Indian Superintendency.

As the successor of McKinney Gen. Milroy entered upon the duties of the office of Indian Affairs of this Territory under the most favorable auspices. Any change was regarded as an improvement, and all were disposed to concede to the successor merits proportionate to the manifest demerits of his predecessor.

We have had in this county a practical demonstration of the truth of these propositions. When we commenced the publication of this paper, there was a general complaint throughout the county of the mismanagement of public affairs, and few, if any, had any hope of immediate reform.

We have now before us another case showing to what base uses the power of office is put; in utter disregard of public decency and personal rights. Mr. Spittill, an employee of Father Cherouse, Agent at the Tulalip Indian Reservation, recently communicated to us some facts relating to Mr. Webster's management of the Makah Agency.

This appointment was based upon a written contract, specifying the duties and compensation of the position, signed by Father Cherouse and Mr. Spittill and witnessed by F. X. Prefontaine.

Mr. Alexander Spittill, Sir—You are hereby authorized to transact for the Indians of Port Madison and Makah-shoot Reservations, in the selling of their logs and in their other dealings with the whites and among themselves.

NEW DIRECTOR.—The Kalama Beacon says it is announced that Capt. J. C. Answorth, of Portland, Pres't O. S. N. Co., has been elected a Director of the N. P. R. R. and appointed Resident Managing Director of Pacific Division.

Politics.—The San Francisco Post, an able as well as sprightly conservative paper, makes the following sensible and practical suggestions:

"There are many citizens who never take an active interest in politics, and yet grow like bears when bad men are nominated and elected to office. Do they never think how far they are responsible for this sort of thing? As citizens it is their duty to participate in political movements, and earnestly endeavor to secure good men for public servants.

"We have had in this county a practical demonstration of the truth of these propositions. When we commenced the publication of this paper, there was a general complaint throughout the county of the mismanagement of public affairs, and few, if any, had any hope of immediate reform.

"The yellowstone expedition.—The military expedition, which will go into the country of the Sioux Indians to establish two military posts there in accordance with the act of Congress of last session, is intended to be of a character to impress the Sioux with a notion of the power of the Government.

Epizooty.—This equine disorder has attacked all the horses in Olympia and we may expect to have our share of it in a short time, therefore we give the following remedy we find in one of our Eastern Exchanges:

"As a sanitary measure, rigid cleanliness and a full and perfect ventilation in any place where horses are kept in buildings or stables, but never exposing them to draft of cold air."

Feed warm bran mash twice a day and take the liquor of boiled flaxseed to mix with.

A little pure whiskey daily, say half a pint to stimulate. Liniment for external application on throat, composed of hartshorn and sweet oil.

Sponge the nostrils with a solution of salt and hot vinegar; also wash the mouth with a weak solution of the same. Wet the hay slightly with vinegar. Blanket thoroughly, and give a little exercise daily.

In Pennsylvania, horses kept warm and clean, not worked or exposed, with light feed, such as bran and boiled oats with little hay, were successfully treated without medicines.

In Tennessee, a warm dry bed, mild food avoiding exposure to wind or rain constituted the remedy.

In N. Jersey those did best who kept their horses in stables, without giving any medicines or resorted to any other treatment than a due regard to cleanliness.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY.—The Northern Pacific Railway means to be worthily represented at the Vienna world's fair. In addition to a complete and varied collection of the fruit, grain, sils, minerals, etc., along the line and within the land grant of the road which was forwarded some time since, a magnificent map of the Company's domain and tributary country has been completed and dispatched.

GENERAL CROOK.—The Arizona papers are strong in recommending General Crook for promotion. He has exhibited marked ability as an Indian fighter. Washington advises are to the effect that the prospective retirement of Brigadier-General Pli p t. Cook will create a vacancy in the list of Brigadiers and it is understood that the President contemplates the appointment of General Crook to fill it.

Seattle, W. T., June 12, 1873.

An Ordinance,

Authorizing and empowering Dexter Horton, A. A. Denny, John Collins, Charles E. Burrows, and their associates, assigns, successors or executors, to erect and maintain Gas Works, and to lay down pipe for the supply and distribution of illuminating gas, in the City of Seattle, Washington Territory.

The City of Seattle does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That Dexter Horton, A. A. Denny, John Collins, Charles E. Burrows, and their associates, successors, assigns or executors, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to erect, establish, and have in operation, within the City of Seattle, W. T., on a suitable place or site to be hereafter selected by them, subject to the approval of the Common Council or a committee thereof, a manufactory of Gas, with all the necessary buildings, apparatus, machinery and fixtures, within the space of one year from the date of the passage of this Ordinance, sufficient for the illumination of the said City of Seattle; and at their option to lay down gas pipes and extend the service of gas throughout the said City of Seattle and throughout any additions that may hereafter be made to the said City of Seattle.

SEC. 2. That the said Dexter Horton, A. A. Denny, John Collins, Charles E. Burrows, and their assigns, successors or executors, shall have the exclusive use to lay and extend gas pipes and apparatus for the conveyance of gas throughout the said City of Seattle, and they shall, with as little delay as possible, repair all damages done to the streets, alleys, and public places, and leave them in as good condition as they were previous to the laying of said pipes and apparatus. Nor shall any person or persons, company or corporation, have a right to lay pipe for any purpose, within two and a half (2 1/2) feet of the centre of the gas pipe, except where necessary to cross the same, without the consent of Dexter Horton, A. A. Denny, John Collins, Charles E. Burrows and their assigns, successors or executors.

SEC. 3. That said Dexter Horton, A. A. Denny, John Collins, Charles E. Burrows, and their assigns, successors, or executors, shall, upon requirement of the corporate authorities of the said City of Seattle, supply gas to all the street lamps that may be erected by the said City of Seattle upon the line of pipe, at a rate not to exceed the sum of seven (7) dollars a month for each lamp so supplied. (Said lamps to be lighted on schedule time; i. e. when there is not sufficient natural light.) And they shall, as required by the said corporate authorities, light with gas such public places as the said City of Seattle may require, when located upon the line of pipe, at such price as may be agreed upon from time to time, not to exceed that paid by private consumers for like service.

SEC. 4. No other person or persons, company or corporation shall be permitted, directly or indirectly, to erect, build, establish or maintain, any other gas work or works, manufactory or apparatus for lighting the streets, alleys, or public of said City of Seattle, or supplying the inhabitants thereof with gas, during the term of twenty-five (25) years from the date of the passage of this Ordinance; provided the said Dexter Horton, A. A. Denny, John Collins, Charles E. Burrows, their assigns, successors or executors, furnish a sufficient supply of gas to meet the requirements of the said City of Seattle and the inhabitants thereof.

SEC. 5. That if the said gas works are not in operation within the time specified in section one of this Ordinance, and unless the said Dexter Horton, A. A. Denny, John Collins, their assigns, successors or executors, can show good and sufficient reason for such delay, then this Ordinance shall be void and of no effect.

SEC. 6. That this Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Passed June 6, 1873.
M. R. MADDOCKS,
Acting Mayor.
G. N. McCONAHA, Clerk.

Ordinance No. 40.

D. 1873, and shall be paid to the City Treasurer on or before the first day of August, 1873, or they shall be declared delinquent.

M. R. MADDOCKS,
Acting Mayor.
G. N. McCONAHA, Clerk.

FAIR AND STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of the Congregational Church will hold a Fair and Strawberry Festival on Thursday evening, June 12th, at the Pavilion.

Persons wishing to contribute articles for the Fair can leave them with Mrs. Dr. Maynard or Mrs. Dr. Weed.

The Seattle Brass and String Bands have kindly offered their services for the occasion.

FREE LECTURE.—Professor Chaney offers a rich treat to those who are searching after Truth for Truth's sake. These lectures are based on science and philosophy. The Professor is a fine scholar, a powerful reasoner, an able orator, a conscientious dispenser of knowledge, (being willing to live and let live) and finally no one can afford to lose the valuable privilege of listening to him. AN ADMIRER OF TRUTH AND HUMAN RIGHTS.

By reference to their notice it will be seen that the ladies of the Presbyterian Church have postponed their Festival until Thursday evening, July 3.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Grasse, who has been professionally employed at Ports Gamble and Ludlow for some time past, will return on Friday, after which he may be found at his office in this city until further notice.

SOCIABLE AND FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a Sociable and Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival, on Thursday evening, July 3, at the Pavilion.

THE SAN JUAN MURDER.—Joe, Kio, Tommy and Charley, charged with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer, on San Juan Island, had a final examination before the committing magistrate in Victoria on Monday, at the conclusion of which the magistrate said that in his opinion there was no evidence to commit any of the prisoners, but he would hold Joe and liberate the others. Joe was remanded for one week and the others discharged.

Telegraphic

EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE DAILY DISPATCH

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Attorney General Williams has made public his opinion of the disposition to be made of the Modocs and remits them to the action of Gen. Davis. Their chief offence cited is the assassination of bearers of flags of truce, a crime which has heretofore received the punishment of death.

The President and Secretary of War have already been informed of the opinion of Attorney General Williams. Such of the Modocs as are charged with offences against the recognized laws of war may be tried and punished by a military commission. The War Department will, in consideration of this opinion, send instructions to Gen. Davis through Gen. Seefield.

There is no doubt that a commission will be organized without delay and the trial commenced according to army regulations. As the proceedings and findings in a military commission, where the sentence is death, are transmitted to Washington for review and the approval of the President before sentence can be carried into effect, several weeks must unavoidably pass before the punishment of the Modocs takes place.

VIENNA, June 7.—Cholera has entirely disappeared from the country adjacent to the Danube.

LONDON, June 7.—The reported capture of Irun by the Carlists is denied.

BOYLES CAMP, Tule Lake Peninsula, June 8, noon.—About daylight yesterday morning John and James Fairchild and a dozen other citizens, left Fairchild's ranch, on the banks of Cottonwood Creek, with 17 Modoc captives, including Bogus Charlie, Shagusty Jim, Tee Hee Jack, Pony, Little John and Moch. John Fairchild, Bogus Shacknasty and all the whitemen save James, being mounted and armed, rode in advance soon after the start, leaving the balance of the party several miles behind. James had the Indians in a wagon drawn by four mules. Crossing Lost river, late in the afternoon, James was waylaid by a party unknown. Fairchild noticed a couple of men riding hurriedly to a rocky point two hundred yards ahead as if to intercept him. They watched them the more closely as they suspected foul play. They gained the point, dismounted and placed themselves on the same brush. One of them tied a handkerchief about his head and used a pantalon leg, undoubtedly for the purpose of disguise. When the team neared them one stepped to the rear and the other in front and presented cocked noedie guns at Fairchild. The man in front also had a butcher knife drawn. He was the spokesman. "Get down you son of a b—," said he. "By what authority?" said Fairchild. "By mine. I am going to kill the Indians and you too," was the reply. Then the leader caught hold of the mules and unhitched them, or cut the harness, and Fairchild, clinging to the lines, leaped to the ground. The poor wretches implored for mercy and begged Fairchild to save them. The warriors were unarmed and knew that resistance was useless; they were the coolest in the party though fearing inevitable death; but the women and children shrieked and groaned and wept piteously. Fairchild says: "O, it was a terrible scene! Never shall I forget it." He says he saw a shot and Little John lay dead in the bed of the wagon with a bullet in his brain. The four mules dashed away with Fairchild tangled in the lines. Five more shots in rapid succession and Tee Hee Jack, Pony and Moch, the remaining warriors were dead, and Little John's squaw had a frightful wound in her shoulder. Away ahead in the road, in the direction of Boyle's Camp, was a cloud of dust, indicating the approach of a team, and hurriedly at that. The murderers espied the dust and in a moment were riding rapidly away. Sergeant Murphy, of Battery G. 4th artillery, with 10 men and a team came with the team. Sergeant Murphy then took charge of affairs.

SWINOMISH, June 10.—A son of Thos. R. Jones, aged twelve years, was drowned on the Skagit river on Sunday last. The boy and his father were in a small canoe which upset. Jones in endeavoring to rescue his son was nearly drowned himself, being with great difficulty rescued by a party passing.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 10.—The Court of Appeals was unanimous in opinion granting Stokes a new trial. There were two opinions written; one by Gardner and the other by Rapalls. The charge of the Court below is held to be erroneous on the point that the law presumes murder from the fact of killing, and calls on the prisoner to mitigate or justify it. There were also errors in excluding the proof of threats by the deceased to kill prisoner. Errors also occur in permitting Mrs. Moses to contradict Jennie Turner in collateral matters called out on the cross-examination of Jennie; viz., whether she left Mrs. Moses' against her wishes or because the detectives were after her, soon after the homicide.

NEW YORK, May 10.—When Stokes was informed of the decision of Court of Appeals, granting him a new trial, he expressed himself well pleased, but quickly and somewhat sadly added, "The report may possibly not be true, and the disappointment would be all the greater if such proves to be the case." Dr. Passos says upon next trial he will prove to the satisfaction of the New York public that there has been gross misapprehension of the case from the day of the tragedy, and he will be able to establish the fact of his innocence by evidence of an overwhelming character. His bets on the decision are in favor of Stokes.

Frank L. Taintor, defaulting cashier of the Atlantic National Bank, this morning plead "not guilty" to the new indictments found against him yesterday.

Thos. McGuire, a letter carrier, was caught to-day in the act of robbing the mail bag, in an alley way, and sent to Ludlow street jail.

The Grand jury have found an indictment against young Walworth, the paricide, for murder in the first degree. Information has been received here of an outrage having been committed on a small vessel named the Scotland, by a Spanish Man-of-War, in Asiatic waters. The Spaniard boarded and searched the Scotland and gave no explanation. Admiral Jenkins will inquire into the matter, and if it be true, will report the facts to the Navy Department, which has received nothing as yet.

A Tribune's Washington special says that the friends of Senator Mitchell of Oregon here state that, in view of the currency given to the scandal of his private life, he has been advised to resign. The argument used is, that while his change of name will invalidate his claim to a seat in the Senate, and that although his present anomalous domestic relations may not be sufficient grounds for expulsion, still it is advisable that the State of Oregon should not be represented by a Senator whose influence will be paralyzed by misfortunes which surround him. It is not supposed, however, that Mitchell will resign, but will endeavor to make as plausible a defence as possible, consistent with the charges made against him.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Frank Walworth who killed his father to-day, will be kept at the station house where he went and surrendered himself after the murder, until after the inquest; and should the verdict be rendered against him, he will be sent to the Toombs. He is but nineteen years of age and treats the affair very lightly, and expresses no regret for murder and terrible distress it will occasion his mother and family.

At the time of his death Walworth was publishing a serial story in the New York Weekly and had another novel in press.

SARASOTA, June 3.—Frank Walworth who shot his father to-day, in New York city, left here yesterday morning without informing his mother of his intention. Mrs. Walworth lately received a number of threatening letters from her late husband, Mansfield T. Walworth and it is supposed young Walworth intercepted similar letters to his mother from him, as she found in her son's room two empty envelopes to her address since he left home. His mother thinks her son had also received threatening letters from his father. M. S. Walworth was divorced from her husband about two years ago.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Charles List, a sail con-keeper in the Western part of the city, last night shot and killed Thomas Sullivan, who with others was stoning the windows of List's saloon.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Prof. O'Donovan, of Christian Brothers Academy in this city was drowned yesterday, seven miles from town. Mr. O'Donovan was quite a young man, son of the distinguished O'Donovan of Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland.

NEW YORK, June 3.—W. J. Stillman, writing from Vienna to the Tribune, gives a lengthy, circumstantial account of irregularities charged against Ex Comdr. Van Buren, in connection with concessions for saloons, restaurants, etc., in the American part of the Exposition building. From this account it appears that the charges against Van Buren and his Secretary, Meyers, are all true, and that parties were not only required to make large deposits with Meyers before a concession was granted, but several who obtained the right to keep restaurants were obliged to sign an agreement to divide profits and Meyers demanded 70 per cent of all profits from Jewell, one of the New York parties who purchased the right to keep open a restaurant.

It is reported on good authority that McDonald, the Bank of England forger, was taken direct from the U. S. District Court to Fort Columbus, so as to avoid the service of any writ he counsel might obtain. He will probably be taken to England to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—It is said by the highest military authorities that the Moloss could not surrender as prisoners of war, in the sense known to nations where war is declared in accordance with constituted forms; not having been so received they are not entitled to consideration as prisoners of war. The despatch to the commanding general, directly after the assassination of Gen. Davis; therefore had he ordered the execution of the Moloss; but it was said that their conduct had been such that extermination would be justifiable; thus leaving the matter to the discretion of Gen. Davis; therefore had he ordered the killing of the Indians he would not have been executed by superior authority. As to their final disposition no questions that they will ultimately be delivered to the government of Oregon for trial.

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—Joseph Hefore who shot and killed Maison Beach, his brother-in-law, in August, 1871, and was acquitted some months ago on the ground of emotional insanity, made a murderous assault on his wife at one o'clock this afternoon, striking her 3 blows on the head with a hatchet and inflicting dangerous wounds.
