King County Ticket.

We have before said that we should support, in the main, the nominees of the Republican party for county officers in this county, not because they are Republicans, or partisans of any quality, but because they are the best selections before the people for the several offices indicated and the real interests of the county were better and more fairly represented in their nominations than by any in the opposition.

For the Legislative Council—Dr. J.
C. Kellogg is the regular Republican nominee. He has been for many years a prominent citizen of the Territory, actively identified with our industrial and educational interests, but has never been a professional politician or office-seeker. He associated the practice of his profession with the cultivation of a farm on Whidly Island, and long before the organization of the Patrons of Husbandry in Granges, he started and successfully conducted a co-operative store for the supply of the farmers on Whidly Island, from whence he removed to this city about two years ago, for the purpose of educating his children in the Territorial University, without relinquishing his active interest in Agricultural pursuits. He is at present the active and efficient President of the Western Washington Industrial Association, to the promotion of which he has devoted more time and money than any other member or officer of that Association. He is also a Regent of the University and a member of the City Council, both of which positions, together with the nomination for the Council, were conferred upon him without his previous knowledge or consent; which is conclusive of the high appreciation in which he is held by his fellow citizens; a rare instance of the office seeking the man, instead of the man seeking the office. Dr. Kellogg is a man of intelligent, conservative, liberal but decided views upon all public questions. He is neither partisan, sectarian or proscriptive in anything. He is strictly temperate, without being a member of any temperance organization; a constant attendant upon and supporter of religious worship, and not a member of any religious sect; a moralist who teaches by example worthy of all imitation, without any disposition to enforce his notions of morality upon others by proscriptive power. A man who could be safely trusted with the interests of this country in the Legislature without sending somebody else there to instruct or watch him.

Mr. Wm. Pickering, the opposition candidate for the Council, is an old citizen, well known to the people of this county. He was a candidate for the House of Representatives two years ago and was rejected. We have not a word to say in disparagement of the ability or integrity of Mr. Pickering; but simply to ask the electors to make their own choice between the two candidates by unbiased comparison.

For the House of Representatives—The Republican candidates are Robert Abrams, of this city, and Mr. A. J.
Hughes, of Slaughter.

Mr. Abrams is not a lawyer nor a classical scholar; but when it comes down to what Western people call "horse sense"—another term for strong common sense—he has much more, as his success in life proves, than many professional men of much greater preten-sions. He has conducted a large business and accumulated a handsome competence by his own unaided efforts, and maintained a reputation without reproach for strict integrity and fair dealing. He has held the public positions of member of the City Council and acting Mayor, both of which he discharged in a creditable manner, and has an active interest in all matters of public improvement, especially in regard to the thoroughfares leading into and out of the city.

Mr. Hughes is an intelligent and prosperous farmer, and has devoted much time and money in promoting road improvements in the interior of the county, for which he has circulated petitions, collected contributions, and at his own expense been a constant attendant upon the sessions of the County Commissioners Court.

Messrs. Abrams and Hughes are working men and would make a good working team, with Dr. Kellogg in the lead, to promote the agricultural, industrial and commercial interests of a county. Joe Foster never made a speech or wrote a bill, and yet he is conceded by all to have been the most successful and effective representative of the interests of King county they ever had in the Legislature. If we desire legislative aid in constructing a wagon road over the Cascade range, or any other special legislation for the interests of our county, we had better have three such men in the legislature than all the lawyers in the county.

The opposition candidates for the House of Representatives are F. Mc-Clellan and W. H. White on the so-called "People's Ticket," and John J.

McGilvra, independent. These are all highly respectable and able men in their several vocations, but each would go there, if elected, with a special purpose in which the public generally are not very much interested at present.

We do not know Mr. McClellan personally, but we understand that he wants a prohibitory liquor law, or something of that sort. Mr. White wants to fix up a code and rules of practice which other lawyers in the Legislature have tinkered at every session. Some other lawyer would want to fix the thing over again at the next session, as he now wants to overhaul what Frank Clark did at the last session. Mr. McGilvra, is an eloquent and attractive public speaker, and he wants to go to the Legislature to make speeches upon all sorts of subjects, for which the time of the session is too limited.

We like White very much and are fond of McGilvra, but think, upon the whole, that the people of this county cannot do better than to compromise on the practical common sense of Abrams and Hughes, after giving the other fellows a fair opportunity to air their eloquence during the canvass.

[After the foregoing was in type Mr.
White brought in a card declining the nomination, which will be published tomorrow.]

For Probate Judge.—The Republican candidate for this office is David Higgins, a comparatively old resident, well known to the people of this county as a citizen, editor and lawyer. He made a capital run on the Republican ticket, two years ago, for the Territorial Council, coming within a few votes of defeating Mr. Foster, the most popular man in the county. Foster's majority over Higgins, in the county, at that election, was but 49, when the majority for Judge McFadden was 181. This is in many ases, one of the most important offices in the county, having larger discretionary power and requiring as good legal ability to determine peculiar legal questions, as the highest judicial functionary. That Mr. Higgins is fully qualified to discharge the duties of this office acceptably, no lawyer who knows his qualifications will doubt.

His opponent W. M. York, was elected to that office two years ago on the Republican ticket. We cordially supported him then, and have had no cause to regret that act. We have heard no complaint of the manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office, and the best we can say for Mr. Higgins is, that we believe he would do equally as well.

For Auditor—Duncan T. Wheeler is the Republican nominee. This, as regards the material interests of the county; is the most important office in it.— The Auditor is in fact both the executive and the accounting officer; the chief manager of county affairs. There can be no misappropriation of county funds, no mismanagement of county affairs, no peculation by county officers unless the Auditor is a consenting and conniving party to the same. It requires for the suitable discharge of the duties of the office, an accomplished accountant, of good business habits and incorruptible integrity. For all these qualifications there is no man in this community who stands better with business men than Mr. Wheeler. He held this office for a short time by appointment, at a time when its affairs were in popular disrepute, and discharged the duties of the same in a manner entirely satisfactory to the public. He has several times been the assignee of bankrupt estates, and in every case has conducted the affairs of the same to the entire satisfaction of creditors. He has been City Treasurer, has now the custody and control of the public school funds of the city, keeps the books and manages the finances of the Board of Regents of the Territorial University, and in the discharge of these several delicate trusts, commands the confidence of all parties interested. We know of no man in the community better qualified by education habits and character for integrity, to discharge the highly important duties of County Auditor.

The opposition candidates are C. C.
Perkins, on the "People's Ticket," and M. S. Booth, independent. We supported, and were largely instrumental in electing Mr. Perkins, two years ago, on a ticket pledged to reform. He had hardly entered upon his office before we discovered that we had mistaken our man. In common with Mr. B. Mad-docks, and many others who had supported him on a reform basis, we asked Perkins to make an investigation of the affairs of the county, from the official documents in his possession, and ascertain the exact condition of the county finances, the amount and character of the indebtedness and the resources to meet the same; that this service was implied in his election. He coolly informed us, in substance, that he took the office for his own, and not for the public benefit, and that he did not propose to do service for which he was not paid. That let him out as a reformer

He has now held the office for nearly two years and the public are no better informed upon the actual condition of the county than when he first took the office; and in the meantime the most palable and bare-faced fraud has been committed upon the county which ever occurred under any administration, with his connivance, approval and public endorsement. Two town lots were purchased from John Pinnell, ostensibly for a court house and jail, which no one now believes will ever be occupied for that purpose, for two thousand dollars. Those lots could not command five hundred dollars in the market, today. Pinnell was paid one thousand dollars in gold coin and the county farm, which no one estimates at a less value than two thousand dollars, for the two lots, and as a part of the transaction he divided the farm with Angus Mackintosh, who was acting at the time as the agent of the county to procure a suitable site for county buildings. The actual loss to the county, by this transaction, was not less than two thousand dollars, for Mr. Yeeler offered a better site for the county buildings and one thousand dollars in coin for the county farm. This transaction, Mr. Perkins joined with Mr. Mackintosh in endorsing and defending in a public print.
Every vote given for Perkins at the pending election, is a vote endorsing this manifest swindle upon the county.
So long as such acts are tolerated in our county officials, the people must expect oppressive taxation and bad government.

Mr. Booth is an honest, industrious man of good business qualifications, greatly to be preferred to Perkins.

For Sheriff—L. V. Wyckoff is the Republican candidate for the office.
Personally we know very little of Mr.
Wyckoff, never having had any business relations and very limited personal intercourse with him; but are willing to take him upon the estimate put upon him by his fellow citizens and confirmed on various public occasions. He was among the earliest settlers and is personally known to nearly every inhabitant of the county. He has held the office of Sheriff though several terms, and was never defeated in a popular election for any office for which he was a candidate, and we recollect that it was frequently said by his enemies at the last election, that he must be beaten in Convention, for he could not be beaten before the people. The people may be sometimes deceived into the support of a bad man for a single term, but it is very rarely that they repeat the error, in the case of the same individual; and the fact that Mr. Wyckoff has been so frequently endorsed by popular vote, is conclusive with us that he is entitled to their suffrages by a faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Whatever our personal relations to the individual may have been, we are bound, in common with every good citizen, to yield to the popular verdict, so often and unmistakeably expressed. That Mr. Wyckoff is an enterprising and valuable citizen no one will deny. All his means have been devoted to improvements, both in the town and country, which add to the public wealth, instead of hoarding his money for usury or purposes of speculation, and such are the men who ought to be honored by public trust.

T. D. Hineckley, the opposing candidate, is a worthy and estimable citizen in all his private relations, but entirely desitute of public spirit or enterprise.
He is a "Bourbon Democrat" in politics, and his personal character is of the same conservative tenor. He would keep everything as it was in "the good old days" of the first settlement of the country, and is adverse to all changes or improvements. His influence as Sheriff would be exercised against any measure of public improvement which would increase the taxes, however much it might enhance the value of property in the county.

For Treasurer—Capt. George D.
Hill is the Republican candidate for Treasurer. We have had occasion heretofore to speak of Capt. Hill, and will have occasion to speak of him hereafter in connection with certain slanderous reports which appear in print, one of which is: "That he not only frequents gambling saloons, but is an habitual participant in the games." This we pronounce as false and malicious an invention as was ever conceived by a reprobate minister who "steals the living of Heaven to serve the devil in." No one will dispute the qualifications of Capt. Hill, by education and systematic business habits, for the discharge of the duties of this office. His character for integrity and moral deportment stands as fair in this community as that of any man on either ticket.

The opposing candidates are C. W.
Moore, on the People's Ticket, and S.
C. Harris, independent. Mr. Moore is a quiet, unassuming and well-to-do citizen, without any clerical qualifications.
No one would think of employing him as a book-keeper or accountant in any business, and if he is elected, he will be obliged to farm the office out to some one better qualified. If he has any private habits or practices which do not accord with Puritan notions, it is not our business to drag them before the public, as they are not such as effect the public interests or would disqualify him for the suitable discharge of his duties.

The nomination was conferred upon Mr. Moore solely on account of his unswerving devotion to the Democratic party.

Mr. S. C. Harris is a young man of rare clerical accomplishments, and has discharged the duties of the office, which he holds by appointment, in a satisfactory manner.

Preaching in the M. E. Church tomorrow (Sabbath) at 11 A. M. and 7 P.
M., by Rev. A. Atwood. Morning Subject—"The Gospel Feast." Evening Subject—"The Marriage Feast."

Rev. A. B. Nicholson, Presbyterian, will officiate on Sunday, Oct. 19, in the Brown Church. Morning Service, 11 A. M.; evening service, 7 P. M.

Remember Dr. Haskell lectured free, to-morrow night, at the Pavilion, Subject—"The Magdalen; "Woman, go and sin no more." Commence at 7 o'clock.

Dr. HASKELL.—This eloquent speaker attracted a good audience last night, at the pavilion. In addition to his own most wonderful and laughable experiments, he has a fine Orchestra and several talented singers and dancers, who were repeatedly encored in their efforts.
The entertainment concluded with the Doctor's "Royal Marionettes." These most wonderful representations of humanity seemed as a reality, and convinced the audience with laughter; concluding with the old clown, Joe Grimaldi, and his horse Bucephalus. A large number of presents were given to the audience, by lot, at the close.

There was a Matinee for children and ladies at 2 o'clock, this afternoon.

To-night there will be a grand entertainment by the entire troupe.

They will appear at Port Townsend, on Monday evening, for the benefit of the Band, returning here on Tuesday next. Go and enjoy yourselves tonight. There will be $25 worth of prizes given away to the audience.

Proceeding of City Council.

SEATTLE, Oct. 16, 1874.

Council met pursuant to call of the Mayor for the purpose of electing a nightwatch.

Present, H. L. Yeeler, Mayor; Councilmembers, M. R. Maddocks, Chas. Mc-Donald, J. C. Kellogg and John Collins.
On motion of M. R. Maddocks, Mr.
Collins was allowed the proxy of T. D.
Hineckley.

The following named persons were then nominated as candidates for night-watch: H. A. Bigelow, H. Butler, H. G.
Thornton, W. H. Shoudy, Fred Minick and James Bogart. Upon ballot, H. A.
Butler received four and H. A. Bigelow two votes, whereupon H. Butler was declared duly elected nightwatch for the ensuing year.

were read, ordered filed and petitions granted.

Council adjourned.

W. R. ANDREWS, Clerk.

Ordinance No. 64.

IN RELATION TO SIDE WALKS.

The City of Seattle does ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. That the owners of real property on the north side of Jefferson street, from its junction with Mill street to Sixth street, and on the south side of Jefferson street, from Sixth to Seventh streets, shall build a good and substantial side-walk, six feet wide, with planking not less than one and one half inches thick.

Sec. 2. In case the owners of the property adjoining the line of the proposed side-walk fail to build such a side-walk as above described within 30 days, from the publication of this Ordinance, the Street Commissioner is hereby authorized to build such side-walk at the expense of the owners of the property. Said expenses to be collected as fines and penalties as collected in other cases.

W. R. ANDREWS, City Clerk.

DIED.—At Port Madison, Oct. 13, 1874, after a brief sickness, MARRIE S., wife of NATHAN BUCKLEN, Esq., in the 28th year of her age.

Deceased was a native of St. Stephens, New Brunswick, and oldest daughter of John Campbell, Esq., now of San Francisco. During a residence of more than seven years on Puget Sound, her exemplary character in the various relations of wife, mother, friend, and Christian professor, has won a large circle of friends, who will share to no slight degree the sense of bereavment which now and so suddenly overshadowed her husband, his three motherless daughters, her parents, sister and brothers, the two younger of whom were with her in the last moments of earth.—Com.

CONCLUDED.

For Assessor.—H. G. Thornton is the Republican candidate for this office. He is not a man endowed with material wealth, but is regarded by all who know him as a man of integrity, of sound judgment and decided will, of sound and not biased or corrupted in the interest of any man or consideration. If elected he can be relied upon to show no favoritism in assessing property for the purposes of taxation, but the rich and those of moderate means will be made to bear their due proportions of the common burdens, which will be a rare thing in assessments, although universally conceded to be but exact justice.

In opposition to Mr. Thornton, are John Seery, on the "People's Ticket," and David Kellogg, independent. We never, to our knowledge, saw or heard of Mr. Seery until after his nomination, and can therefore say nothing of him more than that he appears like a decent sort of a man, without any very distinctive qualities or qualifications of any kind.

If Mr. Kellogg had been placed on either of the regular tickets, which would have given him a ghost of a chance for an election, he would undoubtedly have been the successful candidate before the people. But as matters now stand, his candidacy will only strengthen or weaken one of the regular candidates.

County Commissioners.—The Republican candidates are William Meydenbauer, of Seattle; C. W. Lawton, of White River, and J. W. Borst, of Snoqualmie.

Mr. Meydenbauer is a well educated, intelligent and successful business man; the proprietor of the "Eureka Bakery" in this city, and a large dealer in groceries and provisions. He is well qualified by education, business habits and general knowledge of municipal affairs, to discharge the duties of the office of Commissioner acceptably to the people.

C. W. Lawton is an enterprising and prosperous farmer, probably the most scientific agriculturist and horticulturist in this Territory, and takes an active interest in every measure which tends to promote the prosperity of the county. He is the master of a Grange and has just succeeded Dr. Kellogg as President of the Western Washington Industrial Association. His business qualifications are of the first order, and he maintains an irreproachable character as a citizen.

J. W. Borst is a heavy stock raiser in the eastern portion of the county, and has for several years past been engaged extensively in the marketing of meats on Puget Sound. He is a man of fair New England education, good business qualifications and irreproachable moral character.

The opposing candidates are J. Settle, M. B. Maddocks and James Begley. Mr. Settle we believe has no regular vocation, but is a sort of street broker, small note shaver and speculator in tax titles. A man of no marked individuality and not much mind. It is generally believed he would do whatever Horton should tell him to do, if he was a Commissioner. Maddocks is pretty well known to the citizens of the county as the "Mad Poet," and has been the cause of great discussion among his acquaintances as to whether he is a genius or a fool. We don't assume either side of that question; but believe him to be a man of fair common sense mixed with foolish manners and notions. Mr. Begley we never heard of before, and do not know of any body who pretends to know him. He would probably make as good a Commissioner as either of the others on the same ticket.

For Surveyor.—W. B. Hall is the Republican and Harry Pike the "People's" candidate for County Surveyor. They are both old and well known citizens and both undoubtedly competent for the position.

For School Superintendent.—Professor J. H. Hall, a professional teacher, formerly at the head of the University, and now principal of our city school system, is the Republican candidate, and Thos. B. Morris, Chief Engineer of the Seattle and Walla Walla is the "People's" candidate. Both are eminent in their respective vocations, and probably Professor Hall could manage the survey and construction of a railroad quite as well as Mr. Morris could manage the school system of the county.

For Coroner.—Dr. S. F. Chapin is the Republican and Dr. G. A. Weed the "People's" candidate. Both competent men.

For Wreckmaster.—R. H. Beatty is the Republican and William Henderson, Esq., the "People's" candidate. The former has held the office for nearly twenty years, during which time it is said, he has never been called upon to perform an official act; no wreck having occurred in his jurisdiction. When Henderson gets in, probably a steamer will be smashed up every day. Billy is on it, decidedly, and he proposes to make things lively for the boys. We are only surprised that the Convention which nominated him did not put him at the head instead of the tail of the ticket.

"Is he not?" "Certainly," she replied. "no gentleman will report private conversation in a public speech." And she got up.

We can only account for this exceptional aberration from social proprieties on the part of Mr. White, as a result of early education. He is but a recent convert to Democracy, and was educated in the old Whig school of politics which regarded Democracy as the representative term of all that was low, ignorant and degraded in both politics and social life. He may think that in becoming a Democrat he is absolved, from an observance of the rules which govern the intercourse of gentlemen. Or it may be, he is subject to one of the infirmities of Mr. Clay, his political model. Old Mr. Gale, the Nestor of the Washington press, in comparing Mr. Webster and Mr. Clay, said Mr. Webster was always a gentleman, but Mr. Clay, sometimes, under the influence of liquor, would forget he was a gentleman.

MERCENARY POLITICS.—The editor of the Olympia Standard, a few years since the publisher of "the only Republican paper in Washington Territory," in speaking of Mr. O'Meara, the editor of the Courier and the editor of the Dispatch, in connection, says:

"During the war and long after its close, these patriotic gentlemen were found fighting side by side in the same old ditch, and the same motives which actuated them then inspire them now. When speaking of disinterestedness, they can smile sweetly; while petting each other on the back they can say truly 'you know how it is yourself, old boy.' The one gets paid out of the corruption fund, and the other is to be rewarded by the appointment of local Inspector of Customs at Seattle. The one relieves our 'pure' officials of their spare cash, and the other relieves an old and respected Republican of office. Gentlemen, we applaud your tactics. Go in and win, but we pity your unfortunate dupes, the honest Republicans, who must come down with the cash and give up office to buy your penny-whistles."

No doubt he applauds such tactics. They accord exactly with his own views of the aim and end of all political action, and he is a representative of what he dignifies by the name of Democracy. His modes of thought and habits of life utterly disqualify him from forming a conception of a political act disconnected from a selfish motive, and where no such motive is apparent, he invents one upon which to maintain his theory, as in the present instance. The facts are, that Mr. O'Meara is no more the subsidized instrument of a party than is the man who sets the type or furnishes paper.

In accepting employment for his professional services, he surrenders no principles and compromises no attribute of independence, and receives no more for his labor than he honestly earns. The views and sentiments he utters are his own, and whenever they conflict with those of the publisher who employs him, their connection ceases with no more humiliation on one side than on the other. With the officials he has no business connection, whatever may be his relations with his employer, who is alone responsible to him for his pay for professional services. It is not regarded as at all improper to hire public speakers to appear in an election canvass, but very wrong to employ editors for like service.

As to the charge against us, which Gen. Murphy applauds, we have to say that it is a pure invention, without any foundation in fact. We never, on any occasion, made our support of any man, measure, or party, conditioned upon any consideration of personal gain, express or implied. Our relations to Mr. Webster, the Collector of Customs, are of the closest intimacy, and yet we have never sought a favor at his hands which would compromise his party standing, and he has never intimated to us an intention of appointing us Inspector of Customs at Seattle. The only contribution we ever levied upon any candidate or party, was for printing and advertising at ordinary rates, and have very rarely received that. Two years ago, for all the work we did to elect McFadden and the Reform ticket in this county, we did not receive enough to pay for the stock used in election printing, because we laid no claims to patronage on party grounds. When Mr. O'Meara and we were "found fighting side by side," through contumely and reproach, at the sacrifice of property and the peril of life and liberty, in the defence of Democratic principles and for the maintenance of the Democratic party, Gen. Murphy was fattening at the public crib as a reward for his loyalty. Now, when he has again reached a place at the public crib without personal or pecuniary sacrifice, as a Democrat, he taunts us with being actuated by mercenary motives in not following his lead. Murphy and his kind now constitute the Democracy of Washington Territory. The organization is kept up solely for the purpose of black-mailing candidates, and not for the purpose of maintaining any Democratic principle. The candidates have uniformly been robbed by their pretended supporters. Gov. Moore was nearly beggared; McFadden was nominated for the money promised and paid by the Northern Pacific Railroad, and now Sharpstein is selected as a victim for plunder, because he is said to be rich. An anxious crowd of uncompromising Democrats are now waiting for his gold. If that fails, their support fails. We want no part in a mercenary or purchased Democracy.

CONSISTENT DEMOCRATS.—The Walla Walla Statesman, the special organ of Mr. Sharpstein, says:

"It is sickening to hear the so-called Democrats, who two years since figured in getting up the 'Dolly Varden ticket,' now prating about their Democracy, and calling themselves 'Bedrockers.' For years these very same men have been 'conspiring' with the Republicans, and it was only at the last election that they formed a combination with the Republicans for the purpose of defeating Sam Smith, one of the truest Democrats that ever lived. Nice men these to prate about their Democracy!"

The same here. There has not been a public meeting, convention or caucus of the Democratic party in this county for the past four years. There have been no public announced Democratic nominations made in this county during that time, and the only representatives the party has had in a Territorial Convention, has been by delegates elected by half a dozen of the faithful generally meeting at Perkins' office. The late Democratic Territorial Convention was mostly made up of delegates self-elected and proxies and presented a candidate who had publicly renounced his allegiance to the Democratic party, denounced the same as mercenary and corrupt and accepted a nomination from an adverse party; and old Democrats who refuse to join in a combination in the interest of John M. Murphy and the Judson family are denounced as "bolters." Here is a party without an organization, without a platform, and without a nomination according to Democratic usage, shaking the party lash over the heads of others for daring to think and act for themselves. Is it not sickening?

Mr. White followed in a red hot Democratic speech, brilliant in rhetoric, faulty in logic and inaccurate in facts. We regret that our space precludes further notice at this time. We will attend to his arraignment of Judge Jacob's railroad record to-morrow.

Major Haller, on call, made a few remarks denouncing the President for his recent action in the Louisiana case. Hon. Beverly Johnson, a Southern States Rights Democrat, in a letter recently published, says the President had no alternative, under his Constitutional obligations but to sustain the Government of the State de facto. But great statesmen will sometimes differ.

H. L. Blanchard, Esq., then in a few modest and appropriate words, announced his acceptance of the Democratic nomination for Prosecuting Attorney, without making any allusion to his own political status.

George N. McConaha, Esq., the Republican candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, was called out, and briefly declared his adhesion to the Republican party and its measures.

W. T. Ballou, a Democratic candidate in Snohomish county, got upon the stand and attempted to make a speech, but was hooted off and the meeting adjourned.

The Walla Walla Union gives this paragraph: Some of the Independents who propose to vote for Mr. Sharpstein are not very well satisfied with the attitude of their candidate. A short time since he left the Democratic party and appealed to Heaven to witness the rectitude of his intentions, and now they find him accepting the nomination of that party. Now, when was he sincere? If he was sincere when he left his party, he is not sincere now. And if he is sincere now, he was not then. Perhaps the most of them will vote for him, but we have the first man to find who can satisfactorily, to himself even, reconcile the double position assumed by the one man. In other words, they cannot explain how he can be a good Independent and a good Democrat at the same time.

which he accepts the nomination for Delegate, passed a resolution against municipal aid to railroads. Which master does he serve? His record is more in accordance with the Democratic than with the Independent resolutions. When he accepted the Democratic nomination he abandoned the Independent party and left a vacancy in the Independent ticket, as he had before abandoned the Democratic party to accept a minor nomination from the Independent party. If the Republican party should offer him a better bill, we fear to contemplate the consequences to the Democratic party. As a matter of fact, Mr. Sharpstein has never been identified with an organized effort to promote the building of the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad, and has never subscribed for a share of the stock of the company, and his professed friendship for the road commenced with his candidacy.

The balance of Mr. Sharpstein's speech, which occupied in all about 30 minutes, was mainly devoted to national politics, the tariff and Southern outrages, which are not strict party issues anywhere, and have no more to do with our local elections than the anti-war issues on the slavery question, and only served to put his claim for support strictly on party grounds.

Summons.

THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON, holding terms at the City of Seattle, in and for the Counties of King, Kitsap and Snohomish, do hereby summon, to appear before me, at the Court House in the City of Seattle, on the 29th day of October, A. D. 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the following named parties, to answer the complaint filed therein, within thirty days (exclusive of the day of service) after the date of this summons, if they do not appear, the said complaint shall stand for judgment by default, to be taken against them, and the said action shall proceed as if they were parties thereto.

JOSEPHINE ROMINES, Defendant, vs. Complaint filed in the County of King, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court. The United States of America, said Greeting to JOSEPHINE ROMINES, Defendant.

You are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the said complaint and for judgment for the sum of $300 and costs.

Witness the Hon. Orange Jacobs, Judge of said Court, and the seal thereof, the 20th day of October, A. D. 1874. L. B. ANDREWS, Clerk. McNAUGHT & LEARY, Attys. for Plff. Oct. 22-65

To the Voters of King County.

I hereby announce myself as an Independent candidate for the Auditorship of King county at the ensuing election in November next. The following are some of my reasons for doing so: First—Since the action of the "People's Convention," on the 4th inst., have been made known, I have been solicited by many voters both in the City and from the country, to run Independent.

Second—I believe that said Convention was controlled by a "clique" or "ring"—was not a fair expression of the people—and that I am not bound by its actions.

Third—It is a well known fact that I received in said Convention nearly the entire vote of the Country Delegation; and all of the City votes not previously pledged or influenced by said "ring."

Fourth—That in consequence of sickness in my family this Summer, and other misfortunes which I have met in Seattle, I am out of business or employment, and I desire the office as a source of living.

I am under no obligations to any man, clique, or party, and, if elected, will attend to the business of my life, and endeavor to do justice to all, without fear or favor from any. I have many reasons for believing that the "ring" will resort to and use every means in their power to defeat my election; no matter how low or unjust those means may be; and I hereby call on my friends and all other persons in the County who are opposed to cliques and rings running the affairs of this County, to come to my support and assist in putting them down.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

Seattle, W. T., Oct. 22, 1874.

REPUBLICAN TICKET!

FOR CONGRESS, ORANGE JACOBS. FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, 3d DIST. GEORGE N. McCONAHA.

- FOR COUNCILMAN, J. C. Kellogg, REPRESENTATIVES, Robert Abrams, A. J. Hughes, PROBATE JUDGE, David Higgins, AUDITOR, D. T. Wheeler, SHERIFF, L. V. Wyckoff, TREASURER, George D. Hill, ASSESSOR, H. G. Thornton, COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, Wm. Meydenbauer, C. W. Lawton, J. W. Borst, COUNTY SURVEYOR, W. B. Hall, SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT, J. H. Hall, CORONER, S. F. Chapin, WRECKMASTER, R. H. Beatty.

MARRIED—In this city, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Daniel Bagby, Mr. J. Hall to Miss Etta Scott.

ACCIDENT—A little son of Mr. Geo. Robinson of Port Blakely, while playing with some other children in this city yesterday, fell and broke his leg.

WORN—In this city, on the 19th inst., to the wife of Capt. G. Ross, a son.

The meeting of the Executive Committee of the People's Party of King County, called for to-day, Tuesday, has been adjourned until Saturday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

SHARPSTEIN COMING.—The following telegram was received here on Saturday evening: OLYMPIA, Oct. 17, 1874.

To S. F. COOMBS: Sharpstein's arrived. Guns firing, bands playing, torch-light procession. Participants to-morrow. JOHN M. MURPHY.

At last accounts the mine was still playing. It is announced by posters that Mr. Sharpstein will address the citizens of this town, at the Pavilion, on Tuesday evening.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Passengers per steamer Los Angeles for Victoria: Mrs. Wilson, F. J. Barnard, R. Penney, Miss Mary Brown, Mrs. Lutz, Mr. Van-dajars and 6 others. A. P. D. McElmou, Wm. Fisher and wife, Chas. Jones, Mrs. James Sime, Fletcher, wife and child, D. Hatcher and wife, Mrs. Forman and child, Dr. Crook, James Croeson, L. Meyer and wife, Mrs. J. E. Miller and brother, Miss L. Williams, C. H. Large and Brother, Thos. O'Neal, and a large number in steamer.

DR. HARKELL'S lecture last night at the Pavilion was a grand success; a brilliant audience being present. His superior orchestra played, and the congregation led by the Doctor, sang, "From Greenland's Fjords Mountains" after which a prayer was offered by the Lecturer that was characteristic of the positiveness, good sense and simplicity of the speaker. It is impossible for us to describe it. Talk about short hand reporting!—We would as soon try to follow short flashes of lightning. His illustrations, applications, and logical deductions poured out in a volume of plain words that they came from the heart of an earnest man, one out of the old ruts of formality and Phraseseism. His description of the life and death of a prominent actor, the burning of the "Oceanians," John Maynard and the Dungenon comes thrilled the audience and bursts of applause were only kept back by a request of the Doctor not to applaud him. We would have been glad to have had every man, woman and child in the land to have heard him. He goes to Fort Townsend to-day and will receive a complimentary benefit from the Occidental Brotherhood, at the Pavilion, on Friday, October 23.

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

AUGUSTA, Oct. 16.—Alex. H. Stephens made a two and a half hours speech here last evening. He said the passage of the civil rights bill would work great evil and destroy public school system of the South. President Grant, he would do him justice to say, had done his duty. He, Stephens, had no objection to a third term, personally. He spoke hope fully of the future of the Republic. He advised his hearers to obey the laws, suppress lawlessness and be true to the Constitution and Union as established by our fathers. He proclaimed himself a Jefferson Democrat and had great faith in the triumph of those principles.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—A Post's Washington special says that a dispatch received at the Attorney General's office this morning from the U. S. Marshal at Montgomery, Ala., states that 42 arrests of persons guilty of outrages upon Republicans and for stopping the U. S. mails, have been made.

The latest returns from the Third Iowa District give Ainsworth, anti-Monopoly, 29 majority, and his supporters claim his election, but it will probably take the full official vote of all the counties to decide the result.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 16.—The latest returns from all Legislative Districts in the State show the following result:—Union, Democrats, 23, Republicans, 24, Independents, 3; Lower House, Democrats, 52, Republicans, 37, Independents, 11. The Democratic majority on the State Ticket will probably reach 13,000.

LETTLE ROCK, Oct. 16.—Returns from 14 additional counties hold up to the estimate of last night, 75,000 for Constitution.

TORONTO, Oct. 16.—A Port Garry dispatch says that a declaration of outlawry has been issued by the Court of Queen's Bench, in Manitoba, against Louis Riel. This settles the question whether Riel is or is not a fugitive from justice and the claim he might make to sit unmolested in the House of Commons.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The steamers engaged in laying the direct Atlantic cable have all sailed and wait only for repairs to the Farraday, which will soon be completed.

The Glasgow University will elect a Lord Rector, Nov. 16 and an active canvass is progressing. The Conservative students support Disraeli for re-election and the Liberals are divided, some going for Forster and others for Ralph Waldo Emerson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Greenbacks, 91 @ 1 1/2.

Oct. 18.—Returns to the Department of Agriculture at Washington show the aggregate yield of the wheat crop west of the Mississippi is short of last year. Missouri increases 29 per cent. Nebraska 1 per cent. Minnesota declines 16 per cent. Iowa 2 and Kansas 6.

Grasshoppers have been destructive to Spring wheat in these States. The quality is below last year in all except Minnesota which improves 25 per cent. On the Pacific Coast the crop is greatly increased and fully 50 per cent. above the census year. California has increased her yield 10 per cent. and Oregon 11 per cent. Oregon equals the quality of last year's crop, California improves here by 3 per cent. The total yield will nearly if not quite equal the census year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—It is understood that the report of special agent Elliott on affairs of Alaska will urge the removal of troops from that country to the establishment of better and cheaper supervision of Government interests there, which is now suffering under a clumsy and inefficient system; the protection of the sea otter trade extension there by Congress; of criminal laws of Oregon and Washington Territory, so that murderers and other criminals may be punished. The proposed immigration of Icelanders to Alaska is condemned and emigrants are recommended to settle on Puget Sound, where the climate and resources are very superior.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 17.—The Concordia, Parish Grand Jury composed of 7 white and balance colored, have found a true bill against Young, a colored member of the Legislature, for the embezzlement of $30,000 belonging to the Parish; also against Owen Stewart, the Sheriff, for obtaining property under false pretences.

FRANKLIN, La., Oct. 17.—The Parish nominating convention of White Leaguers of St. Mary was held here to-day and adopted resolutions recognizing freely all political and civil rights of colored citizens, and in order to demonstrate this fact, gave power to Executive Committee to retire some of the names of candidates for Parish offices nominated to-day and replace them with those of any competent colored men up to half of the ticket; they also invite the colored people to meet them in mass meeting on Oct. 24, to nominate their candidate and accept this proposition.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Oct. 13.—A meeting of Cubans on the 10th inst., engaged in celebrating of the 6th anniversary of the Declaration of Cuban Independence, was dispersed by order of the Governor by the police, who were directed to take the names of those who refused to leave. Ouesada, who was speaking at the time, said that having no country of their own they were obliged to obey illegal orders of those who imagined they had the power to prevent an innocent gathering.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Last night, Stevedore Peter Doran, on bark E. H. Kingsman, was shot and instantly killed by the first mate of the vessel, John Whitman. The latter is in custody. He claims he acted in self-defence.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—An Indiana olig, Ind., special to the Interocen concedes the Democratic victory and majority in the Legislature of 6 on joint ballot, thus insuring the election of Democratic Senator in the place of Pratt. It is generally understood that Hon. J. M. MacDonald will be elected by the Democrats to the place.

A Yankton, Dakota, dispatch says a party of 7, who left there 10 days ago for the Black Hills, were attacked while in camp at the mouth of the Little Platte River by a party of Sioux, who killed two and wounded three of the party, but were finally repulsed with 10 killed and wounded. The party returned to Yankton.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The main party of Lieutenant Wheeler's exploring expedition have returned to Washington. Lieutenant Wheeler and Dr. Yarrow have returned to hasten the publication of their reports. There are still 8 parties of the same expedition, who will continue the work as long as the weather will permit.

Post Chaplain, Moses J. Kelly, is relieved from duty in the Department of Columbia and ordered to the Department of Dakota.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—A Washington special says ex-Governor Davis and B. Baker are at the head of a delegation, which arrived to-day to assist the authorities in selecting men to be appointed to Federal offices that are to be vacated. The removals decided upon are Postmasters at Dallas, Galveston, Houston and Elginham; Collectors of Customs at Corpus Christie and Galveston; Collectors of Internal Revenue at Galveston, Benham and Tyler. The Internal Revenue Districts of Galveston and Benham are to be consolidated.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—E. E. Morgan & Sons, extensive dealers in wheat for this State and Oregon Grains, have failed. London and San Francisco bank is limited. It is said to be the principal creditor.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 19.—There will probably be a meeting of a conference committee to-morrow, the Conservatives having sent to-day a note to the Republicans inviting a conference. 20 days is allowed for filling vacancies in the returning board by terms of conference agreement, which expired to-day. The Conservative are ready with their men to fill the 2 vacancies promised. Governor Kellogg has not yet been able to obtain the required resignations.—But four members of the returning board have agreed to resign provided Wells will resign. Wells is absent. Date of his return is uncertain.

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—It is reported that the last domiciliary visit to the residence of Von Arnim was merely for the purpose of delaying his train. Von Arnim is in close confinement, awaiting his trial 3 weeks hence. He is charged with insubordination.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—Full returns of elections yesterday for vacancies in the Assembly show that in Delisse, Eroyand, Bonapartist, leads the poll in Pas de Clais, but as he fails of a majority, a new election will be necessary. BATONNE, Oct. 19.—Francis Girard, Representative of the English Carlist Committee, and Cecil Buckland, Correspondent of the New York Times, started yesterday for Carlist's headquarters, and from reports at hand, it is believed that both have been shot by Republicans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Times has received no further information as to the shooting of its correspondent, Mr. Buckland. Intelligence of the affair was immediately communicated to the Post Master General Jewell, whose Secretary Buckland had been in Russia. He replied that he could only conjecture that Buckland was shot on the pretence that he was a spy, as Mr. Buckland and his companion, Mr. Girard, are Englishmen; that the duty would devolve upon England of demanding from Spain an explanation; that the action to be taken by England would depend much upon the attitude of the press of that country, and General Jewell hoped that his voice would be unanimous for prompt and decisive measures.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Justices Davis and Bradley have arrived, were to-day in their places on the Supreme bench. Court to-morrow takes up the case of Woodson vs. Murdoch and others, involving the question of the right of the State of Missouri to sell property of the Pacific Railroad Co. to satisfy her claim for advances made toward the completion of the road.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 19.—A Committee of 50 to-day, sent to Governor Kellogg a communication, disclaiming the sentiment of the address adopted at the mass meeting in Central Church on the 8th inst.: Because we are not yet prepared to repudiate Republicanism, nor join its opponents. We pledge ourselves to support the Republican principles as represented by the National party as long as it continues to support and vindicate equality of all men, if the present state of the Administration concedes to us that which we deem just. We further pledge ourselves to give it our loyal and cordial support.

The report was amended to a call for details of outrage to December 1st. Committee on Resolutions declared that the Republican citizens of reconstructed States recognized the equality of all men before the law, reaffirm the platform of equal rights and federal legislation in sustaining the law and order, endorse the President's action in Louisiana, and denounce the Democrats of the South for sustaining the KuKlux, deprecate drawing race and color lines, recommend more faithful and honest officials, urge appropriation of public lands for educational purposes. The resolutions were adopted. A resolution asking Congress to order a new election in Texas, was adopted, several members protesting. Executive Committee of 11 was appointed. Chairman of Committee on Address reported a long address, reviewing the terrible condition of the Southern States, and contrasting the peace of the North during political contests with the chaos at the South; the pride of former slave holders, aspersions and anxiety of negro produce this condition of affairs. been a much happier man but who can tell what might have been the fate of the nation, but for the pure, unselfish and wise administration of Abraham Lincoln from March, 1864 (1860?) to the day when the hand of an assassin opened a grave for Mr. Lincoln, then President of the United States.

My personal relations with him were as close and intimate as the nature of our respective duties would permit. To know him personally was to love and respect him for his great qualities of heart and head and for his patience and patriotism, with all his disappointments from failures on the part of those to whom he had entrusted a command, and treachery on the part of those who had gained his confidence but to betray it. I never heard him utter complaint nor cease to endeavor for bad conduct or bad faith. It was his nature to find an excuse for his adversary. In his death the nation lost her greatest and the South her most just friend.

A man in an adjoining county died recently who had taken his county papers for twelve years without paying for it. Upon the day of his burial the kind-hearted, forgiving editor called to see him for the last time and stuffed a linen duster and a couple of palmleaf fans into the coffin. He was prepared for a warmer climate.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the tonic herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountain of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters are: Brandy, Diarrhoeic, Nutrients, Laxative, Digestive, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sanguifer, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

It is a remarkable fact that VINEGAR BITTERS has cured more cases of Biliousness than any other medicine.

No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and receive any benefit, unless they are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Biliousness, Rheumatism, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, which their watery, purgative, and tonic properties, during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essential. There is no cathartic for this purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

It is worthy the body against disease, and is the only medicine which will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.
