

Puget Sound Dispatch.

VI. 3.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON TERRITORY, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 30, 1874.

NO. 33

Puget Sound Dispatch.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING BY BROWN & SON.

OFFICE in Dispatch Building.
TERMS:
Single Copy One Year.....$3 00
" Six Months..... 2 00
" Three "..... 1 00
" Single Number..... 12
PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

RATES OF ADVERTISING:
One Square of 12 Lines, 1st Insertion.....$1 00
Each Subsequent Insertion..... 50
Yearly and quarterly advertisements at the lowest rates.

JOB PRINTING!
of every description done at the most reasonable rates.

AGENTS:
Olympia.....Capt. Frank Tarbell
Stellacoom.....Jacob Hoover
Victoria, B. C.....Charles McCormick
Port Townsend.....George Barthrop
Port Discovery.....E. C. Ferguson
Shoshone City.....E. C. Ferguson

W. R. ANDREWS,
Attorney and Counselor-at-Law, Seattle, W. T.

WILL ATTEND TO BUSINESS IN ALL COURTS on the Sound.

JOHN J. MCGILVRA,
Attorney at Law, SEATTLE, W. T.

Will attend to business in all parts of the Territory.

Jacob Hoover,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

STELLACOOM, W. T.

A. BAGLEY, M. D.
Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon,

At the United States Hotel, Seattle, W. T.

DENTISTRY.
DR. J. C. GRASSE, DENTIST. Office in Stone & Burnett's new building on Commercial street. All work warranted.

DR. G. A. WEED,
SURGEON AND PHYSICIAN, Seattle, W. T.

Office over Merrill & Kings Drug Store. Office hours from 9 to 12, a. m., and from 2 to 5, p. m.

J. W. ERVIN,
Contractor and Builder,

IN MASONRY, STONE, BRICK, PLASTER, etc. Office in Stone & Burnett's new building on Commercial street. All work warranted.

S. F. CHAPIN, M. D.
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. SEATTLE, W. T.

Office—At M. A. Kelley's Drug Store. Residence—Corner Fourth and Columbia streets. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 12, and 2 to 5, p. m.

CHARLES D. EMERY,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, SEATTLE, W. T.

WILL PAY PROMPT ATTENTION TO all business in Law, Equity and Admiralty.

D. P. JENKINS,
Attorney-at-Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION GIVEN TO Chancery Cases.

Office—On Commercial street over City Drug Store.

GEO. N. MCCONAHA,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW SEATTLE, W. T.

Particular attention paid to Collections.

Office in City Council Room—Mill street.

A. Mackintosh,
Notary Public and Conveyancer, REAL ESTATE AND TAX AGENT.

Has a complete Abstract of Title to all Lands in King County. Will attend to the purchase and sale of Lands anywhere on Puget Sound. Special attention paid to the transfer of Real Estate and Payment of Taxes. Patronage solicited and satisfaction guaranteed.

Office on Mill Street opposite the Occidental Hotel, Seattle, A. N.

McNAUGHT & LEARY,
Seattle, King County, W. T. Attorneys-at-Law, Solicitors in Chancery and Proctors in Admiralty.

MR. LEARY WILL GIVE PARTICULAR attention to the purchase and sale of Real Estate.

Loans negotiated. City property, Timber and Agricultural lands for sale.

Agents for the Phoenix of Hartford, North British and Mercantile of London and Edinburgh Fire Insurance Companies.

SUCH IS LIFE!

The largest and best selected stock of General Merchandise Ever offered in his country, can be found at Schwabacher Bros. & Co.

Our new two-story building is filled from Garret to Celar; all of which we offer at prices that

DEFY COMPETITION!!

Our past success in business is sufficient guarantee to the Public that they will be dealt with

ON THE SQUARE.

Our stock consists in part of the following, viz:

Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Provisions, Liquors, Tobacco and Cigars, Crockery and Glassware, Paints, Oil, Varnish, Brushes, Carpets, Oil-cloths, Curtains and Window blinds, Shelf Hardware, Carpenter and Blacksmith tools, Iron, Steel, Chain, Bolts, Rivets, Ship Chandler and Cordage, Lime, Cement, Plaster of Paris, Hay, Feed, Cumberland Coal, Plows and other farming implements.

In fact anything and everything in general use in this country.

We do not import "Direct from England," but one of our firm keeps a Chinese servant whom he imported direct from Oregon.

We have a resident partner in the Market and our purchases are made to the VERY BEST ADVANTAGE.

To Country Dealers we would say, and say it in truth too, that they can make Saving by purchasing of us instead of going below.

Thankful for past patronage, we take this method of inviting the Public to give us a call and we guarantee that they shall not regret doing so.

SCHWABACHER BROS. & CO.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS

AND IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN

Hardware, Groceries,

Wines and Liquors,

Flour and Feed

SUGAR TEA, TOBACCO, COFFEE ETC.,

Are continually adding to their Stock on hand to meet the increasing demand of the Puget Sound trade and the public generally.

Price List, not higher than San Francisco jobbing price. Freight added.

CALL AND EXAMINE, Warehouse and Wharf adjoining Steamboat landing.

STORE AND OFFICE, COMMERCIAL STREET SEATTLE, W. T.

CRAWFORD & HARRINGTON,

AGENTS FOR THE

Imperial Fire Insurance Company of London

JAS. R. ROBBINS

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Foreign and Domestic Wines,

Brandies, Whiskeys, ETC., ETC., ETC.

No. 15 Commercial st. Seattle, W. T.

Genuine Cutter Whiskey always on hand.

City Drug Store.

J. F. MORRILL & CO., Proprietors. Drugs, Medicines, Toilet Articles, etc. Prescriptions carefully compounded, day and night.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

TRESPASS UPON GOVERNMENT LANDS.—

The Courier of the 22d says: "A hearing was had to-day before the Land Office involving some 800 cords of wood of Mr. Foster and others, of Seattle, cut on the wife's part of the Maynard donation claim, which has reverted to the Government. Some 150 cords, more or less, on the portion now claimed by H. McAlister was at once released, the parties were exculpated from the charge of trespass, as the claim had been in a state of uncertainty, and the matter was compromised by Mr. Foster paying the Government 25 cents per cord and costs accrued."

The Land Officers undoubtedly favored the accused parties to the limit of their discretionary powers; and yet it is a hardship which ought not to be, that Mr. Foster should be called upon to pay damages which the Government has in no manner sustained. Government quit claim to this land nearly twenty years ago, during which time it has been held, transferred and converted as private property, under a donation claim, without let or hindrance from the Government. A short time since, under an arbitrary decision of the Secretary of the Interior, the individual owners of the land, who had bought and paid for it in good faith, were ousted of their possessions, without compensation, the title reverting to the Government, and they were immediately taken possession of by others, under the pre-emption laws, after which the Timber Agent comes in and seizes wood cut on said land, under lease from the disposed owners, and the matter is compromised by the payment of a royalty to the Government.

What a striking contrast in the action of the Government officials is there between this case and that of Gen. Sprague, the agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Sprague sold permits to cut timber upon Government lands which had been merely withdrawn from market for the contingent benefit of the railroad, to which the Government had not parted with, nor the railroad acquired, any title. After realizing a large revenue from the sale of timber upon Government lands which will never, under any circumstances, accrue to the railroad, further transactions in that line were forbidden by the authorities, but when our Courts attempted to enforce the laws against trespass upon public lands in the case of Gen. Sprague's unlawful permits, their proceedings were suspended indefinitely by orders from Government, and Sprague was never required to remit to the Government a dollar of the proceeds of his lawless traffic in Government property.

Such unjust discriminations against the settlers in favor of speculators and monopolists, seems always to have been the rule with the Federal Government in this Territory. We most earnestly hope for the time when the people may govern themselves.

PORT BLAKELY MAIL.—In the late mail lettings, the lowest bid for carrying the mail between Seattle and Port Blakely, weekly, was $350. The Postmaster General informs the Postmaster here that but $150 will be paid for that service, and if it cannot be done for that amount, in currency, the office at Port Blakely will be suspended. There are over 300 persons supplied with mail matter at that office, and a lumber company doing a business of not less than $1,500,000 annually. All these are to be cut off from mail facilities because no one can be found to carry the mail at the price arbitrarily fixed by the Postmaster General who knows nothing about it. The same public functionary awarded the contract to Ben. Holliday for carrying the mail from Portland to Sitka at an advance of $8,000 per annum over the bid of Mr. Garfield to carry the mail from Pt. Townsend to Sitka; there being already a semi-weekly mail between Portland and Pt. Townsend, thus making the extra service, for which eight thousand dollars a year is paid, utterly useless to the public. The people of Puget Sound are short of their rights, by arbitrary rule, to save money which is squandered upon favorites.

SEATTLE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The "inspired idiot" who mixes temperance, spiritism, free love, woman's rights, local politics and personal rivalry for the "Organ of the Good Templars," gives the following account of our late city election:

ROUTED.—At the late city election in Seattle, the M. B. (more beers, alias milk) were routed foot, horse, and artillery, by the cold water brigade. They were "cleaned out to the best rock" with poor old fourth proof Barish at their head; no; at their tail. He tailed out them and was too much of a load for even the Seattle whiskey ring to drag, so they have all landed in the mire together. The law misportioner of Seattle have shown themselves equal to the emergency. They have not the enemy and he is theirs. All honor to the good citizens of Seattle. The tyrannical rum fiend is now to be curtailed in our sister city. That's right friends, "cut him tail smack snooze off."

SEATTLE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The "inspired idiot" who mixes temperance, spiritism, free love, woman's rights, local politics and personal rivalry for the "Organ of the Good Templars," gives the following account of our late city election:

ROUTED.—At the late city election in Seattle, the M. B. (more beers, alias milk) were routed foot, horse, and artillery, by the cold water brigade. They were "cleaned out to the best rock" with poor old fourth proof Barish at their head; no; at their tail. He tailed out them and was too much of a load for even the Seattle whiskey ring to drag, so they have all landed in the mire together. The law misportioner of Seattle have shown themselves equal to the emergency. They have not the enemy and he is theirs. All honor to the good citizens of Seattle. The tyrannical rum fiend is now to be curtailed in our sister city. That's right friends, "cut him tail smack snooze off."

Puget Sound Dispatch.

The foregoing is purely an idiotic invention of the editor of the "temperance organ," without the least shadow of foundation in truth. The M. B. organization was disbanded a year ago, and had no part in the late election. The temperance question was not in issue in any form. The ticket which was mainly successful was selected by a committee chosen at a public meeting to which all parties were invited. The first man elected on that committee was Mr. Schwabacher, a liquor dealer, on the nomination of Judge Webster, a leading temperance man. The second man nominated and elected to the committee was Mr. Crawford, a liquor dealer. The professed temperance men had but a small representation on the committee. Not a single person on the ticket presented is publicly known to be in favor of prohibition, and the most of those elected are known to be opposed to prohibition. On both tickets there were but two liquor dealers, and one of them was elected. The "whiskey ring" was divided, and the "cold water brigade" was nowhere, on election day. With such an "official organ," decent temperance people are getting ashamed to acknowledge their connection with the temperance organization which employs imbecility, falsehood and vituperative malice to promote its cause.

FINE STOCK.—One of the most beautiful pieces of horse flesh we have seen in this town is a blood-bay four years old mare recently purchased by Mr. Thos. Clancey. She is of Bismarck stock and was raised in Oregon.

SUPPOSED TO BE DROWNED.—Two sailors left this city on Wednesday evening, in a small skiff, for Port Blakely, since which time neither the men or the boat have been seen at Blakely. It is believed the men were drowned.

MERCHANT FLEET.—On Thursday evening there were seven ocean vessels lying in the harbor at Port Blakely; one sailed the same evening, leaving six to load with lumber for foreign and American ports.

COLLECTOR AT COLVILLE.—Jacob Stitzel, who, since his arrival at Washington some eighteen months ago, has been serving as a member of the Capital Police force, is now on his way to this coast with the commission as Collector at Colville in his pocket. This berth is quite a sinecure, as the duties on the imports would not be sufficient to pay his salary.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—SEATTLE, July 23. Council met pursuant to adjournment. Present, Councilmen Anderson and Waddell. No quorum present, therefore adjourned to Friday evening, July 24th, at 7 1/2 o'clock.

EDW. H. BORNW, City Clerk.

LUMBER.—The Lumbermen's National Convention held a three days session at Williamsport, Penn., during the past month. One of the principal acts of the Convention was to protest, vigorously, against the Reciprocity Treaty, which proposes to admit Canadian lumber to the United States free of duty. Delegates were present from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Maryland, Wisconsin, Florida, Connecticut, Minnesota, Ohio, New York and Georgia; Michigan having the largest representation.

J. H. Simmonds, Boston, Mass., is the Corresponding Secretary of the Association.

THAT TERRITORIAL SUNDAY LAW.—Last Sunday was a day of trial and tribulation—of long suffering and vexation of spirit. The day was the inauguration of the Sunday Law, and saloons were closed to the importunate demands of the guzzlers of intoxicating beverages. It was only for one day; but then it was for one day, and one whole day of 24 hours at that. Our streets were more than usually crowded, and from the appearance of some few it was evident that they had at least snuffed the odor of whisky in the atmosphere, or had in some unaccountable manner obtained possession of the corks of whisky bottles to chew for old remembrance's sake. A number of our citizens were taken sick, and rushed to the drug stores in the hope of having their maladies appropriately prescribed for. A number of our saloonists went fishing, another number went hunting for prairie chickens, and the majority of our population went hunting for something to drink. At least so it seemed to our reporter—who, by-the-by, is a total abstinence man. The precise effect of the Sunday ordinance cannot be adequately determined for some few Sundays yet. There is talk of its repeal, together with some other talk on the subject. It is a matter for the people and their representatives in Council to determine, and whatever, if anything else, may be done in the matter, rests for their consideration.—Walls Walls Spirit.

Marine Intelligence.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—The following is the list of passengers per steamship Wm. Tabor for Victoria, B. C.: C. C. McKenzie, W. B. Higgins, Andrew Leing, Mrs. A. Watson and infant, Mrs. Bowman, Miss Bowerdenstete, C. W. H. Conly, H. Hale, wife and three children, J. Ross, Mrs. J. J. Hunt, Mrs. Jenkinson, Mrs. Linhart and sister, Julian Pomeroy, C. F. Clapp, F. C. Peters, John Maxwell and wife, John Blott, H. O. Bowe, Mrs. Lewis and two children, Mrs. Gleason and twenty-five others in the steerage.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—Arrived, Parallel, Coos Bay; Rival, Columbia River; San Diego, Chomagin Islands.

23.—Arrived, ship Shireley, Tacoma; Warhawk, Port Discovery.

PORT DISCOVERY, July 23.—Sailed, ship Revere.

VICTORIA, July 23.—Arrived, Mary Eley, London.

PORT BLAKELY, July 23.—Arrived, Tanner, San Francisco.

General Lee one day found Dr. Cutting, the army surgeon, who was a handsome and dandy man, arranging his cravat complacently before a glass. "Cutting," said he, "you must be the happiest man in creation."

"Why, General?"

"Why," replied Lee, "because you are in love with yourself, and have not a rival on earth."

SPREAD OF CERTAIN DISEASES.—It is to be regarded as a settled fact that diseases of a contagious nature are caused and spread by influence largely within the sphere of our control. This fact has been strongly urged by Dr. Symes Thompson, a well-known English physician, in a lecture delivered by him in London. Every form of infectious fever, he asserts, has its idiosyncrasy. Thus, enteric fever and cholera tend chiefly to disseminate themselves through water passing into the wells and fountains of daily supply; scarlet fever hibernates in a drawer, and after long months comes forth with some old and cast-side garment, to be thrown with it around the head or throat of some new victim, and so start thence upon a fresh career.

It is said that the young lady who was engaged to Col. Ellsworth and vowed eternal celibacy for his sake, was not present at the dedication of his monument, because it was not convenient for her to leave her husband and children.

An old maid in Lockport, N. Y., purchased one of the Egyptian mummies at the Niagara Falls Museum, the other day, for a parlor ornament. She said it would seem better to have a man around, even if he was advanced in life and withered.

The Davenport Gazette says a young lady who arrived there from California, without a male protector, says it is a safe and delightful trip for a lady to make alone, and as for the male protection, it only makes additional trouble and another to feed out of the lunch basket.

Before you ask a favor of any man, consider three things. First, can you not avoid it? Second, can the one you apply to grant it? Third, would you, if your places were reversed, do for your friend what you ask him to do for you.

Mexican editors don't care about an extended circulation. The fewer subscribers they have the fewer times they are shot at.—Detroit Free Press.

Compression of the feet of children, not less than in grown people, works a great many evils. Derangement of circulation, headache and weak eyes result from wearing tight shoes.—The motions of a child be absolutely free, and every garment and covering of the body should be so contrived as not to detract in the least from perfect freedom of circulation and movement. Keeping shoes on feet that have outgrown them is very expensive economy.

BUSINESS NOTICES

Ladies' Furnishing Store.

Mrs. Jamieson desires to call the attention of the ladies of Seattle to her assortment of Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Ladies and Misses Hosiery, Gloves, etc., a choice assortment of Hats, of new styles; Laces, Trimmings, Zephyra, Perfumery, Fancy Stationery, small wares and notions. A share of patronage solicited. Our aim will be to keep a good assortment of choice goods in the above line and sell at reasonable prices.

Mrs. JAMIESON, Cherry street, Seattle, W. T.

BOARD.—In a private family may be had by applying to the undersigned next door to the Episcopal Church: Day Boarders, $5 a week; $6 for Board and Lodging. Mrs. M. L. SINCLAIR, Seattle, July 13, 1874.

The Idea of a Universal Medicine is at last realized in Dr. WALKER'S VEGAN BITTERS. This concentrated essence of the finest medicinal herbs and roots in the Western hemisphere, eradicates all diseases which have not undermined the sources of vitality, and in Chronic Indigestion, Nervous Headache, Congestion of the Liver, Rheumatism, Gout, General Debility, and innumerable ulcers and scabious disorders, it is a specific absolute and infallible.

New and Extensive Stocks!

—OF—

GENERAL MERCHANDISE!

—OF—

B. BERNSTEIN

RESPECTFULLY INFORMS THE CITIZENS OF Seattle and vicinity, that having leased the extensive premises formerly occupied by STONE & BURNETT, on

Commercial Street

AND RECEIVED DIRECT A LARGE AND EXTENSIVE ASSORTMENT OF

General Merchandise

HE HAS OPENED THE SAME FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

The following will comprise a portion of the stock:

Dry Goods, Clothing, Carpets, Wall Paper, Groceries, Liquors, Tobacco, Cigars, Etc.

The Highest Price paid for Fine Seattle, January 6, 1874.

Pioneer Variety Store,

Commercial St, 2 doors from Mill, Seattle, W. T.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS

FOR SALE:

Shot-guns, Rifles, Pistols,

Furniture, Watches, Stoves, Tin-ware,

Hard-ware, Pictures, Mirrors,

One set of Boat Screws, one Large Tent 48x24 with 6 feet walls.

And many other New and Second-hand Articles too numerous to mention, all of which will be sold cheap for CASH.

KEYS FITTED TO LOCKS. All kinds of Goods bought or exchanged.

T. P. FREEMAN. May 26th, 1874.

Dexter Horton & Co BANKERS, SEATTLE, W. T.

Deposits received and accounts kept subject to Check or Draft.

Interest allowed on time deposits from date of deposit.

Eight Exchange on Portland, San Francisco and New York.

Money loaned on approved security; Bonds, Stocks and other valuables received on deposit for safe keeping. Collections made and proceeds promptly remitted.

Investments in Real Estate and other property made for parties.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

EDITORIAL: Seattle, W. T., July 30, 1874

A DIRTY SUBJECT.—The fellow who wrote "Mackintosh's Manifesto" on the county farm swindle, appears again in the organ of corruption and squaw broils, over the name of one F. M. Guye, a "squaw man," in defence of his connection, as landlord or proprietor of the notorious houses of Indian and Chinese prostitution, which disgrace this city.

ANTHRACITE COAL.—We have been reported by Mr. Packwood, an old and intelligent mountain man, that he had discovered anthracite coal in a certain locality in the Cascade Mountains, near the Cowitz Pass, about a month ago, a company composed of Messrs. Yantis, Giddings, Blankenship, Barnes and Rice, was organized at Olympia to prospect for the mine.

A CONTEMPTIBLE BUSINESS.—The Portland News does itself the discredit of raking up the story, on the authority of a discharged soldier, that one E. G. Struve, assumed to be the present Secretary of this Territory in 1863 enlisted in the army, in New York, for the term of five years, and that in the following year, being then stationed at Benicia, California, he deserted from the service.

not, is a matter of no public consequence whatever, and we see no object in dragging it before the public, but for the gratification of a very low order of partisan malice.

OUR NEW QUARTERS.—We have entered into possession of our new quarters in the new "Dispatch Buildings," opposite the Occidental Hotel. Our office occupies about two-thirds of the lower floor; the balance is to be occupied severally by Doctor Freeland, for Dental rooms, and Counsellor Emory for a law office.

HOW A MARYLAND MINISTER CHASTISED HIS WIFE.—The Alexandria (Va.) Gazette says the Presbytery of Chesapeake met in Baltimore, Wednesday, July 23, and the case of the Rev. H. E. Baskerville, of Laurel, charged with whipping his wife. The specification is that on Sunday, a short time ago, the reverend gentleman, who is the provider for the household, having failed to procure anything for breakfast except bread and butter, was surprised to find some eggs on the table, and being told by his wife, in response to an inquiry, that she had borrowed them from a neighbor, told her he would "teach her how to break the Sabbath," and did so by slapping her jaws—one of the slaps striking on the eye and blacking that orb into which he had so often fondly gazed.

THE smart boy is an institution. The other day one ragged little fellow, promeneading the street while it was crowded with lady shoppers, thoughtfully remarked to another ragged little fellow: "These 'ere gals have another fashion—they only wear one earring now." Every feminine within hearing immediately raised her hands in fright to her ears, supposing she had lost one of her ornaments. At this the gamins smiled aloud, and explained that they heard the news from Tom Collins.

Those of our readers who may have noticed that Wm. M. Tweed is frequently mentioned in our dispatches to the exclusion of other and equally meritorious names will appreciate this from the Chicago Tribune, which to our notion, is well put:

Once upon a time there was an old gentleman named Tweed, and he lived in a big house, and he made lots of money dishonestly, and he occupied the administration of a great city, and he first taught the American people to admire successful knavery, and he was found out at last, and he was sent to prison for all his wickedness, and served his right. That is all the story—There is no more moral to it than we have given. This being true, the people and press can well afford to do without further bulletins in regard to Mr. Tweed's prison life. His story is told.

PERSONAL.—Our old and esteemed friend, Judge McHenry, formerly of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, and for many years a leading lawyer in San Francisco, is spending a few days in and about Seattle, making a business examination of the resources of the country and its commercial facilities. He is interested with other capitalists in the Cedar Mountain Coal Mine, and is the right kind of a man to assist in promoting our material prosperity.

Hon. H. A. Webster, the newly appointed Collector for Puget Sound, passed here on the steamer North Pacific, on Monday morning, on his way to Port Townsend, and probably by this time has entered upon the duties of his office.

OUR NEW QUARTERS.—We have entered into possession of our new quarters in the new "Dispatch Buildings," opposite the Occidental Hotel. Our office occupies about two-thirds of the lower floor; the balance is to be occupied severally by Doctor Freeland, for Dental rooms, and Counsellor Emory for a law office.

THE Idea of a Universal Medicine is at last realized in Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters. This concentrated essence of the finest medicinal herbs and roots in the Western hemisphere, eradicates all diseases which have not undermined the sources of vitality, and in Chronic Indigestion, Nervous Headache, Congestion of the Liver, Rheumatism, Gout, General Debility, and innumerable other and serious disorders, it is a specific and absolute infallible.

NOTICE.—THERE IS A RED COW WITH A "LINE" on her neck, which the owner can have by calling at the residence of the undersigned and paying damages.

NOTICE.—THERE IS A RED COW WITH A "LINE" on her neck, which the owner can have by calling at the residence of the undersigned and paying damages.

NOTICE.—THERE IS A RED COW WITH A "LINE" on her neck, which the owner can have by calling at the residence of the undersigned and paying damages.

FOR SALE.—A SUPERIOR BLACK WALNUT Bed Room Set. Enquire at this Office. July 22, 1874.

COAL FREIGHT.—PARTIES DESIRING PARTIAL OR ENTIRE CARGO quick dispatch, can secure the same in quantities from 100 to 1000 tons by applying to

Strayed or Stolen.—ON JULY 18, 1874, A DARK ROAN Cow, with J. F. on left hip, will pay a liberal reward for the return of said cow.

NOTICE.—ALL PERSONS INDEBTED TO B. BERNSTEIN are requested to pay before the 1st of August, or the account will be placed in the hands of an Attorney for collection.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!! A CHANCE FOR ALL AT Frauenthal Brothers.

We would wish to be remembered as being the only firm who confine themselves entirely to the line of DRY GOODS and CLOTHING IN SEATTLE.

IN WHICH A FINE ASSORTMENT OF FIRST CLASS Goods, possessing selected, can always be found at prices that will warrant purchasers to give us their patronage.

OREGON SEASIDE RESORT.—A correspondent of the Oregonian, writing from Clatsop, says:

Alhambra Saloon.—THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD INFORM the public that they have purchased the above establishment, which will hereafter be conducted in a manner second to none in the City.

Min. Intelligence.—PORT GAMBEL, July 28.—Sailed, bark Milan. PORT BLAKELY, July 25.—Arrived, brig Lucas from Anahelo. PORT DISCOVERY, July 25.—Sailed, Emma, August 1, for San Pedro. VICTORIA, July 27.—Arrived, steamer Wm. Labor.

BUSINESS NOTICES

Ladies' Furnishing Store.—Mrs. Jamieson desires to call the attention of the ladies of Seattle to her assortment of Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Ladies and Misses Hosiery, Gloves, etc.

BOARD.—In a private family may be had by applying to the undersigned next door to the Episcopal Church. Day Boarders, $5 a week; $6 for Board and Lodging.

The Idea of a Universal Medicine is at last realized in Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters. This concentrated essence of the finest medicinal herbs and roots in the Western hemisphere, eradicates all diseases which have not undermined the sources of vitality, and in Chronic Indigestion, Nervous Headache, Congestion of the Liver, Rheumatism, Gout, General Debility, and innumerable other and serious disorders, it is a specific and absolute infallible.

NOTICE.—THERE IS A RED COW WITH A "LINE" on her neck, which the owner can have by calling at the residence of the undersigned and paying damages.

NOTICE.—THERE IS A RED COW WITH A "LINE" on her neck, which the owner can have by calling at the residence of the undersigned and paying damages.

NOTICE.—THERE IS A RED COW WITH A "LINE" on her neck, which the owner can have by calling at the residence of the undersigned and paying damages.

FOR SALE.—A SUPERIOR BLACK WALNUT Bed Room Set. Enquire at this Office. July 22, 1874.

COAL FREIGHT.—PARTIES DESIRING PARTIAL OR ENTIRE CARGO quick dispatch, can secure the same in quantities from 100 to 1000 tons by applying to

Strayed or Stolen.—ON JULY 18, 1874, A DARK ROAN Cow, with J. F. on left hip, will pay a liberal reward for the return of said cow.

NOTICE.—ALL PERSONS INDEBTED TO B. BERNSTEIN are requested to pay before the 1st of August, or the account will be placed in the hands of an Attorney for collection.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!! A CHANCE FOR ALL AT Frauenthal Brothers.

We would wish to be remembered as being the only firm who confine themselves entirely to the line of DRY GOODS and CLOTHING IN SEATTLE.

IN WHICH A FINE ASSORTMENT OF FIRST CLASS Goods, possessing selected, can always be found at prices that will warrant purchasers to give us their patronage.

OREGON SEASIDE RESORT.—A correspondent of the Oregonian, writing from Clatsop, says:

Alhambra Saloon.—THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD INFORM the public that they have purchased the above establishment, which will hereafter be conducted in a manner second to none in the City.

KEARNEY'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE, AND A POSITIVE REMEDY FOR Gout, Gravel, Strictures, Diabetes, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Dropsy, Non-retention or Incontinence of Urine Irritation, Inflammation or Ulceration OF THE BLADDER AND KIDNEYS, Spermatorrhoea, Leucorrhoea or Whites, Diseases of the Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Coliculus, Gravel or Brickdust Deposit and Mucus Milky Discharges.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

KEARNEY'S EXTRACT BUCHU. For all the diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and dropsical swellings. Existing in Men, Women and Children. No matter what the age. Price, One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.

R. R. RADWAY'S RADWAY'S READY RELIEF CURES THE WORST PAINS In from one to twenty Minutes. NOT ONE HOUR after rubbing the advertisement on any part of the body will the pain be relieved. It was the first and is the Only Pain Remedy.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Bowels, Congestion of the Lungs, Sore Throat, Difficult Breathing, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, Croup, Diphtheria, Catarrh, Influenza, Headache, Toothache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Cold Chills, Ague Chills. The application of the Ready Relief to the part or parts where the pain or difficulty exists will afford ease and comfort.

HEALTH! BEAUTY! Strong and Pure Rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and Beautiful Complexion secured to all.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Has made the most wonderful cures, so quick, so rapid are the changes that the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

W. H. WHITE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, SEATTLE, W. T. WILL ATTEND TO ALL LEGAL Business in the Law, Chancery and Admiralty Courts of the Territory, j57

UNION MARKET

FRESH MEATS OF ALL KINDS—CORNED BEEF & PORK, HAMS, BACON AND LARD. BEG LEAVE TO INFORM THE PUBLIC that I have entered into arrangements whereby I will be enabled to supply the people of Seattle with Choice Meats and Vegetables. I hope, by strict attention to business, to merit patronage and will supply my customers with articles of a superior quality.

PILE DRIVER "Dick Atkins" (DOUBLE STEAM ENGINE) Best appointed ever on Puget Sound. IS NOW PREPARED TO BUILD Wharves, drive Foundations for Stone or Brick Buildings; drive Pile Treasures for Railroads, and to load Vessels with Spars, Piles or Timber, and will go to any part of the Sound.

Wall Paper! PAPER HANGING Done to Order. E. CALVERT, 3111 Street, Seattle, W. T. Oct. 22-11

University Fund NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO all delinquent debtors to the University Fund, either on interest or principal, that immediate payment is demanded. D. T. Wheeler, Esq., is authorized to receive and record for the same. J. T. JORDAN, Treasurer. Seattle, Jan. 12, 1874.

Seattle Coal Company. NOTICE OF THE ABOVE COMPANY is hereby given, that the stock books are open. All are invited to call and examine the plan. C. H. BURNETT, Secretary. Seattle, March 6, 1874.

J. T. STEWART, Wholesale Dealer in MEATS AT THE UNION MARKET, SEATTLE, W. T.

CRICHTON'S SUPERIOR ALE, PORTER AND LAGER BEER. PONY SALOON, KEPT BY BEN MURPHY, Commercial Street, Opposite Schwabacher's.

S. P. ANDREWS Stoves and Tin Ware COOKING, PARLOR AND BOX STOVES!! PORTABLE RANGES. A general Assortment of Goods pertaining to the business.

W. R. ANDREWS, Attorney and Counselor-at-Law, Seattle, W. T. WILL ATTEND TO BUSINESS IN ALL Courts on the Sound.

Eureka Bakery, Wm. Meydenbauer. PROPRIETOR MANUFACTURER OF ALL KINDS OF Crackers, Bread, Confectionery, Etc., Etc. DEALER IN GENERAL GROCERIES Orders solicited and filled with dispatch. Seattle, W. T., July 11th, 1874.

RE-OPENED! CLARENDON HOTEL! Corner of F and First Streets, PORTLAND, OREGON.

Hovey & Barker, (Successors to J. A. WOODWARD) DEALERS IN General Merchandise, At the old stand, corner Commercial and Mill Street, Seattle, W. T.

General Merchandise, Goods delivered to any part of the City free of charge. March 27, 1874.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. Seattle, W. T., July 30, 1874.

LUNCH.—A fine lunch will be served every day at 12 o'clock at Low's Saloon, on Mill street, near the Post Office.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Harry A. Bigelow in Seattle, W. T., July 27th, 1874, by Rev. W. I. Cosper, Mr. E. R. McCausland, of Olympia, W. T., to Miss Mary A. Smith, of Seattle, W. T.

A meeting of the Republican Territorial Central Committee is being held at Olympia today, (29th,) to fix up things for the coming election for Delegate. We have not learned that the other party, (what's name,) has yet made any movement, but are waiting for the return of the Judge.

MADAME ANNA BISHOP.—This celebrated Cartatrice arrived by the North Pacific. She brings with her a splendid array of assistants: Mrs. Mariner California's favorite singer; Mr. Wilkie, who accompanied the Madame a year since; Mr. Walter Campbell, of whom the press speak in high terms; Mr. Lask, pianist, is a young man of great ability as a musician and performer. This will be the last visit Mme. Bishop will make our town, therefore, our music loving people should take this opportunity of saying adieu to a great artist.

HORSES.—We are glad to notice a growing tendency for breeding fine horses in Oregon. We have always contended that it was impossible for Oregon breeders to realize California prices for their colts, until they invested in purchases of animals as valuable as those brought to California. Hitherto, Oregon horses have always beaten California nags at distances under a mile, but at long races, the pure blood of the latter has told in their favor. The Oregon breeders who allowed such horses, as Riffelman and Jack Minor to leave the State for want of patronage, have seen their errors and are now beginning to select different stock. Some months ago, we mentioned that William Bigham, of Washington county, had brought out two valuable sons of Lexington for stock purposes, and by a recent arrival at Portland, Ben. Holladay brings out a lot of the very best stock ever gathered up in the vicinity of Jerome Park. Such investments cannot but result in profit to our State.—Cous Dry News.

Council Proceedings.

SEATTLE, July 24. Roll called. Present, Councilmen, Anderson, Crichton, Leary, McKinley, Meydenbauer and Waddell. I. Waddell was elected Mayor pro tem. The votes cast at the late city election were canvassed, and the following persons were declared elected: Mayor, H. L. Yester; Recorder, C. C. Perkins; Marshal, David H. Webster; Councilmen, Chas. McDonald, T. D. Hinchley, M. R. Maddocks, B. F. Briggs, J. C. Kellogg, John Collins and E. G. Farnham. On motion adjourned. EDW. H. BROWN, City Clerk.

Telegraphic

ELKO, Nev., July 24, 10 p. m.—A water spout is reported to have crossed the road of the Central Pacific between Humboldt Wells and Toano this afternoon, doing considerable damage to the track. The west-bound emigrant train is reported to have been thrown from the track owing to the wash-out and 5 passengers killed. All that can be learned of the disaster is, that the railroad company have sent a wrecking car east, and taken the company's surgeon from here. If the names of the injured can be obtained to-morrow, a complete report will be furnished the press.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Tilton claims that the Committee has dealt unfairly with him, and that the reports of what he testified were grossly false. To a reporter he said: "I wish you would do me a favor to say through the columns of the Argus that, though I have hitherto declined being interviewed concerning my appearance before the committee, yet the report from the Committee is an absolute fabrication. I told the committee distinctly that Mr. Beecher had confessed his adultery to me; that he had confessed it to Mr. Moulton; that he had confessed to another person whom I named. Furthermore, I gave the names of several persons who for the last year have been perfectly well aware that Moulton's entire connection with this case, from beginning to end, had been based on one and the only corner stone of Beecher's criminality. I asked, furthermore, for the privilege of being present to cross examine Beecher and other witnesses." This was in reply to a statement that he had no other evidence of Beecher's adultery than the confessions of his wife.

BARLEY, $1 10 @ 1 12 1/2. Oats, 1 05 @ 1 45. Hay, $9 @ 14. Potatoes, 1 40 @ 1 45. Rye, 1 22 1/2. Corn, 1 95.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Mrs. Tilton today stated that in the article recently printed, expressions are put into her mouth which are more like those of Mr. Tilton than any she would use. It was true Mrs. Susan B. Anthony had visited her home, and, unfortunately, too many of her class to contribute to her happiness. That in consequence of such visitors her old, intimate friends had ceased to call upon her and had left her alone, abandoned by the society of her own preference. Since her separation from Tilton she has received numerous letters from numerous friends in all parts of the country congratulating her on her withdrawal from the circle of those who had made her home objectionable to them and professing renewed friendship and esteem. She has not the faintest recollection of any such scene as the one described as having occurred in the presence of Mrs. Susan B. Anthony. Mrs. Tilton denies the statements of some newspapers to the effect that her published answer to Tilton's arraignment of Mr. Beecher has been prepared by certain lawyers. Mrs. Tilton is calm and expresses entire confidence in the inevitable result of the present investigation.

VICTORIA WOODHULL said she came straight here from San Francisco to take part in this fight, as she looks on this as her own battle for the principle she advocates. She said in an interview to-day: "I know very well why this great pressure had been brought to bear to hush truth. It is because many persons are frightened to death that all the facts will be known, and yet what have they to be frightened about? Let them come out and withstand public opinion. I have read Tilton's statement. Every word is true. The only fault I find is, that Theodore has only told one-third what he ought and might. He wants to shield some one else. He has been a sorely injured man. He ought to speak out and show the charity he has displayed in living with his wife for years when he knew all. The public will not be likely to be satisfied with Beecher's simple verbal denial. Let me tell you the sentiment in the West, and I have had excellent opportunities of judging; its current is strongly in favor of Mr. Tilton." Of Frank Moulton she said: "He has been between Mr. Tilton and Beecher throughout in this affair, and he has done his duty to both. I don't believe he will shirk now. His testimony will be of the utmost importance. All that Tilton has said will be proven. He has letters in his possession and I know he will produce them. Without Frank's evidence I think they would crush Tilton, for so many influential members of Plymouth Church are bent on doing it. Only the other day, when I met Moulton, he said: 'Yes, I know something of the inside history; when they are done I shall give some truths which are not known now, and some facts which are not now understood.' The following question was then asked of Mrs. Woodhull: "Did Mrs. Tilton confess to you that she had been faithless to her marriage vows?" "I won't answer," exclaimed Mrs. Woodhull impulsively. Then after a moment's hesitation added, "When I first published the statement that I knew of two eminent persons who were living in concubinage and preaching from their pulpits, I was not acquainted with Theodore Tilton."

NEW YORK, July 25.—At the session of Plymouth Church investigating committee held last evening, Oliver Johnson testified in relation to an interview between himself and Tilton, in December, 1870. In this interview Tilton related, and Johnson said he heard it for the first time, complaints about Beecher's conduct toward him. Tilton spoke of Beecher having alienated the love of his family and injured him in business, but there was no allusion at that time to any charge of adultery; hence in his letter of 1873 Johnson did not refer to any charge of adultery. There was a good attendance at the usual weekly prayer meeting last night, but several of the best known members of Plymouth Church were absent. The hymns given out were consolatory in their tendency, and in the prayers the warmest sympathy for the suffering pastor and the most earnest solicitation for his safe deliverance were expressed. Rev. Mr. Halliday, the Assistant Pastor, closed the service by giving out the hymn, "Mid Scenes of Confusion and Creature complaints", which was sung with feeling. After the benediction had been pronounced and the members gathered in groups, Mr. Halliday spoke so that all might hear him: "I suppose you are all anxious to hear how Brother Beecher is to-night. I left him only an hour and a half ago, and he is in admirable spirits and I believe weighs more than he has for years." Halliday said later that he tried to get Beecher to attend the meeting, but he believed the pastor was too busy and hurried. Being asked if Beecher was still preparing his statement, Halliday replied, "Possibly; I don't know but he has them already prepared." The next session of the investigating committee will be held Monday evening. Victoria Woodhull and Tennie C. Claffin have arrived in New York from their Western lecturing tour. In conversation with a reporter, the former said Tilton had begun the battle nobly and when his strength failed she would take it up. She said that both sides have told horrible lies about the matter. She cared for Beecher's relations with Mrs. Tilton, but could and would show that he was as much a free-lover as Tilton. When the time comes for her to speak out the world will stand aghast at the hypocrisy of Beecher.

Among the bids accepted by Bristow for the new loan to-day, was that of the First National Bank of San Francisco, through the Bank of California, for $1,000,000 for circulation.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—A dispatch from Eureka, Nev., gives particulars of the storm yesterday. It had been raining with great violence from early morning till noon, when a cloud burst on the lofty range of mountains to the east, and a vast volume of water rushed down the eastern part of the town was flooded in ten minutes by a fearful rush of water, constantly increasing in violence, depth and impetuosity, and the people fled in confusion. Houses were torn from their foundations and swept away with their occupants. Ropes were procured, a line formed, and the brave men, thus protected, dashed into the torrent and saved many lives. Only a few women and children were lost; the body of one, Mrs. Bray, was recovered. Roger Robinette, a reporter of the Cupel, was amongst the drowned, and the Cupel office was swept away.

The bodies are being brought to the Court House as fast as recovered. Three Chinamen were lost. Thirty houses were swept away, including all that part of the town devoted to dance houses and other places of amusement. The flood lasted only half an hour. The total loss of life is not yet known, but it is believed that it will reach twenty-five or thirty. The weather is still threatening.

The managers of Mechanic's Fair Institute will take possession of the Pavilion to-day. All arrangements of the exhibition are completed and it will probably open at the time announced. The temperance women are prosecuting their canvass for names to the local option petition with much vigor. It is generally hoped, however, that the decision of the Supreme Court may be obtained before any election is ordered here.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—The report of Tilton's cross-examination occupies nearly four columns of the Morning Call to-day. He gave particulars of several acts charged in the first statement of the affair in the library. He says he saw Beecher, while seated on the stoop and Mrs. Tilton on a low stool, put his hand under her clothing and caress her ankles and lower limbs. Afterwards she denied it, but finally confessed and said she had chidden Beecher. He declared that he had never said that his wife was pure as an angel, but for a long time endeavored to conceal her offences from the public.

Of this scene in Tilton's bed-chamber he says, that when Mrs. Tilton opened the door, Beecher sat in an easy chair, vest unbuttoned, and blushing red as a rose. Mrs. Tilton explained that she wanted a quiet talk with Beecher and they locked the doors in the chamber to avoid interruption from the children. At the time he accepted the statement as true. She always insisted to him that she could see nothing wrong in her intimacy with Beecher. She regarded him as nearly Jesus Christ himself. The Daily Graphic gives the outline of Beecher's defense, derived from parties who profess to thoroughly understand the situation. The Graphic says the document will be a very powerful and startling one, and will make some confessions that will excite as great surprise as did Tilton's now famous presentation of his alleged personal grievances. Beecher will acknowledge that since the beginning of his ministry he has been beset by letters from women, expressing great personal admiration and love for him as a minister and a man. He will show that communications of this nature are constantly received by every noted man in the community, and that it is a special annoyance to clergymen, poets and actors to be the recipient of these abnormal demonstrations.

After this general statement, Beecher will allude to the case of Mrs. Tilton, who, it seems, conceived for him the most extraordinary passion. Knowing the lady from childhood, having married her to her husband, and having been on terms of close relationship with both, he was led by a strange infatuation to submit to her blandishments, and an intimacy was formed which, while it was not criminal, was reprehensible, or at least put him in a position which made him seem to do great wrong to Tilton. He will confess that both he and Mrs. Tilton are very emotional and that the correspondence between them was not what should have existed between a lady and her pastor; and that lady the wife of a friend. But the facts of the case were that Mrs. Tilton complained bitterly of her husband's self-sufficiency, want of kindness to her, and possible infidelity to her, and she looking up to Mr. Beecher to give her that affection and sympathy which she failed to find at home. Beecher will acknowledge that he was tried with temptation, and that he allowed kindness and expressions of sympathy and tenderness by Mrs. Tilton, and that he reciprocated them to a great extent, so much so that, while not actually guilty of any wrong to Tilton, he so said Tilton had begun the battle nobly and when his strength failed she would take it up. She said that both sides

Mr. Tilton, humbling himself before the latter as before God, for his extravagant demonstrations of affection for the wife of his friend.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

Mr. Tilton, humbling himself before the latter as before God, for his extravagant demonstrations of affection for the wife of his friend.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithlessness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of social life. Next evening she met Miss Anthony at her own house and said: "Theodore told me a very strange story last evening," and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who at the close said: "I have heard the same from Mrs. Tilton. Miss Anthony had given the particulars as follows: When Mr. Tilton returned home that evening, some angry words, growing out of the separation in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and in the heat of passion and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to having broken their marriage vow. In the midst of these startling disclosures Miss Anthony withdrew to her room. Shortly afterwards she heard Mrs. Tilton dashing after. She flung open her bed-room door and Elizabeth rushed in. The door was then closed and bolted.

THEODORE TILTON. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published her statement. She was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year, while Mrs. Bullard was still connected with the Revolution. Mr. Tilton and herself, accompanied by Mrs. Bullard, went from his office to his house and spent the day with Mrs. Tilton, who showed some feeling in this matter. At the table Theodore

