[From the Evening Post.] THIS HARP IS MUTE—A MELODY.

BY THOMAS H. FARNHAM. —"Oh! for the touch of a vanished hand, And the sound of a voice that is still."

This harp is mute; the fairy hand That touched its magic cords of old, Hath vanished, and it lieth now, As silent still and cold.

Its cords are broken, and the voice That once to their sweet music kept, Like the sad strains of this lone harp, In silence long hath slept.

This heart is dead; to it alike To pain or pleasure, joy or woe, The voice is still that thrilled its cords, To wildest rapture's glow.

This heart is dead; within its urn, Where fires of passion uncontrolled Once burned, the ashes now repose, No marble half so cold.

Yet sometimes on the whispering gale, And sometimes o'er the murmuring sea, Like cadence of a dying strain, A tone comes back to me.

And oft on the moonlight wave The evening zephyr whispers low, Methinks that I can hear therein A voice of long ago.

This heart is dead; for her it lived; With her it died; therein no more, Shall grief or passion e'er revive, Forever, evermore.

WAIT FOR ME.

BY EBAN E. REXFORD.

Wait for me, love; When you reach the silent and silver strand, By the banks of the river wide and grand, That flows this side of the beautiful land, Wait for me.

Wait for me, love; I will journey on down the western side, And meet you there by the mystic tide, By the silent river, deep and wide, Wait for me.

Wait for me, love; When the boatman, silent, and cold, and pale, Rows over his bark with its snow-white sail, We'll leave together this sorrowful vale, Wait for me.

Wait for me, love; We will tread together the beautiful shore, When the silent boatman rows us o'er, To part, my darling, oh! nevermore, Wait for me.

A SCENE IN A PRINTING OFFICE.—A patron of a village newspaper once said to a publisher: "Mr. Printer, how is it you have never called on me for the pay for your paper?" "Oh," said the man of types, "we never ask a gentleman for money." "Indeed," said the patron, "Then how do you manage to get along when they don't pay?" "Why," said the editor, "after a certain time we conclude that the man who fails to pay for his paper is no gentleman, and then we ask him!"

"Oh, ah, yes! I see Mr. Printer; please give me a receipt (hands him four dollars), and please make my name all right on your books."

A PITHY DIALOGUE.—Richardson, correspondent of the Tribune, writing from California, alludes to the new words and phrases in use in the "far west," and, by way of illustration, becomes responsible for the following story:

There is a story of a burglar who at midnight climbed up to a chamber window and cautiously opened it. The occupant, changing to be awake, crept softly to the window, and just as the robber's face appeared, pressed against it the cold, smooth muzzle of the revolver, with the injunction, "You git!" "You bet!" replied the house-breaker, dropping to the ground and running for his life.

In Trinity Church, New York, not long since, the lamented Artemus Ward was very attentively listening to a sermon from the text, "How are the mighty fallen!" The minister repeated the text several times, when Artemus, in a perplexed tone, quite audibly exclaimed, "I give it up."

A dashing young bachelor lately appeared in Central Park with two handsome ponies, whose tails were done up to look like a lady's waterfall, and cooped up in small fish nets. The resemblance was capital, and the team created a great sensation.

WOMAN is like ivy—the more you are ruined the closer she clings to you. A vile old bachelor adds: "Ivy is also like a woman—the more it clings to you the more you are ruined. Poor rule that wont work both ways."

SWEARING ALONE.

A gentleman once heard a laboring man swearing dreadfully in the presence of companions. He told him it was a cowardly thing to swear in company with others, when he dare not do it by himself. The man said he was not afraid to swear at any time or in any place.

"I'll give you ten dollars," said the gentleman, "if you will go to the village graveyard at twelve o'clock at night, and swear the oaths you have uttered here, when you are alone with your God."

"Agreed," said the man, "it's an easy way of earning ten dollars."

"Well, you come to me to-morrow, and say that you have done it, and the money is yours." The time passed on. Midnight came.—The man went to the graveyard. It was a night of pitchy darkness. As he entered the graveyard, not a sound was heard.—Then the gentleman's words, "alone with God," came over him with wonderful power. The thought of the wickedness of what he was about doing, and what he had come to do, darted across his mind like a flash of lightning. He trembled at his folly.—Afraid to take another step, he fell upon his knees, and, instead of the dreadful oaths he came to utter, the earnest cry went up, "God be merciful to me a sinner."

The next day, he went to the gentleman and thanked him for what he had done, and said that he had resolved not to swear another oath as long as he lived.

MARSHAL NEY'S DEATH SCENE.—The vengeance of the Allied Powers demanded some victim; and the intrepid Ney, who had well nigh put the crown again on the head of Bonaparte, was to be one of them. Condemned to be shot, he was led to Luxembourg, on the morning of the 9th of December, and placed in front of a file of soldiers drawn up in line to kill him. One of the officers stepped up to bandage his eyes, but he repulsed him saying: "Are you ignorant that for twenty years I have been accustomed to face both ball and bullet?" He then lifted his head, and with the same calm voice that steadied his columns so frequently in the roar and tumult of battle, said: "I declare before God and man that I have never betrayed my country; may my death render her happy. Vive la France." He then turned to the soldiers and, striking his hand on his heart, gave the order, "Soldiers, fire!" A simultaneous discharge followed, and the bravest of the brave sank to rise no more. He who had fought five hundred battles for France, not one against her, was shot as a traitor! As I looked on the spot where he fell I could not but weep over his fate. True, he broke his oath of allegiance—so did others, carried away by their attachment to Napoleon and the enthusiasm that hailed his approach to Paris. Still he was no traitor.

A gentleman having put out a candle by accident one night, ordered his waiting-man (who was a simple being) to light it again in the kitchen. "But take care, John," added he, "that you do not hit yourself against any thing in the dark." Mindful of the caution, John stretched out both his arms at full length before him; but unluckily a door, which stood half-open, passed between his hands and struck him a woeful blow on the nose. "Dickens!" muttered he, "I always heard that I had a plaguy long nose, but, I vow, I never thought that it was longer than my arm!"

Two lawyers in Lowell, were returning from court, when one said to the other: "I've a notion to join Rev. Mr. —'s church—been debating the matter for some time. What do you think of it?" "Wouldn't do it," said the other.

"Well, why?" "Because, it could do you no possible good, while it would be a great injury to the church."

DETAILS OF EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to Jan. 13th.

New Haven, Jan. 7.—The safe of Adams' Express Co., en route from New York to Boston, on Saturday, was rifled of its contents with the exception of two parcels which the thieves in their hurry overlooked. The extent of the loss as near as can be ascertained is about $500,000. The car was probably entered while at the depot in New York. The thieves pried off the lock on the door of the car and also the locks of two of the company's safes. $80,000 in greenbacks and $600 in Government notes were left by the thieves, on the floor of the car. They got out with their plunder at Coldbridge. The officials of the Company are here investigating the matter. The robbery was not discovered until the arrival of the train at this city.

An extensive fraud upon the Internal Revenue Department by the issue of large quantities of counterfeit seegar box stamps has just been brought to light by the authorities of this city. Persons named John Funch, Charles Mitchering, and a printer named Blomka have been arrested. The latter admits that he printed about 2,500 stamps and destroyed the plate. Blomka and Mitchering have been committed to the county jail by United States Commissioner Osborne, and Funch has been admitted to bail. It is supposed that no less than twenty plates have been made and millions of stamps printed, and that the fraud will amount to $100,000. The counterfeit stamp is about an eighth of an inch wider than the genuine, and the paper on which it is printed is half an inch longer.

A meeting of the adherents of the Monroe doctrine was held in the Cooper Institute last night. Letters were read from a number of distinguished men, and addresses were made by William Colten Bryant and others. Bryant said that the committee had determined to read the resolutions and then move to adjourn until some other evening. The presence of other prominent men now detained in Washington could be secured. The meeting was adjourned subject to call.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Weather reports, embracing a range of from Halifax to Baltimore, along the coast, from Buffalo to St. Louis, and from the interior, represent that the coldest days of the season were yesterday and to-day. The thermometer marked 10 degrees below zero at Portland, (Me.) and 16 degrees above at Cincinnati, which shows the general average at Chicago and the Northwest. We have had much colder weather. No sleighing yet in any of the cities named.

Freemont, Neb., Jan. 5.—Simpson, Curtis and White, the commissioners who were appointed by the Government to examine and report on the Union Pacific Railroad, arrived to-day accompanied by Thos. C. Durant, Vice-President, and a party of gentlemen. The commissioners telegraphed that they have examined the first section of forty miles and found it in superior condition. A special train came over four miles more of the road.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—A locomotive attached to a freight train going east on the Toledo, Wabash and Great Western Railroad, exploded at Decatur, Ill., this morning, instantly killing Edward Miles, engineer, and James Bristow, fireman.

Washington, Jan. 6.—John Minor Botts has come out in a card denying that he has sought to prevent the admission of the Virginia members. He says that he has maintained that every representative constitutionally elected who is prepared to comply with the requisitions of the Constitution and laws is as fully entitled to take his seat as those now occupying seats. To have taken any other ground would have been to admit that the States lately in rebellion had been out of the Union, and secession, consequently, lawful and constitutional, a position that nobody would suspect him of occupying.

It is said that Horace Greely had an interview with President Johnson. The latter expressed to Greely his desire to avoid any rupture with the Union party.

No less than fourteen names are on the Speaker's list for elaborate speeches on reconstruction. Members of the Cabinet emphatically deny that the President has issued any orders stopping appointments upon the recommendations of members of Congress.

During the week ending today, $2,720,000 in national currency was issued. The total circulation now is $240,000,000.

The restrictions heretofore put upon the Episcopal clergy of Alabama, on account of their refusal to pray for the President, have been revoked by Gen. Thomas, and Bishop Wilmer is left to that remorse of conscience consequent upon the exposure and failure of a diabolical scheme of his and other designing and corrupt miuds.

A petition will be introduced next week to discharge the reconstruction committee from the further consideration of the credentials of the Tennessee Senators, and for referring them to the judiciary committee. The friends of this movement say that they can count 24 out of 40 Senators in its favor.

About thirty commanders of vessels destroyed by the Alabama have already been summoned as witnesses for the Government in the approaching trial of Semmes.

The Government has realized within two years the sum of $6,000,000, the proceeds of confiscated cotton, sugar and other property in the State of Mississippi.

The Herald's Washington special says: General Miford having turned over to the Commissary General of provisions such monies as he succeeded in recovering from the rebel prison keepers, out of the funds sent to our soldiers in captivity, appropriated by the former parties, the same is now ready for distribution. All applications in this matter may be sent forthwith to Gen. Hitchcock. As the amount received falls short of the aggregate of the sums known to have been thus applied, it is proposed to make a pro rata division among all who can reasonably substantiate losses of the above description.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The select committee of both Houses to devise suitable means to testify national respect for the late President Lincoln, had a meeting this forenoon and selected George Bancroft to deliver the eulogy in February next, in place of E. M. Stanton, declined.

Among the prominent names mentioned in connection with the Supreme Judgeship are Newell Houston and Judge Trigg of Tennessee.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 4.—Gov. Carey was inaugurated today.

New York, Jan. 4.—Under Government regulations, there has been sent to the various Southern States, from this city, during the month of December, 7,300 guns and pistols; over 500,000 pounds of shot and thirteen millions of percussion caps.

New York, Jan. 4.—Rev. Dr. Cummings of St. Stephen's Catholic Church, died very suddenly to-day.

The Ottawa, Capt. Archer, which arrived last night from London, experienced a succession of terrific gales, throughout the passage. On the 23d the gale reached its height. A tremendous sea swept the decks fore and aft, washing overboard the 4th officer, William Collins, quartermaster, and John Manley, bosman, and carrying away a sail which struck Mitchell, the 1st officer, breaking his shoulder and injuring several others severely.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—A fire occurred at Racine, Wis., at 4 o'clock this morning, which destroyed the Racine House block, Telegraph Office, Episcopal Church, six or eight stores and other property. Loss, one hundred thousand dollars.

Cairo, Jan. 2.—The steamer Minnie sailed with one of the Monitors, lying opposite the city, and sunk. She was valued at $45,000, and insured for $30,000.

St. Louis, Jan. 3.—Gov. Fletcher took possession to-day of the St. Joseph and Atchinson, and Atchinson and Western Railroads in consequence of the default of payment to the State of $300,000 and interest, according to the law of the Missouri Legislature passed last winter, under which the roads were sold to Messrs. Stringfellow, Osborne, Carpenter and Buras. The Governor appointed State agents to operate the roads until they can be sold again according to law.

The safe of J. B. Rittenhouse, United States fleet paymaster at Panama, was broken into and robbed of $15,000 in gold. The robbery was traced to two men—Ned McLaughlin and one Bradley. Bradley was captured in Panama, and about $5,000 recovered from him. McLaughlin came to this city with his share, and was arrested a few days ago. After his capture, in order to prevent his escape by habeas corpus or any other means, he was placed on board the Saranac, where he has since been until to-day, he took his departure on the steamer Golden City for Panama in charge of Lieut. Stillman. The officers are on the track of McLaughlin's share of the money, and are confident of success in regaining a large portion of it.

How to Keep Babies Quiet.—The modus operandi is as follows: As soon as the squaller awakes, set it up, propped by a pillow, if it cannot sit alone. Sneer its fingers with thick molasses; then put half a dozen feathers into its hands, and it will set and pick the feathers from one hand to the other; till it drops asleep; as soon as it awakes apply again more feathers, and instead of innumerable sleepless nights there will be silence and enjoyment unspcakable.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The President's Message, which we issued in our supplement on Monday last, has, doubtless, been read by the American people with a greater degree of eagerness and interest than any that has ever sounded through the halls of Congress. Never, since the close of the Revolution, were more onerous duties to be performed; never was more able statesmanship demanded; never, in the whole history of our country, were heavier responsibilities laid upon the administrators of the Government, than at the time this document was issued. Our country just emerging from a four years' war, with her commerce prostrated; our fields fenceless and untilled; the loom hanging idle in the factory; our machine shops emptied, save of the mechanism of war; half of our people reduced almost to starvation, and hundreds of thousands of helpless human beings, who had never known what it was to provide for themselves, thrown upon the country with scarcely a place of shelter,—with all these difficulties, and many more, the Chief Magistrate was met, upon the sitting of Congress, on the 4th day of December last.

The Message is a fair exposition of the views and motives that have actuated the President in the maintenance of his policy of a restoration of the whole country to peace, prosperity and advancement. It is a somewhat lengthy, though well written State paper. Our domestic affairs occupy the first and most prominent position, and our foreign relations are, very properly, considered only in a secondary point of view. The President fully explains the cause of the delay in the trial of Jefferson Davis and other prisoners confined in Fortress Monroe, and that, no doubt, acted justly in postponing these trials until the sitting of a judicial tribunal in the State where the offenses were committed.

On that vexed question of negro suffrage, the President would not assume unwarrantable powers not granted by the Constitution, and, therefore, leaves this matter to the popular voice of each individual State. Our foreign relations are represented as being of a friendly character, though with Great Britain, far from satisfactory. Her Majesty's Government seems disposed to accede to terms proposed for the arbitration of our difficulties; yet the President seems no legislation necessary, and assures Congress that these differences can be settled only upon the basis of mutual justice. He advises immediate action in relation to the establishment of the courts in all the States where their judicial functions have ceased to be exercised.

We have not space to kind of all the points of the Message. We commend it to the careful perusal of all, that each one may be able to decide upon its worth. The President adheres to the Constitution, as the rock of our salvation, the only safe-guard against internal wars and foreign entanglements; and with a truly American heart, prays for a restoration to life and prosperity of every section of the Union. We trust all this may be realized. We look forward with sanguine hopes to a bright and prosperous future, when the fame and glory of America shall again shine as brightly as the noon-day sun. May a kind Providence hasten the day when the last cloud of turmoil and strife shall have been swept away; when our country shall rise like a huge Leviathan, shake off domestic discords, and pursue as onward and up ward course to the accomplishment of its just and noble purposes.

MERCER'S PARTY.—The New York correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin says that, Ben. Holladay having purchased the steamship Continental, Mercer and his party of five hundred ladies sailed in her from New York, on the 28th ult., for the Columbia River. The vessel will not call at San Francisco, for fear of earthquakes and the winning ways of the young men. So it seems that Gov. Gibbs and the web-foot people are to have the whole cargo. Young men, emigrate to Oregon!

TERRITORIAL OFFICERS.—The Legislative Assembly met in joint convention on the 16th inst., for the purpose of electing Territorial officers for the ensuing year. The following were elected: Auditor, Jno. M. Murphy; Treasurer, Benjamin Harned; Librarian, S. N. Woodruff; Adj't-General, J. Tripp; Quartermaster-General, Jno. M. Murphy; Commissary-General, James McAuliffe.

DEPARTURE.—Dr. G. W. Cool, formerly of Victoria, V. I., and recently of Portland, Oregon, will pay a short visit to this place within the next week, for the purpose of attending to any professional business that may be intrusted to him. His arrival will be duly announced, and those desiring the services of a first-class dentist, might do well to give him a call.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—H. J. Stevenson, having been duly appointed a Notary Public, will attend promptly to any business intrusted to his charge. See his card on our first page.

The steamer Active sailed from Victoria for Portland yesterday morning.

DIAMOND MINES.

The diamond fever, says the Owyhee Avalanche of the 8th of December, has been raging furiously for the past week. Being owners of two claims, each eight hundred feet square, we have kept cool, watched its progress, and the excitement seems to have reached the point of culmination. This excitement is one that has either diamonds or crystals, which stand every known diamond test, for a foundation. Col. Fogus, G. Collier Robbins, Messrs. Dewey and Musgrave, have each subjected these crystals to the severest tests known, and they are convinced of the existence of genuine diamonds in the new district. The crystals found are small, from the size of a grain of sand to that of a small grain of wheat, but they exist all over a tract of country forty miles square. Viewed with a glass they present the shape and true diamond face. The prospecting has been done hastily and imperfectly. There is a much greater quantity of quartz brought in than diamonds. This arises partly from a want of information on the matter, partly from a highly wrought zeal, and to a great extent a disposition to burlesque. So far from this being a real subject of burlesque, it is one that commands the careful attention of our leading and best informed citizens.

FROZEN.—We have news from Capt. Borland's Company of Oregon Infantry, which we hope is exaggerated. It seems that the company marched from Camp Lyon, in the Owyhee country, some weeks since, to come down the Columbia river to be mustered out of service. In coming down Snake river, the command was out in the late severe weather and some twenty of the men had their hands, feet and ears badly frozen. It is feared that more than a dozen of them will have to submit to amputations more or less serious. The men were halted on Powder river until arrangements could be completed for the treatment of the injured men. This is one of the results of ordering in the Volunteers in the worst season of the year, and by it a dozen men are turned out on the world crippled.—Mountaineer.

THE SOUTHERN PIRATES.—From June 1861 to the close of the career of the Shenandoah in August 1865, there were captured and bonded or destroyed by rebel pirates, four steamers, seventy-eight ships, forty-three brigs, eighty-two boats, and sixty-eight vessels; in all, two hundred and seventy-five vessels. The number of crafts engaged in this piratical employment was twenty; their names were as follows: Savannah, Sumter, Jeff Davis, J. O. Nixon, Calhoun, Petrel, Judah, Winslow, Sallie, Nashville, Alabama, Florida, Clarence, Tacony, Georgia, Retribution, Tallahassee, Chickamauga, Shenandoah and Stonewall.

DEFINITION OF A BLUSH.—A writer in the Medical Gazette gives the following lucid explanation of the phenomenon of a lady's blush:—"The mind communicates with the central ganglion; the latter, by reflex action through the brain and facial nerve, with the organic nerves in the face, with which its branches innervate." The explanation is equally as satisfactory as Dr. Johnson's celebrated definition of net-work, "anything reticulated or de-cussated at equal distances, with interstices between the intersections."

A letter from Europe states that Mrs. Lincoln has ordered, in Zwicken, Germany, a monument for the grave of her husband. It is cut out of serpentine stone, of an obscure green color, in the form of a large die, and bearing the simple inscription, "Abraham Lincoln."

Some members of the Northern tribes of Hydahs and Stickeen practiced cannibalism. The other day they ate up the Indian servant of a gentleman living on Vancouver Island, to spite the master, who had done something to displease them.

THE Shenandoah Valley is rapidly regaining the appearance of thrift and prosperity. The farmers in that fertile region are rapidly rebuilding their fences and barns.

THE death of the fattest man in the world, M. Helm, is recorded. He was employed in Paris as a translator. His age was forty-two, and he weighed 648 pounds.

Miscellaneous Items.

They have a new discovery down in California. In the vicinity of Buena Vista Lake, they have an ink mine. The Los Angeles News says a person has arrived in that town, bringing from the locality above named, a bottle full of "a mineral substance very much resembling crude petroleum, but without any smell, and possessing all the qualities of a fine writing fluid." An exchange very truly observes, in connection with the above, that the "ink-maker's" occupation is gone.

The Chicago Journal, of a late date, says arrangements are perfected whereby the California mails from the Eastern and Northern States will be conveyed by Chicago, thence west by the Chicago and North-western Railroad, to Boonsboro, Iowa, thence by stage by Omaha and Kearney. This route makes forty-eight hours quicker time than the St. Louis route.

CHOLERA AT JERUSALEM.

A letter from Jerusalem, dated October 28, says: "The cholera is at the present moment committing great ravages here, and it is scarcely possible to form an idea of the deplorable aspect of our unfortunate city. The streets and bazaars are deserted, the shops are closed, and the well-doing portion of the population are taking flight in all directions. The Pasha, the various Turkish officials, and, what is more so, the foreign consular agents, with the exception of the French consul, have been the first to set the example of desertion, and there now only remain at Jerusalem, those inhabitants who are too poor to afford to leave. These unfortunate people, abandoned, so to speak, to themselves, to seek for a remedy or mitigation of their distress in excesses, which only tend to aggravate it and to increase the number of victims to this terrible monster."

ROBBERY.—On the night of the 11th inst., the warehouse of Messrs. Swan & Smith, at Arcadia, was broken open and robbed of goods and merchandise to the value of over two hundred dollars, by an outlaw known as Scotta, and five accomplices. The thieves were traced as far as Tunawater, and a warrant taken out for their arrest. Scotta took refuge in an Indian hotel, where several of the citizens of that place attempted to arrest him, but he managed to escape. Some ten or twelve shots were fired at him, and one fired back, but without any effect.—Pacific Tribune.

DEATH OF GEORGE STEPHENSON.—One of the three survivors of Dr. Kane's expedition to the Arctic regions, died in New York, on the 16th of November. He was a native of Dublin, aged thirty-nine, and at the time of his decease held a position in the Custom House as night inspector. The survivors of that famous expedition in search of Sir John Franklin, are Dr. Hayes and W. W. Wilson, U. S. R. S. The remains of Stephenson were interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

AN AUSTRALIAN DESERT.—That main part of the South Australian coast, called the Australian Bight, is a hideous anomaly. For seven hundred miles there is no harbor fit to shelter a mere boat from the furious south wind that rushes up from the Antarctic ice to supply the vacuum caused by the burning, heated, waterless continent. For eleven hundred miles, no fill of water, not even as large as a baby's little finger, trickles over those barren cliffs into the sailless, deserted sea.

The casualties in the riot at Alexandria, Virginia, on last Christmas, were overestimated. Only one white man and two negroes were seriously injured. General Augur has directed a thorough investigation of the riot, and has ordered the commanding officer at Alexandria not to surrender any of the offending parties to the demand of the civil authorities, but to refer all such demands to the commanding officer of the Department.

Dr. Worcester, the lexicographer, has bequeathed to the library of Harvard University, all his English dictionaries and glossaries; that are not already in that library, and such other dictionaries as his brothers may not wish. He gives to the American Bible Society and to the American Peace Society, the copy-right of his quarto dictionary. He leaves most of his other property to his wife. Most of his library is to be divided among his five children.

Advices have reached San Francisco, by the Santa Fe coach, that intense cold prevails on the plains. Snow-bound trains have lost nearly all their animals, and several teamsters were severely frozen—some fatally. Eleven men were picked up—along the route in a helpless condition, and taken to Fort Dodge for treatment.

The Freemasons of Chambers have addressed to Pius IX, a letter in reply to his allocution of the 25th of September. They reproach the head of the Roman Catholic Church with condemning those whom it is his mission to enlighten, and insist on the accordance of Masonic ideas with the tenets of the Bible.

It is stated on the best scientific authority, that the Ephemeris calculated at the Naval Observatory in Washington, for the Nautical Almanac, is now so perfect that no navigator need be three miles out of his way in any part of the world.

They have a monster pumping machine at Cincinnati, which draws from the Ohio river and discharges a stream of water five feet in diameter. It is the largest machine of the kind in existence, and has neither crank nor fly-wheel.

Another revolution, a peaceful one, has occurred in San Domingo. Gen. Gaez is now President of the Republic. It is expected that Cobral will hold the military position under the new administration.

The new gold notes are coming to California, where they will circulate in lieu of gold, and thus become a national gold currency. Many people look to these notes as about the only means of restoring specie payments.

Maximilian's Minister of Foreign Affairs recently stated that the only hope of the Imperial Government rested in the success of its loan in the London market.

Ninety-two deaths have occurred in Stockton, California, during the past year, of which sixteen were from consumption.

The Boston Post estimates the smuggling on the Canadian border at $10,000 per day.

LOCAL ITEMS.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Two men, who started from Freeport for this place, on Wednesday last, in a small canoe, narrowly escaped drowning. It was blowing quite hard, and when within one mile of this town, the canoe was suddenly filled and upset, and it was only by the utmost exertions they were enabled to swim to the shore, which they reached about dark, totally exhausted and almost frozen, having been swimming in a rough sea for two or three hours.

PERSONAL.—We regret to learn that our young and highly esteemed fellow townsman, Geo. W. Harris, late of the firm of Plummer & Harris, having closed his business in this place, will take his departure for California, in bark Vidette, next week. By his upright and gentlemanly conduct, Mr. H. has won a large circle of friends, who will join us in wishing that success may crown his every undertaking.

GOOD IDEA.—An editor in Minnesota threatens to break up house-keeping, and go to boarding with his delinquent subscribers. Sensible man. We have, for some time, been contemplating a similar movement, but still trust the generosity of our subscribers will not force us to such desperate measures.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—We are requested by Capt. Merritt, of the bark Vidette, to state, that persons desirous of taking passage in this vessel, must pay $25 to W. H. Taylor, of Freeport, in order to secure a room. Only five passengers can be taken.

U. S. R. CUTTER "LINCOLN."—This vessel has been detailed for service on the Sound, and will probably soon make her appearance in our waters. Capt. White, formerly connected with that service in this Territory, will command her.

OREGON GOODS.—Mr. Josiah Settle has just received from the new Woolen Mills, at Oregon City, a large invoice of Oregon Cloths, Cassimeres, Flannels, etc., which he offers for sale at reduced prices. Give him a call and examine his stock.

COMPLIMENTARY PARTY.—A complimentary party will be given to Mr. Geo. W. Harris, who leaves, shortly, for San Francisco, in Yesler's Hall, on Tuesday evening next. A general and cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

LECTURE.—B. F. Dennison, Esq., of Port Townsend, will deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Literary Society at the Methodist Episcopal Church, in this place, this evening. All are invited to attend.

ARRIVAL.—Steamer J. B. Libby, Captain Clancy, arrived at her wharf at six o'clock on Sunday evening last, bringing the mails, and a number of members of the Legislature, on their way home.

DIRECT MAIL.—The Legislative Assembly of Vancouver Island has voted $30,000 for direct steam communication between Victoria and San Francisco.

MR. G. KELLOGG, of this city, takes passage in the bark Vidette for San Francisco, on a business tour. We wish him a safe voyage and a speedy return.

The steamer Sierra Nevada was towed off the rock in the Columbia river, by the Active, last week. She had received no damage.

The Legislature of this Territory adjourned sine die, on Tuesday last, after a session of seven weeks.

DAVID SIMS has our thanks for late San Francisco papers.

HOLLOWAYS PILLS.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT
 THE EFFECT OF THE OINTMENT ON THE SYSTEM.
 To the very core and centre of all diseases which affect the human body, this remarkable preparation penetrates. It disappears under the friction of the hand as salt disappears when rubbed upon meat.
 The unguent performs its healing errand rapidly, safely, and without pain. Simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumours, scrofulous developments of all kinds, abscesses, cancers, old wounds, and in fact, every species of inflammation or suppuration, whether in the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, can be arrested in its destructive course and permanently cured without danger, by rubbing in this inestimable Ointment.
BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, SORES AND ULCERS.
 In many Hospitals in Europe this celebrated remedy is now used for the cure of old wounds, sores and ulcers: in Spain and Portugal, and in many parts of Italy, the first Physicians regularly prescribe its use.
 It is a sovereign remedy for bad breasts and bad legs: and likewise for all skin diseases. It is to be found in the chest of nearly every sailor, soldier and emigrant.
PILES, FISTULAS, STRUCTURES.
 The above class of complaints is surely removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in this Ointment.
 Persons suffering from these distressing complaints should have not a moment in arresting their progress.
 It should be understood that it is not sufficient to merely smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be rubbed in for some considerable time, two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though it were palpable to the eye. Bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. It is the only proper treatment for females in cases of cancer in the stomach, or for those who suffer from a general bearing down.
IMPRUDENCIES OF YOUTH—SORES AND ULCERS.
 Blotches, as also swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way these complaints only dry up in one place to break out in another: whereas this Ointment will remove the humour from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time, aided by the use of the Pills, to insure a lasting cure.
DIPHTHERIA, BRONCHITIS, SORE THROATS, COUGHS AND COLDS.
 Any of the above class of diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day upon the skin covering the throat, chest and neck of the patient. The unguent will soon penetrate the pores and give immediate relief. To alay the fever and prevent inflammation, eight or ten Pills should be taken night and morning. The Ointment will produce perspiration, which is so essential for removing fevers, sore throats, and those oppressions of the chest which arise from Asthma, Bronchitis, and other causes.

BOTH THE OINTMENT AND PILLS SHOULD BE USED IN THE FOLLOWING CASES:—
 Bad Legs, Corns, (Soft.) Rheumatism, Bad Breasts, Cancers, Scalds,
 Burns, Contracted and Sore Throats,
 Bunions, Stiff Joints, Sore Nipples,
 Bite of Mosq. Elephantiasis, Skin Diseases, Itch and Sand Fistulas, Scoury, Elix. Gout, Sore Heads,
 Cocoa-bay Glandular Swel. Tumours,
 Chicago-foot, Hing. Ulcers,
 Chillsains, Lumbago, Wounds,
 Chapped Hands, Piles, Yaws.
