Telegraphic News.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Dispatch.

EASTERN STATES.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 23.—The Savannah Benevolent Association, formerly the Metropolitan Fire Company, resolved to-day to ask aid from abroad for the sick and destitute. All contributions, whether money, provisions, or clothing, addressed to J. H. Estell, president of the Metropolitan Benevolent Association, will be acknowledged.
CHARLESTON, Sept. 23.—No epidemic here. There have been four scattering yellow fever cases given to persons who communicated with the quarantine and refugees from Savannah. The fever shows no sign of spreading.
CHARLESTON, Sept. 24.—No further cases of yellow fever during the last three days, and it is in a measure subsiding.
SAVANNAH, Sept. 23.—Interments to-day, forty, of which thirty are yellow fever cases.
SAVANNAH, Sept. 24.—Interments to-day, 23.
AUGUSTA, Sept. 23.—There are 600 cases of yellow fever at Brunswick. The people are in most destitute condition, and without food, physicians, or nurses. A dispatch states that it is impossible to exaggerate the frightful condition of affairs, and that some of the people will die of starvation unless speedy aid is rendered.
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 23.—The Mayor of Brunswick, Georgia, telegraphs an appeal to the Howard Association for aid. He states that out of a population of 2,500, there are 600 cases of yellow fever, including three of the fifteen physicians and nurses. The association to-day forwarded skilled physicians and nurses.
BALTIMORE, Sept. 23.—The general agent of the Western Associate Press, in reply to your application for an official statement in regard to the prevalence of yellow fever in this city, we positively state there is no case of yellow fever in Baltimore. All the cases of typhoid malarial fever that prevailed at Fell's Point, twelve in number, were removed to the marine hospital Wednesday, and no new cases have occurred within sixty hours Signed,

FERDINAND C. LATROBE,
Mayor of Baltimore.
James A. Sireet, M. D., Commissioner of Health.
Some 68 persons were removed to the marine hospital, but entire families were removed, in which a single case of fever prevailed.
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 24.—Two successive shocks of earthquake were distinctly felt in this city at 12 o'clock to-night. They were so heavy that the alarm was general throughout the whole city; people left their beds, buildings were shaken, chandeliers broken. The first impression was a boiler explosion. No serious damage was done as far as is ascertained.
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—A scheme of manufacturing crooked whiskey in vinegar works has been discovered in several localities in this city, and various works have been seized. H. B. Miller, distiller, was released from jail this morning on paying a fine of one thousand dollars, he having served out his three months' term.
LOUISVILLE, Sept. 24.—Mr. Crouse will make a race to run Ten Brock against time on Wednesday next. The event occasions unusual excitement here.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24.—An attempt was made to rob the second north Bank in this city by three men, as yet unknown. When watchman Samuel Lewis called at the bank about 9 o'clock this evening he was seized, gagged, handcuffed and placed in the next room on a bed. A short time after a young brother of the watchman came to the bank by appointment, having arranged to spend the night there, his coming alarmed the burglars and they escaped by leaping out of the windows. The alarm was immediately given and the men pursued. Lieut. Cronin, of the police encountered them when they fired upon him wounding him seriously in two places. The men then crossed the river to Allegheny. The police kept in hot pursuit, but up to this evening they were not secured. It seems that entrance was gained to the bank by cutting thro' the hall-way partition. Early in the evening preparations were made to go to work on the safe after disposing of the watchman, whose arrival they seem to have waited.
St. Louis, Sept. 24.—A rowing match for the championship of the Mississippi River came off this P. M. between the St. Louis rowing club and the Western club, and was won by the latter. Four-oared shells 60 feet long were used; the course was from the head of Arsenal Island and return; distance about seven miles; time, 50 minutes, 19 1/2 seconds. Immense crowds of people covered the bridge and lined the shores of the river to witness the contest.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The prosecution closed in the safe burglary case. Cook, for the defence, said if the court would adjourn over until to-morrow they could make their opening and concluding testimony by the usual hour of recess; one o'clock the court adjourned.

PACIFIC COAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—A fire broke out about half-past 3 this afternoon in the building occupied as a junk store, sail loft and dwelling on Stewart street, between Market and Mission, burning off the roof. The damage is considerable.
Ten minutes after 10 last night a fire broke out in the second story of the three story frame house No. 519 Mission street. Considerable damage was done before it was extinguished. The building was occupied as a boarding-house. Loss about $2,000.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—A man named Pierce, a ship carpenter, was found dead sitting in a chair with a pistol wound in the head and a derringer lying in his lap, about noon at 1339, Sansome street. Deceased had evidently been dead for several days.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—The trial of Edward Bittenbender, a young man about 20 years old, who deliberately shot and killed his brother George on the corner of Washington and Kearney streets about a year ago, came on to-day in the 4th district court. It is claimed by the friends of Edward that he is the victim of hereditary insanity, which will probably be the defense.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

VIENNA, Sept. 23.—A difficulty has arisen because the Porte, before granting a prolongation of the armistice, desires propositions. The powers on the other hand persist in demanding a conclusion of the armistice irrespective of the condition, because as they have from the commencement insisted that the armistice was indispensable they consider it would be derogatory to make any kind of compromise on the subject. The powers also intend this attitude as a concession to Russia, she having throughout the negotiations determinedly supported an unconditional armistice. As the time of the present suspension of hostilities draws to a close the demands of the powers have become more pressing, some of them having tolerably plainly intimated that the Porte's refusal to grant an armistice would lead to the suspension of their diplomatic relations.
VIENNA, Sept. 23.—The Abend Post, official paper, speaking of the prospects of peace, says it is confirmed from authentic sources that all the great powers have come to an agreement regarding the conditions of peace to be proposed to the Porte. The programme drawn up by the British cabinet will form the basis of the proposals. Steps will now be taken without delay at Constantinople to obtain the Porte's acceptance of these conditions, and as the latter has already in principle signified its readiness to meet loyally the wishes of the European power as far as is compatible with the interests of the Turkish empire, there cannot be much doubt that peace will be soon concluded.
LONDON, Sept.—Bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day £55,000.
MADRID, Sept. 25.—The Spanish revenue officers taken prisoners by boats of the British man of war Sagamang on the 16th inst., at the time of the recapture of a trading ship which had been taken by a Spanish cutter in Gibraltar harbor, have been released by the British authorities in consequence of a protest of the Spanish consul. The Politique urges that indemnity be demanded for their illegal detention.
LONDON, Sept. 21.—Sir Garnet Woollsey and Sir T. Stepland, entrusted with special powers to represent Great Britain in the Transvaal republic, sailed for South Africa on Friday in a steamer specially chartered.
LONDON, Sept. 24.—The British ship Janion Erwin, bound from Calcutta to Demarra, is reported at Lloyds missing. It is believed she has foundered with all hands and 300 coolies.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 24.—The Porte has agreed to prolong the suspension of hostilities eight days and expresses the hope that the powers during that time will communicate the conditions of peace which they propose.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Daily News says John O'Connor Powers, member of parliament for Mayo county, etc., has resigned as a member of the executive committee of home rule confederates, and has started for the United States bearing the Irish congratulatory address on the Centennial of American independence, which he and Chas. Stewart Warnell, home rule member for Meath have been delegated to present to President Grant.
A dispatch from Vigo, dated Saturday, says Tweed and his companion Hunt are not aware that the Franklin is coming here to embark them for the United States.
FALMOUTH, England, Sept. 24.—The American bark Norway put in here in consequence of damage received in a collision on Saturday night with the bark Wave Queen, belonging to Skokholm. One seaman was killed on board the Norway. Only one person known to be saved from the Wave Queen, which disappeared.
MELBOURNE, Sept. 24.—The Dardnang, from Melbourne to Sydney, foundered near Jarvis Way during a hurricane on the 11th inst. Sixty of her passengers and crew were drowned.
It is a common thing, when a screw or staple becomes loose, to draw it out, plug up its hole with wood and re-insert it. But screws and staples so secured soon come out again. It has been found that a much better way is to fill up the holes tightly with cork. Screws and irons so secured are said to remain perfectly tight as long as when put into new wood.

THE WEST INDIES.

St. THOMAS, Sept. 5.—Business is at a complete standstill. Jacmel dates to the 26th of August say the Republic continues quiet. A decree was issued allowing all the exiles to return to their country except ex-President Domingue and his Ministers and ex-President Saget. The country is undergoing a commercial crisis. Money is exceedingly scarce, and business is completely paralyzed, especially in the Dry goods line. This state of the country is the consequence of the fearful depredations of the government of ex-President Domingue.
Advices from St. Domingo to the 1st inst. report that the revolution still continues. The government troops, commanded by Gen. Miches, were successful in the northern provinces. Porto Plata still continued besieged by the rebels, but General Miches was hourly expected to raise the siege. Provisions were abundant in Porto Plata. Five foreign vessels were at anchor in the harbor awaiting cargoes. No tobacco can come to the seaports, owing to the interruption of the roads, and all vessels arriving must wait for their cargoes until the establishment of peace. The Cubans residing in Porto Plata are leaving the country gradually, emigrating to Venezuela. The last German steamer to Lagayra took out fifty Cubans.
The Cuban emigrants to St. Domingo were welcomed in the beginning, but lately they have made themselves obnoxious by interference in politics.
Part of the rebels beaten in the northern provinces overrun the southwestern province of Azua and were approaching St. Domingo city, where fears of a siege were dispelled by the timely return of the government troops from the North. The Haytian government is aiding Gen. Espallat with arms, ammunition and money. It is hoped the revolution will be quelled in a fortnight.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

[From the Colonist.]
THERE was a mighty gathering of the race of 'fo' at Saanich yesterday. Upwards of 3000 redskins in 275 canoes were present, the tribes from Nanaimo, Cowichan, Chemamus, Burrard Inlet, Laagley, New Westminster, North and South Saanich, Beechey Bay and Nitinalt on the British side of the Straits being all represented, while the Semiamoo, Lumme and Chollams appeared for the American Siwash. The occasion of the assemblage was a grand potlatch of over $15,000 worth of goods being given away. English blankets to the value of $5000 were thrown from the top of the lodges to be scrambled for by the natives below, who stood armed with long poles stuck full of nails at one end to secure the prize as soon as it fell. In addition to these, some curious "perceeces," made by the natives themselves from the wool of the mountain sheep, were also thrown. Three hundred guns, amongst which were some very fine double-barreled pieces with percussion locks, were then flung down and caused a series of tremendous struggles which lasted in some cases for nearly an hour. Pieces of board representing sums ranging from $100 to $500 were then scrambled after the same fashion. Three brothers gave 3,500 blankets as their contribution to the grand gift "enterprise," which had all been paid for by the products of the chase. The stock of gifts being exhausted the natives all got into their canoes and left, thus ending one of the largest meetings of the kind which has taken place for some years and probably the last of any magnitude which will occur, as the rising generation of Indians seem to care little about perpetuating the customs of their forefathers, and this as well as many other ancient practices will soon be numbered amongst the things of the past. All was conducted soberly, and the Indian Superintendent, Col. Powell, and Police Superintendent Todd, who were both struck by the absence of any sign of intoxication.

Mr. Pierrepont's Name.
LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES,
LONDON, August 30, 1876.

EDITOR N. Y. HERALD:—In journals which reach me from New York I see what purports to be questions from me, sent some years ago to a "professed medium" touching family genealogy. As the matter happened long ago, I cannot state whether the report is accurate or not; but several years since I and several well known gentlemen of New York were together making investigations and applying tests to a number of so-called mediums. We were making them, not publicly, but privately, and trying to find out how much truth there was in what seemed difficult to explain. Whether it was pure deception, mesmerie jugglery or mere delusion, we could not discover, but we concluded that it was worthless at any rate, and dropped it entirely. I have never taken the slightest interest in it since.
I was quite surprised (as would the other gentlemen be) to find my private and harmless investigations made the subject of public discussion. I never tried to influence any one; I only tried to find out how the phenomena were produced, but could not, and gave it up, thinking that there was some kind of a delusion in the matter. This seemed to have been the basis of an attack about my Christian name. The "Joshua" spoken of was a simple falsehood. In my youth, my college days, and in my father's will, my name was written Munson Edwards Pierpont. I think it is now thirty-seven years since I dropped the first name. Surely no one was injured or aggrieved or cared about it. I am a direct descendant of Joseph, the third son of the Rev. James Pierrepont, of New Haven. I leave the truth, in its slow way, to overtake the lie, and the good repute, when in public and private life I have sought to earn, I leave to the just judgment of my fellow men. I venture to suggest some doubt whether even the bitter strife for Presidential power, now violent in our country, will justify such wanton attacks upon men in the public service from personal malice or for political effect.
Unless it be a crime to seek the reward of honor by the faithful discharge of public duties, it cannot be well for the government, nor for the best interests of the people, to make the holding of public office or the aspiration for public place the pretext for personal calumny. I am respectfully yours,
EDWARDS PIERREPONT.
RED CLOUD AGENCY, Sept. 19, via Fort Laramie.—The Commissioners succeeded to-day in bringing Red Cloud and his people to council. Among the prominent Indians present were Red Cloud, Little Wound, Swift Bear, Red Dog, Red Leaf, Black Coat, White Tail, Sitting Bull, Pretty Crow, Eagle Dress, Young man-afraid, and Quick Bear. Many officers from Camp Robinson attended the council, which lasted two hours.
Red Dog said the Indians were not willing to sign any paper until the young men got back from the southern country and they had a chance to go to Washington and talk face to face with the Great Father.
Bishop Whipple replied to the Indians that the Great Father wished them to sign papers binding themselves to go to the Missouri river. If they did not go to the Indian Territory they would get no more rations.
Supplies were issued to the Indians for a feast to-night, and it is thought another council may be held to-morrow.

Murad Khan Deposed.

The Turkish minister at Washington has received the following dispatch from the Turkish minister of foreign affairs at Constantinople: A cruel disease, of which the Sultan Murad Khan has been suffering ever since the tenth day of his accession to the throne, and which aggregation has been continually increasing, having put him in manifest impossibility to take any more the reins of empire, in virtue of the fetva rendered by his highness, Cherkh Ul-Islam, and in conformity to the laws regulating the exercise of sovereignty in the empire, his majesty, Sultan Hamid, presumptive heir to the imperial throne, has been proclaimed to-day emperor of Turkey.
People who imagined that ex-Queen Isabella would maintain a perfect non-interference in Spanish politics, as the price of her being suffered to return to that kingdom which he had so abused, and from which she was exiled, begin to have their eyes opened to another state of facts. The numerous Cabinet changes now pending are laid to her. A restlessness on that account begins to manifest itself, and if she values her son's peace of mind she cannot show her motherly affection for him in a better way than by leaving the kingdom at once and forever.
Gambetta is about to publish a book, written long ago—a novel, with a romantic and impressionable hero. When he wrote it, twenty years ago, some lady friend who had read the manuscript and found it charming, implored him to publish it, but he replied that he would keep it till he was forty, when he should have become a statesman and had his fill of honors, and then publish it, so as to give the impression that through all his life he had kept the faith and illusions of his youth.
McGuffin is a man of limited means; but a careful man, and one who looks ahead. He thought he would go to Philadelphia, and to estimate the cost wrote to a friend there, asking: "How much money shall I need to do the Centennial?" The answer came promptly: "Bring all the money you have, and all you can borrow." McGuffin feels reassured, but he believes the weather is too warm to go north at this season this year.—N. C. Republican.
The Rev. William Clift of Mystic, Conn., stated in a recent sermon that the period of human life had been on an average increased by at least ten years in that vicinity during the period covered by the last fifty years, the number of septuagenarians and octogenarians having so largely increased as to be almost a rule—and this mainly owing to the more temperate habits of the population.
BITTERS.—People of sardonic humor have intimated from time to time that the familiar inquiry, "What will you take to drink?" should be, for a perfect accuracy, "In what form will you have your poison?" But the truth of this jest has never been shown with such brutal nakedness as in the current chronicle of the barkeeper who, mistrusting the fatality of his brandy, keeps a solution of prussic acid on the bar for the concoction of more effective beverages. It is truth which needs to be brought to public notice occasionally by cases like the one to which we refer, that the brilliant colored fluids which decorate the average bar deprive the least of their flavor from either grape or grain, but are the fabrication of so-called "liquor compounders," and are in reality mixtures compared with which the "hell broth" of Macbeth's witches might be called an innocent and nutritious soup.
POMEROY, Sept. 20.—The steamer J. N. Roberts exploded her boilers at the wharf at 1 P. M. to-day. Several persons were injured, one supposed fatally.

Weekly Puget Sound Dispatch.

RERIAH BROWN, EDITOR.

SATURDAY . . . . . SEPT. 30, 1876.

THE SERBIAN GENERALS.— A French correspondent at Belgrade gives the following description of the four generals to whom at the present time the fortunes of the Servian army are intrusted: "Tehernayeff, the generalissimo of the Servian forces and the commander of the main column advancing in the direction of Nisch, is a man sixty years of age. During a long period of service in the Russian army he has earned an incontestible military reputation, mainly, perhaps, by contributing largely toward the successful issue of the expedition against Kohkand. Zach, who commands the troops moving on Novibazar with a view of effecting a junction with the Montenegrin contingent, is an older man than his superior, but bears bravely his 72 years. In stature he is above the average height, but his figure is now somewhat bent. His life has been spent in the study of military art, and he has acquired so great a fame for his knowledge thereof that some few years ago, he was appointed to re-organize and superintend the Academy at Belgrade. During his tenure of office in that institution he was very popular with his pupils. In 1848 he fought in the ranks of the Austrian Army in the campaign against Hungary. He speaks and writes several languages fluently. Ranoo Alimpitsch, who commands the corps on the Drina, is the Murat of the Servian army. In contrast with General Zach, whose manner, despite his extreme amiability, is somewhat cold and reserved, Alimpitsch is affable in the extreme, and he is well known throughout the army as a jovial companion. He is now about fifty years old. He began his military studies at Belgrade, and afterward continued them in Belgium. Mollie-Leschjanin, who commands the corps on the northern part of the eastern frontier, is supposed to be the handsomest man in the Servian army. He is now about forty years of age, and, like Alimpitsch, speaks French fluently."

THE EXTRADITION OF SITTING BULL.—It is reported from Washington that if Sitting Bull and his redoubtable warriors shall take refuge from the pursuit of our troops by crossing the frontier into the British Possessions our government will demand their surrender from the British government, that they may be punished for their crimes. This is, apparently, the comic aspect of our relations with the Sioux and with England. It is true that the pursuit of our troops has not yet pressed the Sioux sorely that they are in great need of a refuge. Indeed, if there were not such painful incidents in the case the country would already be comparing the pursuit of the Sioux by the troops to that famous pursuit of a wolf by a trusty hound, in which, when last seen, the hound was a little ahead. With the whole of the country open and no other obstacle to their movements than the army under Crook we do not see why the hostile Indians need trouble themselves to winter in so cold a country as Canada. That they may do so, however, seems to be deemed possible by persons who should be regarded as experts in knowledge of the habits of the Indians, and we would not oppose our opinion to their judgment. Should the Indians do this thing and should our government demand their surrender from England the world will be treated to the monumental spectacle of the age in international relations. If Secretary Fish is ever to be put beside Mr. Seward in bronze because he has been Governor and Secretary of the State, and if the artist who is to do him is still in the flesh, that artist should endeavor to catch the expression of the great Secretary when he directs his subordinates to make the requisition on the British government for four thousand Sioux, "be the same more or less." It is not a statuesque countenance in its ordinary moods, but glorified by the sublime faith in red tape that this demand will imply. One cannot say to what heights of splendor it may rise. How will England respond to this demand? Will they surrender the Sioux? Perhaps not. But she may balance the account by calling our attention to the Treaty of Washington and requiring us to prevent the invasion of her soil by hostile expeditions prepared on our soil or to pay the penalty in cash.

LAFAYETTE'S REPUBLICANISM.—In his recent speech before the French Academy, Jules Simon recalled a well-known episode of revolutionary history. According to the favorite tradition, Lafayette presented Louis Philippe to the people assembled at the Hotel de Ville, after the Three Glorious Days saying, as he pointed to the prince, "There is the best of republics." Etienne Arago has now been inconsiderate, enough to prove, on the authority of M. Sarrans, that the phrase ascribed to the General and the occasion of his uttering it are equally legendary. What Lafayette did say, in speaking of the monarch of July, was, "It is the nearest thing to a republic we could manage." Subsequently he took the opportunity afforded him by a public banquet to "rectify an expression which had been attributed to him by error in several journals." Lafayette even added, with some warmth: "It would not be for one who has declared himself, even in this age, a disciple of the American school—for the friend, the associate (if I may be so permitted to call myself) of the Washingtons, the Franklins, the Jeffersons—to say that the arrangement we effected was the best of republics, although we believed it calculated to fulfill the expectations and to promote the welfare of the nation."

The Shadow of an Ass. The Greeks had a proverb which ran thus: "To dispute on the shadow of an ass." This took rise from an anecdote which Demosthenes is said to have related to the Athenians, to excite their attention during his defence of a criminal, which was being but inattentively listened to. "A traveler," he said, "once went from Athens to Megara on a hired ass. It happened to be the time of the dog-days, and at noon. He was much exposed to the unmitigated heat of the sun; and not finding so much as a bush under which to take shelter, he bethought himself to descend from the ass, and seat himself under its shadow. The owner of the donkey, who accompanied him, objected to this, declaring to him that when he let the animal the use of its shadow was not included in the bargain. The dispute at last grew so warm that it got to blows, and finally gave rise to an action at law. After having said so much, Demosthenes continued the defence of his client; but the auditors, whose curiosity he had piqued, were extremely anxious to know how the judges decided on so singular a cause. Upon this, the orator commented severely on their childish injustice, in devouring with attention a paltry story about an ass's shadow, while they turned a deaf ear to a cause in which the life of a human being was involved. From that day, when a man showed a preference for discussing small and contemptible subjects to great and important ones he was said "to dispute on the shadow of an ass."

THE REASON.—A gentleman who held a responsible position under the government at Washington, concluded to change his lodgings. He sent one of the waiters of the hotel where he had selected apartments, after his baggage. Meeting the waiter an hour or two afterwards, he said: "Well, John, did you bring my baggage down?" "No, sah!" blandly responded the sally gentleman. "Why, what was the reason?" "Case, sah, the gentleman in de office said you had not paid your bill." "Not paid my bill? Why, that's singular; he knew me very well when he kept the Girard House in Philadelphia." "Well, mebbe," replied John, thoughtfully scratching his head, "dat was the reason why he wouldn't give me the baggage."

The French who settled in Canada formed one of the happiest, best ordered and most peaceful communities in the world, and after a history of a hundred years, and after suffering conquest by the English, that community remains French, still unabsorbed, with a life and a society and a mental atmosphere all its own. "Peter, don't you enjoy the astronomical phenomena these evenings?" said a well-to-do citizen, residing in West Harrisburg, to his colored servant, the other evening. "Clare to goodness, I never tried 'em; mush-melon's my favorite fruit!"

Modern Apothegms. Be honest and you will be poor. Be virtuous and you will be suspected. Be prosperous and you will have friends. Be unfortunate and you will have enemies.

Be tender-hearted and loving, and you will be called "a weak brother." Be deceitful and practice dissimulation and you will be noted for your shrewdness. Return evil for good, for this is the way of the world. Endure with meekness the abuse of the borrower, for abuse is your legitimate reward. Trust all men who profess friendship, for few are faithless. If you wish to gain a reputation as an independent man and a reformer, condemn the press for its "venality." Despise petty pilferings, for a man is measured by the greatness of his "grab." If you wish to be regarded as "a man of liberal views," ridicule Christianity, and always refer to the clergy with contemptuous sarcasm. If you seek the admiration of the fair sex, get yourself up regardless of expense, in borrowed attire, and act like "a man of the world." If you like to be envied by "the boys," parade your vices, for virtuous men are always stupid and unattractive. If you want to be distinguished for qualities which you do not possess, never act out your true character. If you have been guilty of a great wrong to another, always condemn a similar offense committed by others. Speak good of no man; otherwise it will be said you expect a favor from him.—Capitol.

A Pawnee Indian on Picket. We were ordered to make a detail for picket duty, and, as the Pawnees were doing nothing in particular, we thought we'd give them a turn. My sergeant took half a dozen of them with the guard, and, reaching the picket post, explained that they would be two hours on and four hours off duty. He said to the Pawnee chief: "Look at this watch. It is now six o'clock. When the short hand goes around twice, you will call me and be relieved. Do you understand me?" "Hey—hey good!" said the Indian, and stalked away. The sergeant, who was very tired, went to sleep, and was not disturbed until almost day. Then he was aroused by a hand being placed upon his shoulder. He opened his eyes, and saw the Pawnee standing over him, watch in hand. "Well, chief, what do you want?" asked the sergeant. "Pawnee heap cold, much heap stiff," replied the warrior. "Ugh! that thing (indicating the watch) must lie. Long finger (the minute hand), him all right. Short finger (the hour hand), he heap damn tired!"

The sergeant laughed, and tried to enlighten the Indian as to his mistake. "Ugh!" was all the disgusted chief would say, but he would have no more to do with the picket.—Chicago Times.

BURLINGTON HAWKEYE.—"A West Hill man went out into the kitchen last night without a lamp, to wash his hands and while groping about for a towel he ran plump into the arms of the hired girl. 'Why, Maggie, he chuckled, 'you darling little witch,' and then as he held her and crowded his mustache under her reluctant nose, the lamp lighter touched off a lamp on the side street, and by the flickering rays that fell thro' the kitchen window, the West Hill man knew his wife's aunt, who is visiting them. He started for the Black Hills at midnight."

A MINISTER in a Scotch seaport town was descending before a large audience upon the perils of unrepentant sinners as they drifted down the stream of time. He compared them to a tempest-tossed bark, bowing under the hurricane, every bit of canvas torn from its spars, and driving furiously upon adjacent breakers. At the climax of his skillfully elaborated metaphor the minister shouted, "And how, O how, shall the poor mariner be saved?" An old salt in the gallery, with his whole soul absorbed in the scene, sprang to his feet and screamed, "Let him put his helm hard down, and bear up against the waves."

On a recent occasion, as the marriage ceremony was about to be performed in a church, when the clergyman desired the parties wishing to be married to rise up; a large number of the ladies immediately rose. These new style of paniers do away with newspaper bustles, and a journal must run on its merits alone.

TERRITORIAL.

[From the Walla Walla Union.]

Under date of September 19th, Joe Keeney writes from La Grande to a friend in this city as follows: "I am doing very well, I think; had my leg newly bandaged to-day and it feels much better. Every one that has seen it says it is well set. It was broke about six inches above the pastern joint, on right leg, and bone cut out through the flesh. I was driving Warnick's Bellfounder filley, and expected to start with her to Walla Walla on the next morning. Delevan was on the track with me with another horse. We were coming down the home-stretch, he about one length ahead, but as I was coming on him his horse broke and shied across the track in front of me, and before I could stop or swing out, we came together, upsetting both sulkies. My foot, by some means was caught in the wheel and I was carried over it once—some say twice, but I think not. Besides the breaking of my leg I was otherwise badly jammed up and bruised, but am getting better."

Not long ago William N. Smith, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s agent at Waitsburg, received a package from Badger & Co., San Francisco, "C. O. D." for C. R. Hanaford, a well-known merchant at the "Burg." With the package came a letter to Mr. Hanaford from Badger & Co., stating that they had sent a package of their goods purchased for him by a Mr. Williams. A day or two afterwards a letter was received by Mr. Hanaford, from Davidson & Co. of San Francisco, informing him that they had sent him a lot of jewelry in the package forwarded by Badger & Co., also ordered by Mr. Williams. So far it is plain sailing. But the affair takes another aspect when it is known that Mr. Hanaford does not know any one by the name of Williams in San Francisco, and never gave him or any one else orders to buy goods for him of the two San Francisco firms. As Mr. Hanaford is too well known to have his word questioned in the matter, it is evident that some graceless scoundrel has been playing a confidence game in the Bay City, and using Mr. Hanaford's name.

THE SIOUX TREATY.

SPOTTED TAIL AGENCY, Sept. 26.—The treaty with the Indians of this agency was concluded this evening after a three hours council. Spotted Tail made another lengthy speech in which he insisted upon going down to the Indian Territory, first to look at the country, then to go to Washington to talk with the Great Father. At the same time he also wished a delay in signing the treaty until the present war was satisfactorily and peacefully settled. He said: I wish to have two men to help me. One is the chief minister (pointing to Bishop Whipple) and the other the Rev. Mr. Hinman, to settle the matter. You have the words of the Great Spirit and you try to live according to his will. You know this war trouble does not please the Great Spirit, and I want you to help me to rub it out. An Episcopalian minister has come here to teach us, but I don't think it is done properly. I would like to have some female ministers, dressed in black clothes, to receive the girls in a house and teach them, and to have white male ministers in black hats and coats to take the boys in another place and teach them properly. These ministers I want to take the name of things sent to us and when they come, to see that they are all there.

Blue Tee'h, Spotted Tail's father-in-law, wanted to know who was the one that was to carry their words to the Great Father, and upon Solicitor Gen. Gaylord being pointed out handed him a handsomely decorated pipe and tobacco pouch, which he said the Great Spirit had given him. He told Gaylord to present it to the Great Father at Washington as from a man who spoke at the council, and ask the Great Father to be merciful to the Indians, and pity them and help them, and let them remain in their own country.

Speeches were made by several other Indians and by Judge Gaylord, Col. Boone and Bishop Whipple. But the Indians were undecided, when Spotted Tail arose and left the council room. When outside, B. W. Raymond, a white man living among Spotted Tail's people for the last 27 years, told him if he did not sign the treaty Red Cloud would get ahead of him and derive all the advantage to be had from the treaty. Raymond then went to Red Cloud and Red Dog, of Red Cloud agency, who were outside the council room, and told them to go in and urge Spotted Tail and his people to sign. They did so, and made short but effective speeches and then withdrew. Thereupon Two Strike said the reason we are afraid to touch the pen and are setting before you is because we have been deceived so many times before. If we knew the words you told were true, we would be willing to sign every day. Then Spotted Tail addressed his people, saying, "If our friends up above," referring to Red Cloud agency, "had not signed the treaty I would help them in holding out; but as our friends up there have signed, I ask all good men who are true to come up and sign it." Half an hour later the necessary signatures were attached and the treaty was made. The Indians here all want the military agent removed and Howard reinstated.

Boss Tweed Caged.

Vigo, Spain, Sept. 26.—The U. S. steamer Franklin arrived here this morning. Tweed was much depressed when told that the Franklin was to take him to the United States. He hoped on arriving at Cuba to be got off through the assistance and influence of his friends and avoid being surrendered to the American authorities. He expressed great disappointment at the aspect. On the arrival of the Franklin Mr. Odel, acting Minister of the United States in the absence of Gen. Cushing, went on board to confer with her commander regarding the proposed transfer of Tweed and Hunt to the steamer. The intention is to remove the prisoners from their present quarters to the steamer this evening. During their confinement Tweed and Hunt were kept in separate rooms, closely guarded and not allowed to communicate with each other. Capt. Gray issued strict orders that none should be allowed to speak to them. Mr. Odel has been warned that Tweed might make away with himself rather than return to New York; the commander of the Franklin has therefore been instructed to keep him strictly confined, and to leave him no opportunity to jump overboard.

To the Voters of King County.

GENTLEMEN:—It is well known that I am again a Candidate for your suffrage at the ensuing election, for the responsible position of Auditor and Recorder of your county. Two years ago, you elected me to this position by your own free choice, for which favor I have ever since felt grateful. Having served you nearly two years, it is for you to say whether or not I merit the position another term. If I have attended to the business of the office promptly, faithfully, impartially and honestly, then I feel that I am entitled to your support again, otherwise I do not ask it. The present duties of the office prevent my making an extensive canvass among you—were it in accordance with my feelings and ideas of propriety to do so—hence this card. These desiring my re-election will protect me against false reports and political trickery. I have no fears of the truth, be it what it may.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
M. S. BOOTH, Auditor.

Notice!

To all whom it may concern:

Whereas the Commissioner of the General Land Office, in letter dated July 8, 1874, ordered that the lands in Township 22 north, range 5 east, in the district of lands for sale at Olympia, W. T., should be withheld from disposal as agricultural lands until the non-mineral character thereof shall have been fully established. And, whereas, Henry Nelson, of King county, W. T., who made pre-emption filing for land in said township and range viz: for lot 2 and n w 1/4 of s w 1/4 of section 32, now makes application to make his final entry of said land, and has filed in this office his affidavit declaring that there is not within the limits of said land, to his knowledge, any coal or other valuable mineral deposit, and that said land is essentially non-mineral land.

Now, therefore, in accordance with instructions from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, it is ordered that testimony touching the character of said described land shall be taken before the Register and Receiver of the U. Weekly Puget Sound Dispatch.

BERIAH BROWN, EDITOR. SATURDAY SEPT. 30, 1876.

Daniel McFarland, the slayer of Richardson, turned up in Chicago a few days ago. After his release from the penitentiary he went to Colorado, where he has been living for the past two years.

The Hillsboro, N. H., Messenger gives the following town meeting incident, which occurred at Fraucetown last March: The question of equalization of school money was being discussed.

A writer in Land and Water says: "I saw a curious case, recently, of what I may call the 'hereditary instinct' of animals. I was in a field in which there were some five and twenty cows and a bull grazing.

"SOLD."—A good story is told of several Boston merchants, who, with their wives are summering at a hotel not many miles from Boston.

Biddy—"Did yez ever see a finer wake, a nicer funeral, or a purtier corpse than Paddy's?" Fate—"Niver a wanst." Biddy—"And do yez know Paddy was that natural loike, had he come to life and got out of his coffin to see himself in it, be-dad he himself wouldn't have known he was dead."

"What made you quit the east?" said a man in Nevada to a new-comer. "I got into trouble by marrying a woman," was the response. "Well," said the other, "I come out here because I got into trouble by marrying only one wife. And I added a bystander, 'cause here because I got into trouble simply by promising to marry one."

Indian Ceremonies.

An intelligent correspondent of the Pittsburg Chronicle has been visiting Two Bears and the Blackfeet, at Standing Rock, on the Upper Missouri. He gives this account of a sacrifice to the Indian Devil: "A dog is killed by torture, and divided into four parts, which are put into four kettles, and set on the fire till boiled tender, or till he is supposed to be as tender as a dog ought to be. A young squaw, supposed to represent chastity, strips herself entirely nude, and to the sound of a vigorous chant by her associates, and vigorous beating on a drum or tom-tom, performs a peculiar dance, with a sidelong motion, around the fire on which are the kettles containing the pieces of dog, all the time muttering some incantation. At a signal, the young braves, or old ones either, in turn step up to one of the kettles and, reaching in hand an arm, take out a piece of boiling meat, tear off a mouthful, and swallow it. They keep taking out the scalding mess and eating it till the skin of hands, lips and mouth hang in whitened shreds; and all this time no sign of pain finds an expression on any face, and the seething morsels are slowly masticated and delicately swallowed, with a composure absolutely diabolical. The miserable dupes, like those of many another religious delusion, feel themselves the better for it."

Oratory vs. Journalism.

The day for speeches has gone with Webster, Clay, Calhoun, with a frequency, could not move this generation as they did their own age. The reason is that the press has superseded the forum. When the country was small and newspapers were few voters were obliged to depend upon public speakers for their political ideas. Mass meetings were then serious matters and had direct effect upon the canvass. Now they are mere celebrations, in which parties utter their enthusiasm. The last of the great debates was probably when Lincoln met Douglas on the stump in Illinois and argued the questions of the day in the immediate presence of the people. But speeches are not now made to be heard, but to be read. The great orator who speaks in a hall cares less for his three or four thousand auditors than for his hundred thousand readers. Another reason why oratory is becoming every year less effective in moving the people is that it is preceded by the press. Mr. Bristow made a good speech the other day in New England but his argument had all appeared before in the republican journals. Mr. Durand spoke at Hartford, but his ideas had previously been expressed in the democratic newspapers. The true field for political oratory, so far as it is to have a direct effect, is in the State Legislatures or on the floor of Congress. There personal magnetism often has an electrical influence. This was signally shown in the last session of the House, when Mr. Blaine's eloquence baffled his opponents and Mr. Knott was defeated by Mr. Hale, notwithstanding the democratic majority.

Democratic Territorial Convention.

Evening Session. Convention called to order by the chairman. On motion the convention proceeded to the nomination of a Delegate to Congress. Of the votes cast on the first ballot, Hon. J. P. Judson received 45, W. H. White 1, Capt. T. J. Stamp 8. The nomination of Mr. Judson was declared unanimous. Mr. Judson was called upon and thanked the convention for the honor it had conferred upon him. Ratification speeches were made by Judge Lancaster, W. H. White, N. T. Cato, Capt. Stamp and others. The following persons were nominated for prosecuting attorney for each of the judicial districts: First judicial district, N. T. Cato, of Walla Walla; second, Columbia Lancaster, of Clark county; third, Wm. H. White, of King county. The following persons were selected to constitute the territorial committee: First district, A. J. Cain, T. J. Stamp, L. M. Ringer; second, John M. Marphy, Henry Miles, B. F. Shaw; third, O. E. Genish, W. H. Taylor, Frank Clark.

Platform.

The committee on Platform submitted the following resolutions: Mr. President: The committee on resolutions beg leave to present the following declaration of principles: 1. Fidelity to all the principles of the Constitution of the United States and its amendments.

The delegates to the Vancouver Convention returned this morning on the Annie Stewart.

At one time Daniel Webster had a difficult case to plead, and a verdict returned against his client. One of the witnesses came to him and said: "Mr. Webster, if I had thought we should have lost the case, I might have testified a good deal more than I did." "It is of no consequence," replied the lawyer. "The jury did not believe a word you said!"

The first seeds of matrimonial discord are usually sown immediately after going to housekeeping. It is not because the tender wave of harmony no longer pulsates from soul to soul. It is because she insists on his doing the marketing immediately after breakfast, on a full stomach, when he doesn't care whether he has a canvas-back duck or a boiled dishrag for the next meal.

POPULAR.—Jack's "P. ch."

APPOINTMENTS TO SPEAK.—HON. O. JACOBS, Republican candidate for re-election, as delegate to Congress, has made the following appointments for public speaking:

N. McConaha, W. R. Andrews, W. A. Inman, and Hon. O. Jacobs, Republican candidate for Congress, which were received with enthusiasm. During the speaking a large cannon was fired at short intervals.

BURGLARY.—This morning, about 2 o'clock, a window in the jewelry store of Mr. Charles Nacker, on Commercial street, was broken in, and a tray containing a quantity of tools, and some watches which were there for repairs, was stolen. The burglary was discovered shortly thereafter, and a man named Follier, who had been behaving in a suspicious manner, was arrested. On examining his room a watch, recognized as one of those stolen, was found, and the stolen tools were afterwards found buried in the sawdust, where he had been observed digging. Follier had his examination before Justice Scott this morning, and in default of bail in the sum of $4,000, was committed to await the action of the District Court.

The prizes to be awarded the 1st of January by a committee of three, chosen by the pupils from among the public school teachers. These competing for the same prize will write upon the same subject, which will be announced the first of December. Each competitor will be required to make a written statement that the composition he may hand in is his own best work.

THE Royal Marionettes will not be here till Wednesday, October 3d, when they will give their first performance at Yesler's Hall, the stage in which has been enlarged to accommodate the performers. The company embraces twenty-two people, ten tons of scenery, etc. They will give three performances, and on Friday afternoon a matinee. See advertisement elsewhere.

THE buildings along the west side of Commercial street, from Mill and Washington, are being raised to the level of Coleman's building on the corner, and the street is being raised to the same grade by dumping gravel on it.

DIED.—On the 27th inst., in this city, Mrs. Sarah Brazen, wife of Mr. Nicolas Brazen, funeral to take place at the Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow (Friday) at 2 o'clock.

From the Daily of Friday.

THE Coast Survey schooner Fauntleroy will leave here to-day to continue the work of surveying along the sound.

As will be seen by their advertisement in another column, L. P. Smith & Son, firm of jewelers who were in business here formerly, but who have been in California for some time past, have returned to this city, and opened a store in Reinig's building on front street. They were the pioneer jewelers of this place and their return to their old stamping ground is a source of congratulation to our citizens.

We had the pleasure of a call this morning from Mr. F. P. Kelly, agent for Miller & Richmond, type-founders, Edinburgh, Scotland, who have recently established an agency in San Francisco, principally for the sale of their extra hard metal Scotch type, which is rapidly coming in favor among the printers of this country. Mr. Kelly is soliciting orders for the firm which he represents.

THE large boom of logs belonging to Colman's mill broke this forenoon, and some 800,000 feet of logs went adrift. By the use of steamers and small boats nearly the whole of them were saved.

The Isthmus Canal.

[From the N. Y. Herald.]

An isthmus ship canal, by which vessels of any size could pass from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean, was an important point in our national schemes and dreams of commercial grandeur in the days when the project from the Suez Canal seemed the vaguest possible speculation. But the Suez Canal has been made, an enormous tonnage is passing through it yearly—while our great project has almost dropped out of men's thoughts, and though the government still maintains some sort of traditional relation to the great idea it is not likely that an economical democratic Congress would give twenty-five cents for all the isthmuses and the two oceans together. Such is the consequence of economy when parties have it badly with a view to political effect. It will not answer to say that the Suez Canal was built because it was in the soil of "effete" and "unprogressive" Egypt, and that ours was forgotten because we are so tremendously progressive and energetic and wide awake. We may better say that they had peace and we had war, and as we may always say of such great projects, "These are imperial works and worthy kings," we may say here that the Khedive played the sovereign handsomely in his princely encouragement of a great enterprise, while we, the sovereign people, played the same character very meanly in similar relation. Now however, the isthmus canal project is brought to the attention of the world in new relations. There has recently been organized in Paris a body especially for the preliminary study of this subject, which body has ostensibly strictly geographical relations, but the practical nature of which is guaranteed by the fact that its President is M. Ferdinand de Lesseps, who made the Suez Canal. The Vice President is Vice Admiral Ronciere le Noury, and the Secretary M. Leon Drouillet, an engineer. The nucleus of the body thus formed is a committee of the Paris Geographical Society, which invites the co-operation of all other geographical societies, in the world, specifically to determine by minute study of the geography of the isthmus at what point and in what conditions it is possible to make the canal. This body starts, of course, from the assumption that the enterprise has not hitherto been effected because of the contradictions involved in the numerous surveys made and because of the impossibility of reconciling the various interests related to these surveys, and it further assumes that the very contradictions involved are an evidence of insufficient study of the country. Its proposition is to organize, therefore, at present simply for the thorough geographical study of the district. Its labor will certainly have the sympathy and encouragement of all who desire the success of the more substantial points of national progress.

THE hostile savages are covertly creeping back to the agencies to be fed during the winter, so as to be better prepared for the next summer's campaign. So little is known by the military authorities of the Indians really engaged in the Sioux war that most of Sitting Bull's warriors are not only likely to escape punishment but to be received with open arms. The arrest of John Grass, the Chief of the Blackfeet at Standing Rock, has created a sensation, John protesting his innocence of the charges against him with a vehemence that is sure to touch the hearts of those who deal with the gentle savage.

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—The unfinished Washington Monument is now one hundred and seventy-four feet high. It was begun in 1848, more than a quarter of a century ago, and until this spring it stood in the centre of an unsightly square of mud, which is now a pleasant park. It has cost, so far, two hundred thousand dollars. Congress, at its last session, voted two hundred thousand dollars towards its completion; but a circular of the Monument Association informs us that this sum is not sufficient for the purpose, and was not intended, in fact, to complete it, and the society appeals to the generous and patriotic to send in subscriptions in order that the shaft may soon be finished. Would it not be well to publish a statement of the estimated cost, and the time required to make an end of this too long delayed work? If this were known no doubt renewed zeal could be aroused to secure the sum needed, aside from the gift of Congress, to finish it. How much money does the society require?

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

[From the Colonist.] It is the intention of the Local Government to immediately undertake a complete and exhaustive survey of those portions of the district of New Westminster liable to periodic inundation. In order to effect this Mr. E. Dewdney, C. E., will leave by to-day's steamer and at once proceed to organize a party for that purpose. The losses of the settlers have been so serious of late years that the object is highly commendable and should the project be ascertained to be practicable and within the financial reach of the Province a large influx of settlers and a corresponding increased amount of wealth must be the inevitable result. Nothing tends more to show how thoroughly the present Government are alive to the necessity of enlarging the area of cultivable land than this action on their part.

Complaint is heard that sloops from the American side are in the habit of supplying Fraser Indians with spirits, and the necessity for a gunboat at Frasermouth is suggested.

THE new steamer of Jansen & Goodburn has been launched and has her machinery in. Her house will be built as soon as possible, and she will be completed in about a week.

A Consular Tyrant.

The conduct of General Partridge, the United States Consul to Siam, as it is reported in a letter which we print this morning, is of a character to reflect great discredit upon the country and our consular service. Partridge seems to have been a sort of consular tyrant who not only lorded it with a high hand over the American citizens who came within his jurisdiction, but even treated the King to whose dominions he was accredited with disdain. Wishing to come to Philadelphia as the Commissioner of Siam he threw the Commissioner whom the King had chosen into jail in order to embarrass his departure, and otherwise behaved in a way to prevent the articles intended for the Centennial Exhibition from being sent at all. Other acts of tyranny, including the imprisonment of a number of missionaries, for so-called contempt of his authority, followed, and his secretary, who is vice consul under him, is said to have behaved in a way equally discreditable and disgraceful. It seems almost incredible that the representative of the United States in a foreign country should behave as General Partridge is said to have behaved; but our correspondent informs us that the consul's conduct has been investigated by Commander Matthews, of the Ashuelot, and so we may assume that the State Department is in possession of all the facts. If these are as represented Secretary Fish's duty is plain. Partridge must be dismissed at once and brought home to answer for offences which it is hard to believe any American official could commit. In this case a consul seems to have set up as a petty satrap in a foreign country, and the spectacle which his actions present is one that could come, it would seem, only from a madman or from one singularly unscrupulous. — N. Y. Herald.

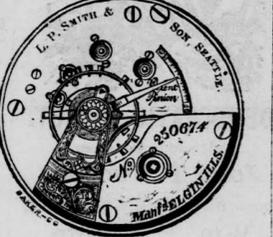

WHY SHE MARRIED THE DOCTOR.—"So you are going to marry a druggist clerk?" remarked a Chicago girl to another on the street cars. The question was asked in an unmistakable tone of derision, and so that the fair one addressed half apologetically replied: "Of course—don't they have all the soda water they want for nothing?" "Yes," was the gloomy reply; "they are all right in the Summer, but what about next Winter?" "Oh," mildly answered the engaged one, "maybe by that time we'll be divorced!" The interfering friend seemed satisfied then.

A venerable Georgia divine was riding out and saw a youthful son of Ham going down street displaying a flag of truce in the rear. The doctor being near-sighted, supposed the boy was about to lose his handkerchief, and so called out to him. The negro looked amazed, but catching hold of the flag, remarked: "Boss, dat handkerchief is buttoned round my neck."

"Beggars shouldn't be chew-sers," as the man remarked when a tramp, who accosted him for tobacco, growled because he offered him plug instead of fine cut.

EASTERN STATES.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Judge Taft says of the criticisms on his recent instructions to the U. S. marshals that the instructions are founded on State laws applicable to Federal elections, and not in conflict with the supreme court. They are plainly sustained by all decisions and precedents.

The news from South Carolina contains horrible details of the operations of the white leaguers against the negroes. Butler, a brother of the hero of the Hamburg massacre, is the leader of a band of whites who patrol the country killing the negroes wherever found. Within a few days he has, according to reports here, stopped the train and taken colored members of the Legislature from it and shot them.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 26.—Yellow fever interments to-day, 18.

Atlanta contributes $70,000 for the Brunswick sufferers.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 26.—A meeting of citizens, Gov. Kemper presiding, was held here to-night to adopt measures for aiding the yellow fever stricken at Savannah and Brunswick. Resolutions were adopted requesting the city council to appropriate funds.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 26.—The Republican meeting at Tippecanoe battle ground to-morrow will be a grand affair. Blaine will speak. Large delegations are expected from all parts of the States of Michigan and Illinois. It is thought fully 25,000 people will be in attendance.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The steamer Liberty, from Havana, was abandoned at sea in a gale on the 17th inst. and foundered. The crew were taken off by a schooner and brought to Philadelphia.

SPOTTED TAIL AGENCY, Sept. 26.—A treaty with the Indians of this agency was concluded this evening after a three hours' council. Spotted Tail made another lengthy speech in which he insisted upon going down to the Indian territory, first to look at the country, then go to Washington to talk with the Great Father; at the same time he also wished a delay in signing the treaty until the present war was over and peace settled.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 26.—At a meeting to-night in the interest of the yellow fever sufferers $10,000 was subscribed, and a committee appointed to canvass. The Howard association sent the Brunswick sufferers $1,000 to-day.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 27.—Four thousand dollars were collected to-day for Savannah.

MACON, Georgia, Sept. 26.—L. Daventon, Mayor of Brunswick, Georgia, and John Dexter, chairman of the board of health, appeal for help for stricken citizens. Half the population is down with yellow fever, business is suspended and supplies are exhausted, and unless aid is very speedily sent many will die of starvation. The suffering and want cannot be described.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—The official report of the board of health says there has been reported by the board, from 15th August to date, 26 cases of yellow fever, of which 17 were fatal.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—The Postal Railway Commissioner, after taking testimony in Milwaukee and St. Louis, New Orleans, Louisville and Cincinnati, will proceed to California.

The board of trade are taking active measures to raise a relief fund for the suffering in Savannah and other southern cities.

Potter Palmer has sent a message to the relief committee at Savannah to draw on him, by telegraph, for $1,000 and if the immediate want was very great to telegraph him. The citizens are raising funds to send to that afflicted section, and substantial donations will soon be forwarded.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—The President of the Centennial Commission this evening announced a large number of awards of diplomas and medals to exhibitors. Some 4,000 awards are yet unapproved by the commissioners. Following are the awards of medals. Diplomas to exhibitors from Oregon and Washington Territory are to be announced by the President of the Commission this evening. There still remain awards which have yet to be approved by the commissioners. From Oregon: A. Booth & Co., preserved salmon; and W. & V. Cook, Columbia River salmon, in pickle and in cans; Nyler & Newell, Columbia River, canned salmon; Oregon Pickling Co. of Portland, preserved fish; D. B. Prettyman, wheat; Oregon City Mills, flour, from winter wheat; McLean Bros., Portland, oatmeal; Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Co., Portland, maple and chittim wood; Oregon City Woolen Mills, fancy cassimere and blankets; J. C. Jackson, Baker City, gold ores; Kosland & Bro., Portland, black and oak, tanned harness leather; Ben. Frostner, Salem, patent perpetual life augur bit; J. John, Aschroft, Marion, pruning shears. From Washington Territory: William Hume, Eagle Cliff, canned salmon; W. Bush, Olympia, cereals.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Gold closed at 97 1/2 @ 10.

The stockholders of the Northern Pacific Railroad held an annual meeting to-day and elected the following directors for the ensuing year: C. B. Wright; Billings, Johnstone, Livingstone, Chas. Mayne, Tower, Ben. P. Henry, George Stark, James Dilworth, J. T. Smith, Geo. Case, Reid Lashurst, Alexander McMillan, Jno. M. Drumson, and Alfred C. Tilton. A motion was adopted instructing the board to consider the expediency of authorizing an exchange of lands of the company on the Pacific coast for preferred stock of the company. The Treasurer's report showed receipts for the year to be $21,901,357; disbursements, $20,836,903; a balance of $10,653.52. The gross earnings for the year were $73,974,551; operating expenses, $44,971,927; and net earnings, $29,002,624. The net earnings for Sept., 1876, were $29,000 and car hire to July 31st, 1876, $501,088, making a total net earnings of the road $32,403,721. The Board of Directors then elected the following officers: President, Charles B. Wright; Vice President, Geo. Stark; Secretary, Saml. W. Wilkinson; Treasurer, Geo. C. Bebe.

GALVESTON, Sept. 27.—This morning Gen. Braxton Bragg dropped dead while crossing Twentieth street in front of the post-office. He was aged 61. His body lies in state at Artillery Hall. The remains will be taken East if arrangements can be made with the New Orleans steamer for their conveyance. Gen. Bragg was in usual health up to the moment of his death. The cause was fatal syncope, induced by organic disease of the heart.

ELIIRA, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The President and Mrs. Grant passed through here this noon on their way to Pittsburgh. There was a public reception at the Rathbourne house, and the President's party were entertained at the residence of Judge Boardman Smith. They remained two hours.

VENITA, Indian Territory, Sept. 28.—The Cherokees and other civilized Indians of this territory are greatly excited over the proposed removal of the Sioux to this country. They say the government is again proposing to violate treaty stipulations by removing these Indians to their country without their consent. They characterize the action of the commission agreeing to give the Sioux homes in the territory of Oklahoma as infamous.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 28.—Interments to-day, 17, of which 13 were from Yellow fever.

SHERVEPORT, La., Sept. 28.—At a meeting of business men, held this evening, it was decided to quarantine the river against New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Ex-commissioner of Internal Revenue, Douglass, to-day denied that he ever stated that the stories about Tilden's tax frauds were gotten up merely for political purposes and were unfounded, of which statement the democratic papers are making capital. He said on the contrary that having examined the Sinton explanation carefully he did not consider it answered in any way the charges against Tilden.

A rumor was in circulation here to-night that Attorney General Taft has resigned or was about to resign. This cannot be officially denied as neither the President nor Judge Taft are in Washington, but there are reasonable grounds for asserting that the report has no foundation.

PACIFIC COAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—The bark Edward May, which recently sailed for Hong Kong, took 350 Chinese passengers.

Gen. Sherman and Secretary Cameron are guests of Senator Sharon at Belmont to-day, and it is also understood that Lord and Lady Dufferin are also of the party.

Sailed, bark James Bott, Cork; brig Sheet Anchor, Coos Bay; ship Prolic, Liverpool; brig Shecolan, Liverpool; bark Amethist, Sehome; bark Montana, Port Townsend; bark D. C. Murray, Honolulu; ship Comet, Queenstown; bark David Hoadly, Port Gamble.

PORT GAMBLE, Sept. 28.—Arrived, bark Christian, San Francisco.

Sailed, 29th, bark King Philip.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—There were filed to-day the articles of incorporation of the women's mining bureau. The directors are Mesdames M. D. Kellogg, H. M. Cooh, H. S. Kingon, E. Swift, and C. J. Stevens. The objects are very comprehensive and embrace manipulations of money as capital in almost every variety of way; but principally its object is the buying, selling, and loaning of money on mining stocks. All of the women whose names appear as directors are well known as successful operators in the stock exchange. The office of the bureau is intended to be a sort of exchange place where women can go and find all published information regarding not only mining interests but all sorts of business interests. An indicator will be placed in the rooms enabling members to follow the scales at the stock board as they are made, and messenger boys will be kept in attendance to enable those who wish to send orders to their brokers. The membership is not to be restricted to women. Men also may join and participate in the advantages of the institution. The enterprise is said to have found favor with many prominent mining men.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A later dispatch from Constantinople announces that the ambassador will communicate on Tuesday to the Porte formal conditions of peace as settled by the European powers, the points of which have previously been reported. Russia has given her consent in principle to these conditions.

A telegram from Belgrade says public opinion in Serbia is greatly excited over the conditions of peace proposed by the powers.

It is stated that the restoration of the statu quo ante bellum in Serbia, with the introduction of local reforms in the Christian provinces of Turkey, would be a fatal blow to these countries. Without actual independence Serbia would be morally dead. The promised reforms are not likely to be carried out. Peace secured on such conditions would merely delay the inevitable conflict between Christians and Turks.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Times' Belgrade dispatch says the people are amazed at the good understanding between Russia and England, which they perceive will almost certainly end hostilities. Russia proposed only one amendment to the English programme and it was adopted.

VIENNA, Sept. 26.—A correspondent telegraphs the Times that the idea of appointing a commission to arrange the details of the settlement in the provinces gains favor.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A dispatch from Constantinople states that the Bulgarian relief committee meets under the presidency of Sir H. G. Elliott, British ambassador, and has formed a working committee comprising three Englishmen, to decide all the cases submitted and grant relief where distress is prevailing.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank on balance to-day is £100,000.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 26.—The Yuenna outrage affair has been arranged. The terms made include compensation to the family of Mr. Margary, who was murdered.

The concessions recently granted by China for increasing the facilities for intercourse between the government and foreign representations are to be fulfilled. The judicial system relative to foreigners are to be improved and the commercial grievances rectified. The city of Esping, on the Yantze River, and three other ports are to be opened to foreign commerce.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Sept.—Grading was commenced yesterday on the Portland, Dalles & Salt Lake Railroad, at Corinne, Utah. The work will be pushed ahead as rapidly as possible, the surveys being made with satisfactory results, and Marsh Valley will be reached this week.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—A dispatch from Belgrade to the Daily News says the Russian General Novoschoff has assumed the command of the army of the Ibas. A great battle is imminent. Gen.

Schernayoff has been requested to come to Belgrade by the Russian Consul and has refused, because he intended to make an attack on the Turkish line.

A special from Cathara says a report comes from an authentic source that the Montenegrins are unwilling to conclude peace without extensive concessions of territory by the Turks.

News from Constantinople is satisfactory. The Porte is inclined to grant the peace conditions, but seeks a forum more compatible with its dignity. Only the prompt acceptance of the conditions as they stand can prevent further complications. The position appears very precarious, and the Porte has been made fully aware of the fact.

A Berlin dispatch to the Times says the Czar is adverse to war, but he has permitted warlike addresses. Austria has left no doubt of its position.

A correspondent of the Times, commenting on the Svaroffs mission to Vienna, remarks that this is the emissary the Czar sent last autumn on a mission to Belgrade to dissuade the Servians from going to war. Although the effort was fruitless the General conducted his mission so well that he became a popular person in Belgrade; therefore the Czar feels prompted to act directly in the affairs of Serbia and thus places himself in a position antagonistic to the interests of Austria. His present envoy is a proper person to communicate his views to the Austrian empire, between whom and the Czar a strong antipathy exists. This personal antipathy has political importance irrespective of the contents of the letter which the envoy brought.

VIENNA, Sept. 28.—A telegram states that the Russian consul has intimated to Gen. Tchernayoff that his resignation would prevent a complication, and it is reported that Tchernayoff has refused to resign.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Times' correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs that there has been nothing done here to-day although the excitement is not so great as it was. It is believed by the Prussians that the conditions of peace proposed by the powers will be rejected by the Porte; if they are the continuance of the war is certain. It would be madness for Turkey to reject the advice tendered here. The Russians and Servians are hardy races and can endure winter campaigns; but the Turks cannot. The Servian government will preserve silence on the question of making Prince Milan King, but the advocates of Servian royalty, who are the majority, declare the proclamation must be made with due solemnity in Belgrade. In such case the representatives of the powers would probably be instructed by their governments to retire from Belgrade.

A special from Belgrade to the Daily News reports that England has expressed, officially, to Serbia her surprise at the course adopted, in face of the fact that Serbia first sought England's good offices. It is represented that the Russian party do not object to a long armistice.

Republican Platform.

The Republican Territorial Convention, which assembled at Kalama on the 20th instant, adopted the following platform:

Resolved, That we unanimously and heartily endorse the declaration of principles embraced in the Cincinnati platform of the National Republican party.

Resolved, That we favor all necessary movements for a State organization at an early day, as being desirable in itself, and as calculated to prevent any disintegration of our Territory, to which we are decidedly opposed.

Resolved, That our Delegate in Congress be and he hereby is requested to use all endeavors to have section four of the bill now before Congress, granting an extension of time for the completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad amended, so that it shall provide for an immediate relinquishment of the grant of lands for the branch line of the Northern Pacific Railroad company north of the present adjusted limits of the earned lands of said company in this Territory.

Resolved, That our Delegate in Congress be and he hereby is requested to use his best endeavors to secure liberal appropriations for the removal of obstructions and make other improvements in the navigable rivers of this Territory.

Resolved, That we favor restriction of Chinese immigration, and would have it discouraged in the various departments of the Government.

A southerner, writing from Cape May to his home paper, wonders why a prudish girl will dance with no one but her brother will run along the beach, "naked as to the knee," and kicking sand at her beau.

COMMERCIAL STREET, BET. MAIN AND JACKSON, Seattle, Wash. Territory.

TO MEET THE PRESSING WANTS OF many persons on Puget Sound needing Medical and Surgical aid, and for comfortable rooms, good care and Moderate Prices, I have fitted up a Hospital, where every convenience and comfort will be provided in connection with experienced and skillful Medical and Surgical attendance.

We aim to make this a permanent Institution, and to give special attention to cases of fracture and injuries of all kinds that are constantly occurring in the saw mills, coal mines and logging camps surrounding us.

Seattle being centrally located, with regard to these interests, and more accessible than any other point, we mean with the aid of these advantages, and by giving personal and thorough attention to its entire management, to build up an Institution indispensable to the sick and disabled who have no homes, and worthy of their confidence and that of the public.

The Hospital is in a pleasant and healthy locality, and the rooms neat and cheerfully furnished.
