GENERAL MILROY AND THE "RING." When General Milroy entered upon his duties as Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory, it was given out by his "friends" that he would not meddle with local politics or join the ring of Federal officers who had toriously combined with the then Delegate to rule the affairs of the Territory and speculate in Government moneys and jobs. The people took him at his word, and no public officer quartered upon a people without any volition of their own was ever treated with greater kindness and forbearance, and we have now the most abundant proof that never was popular confidence more willfully and grossly betrayed. The very worst features of the most notoriously corrupt department of the Government have not only been perpetuated but greatly magnified under his management. Among the first of his official acts was to lead his official signet ring to the endorsement of false and malicious charges against Mr. Henry A. Webster, in furtherance of a project started by his predecessor, and joined in by the ring, to rob Mr.
 Webster of his possessions in the interests of private speculation; a conclusive fact to prove his entire sympathy and cooperation in all the nefarious projects of the most odious combination of official sharpers which ever preyed upon the public.

But this is not all; the subordinates of the Department, at every Indian Agency in its jurisdiction, have been forced to contribute a portion of their salaries, to the support of a newspaper owned and controlled exclusively by the ring. The following letter, among several other documents of like tendency now in our hands, will show the Super-tendents connection with the ring newspaper:

Office of Superintendent of Indian Affairs, Washington Territory,
 OLYMPIA, January 18, 1873.

Wm. H. Dague, Esq.
 Dear Sir—Gen. Milroy has just had a conversation with Gov. Ferry and Mr.
 Beach in regard to the "Puget Sound Courier," and learned that they were negotiating with you to take entire charge of the paper, paying you a bonus, and suggested that I write you in regard to the matter. Of course there can be nothing definite so long as you are in ignorance as to the receipts of the office and the probable amount of bonus they would be willing to allow. I have been figuring on the matter and would like to join you in the enterprise if after looking the matter up you can see any money or future connected therewith. You are no doubt being sounded on the subject, and the Gen. recommends that you leave your school in Mrs. Barlow's charge and come up and take a look at the situation.

If you decide to take any action it must be without delay, as there is to be a change soon.
 Hoping to see you, I remain Very respectfully yours, F. A. POTTER.

This man Dague was one of the gang of poor relations and seedy adventurers brought out here from Indiana by General Milroy with the expectation of quartering them upon the Government, and it appears was given the position of Teacher at the Puyallup Agency. Among our documents is the following, showing that he had held a place under Government before he came to this Territory:

Post Office,
 LOANSPOOK, Ind., Nov. 16, 1870.
 Sir—The Postmaster General has made his Draft on you for $66 85 on account of the balance due by you to the United States.

I am instructed to demand immediate payment of the same, at this office.
 Respectfully yours,
 E. BROWN, Postmaster.
 To W. H. DAGUE, P. M. at Montecello, Ind.

As to whether this deficiency was ever made up to the Government, we are not informed. If not, so much the better for his propoed employers; the more degraded and desperate the man, the better adapted to the service required of him; and Gen. Milroy undoubtedly knew his man. That quite as degraded tools were found to run the ring organ of the anonymous editor to divert public attention from the charges against the official acts of the Superintendent, by unsupported denials and personal assaults upon the character of others We shall probably have occasion to publish other documentary evidence relating to forced contributions upon employees, and demands to share in the profits of the Indian trade.

THE RAILROAD.—A telegram dated Portland, Maine, June 14th, says: Judge Rice has resigned the Presidency of the Maine Central Railroad and accepted the position of Resident Director of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

We were told by Gen. Spagne, yesterday that Judge Rice is on his way, and his arrival in this Territory is daily expected. A private letter was received by a gentleman in this city, a few days since, from a well-informed source, saying that a commission from the Railroad Directors would start immediately from the East, with authority to locate the western terminus of the road. These facts indicate that the long agony regarding the terminus will soon be over.

MEACHAM. The unscalped Peace Commissioner, is in Washington today, to the Modoc Secretary of the Interior for another billet, by endorsing and advocating a continuance of the peace policy. He is represented by a Washington dispatch as saying: "There are white men in California and Oregon more responsible for the blood of Gen.
 Canby than Captain Jack himself." To which nearly every man in Oregon acquainted with the facts, will respond:
 "Thou art the man." If the Modocs were justified in all their other outrages upon the whites, they richly deserve hanging for the banging job they made with Meacham, by which he escaped with his life. Now he is coming back from Washington, another dispatch says, at the expense of the Government, as the emissary of the Peace Commissioner, to attend the trial of the Modocs by the Military Commission, undoubtedly to try to defeat the execution of the murderers; and if successful in his mission, will be responsible for the loss of many lives much more valuable to community than his own.

PORTLAND.—Portland has covered itself with glory by repudiating party in the selection of municipal officers, and electing only with regard to honesty and business qualifications. The vote on Mayor was declared as follows:

For Mayor—Henry Failing (People's) 1,018; John McCracken (Republican) 998; Eugene Semple (Democrat) 142.
 Police Judge—O. N. Denny, 1,072; Risley, 554; Dodge, 125.
 City Treasurer—Lewis, 1,099; Backenston, 920; Bloch, 46.
 City Assessor—Going, 1,033; Oatman, 970; Kelly, 145.

A CHRISTIAN INDIAN.—Rev. Theodore Crowl, of this city, lately visited the Lapwai Mission in Idaho. Since his return he received the following quaint letter from a Nez Percie Indian, who is interpreter at the Agency:

LAPWAI, Idaho, June 6, 1873.
 MY DEAR FRIEND I will write a few words to you. I will write my letter with all my love to you and with all my heart to you. Dear friend, I am well as you left me when you went away, and am getting along finely in the school, and all the scholars are well too, and all the folks are well in Lapwai, Idaho, and one Indian woman died on last Saturday, and some Spokane Indians came to Lapwai and want old Spalding to go over there to preach to them, and some Indians went with them.
 They went away last Saturday.

I think we are getting along very well with these Indians in Lapwai, but those Kamiah Indians are not satisfied, they are doing as they used to do.
 Here is one thing I will tell you about: I heard from the Indians over in the Buffalo country. They have been fighting with the Sioux Indians. When the Nez Percies seen their camps they took all their clothes off and went after the Sioux and commenced to fight with them, and the Sioux whipped the Nez Percies and took every thing away from them and left them naked. The snow was about two feet deep, their camp about fifty miles away, and head of ice froze to death, and some others were frozen so bad that when they got home they died. There was thirty in all that died. This is all that I hear from the Buffalo country.

I think, dear friend, I never see you again in this world, but I think I will see you again when the time will come, so I always pray for you and I hope you will pray for me too.

JAMES RUTAN.

A GOOD LESSON.—An Allentown, (Penn.) paper tells the following story: "We know of a certain saddler, who lives in Hath's Church, Berks county, who loves to play at a game of card-inside the tavern door. The other day he went to play and didn't go home to eat; but played all day, far into the night, and seemed to have forgotten that he had a wife. His wife, however, did not forget that she had a husband, and she knew where he was; so she prepared his dinner very nicely for him, and taking it to the tavern she said, 'Henry, I thought you didn't have time to come home, and I've brought you your dinner. It's rather late, but it will taste better because your conscience tells you you were too busy even to take your meal at the regular hour.' This was very kind of Henry's wife, but strange to say, he doesn't play cards any more, and dislikes to hear his wife complimented for her dutiful recollection that her husband was hungry."

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.—Al. Pinkham has taken the rooms lately occupied by the "Puget Sound Banking Company," and with that benevolence and public spirit which has characterized his transactions, has conceived the magnanimous purpose of making good to the people what they lost by that institution, by keeping the best kind of gentlemen's furnishing goods, cigars and tobacco and selling at the most reasonable prices.
 Just call and satisfy yourselves that he is in earnest in this matter.

Mrs. Hipple's Statement.

Th some correspondent who interviewed Mr. Mitchell-Hipple's former partner, Col. Thompson, now publishes the story of the unhappy Mrs. Hipple, as derived from her own lips. This story more than confirms the worst suspicions that the omissions in Mr. Mitchell's statement excited. In this issue we can only give one or two of its salient points.
 Since her divorce, which took place in 1867 several years after Mr. Mitchell had contacted a marriage in Oregon—Mrs. Hipple has gone by her maiden name, Sadie Hoon. She has been doing service in the family of a man named Prime, in Franklin, Pennsylvania, where she is affectionately and highly esteemed, Mrs. Prime being her warm friend.
 The apparition of two of her deserting husband's lawyers had caused her to leave the family and go into the country.
 Upon being sent for by Mrs. Prime, she returned and met the reporter at the former's house. The introduction of the woman, who is described as "feeble," of "large figure, with a look of agony on her face, as if every movement was one of pain;" her "tottering step across the room to a chair by an open window, where she sat for some time, moaning and sighing with pain," while the devoted and sympathetic "little Mrs. Prime bathed her flushed face and smoothed out her hair from her feverish brow," is one of those pathetic pictures that touch the heart. But not till Mrs.
 Hipple—now once more plain Sadie Hoon—begins the simple narrative of her life, does the reader realize the enormity of John H. Mitchell's offense.
 We give a short extract, beginning with her words:

"I should not tell you my story if I did not feel that it is but justice to my husband, who had always abused me, that I should now be able to show him that he can not always triumph. For the sake of my children I would say nothing, but since his story, as told by his lawyer, Col. Thompson, is published as you tell me, I must speak."

"Here I gave her in detail the story as told me by Colonel Thompson, in the original interview upon the subject in Butler some weeks ago. She listened with a quiet smile upon her face until I had briefly told her the salient points, when she said:

"Then that is the reason Colonel Thompson gave you for my husband leaving me—that our marriage was an unhappy one, and that he could not live with me?"

Correspondent—"Yes."
 Mrs. Hipple—"Well, listen to me, and I will tell you the real reason, and you can find means, from the names I will give, to prove all, too. Did Col.
 Thompson tell you that when John ran away, taking money that did not belong to him, he took another woman away with him?"

C.—"No, he omitted to mention that." Mrs. H.—"Well, he did. When he went away he took with him Mary J.
 — and was 'varnished' in the papers at the time as the elopement of Mary J.
 — and John Hipple. Well, that is God's truth, and she was the cause of his first trouble between me and John."

C.—"Tell me about your life previously to marrying Mr. Hipple. Was the forced in Court to marry you for leading you astray?"

Mrs. H.—"John Hipple was never forced to marry me. If Colonel Thompson says so, he can be proved to be a liar. It is true that John Hipple ruined me. I was a young girl of only fifteen at the time. He was twenty-six. He had been my school teacher, and had for two years waited on my sister. He took advantage of his position and my youthful ignorance (bitterly) and accomplished my betrayal. After the birth of my child by him, my father went after him and brought him to my bedside where I lay. This was all the force about the marriage. My father demanded reparation, that he should marry me. But I said, 'John, you can marry me or not, just as you see fit. I shal not say.' He then promised to marry me, and did marry me."

Of her little daughter, Jessie, whom Mr. Hipple took away with him at the time of his elopement, Mrs. Hipple says:
 "She was taken away from me when a little tender thing, and I have never seen her since. I heard of her in Pittsburg, when John ran away with her, now she cried and took on for mamma, since that time John has taught her that her mother is dead, and I have never been permitted to hear a word of her.
 I tried to get a picture of her, but this was refused me by Colonel Thompson."

The "other woman" was a school ma'am, and it is this character that explains the presence of a Mrs. Mitchell at San Luis Obispo, California. A mystery in this revolting history still remains. Where is the other woman?

The worst is known, since nothing worse can well be told. What a strange history: The seducer of a girl of fifteen, himself her teacher, a man of twenty-six; an adulterer, under his own roof; the deserter of his wife for a paramour, and the fact advertised in the local papers:

an abscorder, dating his letters from the "wide world;" a bigamist, and finally a Senator of the United States, under an alias.

There can be but one judgement upon the universal verdict that must follow this disclosure: Mr. Mitchell must resign his seat in the United States Senate, or the people of Oregon will, with one voice demand his expulsion!—Portland News.

THE SAN JUAN MURDER.—Our Police Court report furnishes another chapter of the circumstances attending the murder of Dwyer and wife on San Juan Island. That the authorities have got hold of the right culprits cannot now be doubted in the face of the fact that "Joe" plotted Mr. McCoy and an officer to be spot where the watch &c., were hid.
 "Joe's" statement, however, as to his passive connection with the crime may be swallowed with a large-sized grain of salt. The one prisoner is as deep in the blood of the victims as the other; and the crime seems to have been accompanied by an act of peculiar atrocity viz: Charley kicking the dying woman in the face three times with his booted foot! and what a moment of supreme anguish it was for the poor girl before her coup de grace was administered when —regardless of her own suffering, like a true woman—she begged to be spared or the sake of her "poor baby" yet unborn. To think how many of the innocent and pure have been jostled in her crowded thoroughfare by fiends who were guilty of this atrocity. It is thought by many that Charley murdered Stocker at the Pesthouse, and that "Joe" and he killed Fuller on San Juan Island.— Victoria Colonist.

AN ARKANSAS FAMILY EXTERMINATED.
 —An Arkansas paper gives the following account of the murder of the male members of the Flinn family, in Polk Co., that State:—"About one year ago a trouble arose between the Wimberlys and the Flynns about a horse race; that is, one of the Wimberlys whipped one of the Flynns at the race, and the next day two of the Flynns—father and son, the former an ex-sheriff and the other then acting sheriff—went to Wimberly's house and shot at Wimberly. He returned the fire, and succeeded in killing both of them. Blackwell, a son-in-law of Flynn, sr., then took out letters of administration on his father-in-law's estate, and the Flynns were then arrested, and one of them imprisoned, while the other proved an alibi, but was shot as he was coming out of the Court-house.
 John Flynn, the last one, broke good about Christmas, and had been making trips back and forth to the Indian nation. On Saturday last they heard of his being in the neighborhood, and prepared a warrant for his arrest and went in search of him. They came upon him about daylight last Sunday morning. He drew his weapon and made fight, when the posse fired upon him, shooting him through the body and through the head."

CHINESE.—The North Pacific brought about 40 Chinamen and their packs last evening. It appears that many of the Chinese are deserting the American Pacific States and coming here for refuge.
 They profess to believe that there will shortly be a massacre of their race in California.—Victoria Colonist.

INSTRUCTION IN LANGUAGES.—W. W.
 Theobalds, Esq., proposes to give instruction in languages, either ancient or modern, provided a class can be formed in either. Mr. T. took his degree at a German University, has held a Professor's chair in two American colleges, and is undoubtedly a highly competent teacher.

W. H. White, who has been contemplating a visit to the East has concluded to remain here until after the August term of Court. Parties wishing to consult him professionally will find him at the office of Angus Mackintosh, 84.

A NEW DOCTOR.—Dr. Willisten, late physician to one of the largest hospitals on Blackwell's Island, New York, has permanently located in this city. His card may be found in another column.

METHODIST FESTIVAL.—The strawberry festival of the benefit of the M.E. Church was a very pleasant affair. The gross receipts were $115—equal to the proceeds of 450 dishes of strawberries.

DR. LANDSALE of this city, has been appointed physician at the Skoto-mish Indian Agency, vice Dr. Casto, transferred to the Chehalis Reservation.

CIGARS.—Sam Coombs has just received ex-Perpetua and D. S. Williams, another large assortment of those fine Cigars.

PICNICALS.—We are indebted to Fred. of Pambrey & Young, for late Eastern Picnicals, of which they have a bountiful supply.

WE are requested to state that the boat race on the Fourth of July will be 2 miles.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

Official Paper of the City.

Seattle, W. T., June 26, 1873.

CIGARS.—Sam Coombs has just received ex-Perpetua and D. S. Williams, another large assortment of those fine Cigars.

RUNAWAY.—A pair of horses belonging to Ed. Whitworth, attached to his express wagon, took flight and ran away, demolishing the wagon and injuring one of the horses fatally.

SOCIABLE AND FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a Sociable and Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival, on Thursday evening, July 3, at the Pavilion.

Dr. Freeland, the distinguished scientific and mechanical dentist, is again at his office in this city, where he will remain until the 8th of July, when he will go to Steilacoom to meet professional engagements.

HORRIBLES.—At the meeting on Saturday evening, between thirty and forty were present. An Executive Committee was appointed and some other business done. They then adjourned to meet at the same place on Saturday evening next at 8 o'clock.

UNIVERSITY.—The public are especially invited to attend the closing examination, at the University. Thursday all day, and Friday forenoon, will be devoted to the examination of classes, and Friday afternoon to literary exercises. E. K. HILL

Just call and satisfy yourself that he is in earnest in this matter.

FLOOD.—The usual June freshet in the Columbia river and its tributaries, has flooded the banks and bottoms of those water courses to a greater extent than has been the case for several years past. We are informed that the wharves at Kalama and the business portion of that town are about fifteen feet under water. The lower portions of Portland and East Portland we understand are also flooded. It is a great advantage to live in a town where the ebb and flow can always be measured in advance and depended upon to go no higher.

Big Bear.—Mr. G. Proctor, who lives on an island in Lake Washington, today brought to this office the foot of a bear measuring eight inches in length and four inches in breadth, and he says the carcass of the animal was over seven feet in length. On Sunday he saw the bear near his premises, armed himself with a rifle and gave chase. The bear took to the lake; he followed in a skiff, overhauled and shot the animal in the water and towed it ashore. The weight he did not ascertain, but it is believed to be the largest black bear ever seen in this section.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE DAILY DISPATCH

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Postmaster General today signed additional articles for the present Postal treaty with Canada, providing for the interchange of postal cards between the United States and the Dominion at the prepaid rate of two cents in full to its destination in either country, prepayment to be effected by affixing to the card an ordinary one cent postage stamp. Correspondence has been in progress with the Canadian authorities for some time on this subject. The articles will be promptly signed on the part of the Canadian authorities, and will go into effect July 12th.

The Secretary of War has telegraphed to Gen. Sheridan that the Government has decided not to return the Kickapoo captured by Col. McKenzie.

CANANDAIGUA, June 19.—The judgment of the Court in the case of Susan B. Anthony is that she pay a fine of one hundred dollars and costs of suit. Motion for new trial was made. In the case of the Inspectors a motion for a new trial was made on the ground that Hall, one of the defendants, was absent during the trial.

NEW YORK, June 19.—There is great excitement at Police Headquarters over the report that the Commissioners were about to appoint 25 colored men on the police force as patrolmen. Commissioner Russell says he supposes the rumor arose from a resolution adopted yesterday to appoint 25 colored men as street-sweepers; but if a motion is made to appoint colored patrolmen he will support it as a question of equality.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Private dispatches from San Jose say that Costa Rica has responded to the circular letter recently sent by the United States of Colombia calling all Central American Republics to join in the demand to Spain for the independence of Cuba, and in case of refusal to intervene with force. From Havana news comes that the Spaniards have found several empty lighters along the coast, which, from their construction and position, are thought to have been used to carry arms and stores to patriots. It is rumored in Cuban circles here that a large expedition of men and war materials is on the way to join the revolutionary forces.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—Annie Reagan and Maggie Milroy, aged five years each, missing since Wednesday, were found this morning locked in a closet in an empty house. One of the children was dead, but the other revived. It is believed that a heinous crime had been committed on the children.

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y., June 20.—The election officers who perpetrated Susan B. Anthony's vote, were fined each, today, $25 and $30 and costs.

DETROIT, June 20.—The city of East Saginaw is in great danger from fire which caught in saw dust, a large quantity of which has been used to fill up bogs. SWINOMISH, June 17.—A Victoria special says: "The accused murderers, now under arrest here, have confessed to the murder of the Dwyer family on San Juan Island a few weeks ago."

VICTORIA, June 18.—Gun-boat Boxer returned yesterday from a four weeks cruise along the Northwestern coast for the purpose of allowing the Superintendent of Indian Affairs to interview the Indian tribes. They were found to be peaceable and satisfied. At Bella Bella the party on a red from the Hudson Bay Agent, a keg, lantern, candle and fragments of a newspaper and some boxes supposed to have belonged to the wreck of the Geo. S. Wright. They next proceeded to Cape Caution, where the Superintendent interviewed the tribe of Indians, who appeared well-disposed and quite in contradiction to the letters written by Sawanee. No tidings of the wreck were obtained.

Joe, a Kanaka half-breed, suspected of being concerned in the murder of Mr. Dwyer and wife, on San Juan Island, made a full confession to-day. He acknowledges having done the killing, his object being plunder. He also confessed having killed a Mr. Fuller, on the same island, last year.

The Harrisburg State Journal is not quite satisfied with the way things have gone or are going in Pennsylvania particularly, or in the Union generally, and makes the following pertinent remarks:

"When public men see that the tenure of office depends upon the purity of their conduct, and that by malfeasance they will forfeit their emoluments and lose their positions, then, and not till then, the people will be honestly, faithfully and fearlessly served. But as long as the people continue to support men who apologize for the rascality and thievery on the part of public men, so long will those in authority continue to fill their pockets at the public expense, and watch over their own personal interests to the utter neglect of the public welfare."

A SEVERE SENTENCE.—A Louisville dispatch of June 5th says: Robert Atwood, who forged notes and bills of exchange to the tune of half a million, was sent to the Penitentiary to-day to serve out a term of 20 years. He pleaded guilty at the trial and escaped a number of indictments that were pending. He was taken to the depot in a carriage, while the other prisoners had to walk. He is highly connected, was a deacon of the Presbyterian Church, and before the forgeries were discovered, had the confidence of the entire community.

A CONSULDER FOR BOSTON.—The Baltimore Sun has the following: The mysterious circumstance lately occurred in Boston that while that temperate city is strictly enforcing an uncompromising liquor law, two men have been quarreling in a bar room as to which of them should defray the expenses of drinks, while the barkeeper undertook to settle the dispute by booting them both. The wonder is how such an event could occur in the anti-liquor city of Boston.

According to Methodist statistics, the increase of their denomination in the United States for twenty years has been fifty per cent, greater than the increase of population.

From the Vancouver Register: A large amount of real estate in the city and county is changing hands at an advanced price. More activity and firmness is manifested now than any period for several years.

The Way Mark Twain tells it.

As a satire upon one of the quite frequent modes of acquiring wealth, and what some call "respectability," in these immoral times, the following will serve its purpose:

"Samuel McFadden was a watchman in a bank. He was poor, but honest, and his life was without reproach. The trouble with him was that he felt he was not appreciated. His salary was only four dollars a week, and when he asked to have it raised, the President, Cashier, and Board of Directors glared at him through their spectacles and frowned on him, and told him to go out and stop his insolence, when he knew business was dull and the bank could not meet its expenses now, let alone paying one dollar on such a miserable wretch as Samuel McFadden. And then Samuel McFadden felt depressed, sad, and the hangly scorn of the President and Cashier cut him to the soul. He would often go out into the side yard and bow his venerable 24 inch head, and weep gallons and gallons of tears over his insignificance, and pray that he might be worthy of the President's and Cashier's polite attention.

One night a happy thought struck him; a gleam of light burst upon him, and gazing down the dim vista of years with his eyes all blinded by joyous tears, he saw himself rich and respected. So Samuel McFadden fooled round and got a jimmy, a monkey-wrench, a cross-cut saw, a cold chisel, a drill, and a ton of gunpowder and nitro-glycerine and such things. Then, in the dead of night he went to the fire proof safe, and after working at it for a while, burst the door, and brick into an immo-fal smash, vi a such a perfect success that there was not enough left of that safe to make a carpet tack. Mr. McFadden then began to load up with coupons, greenbacks, currency and specie, and to mail all the odd change that was lying anywhere, so that he pranced out of the bank with more than a million of dollars on him. He then retired to an unassuming residence out of town, and sent word to the detectives where he was.

A detective called on him the next day with a soothing note from the Cashier. McFadden treated it with lofty scorn. Detectives called on him every day with humble notes from the President, Cashier and Board of Directors. At last the bank officers gave a magnificent private supper, to which McFadden was invited. He came, and as the bank officers bowed down in the dust before him, he pondered well over the bitter past, and his soul was filled with exultation. Before he drove away in his carriage that night, it was fixed that McFadden was to keep half a million of that money and to be unmolested if he returned the other half. He fulfilled his contract like an honest man, but refused with haughty disdain the offer of the Cashier to marry his daughter.

Mac is now honored and respected. He moves in the best society; he browses around in purple and fine linen and other good clothes, and enjoys himself first rate. And he often takes his infant son on his knee and tells him of his early life, and instills holy principles to the child's mind, and shows him how, by industry and perseverance, and frugality, and nitro glycerine and cross cut saws, and monkey wrenches, and familiarity with the detective system, even the poor may rise to respectability and affluence.

MR. BRIGIT ON REPUBLICANISM.—Mr. Brigit writes to the secretary of a Republican meeting held in Birmingham as follows:

Baller, N. B., May 8, 1873. DEAR SIR,—I thank you for the invitation to your proposed conference, although I cannot be present at it. You ask for a word of encouragement, which I can hardly give. To possess the best system of civil government, is a thing worth striving for, but it may be a wise policy to endeavor to perfect the 'civil government' we have rather than to look for great changes which necessarily involve enormous risks. It is easier to uproot a Monarchy than to give a healthy growth to that which is put in its place; and I suspect the price we should have to pay for the change would be greater than the change would be worth. Our forefathers suffered from nearly a century of unsettled Government in consequence of the overthrow of the Monarchy, brought on by the crimes and folly of the Monarch. France has endured many calamities and much humiliation for nearly 100 years past, springing from the destruction of the ancient Government, and the apparent impossibility of finding a stable Government to succeed it. Spain is now in the same difficulty, and we watch the experiment with interest and anxiety. For forty years past in this country we have seen the course of improvement in our laws and administration equal, perhaps superior, to anything which has been witnessed in any other nation. This gives me hope and faith that we can establish a civil Government so good, as to attract to its support the respect and love of all the intelligent among our people, and without bringing upon us the troubles which I believe are inseparable from the uprooting of an ancient Monarchy. I have no sympathy with the object which gives its name to your club. I prefer to try to do good in the way of political reform by what I regard as a wiser and less hazardous, if a less ambitious, method; and from what we have seen of the past, I think we may gather hope and faith for the future.

"I am, yours, &c., JOHN BRIGIT, 'Mr. C. Caffal.'"

WILL CONQUER POVERTY.—I have been for often surprised to see how the will triumphs over obstacles that I have to see the obstacles triumph over the will to work. Eight and left are women with infant children, and incapable, invalid, or dissipated husbands, surmounting hindrances, and earning not only a living but a competence by sheer pluck, or if that is not an admissible word, will I see men with indigent health, but sturdy self reliance and creditable pride, by steady industry buying and building houses, lifting mortgages, growing gradually and surely into prominent and permanent respectability; while others, who started with apparently equal or superior advantages falter and fall simply from idleness or feebleness of purpose. We pity them. Every healthy mind must devise that trait which permits a man or woman to prefer ignoble ease to a dignified though hardy-earned independence; which permits the day laborer to live humbly on to day's wages, without laying by any store for the morrow, on which he cannot work.—Gail Hamilton

"THE HAND THAT ROCKS THE CRADLE RULES THE WORLD."—A lady correspondent of the Phila. Ledger writes as follows: "Are our fathers, our brothers, our husbands, really the oppressors some would have us believe? On the contrary, it seems to me that there is a growing disposition on their part to give us all our true rights. But does that of suffrage belong to us? Reform, it is true, is a fully needed; there is enough out of the land to make every honest heart sick. But it is education, not legislation that is wanted, not mercy of the intellect, but higher far, of the moral and spiritual faculties. And woman is by nature the educator of mankind; his leading spirit throughout life. A woman of virtue—a thorough woman—carries with her, even silently, a power stronger in its influence than would be the polling of scores and scores of votes. "And far happier and prouder than acquiring of my supposed 'rights' would make me, will I be if I succeed in developing in my bright little boy a respect for all his Maec's creatures, from the kitten on his nursing floor to the venerable grand dame in the arm chair. But if I succeed in this, and properly conduct the affairs of the household, little time will be left, indeed, for entering upon the turmoil of party, strife; and, to confess the truth, little inclination either.

"Would that my sisters, in a calm mood and with a steady eye, would contemplate the dignity and importance of woman as the educator. They would surely see, near home, a wide field of work, and a little place for each for single as well as the married, the high bred and the lowly-born—something for them to do, and do with their might—a work requiring for its thorough performance the self education and the self discipline of every faculty. With seeds sown by such hands, what a harvest would in time follow—what a people we should become!

MORE TERRITORY.—The U. S. Government has acquired the title to 1,000,000 acres of land, by treaty with the Devil's Lake and Sisseton bands of Sioux Indians. The cession embraces a tract of country bounded on the east by the Red River, and extending from a line near Lac Traverse to within a few miles of Devil's Lake, embracing an area of over 150 miles in length and 100 miles in width, including within its limits the fertile region between the James and Red rivers, a section of country of unsurpassed fertility, which is rapidly filling up on both sides of the Northern Pacific Railroad. For this the U. S. Government pays $30,000 a year for ten years, in stock, agricultural implements, clothing and supplies. Timber is rather scarce. The Cat Heads and other savages tried to prevent the treaty, but Little Fish, a prominent chief insisted, and signed it, followed by other chiefs.

SENDING DRY GOODS BY MAIL.—The parcel post law which went into operation July 1, 1872, provides that packages of dry goods, hardware, drugs (except liquid drugs), and other merchandise, not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, may be used in any part of the United States at a charge of two cents for each two ounces or fractions of two ounces. Much time and money will be saved by this arrangement. The express companies demand at least forty cents for the transportation of a package however small, for any distance. The department has lost, up to this time, by the system. This is owing to the fact that the people have not availed themselves of its advantages, which is probably due to the fact that it is not yet generally known. It takes time to get such facts before the people. In the multitude of items cast before them every day, such a one as this stands a good chance to be buried for a long while.—Cincinnati Gazette.

AN ITEM FOR THE QUAKERS.—The San Francisco Call states: Since 1863 over 1,000 Americans and Mexicans have been murdered in Arizona by the Apaches. This is an average of over one hundred per year, and shows that the Indians were very successful, considering the small population they had to work upon.

CONSOLING.—A Missouri judge, a few days ago, administered the following consolation to a criminal whom he was sentencing to death: "If guilty, you richly deserve the fate which awaits you; if innocent, it will be gratification for you to feel that you were hanged without such a crime on your conscience, in either case you will be delivered from a world of care."

TO CLEANSE CARPETS.—One tea spoonful liquid ammonia in one gallon warm water, will often restore the color to carpets, even if produced by an acid or alkali. If a ceiling has been whitewashed with carpet down, and a few drops are visible, this will remove it.

ANOTHER WAY.—After the carpet is well beaten and brushed, scour with egg gall, which will not only extract grease but freshen the color—one pint of gall in three gallons warm water, will do a large carpet. Table floorcloths may be thus washed. The suits left from a wash, where ammonia is used, even if almost cold, cleanses these floor cloths well.

A PAT OF LAND SINKING THREE HUNDRED FEET.—A singular incident occurred in Seward Valley, Schenectady County, New York, on Tuesday of last week. On the top of a hill in the woods, a piece of land belonging to the late John Weiting, containing about 10,000 square feet, sunk to the depth of three hundred feet. The report was heard a number of miles. It is supposed that the land must have been a rammed live beneath, as it is in the vicinity of the Seward, and the arch work giving away left the earth above without any support, and in consequence of this it caved in.—Hudson (N. Y.) Star.

There are more miles of railroad in the United States than in all the nations of Europe combined. Our completed ones would reach 70 1/2 miles, with an additional 43,900 in process of building in all Europe there are less than 65,000 miles of railroad.

The Chicago Tribune puts the solution of our country: "How can we escape it?" A New York paper answers: "The Gospel offers you every encouragement, but perhaps your 'best hole' is to get out of Chicago."
