Moved and carried that the delegates present from each council district present a candidate for and to constitute a Democratic Central Committee in and for the Territory of Washington, for the ensuing two years, and until their successors are appointed.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Committee on resolutions presented resolutions numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, which were adopted. The resolutions are as follows:

1. That we are unalterably opposed to the dismemberment of the Territory, and are in favor of a State government at the earliest moment our population and wealth will justify the same.

2. That we are unqualifiedly in favor of the extension of time for the completion of the main line and branch of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and as we recognize as enemies of the property of our people all who oppose such extension.

3. That the improvement of the Columbia, Snake and other great rivers of our Territory, emptying into the sea, are national works, which should be prosecuted to an early completion.

4. That we recognize the mutual dependence of labor and capital, and deprecate all attempts to antagonize them in the combination of capital to control and the strikes of labor to resist this control as destructive of the true interests of both.

5. That the present business depression and wide spread distress throughout the Union is chiefly attributable to unwise measures of finance for which the Republican party is wholly responsible.

6. That the policy of the government in relation to the Indian tribes on this coast, the experience of the past demonstrates to be a failure and a change therein is imperatively demanded; such an abandonment of the reservation system as will insure the breaking up of the tribal relations of the Indian, or a consolidation of all the reservations into one with military control, in order that the annual raids of the hostile bands and the murder of our citizens may be effectually checked, the peace and prosperity of the Territory requires.

7. That the liberties of our nation rest in the intelligence of its citizens, and that our common school system cannot be overestimated, nor can too much care be bestowed to make it more liberal and perfect.

8. That our nation is to be congratulated that in none of the great sisterhood of States, Federal bayonets are used to enforce the laws, but that all are once more moving along harmoniously under the government, established by the free suffrages of its people, and upheld by their patriotism, and devotion to liberty.

Upon motion, N T Caton, of Walla Walla was nominated by acclamation as Democratic candidate for Delegate to Congress.

Upon motion, Col George Hunter was nominated by acclamation for Brigadier General of Washington Territory.

Upon motion, Hon O F Gerrish was nominated by acclamation for Quartermaster General.

For Adjutant General—J B O'Dell.

For Commissary General—J S Walker.

On motion convention adjourned for five minutes that the judicial districts nominate their candidates for prosecuting attorneys.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment, and the judicial districts reported as follows:

Cowlitz—Jas B LaDu.

Columbia—M H Abbott.

tion of his many virtues should be had; therefore be it resolved, by Eureka Lodge, No. 20, on the Registry of the Grand Lodge of Washington Territory of Free and Accepted Masons, that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken from us. Resolved, that in the death of Thomas Morrison, this lodge laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed of the fraternity. An active member of this society whose utmost endeavors were exhausted for its welfare and prosperity; a friend and companion who was dear to us all; a citizen whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to his fellows. Resolved, that the heartfelt sympathy of this lodge be extended to his friends in their application. Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodges, and the same be published in the DISPATCH, asking papers of the state of Nevada please copy. Public Improvement.

In 1868 the U. S. Government engineers made an estimate that it would cost about $2,500,000 to improve the navigation of the Mississippi at the rapids opposite Rock Island. They were completed in 1877, at a cost of over $4,000,000 showing how expensive every thing of that kind is that is taken in hand by the United States. The great expense incurred is caused by the thoroughness and completeness that characterizes every piece of work done by government engineers—a thoroughness and superior quality which doubles the cost, but generally makes it so durable that it lasts twice as long as the work of ordinary civil engineers.

In an Eastern exchange we find the following statistics of the material used and the cost:

MATERIAL USED.
Cubic yards earth excavated	1,200,000
" " rock	533,000

A Postscript.

It has been said that the pith of a lady's letter is in the postscript, and as an illustration of this, a young lady having gone out to India, and writing home to her friends, concluded with the following words: "P. S.—You will see by my signature that I am married."

That the same may sometimes be said of a gentleman's letter is proved by the subjoined, said to have been sent to the late Bishop of Norwich, Dr. S., in answer to an invitation given by him: "Mr. O's private affairs turn out so sadly that he cannot have the pleasure of waiting upon his lordship at his agreeable house on Monday next. N B—His wife is dead."

General Howard and Chief Moses.

PRIESTS RAPIDS, Sept. 3, VIA UMATILLA, Sept. 7, 1878.

The steamer from Wallula arrived here August 31st with Gen Howard and staff and three companies of 4th artillery, with one galling gun, and three companies of the 8th infantry, under command of Col. H. R. Mizner. Capt. Miles' column that left Walla Walla is sixty miles from here on our right, camped on crab creek. Gen. Howard dispatched messengers to Moses on our arrival here. This morning a nephew of Moses arrived with intelligence that he with his men would be here by Thursday. The council will take place on his arrival and probably continue two days. The conference will be the means of averting a prolonged war next summer. Moses is desirous of meeting with representatives of the government and settle all differences that may exist, and though not a reservation Indian, gives earnest of his friendship and good feeling toward the whites. The command is encamped at the foot of Priest's rapids. The conference will take place here. Think we will have a peaceful time, but are prepared for the worst.

"Beecher will leave the coast with the blessings of the poverty stricken Pioneer Society. Seeing the distressed condition of the organization, which is now staggering under a munificent gift from the late Wm. Lick, he has with characteristic benevolence determined to lecture for its benefit. The widow and orphan will after this lift up their voices and call Mr. Beecher blessed, and praise the nice discrimination he exhibits in dispensing charity to an institution that counts its wealth by hundreds of thousands, instead of giving it to wretches who might waste it in buying bread."

Private but persistent rumors at Constantinople state that a new territorial acquisition by England is in negotiation. Tenedos is specially named.

Are We to be Sold Again?

As has heretofore been made manifest, the Democratic Convention was organized and run exclusively in the interest and at the dictation of the N. P. R. R. Land Ring, and the O. S. N. Co. It is now openly boasted that the Republican Convention and the Republican nominee are to be dominated and dictated by the same power, and that the people are only to be left the choice of overseer for the same master. We are told that if we do not accept N. T. Caton, the Democratic nominee for Delegate, we will be forced to accept Sam C. Wingard, representing the same interest; that the delegates from Eastern Washington will come into the Republican Convention solid for Wingard, all collared, marked and ticketed for Wingard, as the Democratic delegates were for Caton, and will demand his nomination on local grounds exclusively, and on that ground alone his backers hope to secure the control of both political party organizations, and use the people to betray themselves through their party associations. Are the voters of Washington Territory so obtuse, or so lost to all sense of manhood, that they are prepared to surrender their dearest interests to a cabal of mercenary politicians, who traffic upon their rights in the name of party? Is it not time for the people to demand an accounting from their servants? In the Democratic Convention a very large preponderance of the popular sentiment of the Territory was shamelessly betrayed in the interest of our common enemy; let us see to it that the treachery is not repeated in the Republican Convention with impunity. Of the delegates to that Convention from this county, Capt. Hill, L. B. Andrews and Irving Ballard are candidates for office. If they return from that Convention as the Democratic delegates did, as the bound thralls of an odious combination against the people, let them look to their masters, not to the people, for their pay. If the rights of the people are betrayed in the Republican as they were in the Democratic Convention, the remedy still lies with the people, to cast off the trammels of party and vindicate their own rights through their own chosen representative, independent of party. Do not be deluded with the idea that there is dishonor or shame in repudiating a party by which you have been betrayed. That is but a device of demagogues to use the people through their prejudices for disreputable purposes.

Judge Jacobs.

The Oregonian, which watches over the people of Washington Territory with the same solicitude the fox watches the development and growth of a brood of young chickens in a neighboring barn-yard, with the view of making them his meat in the near future, volunteers the suggestion. "It is said that Jacobs is 'looming up' again as candidate for Delegate. If he wants to be defeated by one thousand majority he will stand right in." It is not the fear that Jacobs would be defeated, but the fear that he will be nominated, that disturbs our neighbor. The editor has a candidate and a platform of his own choosing from the so-called Democratic Convention; then why should he deprecate a Republican nomination over whom his triumph appears to him so well assured? We have the information upon which we can assure our neighbor that Judge Jacobs neither seeks nor desires a nomination, and if he consents to become a candidate, it will be upon such a popular demand as he cannot misunderstand and would have no right to disregard, and such a contest would determine the question whether the voters of Washington Territory are free-men or the bonded serfs of the combination of monopolists of which the Oregonian is the faithful organ. If the question was put to the voters upon its naked merits, free from party bias, as to approving or disapproving the action of Judge Jacobs in relation to the railroad land grant, upon which the assumption of his unpopularity is predicated, there is no reasonable doubt that nine-tenths of the popular vote of the Territory would be given in approval, the opposition being confined almost exclusively to those personally interested in maintaining monopoly and special privileges.

The Oregonian is very much in the practice of drawing its conclusions from imaginary premises of its own invention; as in construing the defeat of Mitchell as an expression of popular dissatisfaction with his railroad policy; and predicating popular disagreement with Jacobs upon the same premises. The truth is, that in Oregon as in California and every where else, the monopolists and seekers for special privileges use political parties for no other purpose than to promote their own selfish purposes; their success mainly depending, not upon popular endorsement, but upon holding the balance of power between the two parties, and no one better understands the advantages of this position than does the editor of the Oregonian. With the party strength of the State very equally divided and the Democrats a unit against Mitchell, such a combination of all the wealth and corporate power of the State, with hosts of retainers and dependents, gave overwhelming odds to his opponents which no amount of personal popularity was sufficient to overcome. In every instance where this issue was presented in the primaries of his own party, Mr. Mitchell was overwhelmingly sustained by popular vote; the Democrats did not raise this issue anywhere in the canvass but in Multnomah county, where an open coalition was formed to defeat him, composed of the entire Democratic party, dissatisfied Republicans, National Bank, Chamber of Commerce, O. S. N. Co., N. P. R. R. Co., and every form of monopoly, led by the "leading journal," Mr. Mitchell carried off the popular vote by a handsome majority over all, a triumph with very few parallels in the history of party politics in this country. In view of these facts it is sheer effrontery claim that the course of Mitchell and Jacobs upon the land grant is condemned by popular sentiment.

A Libeller Convicted.

For more than a year past a newspaper has been published at Port Townsend, ostensibly as an organ of the Democratic party, but really nothing but a sewer of personal defamation, open to any body, of any party, who chose to use it to vent personal spleen and vituperative abuse upon others, utterly regardless of public or private decency, age, sex, party association or social condition; the whole purpose being manifestly to imitate the low sensational journals which gain notoriety and circulation by pandering to a grovelling popular appetite for that class of literature which is tabooed in circles where morality and social decency is respected. One H. L. Blanchard, a small Attorney, with no knowledge of the business either as a printer or editor, undertook the management of this infamous enterprise as the nominal editor and publisher, under the impression that as the statutes of the Territory failed to provide any punishment for the crime of libel, he could ply the vocation of a common libeller with impunity. But he did not take into account the fact that the law which failed to provide punishment for the crime, gave to the offended citizen the remedy of a suit for personal damages. Gov. Ferry, who had been grossly charged through this medium with high crimes in office, commenced a suit against the editor as the only means of vindicating his character, and that has resulted in the following humiliating confession of guilt and prayer for Executive clemency:

In the discharge of our duty as a public journalist we deemed it incumbent on us to give space to a communication which reflected on Governor Ferry in the matter of his exercise of the pardoning power; and, at the same time, appending our editorial comments.

We had no doubt that the statements made were reliable; in fact, they were endorsed by a lawyer who has heretofore stood near the head of his profession, in the estimation of the public, as being sufficiently substantiated to a conviction for corrupt conduct in office. But for this, we should never have allowed the Press to do what we now concede to be an injustice to a public officer.

We have, during the last three weeks, made a thorough investigation of the Press upon which the charge was made, and are satisfied that they fall short of substantiating it in any particular. We therefore now retract the charge, not only in justice to Governor Ferry, but in vindication of the reputation of the Press for fair dealing with all public questions and the conduct of public officers.

This confession of guilt in view of imminent punishment, has no element of penitence or promise of reformation, but from first to last shows a sneaking evasion solely with reference to escape from punishment. While it fully vindicates the Governor in relation to the false charges made against him, it leaves that public functionary in the questionable position of having compounded a felony upon restitution to himself, leaving the criminal at liberty to repeat his practices upon others, and without demanding a surrender of his pals to public odium. The very number of the paper in which this confession appears is almost exclusively devoted to libellous invective, insinuation and inuendo, more malicious and cowardly by the attempted disguise under which the shafts are sped, so that the personality indicated by inuendo cannot be established in an action at law. Thus an object of its libellous attack is indicated by certain personal characteristics which attract the attention of the whole community to him as the individual meant, when the editor, on being called to account, will make oath that he meant some other man whom nobody had thought of in that connection. That is one of the tricks resorted to by this chronic libeller to practice his infamous crimes without exposing himself to its penalties. No form of malicious defamation can be meaner or more cowardly.

The handkerchief business must be stopped. The Rochester Express says: Some fellows are so sensitive that a man cannot blow his nose without their thinking he is trying to flirt with his girl.

Indian Pow-Wow.

WALLULA, Sept 8, 1878. The steamer Spokane has just arrived here having on board Gen Howard and staff, and Gen. Mizner's battalion of artillery and infantry. A council was held with Chief Moses and General Howard yesterday afternoon and this morning at Priest's rapids. Moses was present on the part of the Indians, who stated they were willing to go on a reservation of their choice and would live there forever. They will not go on a reserve remote from their country. The territory they want lies east of the Cascade mountains, running to the mouth of the Spokane river, then down the river to White Bluffs, thence across the Columbia to a point fifteen miles above the mouth of the Yakima. Gen. Howard stated he desired in the presence of all assembled to thank Moses for the remarkable fidelity he had shown and his efforts to keep the peace at all times, Moses took no part in the late hostile movement and his influence and power kept the hostile movement from breaking out among his men.

Moses stated that he requested land of the government, and the land he would like and if given him and his people he would remain there forever. He was always a friend to the whites, but he had been badly misrepresented by his enemies. He would add to his strength if the authorities at Washington would give him the reservation he now chose. All northern Indians would join him. He is their recognized chief, and his followers, as allies of the government, would prevent further trouble in his country. It was not his Indians who killed Perkins' family, but two Palouse Indians. Hemeny, chief of the Umatillas, said his people would join with Moses and be as before—firm friends to the whites.

Howard said he would forward their request to the great father at Washington for a reserve, and referring to the murder of the Perkins family, said he wanted the murderers given up. He called on Moses and his men, the Umatillas and all others, to help find the murderers and deliver them to justice. They must be punished for the crime.

The council passed off harmoniously, and the Indians appeared well satisfied with the result. They all renewed assurances of friendship.

She was an angel blonde, and tripped into a butcher shop on Wall street, where a handsome butcher stood. "Have you heart?" she said, blushing timidly. "Have I a heart, Miss?" replied the butcher. "Do you think that I can watch you day after day, and see your eyes drooping as they meet mine, that I can feel your velvet breath on my cheeks as I stoop to serve you, and not have a heart? Oh, maiden, am I not all heart, and you ask me have I one!" "Yes," she sighed, faintly, "this is beautiful, this is divine, but it ain't the kind I want this morning; so give me a bullock's heart, quick, and trim it for stuffing, or my old man'll be raising Cain if his dinner ain't cooked."

A young woman committed suicide lately in Boulogne, France, who two years ago shone conspicuously in the titled society of Berlin. She was the wife of the Russian Secretary of Legation, to whom she had been betrothed while in a Paris convent school. They lived at great expense, and the woman rivalled the members of the royal family in the costliness of her jewels. As their resources diminished the husband plunged into stock speculations, and became a bankrupt. The wife, unwilling to endure poverty, eloped with a princely admirer, who in a short time abandoned her. Deprived of resources, she gave herself up to dissipation in Paris, and, weary of life, finally shot herself. Her husband, who belonged to the society of the Red Cross, was at Bucharest, in charge of a hospital for soldiers.

Dotu, the telegraph operator, recently decorated with the Cross of the Legion of Honor for services during the Franco-German war, is the eighth woman thus rewarded. Five of the other crosses went to the Sisters of Charity who had shown especial devotion in hospitals, one to Madame Abicot, wife of the Mayor of Oison, for derending her husband's house against several armed men, and another to Rosa Bonheur, the painter, who was decorated in 1865.

The Labor Question.

LA CONNER, September 5th, 1878.

EDITOR DISPATCH:—Knowing the dependence of your ably edited sheet, we undertake to write you a few items in regard to the Swinomish country, and to enter protest against the action of a number of harvest-hands, who this year, have done more to lower the condition of the laboring man than has been done in any other ten years previous. In the first years of agriculture upon these flats, which embrace about a township and a half in area, the custom was to work from seven A. M. to 6 P. M., with an hour's intermission for dinner; the wages ruled at from two or three dollars per day. This year's wages, except in rare instances have been but one dollar and a half, (just half of Eastern rates), and gradually but surely the days work has lengthened in the neighborhood of the Skagit river and is extending, from sunrise to past sunset. An attempt of some men, for men they were, to better their condition by an advance in wages to two dollars per day, was met by telegraphing up to Seattle for more men, and the next night's steamer brought more than double the men needed, a sad commentary upon the pluck of the incoming flood of laboring men that are now being drained out of California into the basin of Puget Sound. This is intended in no wise, to reflect upon the gentleman who would not stand the strike, but is written to chide the men, who when their fellow laborers make an effort to raise the price of harvest labor to a price corresponding to ruling rates for such services in other parts of the United States, that they will not here after persist in ruining the labor market to such an extent as to compel the "swine" to go on the clam beach in winter; in order to exist. The London Times pronounces the farm hand of England the most down-trodden workman in existence, not half as well off as were the slaves of the south; how long will it take the American farm hand to reach a similar condition, unless he more energetically exercises his individual sovereignty as a man, and insist upon a continuance of the former healthy precedents that here obtained, instead of gradually but surely being reduced to a system of absolute serfdom, in fact if not in name. A working man himself, we have no hesitation in declaring that if our class had more determination in persisting in not working over hours, thereby shortening the number of each job, and not acting foolishly stubborn, would demand an exact quid pro quo instead of howling for government pap, silver dollars of our daddies and so forth, we would stand firmly in our boots and feel ourselves as the American citizen should feel, an independent work of God, and in fact remove pretense and actually in fact as well as name, be as good as any other man. These howling demagogues who cry hemp, hemp; are but hypocrites taking the attention of the laboring man from a study of his own right action, to something extraneous in the shape of hunting up other men's faults instead of their own. An etiquette of labor can exist, just as immutable as are the laws of polite society, and a moment's reflection will convince any man that a rigid adherence to such laws would make the field more pleasant and the body feel less exhausted when it lies down in a blanket under the lee of a hay stack at night. We have quoted the term "swine" in this letter, we do it advisedly, a set of men that will allow such a custom to survive from old mining days to this late date, the custom of packing ones own blankets and hurrying a place to sleep either in the stack, the barn or under a tree, is a thing we fancy, that can be a decisive effect by the foreigner, when one of us stumps oneself upon our free born rights and freedom as American citizens and prate about the "broad pinions of the American eagle, by jingo." If we, as a class would speak out, and tell each rancher that we are not cattle, they would do as they do in the East, give us a bed; when the time comes to quit, say so, universally say so, disdaining to do other than a fair days work for our employers, also speak right out when he is inclined to take an inch, for he surely will not be satisfied until he gets an ell. We would do the same thing ourselves were we in his place; the chances are ten to one we needn't felicitate ourselves upon that point, but conscientiously demand and give a quid pro quo. Having thus aired ourself upon this point we hope that an exposition of the views of one of the laboring class will not be deemed in your columns, for unless the press shall take up with cold judicial calmness and discuss this question pro and con a continuance of trampism, agrarianism and other isms will continue, expose the foibles of the laborer as lucidly as your pen will admit, and also denounce the festina lente aggressions of the employer. Yours respectfully,
Harvest Hand.

General News.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 9.—The condition of our city grows more desperate every hour. Of new cases it is useless longer to keep count. Whole families are stricken down within a few hours, and the call for nurses is greater than can be supplied. Yesterday there were about 100 deaths and 300 new cases, and to day up to noon, seventy deaths are reported and the death rate to-day will probably exceed that of any previous day. Among the deaths reported this morning are Dr. E. C. Slater, pastor of the Methodist church, Sister Catharine, of St. Mary's, Wm. A. Rubb, Jacob Loeb and Dr. Nelson.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9.—New cases, 144, deaths, 87.

CATON, Sept. 9.—Twenty-one new cases and four deaths during the last 24 hours. Fever seems to be spreading in the country.

NORFOLK, Sept. 9.—Eight nurses left for Memphis to-day. Wilmington also sends nurses.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 9.—Among the refugees from the south only four thus far are sick with fever or what is supposed to be yellow fever. Others not decided. Two supposed cases were removed to the infirmary, two miles from the city. One of the patients is a colored student at Fisk University who came from Mississippi via Memphis.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—The following dispatch from Vicksburg was received at midnight: Bishop Elder's condition is very critical. No hopes are entertained of his recovery. Bishop Leroy reached him last night.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10.—The Howards report 325 new cases, including the sick and destitute.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 10.—Physicians of the Howard's corps report 411 new cases for the past 24 hours. The situation of the city is simply frightful. There are more sick than can be attended to. In the 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th wards, the most thickly settled portions of the city, there is not a single drug store open and great difficulty is experienced in getting prescriptions filled.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The secretary of war, while extending government aid to yellow fever sufferers, has repeatedly declared that he was actuated by no other law than that of humanity, but depended on approval of the entire country for his action. No one doubts here that he will have congressional sanction, but in order to give some assurances, Col. McArdle of Vicksburg who came hither on behalf of yellow fever sufferers, addressed a letter to Representatives Blackburn, Ellis and Gibson on the subject, who replied that if it should become necessary to pass laws validating and ratifying the secretary's action, it would certainly meet their most cordial support.

GRENADEA, Sept. 10.—The citizens of Grenada assembled in mass in the mass meeting yesterday and resolved that inasmuch as the relief committee of Grenada, John Powell and Robert Mullen have for weeks past absented themselves from Grenada and utterly neglected to attend the sick or bury the dead or provide for our destitute and suffering people, and have resisted all appeals to return to the city and perform their duties, it is the sense of this meeting that the necessities of our city demand the appointment of a sub-relief committee, whose duty it shall be to solicit benefits of money and provisions of all kinds, of sympathetic people of the country, and disburse the same for the benefit of those who are suffering from the epidemic. The committee appointed by the citizens' meeting is composed of the following well-known gentlemen: Rev. Wm. McCracken, chairman, J. H. Campbell and A. Sweigart. Our friends all over the land are requested to send subscriptions by express to Rev. McCracken. The fever has carried off four of our citizens in the past twenty-four hours, and during the same period seven new cases have been reported.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A New Orleans special says: This morning at No. 688 Peter street, forty-three Chinese were discovered in a starving condition. They had been employed to work on a rice plantation above the city, but the owner, terror-stricken about the fever, refused to permit them to land and they returned here. Their condition was not discovered until starvation had commenced. A large quantity of rice has been sent to the sufferers.

A picnic entertainment given by employees of the city and county for the benefit of southern yellow fever sufferers was a grand success. Thousands of tickets were sold at fifty cents each. Large contributions were made of cigars, liquors, provisions, etc., and as there was no expense, the gross receipts go to the south. It is estimated that the sum raised will be not less than ten thousand dollars, and possibly much more. Other similar entertainments for the same purpose are contemplated.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Wells, Fargo & Co. to-day issued a circular, showing the amounts of money forwarded through their agency to the yellow fever sufferers, aggregating $10,366, with $172 remaining on hand. These amounts have been received from citizens' committees, Odd Fellows Lodges and other organizations in the interior towns of California and Nevada, which, added to amounts forwarded by the citizens committee and other sources in San Francisco, makes the grand total thus far over $30,000 in round numbers.

VICKSBURG, Sept. 10.—Weather clear and warm. Thermometer 89. Indications are that the fever is decreasing in new cases, but the mortality is fearful. Deaths yesterday, 45; to-day 44. Among the deaths to-day are Col. Martin Keary, county treasurer, and J. W. Alvis, of Chattanooga, telegraph operator, who came here three weeks ago. Bishop Elder's condition is more favorable to-day. Drs. Robbins and Balfour are out again. Dr. O'Leary is sitting up.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10.—The Young Men's Christian Association report 111 new cases of fever to day.

Weather clear, mercury 89. Death list includes 34 minors, 19 being under seven.

PORT GIBSON, Sept. 10.—475 cases of yellow fever to date and 85 deaths.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Sept. 10.—Fourteen deaths during the last 24 hours in town and suburbs. Only four new cases. Weather rainy, cold and gloomy.

JACKSON, Sept. 10.—The fever has broken out in several new points in this state Bolton Lake, Lawrence station, on the Vicksburg & Meriden railroad; Gilman station, on the New Orleans railroad, and Dry Grove, in Hinds county. There is no abatement at Vicksburg, Holly Springs, Port Gibson or Greenville. At Grenada only three or four remain to be attacked. At Vicksburg, W. G. Platon, grand commander of the Knights Templars, is among the new cases. Gov. Stone is here to-day to confer with the State board of health, and citizens are to give state aid. In the present emergency it will be impossible to convene the State Legislature now, so strictly quarantined is nearly every county in the State. Secretary Power continues to receive liberal contributions from Masons, Odd Fellows and others, and is sending it daily to afflicted points.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10.—Weather clear and pleasant. The death list includes 26 children under 7 years. From noon to 6, p. m. 33 deaths are reported to the board of health.

St. Louis, Sept. 10.—Rain continued up to 2 P. M., since which time the weather has been cool; increasing fatality. Undertakers report 90 deaths for the 24 hours ending 6 P. M., of which 30 were colored.

A Fairy Tale of Science.

Edison's telephone, even in its present crude state, is already the parent of other inventions that promise to go on in steady accretion until we shall have wonders in comparison with which even the electric telegraph and steam engine are trifles. The hardest problem Edison has yet to deal with is to make his telephone and phonograph talk loud enough, though he promises, by his aurophone, soon to make them talk so as to be heard twenty miles.

Meantime, however, Professor D. E. Hughes, of London, comes before the Royal Academy with a machine which he calls the microphone, and to which he claims will magnify, so to speak, the utterances of the telephone and phonograph so that the faintest sounds can be heard at any desirable distance. The machine, in a word, fulfills the same duty with regard to sensations that reach the brain through the ear that the microscope does for those that come through the eye. Speaking of this great thing the St. Louis Republican says:

It increases and exaggerates sound to such an extent that it is claimed that the "lightest touches of a feather's edge or of a camel's hair brush on the sounding board of the telephone produce a crackling noise of which the intensity is almost painful to the ear." It is even said that if a house-fly walks across the sounding disk of a telephone, the footsteps are distinctly audible in connecting telephones miles away. The construction of this machine is very unsatisfactory described in the papers that speak of it, but the following paragraph will give a faint conception of the principles on which it depends:

"Two pieces of charcoal, heated to a white heat, are plunged into mercury; they are then placed in a glass tube and pressed end to end, making a part of an electric circuit; if a telephone is introduced in the circuit, and a sound is sent through the two pieces of charcoal, it comes out at the end of the circuit sensibly increased in volume. Heat, light, sound and electricity are supposed by many physicists to be interconvertible. The probabilities are that we have here a conversion of electricity into sound."

Edison says the invention of Prof. Hughes is nothing but a "big steal" from the telephone; but this is evidently as unjust as it would be to call the magnetic telegraph a big steal from Franklin's lightning-rod.

While grubbing up a stump, a Hunt county, Texas, farmer struck an old iron pot, holding $426 in silver and fifteen $20 gold pieces. On top of the money was a silver goblet, marked Myrick the name of a family which disappeared during the war.

Beecher told a Western reporter that he loved to steal awhile away and enjoy a soul bath in solitude. An account of the interview was published under the heading A Bad Case of Psychological Sand and Scrubbing brush."

The German military authorities have caused telephones with alarm apparatus, to be constructed which will be tested in the coming manoeuvres.

Don't Forget it!

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is apt to become torpid at this season of the year as poisons arising from stagnant water or decaying vegetation are more numerous and are through inhalation taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the Great Liver Panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any other medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Popular Representation.

No man who knows us can rest under any doubt as to our sentiments upon any question of public interest or concernment, political or otherwise, or can trace, by any logical process, any position we have ever taken, to any ulterior or personal motive. Every body who knows anything of the matter, knows that we are a Democrat of the strictest sect, according to all the tenets and usages of the party bearing that name in the days when it dominated and directed the policy of the country, and no man can point to a single instance or incident where we have deviated from the doctrines of the Democratic party as delivered to us by its progenitors; no man can name the man who has sacrificed more or suffered more in defence of Democratic principles. It is true that more than eight years ago we emancipated ourselves from party servitude upon the adoption in party convention of a principle repugnant to our sense of public obligation—no less than a repudiation of the national debt—which a Democrat at the present day would publicly affirm; but we had thought in disavowing our ties with one that we thereby became the subject of another. It was simply a declaration of independence of party to which every citizen is entitled and no man has a right to question. From that day to the present we have taken no part in a caucus or convention of either party, and have given our support to such candidates as we deemed best qualified, entirely free from party bias or personal considerations, without any compromise or sacrifice of principles.

We make this explanation because the serfs of party, with the zeal that knowledge, how is as a "renegade," a "Republican," and a "traitor." A renegade to what? a Republican? and a traitor to what? Certainly not to any Democratic principle or popular right. The Democratic doctrine of popular representation was utterly disregarded in the Vancouver convention, and yet the score or so of self-elected delegates, with no regular authority to represent a tenth of the Democratic popular vote of the Territory, have the brazen effrontery to denounce as traitors all Democrats who refuse to recognize their usurped authority. Credentials by which a large proportion of the votes in the convention were held had no popular backing, were transferable like a negotiable note, without the authority or knowledge of the constituency which they assumed to represent. Take King county, for example: At a mass meeting of not over fifty persons, held in this city, eight delegates were elected, only two of whom attended, and one of them (Col. Nash, an old law partner of Caton) was allowed four votes from this county in addition to the two from the counties of Island and Snohomish. What constituency gave their consent or authority to him to cast more than one vote? or, who are bound by the acts of an agent not of their own choosing? Three of the votes of this county were assigned to Mr. Russell, and the other to a man not elected. G. M. Haller, of Jefferson, was assigned the vote of Clallam; James Longmyer two votes from Thurston; T. O. Williams two votes from Klickitat; John Bryant four votes from Walla Walla, and Henry Roeder two votes from Whatcom. Stevens was given to Abbott, of Columbia; Mason to Frank Clark; Chehalis to Jacob Hoover; Cowlitz to B. F. Shaw, of Yakima, and Jefferson divided between the factions. All the county politicians were satisfied in total disregard of the rights of the people, and a unanimous nomination naturally followed; that is what they went there for. We know of no way in which we could damage the cause of Democracy more than by endorsing this burlesque upon popular government, and advising the people to surrender their independence to trading politicians.

SOLD! SOLD!!

The Oregonian, the openly avowed organ of the O. S. N. Co. and the N. P. R. Co., and the uniform advocate of corporate power against the rights of the people, raises its pen over the triumph of its cause in the so-called Democratic Convention, as follows:

We have no doubt that the resolution adopted by the Democratic Territorial Convention at Vancouver relative to the Northern Pacific Railroad fairly expresses the views of a vast majority of the people of Washington Territory, irrespective of party. The policy of the resolution is in direct opposition to the course which delegate Jacobs has pursued. If the Republican Convention do not pledge its candidate in favor of a railroad as strongly and unequivocally as the Democratic Convention has done, he will have small chance of an election. Washington will repudiate the Mitchell-Jacobs policy as signally as Oregon has done.

The special organ of the Tacoma Land Ring, announces in display letters, under its telegraphic head, the result of the Convention:

"N. T. CATON FOR CONGRESS!"
"Satisfactory extension resolutions passed!"

Both of the papers above quoted from are edited by professed Republicans, and their notes of triumph at the action of a Democratic convention have a significance that does not belong to party politics; that so far as that Convention had the power to do it, the people of this Territory, and the Democratic party especially, have been sold to the railroad monopoly and the river monopoly, unconditionally, without any reservation of rights whatever. And when we consider the manner in which that Convention was packed and organized, we could not expect any other result. Of the 49 votes cast in convention only 19 delegates held seats in that body under the authority of any popular constituency, and those did not have the endorsement of one-tenth of the people whom they assumed to represent. The leading spirit of the Convention was Col. L. B. Nash. By virtue of a small mass meeting held in this city, Col. Nash was elected as one of eight delegates from this county. Under no other legitimate authority, the Convention assigned him four votes from this county and the full representation of Island and Snohomish counties, and we find in the official proceedings, Colonel Nash chairman of the committee on resolutions, and Col. Nash chairman of the Territorial committee—Col. Nash the author of the platform, and Col. Nash the official head of the party organization, with the nomination of Prosecuting Attorney for this district in abeyance. Now, with a high regard for the ability and gentlemanly deportment of Col. Nash—in both of which he is far superior to Caton—we are bound to say that he no more represents the popular sentiment of the constituency for which he assumed to act than does Frank Clark, who was permitted to act for another county in which he had no residence. Col. Nash is an old law partner and warm personal friend of Mr. Caton, and for the past year or more he has been an outspoken and pronounced friend of the N. P. railroad and advocate of the interests of Tacoma in opposition to those of Seattle. No man upon our streets has more persistently ridiculed the pretensions and disparaged the efforts of this town to maintain its commercial supremacy. Many months ago he closed his law office in this place with a view of removing to Tacoma whenever the growth of that town would appear to warrant it, and his practice since has been peripatetic and divided between the two towns. There has been nothing underhanded in the Colonel's action; he acted in the convention just as he talked, and his vote for Caton and his resolution to surrender a large portion of our territory unconditionally, to be held in perpetuity by a corporate monopoly is exactly why he sought and obtained his position in the convention, and the delegates who came with Caton and proxies, on passes furnished by Dr. Baker and the O. S. N. Co., were manifestly there for the same purpose. But the question is: By what authority do they claim to bind the people to their bargain? Judge Jacobs sought to aid the railroad by appropriating the proceeds of the public lands to that purpose; Caton & Nash would give the land to the railroad managers for monopoly and speculation, as heretofore.

Platform of the Monopolists.

We have shown that the Vancouver Convention, nominally Democratic, was organized simply and solely in the interest of chartered monopolists, and that its democratic pretensions are false and fraudulent. Of this, the personnel of the Convention afforded abundant proof, but the platform is conclusive. The first plank in that platform is: "That we are unalterably opposed to a dismemberment of the Territory, and are in favor of a State government at the earliest moment our population and wealth will justify the same."

If this means any thing, it means unalterable opposition to the admission of the State into the Union upon the Constitution now presented for popular ratification. It is identically the position of every organ of the monopolists which has expressed opposition to those provisions of the Constitution which limits the special privileges and powers of corporate monopoly. The authors of this expression dare not make an open issue before the people, in favor of corporate privileges against popular rights, but seek the same end by delay and evasion; else why not an open avowal of position upon the simple question presented to the people at the pending election, whether they will approve or reject the Constitution prepared under their authority by delegates of their own election. No instrument or advocate of special privileges dares to declare opposition to "State government at the earliest moment our population and wealth will justify the same," but every one of them is deadly hostile to State government upon the Constitution presented, and hence this plank of the platform, like the balance of the same instrument, suits all such exactly.

The second plank of the platform is a more clear and emphatic declaration in favor of corporate monopoly, as follows:

"That we are unqualifiedly in favor of the extension of time for the completion of the main line and branch of the Northern Pacific railroad, and that we recognize as enemies of the prosperity of our people all who oppose such extension."

This is properly construed and emphatically endorsed by the organs of the monopolists, as in direct opposition to, and repudiation of "the Mitchell-Jacobs policy," and as such we are bound to accept it. Both the gentlemen denounced, as is well known, labored as earnestly for the success of a bill for the extension of time for the completion of the railroad as any men in or out of Congress; and that their efforts were defeated in the interest of monopoly and land speculation, the records clearly prove. All that Mitchell and Jacobs sought was to protect the rights of the people against such rascally combinations as were formed by Directors to turn the Government subsidy to account in their own personal account, which all know was the cause of the bankruptcy of the old company. They proposed to appropriate the proceeds of the sales of the public lands to the construction of the railroad, instead of turning the lands over to the managers for speculation. That is all.

A Chinaman has sued the Sheriff of San Francisco for cutting off his queue in the county jail. The Sheriff demurred to the complaint on the ground that he was empowered to cut off the queues of prisoners by a city ordinance, but the Court overruled the demurrer, declaring that there was no ordinance which gave such power, and that there is no general authority for a Sheriff to clip the hair of convicts.

The citizens of Munich are great lager beer drinkers. There is a popular resort called the Chinese Tower, where between 7 and 9 of a Sunday morning six thousand glasses are emptied. But there is no drunkenness.

Eight Hartford girls hired a house at Old Hadley, Conn., in which to spend their vacation by themselves. They cooked their own meals, drove their own horses, fished in their own boats, and permitted no man to enter the building.

STRANGERS.--There are at present large number of strangers in this city, some to attend the District Court, just adjourned, some on account of the revival meetings, some are members of the Baptist Association, and others are here to attend the Republican and Temperance conventions. Among these are persons from nearly all portions of the Sound and from as far as the Fraser river valley, British Columbia. The effect is to give our streets a lively appearance, from the large number of people who are continually passing. By next week most of these strangers will have returned to their homes, leaving our streets with about the usual number of people visible.

PREACHING.--To-morrow morning at 11 o'clock our citizens will have an opportunity of hearing Rev. Jno. Parsons, who will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church in the absence of the pastor. Rev. I. Dillon, whom the conference has returned to this place, will return in time for the following Sabbath.

The Presbyterian church was filled last night with people anxious to hear Mr. Brown's views on the future state. His teachings were materially different from the belief of many orthodox people. yet he referred to passages of scripture that appeared to warrant his views.

IMPROVING FAIR.--Capt. W. H. Andrews received a letter from Mr. Bailey Gatzert, of this city, who is at present at Paso Robles Springs, California. He states that he is improving in health very fast and declares that the water there "knocks the spots out of rheumatism," and to use his own language, the place for healthfulness and enjoyment is "way up." He sends his kind regards to his many friends in this community. We hope soon to see Mr. Gatzert return, looking much improved for his visit to the Golden State.--Intelligencer.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.--The delegates assembled at 11 o'clock this morning and organized with Hon. G. W. Tibbitts as chairman, and D. B. Ward as Secretary. MR. ALLEN WHEEL, of the Port Townsend Argus, is at present stopping in the city.

From Daily of Monday.

EXCITING ADVENTURE.--Last Saturday afternoon, a man named Jackson, formerly boatswain of the Revenue cutter Wolcott, but at present employed on a ranch near Steilacoom, came down from the latter place in a small skiff, bringing as a passenger a man who wanted to come down to visit his wife, who was lying sick at the hospital in this city. Jackson brought down, also, a barrel of butter to sell, but having got gloriously drunk, he of course forgot all about the butter. While Jackson was absent, the other man stole his boat and was putting off with it, when he was fortunately discovered by the former, who jumped into another skiff and gave chase; but before he got well underway, the ungrateful thief had got several hundred yards away. Once outside the slip the race commenced in dead earnest, and although Jackson was very drunk at the time he at length succeeded in overtaking the thief near Freeport. As soon as he got within reaching distance he commenced vigorously pummeling the fugitive with an oar, until the latter was only too willing to return to shore. In coming back Jackson hoisted sail, but a squall striking the boat she was capsized and the occupants thrown overboard, and they would doubtless have been drowned had not the steamer Teaser come to their rescue. As soon as the steamer landed at the wharf, the thief jumped off and made his escape. The Intelligencer says the man was out in a sailboat "enjoying a sail." We hardly think that either of the parties enjoyed the sail very much.

GOOD LAND.--Two or three miles east from Lake Washington, and about ten miles from this city, is a large tract of land known as the big burn, where many years ago a forest fire almost cleared the land ready for the plow. The portion of this cleared land through which the road from Lake Washington to Squak Slough runs, is of poor quality, but a short distance from this road are tracts where the land is of good quality, well watered, and in many places all ready for the plow. This body of land is but a short distance from this city, with a good road leading to Lake Washington, and is probably the best opportunity for a settlement in the county. Last week, a man selected a home on this tract, this being the first settlement on it. There is room for hundreds of families to settle on this land.

SCARED.--This afternoon a drunken man attempted to convince three other men, near the South school building, that he was a pugilist, when one of the men drew a revolver and said he would shoot him, at the same time pointing the weapon high into the air and firing. This frightened the would-be pugilist, and he commenced running at the top of his speed. The other man followed and continued firing, holding the revolver very high, as before. At each discharge the fugitive made a tremendous leap, doubtless thinking his end at hand. He continued his run to Justice Scott's office, and complained of the other man, who was assessed $5 and costs for the innocent amusement of firing within the city limits.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.--About 10 o'clock this morning, a drunken Swede stopped at the cabin of Geo. Miller, a short distance from town, and producing a bottle, invited Miller to have a drink. The parties had several drinks together, when suddenly the Swede, doubtless crazy with liquor, produced a club and proceeded to use it freely on Miller declaring his intention of killing him. After being severely clubbed Miller at length drew a pistol and shot his assailant twice in the left side, which had the effect of causing the Swede to beat a hasty retreat. From the agility he displayed in getting away it is presumed that he is not dangerously wounded. No arrests have been made.

IN WANT.--There is a family living in a small house at the northwest corner of the county building, in destitute circumstances. The father is confined to his bed with sickness and has no way of providing for the wants of his family. Yesterday some Christian people visited the family and provided for their immediate wants, but other such visits will be necessary to prevent suffering. One of our grocery dealers has been supplying the wants of the family in a quiet way for some time past. Here is the opportunity for the practice of benevolence, where it is needed.

DUCKS.--A gentleman who came to this city from Lake Washington last evening, reports large numbers of ducks at Union Bay. They appeared quite tame, allowing the boat to pass near them.

IN JUSTICE SCOTT'S COURT TO-DAY, John Smith was fined $1 and costs for disorderly conduct. Paid. Indian Jack was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly. Sent up. George Cummings was fined $5 and costs for shooting within the city limits. Sent up in default of payment.

The Presbyterian Church has just given a call to the Rev. James White, late of Ione City, Cal, who has been supplying for them during the past month. The Rev. gentleman has declined to accept, and purposes, we understand, to return in a few days to the Golden State.

St. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.--From the Vancouver Independent of September 5th the following is taken in reference to the above named institution which was destroyed by fire last Sunday afternoon: "The Sisters of Charity bought the building (which was a mere shell and erected in 1855,) on the 6th of March, 1868, entirely refitting and repairing it. It was successively used as an orphan and lunatic asylum, till the lunatic patients were transferred to Steilacoom when it was transformed into a hospital. In 1868 a large addition to the building was erected, and in 1873 the then existing hospital was nearly doubled in size by the addition of a new building at the east end of the hospital. For many years it was the only hospital in Oregon or Washington, and drew its patients from far and near. As Portland grew and built its hospitals its importance as a public institution declined. It cared for during the years it has been used as a hospital about 1,500 patients, male and female; besides, it has been the home of about 50 poor old men. Considering the amount of blankets, bedspreads, clothing, etc., burned, and the furniture damaged and destroyed, the total loss will not fall short of $5,000."

OVERBOARD.--Last Thursday night a lady passenger on the Fanny Lake in going ashore at Yealer's wharf, in attempting to pass from the steamer to another boat alongside, by a mistake in calculating the distance, fell between the steamers and into the water. When she arose to the surface she managed, by a vigorous use of her arms, to keep to the surface until her outcries attracted the attention of a gentleman, who rescued her. She was taken to her home at the lower end of Commercial street and cared for by her family.

RIFLE PRACTICE.--The Secretary of the Seattle Rifle Association has received a circular, inviting the members of the Association to attend a target practice at Victoria, on the 12th, 13th and 14th days of the present month. There are a large number of cash prizes offered.

THE delegates to the Republican convention at Vancouver were instructed in favor of Irving Ballard, of this city, for Prosecuting Attorney.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

IMPORTANT ROAD.--At the August term of the County Commissioners' court, W. W. Perrigo, Francis Tuttle and Adam Tosh were appointed to view a road beginning near section 16, township 25, connecting the road from Lake Washington to Tolt with Newcastle. Last week the viewers finished their work and have secured a route nine miles in length, with no streams to cross but two, and these have gravelly beds and do not require bridges. This road will connect Tolt and Squak Slough and the settlement on the east shore of Lake Washington with the railroad at Newcastle and will open the way to some good farming lands. It begins at a point on the line between sections 9 and 10, township 25, then crosses section 16, the west side of 22 and 27, thence across 34, then the line crosses into township 24, the length of sections 3 and 10, near Dolan's Prairie, across 14, 23 and 36, and strikes Coal Creek at the P. H. Lewis' claim. The work donated on this road by settlers who reside near it, will go a long way toward opening it.

JUSTICE'S COURT.--In Justice Scott's Court last evening, John Peterson was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. Paid. This morning Bill Berg paid $1 and costs for a plain drunk. Henry Sulk was tried and fined $15 and costs for disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. It seems that Sulk, whose name is something else, had been imbibing very freely and proceeded to make night hideous with sounds which he persisted in calling singing. Upon the officer ordering him to be quiet, he declared his intention to "clean out" that individual, and sailed in as well as the load he was carrying would permit. In about ten minutes he quieted the officer by allowing that individual to enlarge his cranium, when Sulk went to the city lock-up, and was tied to-day, with the result above stated. He will work out the fine.

We learn that Rev. Jas. White has accepted a call from the Presbyterian congregation of Ventura, Cal., and will soon return to that State and enter upon the duties of this new charge.

PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL.--This hospital, which has been fitted up in this city by the Sisters of Charity at considerable expense, is now open for patients, as will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere. Those needing medical treatment and the surroundings of a home, will find this hospital all they desire.

A shark was hauled ashore at Branford, Conn. After 5 hours, and when he seemed dead, he snapped off a finger that was stuck in his mouth.

DESERVED.--By an exchange we learn that Judge Bennett, of the Black Hills district, Dakota, a former law partner of Judge Lewis, has received the Republican nomination for Delegate to Congress from Dakota. Judge Bennett has the entire confidence of all parties and classes where he is known.

MANY of our citizens are improving the fishing season, and all sorts of boats are in demand by fishing parties. The number of fish caught usually depends upon the skill of the fishermen, though some parties yesterday failed to catch any salmon on account of the roughness of the weather.

MUNIFICENT.--The citizens of Portland have thus far contributed $4,395 for the relief of the sufferers by the yellow fever in the South. A distribution of $2,000 to Memphis, and $1,000 each to New Orleans and Vicksburg, has been made. This is a very creditable donation from so small a city.

SING VEREIN GERMANIA!--You are requested to meet to-night at Chas. Naehar's store, "The Suffering South," by the President.

FATAL ACCIDENT.--Harry Ireland aged 12 years, son of D. C. Ireland, editor of Astorian, was kicked by a horse and killed on Saturday last at Astoria.

RETURNED.--Rev. I. Dillon, who has been attending the Oregon M. E. Conference at Salem, Ogn., returned to his home in this city last evening, having been assigned to this charge for another year.

REFUSED TO WORK.--This afternoon some of the prisoners in the city lock-up refused to go on the streets to work. As there seems to be no remedy provided for such cases, they were locked up and will be dieted upon bread and water until the city council meets to-morrow evening and decides what course to pursue.

REGATTA.--The regatta which was arranged for this forenoon was delayed for want of wind, has not yet taken place. Doubtless the race will be run to-morrow if there is sufficient wind. The boats that were on hand are the City of Olympia, of Olympia, the Nip and Tuck and the Lena, of Belltown, the Amelia, of Seattle and the Merra, of Port Blakely.

THE regatta will take place to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, the wind permitting.

THE air-gun team assemble nightly at the Centennial for practice with Jim's beautiful silver-plated air-gun, which he has brought from New York at great expense. His is the only shooting gallery in the city, and the lovers of such sport will find everything there for their accommodation, including the celebrated "Gambrinus" in bottles.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL.—By invitation we yesterday visited the Hospital of the Sisters, just established in this city, and our surprise was only equalled by our delight at the perfection of this institution. The situation is one of the most sightly and beautiful in the city, upon an elevation which commands a fine view of the bay, good air and pure water in abundance, with a large flower and vegetable gardens and ample grounds. The rooms are all neatly and comfortably, and some for private parties luxuriously furnished, and nothing is wanted to secure to the patients everything necessary to their care and comfort. We have never seen an institution of the kind so complete in all its arrangements, nor one conducted with such devotion and tender solicitude for the unfortunate guests, whether paupers or those who pay for their care. Every room is well lighted and ventilated, and as clean as it is possible to keep them.

MISSIONARY BOAT.—For some years, the Puget Sound Baptist Association has been considering the plan of building and equipping a boat for the purpose of visiting the various logging camps and other points on the Sound where there are no regular church services. This plan could not be carried out for want of funds. But at the session of the association in the city last week, Judge Greene and Elder Ludlow made a written proposition to the Association to build, equip, run and maintain a steam launch, free of expense to the Association, their object being to reach, at logging camps, fishing stations and farming settlements, many persons with the Gospel who would not be reached otherwise. Their generous offer was accepted, and a donation made to them of $50 in money and of the maps and charts belonging to the Association.

PHONOGRAPH.—This evening our citizens will have an opportunity to hear this wonderful invention of the age in Yessler's Hall. The phonograph, or talking machine, is an instrument which arrests and retains sound, until the person working the instrument desires to reproduce it. Thus the words of a person, with all the inflections and sounds of the voice, may be preserved a hundred years and then produced in the hearing of those who never saw the speaker. Mr. Jno. H. Guild will present the instrument in Yessler's Hall this evening and to-morrow afternoon and evening. See the advertisement.

NORTH PACIFIC RURAL.—The September number of this farm journal has been laid upon our table. This number contains much valuable information to the farmer and merits a good support from those interested in agriculture. Among its contributors are some of our most practical men, and their experience must prove of value to others. Give it the support it deserves and allow the publishers to make it still more attractive.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. M. L. Cavanaugh is building a residence on Third St, between Union and University. Rev. J. F. Ellis is finishing a small but neat residence on Front street, between Lenora and Virginia streets. W. N. Bell has just completed a residence on Front street, near Bell street. A number of other additions and improvements are being made to residences in various parts of the city.

DOVES.—A gentleman of this city takes great interest in doves. He keeps quite a number of them, and studies their habits. Of late he has noticed that their number is slowly decreasing. He wonders what becomes of them. A sleek, fat, cat at the Warehouse on Buzby's wharf can explain the mystery, if she will.

GENEROUS.—Messrs. L. P. Smith & Son, jewelers, have offered a lady's gold watch, beautifully enamelled cases, to the young lady showing the greatest advancement at the present term of the Territorial University, the prize to be awarded at the close of the examination. This will prove a great inducement for the young ladies of that school to be diligent in their studies, and no doubt they will improve rapidly during the term. The premium was announced several days ago and the ladies are already bending their energies to the task. The prize is on exhibition at the store of L. P. Smith & Son, Front street, and no doubt the fair contestants will spare the time from their studies to view the watch occasionally. Who will come out now with a prize for the boys?

SMOKE.—Last evening, the atmosphere became heavy and the smoke settled so thick as to be almost stifling. This morning and today the fog and smoke together were so dense as to give the sun the appearance of a great ball of fire. This state of the atmosphere will probably continue until the wind rises, and a good rain extinguishes the forest fires.

TRAIL CUTTERS.—Eight lodges of Lemhi Indians were employed for two months during the summer in cutting a trail through the dense timber from the mouth of the middle fork of Salmon river to the head of Lost river, a distance of more than sixty miles. The trail is broad and well opened; logs four feet in diameter being cut twice in two and rolled out of the way. The object was undoubtedly to provide a passage of escape for the Indians, one way or other, as might be necessary.

Before the Indian raids, Messrs. Murphy had in John Day valley a band of three thousand sheep, said to have been among the best in Oregon, and were estimated to be worth in the neighborhood of $10,070. Of these but 200 are left, the rest having been killed by the Indians. In one pile there was not less than 600, some with their throats cut, others with the hamstrings cut. P. R. Murphy, one of the owners, was among the first killed in Umatilla county. A herder by the name of Gentry was killed at the same time. P. R. Murphy leaves a wife and three children in San Francisco.

SUICIDE.—On the last trip of the steamship Great Republic from San Francisco to Portland, a passenger named Jack Kelly, who had been drinking freely at the bar until his eyes had the wild look of a maniac, jumped overboard and was drowned on the second night out. A man who saw him take the fatal leap says Kelly caught a rope as he disappeared in the darkness over the side of the vessel, and begged for help, then dropped into the ocean just in front of the wheel, and was probably instantly killed. A boat was lowered, but the most diligent search failed to discover any trace of the unfortunate man.

From the Daily of Thursday.

FIRE IN PORTLAND.—On Tuesday afternoon, a fire originating in a Chinese wash house, consumed four old wooden buildings on Front street immediately in front of the O. S. N. Co.'s dock. An incident of the fire is related by the Standard: The firemen fought their way into the interior and their surprise can be better imagined than written, when they heard a voice calling, "For God's sake help me out, I am burning up." Search was made and a fellow known as "Dublin" was found wedged in between the two buildings with the flames curling about his head and feet. An axe was brought into use and the fellow released from his terrible position, but not until his neck and breast were literally roasted, and all that saved him from instant death was he spray from the steam as it struck the wall near his head. In cutting away the planking, one sprang back cutting an ugly gash in the forehead, from which the blood flowed freely. He had been indulging in a drop of whiskey and was asleep in the upper story, and was not awakened until it began to get too warm to be comfortable, and while warding around in the smoke, dropped in between the two houses.

NEW BOATS.—Messrs. Tierney & Co., have the contract for building two boats for the U. S. Revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott. One of these boats is a cutter, 25 feet in length by 6 feet, four inches beam, and 2 feet, 4 inches depth. She is being built at the boat yard of John Yarno. Her keel is of Eastern oak, her frame of Steilacoom oak and her sides of Puget Sound cedar. The model and workmanship are very fine. Mr. Yarno has built some very fine boats, since his residence in Seattle. The other boat, a dingy 18 feet in length, by 4 feet, 10 inches in beam and 1 foot 10 inches deep, is being built at Robinson's boat yard. The workmanship on both of these boats is a credit to our city. Messrs. Tierney & Co. are having these boats built by others because of the large amount of work they have on hand.

CLOSES.—The series of revival meetings which have been held in this city for two weeks past under the direction of Rev. H. W. Brown, the evangelist, closed last evening. The subject of the discourse was "The man who came to the wedding with his own clothes on." At the close of the address, a short praise meeting was held, when many of the church members present, and a number of converts, bore testimony to the instructions in bible truths they had gained during the meetings. We learn that Mr. Brown goes to Walla Walla from this city.

CALLED.—We learn that Trinity Church of this city has given a call to Rev. Geo. Herbert Watson, at present of San Francisco.

NEW MAP.—Messrs. Eastwick, Morris, & Co., have laid upon our table their new map of Southeastern Washington Territory, just issued. The map is accurately compiled from official surveys, and is especially valuable for persons who are seeking locations in the southeastern portions of the Territory. For sale in sheets, $1 each.

PREACHING.—Rev. W. Hurlburt, a member of the Oregon Conference now on his way to Whidby Island, will preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church this evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend.

WORK was begun yesterday on the cribbing along the beach for the railroad, the workmen beginning at the head of the bay. This will be of great advantage in keeping the railroad in repair, when the track is moved from the long trestle to the solid cribbing.

LECTURE.—Rev. John Reed, Presbyterian minister for Victoria, has been secured to deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, in the Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday evening next. Subject: "Dr. Livingston, the African explorer." Mr. Reed is a fine speaker and will merit a large audience. This will be the seventh of the course of eight lectures announced by the Association some months ago.

A HARD CASE.—A terrible ten-year-old child was up before the police magistrate at Victoria on Monday. It was proven that he has been in the habit of cutting the feet off chickens and picking their eyes out with a pin; of cutting duck's feet off and making them walk on the bleeding stumps, of threatening to cut his sister's hands off and standing over her with a knife almost cutting her throat; of setting fire to houses, and in short of always doing something outrageous and cruel. He was committed to jail preparatory to being sent to a lunatic asylum.

JOHNSON, THE MURDERER.—Chief Besser, of Portland, has received a dispatch from a San Francisco detective: "I have arrested Wilson, who escaped from your State prison. Think he is Johnson. Do you want him?" On the last trip of the Republic to San Francisco, several parties took passage from St. Helena's and it is thought that Johnson might have escaped in that way.

THE CHIEFS CONFESS.—The Portland Standard learns from Mr. Joseph Weathers that the Indian chiefs arrested by Gen. Howard at the council held at the Umatilla agency on Monday week, have all confessed and given the names of those Indians who took part in the late war. There are thirty-six of them and they will be arrested and punished accordingly, we hope. The chiefs were all released from custody.

GOVERNOR OF OREGON.—The Oregon Legislature canvassed the votes for Governor, which resulted as follows: Thayer, 16,201; Beckman, 16,132; Wilkins, 1,432. Whereupon it was declared that W. W. Thayer was duly elected Governor for the ensuing four years. Gov. Thayer was inaugurated on Wednesday morning.

DIED.—In this city this morning, Eliza, infant daughter of August and Julia Mehlhorne. Funeral at the Congregational Church to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

THE PHONOGRAPH.—Mr. Guild last evening gave an exhibition of his talking phonograph, at Yessler's Hall, in the presence of a very fair audience. This wonderful invention performed fully all that was claimed for it, although many were disappointed in the volume of the sound, forgetting that the machine is yet in its infancy. So many descriptions of the invention have already been published in our columns that we will not again afflict one on our readers, but recommend all to go and see it work for themselves.

JUSTICE'S COURT.—In Justice Snyder's Court this morning, Chas. Custer, of Newcastle, was tried on a charge of assault and battery upon the person of Michael Welsh, of the same place. The jury, after hearing the testimony, returned a verdict of not guilty and ordered that the costs be paid by plaintiff, as provided for in cases of malicious prosecution for trivial causes.

A TERRIBLE fire has been raging on the Washington Territory side of the Columbia river, above Astoria, burning fences, houses, and whatever would burn, and endangering human life. It is supposed to have caught from a fire set for the purpose of burning underbrush. This fire spread and communicated to the forest, when it travelled rapidly, leaving destruction in its path.

PREMIUM lists for the approaching fair can be obtained at the office of Justice Scott, Secretary of the association.

A London policeman aged 22, lately reported seven fires within 30 hours. Such amazing activity excited suspicions that he had originated the fires himself for the information reward, and this being proved to the satisfaction of a jury, he has gone to penal service for fifteen years.

By order of the Territorial Republican Central Committee. DANIEL BAGLEY, Chairman of Committee.

HOME INDUSTRY.

Every person in the community is bound self-interest as well as social obligation to give the preference to articles of home production over those of foreign manufacture, all other things being equal. No country can prosper with the balance of trade against them, and it is a perpetual drain upon their resources, to buy abroad what can be produced at home cheaper and better.

Malt Liquors

Have become articles of general consumption here as in every other part of the United States and the demand is constantly increasing. The fact has been demonstrated in all Western communities that the decrease of the use of ardent spirits, and the consequent decrease of drunk cases, is in proportion to the substitution of wholesome beer. No country is better adapted to the production of good beer than this. The climate is favorable, the hops produced are of the best quality, and the water is abundant. There is no part of the world where a better quality of draft beer is produced, free from all deleterious drugs, than by the North Pacific Railroad Brewery, at Steilacoom, the North Pacific Brewery, and the Seattle Brewery at this place. Neither of these Breweries resort to the practice of "doctoring" to give their liquors flavor or the appearance of age, which cannot be guaranteed for any of the articles imported from California or elsewhere. It is therefore a prudential sanitary measure, no less than political economy to patronize our home breweries.

THE CITY

GOLD! GOLD!!

PROSPECTORS STRIKE $20 PER DAY THIRTY MILES FROM SNOHOMISH CITY. GRAND RUSH TO THE DIGGINGS.

For some months past parties have been prospecting along and near the Skykomish river, believing that there were valuable diggings somewhere in that locality.

And now the report comes from Snohomish City that these fortune-seekers have been rewarded, in finding diggings about 30 miles from Snohomish City, in the river bed, that pay $20 per day to the man, using only pans in cleaning.

The citizens of that little city were so electrified by the news of the discoverers, that report says many of the prominent men of the city left their business and proceeded at once to the diggings to locate claims.

Our informant, who arrived in this city last night from the Skagit on the Fanny Lake, says the news was brought to La Conner from Snohomish City by gentlemen who are perfectly reliable, and the report is believed at La Conner.

If the report is not exaggerated, and the miners are actually taking out $20 per day to the man with no mining machinery, this will doubtless prove one of the best paying mines on the coast.

The steamer Fanny Lake left for Snohomish City at noon today, and on her return to-morrow we will doubtless learn the full particulars of this new and wonderful discovery.

NEEDED.—There are many persons in this Puget Sound country who have small amounts of money they are desirous of loaning on good security, but the amounts are too small in many cases to loan singly.

Returned.—Mrs. Dr. Maynard, an old lady about 70 years, and one of the first settlers of this city, returned from the Yakima country last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. Catvert, who has been absent several months, visiting friends in the Eastern States, will return on the Dakota.

LOST IN THE FOG.—Yesterday morning three young men of this city took a row boat and went out on the bay to troll for salmon.

FOR SMOKED HALIBUT pickled halibut, napes and fins, go to J. B. Bean, Front street.

THE air-gun team assemble nightly at the Centennial for practice with Jim's beautiful silver-plated air-gun, which he has brought from New York at great expense.

so the advice of the first speaker was followed, and the young men proceeded to run her home as they supposed. After a long and steady pull in the bay the dim outlines of the shore appeared in sight, and soon they were at the land below Belltown, but none of them recognized the place.

THROUGH an oversight the names of the general managing committee for the Fair, were omitted from the premium lists. The committee are as follows: C W Lawton, Geo W Hall, W A Jennings, Wm Meydenbauer and Roswell Scott.

GRATEFUL.—We are pleased to see that the editor of the Press is not so utterly lost to all sense of decency as the general tone of his paper would indicate.

THE Fanny Lake brought up from La Conner last night 30 tons of grain for Schwabacher Bros & Co.

THE REGATTA.—The boats that have been waiting for a breeze to run the race for the $100 purse, cast off from a line at the end of Marshal's wharf at 2:30 this afternoon.

Returned.—Mrs. Dr. Maynard, an old lady about 70 years, and one of the first settlers of this city, returned from the Yakima country last Wednesday.

WILL CURE CONSUMPTION.

To all suffering from the following diseases a ray of hope is offered through the kindness of a missionary friend who has sent me the formula of a purely vegetable medicine which has long been used by the native medicine men of Hindostan—for the positive and radical cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Throat and Lung difficulty, General Debility, Loss of Manhood and all Nervous Affections.

Its power has been tested in hundreds of cases without a failure. I now feel it my sacred duty as far as possible to relieve human misery and will send the recipe—FREE OF CHARGE—to any person who may desire it with directions for using. Sent by return mail by addressing with 2 stamps naming this paper, Dr. O. R. Brigham, Drawer 26, Utica, N. Y.

IMPROVED WHEAT BLEND
From a Distinguished Physician.
NO single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind, one or more and sometimes all yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust constitutions. Ignored because but little understood by most physicians, it is easily attacked by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it the usual treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into the hands of once competent and successful physicians, the new and unheard of method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his Radical Cure has won my hearty approval. I believe it likely to succeed when all the usual remedies fail, because it strikes at the root of the disease, viz., the catarrh, and by its direct application to the nasal passages, its action is based on certain fixed facts, and under the vital force, as too often exhausted, must, in the great majority of cases, effect a cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE
MAY safely claim to be one of the few popular remedies receiving the approval of medical gentlemen, who, in private, not only freely recommend it but use it in their families in preference to any of the preparations usually prescribed by physicians.

UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION.
GENTLEMEN.—We have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year, and can testify candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have to learn the first complaint of a patient, we are not in the habit of recommending patent medicines, but your preparation meets the wants of thousands, and we think those afflicted should be convinced of its great merits that their suffering will be relieved. We have been in the drug business for the past twenty years, and have sold everything for Catarrh, but yours leads all the rest. If you see proper you can use this letter or any part of it.

COLLINS' VOLTAGE PLASTER
An Electro-Galvanic Battery combined with a highly medicated Stramonium Plaster, forming the best Plaster for pains and aches in the World of Medicine.

ELECTRICITY
As a grand curative and restorative agent is not equalled by any element or medicine in the history of the healing art. Unless the vitality has fled the body, restoration by means of electricity is possible. It is the last resort of all physicians and surgeons, and has rescued thousands, appearing in a timely hour, when no other human agency could have succeeded. This is the leading curative element in this Plaster.

BALSAM AND PINE.
The healing properties of our own fragrant balsam and pine and the gum of the East are too well known to require description. The grateful, healing, soothing, and strengthening properties are known to thousands. When combined in accordance with late and important discoveries in pharmacy, their healing and strengthening properties are increased tenfold. In this respect our Plaster is the best in use without the aid of electricity.

TWO IN ONE.
Thus combined we have two grand medical agents in one, each of which performs its function and unifies more benefit than any liniment, lotion, wash, or plaster ever before compounded in the history of medicine. Try one. Price, 25 CENTS.

Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canada, and by WELLS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.
