Puget Sound Dispatch. FROM DAILY OF THURSDAY. The bark Oakland, Capt. Stevens, arrived at Madison today.

Geo. Menden and A. Frank are not in business as advertised. Mr. Frank says he wants the people to know it.

Martinsburgh is the name given to McIsaac's landing on Black River, where the new brewery and butcher shop is located.

Mr. Hammond will conduct a bible reading and prayer meeting in Yesler's Hall, every morning of this week at 9 o'clock.

The steamer Zephyr arrived at 5 p. m., yesterday, with a large passenger list, and 50 head of sheep for Foss & Borst, and other freights.

The purser of the Alida wishes us to say that any person that paid $7 fare on that boat can have $5 of the money refunded by giving evidence that they paid $7. The fare is now $1 to Victoria.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first number of the West Shore, a new illustrated monthly published in Portland. The illustrations, while rather few in number, are tastefully executed, and the general make-up and appearance of the paper is first-class. We wish it success.

Another coal mine has been discovered and located on by Messrs. Corral, Ryland and others, on the Puyallup River. The vein is said to be 7 foot thick and the coal of excellent quality. It is near the mines lately purchased by Judge McHenry of San Francisco.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—The following real estate transactions took place today: Morris O. Conner to Jas. McNaught, lands in T. 24, N. 10, R. 4 E. Also lots 5 and 8 in block 46, Terry's addition; also, lot 7 in block 15, Maynard's town of Seattle; price $2,200.

ROBBERY.—Last night, the postoffice was robbed of $5 in coin from the till and about $35 in postage stamps of different denominations. The burglar managed to get through the door and climbed over the boxes, and left the entrance door to the private office open when he left. The Postmaster is the loser.

In a list of vessels lost since the first of January, published in various papers in this country and pretty generally copied, we find the steamer Ruby marked as lost in Puget Sound, with ten persons on board. It will be remembered that about four months ago the Tacoma Tribune published a sensational canard describing the loss of the Ruby, for the purpose of trying to injure the name of our harbor, as it was asserted that the accident happened here. It is well known that no accident of any kind happened to the Ruby.

ESCAPE AND CAPTURE.—On last Monday Jas. N. Brown, recently sentenced to ten years' penal servitude for manslaughter, made his escape from the chinking at New Westminster, B. C., and Thursday Sheriff Moresby of that place arrived here in search of him. Yesterday morning the Sheriff received a telegram that Brown was captured while endeavoring to cross Fraser River, and the officer and his comrades then returned home by way of Smiths Bay. Brown thus adds two years more to his term of servitude by his abortive attempt to escape. Sheriff Moresby informed us that it is useless for him to attempt such a thing, as the Indians along the river all know him, and are so much enraged at him that they would frustrate any attempt at escape.—B. B. Mail.

Supreme Court. LEWIS AND WINGARD, PRESIDING. The following cases were acted upon: Rodgers vs. Comley and Sloan. Dismissed. McGillivray vs. Monahan. Judgment of District Court affirmed. Lewis vs. Seattle Coal Co. Judgment of the lower court reversed. Garrison vs. Cheaney. Opinion given Monday.

From Daily of Friday. REAL ESTATE.—W. M. Bell and Lucy G. Bell, to Julia Williamson lots 1 to 6, in Denny's addition to Bell & Denny's plat of Seattle. Price, $784.

Hotel Arrivals.—Occidental, 17; United States, 13; New England, 14.

Divine Service as usual this Friday, evening at 7 1/2, P. M., at the Episcopal Church.

Another Plat.—D. T. Denny has filed the plat of his second addition to North Seattle, located in Sec. 29, T. 25, N. R. 4 E.

The Zephyr left promptly at 8 this morning for Tacoma and Olympia, crowded with passengers and with a fair freight.

Large Sale.—Phelps & Wadleigh bought 312 acres of land from W. S. Ladd within the city limits. We cannot learn the price paid. The lands are next east to the lands claimed by Mrs. Maynard, and which reverted back to the Government.

Small Pox.—From reliable sources we hear that the small pox exist at numerous places on the Sound.

Stellagumish.—Some gentlemen, just arrived from there, report harvesting is going on briskly and that the farmers never had better crops.

We see by the Tribune of last evening that the editor of that paper has been receiving calls from a number of his relatives, friends and supporters.

The woods are on fire north of Pike street. No damage was done except the burning a few cords of wood, the property of Mr. John Nesbitt.

The steamer Isabel passed down to Port Townsend at an early hour last night, but did not call in here.

Peeping Tom.—This gentleman has again made his appearance, and some of the ladies living in his neighborhood have proposed to purchase a little tar and feathers for his benefit, which may prove a little more effective than boots.

Revival Meeting.—The revival meeting of Rev. Mr. Hammond was very well attended. Yesler's Hall was crowded and numbers had to stand. The services seemed to consist mainly of singing. We have no wonderful conversions to record yet, but expect to have them in a few days.

There are three furniture manufacturing establishments in this city, employing about five hands each, one of which, Messrs. Hall & Graves', has steam works. They do all kinds of turning and pattern making. Seattle has two boiler maker shops, the principal work of which, however, is repairing. Their work is well spoken of by engineers and machinists.

The publisher of our contemporary is an economical gentleman. He calls his paper the Pacific Tribune, so that he will not be obliged to buy a new heading every time he moves his paper to a different town. It is estimated that in this way he has saved pretty nearly the first cost of his office.

The steamer Isabel arrived from Victoria with passengers on board. The Captain says that he left Victoria before the hour of the sailing of the DeGama was set. The Alida and Blakely will be along at an early hour this evening.

Police Court.—Before Justice Scott.—Chas. Murphy, for drunk and disorderly and using profane and obscene language; second offense, fined $30 and costs. He is a gentleman from Utsalady, who came up on the Libby last trip.

CATTLE.—To give some idea of the amount of beef consumed here and exported through this place we give the report of Phelps & Wadleigh, from the fourth of June to the fourth of July: Received, 280 head; shipped to Victoria, 26 head; to Port Townsend, 30; wholesale and retail on the Sound ports, 224.

Tom Merry will go under training to-day at the Seattle race course. He will attend the Oregon State Fair. Elsewhere will be seen a challenge. Put up or shut up, is meant.

AN INCIDENT OF THE REVIVAL.—All our people are acquainted with Billy Henderson, the fellow who stands on the wharf on the arrival of the steamers, crying aloud: "The Occidental Hotel the best hotel in the city we own our own coal mine run our own omnibus and carry a capital of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars a free ride to the hotel gentlemen;" (and he generally gets them.) Well, Billy happened to be at the meeting last evening, when one of the "sisters" from Portland approached him and the following colloquy took place: Sister—Young man, do you pray?

Ans.—Yes; I pray morning and night—(sotto voce)—on the public.

Q. Do you get down on your knees to pray? A. No; I can pray harder and cheaper than on my back than you circus people can on your knees.

Q. Do you swear? A. Yes; I am compelled to do that. I couldn't run for a hotel with the other boys, if I did not do so.

Q. Are you a Christian? A. I am not a Jew. Q. How long have you been a Christian? A. For twenty-five years.—[That is Billy's age.—Ed.] Q. Why don't you join the Church? A. I would like to see the fellow who could run the Occidental and be a Christian at the same time.

Question by Billy.—Do you put up at the Occidental? A. I am not a Jew. Q. How long have you been a Christian? A. For twenty-five years.—[That is Billy's age.—Ed.] Q. Why don't you join the Church? A. I would like to see the fellow who could run the Occidental and be a Christian at the same time.

Question by Billy.—Do you put up at the Occidental? A. I am not a Jew. Q. How long have you been a Christian? A. For twenty-five years.—[That is Billy's age.—Ed.] Q. Why don't you join the Church? A. I would like to see the fellow who could run the Occidental and be a Christian at the same time.

Small Pox.—In consequence of a request from the authorities of New Westminster, B. C., the Indian Commissioner has ordered all Northern Indians out of that town and forbidden them to land there, as they have small pox amongst them.

Cannot our authorities take steps to have our own Indians returned to their reservations, where they belong; and quarantine, or forbid to land, all British Columbia Indians.

The steamer Blakely arrived at 2 A. M. and left at 5. She had small freights, but was crowded with passengers. She had about 40 Chinamen to be worked at the Rosenthal coal mine.

Billy Melvin is at his new Alhambra, as may be seen from advertisement in another column. He has lost no flesh by moving, but he blows a good deal from fatigue.

TACOMA.—The bark Florence is loading and sails Monday. The barkentine Webfoot takes 150 cords of cottonwood bolts. A new gang saw is being put in the mill.

A curiosity is to be seen at the Cottage by the Sea, in the shape of a happy family of fish, crabs, snakes, glass, cels, etc., all in one large glass jar, quiet and enjoying themselves.

Dr. G. V. Calhoun, who has been located at Port Townsend, has removed to this place. The Doctor is the Government health officer for this Territory.

A telegram from Utsalady announces that the Favorite, having been thoroughly overhauled and refitted, will resume her place on the Victoria route, next Monday.

There was a row on the street last night, between Aleck and Fraudenthal's dog. Aleck shot at the dog but missed him. They kill for shipment 9 head of sheep per week, and about the same amount for their retail market. They are killing no hogs.

STREETS.—Our streets are certainly not only in bad condition, but are much obstructed, and we hear that several suits are to be brought unless the obstructions are removed and the streets put in order at once. We are not surprised at the report and would be glad if the streets were put in order and kept so. We are glad to see improvements going on and do not lay blame at the door of those building; but we saw more rubbish and useless material in front of places where there is no improvement going on than elsewhere.

COUNCIL CALL.—There will be a meeting of the City Council of the City of Seattle, on Monday, the 2d day of August, A. D., 1875, for the transaction of such business as may come before the meeting. Council rooms at the office of Hall & Andrews.

Per order of the Mayor, W. R. ANDREWS, City Clerk.

Salmon are now for sale in the market. ARRIVALS.—Among the arrivals in our city we see Colin Chisholm of Utsalady; Hon. E. D. Smith of Lowell, and John Ross of Skiyounish.

The Hammond performance was attended by a larger audience last evening than on the first night. The S. Y. M. C. A. was present in full force, with the exception of the Worthy Vice.

As may be seen by the ad, elsewhere, Mr. A. S. Pinkham has taken Mr. M. C. Saxe into partnership with him. We wish them success under the new order of things.

ARRIVED.—Steamer Alida arrived early yesterday evening with 43 passengers and 40 tons of freight, mostly from the bark Oakland.

Yesler is building a cattle pen and making other improvements on his wharf. He will soon have one of the best and most accommodating wharves north of San Francisco.

LARGE EGG.—Mr. R. H. Moore, it is said, has started an opposition egg factory, or at least his hens have. Yesterday one of his hens laid an egg measuring 6 1/2 inches around and 8 1/2 inches in length.

IN TOWN.—A. J. Pinkstone, Agent for the San Francisco Chronicle is in town. The Chronicle has ever been a lovely paper and Mr. P. is a lovely agent.

Zephyr arrived at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Olympia crowded with passengers and trunks. Freight small.

The brig Perpetua is taking on a deck load of cottonwood bolts.

UNITED STATES, 3; New England, 11.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

BERIAH BROWN, EDITOR. Seattle, W. T., August 5, 1875.

THE LUMBER TRADE.—Gen. J. S. Brislin, in a carefully prepared article upon the destruction of forests, published in the New York World, gives some interesting statistics of the amount of the lumber business annually, in which he says that no less than 1,030,000,000 feet of lumber were cut in a single year. The ten mills upon Puget Sound produce one-eighth of this immense aggregate, and are situated in the midst of the finest and largest lumber forests upon the Continent. These mills do not now cut into lumber annually more than 1,500 acres of timber. Gen. Brislin further says: "Five thousand acres of Wisconsin timber are stripped annually to furnish lumber to Kansas and Nebraska." That will aggregate not less than 250,000,000 of lumber from one source of supply for Kansas and Nebraska; a third more than the entire product of the Puget Sound Mills, at the present time. The completion of the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad would open a market for our lumber which would be not less than one-third of the amount now demanded for Kansas and Nebraska, and not one-eighth the distance from the base of supplies. This would make over $3,000,000; which, at $5 a thousand for transportation, would give the railroad a business of $415,000 a year. The demand for coal to supply fuel to the same section would also be a large source of revenue.—The transportation of these two commodities alone would not only yield a fair revenue upon the cost of the road and running expenses, but would rapidly make Eastern Washington and Oregon the most attractive section of the Union for the immense emigration now tending to the Pacific States and Territories, and in addition to the merchandize and agricultural products, would make this the best line of railroad upon the continent for interchange, assuring ample freights both ways. It is very strange that capitalists have so long neglected this splendid opportunity for investment.

Telegraphic

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 30.—It is reported that the Grand Vizier is dismissed from office.

LONDON, July 30.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Mr. Burke, under foreign Secretary, in reply to an inquiry, said England has not been invited to any further conference on the usages of war. Her views on that subject were unchanged. Debate on the shipping bill was begun. Pinchoff advocated the passage of Sir Charles Adderley's bill with certain amendments. The House will sit to-morrow. The British channel tunnel bill passed the House of Commons this afternoon and Sir Charles Adderley's shipping bill passed its second reading without division.

The Spanish lost in the former engagement 150 killed, including their commander, and $150,000 in gold.

It is reported that the Spanish bank has refused to loan the Government another two million of gold, giving as a reason the non-payment of previous loans and especially the loan of $20,000,000, only $50,000 of which has been returned to the bank.

A serious insult to the British flag was perpetrated by the Spanish officials at Porto Rico. The English mail steamer Elder, touching at that port was brought to by a Spanish gunboat and then compelled to deliver up the passengers who were accused by them of violating certain Spanish laws.

Gold closed at 12½@12½. The World says Henry Ward Beecher has decided to give up his usual course of winter lectures, and will devote most of his spare time to the building up of the Christian Union, writing for it every week a series of articles. When not occupied on the paper, and free from church duties, he will spend his time in completing his "Life of Christ."

The liabilities of Mason & Co., of Philadelphia, are now reported at $2,000,000. The assets of J. Board & Co., are stated to be $20,000, composed largely of printing material, stock and books. The assets, however, are estimated at cost value. Their liabilities are given at $140,000.

CAIRO, Ill., July 28.—Two inches of rain have fallen here since last evening. Still it comes down, and the prospect for farmers and health grows gloomier every day. About eight inches of rain have fallen in this city this month, which is four times as much as usual. At Ottawa the rains have raised the river about three feet and done much damage to farmers engaged in harvesting grain. At Pontiac the rain has completely veiled prospects for small grain crops. Wheat and oats are so badly damaged that they cannot be harvested.

KNOXVILLE, July 31.—Senator Andrew Johnson died at 7:30 this morning. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—An order was issued by Commodore Ammon, acting Secretary of the Navy, directing in pursuance of the President's order announcing the death of ex-President Johnson, that the ensign of each Naval station, and of each vessel in the Navy in commission, be hoisted at half mast from sunrise to sunset and guns be fired at intervals of every half hour from sunrise to sunset at each Naval station and on board the flagships and vessels acting singly, on the day of the funeral where this order may be received in time and otherwise on the day after.

Officers of the Navy and Marine Corps will wear the usual badge of mourning attached to their sword hilt and on the left arm for a period of 30 days. An order was also issued from the war department reciting the order of the President and directing that in compliance with his instruction, the troops will be paraded at 10 A. M. on the day after the receipt of the order at each military post, when the order will be read to them and the labors of the day will thereafter cease. National flags will be displayed at half staff. At the dawn of day thirteen guns will be fired, and afterwards, at intervals of 50 minutes between the rising and setting of the sun, and at the close of the day, a national salute of thirty-seven guns. Officers of the army will wear crepe on the left arm and on their sword, and the colors of the several regiments will be put in mourning for a period of 30 days.

The Executive Department buildings are draped in mourning and flags throughout the city are at half mast in respect to the memory of ex-President Johnson.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Times, in its obituary article on Andrew Johnson, says: "His career illustrates both the strong and weak points of the American social and political systems. During his term of office he showed himself wanting in tact, refinement and the knowledge of men, yet he had some qualities which are not so abundant in American politics as to be despised when found. He had dauntless courage, some political insight and honesty never shadowed by suspicion."

CINCINNATI, Aug. 2.—The heavy rains during the past 24 hours in Indiana and Illinois, have done great damage to crops. Bottom lands are flooded and railroad tracks washed away. Specials from various points in Ohio and Missouri report rain and hailstorm with immense damage to the crops and railroads.

New York, Aug. 2.—The sale under order of the United States Court of the franchise and property of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company which was to have taken place to-day, has been postponed until August 12th. The reason for the adjournment is incompleteness of preliminary details and conditions for the sale and the desire of the Commissioners to have everything so arranged as to avoid future embarrassments to purchasers.

New York, Aug. 3.—Arrangements are in progress to secure all creditors traveling abroad with letter of credit and circular notes on Duncan, Sherman & Co. They will probably be paid at the Union Bank, London. Gold closed at 12½@12½.

MADRID, Aug. 2.—An official dispatch announces that Gen. Weiler has routed the Carlists under Saballes at Caledonia. The Carlist General Dorregaray is at Benja.

TORONTO, Aug. 2.—The morning papers contain eulogistic obituary notices of ex-President Johnson. The Mail says: "In intellectual capacity, he was not to be placed beside Jefferson, Adams and other fathers of the Republic, but he had much of their spirit of personal and patriotic virtue, and we may say that he was the last American President of the old school."

The Globe says: "He must now be numbered with other great men whose lives were shortened as a result directly or indirectly of the fierce and terrible struggle through which the nation passed."

TORONTO, Aug. 3.—The British Negro emancipation was celebrated by the colored people throughout the Dominion yesterday.

THE Lexington (Ky.) Gazette thus describe "a right funny scene" which occurred the other day at one of the stations on the Kentucky Central: "A couple of negroes cut down a tree across a telegraph wire and broke it. The operator came out at once and determined on revenge. He quietly took his seat and ordered the negroes to bring the two ends of the wire together and mend it. Each seized end and, but the moment they came in contact there was a sharp electric shock and they let go. It was raining and the battery was strong. However, the negroes didn't know where the shock came from, and tried it again. By this time they were so wet that the currents would pass if the clothes of one but touched the other. Frightened and bewildered they brought the wires together again and again; each time to their great astonishment, an electric shock convulsed them. And when the train started there sat the operator under the shelter of the depot still urging the negroes to fresh efforts."

THE want most sadly felt at Long Branch is of men. Young, intelligent men would be preferred, but men of any age would be accepted. Pretty girls, wearing costly clothes, able to dance gracefully, having wealthy parents, are compolled to take other girls for partners in waltzes and quadrilles. There never was a better chance for good-looking, well-bred young men. Circumspect behavior and strict attention to business would insure the capture of an heiress before the end of the season. Why, I have seen with my own eyes a girl of 20, who is plentifully endowed with beauty, brains and money, rejoicing in the society of a boy of 16—and he was cross-eyed and freckled. In a New York parlor she would wrinkle her nose at him; but here she is glad to get his companionship, because she sees other girls, without even cross-eyed, freckled boys for beaux, envying her.

A JOYFUL BOY is SARTORIS—I have seen but very little of Grant although there is an employee of Col. Presbury's among his 250 servants at the West End Hotel which is said to be the picture of the hero of Appomattox. He is, I think a stage driver and a strawberry blonde. Grant keeps very quiet, and will not talk to his most intimate friends about the third term. But the most popular and best natured and most jolly boy at Long Branch is Algernon Sartoris, the husband of Nellie Grant and the son-in-law to the President, and when he is not driving his pretty wife along the beach in a little pony chaise, he wanders along the drive in an unassuming manner in a loose sack coat, valued at about $6, and makes himself good-natured, plucky way, that defines criticism and makes him quite liked by all the young people. He is a fine gymnast; a good boxer in an amateur way, and a hard walker; but then the walking at Long Branch is so bla-asted dusty that he does not care to do enough of it for his health. Young Sartoris is also fond of a glass of lager, and has taken a great liking to that beverage—in schooners. His usual way, as I understand, is to step into Jones' lager saloon, and with a good-natured nod, cry out: "Oh, I say, isn't it doosed 'ot. Just give me a large glass of beab, won't you, old fellah. And I say be pretty smart about it, you—'it's so doosed 'ot. Thanks old fellah, I'll take another, like a good boy." I can't help thinking that to be a democratic kind of a way for a man with $60,000 a year, an old family name and married to Caesar's daughter.

BERIAH BROWN, EDITOR
Seattle, W. T., July 5, 1875.

OUR COAL EXPORTS.—The venerable editor of the Tacoma Tribune, forgetting for a moment the temporary location of his paper and his lately assumed role of champion of our town, has fallen into his old habit of accusing us of misrepresentation and exaggeration whenever we state anything in regard to the coal exports of this place. In an issue of last week, we mentioned the fact that there was nearly three times as much coal shipped from this place as from Coos Bay. The Tribune immediately accused us of "uncalled for and unpardonable exaggeration" in so stating. We have been to some trouble to procure the exact figures to prove that there has been no exaggeration in the case. From the Coos Bay News of July 20th we find that the total amount of coal shipped from Coos Bay from June 17th to July 17th, 1875, was 2,231 tons. During the same time, our mines shipped as follows:

|--------------|-------------|
| Seattle Mine | 4137 |
| Renton | 1496 |
| Talbot | about 1000 |
| Total | 6633 |

which is very nearly, or within 60 tons, of being three times the amount shipped from Coos Bay. The figures above were obtained from the officers of the different companies.

It would seem as though the editor of the Tribune, lacking either the enterprise or the inclination to publish matters relating to our resources, exports and growth, is endeavoring to make his paper interesting by trying to pick flaws in items of this nature which we publish. In this case, as usual, his malicious zeal has run away with his discretion.

There are over 12,000 head of cattle in the Sun river and Missouri valleys, Montana, and no cattle could be in finer condition.

Colorado people now call their Territory the "Centennial State," as they expect to be a full fledged member of the sisterhood next year.

There have been 6 per cent. more postage stamps and stamped envelopes, and 18 per cent. more postal cards sold, the past year, than in 1874.

A letter from Paradise Valley, the Nevada State Journal learns that the crickets are swarming into that valley in myriads, coming from the north and west, and the farmers apprehend great damage to the crops by their devastation.

Lightning struck a bull in Montana the other day. The electric fluid hit him in the head, passed along his spinal column and went out at his tail. Ranchman of Montana owning valuable bulls should have lightning rods put on them.

The Idaho World of the 21st inst. says: "There was a tremendous rush into the Recorder's office last Monday, to have claims recorded taken up on the rich ledge discovered six miles west of Placerville, last Sunday. Seventy-five hundred feet were recorded, and the excitement continues."

The La Grande Sentinel man says he has heretofore taken, on subscription to his paper, "bran and shorts, cabbage, potatoes, rutabagas, green wood, sour krait, green hides, old clothes, will feathers, fence rails and carpet rags, and lost money on them all." Now he wants money or its equivalent.

Five deaths since they report last night. Dr. Steiny is down. We have no new cases from Dickens for the last 36 hours. Signed, J. M. BRENNAN, Brevet Major Gen. U. S. A., Commanding.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—This afternoon the following was received by Surgeon General Barnes:

FORT BARRANCOS, July 28. Five deaths since they report last night. Dr. Steiny is down. We have no new cases from Dickens for the last 36 hours. Signed, J. M. BRENNAN, Brevet Major Gen. U. S. A., Commanding.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The following dispatches are received:

FORT BARRANCOS, July 28. Lieut. Deshler died at 6 p. m. to-day.

NARY YARD, Pensacola, July 29. Mrs. Lieut. Ingles died last. Nineteen deaths at Barrancos, out of 64 cases. All well in the yard.

TERRE HAUTE, July 28.—A freight train going north on the L. N. and Chicago Railroad this afternoon, went through a trestle work 40 feet high between Putnam and Cloverdale and killed the engineer, conductor and head brake man. The fireman had one leg and an arm broken.

MARIETTA, Ohio, July 28.—A severe storm passed over this evening, and causing heavy loss of property. The five story warehouse of the Marietta Chair factory filled with furniture, was blown down and with the contents destroyed. The loss is estimated at $75,000. The whole country is submerged, and the crops are greatly injured.

CAIRO, Illinois, July 28.—Capt. Sydney was shot and killed last night while writing in his own house at Carbondale. The perpetrator is unknown, but he is suspected to be one of the Willow Boone Company band as the deceased had been threatened by them.

New York, July 28.—Gold closed at 123 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 124.

St. Louis, July 29.—The St. Louis evening Dispatch has a special from Springfield, Mo., that a report had reached there that Col. Wm. P. Ross, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Indians, and candidate for re-election to that position, was assassinated yesterday near Fort Gibson by a party of political opponents.

Col. Bowditch, who was in the Territory, is said to have fled north.

St. Louis, July 29.—A dispatch from a reliable source in the Indian Territory says the reports circulated yesterday that Chief Ross has been assassinated are untrue. He is at home and well, and has been in no difficulties. His re-election next Monday is considered certain.

The Indian Territory is a cheerful place. Only 27 murder cases for the last term of U. S. district court for that Territory, and as a result seven persons are to be hanged on the 3d of September, two of whom are boys.

Why don't they come out here. They can kill, steal, or do anything they please, and no notice is taken of them.

Few Irish bulls, says a Cork paper, have furnished more food for laugh than one which lately formed the subject of a solemn inquiry in the Irish Court of Common Pleas. The town of Westford has two newspapers, and one of them published letters, written by a priest considered to be damaging to the character of the proprietors of the other paper. Chief among the imputations was that the latter gentleman was the owner of a prize bull to which the name of Pio Nono had been given, the writer arguing that to bestow such a title on such an animal was obviously taking sacrilegious liberties with the name of a certain august personage. The owner of the prize bull seems to have considered his self accused of something heinous, and he appealed to the law. The jury awarded him £700.

THE LATEST DOG STORY.—A new Hampshire paper tells this: "A day or two since the daughter of a gentleman residing in Manchester was cleaning her canary bird's cage, when its inmate escaped and flew out into the yard. Her exclamation of surprise started up a large Newfoundland dog owned by the family, which ran out, and suddenly putting his paw upon the bird, which had alighted upon a small shrub, bore it to the ground, holding it there until caught unharmed and returned to its cage."

A prominent physician, in an article on sleep, and how to woo it, has expressed his views, and finds in lager beer a stuff which will

"Pinch from the memory a rooted sorrow, Ease out the written troubles of the brain, And with some sweet, oblivious antidote Cleanse the stuffed bosom of that perilous stuff Which weighs upon the heart."

THE "WANDERING PILGRIM."—The Jacksonville Sentinel says: "S. P. Hasset, well known by every member of the craft on this coast as the pilgrim printer, for the reason that he is continually on the tramp and never stopping at one place more than a day or two at a time, called at our office last Tuesday, and as usual was 'busted,' and if we couldn't give him some work, or if we didn't could let him have to get a cup of coffee and something to eat. He looked as seedy as ever, with his clothes well worn and worn, and after giving him a piece to pay for his breakfast the next we saw of him he was engaged in a spirited discussion with one of our citizens as to whether his clothes were a complete fit or not. Mr. Hasset has given one of our exchanges a short sketch of some of his experiences while traveling over the country. He has encountered some pretty rough journeys on this coast, but nothing to that across the mountains from Siskiyou county to the coast by trail frequently losing the trail, and once traveling at random over and through almost perpendicular mountains along the rocky shores of the Klamath river, where the foot-prints of a white man were probably never seen. After a long and hard trip he arrived at Orleans Bar, where he remained a few days to recruit, and then resumed his journey. On the second day out from Orleans Bar, where he was overtaken by Indians, but soon met a party of friendly Indians, who acted as a guard to McDonald's ranch, near Arcata. The mail carrier being there he followed his tracks along the sandy beach, and finally struck the trail, fetching up in Eureka just in time to receive the benefits of a severe shock of earthquake. The "Pilgrim" states that at some future day, for the benefit of his typographical friends and the public generally, it is his intention to publish a history of his exploits, travels and incidents during the past quarter of a century, there being hardly a town or city in the whole United States where he has not visited, excepting Arkansas and Texas, which States he intends "doing" at a future time. He is coming northward, and the members of the "craft" in Portland may look for the "wandering typo" in a few days.
