"THOU SHALT NOT KILL."—Mr. Koozer, a California editor, who came to this coast with Stevenson's regiment before the gold discovery, for many years kept a record of all the homicides committed in the State, which came to his knowledge, and the subsequent history of the surviving parties to the affairs which resulted in death who escaped the penalty for murder. In 1862 he exhibited to us the result of his inquiries, showing the remarkable fact that upon his record he had the names of over twenty persons who had committed homicide and come to violent deaths without the interposition of law, and not one who had died a natural death. These facts have been forced upon our mind by the incidents of the past week, in this city. A man who had never been accused of crime before that time, under an unfortunate combination of circumstances took the life of another, several years since. He was by law acquitted of the crime of murder, but it was apparent from his subsequent demeanor that he could not reconcile it to his conscience that the taking of the life of another was necessary to the preservation of his own life. The blood of his fellow was on his hands and cried for bloody atonement. He tried to atone for his error by an exemplary life, but "the damned spot" would not "out" at his bidding. Under a temporary embarrassment which under a healthy frame of mind would not have disturbed his slumbers, he took his life into his own hands and rushed to final judgment with the blood of two victims instead of one upon his head.

In another case, a man who had committed homicide in Pennsylvania twenty years ago, during all of which time he had evaded the penalty of the law by hiding away in the wilderness, finally met a shocking death at the hands of his own son, born after the commission of the deed which made him a fugitive. The boy was last week tried for murder and acquitted on the ground of moral imbecility. Thus, after having enjoyed immunity from the law for more than twenty years, the issue of his own body becomes the instrument of vengeance through general insanity begotten of the curse of blood that was upon him. Are all these incidents, so uniform as to form a rule to which there are but few exceptions, simply accidental?—or do they belong to the immutable laws for the protection of human life, under the direction of the Great Lawgiver, who has declared: "Whosoever sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed"? If the latter, then it follows as a logical deduction from the same premises, that there is a future state of rewards and punishments where final judgment upon all the transactions of this life will be rendered sure and certain. The authority is alike in both cases. Let those who carry deadly weapons and resort to their use on the most trivial provocation, ponder these things and the awful consequences involved.

FLAX CULTURE.—The Portland Bulletin says: The Messrs. Williamson Bros., from Belfast, Ireland, began the culture of flax for the fibre in Lin county, last year. They sowed one hundred and twenty acres, and found the soil and climate adapted, and the harvest remunerative. They realized of fine lint, on an average of six hundred pounds per acre, worth $500 per ton. This was sent to Belfast to be manufactured into various linen fabrics. The first grade of tow is sent to the New York market for other purposes, at a paying rate.—The second grade of tow has, in part, been sold to the Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company for upholstering purposes, at four cents per pound or $80 a ton. This second grade of tow can be utilized for burlaps, with proper machinery.

If any one interested in this product will step into the Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company's office on Front street, the gentlemanly proprietors will show him also another tow, white and strong, from the Salem Oil Mill. The Messrs. Holman have encouraged flax culture for the seed alone, and have made a success in manufacturing linseed oil. They propose to extend the area this year, so report says, by encouraging the farmers of Eastern Oregon to put in 5,000 acres for seed. They use the shorter and more branching variety, which gives a larger product of seed; yet their fibre is very strong for bagging, for twine, and for ropes. Much of it is baled and sent to California to be manufactured. This product increases so rapidly beyond present consumption that it is left on the ground, we are told, like straw, to rot and waste, or be burned.

The Messrs. Smith, from North Ireland, raised a large amount of flax in Marion county last year, for shipment to Belfast. Of course the tow must have a nearer market, if sold at all, as the fine lint only bears shipment to Belfast.

The Messrs. Williamson Bros. have already reaped 400 acres for $15 per acre, to be sown in flax this year. It is easy to see that the profits are large.—The culture costs about $40 per acre; rent, say $15 per acre. The lint alone, at $600 per acre, brings $150. Doubtless other expenses consume a part of this profit.

One value of this product is to introduce a new industry into Oregon and Washington. The soil and climate are found even better than that of Ireland for flax. The business gives employment to many thousands of men, women and children in southwestern Europe.

We import over $300,000 worth of sacks per year, which can all be made here of our own material, which is far better than jute burlaps.

Thus far we quote from the Bulletin and its application of this industry to the conditions of Oregon. The country bordering upon Puget Sound is, in every respect, much better adapted to flax culture than any portion of Oregon, or, indeed, any other portion of the globe. The climate of this section is identical with that of Ireland, not generally varying from it three degrees of temperature in any month of the year, and in no greater proportion in atmospheric conditions of rain, snow and wind, and Ireland is counted the best flax growing region of the world. Bordering upon the rivers, bays and inlets of Puget Sound there are tens of thousands of acres of lands formed of marine deposits, which will produce fifty per cent. more to the acre, on an average, than the richest prairie or bottom lands in the Willamette Valley. Such of these lands as are covered with vines and soft wood trees can be cleared for the plow for $20 an acre. The tide-lands can be reclaimed at much less cost by dyking, and can be procured in fee simple, all prepared for cultivation, within sight of vessels plying to and from the ports of the world, at a less cost than the annual rent of much less productive lands in the interior of Oregon. The reason for this is, that this section, with its unsurpassed climate, unparalleled resources and boundless natural wealth, has only been made known to the world through the hyperbolic advertising circulars of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, in whose representations no one had any confidence.

GRAINS.—About four years ago Mr. James B. Montgomery brought from Missouri several dozen quails, then the first in this country. He turned them loose on Whiskey Island, and now that section is well stocked with them. Mr. Dyer has procured at his own expense a few dozen of these game birds, which he has turned loose in the country around Seattle. We are sorry to learn that there are persons mean enough to shoot these birds before they get their stock started. All should aid in protecting them for a year or two when the country will be well stocked with them, if they are suffered to live till then.

NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS.—The White Church, the oldest church in the town, and a "relic of days gone by," has been in the hands of painters and carpenters since about Thanksgiving time, undergoing complete renovation. It has been lengthened some twenty feet, a steeple added and been repainted and plastered. The old benches have been taken out and new ones added, as well as a new pulpit. It will be dedicated on Sunday the 14th.

Six years ago the White and Brown Churches were the only ones in this place. There are now six churches, and another one will soon be built by the Presbyterian congregation.

COMING.—Rev. Chas. L. Fisher, the new minister for St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, started from New York for his new field of labor on the 11th of January. He left San Francisco, per steamer Orinismme, on Wednesday last, and may be looked for here on Monday next. Rev. C. Bonnell writes from the East that he will turn his steps Tacoma ward on or about the 1st of April.—Tacoma Tribune.

LOADING AT PORT BLAKELY.—There are now seven vessels loading at Port Blakely Mills, on the bay opposite Seattle, as follows: barks Caroline Reed, Martha Rideout, Oak Hill, and barkentine R. K. Ham, San Francisco; bark Columbia, Australia; bark Cambridge, San Pedro; French bark Bretagne, New Caledonia.

RARE CHANCE.—Mr. Farnham, who is constrained by ill health to retire from a successful and profitable business, offers a rare opportunity to any business man with a small capital to succeed to his business. See advertisement.

DEDICATION.—The Methodist Episcopal Church in this city will dedicate next Sunday, the 14th inst. Dedicated Sermon at 11 A. M. by Rev. Robert Bentley of Portland. Children's meeting at 2 1/2 P. M. Mr. Bentley will preach at 7 P. M. All are invited.

BUILDINGS.—Four or five cottages are building on the hill at the north end of town, and we hear of several more that will be started as soon as the weather gets settled.

We take pleasure in announcing that A. J. Finkstone, late of the Chronicle, is in town again and is now agent for the Sacramento Semi-Weekly Record. We wish him all success as he is canvassing for a good and able paper.

ACCIDENT AT SAN JUAN.—Mr. Henry Jones, while engaged in blasting at the San Juan Lime-kill, one day last week, was severely injured in the hands and eyes, by the sudden and unexpected explosion of a charge of giant-powder.—B. B. Mail.

THE TURF.—George Coggan charges the rider of his horse, Osceola, that he attempted to sell the race with the Seattle horse, having used morphine on Osceola, and received coin to throw the race off. The project failed, as the race was won by Osceola.—Vic. Standard.

ACQUITTED.—The trial of James Good, indicted for assault with intent to kill, for shooting and dangerously wounding George Wilson, was terminated on Thursday evening by a verdict of not guilty; it appearing to the jury that the act was done in self-defense. Prosecuting Attorney McConaha conducted the prosecution and James McNaught, Esq., the defence.

CHANGE OF OFFICERS.—After this trip there will be a change in the officers of the North Pacific. Mr. Fenton, the efficient and gentlemanly pursor, intends to visit California for his health. Captain Chas. E. Clancy, who has been acting as pilot, takes the position vacated by Mr. Fenton, and Dan Morrison that of pilot.—Victoria Standard.

BERNARD TRONBY, EDITOR.

Seattle, W. T., Feb. 18, 1875.

TOO MUCH ISSANE ASYLUM.—Every newspaper printed upon the Sound published the report of the Committee appointed to investigate the management of the Insane Asylum, which reflected severely upon the official and personal conduct of Drs. Hemenway and Willison; the DISPATCH is the only paper which has published the reply of those gentlemen in vindication of themselves and the Medical Association. Now comes J. M. Low with a rejoinder, of a purely personal character, which will fill four columns of our daily, without a single suggestion which would be of general public interest, or necessary to vindicate the character of Judge Low as a fair minded and well meaning gentleman, which has not been aspersed. We are therefore constrained to decline an onerous burden which would be not only gratuitous but fruitless for any good. The personal phase of this controversy should never have been allowed to intrude itself into the discussion or consideration of the subject.—That is the mistake which defeated the object intended by the Medical Association in demanding the commission.—The question sought to be determined was as to modes of treatment. Mr. Harmon was not put on trial for personal acts of violence and outrage, which the committee seemed to think; it needed no commission of physician or experts to pass upon cases of assault and battery, and it was an impertinence to bring an array of lawyers before a commission raised for the purpose of investigating facts solely for the purpose of determining whether the system of brute force and corporal punishment was the best for the treatment of the Insane. The committee were not to blame for not investigating other facts than those presented to them. The Medical Committee had no notice of their meeting and no opportunity of consultation with them, and hence the whole affair was a failure and a farce.

JUDGE LEWIS.—The following item of news in relation to a matter in which the people of this section have a deep interest, is from the Portland Oregonian, and should be received with some grains of allowance from the fact that the paper making the statement delights in the promulgation of personal scandal as an evidence of its independence. We have no information of any specific charges against Judge Lewis, and popular clamor against a public man is not, in a majority of cases, evidence of his demerits. A gentleman lately from Washington told us some time since, that Judge Lewis, as a jurist, stood foremost of Territorial Judges with the Department of Justice, in Washington, as his subsequent promotion would indicate.

A petition is circulating in and around Walla Walla, for the removal from office of Judge Lewis, of the Supreme Court of Washington Territory upon grounds which, if they really exist, are certainly sufficient, and if they do not exist ought certainly never to be alleged. The petitioners represent the judge as wholly unfit morally to occupy a position on the bench. It is said nearly the entire community join in the representations and the request based upon them. We do not refer to the matter for the purpose of expressing any opinion as to the facts in the premises, as we know nothing of them personally. But it is hardly possible for the case to go by without investigation, the charges being of too grave a nature for that.

DR. WILLISON'S RESIGNATION.—The following communication was placed in the hands of Dr. Weed, the chairman of the committee appointed by the Medical Society to wait upon the Governor and Auditor to demand an investigation of the affairs of the Insane Asylum, on the day of its date, deferring to the committee the exercise of their own discretion as to the time of its presentation to the Governor and Auditor. It was deemed by the committee best to withhold the resignation until after the investigation sought, as its presentation at that time would tend to complicate matters. It is due to Dr. Willison that the fact should be published, and for this purpose the resignation and explanation has been handed to us:—

TO HIS EXCELLENCY GOV. E. P. FERRY AND HON. J. M. MURPHY, EDITORS OF THE TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON; Gentlemen:—At the regular annual meeting of the "Medical Society of Washington Territory" held at Seattle, 22nd Oct. 1874, the following resolution was passed by that body, to wit: "Resolved, That we, the Medical Society of Washington Territory, do most earnestly protest against the present management of our Insane Asylum, by which the Physician is made subordinate to the contractor, having no authority over the inmates and attendants other than prescribing medicines for the patients; and that it is a position that no medical man of good standing can occupy without compromising his own honor and the dignity of the profession."

[Inclosed please find a certified copy of the above.] This feeling on the part of the medical profession, as expressed in the above resolution, only confirms the sentiment that I have long felt, and reiterated the same to you months ago, after I became familiar with the practical results of the management of the Institution. As you have informed me that, "there can not be any change made in the present government of the Asylum until Mr. Harmon's contract expires, Aug. the 19th, 1876;" therefore you please accept my resignation, and fix the time for my withdrawal as soon as possible.

Respectfully,
Your Most Obedient Servant,
H. C. WILLISON, M. D.
Resident Physician Territorial Asylum, Steilacoom, W. T.

It will be seen from this that neither Dr. Willison nor the Medical Society were actuated by any personal or private motives in the action they took. It was the system to which they took exception, and the wrongs of that system which they sought to correct; not to make war upon the instruments of those wrongs. The Governor and Auditor, in conceding to their demand for an investigation of the system under which the Asylum is conducted, "kept the word of promise to the ear, but broke it to the hope," which made the investigation for all practical purposes, worse than useless. The committee of the Medical Society, at whose instance the investigating committee was appointed, was utterly ignored; no invitation extended to them to be present. The committee of investigation proceeded upon the hypothesis that they were there only for the purpose of trying the personal acts of Hill Harmon, the contractor, and in the absence of any prosecution, while Mr. Harmon appeared with an array of lawyers for the defence, reported simply upon the facts presented, acquitting Mr. Harmon of any intentional act of cruelty or outrage, while admitting that some instances "more force was used than was necessary to accomplish the purpose."

Any jury of the vicinage without any knowledge of medicine or the treatment of the insane could just as intelligently pass upon the questions presented; and this commission, raised for the purpose, ventured no suggestion as to the proper treatment of the insane under any circumstances; expressed no opinion as to the propriety of giving unlimited power to the contractor to use such force as he might deem necessary, without any knowledge of the case and treatment of the insane. That Mr. Harmon exercises his power as humanely as most men utterly ignorant of medicine or the modes of treating insane persons would, has not been questioned. That patients have been knocked down, choked and kicked; forced into cold baths, shut up in cold and unfurnished cells, and whipped, not as necessary means of restraint, but for punishment, is not denied. In any well regulated institution for the care and treatment of the insane no more force is used than absolutely necessary to restrain violence, and no punishment is admitted without any pretense. That, and that alone is the system which the Medical Society sought to establish in the interests of humanity and not to promote the personal ends of anybody. The facts are now before the people and the Medical Society confidently look to the Legislature, at its next session, to take enlightened action in the premises.

KING CAUCUS DEFEATED.—It is a very remarkable and suggestive fact in the three Northwestern States—Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota—the caucus nominee of the dominant party has been defeated: Chandler by Christianity, Carpenter by Cameron, and Ramsey by most certainly defeated, but his successor has not been announced.

A FALLING OFF.—Charley Newell, late of Walla Walla, writes from Washington:—It is to be regretted that Nesmith will not be a member of the next House; for Oregon, instead of occupying a leading position in that body, will be compelled to take a back seat. If Nez, had been re-elected, as he ought to have been, he would have been assigned to the chairmanship of one of the most important Committees of the House. From Nesmith to LaDow! The thought overpowers me. Will the people of Oregon never learn anything?

QUITE A SPECULATION.—Prior to the location of the terminus at Tacoma, the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, the northern Pacific Railroad Company, the Tacoma saw-mill, paying therefor $105,000. Hanson, Ackerson & Co. thereupon leased the mill from the railroad company, and have been running the establishment to its utmost capacity ever since. And now comes the report that the railroad company have disposed of the mill to Hanson, Ackerson & Co. for $35,000. There are business men in that company—the mill-owners. The fact that the railroad company dispose of land and property at that place and endeavor to acquire as much as possible around the lakes and in the direction of Steilacoom is certainly suggestive.—Express.

CHEERFUL PREDICTIONS.—Gen. Miller, in a letter to Mr. Ball, of this place dated San Francisco the 1st inst., says: "This city is improving with wonderful rapidity. What with the great bonanza, the prospect of good crops and of an immense immigration to the State, it is thought this will be the most prosperous year California has ever experienced; and this great prosperity here must before the year closes, extend to Washington Territory."

So tell all our people to be of good cheer, stay at home and all will yet be well. I see a good many of our people are down here, and most of them have made a mistake in coming, as every employment here is overdone. Nine out of ten would have done better to have remained in the Territory.—Standard.

FRANKLIN ASKING FOR WORK.—When quite a youth, Franklin went to London entered a printing office and enquired if he could get employment as a printer. "Where are you from?" enquired the foreman. "America," was the reply. "Ah!" said the foreman, "from America! A lad from America seeking employment as a printer! Well, do you really understand the art of printing? Can you set type?" Franklin stepped to one of the cases, and in a very brief space set up the following passage from the first chapter of the gospel of John: "Nathaniel saith unto him, Come and see!" It was done so quickly, so accurately, and contained a delicate reproof so appropriate and powerful, that it at once gave him character and standing with all in the office.

WHAT'S THE USE?—What's the use of bending every faculty to money getting, thinking of nothing else—when you can't carry a single dollar with you, and have already more than enough to supply every reasonable want, though you should live to be a hundred years old! There is no note shaving, or mortgages, or stock-bonds, or interest-bearing coupons where you are going. The current coin of that realm is supposed to consist of many attributes of character, nobility of soul, the thoughts and inclinations that culminate in good on earth and make the world better for the possessor having lived in it.

MILLIONAIRES OF SAN FRANCISCO.—No city on this continent can show more men of solid wealth than San Francisco. Mines of fabulous possibilities pour their dividends into the pockets of Licks and Lathams, the Sharrons and the Haywards. Many citizens could sell out at a month's notice for 5,000,000 each. Palaces have risen from silver bricks, and the proudest buildings in the city owe their origin to ores and bullion.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

This was true enough three months ago, but the Inter-Ocean is one of those old-fogy journals who do not keep pace with the times. Lick, Lathan, Sharon and Hayward are all poor men. Worth 5,000,000! Well, yes; they may be worth that paltry sum. So are Reese, Mills, Luning, Baldwin, Lux, Miller, Jones, Kelston and Standford. These are only our "well-to-do" citizens, men of "comfortable" incomes—our middle class. Our rich men the Inter-Ocean has not named. They are Mackey, Flood, O'Brien and Fair. Twenty or thirty millions each is but a moderate estimate of their wealth. Mackey is worth from sixty to a hundred millions. They have not heard of our bonanza in Chicago—a lump of silver ore as big as their Grand Acaetic Hotel, worth from $100 to $200,000,000, so far as ascertained, while its depth, breadth and thickness has not been reached. In a small interior village like Chicago a man worth a million is esteemed wealthy. Not so in the grand commercial emporium of the Pacific. Here we speak as familiarly of millions as maids of thirteen speak of puppy dogs. Five million dollars, indeed! Even New York, London, Frankfurt and other cities can boast of their five million men. We do not call a person wealthy unless he advances beyond the tens of millions. Next year we will speak only of those who possess hundreds of millions.—S. F. Chronicle.

WAGON WHEELS AND DRAFT.—Experiments recently made in England indicate that wagons are most easily drawn on all kinds of roads, when the fore and hind wheels are of the same size, and when the pole lies lower than the axle.

A man paid his first visit to Baltimore a few days ago, and invited a lady acquaintance to visit the theatre with him. The lady accepted the invitation, and the young man, following the crowd, walked up the ticket-office, laid down a fifty-cent note for his ticket, and turning to his companion said to her, "The price is fifty cents." The lady happened to have her porte-moniae with her, and, appreciating the situation, drew from it a fifty-cent note, and her gallant companion passed it in with his money, and obtaining two tickets passed one of them to her, which she quietly accepted and passed in after her beau.

New York has a philanthropist indeed. Every day he opens his kitchen to some sixty families, feeding them, not on slops and thin soup, but on savory and nutritious food—something to make bone and muscle, and lay a solid foundation for kind words and good feeling. It is estimated that there are 60,000 people in the city who have nothing to live on, and to these he ministers at the rate of 200 a day. The name of this big hearted philanthropist is not given. It should be made public as one who feeds his fellow-men.

There's a good joke on a school Professor in Paris, Ill. In the summer he went to Chicago to attend some sort of an educational meeting, and retiring for the night he found that the room was rather close, and had his room-mate get up to open the window; he found the window but could not raise it, so the Professor told him to kick a pane out; he did so and returned to bed. The Professor concluded that the room was still to close to suit him, so he got up and kicked out another pane of glass, and said, "That feels more comfortable," and went to bed and enjoyed the ventilated room. On getting up in the morning they discovered that they had smashed the glass in the door of a book-case.

ARTIFICIAL FURS.—M. Tussaud, of London, suggests an ingenious way of preparing the hair or fur of animals for use without employing the skin. The process consists in first soaking the skin in lime water to loosen the adhesion of the hairs. After washing and drying the piece is stretched upon a board, fur side up, and a solution of glue laid over it. After the glue has hardened, the skin may be pulled off, leaving the ends of the hair exposed. The latter are then washed with proper substances to remove fat, bulbs, etc. An artificial skin of gutta-percha, or other waterproof substance, is next laid on top of the glue and allowed to dry, so as to form a continuous membrane, when the glue is washed out with warm water.—These artificial skins are more durable, lighter, and more pliable than the natural ones.

A little canal of twenty-three miles was wanted in China in 1825. Time must be precious there, though life is so cheap. Only six weeks were given in which to dig it, though it went through great forests, and over extensive marshes; 20,000 men worked upon it, night and day, and over 7,000 died of fatigue.

I admit that it is a mystery why any man marries any woman; and it is always a mystery to the neighbors what the man could see in that fright, or that woman in that fool, to marry.

A writer in an English paper gives the following significant election reminiscence of the olden times. He says:—"I remember being in Newcastle at the time of an election, and having occasion to visit a barber of the town, naturally got into talk with the operator, a man of some importance and not a little conceit on the politics of the time. Finding him a strong Tory, I expressed my surprise that one who might have been expected to be a friend of progress inasmuch as he was a Wesleyan and a man of intelligence, should be on the opposite side. 'You wonder,' he said, 'do you? Well, it is natural for you, but for me, I go both to Howick (Lord Grey's) and Ravensworth (Lord Ravensworth's). At the first I am—the barber, and I am made to feel my place. At the other I am Mr. —, walk in, sir, take a little lunch, sir! Everything is pleasant and courteous, so I always vote Tory! It was a miserable reason but it gives a correct notion of the spirit of the two houses, as well as of the slender influence which helped to decide the fate of parties."

KEEP THE FEET WARM.—Many of the colds which people are said to catch commence at the feet. To keep these extremities warm, therefore, is to affect an insurance against the almost innumerable list of disorders which spring out of a "slight cold." First, never be tightly shod. Boots or shoes, when they fit closely, press against the foot, and prevent the free circulation of the blood. When, on the contrary, they do not embrace the foot too tightly, the blood gets fair play, and the spaces left between the leather and stockings are filled with a comfortable supply of warm air. The second rule is—never sit in damp shoes. It is often imagined that unless they are positively wet it is not necessary to change them while the feet are at rest. This is a fallacy; for when the least dampness is absorbed into the sole it is attracted further to the foot itself by its own heat, and thus perspiration is dangerously checked. Any person may prove this by trying the experiment of neglecting the rule, and his feet will become cold and damp after a few moments, although taking off the shoe and warming it, it will appear quite dry.—Rural New Yorker.

JACK'S WIFE.—This is the way a sea-faring man, recently married, told the marines what kind of a wife he had secured:—"My wife is just as handsome a craft as ever left a millinery dock, is clipper built, and with a figure head not often seen on a small craft. Her length of keel is five feet eight inches, displaces 27 cubic feet of air; of light draught, which adds to her speed in a ball room; full in the waist, spare trim. At the time we were spiced she was newly rigged for and aft, with standing rigging of lace and flowers, mainsail part silk, forestay-sail of Valenciennes. Her frame was of the best steel, covered with silk, with whalebone stanchions. She also has a set of storm sails for rough weather, and is rigged out a small set of canvas for squalls, which are liable to occur in this latitude sooner or later. I am told in running down 'n the helm before the wind, she answers the sheet beautifully, and can turn around in her own length if a handsome craft passes her."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Ex-Vice President Wade expresses satisfaction at the election of Andrew Johnson to the United States Senate. In case of another civil war, which Mr. Wade thinks is certain to occur, Johnson will be found on the Union side, and he regards Johnson as a representative of the Union sentiment in Tennessee.

JAMES R. DOOLITTLE.—AN INTERESTING REMINISCENCE OF THE WAR.—OTTAWA, Ill., Jan. 23, 1875. Maj. Truman G. Wright; Dear Sir:—Since our conversation upon the train, the other day, on the way to Chicago, about your fellow citizen of Racine, the Hon. J. R. Doolittle, I have recalled an incident in his public life, which came under my personal knowledge which may interest you. In the summer of 1864, during the darkest period of the war, before the re-nomination of Mr. Lincoln, there was a serious effort made by some prominent Republicans, to put him aside, and to nominate another candidate for the presidency. At a dinner party given by Governor Yates, it was discussed, and the Governor himself, was inclined to favor the project. An immense mass meeting of the citizens of Illinois was held at Springfield, shortly after; and the Governor being called upon to make the first speech, in mild and gentle words, but in most unmistakable terms, broke this matter to the dense mass of patriots around him. It was the largest political meeting ever held in Springfield. Proximately more than twenty thousand men were present. I was seated upon the stand; and had a full view of the sea of earnest faces; and at the speakers. The Governor was received with great enthusiasm. But when he began to broach the subject of laying aside Mr. Lincoln as a candidate, and of substituting some other man, there was a profound, and almost agonizing silence. They gave no cheer, and no approbation. Their respect for Governor Yates was too great to allow them to give vent to expressions of disapprobation; and, as he was in such high position, they were made to feel by his remarks, that, perhaps, they might be called upon to acquiesce in the sad necessity, much as they loved and honored Mr. Lincoln. Never shall I forget the sorrow seen in every face, and Governor Yates closed his address; and, never can I forget the speech which followed it.

Senator Doolittle from Wisconsin spoke next. I sat near him during the speech of the Governor; and, as I was one of the party at the dinner, I watched every movement and expression of his countenance, as I did not then know, whether he joined in that movement and sympathized with Governor Yates or not. He looked pale, and nervous. His broad chest heaving with deep emotion, and his broad face beaming with intense earnestness. As he stepped forward on the platform, slowly he began, in that deep earnest, penetrating, and far-reaching voice of his, which all who have heard cannot forget.

"Fellow Citizens," said he, lifting his hand and face towards Heaven. "I believe in God." Then pausing, looking around upon his audience, he added, in a tone which reached every ear and thrilled every heart in that vast assembly. "Under Him, I believe in Abraham Lincoln."

That was enough. Then ensued such a scene as I have never witnessed. The agony was over. The hearts of 20,000 men found utterance, in cheers, in sobs, and tears, in grasping of hands, embraces and salutations. For some time, Mr. Doolittle could not go on. Never have I seen, and I doubt it, in the whole history of the world, a speech of eleven words ever produced a greater effect. He went on, at length, and spoke for an hour and a half in the same vein. When he finished, Governor Yates at once took the stand, and said he was satisfied the people demanded the election of Mr. Lincoln; and that he would do all in his power to aid that result. Although, after the war was over, I, with most of the republican party, differed with Senator Doolittle upon the reconstruction measures, I have often recalled his speech on that occasion; and have often repeated it to my friends. Very respectfully yours, E. L. WATERMAN.

choir was carefully trained to do the singing. Brother Glover was not of the choir, and the intention was to rule him out of the vocal exercises. The choir had carefully rehearsed a new dedicatory hymn, and everything was ready for the interesting ceremonies. The church was crowded, and Brother Glover was in his place in a front pew as large as life. The new piece was struck up, and Bro. Glover's voice rose loud above the organ. There was a pause. The organ and choir were mute and the letter mad. The minister looked at a fly on the ceiling, explained that it was a new piece, which the choir alone had practiced, and requested the congregation not to join in the singing. The piece was recommenced, and again Bro. Glover's big voice broke it up. The preacher then fixed his eyes on Brother Glover and requested him to keep silence during the performance of the new piece, which he did not understand, and Brother Glover looking at his beloved pastor with his big round eyes, replied in a big voice:—"Look-a-here, Mr. Barnhart, I paid five hundred dollars toward repairing this damned old gospel box, and by thunder, I will sing." The preacher gave it up, and so did the choir.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY Seattle, W. T., Feb. 18, 1874.

SOMETHING NEW.—The Burnished Cameo Medalion Photo, is made by Moore only. Call and see them.

AGAIN CONFINED.—Rev. Sloan, who was permitted to leave the Insane Asylum at this place under the guardianship of Rev. Thompson, "gave the slip" to his guard after reaching Olympia and returned here. Becoming dangerous at last, he was taken back to the asylum.—Express.

SIKA QUARTZ.—We have been shown a large number of quartz specimens from the Francis Ledge at Sitka. They are rich in gold and silver and will assay high into the thousands. The ledge is situated 15 miles from the town of Sitka and 3 miles back from the sea. The owners have located 3,000 feet. The discoverer was Mr. Allen Francis, son of the former U. S. Consul at this port.—Vic. Colonist.

REMOVED.—Dr. Willison, whose resignation of the place of Resident Physician of the Insane Asylum was placed in the hands of a committee of the Medical Association three months ago, has been notified of his removal. In the fitness of things, Dr. Hawthorne's dispensary clerk, who has been figuring here as "Physician of the Oregon Insane Asylum," will be appointed to the place, under the direction of the contractor.

FREE LECTURE.—At the request of a number of mothers, Mrs. Dr. Sawtelle will give a private lecture at the Brown Church on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock sharp, on the subject of "Anti-Natal Education." All ladies above the age of sixteen are invited.

The subject of this lecture was suggested by the recent trial of a boy for killing his father, and acquittal on the ground of insanity, or mental imbecility, superinduced by cruel treatment of the mother anterior to the birth of the boy. It is a subject of deep interest to parents, and one to which the lectress has given much attention. Mrs. Sawtelle is a graduate of the New York Medical College, a practicing physician, and highly capable of instructing her own sex, especially in the matters which they are generally loath to inquire about of male physicians. Her lectures will undoubtedly be attended with that interest which the importance of the subject demands.

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Jas. T. Ely, the well-known short hand reporter and at one time private Secretary to President Grant, died here yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—During the debate in the Senate to-day on the Portland, Dalles & Salt Lake Railroad bill, Freelinghuysen said that the Committee on Railroads, during the session, had before them six or seven bills providing for subsidies. The Committee had considered them carefully, had heard the arguments, and had concluded that they would not report any of them favorably to the Senate. Many of the bills thus treated, he said, had infinitely more merit than the one under consideration. The Senate, by a vote of 2 yeas and 26 nays, refused to order to its third reading the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake railroad, Cameron and Flannigan being the only Senators who voted in the affirmative.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Dublin Irishman says: The Home-Rule Members of Parliament propose to formally submit a demand for the repeal of the act of Union, and on its rejection they will withdraw in a body from the Imperial Parliament.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—The House of Commons debated the subject of amnesty for those implicated in the Northwest troubles until two o'clock this morning, when the House rose.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 11.—A feeling of uncertainty prevails in regard to the accession to the Imperial throne, although the son of Prince Chun has been elected under Prince Kwang Sewitz. It is tho't this arrangement may be disturbed.—The rumors that the Empress, 4 last Te, committed suicide after the death of the Emperor, are unfounded. She is reported eniente. Should the issue be a son, he will be the legitimate heir. In the event of his accession to the throne, the Empress mother and Empress dowager would be appointed joint regents during his minority.

St. Louis, Feb. 13.—Railroad passengers report sixteen business houses at Independence, Mo., burned Thursday night. No telegraph office at Independence and no particulars attainable.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 13.—Albani, the prima-donna of the Strakosch Opera troupe has cancelled her engagement with the Strakosch Bros. by mutual consent. She leaves immediately for Europe.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The Illinois Legislature has passed a bill appropriating $50,000 to complete the Douglas monument.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 13.—The report of the Railroad Commissioners will probably be delivered to the Legislature to-morrow. It will recommend the repeal of the Potter law and the substitution of such legislation as will authorize the Commissioners to fix the maximum rates for freights and passengers for roads of the first class, namely: the St. Paul and Northwestern. No restriction is proposed on roads of the second class. The plan of the Commissioners also contemplates that each road shall be appraised and when the net earnings of any road of the first class exceeds 10 per cent. of the value, its rates shall be reduced.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Rufus Hatch has instructed Clark Bell, attorney and counsellor of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. to compel all parties who received any part of the money abstracted from the Company by Stockwell and Irwin to promptly refund.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Bertha Turner, summoned as witness for the defence in the Tilton-Beecher trial, is now in Brooklyn. She reports herself in want and unable to obtain a livelihood, owing to the odium resting on her name.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Major Leach, of the Irish International rifle team, has written a letter stating that the annual match for the "all Ireland" or Leach challenge Shield, heretofore open to Irish clubs only is now open to Americans also, but to no other nationality. The ranges are 1,000 and 1,100 yards. The Shield to remain in the country of winning team till the next match.

Ryan, Pres. of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, has written a letter advising that the organization should not take part in the parades on St. Patrick's day, partly on the ground of excessive expense and partly for the reason the parades detract from the religious associations of the day.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Henry Duchas, colored, shot and killed Private Hicks, 34 U. S. Infantry, who, with a party of intoxicated companions, chased Duchas to his home last night.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—M. L. Dunlap, widely known as a writer on agriculture and horticulture over the signature of "Rural," died at his home in Champagne Co., Ill., yesterday.

DARREN, Ga., Feb. 15.—A fire on Sunday destroyed a large number of stores and the Gazette printing office. Loss, 100,000; insurance, 40,000.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The Pacific Mail directors approved the action of Rufus Hatch, ordering institution suits against parties. About thirty persons involved.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Senate confirmed Owen N. Denny as Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Oregon.

The receipts to-day from Internal Revenue and Custom aggregate over two millions, nearly 750,000 of which is coin. Total being the largest for any one day since the panic of 1874. Large receipts are mainly due to anxiety to get goods affected by the funding tariff bill out of bond.

DUBLIN, Feb. 15.—Archbishop Cullen in a pastoral, condemns the mission revival preacher Moody and Lanky, who he says promise salvation by foolish sensationalism without requiring repentance.

PARIS, Feb. 15.—No one to whom President McMahon has applied to form a cabinet is willing to undertake the task until the constitutional laws are decided.

Gustaves Lore is seriously ill. LONDON, Feb. 15.—Karl Blend, a German politician, has been seriously injured by a fanatic, who assaulted him. A telegram from Singapore reports a revolt of Chinese prisoners in jail there which was not suppressed before 67 persons were killed and wounded, including 16 wardens.

The steamsip Leipsic went aground yesterday off Stark Point, but got off and will return to Southampton.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—This afternoon, Wm. Biven, proprietor of the Stockton Herald, was brought to the office of Chief of Police, bleeding from wounds on his hands. He told in effect the following story: He had employed a young man named Philip O. O'Neil on the Herald as reporter, but discharged him recently for incompetency. O'Neil was angry and threatened to do mischief to Biven and his family, saying he would kill him or ruin one of his daughters. On the morning of Feb. 1st, one of the daughters, who was visiting an aunt in Oakland, and came to visit some friends in San Francisco. That was the last seen of her until recovered by officer Devitt on Wednesday last at Cloverdale and taken to her home in Stockton. She was in a pitiable mental and physical condition from use of drugs and can remember but a little of what had occurred, though rapidly rallying under medical treatment. She remembers starting for a street car line, heard footsteps behind her and saw a tall dark man who was not O'Neil, suddenly felt dizzy and presumably fainted; remembered being on a car with one of her eyes bandaged; also on Saucelli's boat; O'Neil and two others were with her on the boat. She remembers to have been in a room in Cloverdale with O'Neil and other men and that they made her partake of a drug, and O'Neil let her copy letters which he wrote and sent them to her friends. He also remembers that O'Neil introduced her as his wife. Officer Devitt states that he found O'Neil and the girl at a hotel in Cloverdale. The door of their room was ajar. O'Neil seemed to be trying to persuade her to make some promise, and said if she did not she should never leave there alive. Devitt here interrupted. The girl seemed glad to see him. Devitt occupied the same room with them that night and next day sent the girl to Heidelberg with a Constable. He says O'Neil talked in a spirit of a bravado worthy of the most hardened criminal, and boasted that he had got even with the old man and this was not the first time he had run away with respectable girl. He represented himself when they stopped as a reporter for a prominent San Francisco journal. Mr. Biven received a letter from O'Neil yesterday, saying he wished to marry his daughter and would meet him at 700 Mission Street. Biven went there and the people at the house said they knew no such man as O'Neil, the latter was evidently lying in wait, as when Biven came out he saw him advancing toward him with his hand in his pocket all ready to draw a knife. Biven did not wish to shoot in a crowd and so got the cuts on his hands. Charge of assault with intent to murder preferred against Mr. Biven, and he was allowed to give bail in sum of $1,000.

The Sydney Herald, Jan. 15th, gives an account of a massacre of captain, officers and crew of the trading brig Jas. Bernier, of Sydney, by natives at Howes Islands. The ship's company consisted of captain, two officers, carpenter, steward, six seamen, forty colored laborers and one passenger. On arriving at the Islands, they stationed three parties on different islands when the natives surprised and captured the brig and all shore parties except that of Second Officer William Rhodes, who escaped with 16 colored men in a boat and after five days without food or water, reached Solomon Islands. Subsequently they reached the Island of St. Christoval, where the American whaler brig Cummings took them up and carried them to Bird Island, whence they were taken to Hobart Town by the brig Wolverine. It is believed the rest of the party were all massacred. It is reported that six vessels have been captured by natives on these Islands and crews massacred. U. S. Ship Portsmouth arrived Jan. 31st at Honolulu.

Ordinance No. 70. IN RELATION TO SIDEWALKS. The City of Seattle does ordain as follows: Sec. 1. That the owners of property adjoining the line of the proposed sidewalk shall build a good and substantial sidewalk six feet wide with planking not less than one and one half inches thick, as follows to wit: Commencing on the South side of Madison Street between Fourth and Fifth Streets at "the Bridge" running East on the South side of said Madison Street.

Sec. 2. That in case the owners of the real property adjoining the line of the proposed sidewalk fail to build such sidewalk within thirty days from the publication of this Ordinance, then the Street Commissioner is hereby authorized to build such sidewalk at the expense of the owners of said property; said expenses to be collected as fines and penalties are collected in other cases.

Dr. J. Walker's California

Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol.

They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

General Sufferers should procure VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Kentucky, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by excessive derangements of the stomach and Liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essential. There is no cathartic for the purpose, equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with the Bitters. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Congestive Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of Dyspepsia. Obedience will procure a better result than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these cases the Bitters have constitutional Diseases, Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory or Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Viciated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scour, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermines, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the term of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Viciated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Telegraphic

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

New York, Feb. 9.—A fire at Hunter's Point yesterday destroyed an engine house, a school house and four other buildings. Loss, $40,000. Three officers were seriously burned while rescuing children from the school house. One child was fatally burned. The fire originated in the engine house and is supposed to be incendiary and caused by the rivalry among the members of two engine companies.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—A Washington special says: "There was universal indignation and surprise at the President's message on Arkansas matters, as it is held that all parties in Arkansas except a few carpet-lagging malcontents are contented with the present condition of affairs in the State, and the action of the President is considered as especially surprising in the face of the Poland Committee's almost unanimous report in the case."

Memphis, Feb. 9.—The city is full of strangers. The weather is propitious and everything indicates a grand success of the Mardi-gras carnival to-morrow. Business is entirely suspended.

Milwaukee, Feb. 8.—Senator Carpenter made a speech in the Academy of Music to-night, in the course of which he alluded to his recent defeat as largely due to the opposition of the railroads. He paid a high compliment to Senator-Elect Cameron, whom he knew to be a firm and consistent Republican.

Boston, Feb. 9.—The Pilot says that the Pope has raised the dioceses of Boston, Philadelphia, Milwaukee and Santa Fe to the dignity of Arch-dioceses and their respective Bishops to that of Arch-Bishops.

Memphis, Feb. 9.—The celebration of the Mardi-gras to-day is the most successful and magnificent ever witnessed here. It is estimated that not less than 50,000 people witnessed the pageantry, which in all its appointments was of unusual splendor. The city was given over to gaiety. The procession of the Memphis at night excelled in beauty and interest anything ever before attempted here, and the streets were thronged with spectators. The weather was beautiful all day, though rather too cold for comfort.

Washington, Feb. 9.—A. H. Whitney telegraphs from Canada that he will promptly appear before the Ways and Means Committee to testify concerning his employment by Irwin in the Pacific Mail Subsidy matter.

New Orleans, Feb. 9.—Gen. Sheridan to-day, in response to an inquiry as to the number of killed and wounded in Louisiana since 1866, on account of political opinions, says the number reported to date is 2,141 killed and 21,100 wounded.

Montreal, Feb. 9.—The strike on the Grand Trunk Railway has ended.

Madrid, Feb. 9.—An official dispatch admits that the advance guard, now the extreme left of the troops operating against the Carlists in Navarre, has suffered a check, owing to over-confidence. The Carlist chief Mendiri was shot by order of Don Carlos for treason.

Madrid, Feb. 9.—Gen. Martinez has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the army of the North.

Hendaye, Feb. 9.—The military operations of the Alfontzists in the North have been momentarily suspended, and the troops are fortifying themselves in the positions which they occupied in their advance.

Count Valmaceda is to be appointed Capt. General of Cuba.

London, Feb. 9.—The Carlist Commissioners in this city claim to have information that the Carlists have won a great victory over the Alfontzists, the latter losing 7,000 killed and wounded, and that Carlos has issued a congratulatory address to his troops.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 9.—Last night the National Grange adopted a resolution declaring the existing patent laws oppressive and requesting Congress to grant no more extensions and to amend the patent law so as to allow no person to use or manufacture any patent article on payment of a reasonable royalty. The choice of the next place of meeting by the National Grange is left with the Executive Committee. San Francisco will be the place if the cost does not exceed $15,000. The Grange agreed to loan each State Grange a sum of money equal to two and a half dollars for each subordinate Grange in such State, which loan shall not be distributed among subordinate Granges.

New York, Feb. 9.—Turner & Co.'s weaving establishment on Water Street, Brooklyn, was burned to-day. Loss $55,000. 100 persons known to be out of employment.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 9.—The contractors to build fifty miles of the S. P. R. R. from Spadri to Santa Gerdo have now 250 men at work grading. They started in to work on the 3rd although the contract gave them to the 10th to commence. They have now graded four miles. People are becoming thoroughly earnest in the matter of building the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad. An extra train loaded entirely with Panamint freight was sent out to Spadri to-day.

Tucson, Arizona, Feb. 9.—A bill was introduced in the Council Chamber to remove the Capital to Phoenix which passed. The bill came up in the House this forenoon and passed that body also. The Ostrich wine, fifteen miles south is represented as being one of the richest discoveries yet made. Experienced miners say it is ahead of anything they ever saw. Nine men are at work at ore from the ledge with good prospects. A mill will shortly be erected there.

Portland, Me., Feb. 10.—The C. P. Kimball Carriage Co. has suspended in consequence of the failure of their Boston selling agents. Liabilities, $100,000.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The President has nominated ex-Senator John M. Thayer of Nebraska to be Governor of Wyoming in place of Governor Campbell, appointed Third Assistant Secretary of State.

St. Louis, Feb. 10.—Gen. Chester Harding, a prominent lawyer of this city, died here to-day.

The Merchants' Exchange to-day adopted a memorial to Congress for the establishment of a branch mint here, and the House of Representatives at Jefferson City adopted a concurrent resolution to the same effect.

Farmington, N. H., Feb. 10.—A fire here this morning destroyed the Elm House and stable, Thurston's shoe factory, two dwellings and the Congregational Church.

Augusta, Me., Feb. 10.—The bill for the abolition of capital punishment was defeated in the house to-day and the measure is dead.

Little Rock, Feb. 10.—The President's message on Arkansas affairs creates considerable excitement here. Business is greatly depressed by the unsettled condition of affairs.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Representative Clayton was before the House Committee on Appropriations to-day in advocacy of an appropriation for the money expended for paving in the neighborhood of government property in San Francisco.

New York, Feb. 10.—A fire this morning in the institution for the blind damaged the building $25,000. There was great excitement among the inmates but a panic was prevented and none were injured.

In a family quarrel last night Aaron Churchhill was fatally shot by his son, aged 16.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The House Committee on Foreign Relations to-day considered the Chinese coolie question, as presented by various bills of Houghton, Page and Luttrell, and the resolution of the House directing inquiry to be made on the subject. No conclusion was reached but action will probably be taken on Friday.

Luttrell, by written request of the various grange and settlers organizations in Southern California, entered a protest at the General Land Office to-day against the further issuance of patents to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for lands or fragmentary portions of their line, via San Benito Pass, until the existing controversies regarding it are decided.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The Senate confirmed the nomination of John M. Thayer for Governor of Wyoming.

Washington, Feb. 10.—In the House Myers introduced a bill supplementary to the acts in relation to immigration, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. The bill has reference especially to the Coolie trade. It provides that when immigrants have entered into a contract or agreement for a term of service in the United States, either for labor or for other purposes, such immigration shall not be deemed voluntary, and the U. S. Consul shall not deliver the required permit or certificate. It makes it a penal offense for Americans to be engaged in such trade, forbids the importation of women for purposes of prostitution, invalidates all contracts in relation thereto, and makes importation or holding women for such purpose a felony punishable by fine and imprisonment. It also makes immigration of the following classes unlawful: persons who are undergoing sentence for felonies and crimes other than political, or whose sentence may have been remitted on account of their immigration, and women imported for the purposes of prostitution.

Daves from the Committee on Ways and Means reported the new tariff bill and wished the bill made the special order in the House, but Ward of Illinois and Saylor of Ohio objected. Saylor said it was a proposition to kill the goose that laid the golden egg, and he would throw every obstacle in its way.

Randall said there was no disposition on his side of the House to interfere in the immediate consideration of a bill which was to raise revenue. The bill was then referred to the Committee of Whole and made the special order of to-morrow.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Post Office appropriation bill. The total amount appropriated by the bill is $37,525,361, of which amount, $29,148,156 it is estimated will be received from the Department revenues.

There was no love like a mother's heart. Her affections go out for her offspring, no matter where he may roam or what the circumstances in which she may be placed. An instance was seen yesterday when a mother entered the Central station and found her child, who had been lost from home for hours. She sprang wildly forward, eagerly caught him by the hair, and as she hauled him around she tenderly exclaimed: "Oh! Bob Masters, I'll wallop you for this when we get home."

The Dodge gold mine at Lisbon, New Hampshire, produced the other day a nugget of gold valued at $100.

DEFEATING A DREAM.—When a dream takes a strong hold of the imagination, it often occasions its own fulfillment. There are cases on record where persons dreamed that they would die at a certain hour, and the conviction of an inevitable doom possessed them so strongly that they actually died at the expected time. A Worcester (Mass.) physician was too aghast for the fears of one of his patients.

The Worcester Press says that a young married lady of that city dreamed twice last week that she would die at midnight on the first anniversary of her wedding day, and so strongly was she impressed with the vision, that she actually made preparations for her own funeral, and even gave a sum of money to a friend to purchase mourning. Her husband, becoming alarmed at her condition, consulted a medical friend, stating all the facts of the case. The astute doctor, after a few minutes' cogitation, discovered a way out of the difficulty. Telling the husband to keep her amused as much as possible till late in the day, he went down to the house and administered a harmless narcotic which kept the lady asleep until the dreamed moment passed. She is now in good health and joins with her friends in laughing at her superstitious fears.

A KIND HUSBAND.—An Indiana man bet $10 he could ride the fly-wheel in a saw-mill, and as his widow paid the bet she remarked: "William was a kind husband, but he didn't know much about fly-wheels."

WELL COMPARED.—The world has been compared to a looking-glass, which gives back to every man a reflection of his own face. Frown at it, and it will turn and look sourly at you; laugh at it and with it, and it is a jolly, kind companion.

NOT AFRAID.—A young man says that the prettiest girl in town wears blue top stockings, and she is not afraid to show them. He saw them hanging on a line in the back yard.

A WOMAN'S DRAWBACK.—The St. Louis Republican says: "Mrs. Mary Clemmer Ames has been divorced from her husband and bears the name of Mrs. Mary Clemmer. And no wife will have to work several years to get her new name up to the point of celebrity which she had reached under the old one. The chief drawback to the attainment of fame by a woman is that there is no certainty this year what her name will be the next, and thus the work of a lifetime may be swept away in a moment. There is one woman, however, who does not labor under any such disadvantage, and as a consequence, she is the most famous woman in the world. Of course we refer to our old friend Susan B. Anthony. Her name is immutable."

A traveler announces as a fact that he once in his life beheld people "minding their own business." This remarkable occurrence happened at sea—the passengers being too "sick" to attend to each other's concerns.

AN OLD TRM CUSTOM.—The Babylonians had a law, which was also followed by the Henei, an Illyrian people, and by Herodotus, thought to be one of their best, which ordained that when girls were to a marriageable age they were to repair to a place where the young men were assembled. They were then sold by the public crier, who first disposed of the most beautiful one. When he had sold her, he put up others according to their degrees of beauty. The rich Babylonians were emulous to carry off the finest women, who were sold to the highest bidders. But as the young men were poor could not aspire to have fine women they were content to take the ugliest, with the money which was given with them; for when the crier had sold the handsomest, he ordered the ugliest of all women to be brought, and acquired if any one was willing to take her with a small sum of money. Thus she became the wife of him who was most easily satisfied, and thus the finest women were sold, and from the money which they brought, small fortunes were given to the ugliest and those who had any bodily deformity.

STRANGE DEATH.—The Hillsboro, Oregon, Independent tells of the sudden and strange death of a Mrs. Reynolds, on Dairy creek, in Washington county: "She had been complaining for a few months, but had been doing the house-work all the time. She had been bed-fast only a week when she died. On the evening of her death some of the neighbors called to see if they were in want of anything. She asked them to sing some hymns, which they did, when she spoke out in a strong voice, saying, 'Gentlemen, will you please step out a moment?' The visitors went out, when Mrs. Reynolds sprang from her bed to the floor with a shriek. Mr. Reynolds called to the men and they came in, and she was lying in the arms of her husband, her eyes closed in death. They placed her on the bed and she gasped three or four times and died. We are indebted to Mr. W. D. Ewing for the news of this strange death."

At one of the large manufacturing establishments in Middletown, Connecticut, recently, a handful of cotton waste, which had been used to clean machines, was left on a work bench, and a little over an hour after it had been used in flames. This excited the curiosity of those who saw it and another piece was saturated with boiled linseed oil, and in less than two hours took fire from spontaneous combustion. Another piece was tried, and in half an hour was so hot that it could not be held.

HAD SEEN KING ENOUGH.—A gentleman was requested by a friend to join him on a visit to the depot to witness the arrival of the King of the Sandwiches.

"No, sir, not much," growled the gentleman.

"Have you ever seen a King in your travels?" inquired the friend, marveling somewhat at the short answer.

"Yes, sir," said the gentleman. "I was once found guilty of seeing three kings." Then, after a moment's pause went on to say: "And they cost me $150. Those were war times, however."

His friend suggested he must have been in bad company.

"Well, I don't know," says the gentleman, "I thought I was in pretty good company at the time. I called to see those kings in company with three queens, another king and an ace spout, and have never had any desire to see one of the royal family since."

Wages are being reduced in the shipyards of England and Scotland.—Beginning with the month of January, engineers' wages were reduced ten per cent. "As a general rule," the Manchester Guardian says, "wages are settling themselves, as the number of unemployed skilled engineers and workers in the mechanical trades is rapidly increasing all over the industrial districts."

"GIVING THEM HELL."—A St. Paul correspondent of the Winona Republican tells this:

"HEAVEN AND HELL."—Apropos of ministers, I must give you a little story which is current here, and which, if not true, has a nob to it: One of our most eloquent and most popular clergymen has been giving a series of doctrinal lectures, and on the evening of Sunday before last he closed the course with an elaborate discourse on "Heaven and Hell." The church was crowded, and, as the story goes, the minister delegated one of his deacons to see if H. P. Hall, of the Dispatch, was in the house. The deacon being unable to find the editor, so reported, and the clergyman remarked that in that case he thought he would omit the last part of his subject. The deacon returned to the church, but soon hastened back with the news that not only Hall of the Dispatch, but Fisher of the Pioneer and Driscoll of the Press, were present. "You are sure they are here?" asked the preacher. "Positive," responded the deacon. "Then," quoth the person, his face beaming with satisfaction, "I will give them H. P.!"

USES OF HAIR.—Gentlemen who pride themselves on their luxuriant beards will find comfort in knowing that the mustache is a natural respirator, defending the lungs against the inhalation of cold and dust. It is a protection to the face and throat against cold, and is equally in warm climates a safeguard for those parts against excessive heat. The mustaches of blacksmiths show by their color the dust which they stop as a natural respirator, and which, if inhaled, would be injurious. The mustache is beneficial to those who follow the trades of millers, bakers, masons, to workers in metal, etc. Full beards are said to be a defense against bronchitis and sore throat. It is asserted that the sappers and miners of French army, who are noted for the size and beauty of their beards, enjoy a special immunity from affections of this nature. The growth of hair has been recommended to persons liable to take cold easily.

CHEERING INDIAN BRAIDS.—A rather novel yet highly ingenious device for fixing the responsibility of their conduct upon the Indians themselves more closely has been adopted by Gen. Crook, commanding the Department of Arizona. His plan is to check the wards of the nation like pieces of baggage, each warrior carrying with him constantly a metal check with his number and tribe stamped thereon. The officer in charge keeps a record of each, with the number of members of his family and a description of him. In this way the Indian is not only protected against the unscrupulous greed of the agents, but offenses can be traced home to their authors more readily; and as the issue of supplies is made in accordance with these checks there is less chance of imposture on one side and fraud on the other. It would be well if all officials engaged in the Indian service were to have a poll, which is so plain and the same time so commendable and sagacious in its method. Gen. Crook's report shows what can be accomplished even with the Apache Indians, this worst of all North American tribes. They are becoming so far advanced, morally and industrially, that the tribe is now at least partially self-supporting.
