses, and becoming quite familiar. It may appear singular, but the horse Coomassie appeared to have a wish to examine and revisit all the animals in the gardens; he required no urging to bring his face to face with the lions and tigers, notwithstanding the excitement into which the sight of the horse caused these animals to fly; but Coomassie looked at them with a most inquiring eye, not appearing in the slightest degree alarmed. This, then, ended the training of three of the finest of the Prince's horses.—Land and Water.

ACROSS THE MOUNTAINS.

Salmon weighing 12 pounds sell for two bits apiece at Walla Walla. A single firm in Walla Walla sold over $75,000 worth of agricultural implements during the year 1876. William Sanders is wanted by the Sheriff of Walla Walla county, for threatening the life of Gus Shellworth. The Agate Mills had 300 tons of flour on hand last week, but, as the river is open again, most of it is now in Portland or on the way thither. Colfax, the county seat of Whitman county, is growing rapidly. People complain of high prices for goods at that point, however. The restaurants at Walla Walla have reduced the price of first class board to $4 per week. At this rate the boarders get all the delicacies of the season. Walla is becoming a river port of considerable importance. She shipped 21,000 tons of freight down the Columbia river, last year. William Gallagher, who has resided in Oregon and this Territory ever since September 1845, died at Walla Walla on the 26th, after an illness of less than an hour's duration. A mine has recently been discovered in Yakima county, the assays from which go over nine thousand dollars per ton. If the batteries will turn out one fourth that amount, the consolidated Virginia will be nowhere beside it. The steamer A mota left Celilo for Wallula last Monday, the earliest opening of navigation of any year since boats began to run above the Dalles. This shows the country is improving or the company would not start their boats out so early in the season. The "Standard Mills" at Walla Walla are running day and night and turning out 125 barrels of flour, every twenty-four hours. It is now estimated that over one thousand tons of flour, wheat and bacon will be ready to go forward by the 1st of February, or as soon as navigation reopens. A new steamer called the New Yakima, containing the engines of the old and popular steamer Yakima, has recently been built by the O. S. N. Co. She can carry 300 tons of wheat and, with the Almot and New Tenino, will give the Company a total capacity of 850 tons in the three boats.

Capt. Bessie has given an order for a cargo of spars, to be delivered near Olympia by April. This will give immediate employment to a large camp of choppers and teamsters.

A man named Frank Woods is missing from near the mouth of Snohomish River. He borrowed a skiff to go to Thornton's place on Steamboat Slough and the fact of the skiff being found bottom up, induces the belief that he is drowned.

BY THE WIGHTMAN PROCESS!

Persons suffering from the above terrible disease will do well to call and see him. Mr. Farleman will be at Occidental Hotel till the 26th, and stop one week only, and then visit Port Townsend.

DR. C. F. WIGHTMAN. N. B.—Mr. Farleman is perfectly competent, as he treats the disease under my direction.

The Wightman Process gives immediate relief and positive cure. Piles or Hemorrhoids, Fistula in ano, Prolapsus Recti, and all other diseases of the Rectum can be relieved at once and cured in a very short time without recourse to the knife, ligature, or caustic, in nine cases out of ten. Having made the above distressing complaints and diseases my special and careful study, I have found that the right treatment is WITHOUT MEDICINE, as generally understood, and having treated many cases of twenty and thirty years' standing, with entire satisfaction to the patients treated, I consider myself perfectly master of the above diseases and offer my services with the honest conviction of saying,

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. To those that try the "Process," examination not always necessary, but personal interview desirable. If unable to visit me the remedies may be sent by Express C. O. D. (not Mail). All letters strictly confidential, and must contain stamp for return postage. I mean what I say, immediate relief from pain and distress.

THE PARDONING POWER.

The public had hardly recovered from the announcement of Dr. Glass' pardon for a heinous and revolting crime, ere we hear that Acting Governor Chadwick, of that State, has also pardoned Mrs. Caroline Briggs, wife of "Governor" Briggs, of Josephine county.

Now we should like to know if Mrs. Briggs is to set up another pistol gallery and who is to be her next victim? We do not doubt that she is afflicted with the symptoms of incipient dementia, as set forth in the body of the pardon granted her.

A volunteer contributor to the Intelligencer of Monday, would try and have people believe that nobody but Republicans fought in the Union army during the war.

An appalling homicide has been committed near Eugene City, by a young man named Kanoff, who shot and killed another man named Osburn, formerly a colonel in the Confederate army.

After being reported dead twice within the past year, the repentant telegraph now announces that Alexander H. Stephens cannot live. The poor old man is very weak and death would probably be a great relief to him.

A man named Nelson Tower has been arrested in San Francisco for striking his sister-in law over the head with a porcelain washbowl.

James Madison Wells, the hiring trickster of Grant and brother-in-law Casey, is getting a good roasting before the Electoral Commission at Washington.

So it seems that James Gordon Bennett has gone to Europe on one of the Inman steamers. Let him stay there; let him pull down his vest; let him retire to a convent; let the dead and the beautiful rest and (as friend Farnham would have it) "we will go home and eat apples."

The daily issue of the Olympia Echo has become a thing of the past. The flutulent concern is to confine its windy efforts to two weekly papers, in fact we may say very weakly papers, one at Olympia and the other at Tacoma.

A Hebrew named Michael Kofsky has been sent to jail at Virginia City, for larnping his wife. If he would come to Puget Sound, we would teach him better manners; and if he will come to Port Madison, they will endeavor to convert him in a polite Kofsky.

Hon. Isham G. Harris, former Governor of Tennessee, has been elected to the United States Senate from that State for the short term. He is a Democrat in politics and a man of good abilities.

A FEW DAYS.

A few days more will settle the pending question of who shall be the President of these United States after the fourth day of March. The high and august tribunal, whose existence is born of a great political emergency unthought of by the framers of our great and glorious Constitution, is progressing favorably with its labors and unravelling the tangled skein of circumstances surrounding the Southern elections.

The spectacle put forth for the gaze of the nation shows a just and inflexible leader to have received nearly a half million more popular votes than his adversary. It shows him to have been overwhelmingly the popular choice, even while base conspirators like Casanova, Wells and Kenner, sat ready to execute the behests of their masters.

THE FORBES CASE.

We mentioned, some days since, that a contract for work of building bridges and cutovers on the Puyallup coal road had been let to P. D. Forbes, of Victoria. That gentleman has been imprisoned for contempt in refusing to deliver up, in the suit of Charles Morton and J. E. Davies, certain papers connected with the artificial stone case in which James H. Thorp and L. L. Leathers were the principals.

However rigidly the secrecy of private and privileged communications may be kept—and it is a right which in all law ful matters will be jealously protected by the courts—it must still be understood that a public institution eminently secret in its workings—protected as it is by the law—so that to touch even a post to injure it is penal, cannot be allowed to become the instrument, however innocently, of contravening the laws of the country which protects it, or to conceal frauds perpetrated under its authorized secrecy.

And the point I think necessary to call attention to is the extraordinary powers of an order of the Court by way of injunction, and the necessity there is of obeying it first, and complaining of it, if there be subject of complaint, at the time or immediately afterwards, to the court whence it issues, when the wrong or evil can at once be righted. In this matter, having satisfied myself of the breach, I am of opinion that on consideration of the facts disclosed, that the defendant, Peter Dewar Forbes, has been guilty of a contempt of this Court, by a breach of the said injunction of the 15th January last, and I do order that the said Peter Dewar Forbes do stand committed to the Queen's prison at Victoria, for his said contempt, and that the said defendant do pay the costs of and consequent on this order as between solicitor and client, to be taxed by the proper officer.

How the arrest and imprisonment of Mr. Forbes will affect his contracts in this Territory remains to be seen. There are many people here expecting to get work under him, who would like to see the outcome of the transaction.

The Grand Jury which just adjourned found considerable evidence that certain parties in town are habitually selling liquors to minors. They very prudently refrained from presenting indictments in the cases which came to their knowledge, because the evidence was insufficient to insure conviction. But we trust that when sufficient evidence can be had, that prosecutions will be made. It is a poor saloon-keeper who can't get a living by selling grog to grown people, and no man wants to patronize any place where a gang of hoodlum boys are hanging around.

In seventeen years' experience as an editor, we have yet the first man to shield from merited justice. But when a well-read judge decides that a law is in operative and a conviction cannot be had under it, we do not see the sense of burdening tax-payers with the expense of prosecution under that law.

Telegrams of last night indicate crumbs of comfort for the Republicans, by the Electoral Commission's giving Florida to the Hayes electors. That does not carry with it Louisiana and South Carolina by a good deal.

The Territorial Treasurer, Hon. Frank Tarbell, is paying all warrants upon the Treasury bearing date up to the 1st day of December. This speaks well for our old friend's efficiency.

The mysterious Owings has been confirmed as Secretary of Washington Territory and will probably make Olympia his place of residence for the next six weeks.

Should be Abolished.

One of the greatest needs of the incoming Congress, elected specially upon a reform platform, is the entire abolition of the so-called Internal Revenue department of the Government. While the war lasted, the thing was well enough but now the national debt is greatly reduced and this internal revenue tax on many industries serves only to enable foreign manufacturers to undersell those of our own country and stifle local enterprise.

The returns of the Internal Revenue bureau for the States of Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Florida, Georgia, Alabama and the Carolinas, show that the expense of collecting the Internal Revenue in those States, exceeds the total receipts by several thousand dollars. Under an honest administration, such an institution would be abolished at once, as unprofitable for the country; but for the sake of keeping up party machinery and supporting the lackeys of the administration, the Internal Revenue is kept up, year after year.

Another objectionable feature of the concern is the way in which its workings are conducted. Its officers affect to themselves powers not only of arrest and seizure, but of trial as well. The way in which men holding positions in this department on salaries of $1,200 to $1,800 a year, build residences worth $20,000 and spend from $8,000 to $12,000 a year in entertaining friends, shows it to be a prolific source of blackmailing. When Sargent was elected United States Senator, a man who had labored hard for him wanted to be made Postmaster of San Francisco. "I'll do better than that for you," said the Quaker Hill statesman. And he did. He got him appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue for California, Oregon and Arizona, and when he did get kicked out, it was with nearly sixty thousand dollars in his pocket for less than three years' work. That was a significant remark of the San Francisco Bulletin, some years ago, that "no matter how competent a chemist a man was he could make no money in the distillery business unless he had previously been successful as a Republican politician."

The Internal Revenue is to-day the most rotten of all the departments of the Government. It has the taint of Babcock about it and a little of the same smell lingers about the President's clothes. There is the taint of Avery, Joyce and McDonald, all robbers of the Treasury and all since pardoned by the President. Abolish it and let justice be done. Do not tax German brewers to their very last cent and let American wire pullers go scot-free. Better abolish the rotten affair, and done with it.

The author of the "People's Drug Store" and other romances, finds a column of last night's Tribune at his service, to give us a taste of his quality. We feel greatly aggrieved at his saying that he "has no confidence either in our honesty or integrity." Some dozen leading citizens of this place have pretty near the same opinion of the chief contributor to the Tribune of last night. Any man of ordinary modesty would have kept quiet after the overwhelming rebuke he received at the polls, last November; nor does the fact that three intelligent juries refuse to convict anybody on his evidence, and that of his "pal," seem to bring him to his senses. We have already stated that he is a bill of expense to the county and will cite the fee book of Mr. Justice Selye's court to prove that an expense of at least seventy five dollars additional was fastened on the county there yesterday, in addition to the three trials that took place before Judge Lewis. As far as our personal animosity towards him, we have none. There can be no quarrels for us with a man whom the Chief Justice accused of perjury and whom a dozen of our best citizens decline to believe under oath.

TURBINE WHEEL.—We noticed a large iron turbine in the warehouse on Yesler's wharf the other day, destined for the Snohomish country. It was brought up from San Francisco on the bark Montana.

Spring must be opening again. The commercial travelers are beginning to put in appearances, once more.

EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Randall having been criticized for appointing two Democratic tellers on the part of the House, it is proper to state that this course was adopted in pursuance of a determination of the Democratic caucus, it being understood, however, at the time, that the presiding officer of the Senate should be notified of the arrangement, so he might appoint two Republican tellers on the part of the Senate.

The new Board of Police Commissioners to-day reinstated Major Richards Superintendent of Police, and also the detective who had been superceded.

The decision of the tripartite commission regarding the various features of the Florida case are awaited with intense interest, as they involve primarily the main question whether the commission has power to go behind the action of the State returning board. The fifth rule promulgated by the commission to-day, is regarded by many persons as a positive intimation that such power may be exercised, but the general opinion is that its provisions are intended merely to cover a possibility which has still to be determined by a majority of the commission after hearing arguments in public and duly deliberating on the question in secret conference.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The World's New Orleans special says: Packard has put in an answer to the suit to Jno. H. Houghton vs. S. B. Packer, pending in the sixth district court. This is the court which Packard's legislature pretended to abolish. He did not object to its jurisdiction or deny its authority. Judge Righton of the court was appointed by Gov. Nicholls. There has been no quorum in either House of the Packard legislature for two days.

The Sun concludes an editorial on the commission for counting the votes, declaring the House surrenders its rights and Bradley will elect Hayes.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 1.—Gov. Hampton having granted a pardon to Amiga Rosbrough, colored prisoner, in jail of Chester county, and the Sheriff refusing to release the prisoner on the ground that Hampton is not governor of the State, Judge J. T. Mackey issued a writ of habeas corpus on petition of the prisoner, and yesterday the case was argued, when Judge Mackey decided that Wade Hampton was the legal governor. The Sheriff's counsel promptly appealed to the supreme court.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The Times' Washington special on Grant's recommendation for specie payments, says the proposition meets with little encouragement in Congress. It is not regarded with anything more nearly approaching approval than almost entire indifference by more than a dozen members. A few realize the importance of the opportunity, but until the count of the electoral vote is completed the subject cannot secure a hearing. When it does come up the old difficulty of getting those who have the end in view to agree upon any one method of securing it will stand in the way, and any action by this Congress to aid in hastening specie payment can not be hoped for, and the President deprived of the support which ought to be earnestly given him by the law-making power, must be content with making an official record of his views and opinions. He has most earnestly desired to see specie payment resumed during his administration, and it is a great misfortune that he will not be able by reason of the inefficiency of the law to bring that end to pass.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Marshal Pitkin, was examined last night at his rooms by the sub-committee of the Louisiana committee. Gov. Wells is sick this morning. The Louisiana returning board are in close confinement. Visitors are admitted by card, and conversations are held within the hearing of an officer of the House.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue had issued a circular concerning exports to the Hawaiian Islands, on which collectors of internal revenue are requested to notify at once the exporters of their respective districts of regulations presented by the Hawaiian government, on the entry of all goods of the growth, produce or manufacture of the United States, which are shipped from ports of the United States for free entry into the Hawaiian Islands under the convention for commercial reciprocity between the United States and the King of the said Islands. As the oath to the invoice is to be taken before a Hawaiian consul, and as such officers are probably appointed only for the principal ports of export of the United States, the attention of exporters who do not propose to go thither for the purpose of making such affidavit, is called to the necessity of being represented at such ports by agents competent to the satisfaction of consul to make the required oath.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Mr. Stephens became much worse during evening, and at midnight was very low.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—Rinderpest having appeared in Lime House parish suburb, neither cattle, sheep, nor goats can live.

VERSAILLES, Feb. 1.—The Senate has passed a grant for relief of the famine stricken inhabitants of Pondicherry.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The Secretary of War will to-day transmit to the House as answer to the Jencks resolution of January 10, 1876, requesting a careful and exact survey of the distance on the Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroads between Council Bluffs and Sacramento, the report of Capt. Twiling of the engineer corps, to whom the duty was assigned. The report shows the length of each of these railroads to be somewhat greater than was shown by the original measurement upon which subsidies were issued. The amount of the error is for the Union Pacific one mile and a quarter and for the Central Pacific a little less than a mile.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Julius Schloss and Ferdinde Malengo, two wealthy Californians, came very near being swindled by New York sharpers to-day. The Californians were at the Bremen steamer wharf, about to sail for Germany, when John Brown and Isaiah Capon attempted to sell them bogus bonds. The Californians were about consummating the purchase when a policeman arrested the sharps, who are well known offenders.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The Tribune's Washington special says that Grant visited the treasury department this morning for the purpose of collecting some additional data, which he desires to use in his forthcoming special message on an early resumption of specie payments. The President held a short conference with Assistant Secretary Conant on the subject. On his return to the Executive Office he began the formal preparation of the message. To-day, in conversation, the President said he hopes to have his draft of the message prepared in time to submit it to the cabinet to-morrow. He had not determined when he would send the message to Congress, but would decide that after consulting with his cabinet advisers. The President read carefully the numerous comments on his proposition for an early resumption of specie payment.

Another special to the same paper says that the decision in the Florida case will be reached by Tuesday. An important discovery has been made in regard to the legal requirements of the certificates and authentication of the returns of the Presidential electors. The act of 1792 reads that the executive authority of each State shall cause three lists of the names of the electors of such State to be made and certified, and to be delivered to the electors on or before the first Wednesday in December, and said electors shall receive a copy of said lists of each of the lists of their votes. In the revised statutes, the language of the first clause is changed so as to read the executive, instead of executive authority. The change means the governor, and nobody else; but executive authority may be the Secretary of State, or any other officer empowered by the State law to canvass the vote. Thus under the form of the statute, its meaning has been materially altered, and the importance given to the certificate of the governor, as in the Oregon case, was never intended by the original act.

The Sun's Albany special says in conversation to-day Morrissey said the testimony of Col. Pickett relative to the conversation had with him about the purchase of the Louisiana returning board was true and added there had not been a day since the week after the election when the vote of Louisiana could not be secured for Tilden by the payment of money to Wells. What Wells wanted was ready money, instead of promises, in order to make good his $450,000 cotton claim, and the position of inspector of levees at New Orleans, which had been promised him by the other side.

The Tribune's Washington special says a Republican lawyer connected with the Louisiana case said to-night, "We cannot at present give our side of the Louisiana bribery story. The Democratic committee under Dudley Field's leadership, will conceal from the Republicans in the case, and possibly the Democrats hope to prevent its being made public at any time. All I can say is, that a damnable conspiracy will be shown. In a few days we shall be able to prove this to the satisfaction of every honest man in this country. Meanwhile tell the people of the country not to be disturbed. The whole story is a conspiracy of perjured and indicted thieves and scoundrels, and when the truth is told the public will be startled."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Maddox was to-day removed from his official position as agent of the Internal Revenue Bureau. The removal was determined upon by the President yesterday, and he consequently sent for Col. S. E. Chamberlain, now of Virginia and formerly an officer in the rebel army, and tendered the place to him. The offer was accepted, and this evening Commissioner Raum notified Maddox he was from this date dismissed from the service of the Internal Revenue office.

NEW YORK.—The Times' Baltimore special gives a letter which the Baltimore Gazette will print to-morrow, detailing the antecedents of Maddox, which are at least of doubtful character. He was a blockade runner, and confessed to holding secretly one position while pretending to hold another. He made every effort to get introduced to Sherman and Garfield, but the former declared to a friend that he believed Maddox to be a scoundrel, and refused to see him. Maddox, while in the rebel army, was intrusted with tobacco to sell in the North, but it was seized by the North (the rebels believe on Maddox's own information); and it further seems that he cheated both rebels and Unionists in other matters, and is not to be believed.

The Times' Washington special says the Senate committee investigating the Louisiana election will report in a few days. They have carefully examined all questions regarding the so-called bull-dozed parishes and other districts where intimidation was practiced. Their report will show that, if a fair and peaceful election had been held, Hayes would have carried the State by a decided majority.

A telegram from Virginia City, Nevada, dated yesterday, says the Sutro tunnel had progressed 148 feet for the ten days preceding, and has now reached a length of 15,865 feet and has fairly entered the mineral belt. Fifteen inches of warm water was struck on Thursday.

Charles O'Connor, in company with Secretary Fish, called upon President Grant to-day to tender manifestations of his personal respect, and was received by him with cordiality and with expressions of congratulation on Mr. O'Connor's extraordinary recovery from his recent dangerous illness.

The Ohio Senators and Representatives have received copies of the resolutions of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, heartily approving of the bill appropriating $50,000 for an expedition to the North Pole on the plan suggested by Capt. Howgate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3d.—During the Maddox testimony, to-day, he said he had been offered $50,000 to aid the cotton claim which he was investigating. When pressed for an answer as to the name of the person who approached him, he said it was Col. C. McGuire, who was mixed up with the St. Louis whisky ring. McGuire will be summoned before the committee.

The Secretary of War yesterday transmitted to the House, in answer to the Jencks resolution of Jan. 19, 1876, requesting a careful and exact survey of the distance on the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroads between Council Bluffs and Sacramento, the report of Capt. Twiling of the engineer corps, to whom the duty was assigned. This report shows that the length of each of these railroads is somewhat greater than was shown by the original measurement on which subsidies were issued. The amount of the error is for the Union Pacific one mile and a quarter and for the Central Pacific a little less than a mile.

Alexander H. Stephens' condition to-day is rather better. He is, however, gradually growing weaker. The President and his son Ulysses called upon Stephens this afternoon. When leaving the President took him by the hand and assured him he would call again, and hoped to find him better.

PACIFIC COAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—It is rumored in stock circles that a powerful alliance is now being formed between Flood & O'Brien and other California street magnates, who have hitherto been antagonistic.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—At the Democratic Congressional Convention last night both the minority and majority were represented, and though the meeting was somewhat discordant, a report was agreed upon providing for the appointment of a committee to arrange for the primary.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—A. H. Harris and Henry Hart, composing the stock broking firm of Harris & Hart, of the big board, were arrested this evening on complaint of Thos. Sunderland, capitalist and operator, charging them with embezzlement 2,000 shares of California, worth $58 per share at the time of the transaction. The firm deny that any grounds exist for such a charge, stating that at the time of their failure, some months ago, they were carrying stock to a large amount for Sunderland, which was sold out in connection with their own stock, and that the transaction was perfectly legitimate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—The State central committee of the National Greenback party, met at Oakland this evening and extended an invitation to a committee of the State Grange, which meets in this city on the 20th inst., to meet them in conference. They adopted resolutions to vote for no man who does not support greenback currency.

It now seems there is no room to doubt the fate of the two boys, Dudley and Barbee, who drifted outside the heads a few days ago in a sailboat. The captain of two coasting schooners report having seen the boat capsized off the heads and the boys drowned after clinging a few moments to the boat.

Richard Weigand, arrested recently for challenging George F. Aaron, clerk of the International Hotel at Sacramento, to fight a duel, was today held to answer in the sum of $1,000.

There was rare fun in the big board yesterday afternoon. The notorious quack doctor and swindler, Luscombe, alias "Cornbloom," managed to gain entrance to the board room, and business being dull some of the rollicking members of the board were looking around for mischief, and spying Luscombe, he was politely escorted into the center of the bull-ring, where his hat was smashed down over his eyes, and after some rather rough kicking and cuffing a broomstick was procured, on which he was ridden out of the board room with a significant hint not to come again.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The inquiry into the registration frauds by the finance committee of the board of supervisors, was renewed this evening; but little of interest was elicited. The day clerk of the Coso lodging house corroborated the previous testimony of the night clerk, that certificates were issued to some 19 men alleged to have been living there who had never occupied rooms in the house. One was found who had been supplied with two certificates, but only voted on one of them, and that for Tilden and Mendricks. The feature of the evening was a lively sparring match between Col. Barnes and Mr. Hayes, counsel for the Republicans and Democrats, respecting the latter, alleging that Mr. Hickox, a banker, had a list of 2,600 names of men who voted, but were not residents. Barnes wanted to put Hayes on the stand to prove his allegation, but the latter declined. The committee adjourned further inquiry till next Tuesday, at the request of Mr. Hayes, who wishes time to procure additional witnesses.

With regard to the statement made at the meeting of the finance committee of the board of supervisors to investigate election frauds, in which Wm. Hayes, counsel for the Democrats, said Hickox, a banker of this city, had in his possession affidavits of 2,700 names of parties who had voted illegally, and were not residents of this city, Hickox this morning stated that he had a mass of affidavits given him for examination as an expert of signatures, but knows nothing as to whether the signers were legal voters here.

The mortality of the city during the week is excessive, reaching 159. Of these 32 were from diphtheria and 18 smallpox; 30 new cases of smallpox were verified by the health officer during the week.

SANTA CRUZ, Feb. 3.—At present, in the mountains between here and San Mateo county, two parties of surveyors, on different routes, are surveying for a broad gauge railroad for Stanford & Co., and will connect with the S. P. R. R. Co.'s track probably at Menlo Park, at which place the survey was started.

More Negro Humor.

The indigenous humorist of the Atlanta Constitution gets off many a good thing and puts a great deal of homely philosophy into the mouth of "Old Si," an aged darkey who occasionally travels on his muscle and makes the young colored folks stand around. The latest aphorism of the ancient contraband is:

NO ORGAIN IN HIS'N,
Some of the members were discussing the question of getting an organ for the Church. Old Si remarked:
"When yer passes 'round the hat fer dat 'musement jest skip me!"
"Whaffer we do that?"
"Kase I don't want none ob dis hebbellus music in de church dat I's 'pendin' on fer saifshun!"
"Whar kin' of music do you want?"
"I wants de same ole music dat de good Lawd wound up in de nigger's so'l, and dat biles out in streams of praise dat wakes de naborhood f'om solid slumbers!"
"Plane singin', yer idgit! Do yer call dat plane singin' when de kongregashun flings back hits heads an' sings 'Send Down de Charryn', f'um de bottom ob bo' lungs dat at once?"
"I call dat plane singin'."
"Den yer all better stick to plane singin', too, 'kase Im'e thinkin' dat de only win' organ dat yer needs to look arter is de horn ob de angil Gabril!"
"They concluded to drop the question."

THE SIGN OF THE ROOSTERS.
"What's de matter wid all de newspapers dat dey adfer'tizing chicken-roosters so strong?" said a darkey as he looked at the Nashville American.
"Been out in de country, ain't yer?" asked Old Si.
"No, I ain't."
"Bin in jail, den?"
"No, sah, I isn't sah!"
"Bin sick an' outen yer hed, I suppose?"
"No, sah!"
"Den where de debil is you bin sence las' Chuesday week dat you ain't foun' out dat de Dimmycrat rooster has lick't de 'publican crow, an' is cock ob de walk in de whole United States!"
"Is dat a fac'?" asked the astonished darkey.
"Dat's pintedly de fac', and de Dimmycrats runs dem roosters up dar on de papah fer a sigh dat de 'publican nig-gahs mus' buckle down ter business an' keep dere han's offen de hen rooses; now yer see what de finger-board means?"
