The Electoral Vote.

The death of Mr. Greeley, after the popular vote had been cast for electors, and before the final vote of the electoral college, presents a phase of the electoral law which might have resulted in embarrassing complications had the deceased been entitled to a majority of the electoral votes. It will be recollected that the present law was adopted to avoid a repetition of the conflict which arose between Jefferson and Burr in 1801. Under the old law two candidates for President were voted for; the candidate receiving the highest number of votes was declared elected President, and the one receiving the next highest number Vice President.

At the general election in 1800, Jefferson and Burr received the same number of votes for President. The election consequently went to the House to be determined by a majority of States. After a long and very excited contest Mr.
Jefferson was elected by the change of the vote of Vermont, which change was declared to be against the popular sentiment of the State. The same Congress took the initiative to changing the constitutional mode of election to the present system, creating an electoral college with the special power to elect a President and Vice President. In case no candidate for either of those offices receives a majority of the votes cast in the electoral college, Congress is to choose by a majority of States between the three receiving the highest number of votes. Under this rule, John Quincy Adams was elected President in 1825.

Presidential Electors are not bound by law to vote for the candidates for whom they are instructed. In 1829 Pierre A. Baker, elected as a Presidential Elector on the Adams ticket in New York, cast his vote in the electoral college for Andrew Jackson. His excuse was, that the general vote indicated a large popular majority for Jackson, and he held the will of the whole people of the nation paramount to the instructions of his party or section. The act of Mr.
Baker under the circumstances was commended by our best statesmen.

The case now arises in which the electors chosen for Greeley are not committed by any legal or moral obligation as to the candidate for whom they shall cast their votes. As party men, they are not bound to vote for any man of their own party, for they were elected to vote for Mr. Greeley, who was never a member of their party, and there would be no inconsistency in casting their votes for any other Republican, if they thought the public weal would be served thereby.

Under these circumstances we entirely agree with the recommendation of the Nashville Banner that the Greeley electors cast their votes for Grant and make his election unanimous. It would be a graceful and patriotic surrender to the inevitable, and go far towards obliterating party lines, which now only indicate a distinction without a difference. No better plan could be pursued to gain the reforms sought for by those who supported Greeley, than by joining in the support of the Administration. President Grant has in various acts since his election, unmistakably indicated his determination to make his Administration hereafter as conservative as the most ardent reformer could reasonably desire.
His appointments of a non-partisan post master in Philadelphia solely on the ground of qualification for the office, against the earnest appeals and protestations of leading politicians; his positive refusal to interfere in the Louisiana political embroglio; his prompt rebuke of the partisan action of the U. S.
Marshal in the matter of the election of a Senator in Mississippi, and last, throughout not least, the appointment of that eminent conservative and distinguished jurist and statesman, Ward Hunt, of New York, to the vacant judgship on the Supreme bench, are acts which no reform President could better, and are an earnest of what he intends to do hereafter; a policy which would be greatly strengthened and encouraged by an unanimous assurance of the confidence reposed in him.

Success at Last.
We are gratified to see that our old-time friend, Sam. M. Brookes has, after many years of patient struggle, reached the highest point of fame as an artist.
Nearly thirty years ago we passed along Lake street in Chicago, then a seedy town of shanties, we noticed hanging in a case at a door some miniatures in a water color, which impressed us at once with the remarkable skill of the artist.
Climbing the stair we found Brookes, then a young man, industriously at work at his easel, and thus began an acquaintance which ripened into a friendship which has withstood the wear of years. It was our good fortune to have it in our power to aid in bringing young Brookes into notice, and the result was that in a short time he was enabled to go to Italy and pursue his studies. Returning to this country he settled in Wisconsin, and was for a long time employed by the State Historical Society in painting portraits of the pioneers of that state, and views of prominent historical scenes.

For over ten years he has been in San Francisco, slowly making his way unnoticed by the mass and appreciated by only a few. He is now the most celebrated still-life painter of the age, and his pictures are purchased at his own price as soon as completed. Brookes the past full had a commission from a patron to paint a cluster of grapes, the variety known as the Flaming Tokay, being chosen as being richest in color.
This he painted from a study in the open air in a vineyard in Sonoma County. This completed, he also painted another picture of a bunch of the Muscat of Alexandria, and one of the home-grape of California called the Mission grape. When the pictures were completed the patron was wholly unable to decide which one to take—so solved the difficulty by purchasing the whole at a cost of $300 apiece. These are the paintings alluded to in the clipping below which we take from the Alta.

Two of Brookes pictures, one a bunch of fruit, and one a study of fish, may be seen in T. S. Russell's window for a few days.

S. M. Brookes continues his original and striking studies in fruit, directly from nature, and has no lack of buyers at good prices. A study of California wild cherries, and the bay, with its clusters of olive-like nuts, which he lately executed, is very faithful and effective.
But more remarkable are three separate studies of grapes, the Flaming Tokay, the Muscat of Alexandria, and the Mission variety, painted during a recent visit to Sonoma county. These are marvelously natural in form, color and pulpiness, in their graceful surroundings of autumn-tinted leaves, in the freshness of their bloom, in their rounded fullness and stereoscopic relief, and in the warm sunny glow of their background and shadows, suggesting the rich atmosphere in which they grew and ripened.
We have never seen any grape painting so fresh, crisp and feebly. Only simple branches hang against a wall, and yet so much of open-air nature—such hearty truth. It is a pleasure to see such good work and as for praising it, it speaks its own praise.

Proceedings of City Council.
SEATTLE, Dec. 5, 1872.
Council met pursuant to adjournment.
Present, C. P. Stone, Mayor; L. V.
Wyckoff, Marshal; Councilmen, F. Matthias, S. F. Coombs, B. Gatzert, M. R.
Maddocks, J. F. Jordan, L. B. Andrews J. M. Lyon.

Minutes of preceding meeting were amended by correcting that portion of the minutes referring to the salary of Street Commissioner and were then approved. Minutes of the special meeting were read and approved.

Reports of Marshal and Recorder were read and ordered placed on file.

The reports of the Committee appointed to investigate and report upon matters contained in the petition of the Seattle Coal Transportation Co. was received and the committee discharged.

Motion made and carried that the petition of the Seattle Coal Transportation Co. be restricted taking streets and granted with certain reservations hereafter contained in the city ordinances, if said company agree to accept the conditions imposed.

Motion made and carried that the petition of Anderson and Hopkins in reference to cemetery plats, etc., be laid over to next meeting.

The petition of S. P. Andrews, et al., in reference to building a sidewalk on James street was received, placed on file and the clerk instructed to draw up an ordinance in accordance with said petition.

Ordinance No. 35 in reference to sidewalks read and passed.

Motion made and carried that the city pay John Christ the sum of $20 per month, for services as night watchman, from this date. Motion made and carried that the action of the council in reference to the petition of Anderson and Hopkins, be reconsidered. The council then granted to Anderson & Hopkins the same privileges, in reference to the Seattle Cemetery as have been extended to T. S. Russell & Co.

Motion made and carried that the cemetery plats of the city be placed in the council room; and all purchasers of cemetery lots shall give the clerk the number of the lots purchased, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to place the name of the purchaser upon said number and marked on said plats.

Motion made that Ordinance No. 22, in reference to closing the front doors of saloons and drinking houses, be repealed. Motion lost.

The clerk was then instructed to draw up an ordinance prohibiting the sale of liquors on Sunday, and present the same to the council for approval on Monday evening next.

The Council adjourned to meet Dec.
20th at 7 o'clock P. M.

OFFICIAL CANVASS.—

In the late election for Delegate to Congress, O. B. Mc-Fadden received 4,255 votes; S. Gar-fielde, 3,546 votes. Total vote 7,801.
Majority for McFadden, 709.

Mr. Clarence Bagley has taken the local department of the editorial staff of the Olympia Courier.

BEARS.—Mr. Ira Wooden, on the 18th inst., killed three large black bears, on the Samamish river, in this county, in one day, and he says it was not a good day for bears, at that. We should think not.

DIED.—In Olympia, on the 2d inst., an infant son of Rev. Thomas E. Dickey

At the close of his "Recollections of a Busy Life," written four years ago, Horace Greeley said: "My life has been busy and anxious, but not joyless.
Whether it shall be prolonged a few or more years, I am gratified that it has endured so long. Looking calmly yet humbly for that close of my mortal career which cannot be far distant, I reverently thank God for the blessings vouchsafed me in the past; and with an awe that is not fear, and a consciousness of demerit which does not exclude hope, await the opening before my steps of the gates of the Eternal World."

Dr. Weed has removed his office to Stone & Burnett's new building, next door to the rooms lately occupied by Dr. Lathrop.

The San Francisco Bulletin of Nov. 25 gives a list of thirty-four vessels, with an aggregate capacity of 33,400 tons, or 920,000 cents, engaged to load with wheat at that port for England. The Bulletin adds: "There are no disengaged vessels in port, and no very urgent demand for them at present rates. Wheat vessels are arriving about as fast as they can be discharged and loaded, in connection with other demands on our wharf facilities."

BORN.—In this City, Dec. 6, to the wife of Berial Brown, a son.

The Captain of a vessel lately arrived at Tacoma reports that he passed through miles of lumber when opposite the mouth of the Columbia. There is little doubt that it is the cargo of the missing schooner Walter Raleigh, Capt.
Hanson, which sailed from Freeport, with lumber for San Francisco, over six weeks ago.

We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Waddell & Miles. Call and see them.

ENTERPRISE.—W. G. Jamieson, the enterprising jeweler, since his return from San Francisco, has been fitting up his store very nicely. He has enlarged by tearing down a partition at the back of the store throwing the two rooms into one. The store is now furnished with six handsome counters surmounted with six show cases of plate glass containing the finest descriptions of jewelry, silver ware, etc. The front has been painted an imitation of iron to correspond with Schwabacher's new store, next door, and new show windows have been put in.
We advise every one to call on him and examine his stock.

A Washington dispatch to the Sacramento Record, Nov. 22d, says: A bill which will be presented to Congress this Winter proposes radical changes in the present working of the Supreme Court. The bill contemplates an intermediate court, which shall possess the ordinary powers of the present Supreme Court, and before which all cases shall be argued. The Supreme Court to proper is to be made stationary, and the Justices relieved of all circuit duty which will be performed by the Judges of the intermediate court. The Supreme Court to give its entire attention to passing upon and deciding questions of law which may come from the intermediate court. This bill also provides that the intermediate court shall not construe any law, but decide cases in accordance with the construction of laws by the Supreme Court. This measure is deemed necessary because of the accumulation of cases on the docket of the Supreme Court.

IGNORANCE.—Several weeks since a lady, while passing along a street of Sacramento, lost two government bonds—one for $500 and the other for $100.
They were advertised for, but unsuccessfully. A few days since, however, an advertisement appeared in the Union, intimating that a bond had been found, and inquiry led to the discovery of both of those which had been lost, two boys having found them. Their families do not appear to have been aware that the papers was of value, and the big bond was kicked about loosely, the children playing with it. One of the coupons, worth $15—was traded off by one of them for an apple—probably as big a price as an apple ever brought. Another was chewed up by the baby and rendered worthless, and the bond itself was found in the wood box, but with the exception of the coupon masticated, the looser recovered all her property.

The following is the proposed advertisement of a Western tailor: "Wanted—two or three steady girls, to put on pants."

Sunrise Dana is the name of an Indian preacher in New London. He is said to be a regular Aurora.

The Cat Show at the Crystal Palace in London is generally spoken of in the newspapers of that city. Each cat is inclosed in a neat wire-work cage, with a plenty of room for the biggest of them.
In each cage is a cushion for the inmate to repose upon. They are well supplied with both meat and milk. The number exhibited, including kittens, is nearly 400. They are divided into four great classes, with prizes ranging from two guineas to five shilling, including shorthaired, and cats belonging exclusively to workmen. These are again divided into 48 classes, beginning with the short-haired tortoise-shell he-cat and going through all the varieties of brown tabbies, blue or silver tabbies, black and whites, pure white and unusual colors.
Among the interesting animals in the show is an ocelot, or young tiger-cat.
There is a tortoise shell he-cat valued by his owner at £50. A tortoise-shell he-cat short haired is something entirely new—cats of that marking being almost invariably "shes." No. 95 is valued by his owners, two maiden ladies, at £500.
To crown all, there is a cat weighing 22 pounds without his collar.

Up in Vermont (says the Hearth and Home) there lived a reprobate family named Ransom. Once, however, they were induced to attend a meeting during a revival. They came late, and had hardly taken their seats, when the preacher gave out the hymn, "Return ye ransomed sinners home." "All right," said the old man, getting up in a rage and clapping on his hat. "Come along, ole woman and gals, we'll go home fast enough, and everybody in this ole church knows we didn't want to come."

The bridge which is to connect New York with Brooklyn is being pushed forward with all convenient speed. The pier on the Brooklyn side has already reached the height of one hundred and forty feet. The bridge is to be a wire suspension, and will consequently require piers of immense height, to enable shipping to pass under the structure when completed. It is an extraordinary undertaking.

THE MIGHTY RAILROAD PROJECT.—The narrow neck of country lying between the Northern and Southern Continents of America is a decided obstruction to the free flow of modern commerce, and the brains of the best engineers in the world are perplexed with the problem how to remove it. No less than seventeen different routes for ship canals, to effect this object have been suggested within the past half century, and the labors of surveyors are not yet sufficiently near completion to settle definitely the feasibility of the reverse of slack water navigation from ocean to ocean.
Meanwhile, railway enterprise is eroded to transport ships from side to side of the Isthmus region, and a company in London is now soliciting capital to build a railway through Honduras to effect this object.

The plan has been elaborated, and the estimate made by Mr. James Burn-lass, an eminent engineer, who proposes a track made up of six parallel rails and having a gauge of twenty-five feet.
The cars to run on this colossal road are to be large enough to each carry a ship weighing, laden, 2,000 tons, and having a length of two hundred feet.
Each one will have 240 wheels, and will weigh, of itself, seven hundred tons. To get the ship from the water into, or rather upon the cars, hydraulic lifts similar to those used in graving-docks will be employed.

From five to ten locomotives will be required for each loaded car; and, in order to enable them to travel up heavy grades, recourse will be had to the old device of toothed supplemental rails provided to the track. As great strength in the track will be required, the six rails of the track proper will need to be of iron weighing 120 pounds to the yard.
As everything else is in like proportion, it is not surprising that seventy-five millions of dollars are to be called for to foot the bills.

CURE FOR A COLD.—A hot lemonad is one of the best remedies for a cold. It acts promptly and efficiently, and has no unpleasant after effects. One lemon should be properly squeezed, cut in slices, put with sugar, and covered with half a pint of boiling water. Drink just before going to bed, and do not expose yourself the following day. This remedy will ward off an attack of chills and fever if used promptly. We give it on the recommendation of one of the judges of our courts who is a just man and never takes bribes.

The President of the Oregon City Woolen Mills Company offers a reward of $2,000 for the arrest and conviction of the miscreants who fired their mills.
The company's losses, after deducting property saved and insurance is about $100,000.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

Vol. 2, No. 1. BERTHIAU BROWN, EDITOR. SEATTLE, THURSDAY, DEC. 11, 1872.

THE POWER OF THE PRESS.—Ten years ago, Leavenworth, in Kansas, was the most flourishing and prosperous city west of St. Louis and east of the Rocky Mountains, and at the same time Kansas City, only a few miles from there, was the most dilapidated. Now Kansas City has a population of over 40,000 and is the leading commercial city between St. Louis and San Francisco, and Leavenworth has not advanced a step during that time, with superior advantages of location and the prestige of a growth which promised to distance all rivals. A few days since an intelligent gentleman who had resided in both of those cities was in our office, and we asked him the reason of the remarkable change, which could not be accounted for on any topographical or commercial principles. He promptly answered that it was owing entirely to the superiority of the Kansas City newspaper press over that of its rival city. He said that the proprietors of Kansas City spent thousands in sustaining the very best newspaper abilities, and the investment had returned millions of dollars to them in building up their town, and the result is acknowledged by all the business men of that city. The same is true of all towns possessing any of the elements of success. No merchant or business man was ever known to be remarkably successful in business who was not a liberal advertiser, and the same rule applies to communities as well. Every newspaper is properly regarded by all strangers as the most certain index of the intelligence, thrift, enterprise and general prosperity of the locality in which it is published.

Jay Cooke & Co. have expended hundreds of thousands of dollars in advertising the advantages of Washington Territory through, elegantly written pamphlets and circulars, all of which lacked the local authenticity which would give them credit abroad, and in fact rather damaged the cause which they were intended to serve, by their fanciful descriptions, after the professional advertising style. Ten per cent. of money expended in sustaining and circulating creditable local newspaper would have served the purpose much better. At an emigrant meeting held at the Cooper Institute, New York, last season, Horace Greeley exhibited a copy of the Puget Sound Dispatch, read and endorsed extracts from the same, as a more reliable source of information than any journal of travels. Interested parties abroad are not less interested in our advertising columns, marine reports and weekly financial review, than in the mere descriptive articles in the paper, and many have conceived a better opinion of our material prosperity from these practical facts than from all the puffs that have been published by interested parties. Every citizen of a town is as much interested in maintaining a creditable newspaper as in any other project calculated to be for the public benefit. While a supported and well conducted newspaper is of inestimable advantage in promoting the growth and prosperity of the town; a feeble, starveling press is a proportionate disadvantage.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.—The Philadelphia Press gives an interesting report of an interview between the President and the Pennsylvania politicians, in the matter of the appointment of a Postmaster for Philadelphia. The delegation embraced many of the leading Republican politicians of the State, including Senator Cameron, Gen. Hartranft, the Governor elect, the Mayor of Philadelphia, and others, all urging the appointment of the chairman of the Republican Committee of Philadelphia, solely on the ground of reward for the party services he had rendered during the late election. The Mayor presented the address, setting forth in glowing terms the claims of the candidate upon the party. The President listened with quiet dignity to the address, and then informed the delegation that not only his personal inclinations but the platform upon which he was elected, compelled him to deny their petition. He felt bound to carry out, in good faith, the principles of civil service reform to which the party was pledged, and should therefore appoint the Deputy Postmaster, who had been found faithful and competent to the trust. The delegation left the presence very much discomfited, and some of them manifesting hostile intent towards the President. This first manifestation of the President's policy since his re-election, has produced great excitement among the bread-and-butter politicians, whose zeal was excited solely by hopes of reward, and it is expected that it will result in an open rupture in the party. The New York Times, the leading Republican organ comments upon this as follows:

"Our Washington dispatches speak of a possible attempt on the part of certain Congressmen to embarrass the President in the completion of Civil Service Reform. It is not impossible that such an attempt may be made, but we have no fear of the result. Indeed, the only persons who need fear the Congressmen, who engage in the scheme. The President's plan is a perfectly sincere effort to accomplish a needed reform. Do the Congressmen referred to mean to deny the need of a reform, or to question the method? If the former, they will be easily met. If the latter, let them suggest some better method." If the President adheres to this policy, as we believe he will, he will have no more earnest supporters than those who honestly and sincerely opposed his re-election for the purpose of securing this much needed reform in the civil service, and he will have the opposition only of mercenary and time-serving politicians, whose support he can now well afford to dispense with.

Resolutions Passed by Seattle Lodge No. 6 I. O. G. T.

Whereas, the City Council have undertaken to enact and enforce laws for the closing of liquor saloons on the Sabbath, and to put a stop to public gambling in the city of Seattle, therefore Resolved: That we hail with joy this determination of the Council, and congratulate the virtue-loving citizens of Seattle upon the action thus taken. Resolved: That this undertaking is just and right, and that the citizens of Seattle should be satisfied with nothing less. Resolved: That our thanks are due, and are hereby tendered to the Honorable City Council in this behalf, and that we pledge to them our hearty and earnest support and cooperation in making effectual all proper efforts for the suppression of gambling, and the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors. Resolved: That we commend the temperance cause as a good and righteous one, and would hereby cordially invite and welcome the cooperation of all persons in our efforts as a society to benefit our race, and to bring happiness to every home and person by total abstinence from all that can intoxicate. Resolved: That the thanks of this Lodge be, and they are hereby tendered to the Seattle Dispatch, for the noble stand it has taken on the side of law and order. Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Seattle Dispatch for publication.

T. CROWL, W. C. T., F. WARREN, W. S. How to Beat Him.—The Louisville Courier-Journal says the Democrats have learned by the late election how to beat Grant next time; that is, by nominating him themselves.

ACCESSIONS.—For the past month there has been a greater accession to the permanent and valuable population of Seattle, than probably ever before during a like period. Every habitable nook is filled, and new buildings are constantly going up. In standing upon the top of the hill overlooking the town, the new roofs seem to predominate the old.—This is no speculative or excited growth and has no reference whatever to the supposed plans of the Railroad company but is a prosperity commanded solely by the advantages of location for controlling the commerce of the Sound; advantages which are bound to secure for Seattle a prosperous future, let the railroad terminus be where it may.

CHANGE OF OCCUPATION.—Mr. Luce, late local editor of the Courier, has taken a partnership in a fish market in Olympia. The change is more apparent than real. The odor of the two vocations is very similar in this country.

The State of Minnesota proposes to test the power of the Legislature to limit the rates of freight and passage upon the railways doing business under the corporation laws of that commonwealth. In 1872 a law was passed prescribing a tariff of rates for freight and passengers, and making it the duty of the Attorney General to file a complaint and prosecute every company guilty of violating the act by overcharges. The penalty for such violation is the forfeiture of all corporate franchises; and the courts are upon conviction of any corporation under the law, to decree the dissolution thereof, and appoint a receiver to wind up its affairs. And in addition to these proceedings, which can only be taken at the instance of the State, the individual aggrieved by the violation of the law, may maintain an action in his own name and recover one thousand dollars as fixed and liquidated damages.

Two actions are now pending and will be taken to the Supreme Court to test the constitutionality of this act; and the State Railway Commissioner, A. J. Edgerton, Esq., thinks there is little doubt that the law will be sustained. Its severity may have a tendency toward defeating its object, as it is sometimes the case that the courts are more or less influenced in their decisions by considerations of the gravity of the consequences that may follow. The Boston Commercial Bulletin has the following: Several candidates for office were reported to have had to "down with the dust" when they were nominated. These are probably the gentlemen who "swept the State" at the election. People generally "come of age" but once, but General Grant has attained his majority this week for the second time. One of the ward officers at the polls, who had been taking votes all day, noted for his usual jaunty air, had no air at all at the closing of the polls; he was, in fact, an exhausted receiver. A contributor wishes our comments on some lines commencing "Our country's lyres are mute." We can only say that the election being over, we suppose the "lyres" occupation is gone. One of the candidates who was badly "scratched" at the election, says it has completely cured him of his "itching for office."

Some of the mill factories are said to be slacking up on account of the falling off, since the election, of the demand by political editors for supplies to enable them to announce "another lie nailed." It was found impossible to take a year and may vote on election days; there were no neigs owing to the horse disease, one phase of which was a nays all complaint of the noses. CAREFULNESS IN OLD AGE.—An old man is like an old wagon; with light loading and careful usage it will last for years; but one heavy load or sudden strain will break it and ruin it forever. So many people reach the age of fifty, or sixty, or even seventy, measurably free from most of the pains and infirmities of age, cheery in heart and sound in health, ripe in wisdom and experience, with sympathies mellowed by age, and with reasonable prospects and opportunities for continued usefulness in the world for a considerable time. Let such persons be thankful, but let them also be careful. An old constitution is like an old bone; broken with ease, mended with difficulty. A young tree bends to the gale, an old one snaps and falls before the blast. A single hard lift, an hour of heating work, an evening exposure to rain or damp, a severe chill, an excess of food, the usual indulgence of an appetite or passion, a sudden fit of anger, an improper dose of medicine, any of these or other similar things, may cut off a valuable life in an hour, and leave the fair hopes of usefulness and enjoyment but a shapeless wreck.

THE COST OF MILITARY SYSTEMS.—The Berlin Post presents some interesting figures showing the strength of the armies at the command of the three emperors who lately met in council in that city, and those of other European powers, which may be briefly summarized as follows: Kaiser William has 1,052,506 men; the Czar of Russia, has, not including the Cossacks, 1,332,404 men; the Emperor of Austria has 963,050 men; Italy has 501,977 men; England, 154,000 men; and Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Spain and Turkey together, 981,364 men. Thus we have the enormous total of 5,520,898 men who make arms a profession. These men, in the prime of life and the full development of strength and capacity for labor, are not only withdrawn from useful production to live in idleness at the expense of the State, but their maintenance and equipment must give constant employment to many thousands of producers whose labors can thus contribute nothing to the welfare of the community; and when we consider the value of the producing capacity which is thus practically wasted, we can gain some idea of the burdens imposed upon labor and capital for the maintenance of military establishments. Fortunately, wars are becoming so costly that nations will not long be able to afford to engage in them, and we think the time is not far distant when the people of all countries will demand that the burden of standing armies shall be forever lifted from their patient shoulders. The world has too many unsupplied wants to long tolerate the needless withdrawal of millions of strong and intelligent men from production, that kings and emperors may play at war.—Iron Age.

A Berlin dispatch of November 21st says: The Ecclesiastical Rights Bill, prohibiting the issuance of Decrees of Excommunication, has been submitted to the Diet. It declares that any clergyman who shall by name threaten with punishment, or decree or proclaim as punishable, a subject of Prussia, shall be liable to a fine of 5,000 thalers or two years' imprisonment, and be ineligible to office for the term of five years.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. SEATTLE, THURSDAY, DEC. 11, 1872.

Financial and Commercial.

SEATTLE, Dec. 11, 1872. The Puget Sound Banking Company report gold in New York 113, currency buying, 83; Sight Exchange on Portland and San Francisco, 1/2 per cent. premium, on New York 1 per cent. premium for Currency, 1 1/2 per cent. premium for Gold. Sterling Sight Drafts on Jay Cooke, McCullough & Co., London, England, $5 10 per £. These drafts are cashed by special agreement all over Ireland, Scotland and the Continent free of charge.

In our local money market there is no change to note from last week. Considerable sums could be loaned on real estate security at 1 1/2 per cent per month for building purposes. Our heavy real estate owners could not use their money to better advantage than by lending it to parties wishing to put up houses, by which means they can receive a good rate of interest for the use of their money, help build up the city, and guarantee in the future, fortunes in the enhanced value of their property. Emigrants to a new country are those that come to better their condition, to build up homes for their families; they are not those who have wealth enough to live on the interest of their money. They are mostly young and enterprising persons with small means who will build up cities and turn our forest into farms. They are what we need among us and should be encouraged. Let our real estate owners sell them lots on liberal time if they will improve them, and loan money at a fair rate when spent in improvements, and it will be like bread cast upon the waters; it will return ten fold in a few months.

Trade during the week has been very satisfactory; our merchants are all making money. N. C. Haley, Commission Merchant in Post Office Building, has just received by direct importation from Honolulu per bark Delaware a large consignment of syrup which he is selling at reduced rates.

Clayson & Co., pioneer importers in the China trade, have just received direct from China, another consignment of teas, which they sell only by the package.

We clip from an exchange the following:

The Executive Committee of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company have returned to St. Paul from a tour of inspection of the road in Minnesota and Dakota, as also of the St. Vincent branch. They report both roads well constructed. The rails are laid on the Northern Pacific 175 miles west of the Red River, and the track will be completed to the Missouri river, 455 miles west of Lake Superior, in about 15 days.

This shows remarkable success for this great enterprise, the building as contemplated that will be done the coming year will give us a through line by rail and river to Duluth and the Great East when travel for the North West will commence coming that way.

ANOTHER VESSEL LOST.—The brig Tanner, which sailed some time since with a load of lumber from Port Blakeley for San Francisco, is reported lost with all hands.

SPORT.—Stons & Burnett's wharf for the past two days has been crowded with persons fishing with hook and line, and thousands of tom cod, rock cod and flounders have been taken without apparently exhausting the supply.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Library Association held at their rooms, Dec. 9, J. H. Ferry, J. C. Grasse, Mrs. J. Suffer, E. Calvert, Miss E. Peebles, and O. S. Warren were admitted members.

The association was then informed of a gift from Col. Larrabee of a very valuable collection of books consisting of the West Survey of the Columbia River; U. S. Naval and Astronomical Expedition, 2 Vol.; Japan Expedition, 3 Vol.; Owens Geological Survey, 1 Vol.; Cong Globe, 3 Vol.

A vote of thanks was voted the donor by the entire board.

The Corresponding Committee presented a printed circular which was accepted the object of which was to ask of Newspaper and Periodical publishers a copy of their paper for one year in consideration of their becoming subscribers thereafter. A committee was appointed to take charge of the Literary Exercises of the Association. D. Horton being present proposed that if the Association raise $1000 within the next 60 days for the purchase of books he would add to the amount $500. In accordance with which a committee was appointed to devise ways and means to raise the required amount which is to report next Tuesday. Then adjourned.

CONGREGATIONAL FAIR.—The Fair to aid in completion of Plymouth Congregational Church edifice by the ladies and friends of the society, will be held at the Pavilion in Seattle, on the evenings of Thursday and Friday, Dec. 12th and 13th, 1872. Proceedings of City Council.

SEATTLE, Dec. 9, 1872. Council met pursuant to adjournment. Roll called. Present, C. P. Stone, Mayor; Councilmen, P. Mathias, L. B. Andrews, M. R. Maddocks, J. M. Lyon, J. T. Jordan, B. Gatzert, and S. F. Coombs. The Mayor stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of passing upon an Ordinance prohibiting the sale of liquor on Sunday, and such other business as may be brought before the Council.

Motion was made and carried that the Ordinance drafted by the clerk, prohibiting the sale of liquors on Sunday, be laid on the table.

The petition of T. S. Russell & Co., in reference to the Seattle cemetery be laid over to next meeting.

Motion made and carried that a committee of two be appointed by the Mayor to assist the clerk in drafting an Ordinance in reference to the Seattle Cemetery. S. F. Coombs and J. T. Jordan were appointed to act as said committee.

Motion made and carried that G. N. McConaha be appointed City Attorney. Council then adjourned to meet the first Thursday in January.

C. P. STONE, Mayor, G. N. McCONAHA, Clerk.

Ordinance No. 35.

IN RELATION TO SIDEWALKS. The City of Seattle does ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. That the owners of property on the east side of Fourth street commencing at the northeast corner of James and Fourth streets and running north to intersect with the sidewalk in front of the premises of Gardner Kellogg shall build a good and substantial sidewalk, six feet wide, with planks not less than an inch and a half thick.

SEC. 2. In case any person or persons shall fail to build such sidewalk within thirty days after the publication of this ordinance, the Street Commissioner is hereby authorized to build such sidewalk, and the expenses incurred in building the same are to be collected of the owners of the property as fines and penalties are received in other cases.

Passed Dec. 5th, 1872.

C. P. STONE, Mayor, G. N. McCONAHA, Clerk.

REFRESHING.—Messrs. Lowell & Lowe, have just opened a house of refreshment in the new building two doors west of the Post Office. Every body knows Dan Lowell, and all know he will keep nothing short of the best, which will be served in a style which no one can excel.

THE WALTER RALEIGH.—Capt. McGuire, of the barkentine W. H. Galloway, arrived at Port Madison on Monday, reports that he passed within forty feet of a vessel bottom up, about forty miles south of the cape. He could not make out the name of the vessel, but there is a strong probability that it was the Walter Raleigh, missing for about six weeks, on board of which was Capt. Hanson and his family, all of whom are probably lost.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, in this city, December 7, 1872, by Rev. R. W. Somers, Mr. William Pearce, of Port Ludlow, to Miss Helen Louisa Moore, only daughter of Mr. H. N. Moore, late of Massachusetts.

RUNAWAY.—While returning from the graveyard near Tumwater, this morning, the horses attached to the carriage containing Messrs. Tull and Van Trump and two ladies commenced to kick and in the attempt to control them the carriage ran against a tree, breaking the tongue and frightening the horses so that they ran away, pulling both gentlemen over the dashboard and bruising them considerably, but leaving the carriage standing with the ladies in it unharmed. The horses, now at full speed attempted to pass the carriage containing Gen. T. I. McKenny and wife, but the tongue of the other carriage caught in the wheel, upsetting the carriage, and the General's horses being frightened in turn also became unmanageable, dragging him and wife for some distance with the carriage; though both soon escaped and it was found that although severely bruised they did not appear to have sustained any serious injury. The horses continued their headlong flight and ran down over a high, precipitous hill toward Tumwater, and it is almost a miracle that the carriage was not made a total wreck and the horses killed or ruined for life, though the one was not much damaged aside from the loss of the top and the others escaped with a few bruises and scratches. It is too soon to be able to tell whether the injuries received by Gen. McKenny and wife are likely to be lasting; but under the circumstances, especially from the proximity of the steep hill or precipice, we think that each and all should be thankful that no lives were lost.—Courier

EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE DAILY DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—A New Orleans special says the Warmouth legislature held a caucus yesterday morning; but all parties are reticent. Judge Durrell's house is guarded by marshals and Packard's house is also guarded. Kellogg is entrenched in his hotel. Secretary of State Bovee was escorted in the streets by a squad of soldiers.

If Warmouth's call for the assembling of the legislature is not revoked that body will assemble early Monday to get the start of the Kellogg party. The latter meet at room and their first act will be the appointment of a body of sergeants-at-arms to arrest and bring in as guilty of contempt all absent members, numbers of whom are in the other legislature. It is expected that the whole affair will be settled on Monday. Warmouth intend exhausting every lawful means in resistance to arbitrary power, but in no event will they countenance violence.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 9.—Fusion members of the legislature assembled at Lyceum Hall. They were in caucus this morning. Each member as he passed in was served by a U. S. Deputy Marshall with a copy of Durrell's restraining order. Mechanic's Institute is still in charge of military sentinels to guard State official, and members of legislature recognized by custom house board. Reporters and their political friends are admitted. Congressman Demell and ex-Mayor Flanders are on the floor of the House. Both sides claim a quorum in the House but the clerk is doubtful. Vigors, the old clerk of the House, whose duty it is to call the roll, was arrested yesterday by a deputy marshal, and has since been held a prisoner.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Two sons of the sexton of Dr. Talmadge's church were arrested yesterday charged with robbing the money boxes to the extent of $8 hundred dollars. The pilfering has been carried on for months.

BOSTON, Dec. 9.—Saturday night a private watchman at Howard Theatre discovered two men supposed to be incendiaries, who refused to leave. He clubbed one of them, and the other fired a pistol which penetrated the watchman's hat. On the stairway was found a can of burning fluid, with which it is supposed they intended to fire the building.

IOWA CITY, Dec. 9.—A. H. Brainard, postmaster, is charged by his clerks with perjury and embezzlement.

CAIRO, Dec. 9.—The dry goods store of Blum & Amesor was mysteriously robbed of $20,000 in currency on Sunday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—In the Senate credentials of Morton, re-elected, were presented. Petitions presented for prohibitory liquor law, French spoliation claims and other subjects; Morton, from military committee, reported a bill refunding States interest on moneys borrowed to equip, pay, supply and transport troops for United States during the war. Bills introduced and referred. Pomeroy, for relief of settlers on Cherokee lands in Kansas; Wright, of Iowa, on military raid in New Mexico. In the House, several bills were introduced and referred; by Hibbard, of New York, for amendment to the constitution authorizing Congress to fix a uniform time for holding State elections. Resolutions of Vermont Legislature were presented favoring civil service reform, and the abolition of the franking privilege. Banks offered resolutions fixing the salary of President at $50,000, commencing March 4, 1873; that the term of office of President and Vice President be six years; President to be ineligible for re-election; President and Vice President to be re-elected by the people at the same time Congressmen are elected.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—A terrific westerly gale prevailed throughout England yesterday; telegraph wires were demolished many buildings blown down, and many persons injured. Eight ships were blown ashore at Plymouth. Flag ship Narvasas parted her moorings. At Devonport the gunnery ship Cambridge and three small merchant-men in the same harbor were blown ashore, the crews, however, were saved. Telegraphic wires in north of England not repaired. Dispatches from all other sections report great destruction of property. The gale was severe in Wales and Ireland accompanied by lightning and rain. Many towns were flooded and several vessels driven ashore. In Cork harbor the damage was very great. Three pinnacles of the St. Thomas Church were blown down while the congregation were in at worship, and falling on the roof crashed through into the body of the church. The congregation were panic stricken and rushed from the building. None were killed and their escape is regarded as miraculous. The Lebornia, from Sunderland for New York, went ashore and was wrecked off Lowestoff and crew barely escaped. Many huts occupied by the troops at Aldershot were destroyed. The chapel of Oriol college, Oxford University, was badly damaged. The freight depot of Great Western Railway was entirely demolished.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—A horse train on Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs railroad, when about nine miles south of St. Joseph yesterday, ran into a wagon crossing the track and killed J. W. Rene, F. H. Jones and Mrs. Bransler, and fatally injuring John Bernier and Susan Malkey.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 7.—Decree declaring Tejadi President, was published Nov. 18, and he took the oath of office on Saturday. Congress adjourned to next Saturday after which several changes were to be made in the Cabinet. Porfoiz Dias has held a satisfactory interview with Tejadi. Telegraphic communication with the United States restored.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—J. Russell Jones, Minister to Belgium sailed for his port yesterday.

A special says it was Connolly controller, and not Tom Fields, Corporation Attorney, who sailed for Havana under assumed name of Judge Fleming.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Mori, Japanese Minister, has received details of new educational system of Japan, which embraces the organization of eight colleges, two hundred and fifty-six high schools and over fifty-three thousand public schools at which attendance will be compulsory for all children over six.

Members of Congress are discussing the question whether public business will probably be in such a state of forwardness two weeks hence as to justify the taking of the usual holiday recess.

Southern claims committee report 17,700 claims filed to December 1. Their examination will require four years labor.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 8.—The city is comparatively quiet. The custom house party have won the fight thus far and have been supported by the Federal court in every demand. The two Legislatures are expected to meet to-morrow. The impeachment of Warmouth by custom house legislature and deposition of Warmouth's legislature by United States troops, seems to be premature. The Warmouth contempt case comes up in the Federal court to-morrow. It is believed the Governor will be adjudged guilty, and punished by impeachment.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—A Herald's New Orleans special makes a statement on the authority of General Emery, directly contrary to the report that there are ten thousand Federal troops in that city. The only U. S. soldiers in the city are 198 infantry, two batteries of first artillery, and a squadron of cavalry, held in readiness to obey the mandate of the U. S. District Court, unless some palpably absurd service should be required. The General had a special order to furnish the Marshall with whatever force was required to carry out the decrees of the court.

Cigar manufacturer on Saturday night resolved to obtain signatures to a petition to Congress asking for tax on home cigars to be abolished, or reduced so as to encourage domestic manufacture.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 8.—Special treasury agent arrested two of the leaders of a gang of counterfeiters, on St. Francis river, Arkansas, capturing unfinished bonds, with press and plates. The prisoners have arrived here.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Editorial and composing rooms of Evening Express destroyed by fire this evening, with printing establishment of Gildestein. Three floors of Evening Express office, and Restaurant of Van Dyke & Haller were damaged. Valuable statistical library belonging to Mr. Brooks also destroyed. Loss $30,000.

Best authority contradicts the report that A. Oakley Hall is to become editor of the Herald.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 8.—Furniture warehouses of J. F. Comstock & Co. burned to-day.

HARTFORD, Dec. 8.—Woolen mills of Reynolds & Winsor burned this evening. Building, with machinery and stock, consumed. Total loss over $60,000.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—House bills introduced and referred, authorizing collectors to grant special orders for unloading steamships at night; also, establishing a new scale of fees and salaries for custom house officers; repealing bankruptcy; repealing special tax on retailers of tobacco; repealing enforcement act; abolishing stamp duty on bank checks. House resumed the consideration of Coburn's bill, reported at last session, to enable honorably discharged soldiers, their widows and orphans, to acquire homesteads. Bill went over. Indian appropriation bill was taken up.

In Senate, Sherman reported a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue coupon bonds in exchange for registered bonds. Cameron, to authorize the President to release the Emperor of Japan from the payment of indemnity to the United States under convention of 1862. The committee on appropriations to-day heard members of the District Board of Public Works, and will report in favor of reimbursing them to the amount of $25,000 expended in improvements in the vicinity of public buildings.

Since adjournment five employees of the House have died; one last night, Robert A. Macpherson of Pennsylvania.

The number of appropriation bills is 143 already before the House and three more are to be reported before holding recess.

The committee of ways and means had the subject of the syndicate before them to-day, but will not be likely to come to any conclusion.

Charles Johnson, who murdered his wife was hanged this evening.

John I. Croton, of Kentucky, has been appointed minister resident at Bolivia.

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Returns at noon indicate the choice of Pierce, Republican and citizens candidate for Mayor, by a large majority.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Henry N. Smith resigned the Presidency of the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad and E. S. Higgins has been appointed in his place. Jay Gould also resigned as a director in the same road.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Blaque Bey, Turkish Minister here, received a letter from the Finance Minister of Turkey asking a series of questions in regard to the condition of Pacific railroads, their management and availability to Mahomedan commercial interests. The letter has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior and Blaque Bey has prepared an answer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—At White Plains yesterday, the daughter of the late Horace Greeley, with a few friends accompanied by counsel, appeared before the Surrogate to offer for probate the will of her father. This will was executed on the 28th of November, 1872. It had been written by Mr. Greeley some time ago, but was only presented to him for execution a few hours before his death. It gave all his property equally to his daughters. This instrument was placed among his private papers by Mr. Greeley, and was only taken from among them at the time of his late attack, and at the first lucid interval thereafter offered to him for acknowledgment. At the same time counsel appeared before the Surrogate to contest this will, and offering instead one dated January 18th. The contestants are Samuel Sinclair, Richard H. Manning and Charles Stores; the latter being named as executor. The counsel for contestants said he hoped that opponents of will would acquiesce in will of 1872. He thought the will executed by Mr. Greeley before his death did great injustice inasmuch as it gave all the property to Miss Ida, with qualification that half of it was to be used by her, at her own discretion, for the support and education of his sister Gabrielle. That some relatives would be deprived of property intended for them. Counsel for daughters thought these remarks uncalled for, and announced that Miss Ida had offered to resign to her sister one half of the property, also to grant suitable annuities to relatives. Miss Greeley then declined to consider any proposal for compromise, and regular proceedings were commenced to contest the will on the ground of incapacity to execute the will of 1872. First witness was Mrs. Sampson, who testified that she became a witness on the day Mr. Greeley died. Mr. Greeley was then, a few hours before his death, conscious and rational. After some further examination of this witness the Court adjourned. The will of 1872 gives his property to his daughters, but it also gives bequest to his relatives, and a legacy equal in value to a share in the Tribune to the Children's Aid Society of New York.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The gale continued yesterday, but with less severity than on Sunday. Intelligence continues to arrive of disasters by sea and land. The damage in London is considerable; six houses blown down and forty persons injured. A large foundry on west coast of Isle of Wight and all on board perished. Bark Stearland, from Hamburg for New York, wrecked on Kinarridge; crew saved. Gasometer attached to Royal arsenal at Woolwich damaged hospital with gas. For the last two nights telegraph was impeded.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE DAILY DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Both the Senate and House commenced the session with an unusually full attendance. The weather is bright and mild. The galleries are crowded. The House was called to order by speaker Blaine. The Senate met at noon with the Vice President in the chair and all the leading Senators present. The Chaplain in his opening prayer alluded to the death of Mr. Greeley as that of one who had given direction to public thought and who had been a benefactor to mankind.

The House was notified by the Senate of its meeting for business. A number of bills were introduced; one by Sumner to strike from the United States flags and army register all record of battles fought with fellow citizens. Conkling and Thurman were appointed a committee to wait on the President.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Jay Gould, in his complaint against Smith, Martin & Co., and the Erie Railroad Company, demands the surrender of that firm, held by the Erie company, as absolutely necessary for the preparation of his defence. It is reported that Gould's case will be at once submitted to the Grand Jury.

JAMES C. KING, who shot O'Neil, was indicted to-day for murder in the first degree. The bail of Woodhull and Claffin has been reduced to $2,500 each, which was obtained and they were liberated.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—The resignation of M. Le Franc, the Minister of the Interior, was tendered yesterday morning, after the result of the debate in the Assembly was declared, and has been accepted by the President. A cabinet meeting was held to-day which lasted three hours. All the ministers have offered their resignations, but up to this time Thiers has refused to accept them. The President is much affected by the last vote in the Assembly, and says the only course left for him is to resign. Nothing has yet been settled. The situation is one of the gravest. Paris is uneasy, but the monarchists are firm and confident.

MADRID, Dec. 1.—The insurgents approached the city of Malaga on Friday and attacked the troops posted in the suburbs, but were repulsed and driven several miles. Their loss was heavy. A Republican band of 1,000 attempted to suppress the State forces at Amiral, but failed and were driven off. The Carlists were defeated in a fight with the troops in the Province of Toledo, and lost many killed, including two leaders and twenty-three prisoners. A body of insurgents calling themselves Federals, were beaten in Valencia.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—A long cabinet meeting was held yesterday. M. Thiers finally agreed to remain in the Presidency if ministers would withdraw their resignations. The latter consented. It is reported that M. Ducat was summoned to Versailles to reply to an accusation that he was preparing his troops to act in hostility to the government in case of a crisis. The Ducats says the case that Ducat is in possession of an important command is not reassuring to those fearing a coup d'etat.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—A Washington special says a report, the accuracy of which seems beyond question, came from the White House to-day, that Associate Justice Nelson had tendered his resignation to the President. Judge Nelson is over 80 years of age.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 3.—About a year ago Geo. E. Bovey, Secretary of State, was suspended by the Governor for misdeemeanor, and Herron appointed. The legislature subsequently met, but failing to take action in the case, the Supreme Court to-day declared Bovey Secretary of State and ordered him reinstated.

ASHLAND, Oregon, Dec. 5.—George Noorse arrived last night from Klannath. He left there at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening. He brings news of further murders by the Indians. In all, so far as ascertained, eleven men have been killed, named as follows: William Brotherton, W. K. Brotherton, William Boddy, William Boddy, Jr., Richard Boddy, Chris. Erasmus, Robert Alexander, John Soper Collins and Henry Miller. These do not include those killed in battle.—Mrs. Brotherton and son defended themselves in the house for two or three hours, keeping up a regular fire through the port holes in the house. The Indians finally left and they were rescued the next day by some soldiers. No further danger is now apprehended to families, as all are either fortified up or fully prepared to protect themselves. An express has been sent to Fort Warren and Captain Bidwell and the troops are expected to-day or to-morrow.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Several prominent journalists arrived last evening from various cities. The crowd that visited the city hall yesterday is estimated at 40,000. A dispatch from Washington states that twenty Democratic Members of Congress left last night to attend the funeral of Mr. Greeley. Among the celebrities to arrive, first was Vice President Grant, Governor Hoffman, Vice President Wilson, Minister Washburne, Secretary Belknap, Gen. Schurz, Trumbull, Vice President Colfax. At 11 o'clock the funeral procession started from Mr. Sinclair's house on 45th street. At 20 minutes past 11, the procession entered the church when the scene was most expressive. Rev. Dr. Chapin opened the services by reading from the scriptures; Miss Clara Louisa Kellogg next sang very touchingly, "I know that my Redeemer liveth;" after which Henry Ward Beecher delivered the funeral oration. The procession then started for Greenwood cemetery. It was the most imposing funeral procession, both in point of members and in representative persons and bodies, ever witnessed in this city. The route down Broadway was lined with 100,000 persons.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—Storms in the North of Europe Nov. 4th, were unprecedented in severity. There is no record so furious or destructive tempest for nearly twenty years past. All lines of or broken. Business on the Bourse is railway going to different parts of the compass from Berlin, are enumerated at a stand still. The sea wall has been washed to atoms, and a railroad train swallowed up in the great waters. Accounts from Stralzenud, Kiel, Grufswatt, and Swinsennude are of like description. During the second deluge on Wednesday, the greater part of Grufswatt was under water, with five feet of water in the streets of the town. The total number of crafts foundered at Stralzenud was over 80. All the fishing boats belonging to Lewingstots and Thidensol, are gone to the bottom. Eighty people were drowned at Veneritz. All along the coast the inhabitants suffered from want of fresh water, the sea having flooded the wells. The Steamship Cresswell, from Falmouth for Cork was lost during the voyage.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The strike of stokers of gas companies continues worse than ever. Inhabitants have supplied themselves with lamps. Several theatres were lighted with oil last night.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—Fred D. Finch, son of Capt. D. B. Finch, one of the founders of Olympia, died in this city yesterday. He was well known in Oregon and Washington Territory.

William Donaham, the murderer of Geo. Mitchell will be executed here next Friday. He is apparently resigned to his fate.

At Liverpool, Wheat, 12 s. @ 12 s. 4 d. Club, 12 s. 6 d. @ 13 s. A man named Cooper, who at one time had some connection with the diamond scheme company, is the person who explained the manner in which the diamond fields were salted. Some of the stones were the same as the drill company used. These were mixed with others purchased by Arnold and with rubies and garnets which he procured from Indians in Arizona. Arnold made two or three trips for salting purposes and once took back a lot of gems which Slack had picked up and returned to the place of wealth by Arnold's order, it is said. Indictments against Arnold, Slack and others will be presented to the Grand Jury to-day.

On the 25th of Nov. Wm. Madison was washed overboard from the schooner Mendocino and drowned.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The Great Western arrived from Bristol with her wheel broken and bulwarks stove in, with other damages caused by a gale. It is understood Gen. Dix will advocate weeping reforms in this State in his inauguration message. The steamship Candria, which left this port Oct. 18th, with 62,000 bushels of corn for Queensland has not been heard from since. It is presumed she has foundered.

DAYTON, Dec. 5.—Gen. O. C. Maxwell, of this city, shot himself in a room at the Phillips House this evening, dying instantly. He was one of the most gallant officers who went to the war and was wounded five times.

St. Louis, Dec. 5.—The horse distemper continues to spread. Few stables have escaped attack.

MARION, Dec. 5.—Elijah Crevision, of Washington township, on entering his stable door this morning was struck with a club by Horson, concealed behind the door. Crevision grasped his assailant, threw him and beat him until he begged for mercy, when he let him up. The villain then instantly stabbed him in the breast inflicting a fatal wound. The whole neighborhood is aroused.

MIZZLENS, Penna., Dec. 5.—A terrible accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad this evening. The second section of the Cincinnati express bound east ran into a car of the first section and telescoped into a Pullman palace car. Five bodies were removed from the debris, named, J. M. Knowles, J. W. Bacon, both of Chicago, William Danz, wife and child, of Green Lake, Wisconsin. A number of persons were injured, none seriously.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—Great quantities of grouse from Oregon are in market, but sales are not rapid.

The Puget Sound built ship Wildwood said to have been chartered for Liverpool.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—In the House, Daves, from the committee on ways and means, reported a bill abolishing the offices of Assessor and Collector of Internal Revenue, transferring their duties to the Collectors. Duke of Virginia gave notice of an amendment to abolish the whole internal revenue system. Daves moved the previous question, and under its operation the amendments were agreed to, fixing the time for the act to go into operation the first of July, 1873, requiring collectors to give additional bonds for their new duties, and then the bill passed. In the Senate, the finance committee was instructed to inquire and report as soon as practicable what legislation is necessary to relieve the stringency of the money market, and the propriety of issuing additional legal tenders. Cole introduced a bill to replace the national currency with United States notes. Referred. Morton introduced a bill creating a commission to adjust the claims under the Geneva award. The bill authorizes the appointment of commissioners at an annual salary of $4,500, and a secretary at a salary of $3,000, to hear and decide all claims for losses by the acts of the rebel cruisers for whose escape the Geneva tribunal held Great Britain responsible. Also the appointment of two persons as counsel to the commissioners, to organize at Washington, but may hold its sessions in other cities, and limited to two years. The warrants to be paid in sixty days from the day of finding, with interest at six per cent. from the date of the loss of property, except that no interest is to be paid till the claims are decided, when if the fund is sufficient interest is to be paid in full, otherwise pro rata. The money when received from England is to be separate as a fund for the payment of these claims.

Boston, Dec. 6.—Moses Kimball declines the nomination for Mayor. Gen. Dices Chief of Ordnance Bureau is again very ill of Bright disease.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—The committee of 90 had a first meeting to-day and organized by the election of Baron De Carey as President, and Lafave Pourtaile and Pansmanville as Secretaries. They then adjourned to Monday. An official reception was given at the Executive residence last night. It was unanimously attended. Thiers freely conversed with his friends on political crisis. He regretted that the partial renewal of the Assembly seemed impossible, and declared he was delighted to adhere to the policy announced in his message.

Marine Intelligence. UTRALADY.—The Princess Royal is loading with spars for London; Bianca Borgoni, with lumber for Peru; W. H. Myer and Brontes, with lumber for San Francisco. Dec. 3. FREEPORT, Dec. 5.—Sailed, schooner Letitia, Gray, for San Pedro, loaded with lumber. The bark Osmyr was towed around to the coal wharf on Dec 6, to take on a cargo of coal for San Francisco.

THE GREAT MEDICAL Discovery of Washington Territory! MERCER'S PANACEA! Prepared by Dr. Thomas Mercer at Seattle, Washington Territory.

This preparation is carefully prepared by Dr. Mercer, who gives his personal attention thereto. After years of experience he presents this compound Tonic and Cathartic to the public, as better calculated to assist nature in overcoming disease than anything yet offered by the faculty, in all cases of General Derangement of the System. It promotes digestion and stimulates the different organs into healthy action. AS AN APPETIZER IT HAS NO EQUAL. It is particularly beneficial in eradicating from the system the Effects of Syphilis. AS A CATHARTIC it is unsurpassed, being unaccompanied with griping and pain. DR. MERCER has also a preparation, which he calls THE LADIES BALM, Being expressly designed for female derangements. He has also prepared a Pulmonary Syrup Which is unsurpassed for COUGHS, COLD and all derangements of the lungs. All the above medicines are purely vegetable. For Sale AT THE DRUG STORES AT SEATTLE. Dr. Mercer refers to the citizens of Seattle and Puget Sound generally, who have used his medicines. THOMAS MERCER. In Admiralty. Third Judicial District of the Territory of Washington. In the District Court of the Third Judicial District, holding terms at Seattle for the Counties of King, Kitsap and Snohomish. Whereas a libel has been filed in said Court on the 23rd day of September, A. D. 1872, by John L. Butler against the ship Ocean Trader, her tackle, apparel and furniture, in a case of pilage, claiming half pilotage for entering his services as pilot to said ship when in ward bound, as well as when outward bound, which said services were refused by the master of said ship, and praying process against said ship, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and that said ship, her tackle, &c., may be condemned and sold to pay said half-pilotage, with costs, charges and expenses. Now, therefore, in pursuance of the motion under the seal of the said Court and the warrant of arrest contained therein to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held in the city of Seattle, in and for the Third Judicial District of Washington Territory, on the 1st day of November, next at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of that day (provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction), otherwise the said libel and petition (hereinafter) then and there to interpose their claims, and to make their allegations in that behalf. Dated the 31st day of October, 1872. E. S. KEARNEY, Marshal, by L. W. WYCKOFF, Deputy. LARABEE & WHITE, Proctors in Admiralty.

SUMMONS. In the 2d Judicial District of Washington Territory holding terms at Stellacoom, for Pierce county, vs. Isabella McAdams, Petitioner for Divorce, Thomas J. McAdams, Defendant. THOMAS J. McADAM, Defendant. I of America, you are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the 2d Judicial District of Washington Territory, holding terms at Stellacoom, for Pierce county, and to answer the complaint filed therein within sixty days (exclusive of the day of service) or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. Witness O. Jacobus, Esquire, Chief Justice of Washington Territory and Judge of said Court and the seal of said Court, this 10th day of October, A. D. 1872. JOHN SALTAR, Clerk. FRANK CLARK, Attorney for Plaintiff. 6-c24

Probate Notice. WHEREAS GEORGE D. HILL, Administrator of the estate of J. D. Burmeister, deceased, has petitioned this Court to order the sale of said estate to pay debts; and whereas it appears by such petition that there is not sufficient personal property in the hands of the administrator to pay said debts and the expenses of the administration, and that it is necessary to sell the real estate, as well as the personal estate, for the payment of such debts, therefore it is ORDERED, that Tuesday, the 10th day of December, A. D. 1872, at 2 o'clock, P. M., at the court room of said Probate Court, in the town of Whatcom, and county aforesaid, is appointed for hearing said petition, and all persons interested are hereby notified and directed to appear at the time and place above herein specified to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said Administrator to sell as a part of the real estate of the deceased as shall be requisite to pay such charges and debts. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and official seal, at Whatcom, this 30th day of October, A. D. 1872. J. H. PLASTER, Probate Judge.
