A GROWL FROM A SOREHEAD.—An anonymous scorching vent his spleen through the editorial columns of the Intelligencer, by an assault upon Mr. Wingard, covering an implied impeachment of the integrity of Judge Jacobs, more unmanly in degree from the fact that it deals almost entirely in insinuation and innuendo, without making any specific charges by which the merits of the case might be placed in issue. It assumes that there were two interests involved in the issue before the Vancouver Convention, viz: The interests of the people, and the interests of their natural enemies, the monopolists. It argues from these premises that the compromise by which the nomination of Judge Jacobs was made unanimous was the result of a corrupt bargain in the "interests of the Oregon and North Pacific Railroads." Messrs. Kearney and Jacobs were the only candidates mentioned in the Convention. Mr. Kearney's name was withdrawn and he made the motion that the nomination of Judge Jacobs be made unanimous, which was adopted without the least expression of dissent. Where did the conflict come in? Which of these candidates represented the people, and which the monopolists? The innuendo is, that Kearney is the traitor, and Jacobs the candidate of the monopolists. There is not a single fact or incident in the history or association of either to justify such charge, and it is only put forth with the malicious intent of injuring the prospects of Judge Jacobs, and it is too thin to accomplish any such purpose.

The attack upon Mr. Wingard is another weak invention of like character. It says: "Instead of accomplishing anything promotive of the railroad scheme to open up communication between Walla Walla and the Sound, the Republican party has, through its new organ, already been inspired by the North Pacific Railroad Ring to announce their candidate for the Chief Justice-ship to take the place of Judge Jacobs, who is to resign before making the canvass." And further: "Special trains and steamboats freely placed at the service of the U. S. Prosecuting Attorney by the N. P. R. on a recent occasion." This paper, which is allied to as the "new organ" of the Republican party, is most emphatically and distinctly the organ of no party, but the uncompromising friend of fair play. That intimation that it receives inspiration from the "North Pacific Railroad Ring," is too absurd for comment. The only connection Mr. Wingard ever had with that Railroad was as the Attorney of the contractor, Mr. J. B. Montgomery, between whom and the "Ring" a deadly feud has existed for the last three years. Mr. Wingard procured bills of indictment against Gen. Sprague for cutting timber on Government lands, which were dismissed by order from headquarters, which he had no authority to disregard. The railroad and steamboat service alluded to, was simply a wedding excursion given by Captain Ainsworth in honor of his relative, Mr. Wingard, with which the Railroad Co. had nothing to do.

We shall take another occasion to comment upon the demand put forth that the candidate should be the echo of "the ring of the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad."

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR DELEGATE.—The Democrats, in Territorial Convention at Vancouver, went outside of the party for a candidate, nominating Benjamin L. Sharpsteen, of Walla Walla, for Delegate to Congress. Mr. Sharpsteen is a leader of the Independent movement in Walla Walla county, and was Chairman of the Independent Convention in that county, which denounced both of the old political organizations as corrupt and unworthy the support of honest voters. Mr. Sharpsteen is a lawyer of very fair ability and a citizen of high social standing. He has been a resident of Walla Walla for twelve years past, having removed to that place from Wisconsin in 1862, the year of the first military draft. It is a remarkable coincidence that Sharpsteen and Jacobs are about the same age, were natives of adjoining towns in Livingston county, Western New York, were both sons of farmers, both removed West in early life, Sharpsteen to Wisconsin and Jacobs to Michigan, and in other respects they are very fairly matched, with the exception that Jacobs has the advantage of twelve year's longer residence, in which he has been almost constantly identified prominently in public affairs.

There being no political issues involved in this contest we shall give our support to Judge Jacobs, without any feeling or expression of hostility towards Mr. Sharpsteen, for whom we have a high respect, founded upon long personal acquaintance.

FIRE.—The residence of Mr. Gardner Kellogg, on the Stillaguamish, was burned on Wednesday night. Loss about $2,000; principally insured.

During the reading of the report the Convention was serenaded by the band of the 23d Infantry, and a vote of thanks was tendered them by the Convention.

The report of the Committee on Credentials was, on motion, unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Jones, the temporary officers of the Convention were declared permanent.

On motion of Gov. Salomon, a committee of nine was appointed on resolutions. The Chair appointed the following named gentlemen: Salomon, McConaha, Ingalls, George, Richardson, Ballard, Jones, Bagley and Barton.

On motion of Gov. Ferry the Convention proceeded to nominate a candidate for Delegate to Congress.

Motion by Mr. Higgins, that the vote for candidate be taken via voce, as called from the roll by the Secretary, was withdrawn.

Mr. Littlefield then put in nomination E. S. Kearney.

Mr. D. Bagley presented the name of Orange Jacobs.

The Convention then took a recess for thirty minutes.

The Convention assembled again at 6 P. M., when the Chairman arose and read a telegram from Judge Jacobs, accepting the nomination and thanking the Convention for the honor conferred on him.

The Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions then reported the following

RESOLUTIONS: We, the Republican party of the Territory of Washington, in Convention assembled, declare—

1. That we are in full harmony and sympathy with the great Republican party of the nation, that we feel proud of its glorious record of the past, that the determined action of the party throughout the country against all corruption meets our full approval, and that the best interests of our people demand that we should heartily and earnestly work for its future success.

2. That we are desirous of political reform, and honesty, economy and purity in all official administration; that to secure this is the duty of every citizen; that to this end every good man should feel bound to participate in politics and see that only good men are elected to office.

3. That believing a return to a gold basis should be speedily made, we oppose further expansion of the currency and reaffirm that part of the thirteenth resolution adopted at the National Republican Convention, held at Philadelphia in 1872, relating to the resumption of specie payment.

4. That the agricultural interests of the Territory are entitled to our greatest consideration; that we fully recognize their claims, and pledge our support to all movements in aid of this important branch of our industry.

5. That our Delegate in Congress is expected to use his utmost endeavor to secure liberal appropriations for the purpose of internal improvements, such as clearing rivers of all obstructions to free navigation and commerce.

6. That the opening up of communication by railroad between the eastern and western sections of this Territory by one of the passes in the Cascades, north of the Columbia river, is of vital and paramount importance, and that our Delegate to Congress is expected to use his utmost endeavor to procure all useful legislation to aid the construction of the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad.

On motion of Mr. Jones, to elect a Central Committee consisting of one from each County district, the following named gentlemen were chosen: D. Bagley, I. Ballard, S. D. Maxon, S. M. Wait, E. S. Kearney, W. P. Jones, R. C. Smith, T. Minor, Wm. McMeiken.

The Convention then proceeded to confirm the nominations for District Attorney for the several districts which had been made by the delegates from the respective counties. J. T. Andrews was nominated for the First, N. H. Bloomfield for the Second, and George N. McConaha for the Third District.

The Convention then adjourned with three rousing cheers.

AN INDIGNANT BULL.—The accident to the railroad train at Newaukum, mentioned in our telegrams yesterday, was caused by a valuable bull belonging to Judge McFadden, which attempted to butt the engine off the track and succeeded at the cost of his life. The passengers on the train were principally delegates returning from the Republican Convention. The Judge himself has more discretion than to butt against that crowd.

UNIVERSITY.—Mr. Whitworth informs us that he has 39 scholars in regular attendance. This is far better than we anticipated under the present management; but we shall be happy to chronicle the fact that we were wrong in our predictions, as we hold the success of the school paramount to any mere personal considerations.

Proceedings of the People's Primary Meeting.

Met at the Pavilion, Saturday, Oct. 3, 1874, elected J. T. Kenworthy as Chairman, and D. Kellogg and C. C. Perkins, Secretaries. The meeting then proceeded to the election of Delegates to the People's County Convention, to be held on Tuesday, Oct. 6, 1874, with the following result: E. G. Farnham, C. W. Moore, A. W. Mason, Thomas Mercer, John Webster, Roswell Scott, F. A. Bigelow, F. V. Snyder, H. A. Atkins, W. H. Shoudy, L. L. Jewett, M. McAndrews, H. Jones, J. Wagner, M. S. Pinkham, A. Johnson, M. Schmeig, M. Fitzgerald, S. F. Coombs, C. D. Emery, W. N. Bell, C. C. Perkins, F. A. Dyer, Josiah Settle.

COMMISSIONER APPOINTED.—A dispatch, dated Washington, September 23rd, says: The President has appointed Hazard Stevens, of Olympia, W. T., Commissioner on the part of the United States to ascertain the rights of the Hudson Bay Company and other British subjects under the award of the Emperor of Germany under the Washington Treaty of 1873.

The Rate of Interest as the Test of Civilization.

Under this heading the Merchant and Banker, of New York, of a recent date, has a very sensible article. It starts out as follows:

What is the criterion of the degree of civilization to which a people has attained? Some promptly answer, "The proportion of those who can read and write in the total population; but this will not serve, for census figures are not always reliable, and literary instruction by no means secures commercial or political intelligence and property. Others will say, 'The relative wealth of countries; but this is very difficult to determine, and if ascertained the more important inquiry remains—in which countries is that wealth increasing and where is it growing less? Others still, name the degree of religious devotion, the extent of virtue, the development of learning, the culture of art and science in various lands; but either of these is practically available as a standard, since before it can be so applied it must itself be quantitatively determined.

It then states that there is, however, a test quantitative in its nature, self-determining, and for the most part readily ascertained. It is the average rate of interest actually paid for loans on good security. Not, of course, the rate sanctioned by law; for the only relation of this rate to that actually paid is commonly a tendency to heighten the latter by increasing the risk of the loan. The rate of "pure interest" does not greatly differ in different countries and is not far from four per cent. The amounts demanded or offered and actually paid for loans above this rate consist mainly of premiums of insurance on the risk the lender considers himself to take when he puts his property out of his possession. When it is remembered that confidence is a plant of slow growth, that is developed by long experience, and very quickly and easily destroyed, and that its development to such a point that premiums on risks of loan are nearly nothing, means that commercial practice and legal administration have convinced property-holders by experience that their property is secured to them through business honor or through the aid of law; when these great and grave facts are borne in mind, it is clear that the countries where interest rates lowest are the most civilized. The fall in the rate when a state of thorough security to property (which means personal liberty, commercial integrity and honest government) has been developed, is hastened and furthered by the immigration of capital from less civilized countries. To the land where he learns that his property will be secure, the owner in a country where he feels that his tenure of it is unsafe sends that property for investment; and the monetary centres of such lands ever flow with capital seeking investment at rates astonishingly low, for the sake of the security expected. Hence, for all proper enterprises, in such a nation capital is readily obtainable at a price that permits a development of her resources compared with which the plausible schemes that politicians propose for Government to execute are as puerile as they are futile.

It then argues that there is one important lesson to be deducted from these facts, viz: that every one in the community, and every law-maker especially, can help or hinder among ourselves the development of such a condition. Every man who faithfully pays his debts and lives an honest life, helps to develop a great civilization and renders real service to his country. Every man who commits fraud or robbery, does more to destroy confidence, to increase the rate of interest, and to retard civilization, than two honest men can do to help it on. Every law that practically protects men in the possession of their own property, tends to lower interest and build up civilization; but every law that operates to make it less secure—tariffs, legal tender acts, etc.—raises the rate of interest and postpones the advance of civilization.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Edward Thomas, while engaged in clearing the new railroad track for the Seattle Coal Company was struck by a falling tree, had two ribs broken, and was otherwise seriously injured, though it is believed, not fatally. He is under treatment at the Occidental Hotel.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—Our young friend H. L. Blanchard, of Port Townsend, received the Democratic nomination for Prosecuting Attorney for this district. This is a very good joke on Blanchard, who was never anything but a Republican, politically. He is a very estimable gentleman, but stands not the ghost of a chance for an election against Geo. N. McConaha.

BERNH TRONN, EDITOR

Seattle, W. T., Oct. 8, 1874.

THE RAILROAD IN THE CANVASS.—A few days since, in noticing an article in the Intelligencer reflecting upon Judge Jacobs and Mr. Wingard, written ostensibly in the interest of the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad Company, we promised upon another occasion to comment upon the demand put forth in that article that the candidate should be the echo of "the ring of the Seattle and Walla Railroad."

As an unserving friend and supporter of that enterprise from its inception, we are glad to chronicle this fact; and in this view, we have but to say that the article in the Intelligencer not only misrepresents the position of Judge Jacobs, but was calculated to evidently intend to place the Railroad Company in a false and damaging position by intimating to the people that there was a conflict or ground for jealousy between them.

Resolved, That the opening up of communication by railroad between the eastern and western sections of this Territory by one of the passes in the Cascades, north of the Columbia river, is of vital and paramount importance, and that our Delegate in Congress is expected to use his utmost endeavors to procure all needed legislation to aid the construction of the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad.

Before leaving for the Territorial Convention, Mr. Bagley presented this resolution to Judge Jacobs and had his assurance that it met with his most hearty approval. Mr. Bagley presented the name of Judge Jacobs to the Territorial Convention, and after his nomination that Convention unanimously adopted this identical resolution as a plank of the platform to which he stands pledged.

A PARTY ORGAN.—The Olympia Courier professes to be the sole organ of the Administration in this Territory, and a strict party disciplinarian, and yet there is no opposition paper which has been more bitterly personal and unreasonable in its assaults upon men who hold the commissions and enjoy the full confidence of the Administration. It was the only paper in the Territory which assailed the personal character of Col. Kimball in a gross and libelous manner, and now comes forward, without any reasonable cause or provocation, to depreciate the professional qualifications and misrepresent the position of Mr. Wingard, the U. S. Attorney. A newspaper which accepts the position and enjoys the party patronage of its party on exclusive party grounds, is bound in common decency to treat the official members of that party with common fairness and civility.

Snohomish County Fair.

This, the first Agricultural Fair in Snohomish county, was held at Snohomish City, on October 1st and 2d, was well attended, and the agricultural interests well represented, considering the sparsely settled condition of the county and the means of transportation. All the fruits and vegetables, such as apples, plums, pears, peaches, potatoes, turnips, beets, carrots, parsnips, squashes, pumpkins, etc., were represented by the finest specimens of their kind; wheat, rye, oats, peas, beans, corn, hops, grapes, etc., were also on hand in abundance and of excellent quality. Butter, cheese, pickles, jellies, canned fruits, etc., also had their place in the exhibition. Then the ladies' department, consisting of a great variety of fancy work, was a conspicuous feature of the exhibition. Take it all in all, the Fair was a decided success.

In addition to the accompaniments of the Fair, was an address of over an hour and a half in length, by Hon. J. J. McGilvra, which was well received by the large audience present, and the Port Gamble Brass Band and Minstrel troupe, brought up by the enterprising steamer Zephyr, Capt. Wright. The town was overrun, the hotels crowded and every private dwelling appropriated to the accommodation of the people present, and even then some of them had hard fare.

The Fair lasted two days, Thursday and Friday. In the evening of Thursday the Port Gamble Minstrels gave an entertainment to a crowded hall, which was of a superior order and highly appreciated by the audience. The band, under the leadership of Prof. Shapcott, discoursed sweet music during both days, and was a prominent feature of the occasion.

At 4 o'clock, P. M., on the 2d inst., the steamer Zephyr, with guests and band, left Snohomish City on her return trip, and came down the river about 7 miles to the brisk little town of Lowell, where she tied up to the bank for the night, and all hands went ashore for a good time generally, and the boys had it, too. The large hall connected with the Lowell hotel, kept by E. D. Smith, the principal town proprietor, was improvised into a theatre and the Minstrels gave a performance to a crowded house, which lasted until about 10 1/2 o'clock, when as if by magic, the hall was cleared of theatricals and prepared for dancing, which commenced immediately and continued, with a short interval for refreshments, until broad daylight. Then, after a sumptuous breakfast at the Lowell Hotel, the Band, Minstrels and guests, went on board the Zephyr, which was waiting with steam up, homeward bound.

Shortly after leaving the river, and before reaching Mukelto, an impromptu meeting was held on board the Zephyr, with Prof. Schapcott in the chair, at which suitable resolutions were passed complimentary to Capt. Wright, of the Zephyr, the Snohomish County Fair and the Lowell entertainment, and everybody continued to be happy. The weather was delightful, with the exception of a shower on the morning of the 2d, and the trip, the fair, the dance, and everything else connected therewith, was a decided success.

Telegraphic

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Plymouth Church was packed with people this evening, to hear Mr. Beecher on his return from his summer vacation. At 7 o'clock there was no standing room in the Church passages. Ladies were frequently borne out during the services in a fainting condition. Among those present were Mrs. Beecher, Charles Beecher, Dr. Edward Beecher, Col. Beecher, Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, Assistant Pastor Halliday, all the members of the late investigating committee, Prof. Rossiter Raymond and the trustees of the Church.

Promptly at 7:30 Mr. Beecher appeared on the platform and was received with a storm of applause. He gave out the hymn, "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," which was rendered by the congregation with great spirit. He then offered a brief prayer, in which he thanked God for this meeting, on the 27th anniversary of his pastorate of the Church, prayed that much good might accrue from his labors during the coming season, returned thanks to God for all his past blessings. A prayer was offered by Prof. Raymond, who besought the Lord to bless the man on his right hand, and gave thanks for the trials of discipline brought upon their pastor, which were for the glory of Zion.

After the congregation had sung another hymn, Mr. Beecher said he would much rather have met his friends as usual at the end of vacation, but was anxious that the good old customary Friday night prayer meetings would not be departed from. They were met together in so many years before the commencement of what might be called the new year, to consecrate themselves to the spread of Christ's kingdom on the earth. When troubles carried us away, under burdens we had not the strength to bear up, under the waves of sorrow, when our strength failed, God's strength began. When these sorrows were no longer to be tolerated, and when man came to the end of his endurance, then, in His plenitude and abundance, came the Everlasting Presence and Power of the Almighty; then men looked back with amazement to think that their courage ever failed, that when affliction or trouble was upon a man he should hold down his head as a prisoner in chains. It was for us to lift ourselves from visible to invisible, and though there might be trouble low down God was above the clouds.

He made an appeal to the young men of the congregation to grow in righteousness and spirit of truth, and to say to themselves, "I shall not crumble in the dust, but shall rise up irresistible in the power of the heart of Christ." I ask not your confidence or sympathy, but a unity of blessed hope that you feel a sympathy for the weak, to lift them up and save them for Christ's sake.

He alluded very remotely to the discipline which the Church had gone through, which he thought was a kind of griststone to sharpen their weapons of spiritual warfare for the remainder of the year, and he thought they should be all animated by a spirit of love, joy and peace. This had been their animated purpose for 27 years, and they would come out of their recent tribulation for no other purpose than the glory of God. At the close of the meeting the friends of the pastor crowded around him, and a scene of hand-shaking and congratulation ensued, lasting some time.

QUEBEC, Oct. 2.—Public Departments and many business places were closed yesterday in honor of the observance of the 200th anniversary of the foundation of the Roman Catholic Bishopric in Quebec.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The Times contradicts the story that the Queen paid the debts of the Prince of Wales. At the present time the debts of the Prince amount to little more than one-third of his annual income, and include scarcely bills due longer than a year. The Prince's balance at his bankers to-day more than suffices to pay claims.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Steam tug Rescue went ashore this afternoon on North Eads and is a total loss. It is not yet known whether any lives were lost, but it is believed that all the crew escaped.

The steamer Colorado, from China and Japan, reported lost, is coming up the harbor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Evening Post publishes the following: Mr. Beecher was before the Grand Jury about an hour to-day, answering questions from members of that body in reference to the published articles attacking his character. An indictment against Theodore Tilton for libelling Mr. Beecher was then certified to and read to the latter, who said it was correct. The document sets forth that Theodore Tilton, wickedly and maliciously, with intent to scandalize Henry Ward Beecher, his good name, fame and character, subjecting him to contempt and disgrace, and to provoke him and his friends to commit a breach of the peace, published on or about Sept. 18th, caused to be published in the Daily Graphic and circulated in Brooklyn and elsewhere, a false scandalous, and malicious libel concerning him. A part of the article referred to was the alleged commission of adultery in October, 1868 with Mrs. Tilton and his assertion as to the doubtful paternity of a child born the following year. The Grand Jury also read to the Judge a second indictment against Frank D. Moulton, which is worded similar to that found against Tilton, charging him with libelling Beecher by causing the publication of false, malicious and slanderous reports in the Daily Graphic.

After Beecher left, the Grand Jury presented the indictments to the Court of Sessions, and were discharged by Judge Moore, who thanked them for their services. The counsel for the Brooklyn Eagle this morning appeared before Judge Nelson and asked that two of the suits for libel brought against his client be consolidated. Decision reserved.

LARAMIE, Oct. 3.—Hon. W. R. Steele and Paymaster Stanton arrived here from the North to-day, having visited the posts and Agencies of the Red Cloud and Spotted Tail. Troops at these places will be in their winter quarters by the middle of October or the first of Nov. The quarters at Red Cloud are permanent. Those at Spotted Tail are log huts. These Agencies are both in Nebraska, the Spotted Tail is 13 miles and the Red Cloud 25 miles South of the North line, and the latter 20 miles East of the West line. A vast deposit of fossils was discovered 10 miles North of Red Cloud, scattered over a space of about six miles square. Remains of two horned rhinoceros and of many other animals cover the ground. A large number of North-Sioux under the Black Twin were near Red Cloud on their way to that Agency for the winter. If they will register and be counted the agent will ask authority to issue rations to them and endeavor to keep them near the Agency. The post at Spotted Tail is called Camp Sheridan. A semi-weekly mail has been established between Cheyenne and the Agencies.

GOLD HILL, Nev.—A terrible affray took place this evening a little after 9 o'clock at the Justice Hoisting works, Lower Gold Hill. Two men were instantly killed; two more have died since and a fifth cannot live over night. There has been trouble among the trustees of the Justice Mining Company of two parties. One side is represented by Mr. Minor, President of the Company, who appointed Wm. Kellogg Superintendent yesterday, in the place of Fred Smith, the present Superintendent. The trouble has been anticipated for the last two days. This evening about 7 o'clock a party of men headed by Mr. Kellogg, the newly appointed Superintendent, went to wards Waller Defeat works, and when near the works they were warned off. Instead of deserting they made a rush for the entrance, where shooting commenced on both sides. The following are the names of the killed: W. Kellogg, M. Kane, Reilly and J. Brown. J. Shipley was mortally wounded. Drs. Seabriske and Kirby and Coroner Harris were called for, but could render but little service, the men being beyond all hope of recovery. The occurrence has created a great deal of excitement in Gold Hill and Silver City.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Theodore Tilton has written a letter to the Press, declaring that the many opportunities for prosecuting him for libel have been carefully avoided by Beecher and his friends. The present tardy indictment, procured by District Attorney Winslow, a member of the Plymouth investigating committee, can be attributed only to the fact that the verdict of the committee fails to command popular credence. Tilton solemnly affirms the literal and absolute truth of his charges against Beecher, and demands an immediate trial.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 4.—The insurrection in the Argentine States continues becoming formidable. The fleet declares for Gen. Mitre, the leader of the movement. Insurgent forces have assembled at Chiviloy San Martin. The Government of Buenos Ayres is taking vigorous measures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The case of Eliza Myers vs. Northern Pacific R. R. Co., Jay Cooke and W. B. Ogden, to foreclose the mortgage, secure the bondholders, and enjoy the issue of any more 7-30 bonds, was argued before Judge Blatchford yesterday. The object of the decision is to remit the case back to the State Court. Decision reserved.

An order was granted by Judge Donahue yesterday, compelling the Treasurer of the Central Branch of the Union Pacific Railroad to show cause why he should not produce the books previously ordered, and also to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. Jay Gould, Oliver Ames, and party are at Salt Lake, where they will remain till to-morrow.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A meeting is to be held to-morrow, at which steps are to be taken to obtain Government relief for the sufferers of the gun-powder explosion in Regent's Park Canal.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The Daily Telegraph learns from a Catholic dignitary that the Duke of Northumberland is about to become a convert to the Roman Catholic faith. The report is considered doubtful.

MADRID, Oct. 4.—Layard, Minister from Great Britain, and M. De Chambray, the newly appointed Minister from France, were received by President Serrano last evening and presented their credentials.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The following postal changes have been ordered for the Pacific Coast: The office at Cayuse, Unatilla Co., Oregon. Postmaster appointed: Gustavus A. Sevassay, at Panamint, Inyo Co., Calif. Thos. Stevens, at Eldorado, Baker Co., Oregon; A. F. Nye, at Grass Ridge, Linn Co., Oregon; Lamar B. Seeley, at Oswego, Clackamas Co., Oregon; Francis M. Beagle, at Sumter, Baker Co., Oregon.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Plymouth Church was crammed to its utmost capacity this morning and as many were on the outside, unable to gain admittance. Church opened at 9:30 for members only, and newspaper men. At 10 a few outsiders were admitted. The Church was decorated with flowers and evergreens from desk to door. Beecher entered the platform at 10:30. Two or three persons attempted to get up a demonstration by clapping of hands, but a hush from others checked it. Opening prayer was a master piece of pathos; an appeal for rest to every heart oppressed with care and sorrow. Mr. Beecher then read the sermon on the mount, and after the hymn was sung, delivered a long prayer. His sermon was from the words, "They will be done."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—At the instance of Senator Mitchell the Postmaster General has increased the mail service on the Columbia River from Kalama to Astoria from a tri-weekly to six times a week, giving the Oregon Steam Navigation Co. a contract of pro rata increased pay. Senator Mitchell left Washington today to deliver an address at his former home in Sennajsene, by invitation of the President and Trustees of Weather-short Institute.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—A New York special says: Ex-Judge D. Morris, Tilton's lawyer, says, in corroborating Tilton's asserted desire for an early trial of his case, that he (Morris) is confident that 12 men cannot be found in King's county to reject the evidence which will be offered in behalf of his client. He says that he makes this statement with a full knowledge that the Court will leave out as improper testimony the evidence of Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Bradshaw and Mrs. Morse. No obstacle will be placed in the way of an early trial by Tilton.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Times published the following, dated New Orleans last night: Governor Kellogg received information this evening that, upon the arrival of the U. S. troops at Coushatta, some 15 White Leaguers who were engaged in the recent murders of Republican office-holders left town and went to Arkansas and Texas. Theodore Tilton and F. D. Moulton have been notified of the indictments found against them for alleged libel and slander of Beecher. The bail in each case has been fixed at $3,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Brooklyn Argus says: The amount of counsel in the Beecher-Tilton case will be very large. Senator Conkling has accepted a retainer from the prosecution and will sum up the case. Wm. M. Ervarts, B. F. Tracy, John K. Porter, W. O. Bartlett, John Graham, and T. S. Sherman will assist Conkling. The list of Tilton's counsel is said not to be complete. Senator Carpenter of Wisconsin, Daniel Dougherty of Philadelphia, and David Dudley Field are mentioned. Moulton has secured Judge Fallertom. General Butler will take the lead in the case and personally appear. Mr. Beech will appear also. A motion will be made for a change of venue. This is a matter in the discretion of the Court. A motion will be made for a writ of certiorari, to carry the case before the Supreme Court. This we do not think a motion of right. And then an effort will be made to remove the case to Albany or West Chester. It is thought the trial will take place in a fortnight and probably last 3 or 4 weeks.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The special agent sent by the Post Office Department to investigate the murder of the colored route agent in Alabama writes to the Department a letter dated Woodville, Sept. 30, saying: I have just had warrants issued against nine of the murderers of Thomas Irey, including the sheriff of this county. The reign of terror here far exceeds anything of the kind I have ever seen. Armed bodies of men are riding over the country. The colored people are afraid to go into the field to save the crops from waste and ruin. The right of free speech is denied them and many desire to return to slavery.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 5.—The situation of affairs in Buenos Ayres is desperate.

The Government is taking vigorous measures to suppress the insurrection. All the Government offices and all commercial houses closed. The Government has issued an order extending the time on all commercial credits. One regiment of national troops revolted and gone over to the insurgents. Foreigners are hastening to their respective consulates to get passports to protect them against universal conscription which is to be enforced. There have been many disturbances. Many persons of prominence have been arrested on suspicion of favoring the insurgents. Colonels Rocco and Borjes are marching against the rebels, while Vice-President Alsina remains at the head of the Local Guard. The rebel squadron is commanded by Gillyobes. The insurgents are purchasing steamers and arms and are recruiting at Monte Video.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—A Paris dispatch to the standard says: Official reports announce the election of 450 Conservatives and 300 Republicans to the Councils General. Times' special correspondent at Paris telegraphs that the Republicans really gained more seats than any other party. M. Martel, Monarchist and one of the Vice-Presidents of the Assembly, has been returned from Calais. Janvier de La Motte, the famous prefect, is elected to the Council General of Maine-et-Loire. Republicans carried Marseilles, Amiens and Rouen. Prince Bonaparte defeated Prince Napoleon in Ajaccio, Corsica.

Announcement. TO THE VOTERS OF KING COUNTY. I ANNOUNCE MYSELF AS AN INDEPENDENT candidate for the House of Representatives of Washington Territory at the coming election. I desire the office not for the honor or money connected with it, but that I may be able to assist in framing a code of laws which will be the channel for speedy and cheap justice. I favor laws that will reduce the expense of the jury system more than one-half. That will give to the taxpayer an appeal from the improper valuation of his property. That will not impoverish suitors by exorbitant bills when they appeal to the Courts for trial of their rights. That will give to mechanics and tradesmen a perfect lien for their labor and a quick return of their money. That will prevent County Commissioners from expending more than the annual levy, and to this end favor the funding of the scrip indebtedness to bonds, bearing 6 per cent. annual interest, and the creation of a sinking fund for the discharge thereof. Our present Code is but jumbled extracts from a dozen different Codes, producing litigation and confusion. Should I be elected I shall act independent of all parties for the good of whole people only. W. R. WHITE. Seattle, Sept. 26th, 1874.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF SEATTLE, W. T., Oct. 8, 1874.

FOR OLYMPIA.—Steamer Zephyr will leave for Olympia on Friday morning, at 8 o'clock, returning on Saturday.

Judge Jacobs started this morning for Walla Walla, to meet Mr. Sharpsteen and arrange with him the plan of the campaign.

Hon. Marshall Blinn has received the Republican nomination for joint Councilman for Thurston and Lewis counties. There seems to be a perfect merging of all the heretofore conflicting Republican elements in Thurston county, which makes it rather bad for the Bourbons.

PEOPLES COUNTY CONVENTION. FOR the nomination of candidate for County officers, is in session as we go to press. It was organized by the election of J. T. Kenworthy President, and T. B. Morris and A. S. Pinkham, Secretaries. Full proceedings to-morrow.

SNOHOMISH COUNTY FAIR.—We have received the official report of the awards at the Snohomish County Fair, which we regret is too long for publication in our paper. Having already devoted a column to the general description of that very meritorious affair we cannot afford to give two or three columns more to details of not very general interest.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.—Judge Lewis, of the First Judicial District of this Territory, arraigned Thomas H. Brents before him for contempt of Court, the offense being the use of insulting and abusive language to the Judge in interview upon the street. Mr. Brents filed an answer denying the jurisdiction of the Court in the matter of contempt of court language not addressed to the Court when in session, while in the performance of any judicial act or function. The final judgment of the Court is that Mr. Brents be indefinitely suspended from practicing as an attorney before the Judge of this Court during vacation and at Chambers, but that he be allowed to practice before the Court in term time and transact all other business. This Mr. Brents was the President of the late Republican Territorial Convention.

Washington Territory Democratic Convention.

Agreeable to call, the Territorial Democratic Convention met in Brown's Hall, Vancouver, Oct. 1, 1874, at 10 o'clock, and was called to order by J. M. Murphy, Chairman of the Territorial Democratic Committee.

J. M. Lowe was elected temporary Chairman and Wm. West, Secretary. Messrs. J. M. Murphy, O. P. Lacy and Jacob Hoover were appointed a Committee on Credentials, and submitted the usual report.

A committee of three was appointed on Resolutions and Order of Business, consisting of Messrs. Murphy, Hoover and Judson.

On motion of Mr. Wilson of Pierce, Hon. O. B. McFadden received the unanimous nomination for Delegate to Congress by acclamation. A telegram was received from Hon. O. B. McFadden, dated Monongahela, Pennsylvania, Oct. 1st, addressed to Gay Hayden, Esq., requesting the withdrawal of his name from the Convention on account of continued ill-health, which would prevent him from participating in the present canvass.

The declination was accepted, and the Committee on Resolutions was requested to present a resolution expressive of the sincere grief felt by this Convention, as representatives of the people, and as citizens, in the serious affliction of their chosen standard-bearer.

The Convention then adjourned, to meet at half-past 12 p. m.

Convention re-assembled, whereupon the Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

Mr. Chairman: Your committee beg leave to submit the following resolutions, and recommend their adoption:

Resolved, That the Republican National Administration has violated the pledges upon which it was elected; has squandered the public money; has rewarded unprincipled politicians by placing them in positions of emolument and trust; has failed to reduce the public indebtedness and lessen the burden of excessive taxation; has sanctioned the commission of grave crimes by those placed in authority; has used the military forces of the Government in many of the States to intimidate voters and prevent a free expression of the popular will; therefore

Resolved, That it is not entitled to the confidence of a people it has so wantonly betrayed. Resolved, further, That the attempt made to control elections by Federal office-holders by the use of the people's money, and the power emanating from them is subversive of the best interests of the citizen, and destructive of our cherished liberties.

Resolved, That we favor every measure calculated to subvert the general interests of the people, and especially those of the agricultural classes, who have been so long at the mercy of grasping monopolies; that to secure in a great measure this object we favor the early completion of the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad, and require of our Delegate to Congress his best efforts to secure such aid as may promote that object.

Resolved, That we denounce as infamous the law passed at the late Congress violating the constitutional rights of liberty of speech and freedom of the press.

Resolved, That we cordially invite all honest and patriotic citizens, irrespective of previous party affiliations, to join with us in an earnest and determined effort for reform.

The resolutions were read serially and adopted.

The following was also submitted by the committee on resolutions and adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That we earnestly present Delegates to Congress, Hon. O. B. McFadden has, by his perseverance, energy and commanding ability, accomplished more for the interests of the Territory in his brief term than any former Delegate; we hereby endorse his acts and tender him our sincere sympathy in this hour of his sickness and distress.

It was ordered that a copy of this resolution be properly certified by the officers of this Convention and transmitted to Hon. O. B. McFadden. The nomination of the following District officers was then affirmed by the Convention.

Prosecuting Attorneys—First Judicial District, J. V. Odell; Second Judicial District, John P. Judson; Third Judicial District, H. L. Blanchard.

Joint Councilmen—Walla Walla, Whitman and Stevens, N. T. Caton; Cowlitz, Wahkiakum and Pacific, O. Sovey; Clarke, Skamania and Klickitat, B. F. Shaw.

Joint Representatives—Clarke, Skamania and Klickitat, J. W. Brazeo. The following named gentlemen were appointed a Central Committee for the ensuing two years: R. R. Rees, James Monegan, George W. Morris, C. D. Emery, Jacob Hoover, David Sheridan, E. Clime, D. L. Russell and John P. Judson (Chairman).

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That this Convention approve the acts of late Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, John M. Murphy, and thank him for his able and efficient services.

The names of the following gentlemen were then placed in nomination for Delegate to Congress: A. W. Sweeney and B. L. Sharpsteen of Walla Walla, and C. C. Lancaster of Clarke.

On the second ballot Hon. B. L. Sharpsteen was declared the nominee of the Convention, which nomination was made unanimous.

On motion, the thanks of the Convention were tendered to the officers of the same for their efficient services. On motion, it was requested that the proceedings be published in the Register, Standard and the Portland papers.

The Convention then adjourned with three cheers for B. L. Sharpsteen, the Democratic nominee for Congress.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That in the conduct of our county campaign we will drop all old party lines, and act neither as Democrats or Republicans, but as men anxious to promote the public welfare and the interests of a tax-ridden community.

Resolved, That as qualifications for office we recognize but two tests, honesty and ability. Resolved, That as an increase of population is of vital importance to our county and Territory, we shall heartily encourage and welcome emigrants not only from other Territories and States, but from foreign countries.

He repeats his former statement that his administration cost $7,000,000 less than that of the preceding Governor; that he has reduced the State debt $900,000 in two years, and has reduced the rate of taxation. He declares that the Republican party in Louisiana is willing to be judged by the verdict of the coming election, providing it can be had without intimidation or violence, and he appeals to the Northern Republicans who have listened to the denunciations of his administration to bear in mind that they come from men who hate Republican principles everywhere. He reiterates his willingness to resign if he were simply a personal matter, but believes that there is a principle involved which makes it his duty to remain at his post.

Boston, Oct. 2.—The Herald has evening a letter from J. Simmons, who claims to be a United States Revenue official, and who takes occasion to confess with shame that for three years past he has wasted Government time and prostrated his power as an officer by visiting towns in Ben Butler's District, and intimidating the liquor dealers to vote and work for Butler; and that he has also engaged in packing canoes for the same person, using money furnished by him and by Marshall Usher. He professes deep disgust and sincere repentance for his sins, and offers to stump the State in opposition to Ben.—It was stated this morning that the letter was written by the brother of Collector Simmons.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when.
