

Puget Sound Dispatch

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY
Seattle, W. T., Aug. 6, 1874.

DIED.—In this city, on the 5th of August, 1874, Mrs. Esther Boyd, aged 67 years, mother-in-law of Mr. H. Jones. Funeral at 2 o'clock, to-morrow, from the Brown Church.

Henry Coulter, of Olympia, or who did reside there awhile ago, is a lucky individual. In 1854 he was a resident of California, where he was defrauded out of a large sum of money by a party who fled to South America. This man died recently, leaving an estate valued at over $200,000 entirely to Coulter, by way of reparation.

Party Good.—The following from the Grand Ronde Sentinel is pretty good on the Bishop. It says: "Bishop B. Wistar Morris, Dr. Nevins and others went out hunting one day this week. The Bishop became so excited during the sport of bagging a covey of grouse, that he forgot to load his gun and went after the game with rocks."

Mr. Ben. Bernstein has closed out his business in this city and is removing his large stock of goods to Fort Wrangle for the trade of the Cassiar mines. He has been in trade at Fort Wrangle for several months past and finds it sufficiently large and remunerative to occupy all his attention. We regret to part with a gentleman of the fine business and social qualities of Mr. Bernstein.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—Burglars attempted to enter Mr. A. W. Piper's candy manufactory on Saturday evening, about 10 o'clock. They entered through the back door, dislodging a pile of lumber leaning against it; and the fall of the lumber started them so that they made off without securing anything.

DRESSING CASUALTY.—No event has transpired in this community since the massacre of white settlers by the Indians, which produced such a shock as the untimely death of Mrs. Herod Wells and her infant child. The circumstances, as far as we are able to gather them, were as follows: Mr. Wells, his wife, three children and a Miss Smith, were out upon the bay in a small sail boat, when by some means the boat capsized. Mr. Wells seized his two older children and started for the shore, leaving his wife clinging to the boat with her baby. The child became detached from the mother soon after and in her efforts to save it she let go of the boat and both were drowned. Some Indians witnessed the accident from the shore and in a moment hastened to the rescue in the shortest possible time. They succeeded in saving Mr. Wells and the two children, Miss Smith, who clung to the boat, and picked up the body of the infant, which was dead when found. The body of Mrs. Wells was not recovered until three o'clock in the morning, nearly fifteen hours after the accident. Mr. and Mrs. Wells were old settlers and highly esteemed in this community, and he has the warmest sympathies of all who know him in this his sad affliction.

FOUND.—By my son Harry on the sidewalk near the Brown Church, a gold watch-chain. The owner can have the same by proving property and paying for this advertisement. O. JACOBS.

CRICHTON'S—SEATTLE BREWERY.—Bottled Ale and Porter is considered equal to the best imported, and is sold at one half the price, viz: $2.50 per dozen quarts and 2.75 per two dozen pints. We would recommend those wishing a nice article to give it a trial.

Telegraphic

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, 31.—The European news agencies of the Reuters Telegraph Co., London, and the Havas-Ludre Co., Paris have been amalgamated under arrangements made between them for a long term of years, and the agency of the former Co. here will hereafter be known as the United States Agency of Reuters & Havas of London and Paris.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 31.—The Democratic State Convention adjourned this morning. B. D. Lewis and W. H. Farney are candidates for Congress. Resolutions announce that the action of the Republican party necessitates a consolidation of all the whites in self-defense. They denounce the abominable violation of the Constitution contemplated in the Civil Rights Bill.

NEW YORK, August 1.—Auguste Van Eten, arrested at Trenton a couple of days ago for being concerned in a bond forgery in California, was removed from Jersey City yesterday and lodged in the Hudson County Jail to await the arrival of the United States Marshall from California. This morning, the Jailor on going to Van Eten's room, discovered that he was breathing heavily and by the side of prisoner's bed a two ounce vial of laudanum. Jailor administered emetics and went for a physician; several doctors answered the call and an effort was made to resuscitate Van Eten. The physicians are divided in opinion as to the possibility of his recovery, but it does not seem likely.

DETROIT, Mich., August 1.—A fire broke out in Muskegon at an early hour this morning. It has destroyed nearly half of the city.

MUSKOGON, Mich., August 1.—The portion of this city consumed by fire contained mostly wooden buildings. The eastern portion and all the sawmills escaped. The fire originated in Hart's boot and shoe store, on Western Avenue, burning everything to the railroad depot. About 200 dwellings and 10 places of business destroyed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Brooklyn Argus has a report of another interview with Elizabeth Cady Stanton. She says she has not the slightest doubt that Mrs. Tilton confessed to Susan B. Anthony, who always speaks the truth, and that this confession was of criminal intimacy with Beecher, which Tilton has since charged. Mr. Tilton told the same story to her and Mrs. Bullard, but when the Woodhull's thunderbolt fell he flatly denied having made such statements. — Miss Anthony and she had a conversation with Mrs. Bullard immediately and recalled her Tilton's words.

She could not tell what testimony Moulton had to give, but he once said, after a visit from Beecher, "We have had Plymouth Church on its knees here."

She would not appear before the committee while the integrity of every witness before that body was impeached, but she would willingly appear before a court when summoned.

The subterfuge of the committee in attacking the character of Tilton's lady friends proves the strength of his case. Beecher could not boast of nobler or purer friends among ladies than Tilton. The latter need not be ashamed of such reformers as Grace Greenwood, Celia Burleigh, Anna Dickinson, Lucy Stone, Susan B. Anthony and Pauline Davis. During a recent visit to Pauline Davis she told her, Mrs. Stanton, that Oliver Johnson had confided to her the same story as that told in Frank B. Carpenter's statement.

After the publication of Woodhull's story, Mr. Beecher wrote to Mrs. Tilton the following letter, which Mrs. Tilton authorized to be used in any way to serve truth and justice.

MY DEAR MRS. TILTON:—I hoped you would be shielded from a knowledge of the great wrong that has been done to you, and through you to universal womanhood. I can hardly bear to speak of it or to allude to a matter than which nothing can be more painful to a pure and womanly nature. I pray daily for you, that your faith fail not. You yourself know the way and power of prayer. God has been your refuge in many sorrows before. He will now hide you in His Pavilion till the storm be over and past. The rain that beats down the flower to earth will pass away, and the stem, bent but not broken, will rise again and blossom as before. Every pure woman on earth feel that this wanton and unprovoked assault is aimed at you, but reaches to universal womanhood. Meantime, your children will look to you with double tenderness, and Theodore, against whom the shafts are hurled, will hide you in his heart of hearts. I am glad that this revelation from the pit has given him a sight of the danger that was before hidden by specious appearances and promises of usefulness. May God keep him in courage in the arduous struggle which he wages against adversity, and bring him out, though much tried, like gold seven times fired. I have not spoken of myself. No words could express the depth and sharpness of my sorrow in your behalf, my dear and honored friend. God walks in the fire by the side of those He loves, and neither you nor Theodore nor I shall regret the discipline how hard soever it may seem now. May He restrain and turn those poor creatures who have been given over to do all this sorrowful harm to those who have deserved no such treatment at their hand. I commend you to my mother's God, my dear friend. May His smile bring light in darkness, and his love be a perpetual summer to you.

(Signed) Very Truly yours,
HENRY WARD BEECHER.

PARIS, July 31.—In the Assembly to-day, a question of recess came up for debate. Gambetta made an important speech professing against prorogation of session, but really in favor of a Republic. Prorogation, he said, was simply intended to conceal the importance of the Assembly, which although it arrogated to itself to constitute powers, had done nothing but successively reject all known forms of Government right and was responsible for whatever might happen. Organization of Septemate was as impossible as Monarchy. He made a powerful appeal for the establishment of a Republic, which would give peace and union to France, and concluded by demanding that a state of siege be raised. The speaker was tumultuously applauded by the left. During the subsequent debate Marquis De Francier, legitimatist, declared he considered it his right and duty to do everything in his power to reestablish Monarchy. This caused great excitement and the left called for views of government on the subject. General De Cissey, Vice President of the Ministerial Council replied that the Government would seek with firmness and impartiality to make its powers respected by all parties. Motion to raise a state siege was rejected—282 to 366. Motion to adjourn on the sixth of August until the thirteenth of November was finally carried by a large majority.

QUEBEC, July 31.—Hon. Irvine has resigned his portfolio in Local Government. Other defections are said to have taken place. It is reported that Premier will resign and that Mr. Joly will be called to form a new Government.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Tilton, in her examination last evening, recounted the efforts she had made to restrain Tilton from following strange women. He had changed entirely the views he had at their marriage. She tried every means to turn the woman Woodhull from her house and finally sent for the police, when she left. She said that the night Susan B. Anthony was there the scene was violent, Theodore appearing crazy. She slept with Miss Anthony, but made no such confession as the latter affirms. Tilton had long circulated stories prejudicial to herself and Beecher, but nothing more. She had written no letters affecting improperly herself and Beecher, but had sometimes copied papers which Tilton had prepared for her, often not knowing their contents. One of these papers she signed while on a sick bed. She protested that it would wrong Beecher and herself, but Tilton solemnly affirmed that it was for her good and his, and made a promise, which he immediately broke, to make no use of it that would injure her. She told Dr. Storrs how it was afterwards and derided all the papers said to be a crimination of Beecher and herself.

PARIS, Aug. 1.—There was a violent scene in the Assembly to-day. Galloni d'Istria, Bonapartist, yesterday used the expression that the Republic had succumbed before the scorn of honest men. To-day he was challenged by members of the left to repeat the words, which he did; whereupon Victor Schodcher, Republican, gave him the lie, and several deputies from the left rushed toward him, shouting and shaking their fists. The President of the Assembly, unable to restore order, suspended the sitting. It is probably that several duels will follow.

A permanent committee of the Assembly, which is to sit during the recess, has been elected. It is composed of six Legitimist, 10 members of the moderate right and left centre, and 9 of the left. Bonapartists are wholly excluded.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—A Montreal dispatch says great excitement prevails over the late transactions in the Cabinet which have just come to light. Cabinet Members have exchanged a piece of Government land worth $130,000 for another worth not over $40,000. Indignation meetings have been held and it is rumored that several of the Cabinet will resign.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Aug. 1.—Fire here this afternoon caused a loss of $50,000; insurance $25,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Tribune loses hope of Beecher's ability to explain his letters, just in proportion as that explanation is delayed. It admits that its sympathies have been entirely with the great preacher, but it says delays are dangerous and that Mr. Beecher's friends have been already too tardy. A full and convincing statement will still satisfy the demands of the decent public, but it will now require to be fuller and more convincing than would have been necessary last week.

The Sun calls for Moulton and says it is not heard from it will be believed that for some reason he dare not testify. The World demands of Tilton more proof and thinks the public ought to exact it of him.

Moulton has not yet returned. Gen. Tracy to-day said he could not believe that Moulton had gone to Europe. A reporter called on Tilton to-day at his residence, who said, without waiting for any questions: "Do not ask me any questions. I have nothing to say of or for myself. Nothing that I would care to place before the public. Let every thing rest now. I am weary. All, all is misconstrued and misunderstood. I have told the world nothing but the truth; what more can I say? A man does not wreck himself willingly. I have been forced into it all. Let it rest, let it be forgotten."

The Tribune says it is widely reported that Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker, an intimate friend of the Woodhull, avows the belief that her statements are substantially true, and has herself urged her brother to a public confession.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—During recent years the treatment of his wife, according to her testimony, Friday evening, has been marked by frequent violence in action. Several times after the date of the alleged discovery of improper relations between herself and Beecher, Tilton locked his wife in her room and abused her in the strongest language, accusing her of violation of her marriage vow, not only with Beecher but with four or five other men whose names were unhesitatingly given to the Committee by Mrs. Tilton. It has been learned that another witness whose testimony is considered of great value, has testified before the Committee to the same effect—that Tilton had included other men besides Mr. Beecher in his charges of adultery with his wife. Mrs. Tilton said her husband had a sort of mania for dinging in her ears his belief that Beecher was guilty. He used repeatedly to take down a Bible and read to her: "Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her in his heart;" and would then say: "There, Elizabeth, don't you see Beecher is guilty of adultery?" Mrs. Tilton also testified that Tilton on one occasion, when he was in a violent fit of rage, brandished his fist before her face so closely that she felt sure he was about to strike her; so, also, thought another person, a young woman, who was in the room. She rushed in between them to prevent Mr. Tilton's striking his wife, and received such a blow from his clenched hand that she fell to the floor, striking her head upon the side post of the parlor door as she fell, receiving severe injuries.

The Tribune says, Mrs. Tilton, in her examination Friday night, denied the charges against her specially alleged, touching of her ankle by Beecher.—Concerning the bed-room scene she said she only remembered that she was sitting with her husband and Beecher one day in her bed-room, which is connected by folding door with a common sitting room in the house of Tilton; that Tilton went away for a short time, when he returned and found Mrs. Tilton and Beecher in same place where he had left them in the bed-room.

A Washington special to the Herald says, it was rumored on Friday that a serious accident had befallen Attorney General Williams. A telegram was sent to the President to the effect that Williams could not be found by telegraph. Anxiety respecting his whereabouts increased yesterday and ineffectual attempts were made by the Postmaster General to reach him by telegraph, the postal case difficulty requiring his immediate attention. No one could give his address or even conjecture what had befallen him. No explanation of the mystery has been made.

A Herald special from Paris states that serious complications have arisen between Germany and France concerning Spanish affairs, and that a diplomatic rupture between these powers is threatened.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Standard says the report that England, Germany and Italy have agreed to watch the Spanish coast, is denied. Germany has not proposed intervention to Austria, but the latter is ready to join other powers in acknowledgement of the Spanish Republic.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—Alfred Paraf and Van Brunt, of the Oleomargarine Butter Company, have been indicted for forgery and the bail of each fixed at $1,000.

Seamon, convicted of assault and battery on Paraf and wife, was fined $400 to-day, by Police Court.

Steamer Newbern, on next trip to Colorado River, will take down seven companies of troops for Arizona.

Railroad from Sausalito to San Rafael was formally opened by the Directors and about 75 invited guests, Saturday last. Passenger trains not yet running; will be in a few days.

HOLLISTER, Cal., Aug. 3.—The First District Court, of San Benito county is now in session, Judge Bedlem presiding. The legal fraternity of Monterey, Santa Clara and San Benito counties are well represented. The first case on the calendar is that of The People vs. Vasquez. P. B. Tully and C. B. Darwin, counsel for Vasquez, appeared and made a motion for change of venue, upon the grounds that he could not have a fair and impartial trial. The defendant Vasquez was not present, having filed affidavits to the effect that he could not safely appear, owing to the violence and prejudices of the people, and that he was afraid of personal violence. The District Attorney, N. C. Briggs, in reply to this motion, said he was not prepared to say that such prejudices did not exist, whereupon the motion was granted and the case transferred to Santa Clara County. The attorneys for Vasquez are evidently preparing to make a stubborn defense. Much dissatisfaction exists among the people on account of this change and it is the general belief now that Vasquez will never be hanged.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Justice Riley gave a decision to-day virtually dismissing the complaint for libel against Tilton. Moulton has not testified and cannot be found.

Attorney General Williams has returned to Washington.

The testimony in the Beecher-Tilton case will probably be closed to-morrow. Young Walworth, the murderer of his father, has been declared insane and committed to an asylum.

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 3.—Dennis Dufficy died to-day from the effects of a stab inflicted by his brother-in-law, J. B. Rour, on last Saturday. The difficulty grew out of some family trouble and the result is much deplored by the entire community. Dufficy was engaged in the furniture business in this city and was a young man of great promise and much respected.

PORT GARRY, Manitoba, Aug. 3.—Lord Gordon shot himself Saturday last at his residence at Headingly. Two English detectives had arrested him and he promised to go quietly with them if they would not go through the United States. While in his room preparing for the journey he blew out his brains.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Tilton's cross-examination will be made public to-morrow.

Physicians have declared that Van Eten, the California bond forger, died of congestion of the lungs, not from the poison which he took.

Local optician everywhere defeated. In Kentucky the Democrats elected the Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

British steamer Corinth, from New York to Liverpool, was wrecked off the coast of Ireland. The crew was saved.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Bismarck's son, in a duel with Zenskowan, an officer of the Infantry, at Dusseldorf, killed his opponent. Germany has protested against French aid to Carlists.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—J. W. Stowe, a well-known merchant of this city died to-day of consumption, aged 46 years. He occupied several very important public positions and was universally esteemed and respected.

S. W. Cragin has been appointed Mayor's Clerk, vice W. V. Wells.

Ore from the Choller Potosi mine, now averages $29 per ton and 626 tons were taken from the mine last week.

NEW YORK, July 4.—A reservoir broke at Trenton, N. J., and flooded an area one mile long and three hundred yards wide. Many houses were swept away but no lives lost.

Frank Moulton is the guest of General Butler at Bay View, Mass. Either he or Beecher will probably testify to-day.

Van Eten, arrested by Lees of San Francisco for forgery, died from the effects of poison taken with suicidal intent.

Postal car matter remains unsettled. At Olot, Spain, the Republicans have taken 1,000 Carlists prisoners.

The Spanish Government is about to send 12,000 more troops to Cuba.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 5.—The price of Greenbacks unchanged.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce will attend the funeral of J. W. Stone in a body, and will hold a meeting this afternoon.

The Board of Education will want over $70,000 for school purposes this year.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A synopsis of Mrs. Tilton's testimony published says Tilton cared little for his family and often left her entirely alone without coal or food or help. He was constantly telling her of his wrongdoings with other women. When Beecher began visiting their house Tilton soon became jealous, and, in the winter of 1869 began to accuse her of criminal intercourse with Beecher. She found comfort in Beecher's society and tried to tell Tilton all her conversation, but he would declare she lied and was concealing something; and was always trying to make her confess, saying he had seen her sitting on Beecher's lap. His treatment was harsh and often violent. Tilton constantly confessed criminality with other women. She never confessed anything of the kind. The letters used by Tilton were written by him and copied by her when sick and out of her head. She never confessed to Miss Anthony that Beecher and herself had committed adultery, but did tell her that her husband had accused her of it. In conclusion she said Tilton alone is responsible for the disruption of the family.

Tilton has written a letter to the committee complaining of their course and declaring that he has no confidence in the result. That he has determined to place the whole matter before the courts and has been instructed by his counsel to hold no further communication with the committee.

Moulton has returned and says he will testify if both parties desire it; that the matter has gone so far that all the facts ought to come out.
