Reported Expressly for the Daily Dispatch.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The yachts Madeline and Countess of Dufferin entered to-day upon their ocean race, second of the series. The Madeline won, beating the Dufferin 22 minutes; the America came in second.

LITTLE ROCK, Aug. 12.—The Republican State Convention adjourned to-day, nominating Joseph Brooks for Governor.

DAXTON, Aug. 12.—The Republican campaign reopened here this evening. Samuel Shellabarger and ex-Gov. Noyes addressed one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the city.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—House Committee on Military Affairs to-day considered the President's message relating to the increase of the army during the pending Indian war, and agreed to a bill which passed the Senate July 31st, providing that the President shall have power to increase the number of enlisted men in each company of cavalry to 100 in such regiments as may in his opinion require such increase, provided not more than 2,000 enlisted men shall be added at any one time to the 25,000 authorized by the act of July 14, 1876.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The Hawaiian treaty bill will undoubtedly pass to-morrow. Senator West, leader of its opponents, promises no factions opposition shall be made and the vote for the bill will be reached to-morrow afternoon at the conclusion of a few more speeches.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The Secretary of the Treasury directed the Assistant Treasurer of the U. S. at New York to sell on Wednesday the gold received in payment for the bonds of the 5 per cent. funded loan of 1861, sold on the 12th inst.

There is every probability that the present session of Congress will be brought to a close Tuesday or Wednesday at the latest.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Gold closed at 117@11 1/2. Money 1 1/2.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—E. Williams, Assistant Adjutant General at Omaha telegraphs to General Sheridan's headquarters here that the following had just been received by him:

FORT LARAMIE, Aug. 14.—The report of Gen. Terry's fight with Sitting Bull is confirmed through Indians coming into Spotted Tail agency. (Signed.) TOWNSEND.

It is proper to say the truth of the information contained in the dispatch, coming, as it did, from an Indian source, is discredited.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—On inquiry at army headquarters to-day it is found that nothing whatever has been received confirmatory of the report of the Sioux squaw that a fight had taken place between Gen. Crook and the Sioux Indians and that the latter had been almost annihilated. While hopes are expressed that the report prove true, the story is considered doubtful.

The Senate by a vote of yeas 29, nays 12 passed the bill to carry into effect the provisions of the Hawaiian treaty. It passed without amendment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—In the Senate, when the Hawaiian bill came up, Norwood continued his remarks against it. He argued that there was no longer any inducement for acquiring the Hawaiian Islands as an outpost in the Pacific Ocean.

PACIFIC COAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—The announcement that the U. S. Treasury would to-morrow commence the disbursement of silver for legal tenders, had the effect of attracting a crowd to the vicinity of the sub-treasury this afternoon, and at the hour of writing, 11 P. M., the sidewalks and doors and window sills in the vicinity are occupied by a numerous throng, evidently with the heroic intention of making a night of it in order to be first in the line in the morning.

The British war vessel Amethyst sailed for Victoria this morning, having on board the Earl and Countess of Dufferin, receiving a salute from the forts in passing, which was answered by the ship.

Passengers by the steamer Colima, which arrived yesterday afternoon, report that when the steamer left Mazatlan on the evening of August 5th, the city was filled with exciting rumors of insurrection in the interior. A battle had been fought between government troops and the insurgent troops and the insurgents, in which 16,000 troops were engaged. The insurgent troops were defeated with severe loss. They were reported to be falling back toward the coast and it was feared a part of their forces would attack Mazatlan. The city had been placed under martial law. Many stores were closed and all the forces in the city, numbering about 1,500 men, were armed to resist the threatened attack of insurgents several days before the Colima sailed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Only four cases of small-pox reported this morning. Six occurred yesterday and two deaths. The deaths during the last week numbered 30, which the health officers state were desperate cases which came to hand a week or two ago. He gives it as his opinion that the extensive vaccination has checked the disease and that the worst is over.

The news of the passage of the bill to carry into effect the provisions of the Hawaiian treaty was received on change with much satisfaction. Several disengaged vessels in port will be at once chartered for Honolulu on the account of local refineries.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 14.—The people along the border are considerably alarmed in consequence of the withdrawal of military protection and fear trouble with the Mexicans will begin immediately. Many are preparing to leave their homes. A meeting of citizens was held on Saturday and a letter written, protesting against the withdrawal of troops from the frontier. From Cajon we learn that threshing is progressing rapidly. The average yield throughout the valley is 15 bushels of wheat and 37 of barley to the acre.

Col. Bernard's 1st Cavalry will march for the end of the railroad on Friday, the 19th.

ROSEBURG, Aug. 14.—Yesterday afternoon about half past five o'clock, a homicide was committed by Frank Davis, who lives about 10 miles from this place. It seems that a stranger passed the house in the afternoon and asked for a drink of water, which he gave to him. Afterward, when Mr. Davis had left, he returned and committed an assault upon his sister, having seized an axe. Her uncle's efforts, together with one of her brothers, seemed to be of no avail in subduing the man. Mr. Davis, hearing the screams, hurried to the house, procured a gun and shot the man dead. We learn that the man's name is Henry Crow, who has been an inmate of the Insane Asylum and it is supposed he was insane at the time. Mr. Davis is a well known and highly respectable citizen and is generally justified, though it is regretted that other means could be used by which the lunatic's life could have been spared.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

[Special to the Daily Dispatch]
BAHIA, Aug. 12.—The Hamburg steamer Germania is ashore at this place and is liable to become a wreck. The cargo is being saved.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The Standard's special says: The Porte has positively declared that it is willing to negotiate for peace, but it is not willing to agree to an armistice before the entry of the Turks into Belgrade.

The Berlin correspondent of the Standard says: The Emperors of Russia and Austria, at their conference held at Richstadt, agreed that when peace was concluded, the Porte might take guarantees to prevent Serbia from again assaulting Turkey, but the Turks should never be permitted to occupy a Servian town.

VIENNA, Aug. 14.—A dispatch to Les Cro, Paris, asserts that the Turks continue to massacre Christians in Bosnia. Many villages have been destroyed, their inhabitants having been slaughtered. Terrible atrocities have been committed and hundreds of bodies are floating down the Una. Inquiry into the acts of the Turks in Bosnia is an imperative duty.

The Ottoman embassy in this city officially denies that the imperial troops burn Servian villages or carry petroleum for that purpose as has been asserted. The embassy alleges that sixty villages on Ottoman territory have been burned by the Servians.

The morning papers warmly congratulate Disraeli on his elevation to the Peerage. The Times says that he is the greatest Member of Parliament that ever lived. Disraeli closed his debate last evening on the Bulgarian atrocities by defending the Porte on the course pursued. This, it is believed, is his last speech in the House of Commons.

Her Majesty the Queen held a council at Osborne, Isle of Wight, on Saturday. She delivered the seals to Disraeli, who took the oath and kissed her hand on the appointment.

ATHENS, Aug. 12.—A series of earthquakes was experienced at Ratrah today. Several houses were much injured.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—The Mark Lane Express says harvesting is in progress. Recent showers have benefited the pastures and root crops without damaging the grain. Farmers in many districts of England and France are disappointed in the wheat yield, which is less than expected, although pretty good.

In view of the defeat of Mr. Sanford's Mate and Preakness in the events they took part in at Goodwood, July 26 and 27, the following, from the Newmarket Commissioner of the London Sportsman, July 17, nine days before the Goodwood meeting, may not be uninteresting, even at this late day: "The American Goodwood nags galloped as usual the length of the Bury side-tan. I must say one word in favor of these horses, that when you come to look them over there is not a speck or blemish about them, and not a strap or bandage on their limbs, which are as clean as new straw. Nothing could possibly exceed the health and vigor of their appearance; but one singular circumstance has always struck me concerning them, which is that when they have done work of a morning they walk about as slow and sleepy as ghosts."

Brigham Young claims to have been told of God in a vision that the invisible outlet to Salt Lake is being filled with salt deposits, and that within six years the lake will overflow that part of the country. If Brigham had any faith in the vision he would try to find the outlet and dig out the salt.

"Crazy Horse" Wants Peace.

We hear that the Indian chief Crazy Horse wants peace and proposes to come in and be a "good Indian." We believe Crazy Horse was a chief under Sitting Bull in the recent fight with Custer. The question whether we should have terms with a chief who took part in that massacre is a serious one. It may be said that these are savages who acted according to their nature, and that it is to late, considering our whole course with the Indians, to think of revenge or retaliation. But if Sitting Bull can send within our lines every crippled detachment, if he can make up parties of wounded and infirm warriors and quarter them upon us as peaceful Indians, it will be a constant recruiting of his army. It seems that all the young men are going out on the war-path, while all the old men, the squaws, the wounded and infirm are within the reservations. There should be an end of this. We should treat with the Indians as one tribe. If Crazy Horse comes in and brings with him Sitting Bull and his band there will be no trouble. We can disarm them, inclose them within a reservation and set them to useful employment. We trust this war will not end until the Indian tribes are under the control of the government. When, therefore, Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull and other chiefs ask to "come in and make peace," the authorities should see that all the bands are included in the surrender.

It is now conceded that the experiment of employing Chinese labor at North Adams, Mass., is not profitable. There has been no great loss by attempting it, but the improvement of the Chinese in practical skill has latterly been less than was anticipated from their advance in the first few months. With the return of these Chinamen to their native country, there is probably an end of employing Asiatics for skilled labor anywhere east of the Mississippi, since there were many favorable conditions at North Adams not likely to recur elsewhere. People who were moved by the scare about Chinese cheap labor a few years ago have mostly recovered from their fright, at least on this side the Rocky Mountains; but if there is yet a lingering trace of their malady, this news should dispel it.—N. Y. Tribune.

The business depression in England not only continues, but is becoming more and more alarming. Additional failures are reported and others are said to be impending. These things go to prove that in England, as in this country, there has been overproduction and overtrading.

From eighty-five counties in Georgia the crop report is favorable. Corn is three per cent. above the average crop; cotton an average; rice three per cent. above; wheat below average; peaches a failure.

Bankruptcy Laws of Japan.

We have become accustomed to look upon Japan as a land of startling novelties and innovation. We are not surprised, therefore, to find that the Japanese, in adopting Western ideas, should improve upon their models. In no possible way could they so thoroughly manifest their appreciation of Western ideas than by adopting the bankruptcy laws of barbarian traders. The Japanese law of bankruptcy is of the most liberal and enlightened character designed entirely for the protection of debtors from the iron grip of hard hearted creditors. "Pay that thou owest" is often enough heard in Japan, but it is never seriously listened to. There is no prisoner ready to receive the debtor class who may have dealt fraudulently. The law protects them, for by it the astute Japs have reduced bankruptcy to a business. It is a legitimate, business, moreover, based on the hallowed principle erstwhile known "as spoiling the Egyptians." The process is simple and thorough. A Japanese obtains goods on credit from a foreign merchant, who applies in due course for payment. After the lapse of, say, two years, the debtor is declared bankrupt, and the creditor receives, through the Consul, a final dividend, of the smallest fractional currency of the empire, and is compelled to present himself at the Japanese court and sign a receipt in full. No meeting of creditors is held, no statement of accounts furnished, the whole thing is done up in the dark by the court officials and the debtor. It has now become the rule in Japan to go into business, obtain credit and make a fortune. This is common enough in other countries, but where Japan excels all other places is in the aid which the law gives the operator. The result is that foreign houses in Japan have made bad debts lately but we take it that when the facilities for legal plunder are generally known there will be a regular stampede of clever young men to Yokohama, where they can have a good time, without dread of social ban or the stern minions of the law.

Last Sunday Henry Ward Beecher said: "What if you have done the meanest and wickedest thing you could do? Repent of it, sorrow for it, turn from it, and then let it go and forget it." Beecher's efforts to forget the meanest acts of a life do not seem to be very successful. He keeps referring to it.

Through the efforts of some of the Mollie Maguires to save themselves by turning State's evidence, and the testimony otherwise produced, those engaged in killing Policeman Yost have been found guilty of murder in the first degree. Thus two gangs of these murderous factions, which have so long been a terror to the coal regions of Pennsylvania, have met what every lover of order must feel as their just reward. This action will probably have the effect to break up this murderous organization, and human life will be less risky in and about Pottsville, Pa.

OUR NEW COMERS.—Those who

ame first had the appearance of well to do people and are no doubt satisfactorily located, but of late we notice another class of emigrants whose stock looks poor and worn out, which causes us to think that their animals did frequently without feed on sundry sterile camping places along the road, because the owners had no means wherewith to purchase grain, else why should one party make the trip in quick time and come through with fat, sleek animals, while another outfit moves "slowly along" and arrives here with mere skeletons of horses? One thing is certain. There is a considerable poverty among our late emigration and wherever poverty whispers, suffering cries aloud. It is seldom heard, but there is none so deaf, but what might hear. The eye that never dropped a tear is frequently the saddest and tells a tale of sorrow and was just by one look. In view of these inevitable prospects before us, it behooves every farmer to appoint and constitute himself a committee of one called a Relief Committee. On some ranches and farms enough is wasted in one month to keep a poor and destitute emigrant family a whole year. Help these people wherever you meet them and wherever you see they need an assisting hand. Remember giving to the poor is lending to the Lord and is like the bread cast upon the water. Our merchants and business men will do their part, especially those doing business on Main street. However charity never grows old or out of fashion and if ever it is rightfully bestowed, it is done when we aid and assist the poor emigrants.

Emigrants are still pouring into the valley, more in fact than many in town would surmise. Many of them seem to have an eye to the country north of us, but all no doubt will find comfortable homes and perpetual contentment somewhere. At first most of our new comers get the blues, but were they to land in the garden of Eden it would be all the same. After a while however despondency gives way to industry and that oils the wheels to prosperity and then the patient is cured.

STARTLING NEWS.—Mr. Jack Pettigrew just down from Elorance, Idaho, brings startling news concerning the sudden and mysterious disappearance of one Wm. Mansbendle, well known here as "as old uncle Billy." He was employed on a claim near Florance by the Clark Bros. Every evening he cleaned up and brought the dust, usually about four ounces to their store, but one evening he did not come, so one of the brothers took a walk up to the claim, to see what was the matter. Billy was not there. He went up a little farther on the creek where 3 chinamen had been at work, but they too had gone. It is the impression that these chinamen killed the man and fled. The sheriff traced them as far as White Bird and if they are caught and found guilty, heaven help them for the miners won't.—Walla Walla Union.

Summons.

Territory of Washington, County of King—In the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Washington, holding terms at the City of Seattle, in and for the Counties of King and Kitsap.

Franklin Matthias and Erasmus M. Smithers, Executors and Trustees of the estate of Charles C. Terry, deceased, Plaintiffs, v. Duncan Dewar, Defendant.

Complaint filed in the County of King, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court.

The United States of America send greeting to Duncan Dewar, defendant: YOU are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiffs, in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Washington, holding terms at the city of Seattle, in the county of King, for the counties of King and Kitsap, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within twenty days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within the said county of King; or if served out of that county, but in this District, within thirty days, otherwise within sixty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of the complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this Court for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage described in the complaint, and executed by the said Duncan Dewar on the 23d day of May, A. D. 1872, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note of that date for $300, with interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. per month, from the date thereof until paid—both principal and interest payable in United States gold coin, for value received; that the premises conveyed thereby, to wit: the south half of the southeast quarter and northwest quarter of southeast quarter of section numbered twenty-eight (28), and the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section numbered thirty-three (33), in township numbered twenty-five (25), north of range numbered five (5) east, containing 160 acres of land, may be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of said indebtedness, including taxes, costs, charges of sale and attorney's fees; and in case the proceeds are not sufficient to pay the same, then to obtain an execution against said Duncan Dewar for the balance remaining due and for other and further relief.

And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiffs will take default against you, and apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Witness the Hon. J. R. Lewis, Judge of said Court, and the seal thereof, this 20th day of June, A. D. 1876.

Scenes at an English Ball.
Since the grand entertainment given to the Prince of Wales at the Guildhall of the City of London, the full effects of that most beautiful crush have come to light. Losses of jewels were plentiful—indeed they were rather the rule than the exception. Among other things I hear that the Duchess of Manchester lost one ear-ring of the value of £1,200, and has not seen or heard anything of it since. Another lady had the pleasure of seeing her diamond comb, valued at £5,400, trodden into dust beneath the feet of the dancers, without being able to get sufficiently near to rescue it from destruction.

A curious discovery was made in sweeping the hall after the dance. Some months ago Lady Dudley, the most beautiful peeress at present living, was robbed of jewels to the amount of $50,000, which had been carelessly left in a case at a railway station. A beautiful antique agraife, resplendent with diamonds and emeralds, was found on the floor of the Guildhall, and has since been recognized as one of the articles which were stolen from Lady Dudley. No claimant for it has at present appeared. Several awkward conversations occurred during the evening, owing to the plentiful manner in which invitations had been scattered about. A lady who had been divorced from her husband met him at the supper table and immediately went into hysterics.

One incident which I heard rather pleased me. Some bearish young city man persisted in pushing a Lieutenant of the Navy, and when the latter remonstrated, complained that it was the fault of some one else. At length the sailor received a push that he saw was intentional, and which caused him to hurt the lady to whom he was speaking. After finding her a seat he went in pursuit of the aggressor, and with the exclamation, "Now, sir, I'm going to punish you," he seized the two tails of the culprit's coat and tore them right up to the collar, then untied his cravat and walked off.

One of the most noted schools of medicine of Paris, France, many years ago issued a prescription as a panacea for smallpox and scarlet fever. It was thoroughly tested at the time, and in every instance reported its efficacy was proven. It is simple and harmless, and is certainly deserving of a trial. The prescription is as follows: Sulphate of zinc, 1 grain, foxglove (digitalis), 1 grain; sugar, half a teaspoonful; mix with two tablespoonfuls of water; add four ounces of water. Dose for an adult, one spoonful every hour. For children the dose should be reduced in proportion to the age.

Wanted the Corset Tried On.

Here I will tell a story, new and true. At the great exposition of Philadelphia is a jury designated as No. 8. It examines rubber goods, among which are considered, by license of power, corsets. On the jury is a smart French politician named Dietzmann. The whole jury is attentive and just, and as there were thousands of patent corsets the devoted class of No. 8 had to fumble them through, each patent shown by an expert. At last, when they were all, as it was supposed, done and relieved, a somewhat meager young female rushed in and demanded an audience for another patented sort of corset. "Very well," said the Frenchman, with polite resignation. The little woman wrapped the corset around him and expatiated at tiresome length on its perfection. The jury stood up and felt of it, clasped and unclasped it, looking wise—and tired.

"Madame," exclaimed Dietzmann, "what is the especial merit you claim for this corset?"
"The fit, Monsieur!"
"But we cannot tell how it fits. What proof have we of that?"

The little woman flared right up. "Why," she retorted, "you don't mean to say you want me to try them on?"

"Madame," said the juryman, without a smile, "Justice is blind."

James Fisk of Brattleboro, Vt., father of Erie Jim, 70 years old, has taken to the pulpit in New York.

The rumor is again started, possibly by the hotel keepers, that the Ex-Empress Eugenie is to visit Saratoga.

The following good story is told in the French papers: Scene, a telegraph office at Vienna.—An operator takes out his watch, and, yawning, says, "Too bad, I cannot go to the concert to-night." "Why not?" asks a companion. "I am awaiting the dispatches from Belgrade, and they don't generally turn up until about midnight." The other operator thinks a moment and then, with a gleam of light in his eye, says "Have you received the Constantinople dispatches?" "Yes," rejoins operator No. 1. "Well, just write out precisely to the contrary and go to your concert."

Occasionally barbers get hold of a miserably poor quality of bay rum, and when such is applied to the face of a man just shaved, it smarts like fire for a few moments. A case of this kind occurred in one of our barber shops the other day. Whoop! hold! Holy Moses! yelled the man, springing wildly from the chair, and clapping his burning cheeks with both hands; "you may skin me—that's all right—but I'll be essentially cussed if I'm going to have pepper sauce rubbed on it afterwards! Now, you hear me!"

There was no preaching in this town last Sunday, says the Kansas City Times, and all in consequence of a practical joke perpetrated by a lively young girl, inspired by the world, the flesh and the devil mixed sat down, late on Saturday evening, and sent a note to each of the pastors. The missives were on tinted paper, and written nicely. They each contained these words: "All is discovered—fly." Nine of the preachers fled to St. Louis, and three went west. There is a sensation in town larger than a man's hand.

Bayard Taylor tells of a Yankee who, walking the streets of St. Petersburg one muddy day, met the Grand Duke Constantine. The walk at this place was not quite wide enough for two to pass, and the street was very deep in filth. The American took a silver rouble from his pocket, shook it in his closed hand and cried out, "crown or tail?" "Crown," guessed the Duke. "Your Highness has won," cried the American, looking at the rouble and stepping into the mud. The next day the Yankee was invited by the Grand Duke to dinner.

At the close of the minstrel performance in this city, night before last, while a young gentleman was struggling with his hat, cane, overcoat, opera glass and his young lady's fan, all of which he was trying to retain on his lap, a suspicious looking bottle fell on the floor. "There," he exclaimed to his companion, "I shall lose my cough medicine." That was presence of mind for you.

BERIAH BROWN, EDITOR.

SATURDAY AUG. 19, 1876.

JUDGE JACOBS AND CIVIL SERVICE.

Among the resolutions adopted at the late Republican National Convention, and which all Republican politicians profess to endorse, is the following:

"The invariable rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty, fidelity and capacity of the appointees, giving to the party in power those places where the harmony and vigor of the Administration requires its policy to be represented; but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to the efficiency of the public service and the right of all citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to their country."

The following card in the Intelligencer, the editor of which is a professed Republican, and who endorses the author as "one of the staunchest Republicans in King county," is a beautiful commentary on these professions of "civil service reform":

"FREETOWN, W. T., Aug. 14, 1876. EDITOR INTELLIGENCER: In the Daily Tribune of the 11th inst., in speaking of the call for a Territorial Republican Convention, to be held at Kalama on the 20th of September next, it was intimated that "our present Delegate might be expected to render an account, &c., and enter the list for re-election." Pardon me if I make a suggestion. O. Jacobs, par excellence, "Beriah's Delegate," has no need to render said account, for nothing which he can say—certainly nothing which he has done—can restore to him the confidence which the Republican party once placed in him; and it is to be hoped that he won't have the cheek to thrust himself before the Convention, asking or expecting to be endorsed, much less to be returned again to Congress.

If I might be allowed to offer advice in the matter, I would recommend that O. Jacobs present himself before the other Territorial Convention; and to make it as impressive as possible, I would suggest that he be escorted to the stand by Lane, of Oregon, and Beriah, of Seattle, and Ned tacked on the tail of his coat, "some-what after the manner in which Grant Brown was tacked on Greeley's coat-tail during the last Presidential campaign," and the band playing that tune so dear to their hearts, "Dixie."

I know that Dixie is a heavy lead to pack, but no greater in proportion than that which Jacobs has packed since the last canvass; and as he seems to like it and has done everything possible to elevate that class, to the exclusion of his party friends, and is the bosom friend of Lane, of Oregon, I have come to the conclusion that all Republicans, believing that their party has not yet finished its work, should hold themselves aloof from such baneful influences, and come out squarely for some candidate that will at least be true to his friends.

A. B. YOUNG.

It will be seen that the animus of the card and its editorial endorser, are exclusively personal, and the insinuations—too cowardly for accusation—are based solely upon the ground that Jacobs has favored civil service reform to the detriment of his party friends, in contradistinction to the practice of Garfield, who appointed and kept on his pay-roll personal and party adherents who were utterly incapable of performing the service for which the Government paid them.

The innendo is, that Judge Jacobs has been false to his party as well as his personal obligations. That is a malicious lie by implication. He is sneeringly characterized as "Beriah's Delegate." It is well known in this community that Mr. Kearney, and not Judge Jacobs, was our first choice for Delegate, and that our subsequent support of Jacobs was entirely voluntary, uninfluenced by any personal or party considerations, but solely by what we regarded as public interests. We have never sought to influence him in any personal or party matter, nor communicated with him for the past six months on any subject. With our appointment as Clerk of the Court, Judge Jacobs had no more to do than did nearly every Federal officeholder on Puget Sound, the Republican Central Committee and a large majority of the members of the bar of both political parties, who recommended and endorsed the appointment. The position was not sought or conceded on party grounds, and Judge Lewis holds himself solely responsible for this appointment. We believe no one has intimated that the duties of the office have not been faithfully and acceptably discharged during the past year.

The appointment of Edward H. Brown (referred to in this card as "Ned"), as Inspector of Customs, was a matter in which we had no hand. He was fully identified with the Republican party, a Delegate to, and Secretary of, the last Republican County Convention; his appointment was recommended and endorsed solely by Republicans of good standing and more influence in the party than A. B. Young or any other sore-heads, whose sole claim to public recognition was their personal devotion to Garfield. Under the instructions of the Department, which are made imperative upon the Collector of Customs by statute, no man is qualified to hold the office of Inspector who is not over the age of 21 and under the age of 45; the service requiring active and vigorous men for its proper discharge. When Mr. Webster succeeded Mr. Garfield in office, he found several, among them this same A. B. Young, 50 and 60 years of age, holding the office in open violation of law upon their own oaths as to their qualifications. The removal of these "dead heads," as well as "dead beats," is the chief cause of the assaults upon Judge Jacobs, and it is a matter over which he had no control. The public service demanded more efficient and capable officers, and all that Judge Jacobs had to do with it, was to recommend E. H. Brown to the first vacancy that occurred, without suggesting or recommending any removal. That the appointment has been exceedingly beneficial to the service every man will admit who knows anything about it; and thereby it fully meets the requirements of the Republican platform.

All the grumbling and growling about Judge Jacobs infidelity to his party and his sympathy with Democrats, is based solely upon the two subordinate appointments above mentioned—one an independent supporter of his election, and the other a pronounced Republican who never cast a vote with any other party. This man, A. B. Young, whose respectability is endorsed by the Intelligencer, represent the character of his assailants. A low-bred, narrow, bigotted partisan, who has ever had sufficient association with gentlemen to acquire the habit of speaking of men by their proper names, arraigns him for associating with gentlemen of adverse political sentiments, and proposes to turn him over to the Democratic party because he has the instincts and manners of a gentleman and holds intercourse with the Lane family, with whom he has been in political antagonism for the past twenty years. It was these very elements in Judge Jacobs character which gave him not less than 150 Democratic votes in this county, and for this he is arraigned by the bigots and bores of his party—the men who regard devotion to party as the sole claim to public position, regardless of all other qualifications. That Judge Jacobs has served the interest of his constituents ably and zealously, is the testimony of every intelligent, disinterested man, and if he is not returned to Congress, it will be because faithful services are not appreciated by the people.

The white girl who eloped from Charlotte, North Carolina, with a negro has returned to her parents and desires to be legally separated from her husband. She says he "charmed her with an apple he had obtained from a witch," and that after eating it she "could not say no," when he asked her to marry him. What has human nature done, that such lunk-headed specimens should be let loose in the world?

The Indians perform an act of charity who drive the farmers out of some parts of Dakota. Owing to the poverty of the soil, it is a day's journey between the corn hills, a man's scalp is in danger who travels it, and at harvest time there is a crop of cobble stones and no market for it.

The war in Turkey has almost ruined the Circassian girl market. A very fascinating girl of seventeen only brings a purse of silver or 500 piasters, a little less than $25. As high as a purse of gold or 30,000 piasters have been paid for this class.

NEWS ITEM

IMMIGRATION TO THE SNOQUALMIE.—We were visited this week by Justice Janicke, of Fall City King county, with some other gentlemen who came on business to the United States land office in this city. Mr. Janicke is a live emigrant and land agent for the eastern portion of King county. He expects now on every steamer a party of Germans from Minnesota, also a number of wealthy Scotch people from Butte county, Cal. He further informs us that a large immigration is now flocking into the Walla Walla valley, some of whom will seek the more genial climate of the Sound, and that the Snoqualmie valley will get its share. He desired to return thanks to Rev. Mr. Thompson and friends for the honor of a visit to Snoqualmie Falls. Mr. Janicke also desires to state that on a visit to Gov. Ferry he was kindly entertained, and returns thanks to Miss Ferry for a quantity of Sabbath school books for the Fall City Sabbath School.

The Indian Wounded.

General Grant should issue an order at once turning every Indian agency over to the military. This is necessary as a war measure. We hear of wounded Indians coming into various agencies. Indians were disabled in the late fights with Crook and Curter. Of course Sitting Bull will be too happy to have his wounded carried into an agency and nursed. The Indian warrior is always anxious about his dead and wounded. Even if Indians are friendly, like Red Cloud and Spotted Tail—they have been great chiefs in their day—their hearts are on the warpath, and they would never refuse succor to a wounded friend. Unless the agencies are closely watched they will become hospitals and basis of supply for the fighting Indians. When Sitting Bull plundered Custer's command he obtained a good sum of money, as the troops had just been paid. With this money he could purchase arms and ammunition for a new campaign, and there is not a rascally Indian trader on the Plains who would not be glad to sell him all he wanted. Now the way to prevent this is for the soldiers to take charge of every agency in the Sioux region and prevent Sitting Bull from using them to make war upon the whites.—N. Y. Herald.

In the private theatricals, the following extracts from a fair correspondent's letter will be found interesting: "Of course, dear, no one would be the 'messenger' (what amateur ever would?); so at last we had to impress one of the footman into the service; but the stupid thing, instead of rushing on and shouting, 'My lord, Jeanne d' Arc has been executed, with fire and stake, in the market-place in Roenn!' walked on just as if he were announcing luncheon, and drawled out, 'M'lud, Johnnie Dark 'as bin hexecuted frying steak in the market-place in ruins.'"

HO! FOR MT. RAINIER.—A party of young men consisting of G. E. Blankenship, James Ferry, Geo. Talcott and S. Woodruff, will leave here in a few days for the vicinity of Mt. Rainier, where they expect to find amusement and pleasure in fishing, hunting and prospecting.

THE CEMETERY GROUNDS, belonging to the Odd Fellows, near Tumwater, are being grubbed and levelled off, adding very much to their appearance.

COUNTY PRISONERS.—The county jail has now only four inmates—Dabney Jones, Andrew St. Martin, Wilson and Hahn. Mr. Patison, the jailer, keeps part of them employed in working on the streets.—Olympia Transcript.

Human nature is indeed acerrisus try. A boy may sing "Hold the Fort" so sweetly on Sunday that the very walls of Zion tingle with the sacred melody, and yet you wouldn't recognize him on week days when he comes out from swimming and finds that some other boy has hopelessly knotted up his shirt sleeves and trouser legs.

COURT ORDERS.

In the matter of the taxation of costs, it is ordered by the Court:

- IN CRIMINAL CASES. 1. The fees of witnesses before the Grand Jury will be taxed by the Clerk upon the report of the foreman of the Grand Jury, without any claim being made therefor. 2. Witnesses in criminal cases in the District Court must claim their attendance of the Clerk before the close of the term, or no fees will be allowed thereon. 3. The Clerk shall tax all costs in his fee book designating each separate item of his own and the Sheriff's fees, and the number of days and mileage allowed each witness, and whether the witness was for plaintiff or defendant. 4. All costs but witness's fees shall be taxed before the close of the term, and all witnesses' fees claimed before the close of the term shall be taxed within ten days from the rising of the Court. 5. Within twenty days after the close of each term the Clerk shall make out and certify to the Auditor all costs for which the county is liable, including the fees of witnesses before the Grand Jury, as returned by the foreman. 6. He shall, within thirty days after the close of each term, make out for the approval of the Judge the fee bills provided by the provisions of section 4, page 419, Statutes of 1869. 7. His fee book shall in all cases show what fees have been certified to the County Auditor, and in cases wherein the defendant has paid all the costs he will disburse the same to the proper parties, and will certify no part thereof to the Auditor for payment by the county. 8. In cases from Justices of the Peace no costs will be taxed, unless the same are certified up by the Justice with the transcript. 9. By the provisions of section 321 of Criminal Practice Act, persons under recognizance, who shall be acquitted by verdict, or discharged because no indictment has been found against them, or for want of prosecution, are liable for the fees of witnesses summoned by them, and also the fees of the officers summoning them; hence in such cases the Clerk, in certifying the costs for which the county is liable to the Auditor for payment, will not include therein the witnesses for the defense, or the fees of the officer for summoning them.

IN CIVIL CAUSES. 1. The Clerk will in no case tax the fees of any witness or Attorney in a civil action, unless a cost bill be filed by the parties or their Attorneys, as provided by section 463 of the Civil Practice Act as amended. 2. If no cost bill be filed within five days, the Clerk will at once thereafter tax the Sheriff's and his own costs, and the Referee's costs, if any, which shall be the cost bill in the cause. Such taxation shall be made in his fee book. 3. The Clerk will disburse all costs paid in, to the parties entitled thereto, taking receipts therefor. 4. The Clerk shall in all cases note the date at which the costs are by him taxed. 5. The Court will consider no question as to the taxation of costs in civil actions, unless on appeal from the taxation made by the Clerk in accordance with law.

Little Carrie was very fond of her big brother Charlie. One day came the sad news that Charlie had died suddenly, and away from home. Some one was sent to the school to inform little Carrie, and to bring her home. The poor child was very much grieved, and seemed inconsolable; but on reaching home, and finding the family weeping, her own childish tears were soon dried as she attempted to comfort the others. "Mama," she said, "don't feel so bad; I know we're havin' a tuckerin' time, but we can't help it."

During the recent meetings some handbills were printed in one of the neighboring towns headed "Ho! for the New Jerusalem." It seems that one of them got over into Saubury and created considerable excitement there, as most of the prominent citizens have been writing to ask where the place is situated, and whether if a man went there to work by the day he would be able to get home Sundays.

"Sounds just as loud as a new quarter," chuckles Midas, as he drops a five cent nickle into the contribution box. Put away her rope with handles; no more little Sarah skips. She has climbed the golden stairway—she has landed in her chips. Bad mulattoes in the South distinguish themselves from their darker brethren by killing their men with white-handled razors.

Local Items.

Now Ready.—The bonds subscribed for the building of the Seattle and Walla Walla railroad are now ready for distribution. Those interested, have been notified by the officers of the company, to pay for the amount in stock, set opposite their names.

REPUBLICAN TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.—By a reference to the call published by the Republican Central Committee, it will be seen that the apportionment of delegates to the following counties has been changed as follows: Cowlitz 3, Snohomish 3, Wakiakum 1, Clarke 4. This is no change from the original apportionment, but the errors in the transcribing of the numbers from the Secretary's list are corrected.

A GRAVE BLUNDER.—The jail which is being built by the County on mill street in this city is placed seven feet below the grade as established by the city surveyor. Why, or how this mistake happened, we leave to our worthy county fathers to explain. But certain it is, that a little forethought would have saved a great deal in the appearance of the building, to say nothing else.

A WARNING.—A lady guest at the Occidental Hotel, who arrived during the night on board the Zephyr, "blew out" instead of turning off the gas. Were it not for the fact that she retired very late and was called at an early hour this morning, we should have been compelled to chronicle a case of suffocation in this evening's issue.

NEW HOUSES.—Mr. H. H. Pease is now building a double tenement house, 50 by 20 on 4th street near the University. He also intends, we understand, to build two more, immediately back of it as soon as the one in the course of erection is completed.

FIRE DRILL.—The members of Seattle Fire Engine Company No. 1, will have a fire drill this evening between six and seven o'clock. It is hoped that every member will be present that all may be accustomed to their work in times of emergency.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

Bark Martha Rideout arrived at Blakely this morning.

The steamer City of Panama is due here this evening.

The stur Wenat having been overhauled and repaired, started on a trial trip this morning.

The lime kiln at Orcas Island has again started up, with a fair prospect of business.

RENTON BRASS BAND.—A Brass Band, has lately been organized here, consisting of ten pieces, they are doing well for new beginners.

THE BRIG TANNER, Capt. Williams was towed to sea this morning from Port Blakely loaded with lumber for San Pedro.

BASE BALL.—A match game of Base Ball will be played in Renton August 20th, between the Seattle Coal Co. nine and a picked nine from the Renton Club. This will be interesting, as both are said to be by good judges, the best players in the Territory.

A CANDIDACY.—As will be seen in our advertising columns, Mr. Gardner Kellogg announces himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Auditor. Mr. Kellogg has once before served as Auditor and his claims will no doubt receive recognition by the Convention.

A RARE FOSSIL.—Yesterday the Superintendent of the Renton coal mine sent a valuable fossil to be added to the collection of the University. The fossil in question was found three hundred feet beneath the surface, and one thousand feet from the opening of the tunnel, and consisted of a large fresh water clam, and maple and alder leaves. The clam had the appearance of having been preserved with very little alteration from its original condition. This will be quite an addition to the collection which Mr. Whitworth is making.

Among the cases pending before the District Court is the suit of John B. Broulette against B. F. Briggs. This suit is brought by Mr. Broulette for the recovery of the balance of the three thousand dollar prize which was advertised to be drawn at the gold lottery last May. It will be remembered that the prizes were cut down one-half at the time of the drawing by the consent of many of the ticket holders. Mr. Broulette however claims the whole amount as advertised, hence the suit. There are also six divorce suits to come up before the court at the coming term.

England effects to be greatly concerned about the Sioux Indian War. One of the members of Parliament inquires whether or not these Sioux are dependents of the British Crown. The Sioux have not acted as if they depended on any power.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

The Hon. H. G. Struve of Olympia, is in town to-day.

The bark Gem of the Ocean sail this afternoon for San Francisco with 1120 tons of Seattle coal.

By a special to Jack Levy, we learn that the City of Panama arrived in Victoria at ten o'clock this morning.

Body Found.

This morning at about 10 o'clock, as Mr. P. H. Lewis was working in the woods near the farm of Mr. Pontice, in the north end of town, he discovered the body (or the skeleton) of a man lying by the side of a log, which presented a ghastly appearance. He at once repaired to town and reported the fact to the authorities. Dr. Weed immediately impanelled a jury and proceeded to the spot. The following is the verdict of the jury: "We, the undersigned, Coroner's jurors, impanelled to enquire into the causes of the death of a person whose body was found in a vacant lot in the north end of Seattle, are of the opinion that the body is that of one William Hacker, of White river, and that he came to his death by causes unknown to the jury. (Signed,) J. W. Moreley, W. S. Wiggins, E. McLowlen, F. McCoombs, P. H. Lewis, G. N. Alexander." Upon the person of the deceased were found a straw hat, blue overshirt and dark pants, a couple of labels marked "Crawford and Harrington" and "Kellogg and Thordike." These, together with an empty bottle, furnished the only clew to his identity, for the remains were so far decayed that the skull was totally devoid of flesh, as also was the body. William Hacker, who thus met his fate, was we understand a native of Maine, and was formerly a ship builder and owner, and was once in good circumstances. Meeting with misfortunes he took to drinking heavily, and gradually fell until his mind gave way before the strain of dissipation. Lately, he had been employed in making ox-yokes on White River and was last seen in a drunken condition about our streets on the Fourth of July last. Crazy with drink he doubtlessly wandered off to the spot where he was found and there died. His remains were buried where he was found.— Thus ends another chapter upon intemperance.

WATER TANKS.—Ass't Foreman Dyer reports to us that the water tank near the Occidental Hotel, on Mill street, and the tank on Washington street are not available to draw water from, for the reason that their coverings are from two to three feet higher than the street, and fully fifteen in breadth, thus making it impossible for the suction hose to reach the water. He also reports that the cribbing of Cherry and Front streets is still standing, making it impossible to obtain water from that tank since the street has been lowered at that point. The attention of the Fire Marshal and our city Fathers are called to the condition of these tanks, as no one knows at what moment a fire may break out and our firemen be detained from action by the state of these tanks.

ACCIDENT AT FREEPORT.—Mr. Firstbrook an employee of the Freeport mill was seriously injured Monday afternoon by a bolt flying back and striking him in the abdomen. He felt comparatively little hurt until about twelve hours afterwards, when he was compelled to call medical assistance. Yesterday afternoon, matters growing worse he was brought over to town and attended to by Dr. Bagley. To-day Mr. Firstbrook is no better and it is very likely that he will be fortunate indeed if he recovers.

The Vanity Troupe which has been attached to the Theater Comique of this city under the management of George Rogers returned this morning from their trip to Victoria and down sound ports minus their manager. It is reported on the streets that at Victoria Mr. Rogers told the company to proceed to Port Townsend and he would join the company there the next day. This the company proceeded to do but since then Rogers has not put in an appearance. It is reported that he went to Frisco on board the Dakota, leaving his creditors to get their pay the best way they can. This morning a number of attachments were taken out on the furniture and fixtures of the Theater, and personal effects of the lessee. The troupe we understand will continue their performances at the Pavilion pending their settlement of claims against the late manager.

A LAKE WASHINGTON ACCIDENT.—Yesterday as Mr. Brownfield, with several others, was attempting to beach the steamer Chehalis, which had lately sunk near the portage, one of the capstan bars broke, causing the others to fly around with terrible velocity. Mr. Brownfield being in the way, was struck a severe blow upon the left arm, producing a compound fracture of the bone. Dr. Weed upon being called, set the broken bones temporarily, and the injured man was taken to the residence of Mr. Weed, of this city, where his injuries are being cared for by Dr. Weed. Mr. Allen, who was also at the capstan when the bar broke, was fortunately saved from injury from the fact of his being in a stooping position at the time.

THE DEBATE at the Pavilion, which has been held for the last five evenings on Biblical questions and Infidel topics, came to a close last evening. Like all other religious discussions neither party were impressed by the arguments of the other side, but still considerable fun was elicited by each side as points were made, and upon the whole the evening passed off very pleasantly for those interested.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

[From the Colonist.]

A gun accident of a very painful character took place near Parison's Bridge on Thursday afternoon by which Mr. Kenneth McKenzie was severely shot in the breast and about the arms and body. It appears that he was in company with another gentleman who lost sight of him for a few minutes, and that a bird suddenly rising between him and his friend resulted in the discharge of the latter's gun with the effect mentioned. Mr. McKenzie, who suffered a great deal from his wounds, was at once conveyed to the Naval Hospital, Esquimalt, where he received medical treatment and from last accounts was doing as well as can under the circumstances be expected. The gentleman who was so unfortunate as to be the cause of the accident of course feels very much distressed.

THE DECORATIONS.—The work goes bravely forward. Arches are springing up and spanning the principle streets, and wagon loads of green boughs may be seen passing along to adorn the framework. It seems open to question whether these boughs have not been prematurely cut, as they may lose some of their freshness before the occasion.

We learn that the Commissariat Department in this Province has been despatching another lot of supplies to the survey parties operating on the other side of the "Rockies." Two of these Divisions are supplied from this side during the present season. This makes ten survey parties drawing their supplies from British Columbia.

PRaiseworthy ACTION.—We learn that the difficulty to which we have already alluded existing between the Naas and Taltan Indians on the Stickeen River has been settled by the prompt action of Mr. Brady, Toll-collector at Telegraph Creek. The Indians were about to create a breach of the peace when they were brought together by Mr. Brady, who explained to the offending parties that any force would not be permitted from either side. For a time the Indian assumed a threatening attitude but ultimately an amicable settlement of their troubles was arrived at.

Sadie R., a little three-year old child, was at church for the first time about two months since on an Easter occasion in the Church of the Good Shepard. She sat very still and saw the procession of children march into the church with flowers in their hands, all singing, "Onward Christian Soldier." Last Sunday this little miss made her second visit to church, and this time to the Presbyterian, where she entered at the head of the family and marched down the aisle, loudly singing "Onward, Christian Soldier;" to the astonishment of the congregation and utter demoralization of her parents.

EASTERN STATES.

Rock Bridge, ALUM SPRING, (Va.)—Mr. Kerr suffered most intense agony up to midnight, but thereafter rested comfortably. His death is now only a question of time, and that a short one. His mind is still clear and active, and his will firm and resolute as ever. S. S. Cox and wife have just arrived to pay their last tribute to the Speaker. He converses with them as freely as his fast failing strength will allow. Montgomery Blair had to-day a lengthy conversation with Kerr. Dr. Pope says he cannot last much longer. The Speaker is surrounded by his friends, who are momentarily expecting his death. In a dispatch to his law partner, at New Albany, after telling of his intense pain, he says the end of it all is near at hand. "I wish it would be painless, but I fear not. When news comes to you at home, bear it bravely and resignedly, for I will. My heart still turns to you with warmest love."

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18.—Paid admissions to the exhibition, $25,791.

New York, Aug. 18.—The Executive Committees of the Tammany and anti-Tammany party met this afternoon and appointed Conference Committees to try and arrange the existing differences and bring all under one banner for the coming campaign. For some time past efforts in the direction of a consolidation have been going on, and to-day's meetings are the result. John Kelley headed the Tammanyites, and John Morrissey headed the anti-Tammanyites. The latter demanded a half representation in the State Convention delegation, and Tammany would only concede them one-third. The Anties also wanted one-half of the county officers. No result was arrived at, and another conference will be held to-morrow.

New York, Aug. 18th.—Half of the delegation to the Saratoga Convention elected to-night are anti-Cornell. The Reform Club elected a full set of delegates to the Convention headed by General Dix. They probably will not be admitted.

Gen. B. A. Harrison began his canvass for Governor of Indiana at Deville, in Hendricks County, to-day, addressing a large meeting for nearly three hours on the politics of the nation. Of Hendricks, he said, if he ever did anything for his country in the hour of its trial, history failed to record it. He explained that his reasons for first declining the gubernatorial nomination were purely private, and expressed conviction that the contest in Indiana could only result in a Republican victory. He resumed the history of the Democratic party, claiming it was thoroughly disloyal. He had no patience with the protests against the bloody shirt business. It was an insult to the loyal soldiers. He then reviewed Tilden's record, beginning with the Kent letter of 1860, which he characterized as the utterance of a secessionist. He then took up the letter of Dr. Russell, showing Tilden's sentiments were unchanged in 1861. His refusal to take part in the war, and the Chicago peace resolution of 1863 showed the same thing. He declared Tilden, the attorney for Tweed, was a sham reformer. When General Harrison had concluded, Senator Booth of California, who is visiting Indiana, was seen in the Court room, and a cry was raised for him. He refused for some moments to say anything, but being finally forced forward by the continued demand, he addressed the audience in a rousing speech, arraigning the Democratic party for its want of loyalty in the past, and for its dangerous tendencies in the future. His speech elicited great applause.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—There was an unusual large crowd of visitors at the White House this forenoon, among them many Senators and Representatives who called to take leave of the President.

Isaac Prolen, for 25 years principal Engraving Clerk of the House of Representatives, has been removed by the Clerk of the House, owing to late re-employment legislation.

The Chicago Tribune's Washington special says: The friends of Avery and McKee, the Chicago and Milwaukee whiskey convicts, are entirely discouraged to-night, as they have been led to believe no pardon will be granted in any quarter at present.

The Indian War.

St. Paul, Aug. 18.—Capt. Collins, of the 17th infantry, arrived at Bismark from Fort Buford last night. He fails to confirm the Sioux report of a great battle between Indians and the infantry forces. He comes from Terry's column, two days out. He arrived at Buford on Monday evening. A courier who arrived at the supply department at the mouth of Rosebud, on the 11th inst., reports Terry's command met the head of General Crook's command early on the 10th. Crook's men were following a large Indian trail in the direction of Powder River. In a short consultation of Generals Terry and Crook, the commands were united and proceeded on the trail Crook was following. The 5th infantry was delayed from Terry's column and ordered back to the stockade with instructions to take the 400,000 rations and embark upon the Far-West and patrol the Yellowstone River as far as the mouth of Powder River, and ascertain whether Indians had succeeded in crossing the Yellowstone; if not, they are to prevent them. In the meantime Terry will come down on them with the combined commands and force a battle. It is not positively known whether the Indians are on Tongue River. Five hundred Crooks volunteered to join Gen. Terry; they were at once rationed. They will be sent down the north side of the river with General Mills' command of the 11th infantry. The Inter Ocean's Sioux City special says seven companies of 11th infantry ordered to points on the Upper rivers arrived from Texas. Two companies under Captain Sanderson arrived here to-day and went west by the Dakota Southern. Others will follow closely. Indians above are quiet, and no trouble is feared now.

St. Paul, Aug. 18.—A Bismark special to the Pioneer-Press says the steamer Key West was fired into ten miles below Fort Buford on Tuesday by a party of 50 Indians without material effect. The Indians recently ran off a herd of 400 beef cattle from the Black Hills, killing all but one. A great number of horses have also run off. The boys killed one Indian, and his head will be preserved in alcohol and sent to Washington when opportunity presents. Grey Eagle's scalp, taken by Dave Campbell, was sent to the Bismark Tribune by steamer Josephine.

Said a Denver prisoner to his Honor: "You've sent me up every summer for four years and I've missed the Fourth of July every time. Now I want you to make it short this time. Make it so I'll get out before the Fourth. This is the last Centennial I expect to spend on earth, and I don't want to spend it in jail."

The New York Post says:—The British Consul in this city, in a recent report to the British Foreign Office, speaking of the decline in trade between this country and the United Kingdom observes: "British manufacturers must henceforth expect an increasing competition in the United States in these two branches of industry, iron and cotton, as well as in fabrics of silk. In regard to cotton goods, it is not alone that they are being produced nearly as cheaply as in England, but for certain qualities of goods manufactured in some of the New York and New England mills, a decided preference exists over the highly finished calicoes and shirtings of Manchester. But with stimulated production, wages in the United States will doubtless advance indirectly, owing in a small degree to the increased expense in living caused by the heavy protective duties to which American manufacturers so tenaciously cling, and this element in the cost of production will tend to diminish the force of the competition with which British manufacturers will have to contend, and give them a better chance in the struggle to retain their pre-eminence." Thus it is, adds the Post, that no matter how ingenious and industrious our artificers may be, "protection," which is for the few—always steps in at the critical moment and shuts us out of the markets which would furnish employment to the many.

Local Items.

From the Daily of Thursday.

From San Francisco. The Pacific Mail S. S. Co.'s steamer City of Panama, Wm. B. Seabury, Commander, arrived at this port this afternoon, with the following passenger list: Seattle—Miss Emma E. Fish, Mrs. C. A. Kellogg, Mrs. Annie Saiton and 3 children, D. Burroughs and wife, E. S. Ingraham, and 2 in the steerage. Portland—R. F. Gregg. Olympia—A. Kughn, and 13 in the steerage.

THE bears are killing hogs at a tremendous rate on White river. The Intelligencer of this morning says that Mr. Hughes has lost thirty and himself ten. Rather hard on Mr. Hughes we should say, to be rated at the value of but ten of the into the sea jumpers.

SEATTLE AND WALLA WALLA R. R. —The contract for building the incline and coal shutes for the above railroad has just been let to Mr. L. F. Compton and is to be done within the next seven weeks. The rails for the road are now on their way from San Francisco.

MOONLIGHT SERENADERS.—Five of Seattle's young gentlemen availed themselves last evening of the opportunity of singing their prettiest beneath the windows of various of our citizens, their efforts were appreciated, invidious that from the beaming countenances they wear to-day.

THE water in the Duwamish is very low, the tide being now availed of in order to pass the bars.

WALKING! STUPENDOUS WALKING!! —We clip the following from this morning's Intelligencer:

PEDESTRIANISM.—Mrs. Stevens, who resides on a ranch two miles above the Renton Coal Mine, started from that place and walked into town, a distance of fifteen miles, yesterday morning, with her little son aged 10 years, making the trip in 2 1/2 hours. Mrs. Stevens' parents joined an English Colony, which settled in Africa, where she was born and after she became quite a girl, moved back to England, where she married a coal miner and afterwards came to this country. She says she don't think anything of walking thirty miles a day, and can do it without fatigue.

FIFTEEN miles in 2 1/2 hours. This according to our arithmetic is at the rate of six miles per hour for the space 2 1/2 hours. Willingly would we transfer Weston's laurels to woman, but for a boy ten years of age, to walk over a rough uneven country road at that rate is simply impossible. Don't please don't for the sake of the reputation of the press, draw so heavily on the credulity of your readers the next time.

AN IMPORTANT SUIT.—A very important suit was argued at Steilacoom at the recent term of Court on a demurrer. In 1862 one Jason Mulbery died intestate; letters of administration were granted to Frank Clark on his estate. In November 1862 an order was made by the probate court for sale of real estate to pay debts. In May 1863 the sale was made. In September 1862 the legislature repealed the probate law under which the order was made without any saving clause as to existing orders. They then enacted a new law. The Court held that inasmuch as the sale was made on an order granted under the law of 1860 after the repeal of that law without any saving clause, that the sale was void. The court also held that the probate court of Washington Territory was a court of limited jurisdiction. The defendants interposed an equitable counter claim in which they seek to hold the land liable for the money paid at the void sale inasmuch as the money went to pay the debts of the intestate. This claim has been taken under advisement by his Hon. Judge Lewis. The plaintiffs in the case are J. N. Dolph and others of Oregon, the defendants are the Murray Bros. of Pierce county. Hon. H. G. Struve argued the case for the plaintiff and W. H. White Esq., for defendants.

EX PANAMA.—Fine imported cigars, and the best brands of smoking tobacco, "Lone Jonny," at J. L. Jamieson's.

SENT UP.—Robert McKay and a man by the name of Burrows were fined respectively $700 and $400 for maintaining a public nuisance at Tacoma, at the recent term of the District Court at Steilacoom, and in default of payment were sent to jail. The offense was keeping a disorderly house, where drunkenness and fighting was carried on to the disturbance of others. In addition the Court ordered the house to be closed up by the Sheriff.

Mr. Eaton's contract for driving the piles and doing the trestle-work across McFarlin and Graham's swamps, on the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad, will be completed by the 20th instant. Mr. Eaton, we understand, was severely injured in the side by the falling of a heavy timber which was being shifted from the pile driver.

From the Daily of Friday. A THING that happens a thousand times a year nearly, happened yesterday on board the barkentine Kate Fleckinger. A man nearly got hurt by an incoming piece of timber.

MUSICAL.—Don't forget to attend the free lecture on vocal music tonight at White's Hall, by Mr. Johnson, who having had ten years' experience in teaching, cannot fail to interest all.

CHICKEN THEEVES.—Several complaints have come to us from the northern part of town, complaining of the disappearance of many chickens from the coops of various of our citizens in that part of the city.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The teachers of our public schools have been notified to commence their fall session on the first Monday of September. So far, our school directors have not assigned to the various schools the various teachers for the ensuing year.

It will be a matter of interest to those concerned, to know that several parties intend to spend Sunday as a holiday in fishing and hunting upon the waters of the Sound. Of the parties that start away to-morrow doubtless many of our readers will add themselves to the number.

HEREAFTER, in addition to the low rates at which I am selling goods, for the next two weeks I will take silver at par and allow premiums for gold on all sums over $10. Bring along your twenties and get them changed. This also is the last call I shall make upon parties owing me. After Monday they will be waited upon by a collector. W. G. JAMIESON, Watchmaker and Jeweller.

THE MINSTRELS.—The San Francisco Minstrel Troupe gave their first entertainment last evening. A fine house greeted their appearance, and the fine dancing of Williams and Christy, together with their songs, brought down the house. Altogether the whole programme was so finely carried out, that we have no hesitation in recommending them to the public patronage. We understand that they will occupy the Pavilion for the next seven days.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' COURT.—Ordered, that the Auditor issue a warrant to D. Horton & Co. for two hundred dollars, to be paid for Robert Gardner, a King county pauper. Ordered, in reference to the petition of O. P. Andrews and Wm. Meydenbauer to exempt the active members of the Seattle fire company from jury duty and from county road and poll taxes, be accepted, so far as jury duty be concerned and no farther.

The Republicans held their primary for the election of Delegates to the County Convention this afternoon. Considerable discussion was aroused by the nominating of Mr. L. B. Andrews as a republican delegate. Mr. Andrews showed his credentials in the shape of a badge which certified to his being a member of the convention that nominated Hayes and Wheeler for President and Vice President of the United States. A motion to proceed to nominate precinct officers was defeated. On account of the lateness of the adjournment of the convention, we defer printing the list of delegates until to-morrow.

Col. John Lorimer Graham, one of the oldest and most respected members of the New York bar, died at Flushing, Long Island July 22, in the eightieth year of his age. He was born in London, England, March 20, 1797, and has been a resident of New York city since 1800.

Protest. The undersigned, one of the Commissioners of the county of King, in the Territory of Washington, and acting as one of the Board of Commissioners of said county at the August session of said Board A. D. 1876, in the matter of "Granting a license to Val Wildman to open and conduct a lottery, under an act of the Legislature of Washington Territory, entitled 'An act to aid in the construction of a wagon road across the Cascade Mountains,' approved Nov. 12, 1875." The undersigned hereby makes and requests it to be placed on the records of this Court, his unqualified objections to granting said license, as he believes this Board has no legal right to grant the same, and believes also that the above recited Legislative act is void for want of proper authority in said body to pass such act; and the undersigned having tried to have this Board reconsider and reject said application, and being unsuccessful, he now asks to have this his protest entered upon the records of the Board, and which is accordingly so done. DAVID R. McMILLAN.

In Memoriam. The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by St. John's Lodge No. 9, and Eureka Lodge No. 20, A. F. & A. M., while in joint session, August 12th, 1876.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Master of the Universe, in His infinite mercy, to remove from our midst and from the presence of his bereaved family, our beloved Brother, George W. Harding, and to raise him through the portals of death into the Grand Lodge above, therefore be it.

Resolved, That we offer to the grief-stricken wife and children of our deceased Brother, the sympathy of sincere friends, whose hearts are saddened by the loss of a Brother, as they have been by the bereavement of a husband and father.

Resolved, That we will ever preserve his name upon the tablets of our memories as that of a just and good man, and a worthy Mason.

W. R. ANDREWS, of St. John's Lodge No. 9. C. C. PERKINS, of Eureka Lodge No. 20. Committee.

From the Daily of Saturday.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATES.—The following named gentlemen were elected yesterday to serve as delegates to the Republican County Convention: S N Alford, A Treadwell, J D Hill, L V Wyckoff, R Abrams, A L Slorah, G Kellogg, A L King, William Goldwire, L Wilcox, L B Andrews, J W McCarty, D Bagley, M Morrison, H B Bagley, J Leary, J H Stringham, W R Andrews, A B Young, B Crossen, H L Yesler, W H Pumphrey, G N McConaha, H G Thornton, C G Perkins, J R Robbins, W A Jennings, J A Navarre, J W Hunt, G W Hall, C H Hanford, J C Nixon, W A Inman, W B Hall, Col. Jenkins, J Malcom, J M Hall, J Crawford, H Jones, E A Thorndike, C W Lawton.

TRIAL TRIP.—The light draught stern-wheel steamer Nellie, built by Messrs. Robbins & Co. for the Snohomish river trade, went out on her trial trip this morning, and after showing the fact that her machinery was in perfect working order, she returned to the dock and was tied up for the finishing strokes to be put upon her cabin. The steamer is 80 feet long and 19 feet in breadth of beam. She carries double engines of about 80-horse power. Her boilers were made by Messrs. Foster & Co., of this city, and which for size and workmanship are unsurpassed. Upon the hurricane deck is built a small but very neat passenger cabin, and rooms for the officers of the vessel. This boat will ply on the waters of the Snohomish, going up as far as the Snoqualmie Falls when practicable and desired.

UNITARIAN PREACHING.—Rev. D. N. Utter will preach in Reineig's Hall Sunday morning and evening, at the usual hours. BROWN CHURCH.—Services in the morning by Rev. Daniel Bagley; in the evening by Rev. Mr. Dunning. Sunday-school immediately after morning services. COURT WEEK.—The District Court, Judge Lewis presiding, will commence its August term on Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

DIED.—Mr. Thomas Firstbrook, the young man who was injured at the Freeport Mill by being struck with a bolt, died yesterday at the house of Mr. Atwood of this city. His funeral took place this morning at the Methodist Church. Mr. Firstbrook, we understand, lately came to this coast, and had been but three weeks at Freeport when the disaster happened. His aged parents can solace themselves with the reflection that their son left as good a reputation behind him as can be gained by a three weeks residence in a community.

The San Francisco Vanity Troupe played to a very fair audience last evening. The playing and singing frequently elicited rounds of applause. To-night the company give another entertainment, with an entire change of programme. We cheerfully recommend the fun-loving public to attend this evening, and hear Johnny Williams in his inimitable rendition of Flewly, Flewly.

The Democratic primary for the election of delegates to the Democratic Convention was held this afternoon at Yesler's Hall. Everything passed off pleasantly, and the utmost good feeling prevailed. The results are yet unannounced at the time of our going to press.

The City of Panama will not leave Victoria on Monday until the Isabel arrives there with Puget Sound passengers. Those wishing to go below upon the Panama can do so by taking the Annie Stewart on Sunday night and going to Victoria.

The shower of this afternoon comes in neatly to lay the dust which had grown intolerable.

Probate Court.

Petition of Nellie and Bessie J. Terry for the appointment of David L. Denny as guardian of Ter heirs filed and said Denny was so appointed and ordered to give bonds in the sum six thousand five-hundred dollars. Estate S. B. Hinds deceased, exceptions to supplemental account overuled. Claim of Wm. Walker against Estate of J. Gelson allowed. Order made to show cause why the real property in said Estate should not be sold.

ANOTHER effort is being made by Mr. Coleman to raise the bark Windward.

THE BARK HARVEST HOME is loading railroad iron in San Francisco for Seattle and Walla Walla railroad.

At the closing of a concert, while a young gentleman was struggling with his hat, cane, overcoat, opera-glass, and his young lady's fan, all of which he was trying to retain on his lap, a suspicious looking black bottle fell on the floor with a thud. "There," he exclaimed to his companion, "I shall lose my cough medicine." That was presence of mind for you.

A little girl in town recently saw an old drunken man lying on a door step, the perspiration pouring off his face, and a crowd of children preparing to make fun of him. She took her little apron and wiped his face, and then looked up so pitifully to the rest and made this remark: "O; say, don't hurt him. He's somebody's grandpa."

"Dad," said a motherless boy to his surviving parent, "what are widders?" "Widders," repeated his father enthusiastically, "Ah, my boy, if my life were a leg of boiled mutton, 'widders' would be the caper sauce."

Mrs. Custer is still prostrated and confined to bed most of the time at Bismark. On first hearing the sad news of her husband's death she was braver than any other of the bereaved ladies. She visited the wounded in the hospital. Her grief, however, was too great to bear, and she finally succumbed. She frequently lies in a swoon for an hour or more, and her condition is alarming.

The Tappan, N. Y., "76 stone house," the old village tavern in which Major Andre was confined from his capture to his execution, is fast crumbling to pieces; but the room which he occupied remains the same as at that time.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

[From the Colonist.]

The Guardian learns that the break at four mile post, above Yale, is about complete, so that teams are enabled to cross as usual. This completes the road, and the rapidity with which the obstacles to traffic have been removed reflects the greatest credit on the road bosses, and makes a great contrast between the present and the late governments in their way of doing business, in favor of the present one.

A meeting of this Company took place on Wednesday evening last, when the subject of decorations and other arrangements for the reception of Lord Dufferin were discussed. A very pretty design for an arch was submitted to the meeting and met with general approval. Several committees were appointed. It is evident that the Hyacks will do justice to themselves as being the oldest organization in the city.

False Creek Bridge, we hear, is in shaky condition, and will probably become impassable unless speedily attended to. The Granville end of the bridge is stout and substantial, being supported by loaded cribs, but the other end is only supported by long thin piles, which are being eaten away by insects. We hope the Government will attend to this matter in time.

The work of erecting a pavilion, ect., at the Crescent, is being pushed forward rapidly.

Latest advices from this place report the weather somewhat showery, vegetation well advanced and surveys progressing satisfactorily. The men are all in good health and excellent spirits. Mr. Gamsbey's party is working well up to the Chilcooten plans and will shortly connect with the line run last summer by Mr. Cambie.

The New Westminster Herald an opposition organ says "Mr. Sproat will be appointed third Indian Land Arbitrator, or Umpire. We believe the selection would be a very good one, as Mr. Sproat appears to be possessed of a good deal of energy and decision."

A very general feeling exists that the Motto Committee have made a mistake in selecting the title "Empress of India" to occupy a prominent place on the grand arch at the intersection of Government and Yates street. Queen Victoria has only recently assumed the title and it has not yet been used in connection with the Colonies. Its application is strictly confined to India and used only in legal documents. There are many other mottoes which would give satisfaction to all and the committee will act wisely if they substitute one of them for that which has given rise to discussion.

HOW TO BREAK OFF BAD HABITS. Understand the reasons, and all the reasons, why the habit is injurious. Study the subject until there is no lingering doubt in your mind.—Avoid the places, the persons and the thoughts that lead to the temptation. Frequent the places, associate with the persons, indulge in the thoughts that lead from temptation. Keep busy; idleness is the strength and promoter of bad habits. Do not give up the struggle when you have broken your resolution once or twice—a thousand times.—That only shows how much need there is for you to strive. When you have broken your resolutions, just think the matter over and endeavor to understand why it is you failed, so that you may be on your guard against a recurrence. Do not think it an easy thing that you have undertaken. It is folly to expect to break off a habit in a day which may have been gathering long years.

The Russians deny the truth of the reported revolt of the Carassians.
