Rev. A. B. NICHOLSON.—Our readers are already advised of the circumstances which brought this gentleman to this Territory under the promise of the position of President of the University, and how his reasonable expectations have been disappointed through the interference of Rev. Geo. F. Whitworth, of the same religious denomination, and the adverse action of a majority of the Board of Regents. Without consulting Mr. Nicholson, we take the liberty of publishing the following extracts from testimonials in our possession of his high character as a gentleman and eminent abilities as a teacher, not only as a small measure of justice to him, but in the hope that it may induce our citizens to take measures to secure his invaluable services in an educational capacity.

Mr. W. C. Baird, of the United States Steamer, writes under date, Halifax, July 22, 1868:
"Mr. A. B. Nicholson has been instructing my son during the last twelve months and has given me every satisfaction. He now leaves me to complete his studies at college."
Hon. David Laird, a member of the Dominion Cabinet, in a letter to Mr. Nicholson under date, Ottawa, March 7, 1874, says:
"From your attainments as a scholar and your high character as a Christian gentleman, I feel confident that you are competent to fill any post in an educational institution. I am only sorry that men of your stamp should be found leaving our Dominion; but if our cousins over the border are prepared to reward merit more than we do at home, there is no reason why they should not take our educated men from us."

Professor Mackerras, of Queen's University, Kingston, Canada, says of Mr. Nicholson:
"He was one of the most accurate, thorough, diligent students I have ever had or have ever seen. The marks gained by him were almost invariably above 90 per cent. His general information on classical subjects was both extensive and reliable. Nature had bestowed upon him philosophical talents of a very high order and these he was at the utmost pains to cultivate and develop. While I express myself thus strongly in regard to his scholarship, I am firmly persuaded that he possesses in a marked degree the faculty of communicating what he knows. He is gifted with qualities which eminently fit him to be a teacher."
Hon. A. B. Hasbrouck, ex-President of Rutgers' College, New Brunswick, N. J., says:
"A familiar intercourse with the Rev. Alexander B. Nicholson during the last three years, enables me to speak of his classical attainments and of his capacity to teach, in terms of commendation. It gives me pleasure to add my testimony of his scholarship and of his Christian character, to those of gentlemen so well qualified to judge, and I should consider any seminar of learning which may engage his services, most fortunate in their choice."

Hon. George H. Sharpe, Surveyor of the Port of New York, writes that he has known Mr. Nicholson intimately for several years past, and adds:
"Thoroughly conscientious and devoted to duty, he seems admirably fitted to do good in the sphere of education, which he has chosen as his work in life. His treatment of persons younger than himself is well adapted to secure their confidence and evoke their talents and energies."
John Forsyth, Professor of Ethics and Law in the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, says of Mr. Nicholson:
"I have known him for a number of years, and have a very high opinion of his abilities and his attainments, especially in classical literature, and in other languages beside the Greek and Latin; e. g. the Sanscrit and the Anglo-Saxon. He has had so much experience as an instructor that the work will be new to him should be placed at the head of your University. He is, besides, a thorough Christian gentleman, of genial temper, affable manners, in short, one endowed with those qualities which are sure to win for him both the affection and respect of young men."

W. H. Greene, Professor of Oriental Literature, and J. F. McGurdy, Professor of Oriental Languages, of Princeton College, New Jersey, both join in high testimonials to Mr. Nicholson's high character and rare qualifications for teaching. We have not room for further extracts to-day.

AN INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT.—The old Democratic county of Walla Walla is showing strong evidence of coming out of party issues. A call, numerously signed, has been issued, for a county convention for the nomination of candidates for county officers and to select delegates to attend a Territorial Convention to nominate a candidate for Delegate to Congress, which declares:
"We, the undersigned, citizens of all classes, opposed to cliques, rings, monopolies, bribery, corruption, trickery and extravagance, and disregard of economy in municipal, county, Territorial and national affairs, cut loose from all party obligations of a local character and call on all who favor just and equitable laws, protection to the weak, restraint upon the strong—in short, justly distributed burdens and justly distributed power—and who desire that but competent, faithful and honest men, who will unflinchingly stand by our industrial interests, shall be nominated

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Arrived tonight, Powhatan, Port Gamble; Emile, Newcastle, Coquimbo, Port Madison; T. W. Lucas, Port Blakely, Sailed, Wm. Tabor, Victoria.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Arrived, Rainier from Port Gamble; Mary Glover, Port Discovery.

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—Bishop Cheney, of the Reformed Episcopal Church of Chicago, preached to a large congregation this morning and evening. In the afternoon he performed the rite of confirmation in St. Andrew's Church.
AUGUSTA, Aug. 16.—Gabriel and Mike Murrell, who shot Capt. A. F. Butler, were taken from jail on the death of that gentleman last night by a crowd of armed citizens, and, after three hours' trial before an improvised jury, Gabriel was remanded to jail and Mike was shot.

THE TERRITORIAL UNIVERSITY.—In view of the previous wrong which we were the unwitting instrument of inflicting upon the Rev. A. B. Nicholson, it is a great gratification to be assured, beyond any reasonable question, that our action in that matter is endorsed and approved by a large preponderance of intelligent popular sentiment. The Intelligencer, with which we have rarely agreed upon any subject, comments upon this matter as follows:
"The action of the Board of Regents in assigning the Rev. George F. Whitworth to the Presidency of the High School, in the face of an agreement, as it is claimed, duly entered into with a gentleman from New York, who, upon the strength thereof came hither with his family last week, causes much and excited comment. We could wish, for the sake of Mr. Whitworth's usefulness in his new vocation, and for the future of the Institution, that the comments upon his fitness were more favorable, and a more general confidence expressed and felt in him. We have this week received and declined articles referring to the more than twenty years of his residence in the Territory, and tracing with full as much candor as charity the motives which seem to have actuated, and the varied pursuits which have employed, together with the several successes or failures which have occurred to him. We have determined to withhold these things for the present, in the hope that something may transpire which shall obviate the need of their publication."

"While it is none of our business what Mr. Whitworth may have supported or opposed as a politician, or what or how many positions or contracts he may have been able to control, so long as his position as a private citizen is retained, when he becomes the custodian of such trusts as attach to the Presidency of the Territorial University, his career is more public, and he must expect to have his merits and demerits if he has any—pretty thoroughly canvassed."

REGENT.—Dr. J. C. Kellogg, of this city, has been appointed by the Governor, Regent of the Territorial University, in the place of Beriah Brown, resigned.

TRYING PREACHERS.—The Methodist Conference, now in session at Portland, has the trial of three prominent preachers, on charges of immorality. Rev. Mr. DeVore has had his trial and been acquitted. Rev. Mr. McPheter's is the same. Rev. I. D. Driver is now on trial for malicious lying. He will probably be acquitted.

A postal card, written at Nanaimo, Yakima county, gives a brief account of a quartz excitement that is now in full blast over there. One ledge has been found near Lake Chelan which is said to be of unprecedented richness in gold. Four other ledges have been discovered on the Cle-Elum, rich in silver. Mr. Cooper has gone below with specimens for assay. The card also speaks well of the mines along the Yakima river, and says the miners are jubilant over the prospects.—Dallas Mountaineer.

The Counsel that it must be concluded to-day.

The matter will probably be taken under advisement.
Greenbacks 90 1/2 @ 91.
BOSTON, Aug. 18.—The Republican State Convention to-day, appointed the State Convention to be held at Worcester on the 7th of October.
Mary E. Pomeroy, the alleged victim of Rev. John S. Glendenning pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Jersey City, died this morning. In her death-bed statement she charged Glendenning with being the father of her child.

TEVEED, Ont., Aug. 18.—Charles Moran on Sunday night, murdered his brother's wife by shooting her five times in the head and then cutting her throat. The murderer was arrested.
NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The Journal of Commerce says rather low prices for spring grades of wheat are conceded with a lighter shipping demand. Prime is not passed for sale, there being quite a moderate stock. Winter grades sell strongly. New crop brings steady prices, but transactions are limited.
The fire in No. 175 to 197, Hester St., last night caused a loss of $300,000 distributed among several occupants.
Francis A. Palmer, President of the National Broadway Bank, in regard to a suit instituted by the City against this bank for a security of six millions of dollars, says the National Broadway Bank does not owe the City or County the amount of one dollar and no unusual facilities were extended by the bank or any of its officers to any persons known to have defrauded the city or county.

Freedman's Journal makes the assertion that Signor Polo, late Spanish Minister to Washington, was recalled because he refused to sanction a transfer of the Porto Rico Island to Germany in return for help to put down the Carlist insurrection in Cuba. The Journal publishes documents and says Signor Polo will not say there is one word misstated.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—A desperate shooting affray occurred at Point Pleasant yesterday, in which Albert Hall and a young man named Flensham were killed. General Darrell was mortally wounded and Capt Cole and 2 brothers named Coe were seriously injured. A fight grew out of a rivalry between Captain S. Hall and Cole, who ran competing ferry boats at Point Pleasant.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Sub-Committee of Investigating Committee of Plymouth Church, consisting of Sage, Winslow and Cleveland, held a meeting to-day for the purpose of a consultation as to how their report should be drawn up. It was decided to commit the preparation of a draft of the report to Winslow, it to be submitted to the other two members of the Committee for revision. These members will submit it to a committee of six, who will make any alterations necessary and then hand it over to the examining committee of Plymouth Church, who will report at a business meeting.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 18.—There are continued reports of the impending fight between the whites and Negroes at Ridge Springs, Edgefield County, South Carolina. A party of armed whites left here this afternoon to aid their friends and others will follow in case a conflict occurs. At 9 o'clock to-night all was quiet, but both parties are arming, and there is a fear that a war of races will begin in South Carolina. In that event the white people living on the Savannah River will go to the rescue of the whites. Arms and ammunition are being shipped from here.

OMAHA, Aug. 18.—An expedition under command of Colonel Anson Mills, consisting of companies of the Third Cavalry and one of the Fourth Infantry, are now camped near Rawlins, Wyoming. Other companies and some scouting Indians will join. Instructions are to thoroughly scout the Valleys of Sweet Water, Powder and Big Horn Rivers and the country to the southern extremity of Yellowstone Lake, and administer the severest punishment possible to Indians found out of the reservations. Much is expected of this expedition, which is finely equipped and will be three months in the field.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The following letter was addressed by Tilton's attorney to Beecher:
Rev. Henry Ward Beecher: Sir:—We have been retained by Theodore Tilton to commence suit at law against you. Will you please indicate the attorney authorized to appear in your behalf so that we may serve the papers upon him.
Signed, Morris & Pearsall,
Attorneys for Tilton.
Beecher made the following reply:
Messrs. Morris & Pearsall: Gentlemen.—Understanding that you contemplate the commencement of a suit at law in behalf of Theodore Tilton, against Rev. H. W. Beecher, we beg leave to inform you that we are authorized to appear for Mr. Beecher in all legal proceedings, and that we request, in his name, immediate service of the paper on us either at our office, or, if service ## can be made before 11 A. M., at No. 8, Hicks street, Brooklyn.

Your obedient servants,
Shearman & Sterling.
The Brooklyn Argus to-day reports Moulton as speaking as follows: "All the world knows my honor has been impugned, and I shall publish my statement in full, exactly as it was written at first. It is already in the printer's hands." He said his printer had promised him that everything should be ready in time for his statement to appear in the morning and evening journals of Saturday next.
The prospect of a report from the investigating committee on Friday is so good that the trustees have directed the large church to be made ready for use, in case the lecture room proves inadequate to accommodate the number who doubtless will desire to be present. Nothing but now unforeseen circumstances will prevent the report from being made at that time.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—A report comes from Fort Sully this evening that Indians to the number of 400 made an attack upon Custar's expedition on the 15th, and were repulsed with a heavy loss. Custar's loss is reported to be 50 killed and wounded.
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—A fire at Shelbin, Mo., this morning destroyed 8 large stores and several minor buildings in the business centre of the town. Loss $50,000 to 75,000; insurance 15,000 to 20,000.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 18.—About 22,000 votes were polled to-day in this city. Majority for the new Constitution is 6,300; for license, 11,000; for minority representatives, 843.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Lord Defferia, Governor General of Canada, left this evening for the Dominion via Detroit. He will visit a number of Canadian citizens on his way to Ottawa, and after resting a few days in Toronto, will visit New York.
KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 18.—A number of prominent citizens will leave on Thursday for Alexandria Bay to visit Chief Justice Waite, ex-Vice President Breckenridge and Governors of four States of the Union.

BAYONNE, Aug. 18.—Carlisle Chieftain, Testany, has captured Soldier DeUrgel, a city 67 miles northeast of London. The fighting was desperate and losses heavy on both sides. An immense quantity of stores fell into the hands of the Carlises.
ASPINWALL, Aug. 18.—Commander Gonzales of the Magee outrage notoriety and his accomplice, Bulnez, have been tried by Court Martial and the former sentenced 5 years penal servitude, and Bulnez 2 years. The sentences await the action of the Governor.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Tribune shows explicitly that recently taken course of the Beecher case came from Moulton's friend, Wm. C. Kingsley, who openly avowed that Moulton's own safety was at stake. For this reason he wanted to stop the proceedings and contributed personally to Mrs. Tilton, whose friend he was. At a conference between Kingsley, Moulton, Moulton's father, Henry Woodruff, and others, it was decided that Moulton should not meet the attacks on Beecher nor defend Tilton further than by submitting the papers called for by the committee.—Gen. Butler advised the suppression of the long statement he had under preparation.

Speaking of the published references to him as a black-mailer, a member of the committee says the books of Moulton's firm show memoranda sustaining Beecher's statement about the payment of money. His story is that Moulton advanced money to Tilton and repaid himself by taxing Beecher.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The mail route between Olympia and Victoria, B. C., which was suspended on account of high prices, is again advertised. Bids are to be opened Oct. 20. This is the third advertisement of this route. The old contract was at $16,235. The lowest bid on the last advertisement was $34,000. Proposals are also invited for services from Tacoma, the terminus of the Northern Pacific Railroad, to Victoria.

CHARLESTON, Aug. 20.—Advices from Georgetown state that the town is still crowded with negroes and colored militia, guarding the jail. An order was received from Gov. Moses to-day for the colored militia to be ready to go to Georgetown to-morrow. The militia was summoned but only twelve responded. The Adjutant General failed to arrive to take command and the troops were dismissed.
NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Secretary Fish declares that the story of the prepared session of Porto Rico to Germany is without foundation. He says the alleged dispatches are forgeries.
INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—Geo. C. Harding, editor of the Indianapolis Herald, shot Mr. Moritz, a prominent merchant. They had been warm friends and their social relations were intimate. Moritz, who is a married man about 40 years old, took advantage of this intimacy and ## succeeded in seducing Harding's daughter, 18 years of age. She confessed to her father last night that she had maintained a criminal intimacy with Moritz since March. Soon after this confession she took opium. Harding met Moritz this afternoon and shot him five times. 2 shots took effect on the elbow and one through the lungs. To-night his recovery is considered probable. Miss Harding died this afternoon. Mrs. Harding, since the shooting, says that Moritz had also made improper advances to her. Moritz denies the truth of both statements and says he can prove his innocence.

PARIS, Aug. 20.—Marshall Bazinno has written a letter to the Minister of the Interior in which he says neither Col. Villette or any other prisoner now in custody, is responsible for his escape, and declares that he had no accomplices in the fort or elsewhere except his wife and nephew. The Marshall described how he eluded the jailer, and says, "I felt justified in attempting to recover my liberty, as I was not tried by my peers, and was illegally confined."

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—A special to the Tribune says: The report of the Beecher investigating committee is completed and will be presented to the examining committee to-morrow night. The report is a summary of the evidence, none of which, however, will be given to the public for several weeks. It is an entire acquittal of Beecher.
Tilton's second statement is preparing, but it will not be published for several days. It will follow Moulton's statement, after a short interval, and will probably be made public at the same time the papers are served on Beecher in the suit brought against him by Tilton.

The Chicago Tribune this morning publishes a report of a long interview held yesterday between Frank Moulton and George Alfred Townsend, in which Moulton is made to admit the general correctness of the first interview, the publication of which created so much controversy, but avows that he did not say that Beecher confessed his adultery with Mrs. Tilton.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Moulton's statement is published. He says that when he went to Beecher to obtain from him the written recantation which Mrs. Tilton had signed, Beecher admitted to him with grief and sorrow the fact of his sexual relations with Mrs. Tilton and was indignant that she had not told him who told her husband of it. Beecher gave him the recantation of Mrs. Tilton. Beecher repeatedly and unqualifiedly confessed to him his adultery with Mrs. Tilton and threatened to put an end to his life.

In New Zealand a magistrate at a public meeting is stated by a contemporary to have said that he has been examining the children in a denominational school, and had been struck with their ignorance and stupidity. At last he asked one boy who had been some years at school if he could write. Answer, "No."—"Can you read?" Answer, "No."—"Can you cipher?" Answer, "No."—"Then what on earth can you do?"—Answer, "I can do catechism."—"Well," said the gentleman, "let us see if you know that—what did your god-fathers and godmothers do for you?" Answer, "They did promise and say that I should nurse the devil and all his works, and renounce the pumps of this wicked world."

PRESENTLY.—Never say you will do presently what your reason or conscience tells you should be done now. No man ever shaped his own destiny or the destinies of others wisely who dealt much in presenties. Look at nature. She never postpones. When the time arrives for the buds to open, they open; for the leaves to fall, they fall. Look upward. The shining worlds never put off their risings or their settings. The comets even, erratic as they are, keep their appointments; and eclipses are always punctual to the minute. There are no delays in any of the movements of the universe which have been predetermined by the absolute fiat of the Creator. Procrastination among the stars might involve the destruction of innumerable systems; procrastinations in the operations of Nature on this earth might result in famine, pestilence and the blotting out of the human race. Man, however, being a free agent, can postpone the performance of his duty; and he does so, too, frequently to his own destruction. The drafts drawn by Indolence upon the Future are pretty apt to be dishonored. Make Now your banker. Do not say you will economize presently; presently you may be bankrupt; nor that you will repent and make atonement presently, for presently you may be judged. Bear in mind the important fact, taught alike by the history of nations, rulers and private individuals, that in at least four cases out of five, presently is too late.

BERNARD BROWN, EDITOR. Seattle, W., Aug. 27, 1874.

SKAGET RIVER IMPROVEMENT.—Capt. George D. Hill has information from Washington that the immediate survey of the Skaget river has been ordered by the Engineer Bureau of the Government, under an act of Congress passed at the last session appropriating ten thousand dollars for the improvement of the navigation of the said river. We know of no expenditure of the same amount which would so greatly advance the interests of this Territory. The removal of two timber jams, near the mouth of the river, opens it to navigation for at least seventy miles from the Sound, at all stages of water, through a valley, of an average width of about ten miles, of as rich agricultural lands as any in the world. The lower part of this valley is principally covered with a dense growth of vines and soft woods, easily cleared by slashing and burning, and when the river is made navigable, so as open it to a market, a single crop would pay for the land and all the expense of clearing, tilling, harvesting and marketing. Further up the river there is said to be a considerable extent of prairie lands, as rich as any in the famous Willamette valley, and far better situated for a market; these terminate in the foot hills of the Cascade Mountains, which are believed to abound in mineral wealth, but have heretofore been difficult of access on account of the obstructions in the river. It is believed by competent engineers, that the appropriation, judiciously expended, will be sufficient for the purpose, and we may reasonably expect a rush of emigration to that section immediately thereafter.

ALL SORTS. Modern improvements in Persia—The Shah has ordered a guillotine, a gallows, and a corps of ballet girls to be shipped him from Europe. Foolish fathers who send boys into the country with fowling pieces and pistols are the best friends the under-akers have during the vacation season.

"Are there any fools in this town?" asked a stranger of a newsboy yesterday. "I don't know," replied the boy; "are you lonesome?" Kentucky papers are calling for their back pay. A good man is kinder to his enemies than bad men are to their friends. Seven young women have entered the University of Vermont, much to the delight of the boys belonging to that institution.

Heroism is cheap, said a man the other day. What the world wants is common sense. No Gunmen Aloud Here, is a sign intended for information of sportsman down in Maine. An ignorant old lady was asked by a minister visiting her if she had religion. She replied: I have slight touches of it occasionally. A bachelor editor, who had a pretty unmarried sister, lately wrote to one similarly circumstanced: Please exchange.

A Lake Superior paper has the following editorial leader: Do not trust boys with guns. Experience, says poor Richard, keeps an expensive school, but fools will learn at no other. Rev. C. R. Bonnell, of the Episcopal Church, left on the steamer Zephyr this (Tuesday) morning, on his way to the Convocation, which meets in Portland next week; from thence he will accompany the Bishop as a delegate to General Convention, and does not expect to return here till November. The kind regards of all who know him accompany him wherever he goes.

L. P. SMITH.—Our old friend Smith writes to Sam Coombs from Napa City, California, under date August 15, and we are permitted to use the information conveyed in the letter for the benefit of his numerous friends in these parts.

He says he and his son Al. have opened a jewelry store in Napa City, and that they are highly pleased with their location and prospects. Of his health, on account of which he removed to California, he says: "My health has been improving steadily ever since I left Seattle. I now feel better than I have for many months before. He says of Nora Denny and Mrs. Briggs, who went to California for their health: "I saw Nora Denny yesterday. She came up to visit a friend here. I never saw a person improve so much in the same time as she has since she left home. She says she is much better than she has been for a long time before. Nora says when she left San Francisco Mrs. Briggs thought she was a little better, but she was not able to sit up."

In conclusion Mr. Smith says: "The Renton Coal Mine is coming into notice very fast. Several persons here have invested in the stock and different persons have come to me to enquire about the mine. Of course all the information I can give them is favorable to the mine and the stock. Dr. Porter has four shares and has a sack of the coal on the sidewalk to show to people. He is quite enthusiastic in the matter."

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—The District Court for the counties of King, Kitsap and Snohomish, commenced a session in this city on Monday, Aug. 24th. Present, O. Jacobs, Chief Justice; S. Wingard, U. S. Attorney; E. S. Kearney, U. S. Marshal; G. N. McCaona, District Attorney; L. B. Andrews, Clerk; H. A. Atkins, Sheriff of King county, Theo. Williams, Sheriff of Kitsap county, and Benj. Stretch, Sheriff of Snohomish county.

The docket is unusually large. The attorneys in attendance from other counties are, ex-Gov. E. Evans, J. P. Judson and J. S. Allen, from Olympia, and H. L. Blanchard from Port Townsend. Frank Clark, Ike Hall, Jake Hoover, et al. will put in an appearance in a day or two.

One of the interesting features of the present session will be the discussion of Territorial politics—outside the courtroom, of course. In regard to the Delagateship, the chief questions now discussed are: "Will Kearney take it?" "Can Jacobs get it?" "It being generally understood that McNaught won't have it. All we can say in the matter is: we don't know. If Newell gets the Grant nomination, it will make the prospect very dark for the other candidates. Manure is more highly appreciated by practical farmers than than any theoretical qualities or qualifications.

Telegraphic

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The Herald gives the following synopsis of the forthcoming report of the Plymouth Church investigating committee. The report is a lengthy document in two parts. One is a mere report of the evidence, the other giving conclusions of the committee. Of course these are all in favor of Beecher.

The statement of Tilton is first taken up and gone over piecemeal and each main allegation is set plainly forth without verbiage, the principal prominence being given of course to the alleged criminal commerce between Beecher and Tilton's wife. This is compared with statements made on the cross examination and tergiversation there used. It is there shown that the statements of what is now known as the ankle scene are not supported by the evidence of the person who claims to have been a witness to it, inasmuch as he could not swear to its taking place at any particular time during a period of 9 years.

The report then goes into a review of Tilton's allegations of personal chastity and claims of high moral character compared with the evidence of other persons as to his alleged corrupt practices and criminal conduct, notably in the case of the girl known as Bessie Turner, whose evidence is given to show that Tilton claims himself to be what he is not. Therefrom is deduced a charge of perjury showing that Tilton says under oath in one instance, what he flatly contradicts in another. The Committee in giving her accusations of brutality against her husband and of his infidelity, and still further, showing distinct contradictions of Tilton's accusations. Mrs. Tilton's evidence is also quoted to give her denial of having had criminal relations with her pastor and her own explanations of several of the most prominent portions of her letters.

From this the report proceeds to a short statement of Frank Moulton's testimony as given to the Committee, and dismisses it briefly as having made no charges whatever against anyone.

Finally the Beecher statement itself is taken up and contrasted with several of the more serious of Tilton's charges, showing that circumstances in themselves, apparently damaging, were in reality capable of explanation. After this review giving in detail more prominent portions of the entire controversy, the report sums up the whole matter, pro and con, showing on one hand a man standing before all the world with a great reputation for spotless purity and Christian character and moral worth; on the other, a man of proven bad and criminal character, the latter making accusations against the former. One with nothing to prove his story except personal allegations, proved, in part, to be perjury, and supported by some letters which may mean a dozen things but with but one meaning to them. This story is denied by all of having any connection with the matter, but one. The circumstances as well as burden of proof are all on one side. The Committee find that Henry Ward Beecher is not guilty of the charges preferred against him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—A synopsis of Moulton's statement occupies 4 columns of the Call to-day. It covers about the same ground as his other, except that he is very explicit in the allegation of Beecher's confession to him of criminal intercourse with Mrs. Tilton. He says:

"On Friday evening, December 30, Tilton came to me and said in substance that, by his wife's request, he had determined to see Beecher in order to show him a confession of Mrs. Tilton of interviews between her and Beecher, which Tilton had never, up to that time, mentioned to Beecher, and part of which his wife had told him she had never told Beecher. He thought his wife's confession had been made in July previous in writing, which writing he had afterwards destroyed; but his wife, fearing that if Bowen's accusations against Beecher were made public the whole matter would be known, and her own conduct with Beecher become exposed, she renewed her confession in her own handwriting, which he handed to me to read. This was the first knowledge I had of its existence. Tilton did not tell me how his wife came to make the confession in July, nor did I at that time or ever after ask. Indeed, I may say here, before all, that I refrained from asking as to the confessions or acts of all parties, further than they chose to make voluntarily for the purpose for which I was acting.

"Tilton wanted me to go down and ask Beecher to come up and see him at my house, which I did. I said to Beecher, 'Mr. Tilton wants you to come and see him at my house, immediately.' He asked, 'What for?' I replied, 'He wants to make some statement to you in reference to your relations with his family.' He then called to some one in the back room to go down and say that he should not be at the prayer-meeting, and we went out together. It was storming at the time, when he remarked, 'There is an appropriateness in this storm,' and asked, 'What can I do?' I said, 'Mr. Beecher, I am not a Christian, but if you wish, I will show you how well a heathen can serve you.' We went to my house and I showed him a chamber over the parlor, where Tilton was, and I left them together. In about an hour Beecher came down stairs and asked me if I had seen the confession of Elizabeth. I said I had. Said he, 'This will kill me,' and asked me to walk out with him. I did, and we walked to Tilton's house together and he went in. On the way he said, 'This is a terrible catastrophe. It comes upon me as if I were struck by lightning.' He went in to Tilton's house and I returned home. Within an hour he returned to my house and I walked home with him. Tilton remained at my house while Beecher was absent at Tilton's house, and when he returned there was no conversation between them. When we arrived at Beecher's house he wanted me to stand by him in this emergency and procure a reconciliation if possible. I told him I would, because the interests of women, children, and families were involved, if for no other reason. That ended the interview that night. During the evening nothing was said as to the truth or falsity of Mrs. Tilton's confession, nor did he inform me that he had obtained from her any recantation of the confession, which I afterwards learned he had. I returned to my house and had some conversation with Tilton, in which he told me he had recited to Beecher the details of his wife's adultery, and that the remark which Beecher made was this, 'All a dream, Theodore,' and that that was all the answer Beecher made to him. I then advised Tilton that, for the sake of his wife and family, and for the sake of Beecher's family, the matter should be kept quiet and be hushed up."

The next morning Moulton learned from Tilton of Beecher's securing from Mrs. Tilton, during his interview with her the night before, the retraction of her confession. Tilton was furious at this act of treachery and declared that there could be no peace between him and Beecher. Moulton still counseled moderation and undertook to get the retraction from Beecher.

Moulton went that evening to Beecher, and, after telling him he had done a mean, treacherous act, first toward Moulton himself, from whom he wanted help, and second toward Tilton, with whose wife he had criminal intercourse, and then being permitted by him to again visit his house, got from the woman he had ruined a recantation of the truth, for his own personal safety, added, "That won't save you." At that interview, Moulton says, Beecher admitted with grief and sorrow the fact of his criminal relations with Mrs. Tilton, and expressed some indignation that she had not told him she had told her husband, and in consequence of that fact he had been walking upon the edge of a volcano.

Referring to what he had done in connection with Bowen against Tilton, he explained to Moulton that he had taken sides against Tilton in consequence of stories against him, especially of one specified case in which Tilton was accused of improper relations with Mrs. Bullard. He then said he would write a letter to Bowen, retracting what he said against Tilton. Moulton then demanded of Beecher the recantation received by him from Mrs. Tilton, promising to keep it secretly if Beecher acted honorably. Beecher then gave him the retraction and Moulton returned home, where he found Tilton, who expressed great surprise and gratification at the success of his mission. Moulton again appealed to Tilton to settle the matter peacefully, and the latter expressed a desire to do so. Subsequently, by previous arrangement, Moulton went to Beecher's house.

"He took me into his study and then told me again of his great surprise that Elizabeth should have made a confession of his criminal commerce with her to her husband, without letting him know about it, making his destruction at any moment possible and without any warning to him."

Letters from members of the Beecher family, expressing a belief in his guilt, are also given, also letters from Beecher to them, denying the truth of the scandal and asking them to keep silent and enjoin silence on others.

The principal matter added to the terrible story by Moulton is his positive statement of Beecher's repeated confessions of guilt to him.

The Times refuses to publish Moulton's statement because it throws no new light on Beecher's case. The Tribune carefully analyzes it to show that instead of substantiating the accusation it weakens the prosecution and confuses Beecher's defense.

The World, in a scathing article, reviews Moulton's and Tilton's statements, to show them devoid of honorable instincts and to prove them unworthy of belief when they offer their word against Beecher's, unsupported by any evidence showing criminality. "On the contrary," the World says, "this statement shows and Moulton proves the offense to be what Beecher's statement admitted. Moulton has destroyed his own credibility by talking and acting until last month constantly with Beecher's avowals and inconsistently with any theory of Beecher's guilt."

The Sun says Moulton adds nothing of importance to the record and produces nothing equivalent to a confession of the criminality of Beecher, and his explanation of the black-mailing feature is unsatisfactory. His statement will change nobody's opinion upon the main question. The best public sentiment here sympathizes with these views, and few reputable persons are willing to allow Beecher's thirty years of honorable public life and reputation to be clouded upon the apology for testimony produced.

One of the members of the committee of inquiry told a reporter that he was utterly amazed at the weakness of the statement. There was absolutely nothing in it—not a particle of evidence against Beecher. Another telegraphed to the reporter that Moulton's statement is utterly harmless, and said, "We are perfectly satisfied with the case."

The other members of the committee expressed themselves well pleased with the statement, as they said it contained no letters of Mr. Beecher heretofore unpublished, which had the appearance of supporting the theory of Mr. Beecher's guilt. Shearman said he felt honored and happy to be associated with Beecher as the object of attack by Moulton.

HONO KONO, Aug. 21.—There was a very severe typhoon at Nagasaki yesterday. Great damage was done to property on shore and to shipping in the harbor. A considerable number of natives lost.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The Brooklyn Eagle publishes the evidence of Tilton's adopted daughter Bessie, given before the investigating committee. She speaks in the highest and most affectionate terms of Mrs. Tilton as a devoted Christian wife and mother and scolds the idea of her being guilty of charges brought against her. She declares that Tilton used to lock his wife in a room and then scold and curse. Mrs. Tilton would cry, and several times witness heard her say, "Why, Theodore, I do the best I can; you know I make every dollar go just as far as I possibly can."

He was very jealous of his wife, both with gentlemen and ladies. I don't think he wanted anybody to like her particularly that did not show a great liking for him. I once saw Tilton shake his fist in his wife's face, while she was covering her face.

Tilton appeared to think a great deal of Mrs. Stanton and Susan B. Anthony. Once the witness, on coming into the parlor saw Susan B. sitting on Tilton's lap.

Witness, in reply to a question, declared that Tilton tried to ruin her once, taking her from her bed into another while she was asleep, and at another time coming to her room and attempting to get in her bed three times, while Mrs. Tilton was absent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The following Postal changes have been ordered for the Pacific Coast during the past week: Offices established—At Four Lakes, Stevens county, Washington Territory, Edward J. Turner, Postmaster; Fourth Plain, Clark county, W. T., Geo. W. Hart, Postmaster. Mail services in Oregon, California, Nevada, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho and Washington Territory, contracts for which went into effect on the first of July, is as a general thing being performed to the satisfaction of the Post Office Department.

LANCASTER, Ky., Aug. 23.—Two hundred men of the State Militia arrived this morning. All is quiet, the blacks and whites having ceased hostilities and disbanded. At the house of Mr. Sellers, where the fighting occurred on account of the shooting of a white man, the blacks were entrenched and escaped with one exception. Two white men were killed. United States Troops interfered in time to save the blacks from further injury. The blacks are demoralized. Two or three whites who were wounded in the fight are recovering. A later account states that four blacks were killed and two burned to death in Sellers house. Thirty-five blacks have been captured and placed under arrest, many of them being ringleaders in the riots. It is believed that no further trouble will be experienced.

VICTORIA, Aug. 23.—Latest from Cassiar—$90,000 in the treasury. The str. Otter arrived from Fort Wrangle on Friday with 130 passengers. The Otter brought down a mail, Sylvester's Express and about $90,000 in gold dust. The California arrived at Wrangle at 2 o'clock a. m. on the 16th, landed her mail and proceeded on to Sitka. Only 4 beavers and 95 sheep now remain to supply 500 or 600 miners with fresh meat, at 65 cents per pound. By the end of this month there will be no fresh meat unless the overland trains arrive. These are owned by Messrs. Nelson and Bent. From Mr. Johnston, mail carrier, we learn that on Dease Creek the McIntyre claim was paying about the best—30 to 40 ounces a day, of 24 hours, to 8 hands. The Brady claim was said to have yielded 300 ounces in one week. The ground is very spotted places. Paying from 7 to 8 ounces a day to the hands with rockers. After the expense of erecting sluices, no pay could be obtained. About 1 1/2 miles of Thibert Creek it pays pretty well, but the pay dirt is only from 12 to 18 inches thick and is soon worked out.

A letter dated Wrangle, August 6th, says: "Some Indians brought in the news to-day, that extensive portions of the wreck steamer George S. Wright have been brought into Fort Simpson and Metalah Katlah by Indians from an Island in Queen Charlotte Sound. Also that there are partly constructed cabins on the Island, which are supposed to have been put up by the survivors who managed to reach the shore from the wreck." Thus giving evidence that some of the Wright's people did reach the shore, but evidently perished from exposure. We can learn nothing in confirmation of this report from the passengers by the Otter and doubt its correctness.

By the Otter we received information of a bold outrage by the Skeena River Indians. Campbell's train from Thompson River Valley, which crossed the Skeena River at the Kispiock ranch 15 miles above the Forks on the 5th of August, was attacked and robbed by savages, who fired their guns to frighten the cattle and plunder the train. At latest accounts the Indians were debating, whether or not, they would let the train proceed.

A line has been made fast to the masts of the wrecked schooner Elida and attached to the windlass of a schooner anchored near. At flood tide last night, it was the intention to commence heaving on the line in the hope of righting the wreck.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The London Times of August 10th, in prefacing a review of the harvest prospects, claims that the worst point of the depression consequent on the New York and Vienna panics last Autumn, and the general reaction from the inflation of wages in all parts of the world, was reached some weeks back, and that, slow and sure, a commercial revival is now in progress.

The News of the same date observes: "The extraordinary wheat harvest is doing its work in depressing the price of flour, and certainly before the year is out the masses of consumers in Europe and America will be beginning to use for other purposes, the additional surplus which cheaper breads will give them. Manufacturers and merchants are already beginning to prepare for the increased purchasing power of the masses; and the stimulus of a good harvest to all is thus in part beginning to be an accomplished fact."

The New York Shipping Lists closes its harvest review as follows: "The indications being all in favor of a bountiful wheat harvest in the principal countries of Europe as well as in the U. S., and with no country under the necessity of sharply competing with Great Britain, as last year, the belief is now that prices are apt to rule comparatively low."

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 24.—At half past four o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the paint rooms of the mammoth wagon manufactory of Studebaker Bros. These works were erected immediately after the burning of their small shops in June, 1872, when they lost about $175,000. The flames spread rapidly, and, owing to the great size of the building, the fire department was unable to get the fire under immediate control, but finally turned their attention to the portion of the building connected with the one built three years ago, and there stopped it. Total loss, $300,000.

TRUSVILLE, Aug. 24.—A fire in Buena Vista on Sunday destroyed 30 buildings. Loss, $70,000; insurance light.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 24.—The boiler of the tow boat Duval collapsed a few miles below Bowling Green, on Saturday, killing two men and mortally wounding 3 others. Only the pilot escaped.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—It has been ascertained that Spain, instead of carrying into effect the Fish protocol with reference to the Virginian affair, has made a demand for indemnity for that affair and other alleged wrongs inflicted on Spain by Cuban filibustering expeditions fitted out in this country. This Government replies firmly but courteously, protesting against this position of Spain, and reminding the Spanish Government of the inexcusable delay in carrying into effect the terms of the protocol referred to. The Minister at Madrid is still pressing our demands.

CALCUTTA, Aug. 24.—855,000 people are still dependent on the Government on account of the famine.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Comments by the Western press on Moulton's statement show no changes in sentiment as regards belief in the guilt or innocence of Beecher. The Times of this city thinks this statement a conclusive evidence of guilt.

The Tribune takes substantially the same ground. The Inter-Ocean declares that it contains nothing new and is utterly worthless.

The St. Louis Republican says it simply confirms the all but universal judgment as to Beecher's guilt, and can't be harmonized with the presumption of his innocence without violating common sense.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Glendening, the Jersey City pastor, who left there about the time of Mary Pomroy's funeral, returned on Saturday night, and it is understood that he announces an intention to meet the charges preferred against him.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Susan B. Anthony denied to a reporter that any such thing took place between her and Tilton as described in Bessie Turner's testimony before the Beecher committee. She regarded the girl as a servant in the house and idiotic.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Secretary of the emigration board estimates that for the present year the immigration will be about 135,000, so that the comparison stands as follows: for 1873, 268,817; and for 1874, 135,000, a decrease of 133,817.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Carlism advances state that 2,000 Republican volunteers marching to the relief of Pinguet were captured by Royalists.

MACRIN, Aug. 25.—Conscription is being enforced without opposition.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 25.—The Union's letter from Ures, Sonora, Aug. 2nd, has the following: The Apaches have been making themselves felt in various portions of the State within the last few weeks. Don Irenno Londres sends word to the President of Municipality of Bacatnachachi that he was attacked by savages on the fifth ultimo, and as four of his party are not to be found, supposes them killed. A force of 22 men was sent to the scene of attack, and found the bodies of 3 of them. They had fought valiantly until their ammunition gave out, then they broke their guns in pieces. The pack animals which their victims had were killed and everything destroyed which could not be carried away. As the Apaches have been committing various outrages near Bacatnachachi and Gaori, the President believes the Indians have their rancherias in Sierra de Larincomada, but want of arms and means prevent a force being sent out to scout.

In Grandos on the 8th inst., some Apaches made their appearance and tried to seize and rob a citizen, but his speed saved him. Near Campas on the night of the 10th ultimo, some Apaches made their appearance at the grounds of the Palo Dulce and carried away 100 horses and mules. They were closely pursued by a party of 20 men; the result is not yet known. In Pipiva the Apaches first killed some stock; then stole some horses, and then attacked Don Julian's house, who disguised himself and got away and gave the alarm to some men who started in pursuit. They found the savages had stampeded the stock after getting some distance from town and separated, each driving what they could on their own hook. They could not be followed, on account of a recent rain. So their number was not known, nor how much they took away. It seems as if there was to be no rest from these marauders and the majority of the inhabitants have neither arms nor means to pursue and punish them.—There is no knowing how the end will be.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—The graders went to work yesterday morning on the Anaheim extension of railroad, and as the country through which it is to pass is very level, the bed will be ready for the iron in a very short time. Ross, of Montgomery County, seem to have the lead. It is likely that one of them will be nominated.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Three young men rowing in East River yesterday afternoon were run down by a steam tug and drowned.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Our young friend Levi G. Shelton had a narrow escape from death last week. In crossing on horseback, a bridge near Clatsop, his horse fell off the bridge, taking with it, down into the deep gulch below, its unsuspecting rider, who strange as it may seem, received but an unimportant scratch on the knuckles of his right hand. Another close call was that of Irving Ballard, the other day. He had been leading a revolver and left some cartridges on the table, where also laid his meerschaum. His two-year-old son, had later in the day filled pa's pipe with a cartridge and some tobacco, and when the latter partook of the stimulant and found, after smoking five minutes, that something was wrong or the tobacco not good, the cartridge was so hot that it could not be held in the hand. That family smoke might have made our friend a sea-faced Charley. He has "knocked off" smoking and now he and Shelton are the heroes of the day. —Stellacoom Express.

WATER IN THE HOUSE.—A prominent writer says: "Let nobody be deterred from bringing water into the house by any fears of failure and perplexity. You might just as well stop the circulation of blood in the body because it is subject to derangement, as to refuse the circulation of water in the house because now and then a pipe overflows and your frescoes are ruined. Good workmen will prevent any such accident, but if they cannot, give up your frescoes; do not give up your life-blood. When I see the farm-houses, the dairies, the kitchen, whose only source of supply is the well in the yard or the hogs-head at the back door, how life would be lengthened and sweetened if all this heavy and hard slow water-bringing could be supplanted by a turn of a screw. I wonder that we do not manage to introduce it, somehow, in our marriage contracts. What an increase of vital force would ensue; what a diminished demand for divorce; what a strengthening and up-building of the family bond, if the girl should refuse to marry until there was an inexhaustible supply of water, at least in the kitchen! A house without water-works ought to be considered as incomplete as a house with out doors, and as incomplete in the country as in the city."

Certain Vermont rum-sellers have established their saloons on the Canada line, the back part, with the liquors, being on her Majesty's Dominions, and the customers' room in the land of the free and the home of the brave. How to MAKE SUPERIOR COFFEE.—Divide the quantity generally used into two equal portions; put one into the coffee-pot on the stove, pouring cold water upon it. Let it boil five or six minutes; then pour the boiling coffee upon the dry coffee in another pot for the table. You have thus all the strength and part of the aroma of the one-half, and all the aroma and a part of the strength of the other half. This mode, when once tried, will be always applied in the making of coffee.

A clergyman being applied to, in less than a year after his appointment, to put a stove in the church, asked how long his predecessor had been there, and when answered, "twelve years," he said: "Well, you never had a fire in the church during that time?" The father took the hint.

A READER FROM CHINA.—The China News is the title of a journal lately started at San Francisco by Chinese enterprise, and printed in the language of the Central Flowery Kingdom. It is a folio 18 by 20 inches in size.

One of the editorials of the News is on the Beecher-Tilton scandal, and expresses regret that in this enlightened age the high priest of a country in such close proximity to China should become the subject of evil report. The editor draws a moral from the scandal, and warns his readers to uphold the virtue of their ancestors!

The San Francisco Bulletin gives a notice of this editorial, but a full translation of it would have been more satisfactory. Most Americans would consider the expression of wonder that such a scandal should arise in a country so near to China as a huge joke; as also the warning to the Chinese of this country not to snub their virtue to be impaired by American debauchery at the very altar of the sanctuary.

The people propose to stop this robbery by putting in positions of trust those who have not been contaminated with the ill-gotten gains of the monopolists. That's what this Independent Reform movement means. —Milton (Ills.) Commercial.

The expedition of Gen. Custer into the Black Hills country has revealed a wondrous scope and richness of land. Every encroachment upon the untrodden regions confirms the same old story of fertility and productiveness which years ago was told of Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska and all the vast region which now forms the great States from Plymouth Rock to the Missouri.

BECKER'S CHURCH.—A correspondent in the Daily Graphic speaking of the religious teachings of different churches and their effects upon the public morals, says that of Mr. Becker's: "That the Plymouth Church sort has anything to do with Christianity has been a matter on which only one opinion has been held by the sober mass of Christians in this country for many years. Why should any one be surprised at the late developments in Brooklyn? Why should the Herald and World talk their measureless imbecility about this horrible scandal as if Christianity were concerned? Mr. Becker has been for years (I speak the opinion of the millions of quiet Christian people) debauching the conscience of the country, proclaiming a religion of self-indulgence and self-will, doing more to corrupt the public morals, and not the heart of the community, than all the miserable scoundrels whom Mr. Anthony Comstock has undertaken to suppress."

Know ye the printer's hour of peace? Know ye an hour more fraught with joy than ever felt the Maid of Greece when kissed by Venus' amorous boy? 'Tis not when news of solemn note his columns all with sadness fill; nor yet when brothers quote the effusions of his binant wren quill. But O, 'tis when the weather's fair, or clad in rain, or hail, or vapor; 'tis when he hears the welcome sound, "I've come to pay you for your paper."

BEWARE OF TORCHES.—As several cases of the horrible disease trichinosis, have lately occurred, among others those recently mentioned by us as happening at Flint and South Haven, Mich., we again impress on our readers the necessity of seeing that pork is properly cooked before being eaten. Recollect that one mouthful of underdone pork may cook your goose. Here is an extract from the medical report on the cases mentioned above by the Medical Society of Kalamazoo: "Eat no uncooked or half-cooked hog's flesh. The raw flesh of the hog, whatever its shape or condition, whether ham, bacon or pork, salt or fresh, smoked, or unsmoked, is liable to contain this parasite, full of a life and activity that may soon work a remediless mischief in the human body. Bologna sausage, if pork be in it uncooked, is as dangerous as any form of this meat. The heat that cooks meat utterly destroys the life and mischievous power of these vermin, and no one need fear any harm if this fact is observed." —Western Rural.

In a little town out West a lady teacher was exercising a class of juveniles in mental arithmetic. She commenced the question, "If you buy a cow for ten dollars—" when up came a little hand. "What is it, Johnny?" "Why, you can't buy no kind of a cow for ten dollars; father sold one for sixty dollars the other day and she was a regular old scrub at that."

"Never marry for wealth," says a contemporary, "but remember that it is just as easy to love a girl who has a brick house with a mansard roof and a silver-plated door-bell as one who hasn't anything but an aburn head and an amiable disposition."

Detroit Free Press: Chicago women are cool. When a husband is brought home dead his wife doesn't utter a single howl until she has searched his pockets and satisfied herself that he hadn't any letters from any other woman, then she gives way to her grief.
