OUTSIDE THE ALE-HOUSE.

O, don't go in to-night, John—Now, husband, don't go in!
To spend your only shilling, John,
Would be a cruel sin.
There's not a loaf at home, John, There's not a coal, you know—Through with hunger I am faint, John,
And cold comes down with snow;
Then don't go in to-night!

Ah, John, you must remember—And, John, I can't forget—When never foot of yours, John,
Was in the alehouse set; Ah, these were happy times, John,
No troubles then we knew,
And none were happier in our lane Than I, dear John, and you;
Then don't go in to-night!

You must not go!—John, John, I mind, When we were courting, few Had arm as strong or step as firm, Or cheek as red as you;
But drink has stolen your strength, John,
And paled your cheek to white, Has tottering made your young, firm tread,
And bowed your manly height.
You'll not go in to-night!

You'll not go in? Think on the day That made me, John, your wife; What pleasant talk that day we had
Of all our future life!
Of how your steady earnings, John,
No wasting should consume; But weely some new comfort bring To deck our happy room;
Then don't go in to-night!

To see us, John, as then we dress'd So tidy, clean and neat, Brought out all eyes to follow us As we went down the street, Ah, little thought our neighbors then,
And we as little thought, That ever, John, to rage like these,
By drink we should be brought;
You won't go in to-night!

And will you go? If not for me, Yet for your baby stay—You know, John, not a taste of food Has passed my lips to-day; And tell your father, little one,
'Tis mine your life hangs on;
You will not spend the shilling, John!
Come home with me to-night!

WANTED.

Wanted a hand to hold my own,
As down life's vale I glide; Wanted, an arm to lean upon, Forever by my side.

Wanted, a firm and steady foot,
With step secure and free,
To keep a straight and onward pace O'er life's path with me.

Wanted, a form erect and high,
A head above my own,
So much that I might walk beneath—Its shadow o'er me thrown.

Wanted an eye within whose depth, Mine own might look and see, Uprising from a guileless heart O'erflow with love for me.

Wanted, a lip whose kindest smile Would speak for me alone, A voice whose richest melody Would breathe affection's tone.

Wanted, a true, religious soul,
To pious purpose given,
With whom my own might pass along The road that leads to Heaven.

POWER OF HUMBUC.—An individual who owned a small tavern near the field of Waterloo, the scene of the last great action of Napoleon, was frequently questioned as to whether he did not possess some relics of the battle, and he invariably and honestly answered in the negative. He was very poor, and one day, while lamenting, to a neighbor, not only his poverty, but the annoyance to which travelers subjected him, his friend cut him short with:
"Well, make one help the other. Make some relics!"

"But what can I do?" asked the poor man.
"Tell them that Napoleon or Wellington entered your shop during the battle, and sat on that chair."

Not long after, an English tourist entered the tavern, and on enquiring for relics, was told the chair story. The next morning he was told that Wellington took a drink, and the "Wellington tumbler" was accordingly sold. The third arrival gazed with breathless wonder upon the nail on which Napoleon hung his hat. The fourth, purchased the door-posts between which that hero was said to have passed; and the fifth, became the happy purchaser of the floor upon which he had trodden. At the last advice, the fortunate tavern-keeper had not a roof to cover his head, and was sitting on a bag of gold, in the center of a deep pit, formed by selling the earth on which the house had stood.

DETAILS OF EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to Nov. 19th.

New York, Nov. 18.—The Atlanta was allowed to come to the city to-day.
The Jamaica Standard says that over fifteen rebels have been hung or shot at the penitentiary of St. Thomas. It is not unlikely, that before the court-martial shall close, over twenty five will have paid the penalty of their lives, for their vile attempt to exterminate the white and mixed races of the Island.

The Tribune's special says Gov. Hamilton, of Texas, has displaced the elected city officers of San Antonio, and appointed others in their stead. The old council has protested, because they deem his action a violation of the organic law of the city and also, an infringement upon the rights of the people.

The New Orleans Times, of the 5th, says:
In relation to the rumors of naval and military operations, etc., we have information that we are not at liberty to disclose, giving a positive corroboration to these rumors.— We hesitate not to predict, that unless the French troops are removed from Mexico before Christmas, there will be active intervention in behalf of the Liberals, and the policy of the United States will be vindicated.

The Commercial special says the Cherokees have deposed John Ross, and proclaimed Downing, Chief, with the approbation of Government.

The Richmond papers say the ladies of that city are circulating a petition for the release of Jeff. Davis.

The Herald's Havana correspondent, under date of the 12th, says the Government has dispatched three war steamers to look after wrecks between Cuba and Florida.

The Haytian troubles are announced to be settled, by the United States and British officials.

The declaration of war between Spain and Chile, causes no excitement. It is not thought a shot will be fired. It is expected that Captain-General Lersundi will arrive next month.

The rebel Attorney-General Geo. Davis, who has just arrived here from Key West, where he was arrested, has been sent to Fort Lafayette.

General Joseph Johnston is in New York, to arrange the new Express Company.

The Fenian Brotherhood have opened an office in a large building on Union Square.
The steamer load of female emigrants, previously announced to leave for Washington Territory, is expected to sail within the next week.

The Tribune's Washington special says: The President has plainly intimated that he will hereafter show greater discrimination in granting pardons.

Among the applicants for pardon, is M.
J. Crawford, formerly a member of Congress from Georgia, and a prominent rebel during the war.

The guards of soldiers that have been stationed around the White House for the last two years, were removed yesterday by order of President Johnson.

New Orleans, Nov. 18.—The Mississippi House of Assembly has partly revised its refusal to allow negro testimony against the whites. It has now passed, by 47 to 23, a law adding to the previous law,—that in cases in which they (the negroes) offer themselves as witnesses, they shall be parties to the record,—the following: "And in cases in which they shall be parties, both plaintiff and defendant, and in all criminal cases, in which the offense charged was committed against the person or property of a freedman, free negro or mulatto so offered as a witness; provided, no freedman, free negro or mulatto, shall be examined as a witness in any case whatever, only upon the stand in open court." The State Senate will in all probability, adopt this section.

Ex-Governor J. B. Clarke, of Missouri, who was arrested while returning from Mexico, and imprisoned in Fort Jackson, has been released, and is now en route home.

Wilmington, Delaware, Nov. 18.—The Fenians held a torchlight procession this evening, on the Brandywine. Addresses were delivered by Mr. John McCarthy, of Philadelphia, Hon. F. P. Pinnett, P. M.
Plunkett, and others. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

New York, Nov. 19.—The Times says: It is rumored that the Shenandoah is en route for Peru or Chile, where her Commander would sell her for a war vessel, and that one of her officers was sent there on such a mission, some time ago.

A letter from Concord, N. H., says that Ex-President Pierce is dangerously ill, in consequence of a disease contracted during the Mexican war.

Unfinished counterfeit notes of 50-cent fractional notes, to the amount of $80,000, together with a quantity of paper, tools, etc., for counterfeiting, have recently been found in a house in Philadelphia, by the detectives of the Treasury Department. About $20,- 000 has been finished and put into circulation. The Detectives succeeded in capturing, and sending to jail, on Tuesday night, in Brooklyn, the man said to be at the head of this affair, named C. J. Roberts, a noted counterfeit bank note engraver.

EXODUS.

The great romances, and the great matters of fact are all marvellously alike in quality, and in the most poetic deed there is the keenest sense of use. In other times, when the world was in its youth, it did epic things consciously, and valued them for their poetry; now, that it has grown old and full of wisecracks, its romance, like that of a middle-aged man, is unconscious, and hidden and forgotten in an obvious utility.
But there never was anything so epic sung in the olden times, as an event of our own, which till now, has been set to no higher music than the strains of the local reporters —to which Jenkins, not Homer, is poet.

During the present week, a national ship will bear from our port nearly a thousand good women, who leave homes in our Atlantic civilization, and carry its piety and hope to the western shores of the continent, there to help build a fairer and nobler state and society, far from the Old World influences that weaken and corrupt us here.— Most of these women are young girls, from the shelter of the farm-house roofs of New England, where the war that took away a brother or father, has given back want and hardship in his place; and others are the widows of those who fought to keep our homes, and fell to lose their own. But, whoever they are, and whence ever they come, it is certain that those gentle pioneers go out to the West with a high sense of the purpose to which they are devoted, and with hopes educated and purified by the adversities attendant upon the efforts of woman at self help in the East. All will part from some beloved thing—and all will taste the bitterness of exile in leaving places endeared by sorrow and toil. From one, an aged mother shall part in doubt of earthly reunion; on the neck of one, a poor old father shall weep; to one, the hands and hopes of a brother shall cling, his reason applauding her resolution to be gone, his heart foreboding and imploring her to stay; to one, an orphan, but not friendless, tender friends will say farewell; to one, a widow, the love of neighbors, who have known her need and succored it, shall fondly wait; after every one, there shall somehow, somewhere linger good will and regret.

There is infinite pathos always in the courage of woman; for their courage is not in defiance of danger, but in ignorance of it, often in trust of it. Their faith is so strong that they think evil cannot harm them; they love so blindly that they cannot believe hate sees; they hope so nobly that it seems impossible that destiny should disap-point them. Upraised by this splendid and touching courage, most of these women will set sail upon their long journey West, full of trust that they have left evil days behind them here, and in spite of their experience of life's vicissitudes, will look to find in Washington Territory a promised land, where, if they work faithfully in the places allotted to them, neither trouble nor wrong shall visit them. They know that there is peril everywhere, and yet they trust it will not come near them there. Every one, while seeking to better her own state, has some unselfish purpose in view, and no crusade of Christian cavaliers,—outnumbering these women by tens of thousands,—ever departed with more generous faith and hope upon a noble work. Conscious of this nobility of aim, they trust that fate may spare them to their work.

Mr. Mercer, under whose guidance and care they go, has assumed a responsibility which few men would care to take upon themselves; yet we have no reason to doubt that he is worthy to bear it. He has, thus far, conducted a mission, full of heroic poetry, in the most practical and common-sense way. He has held out great hopes and made great promises, and he has proven his good faith, by setting his whole fortune upon the chances of success. The Government furnishes him merely the vessel for the transportation of his colony, and he pays, from his own purse, the cost of provision, and of manning and running the steamer, trusting the honor of his colonists for repayment from their earnings in vocations he has promised them. He sails with his charge, and it must be his to promote good feeling throughout the voyage. The venture has comic aspects which will suggest themselves, and the imagination cannot help figuring the awful task of reducing to harmony the multitudinous prejudices, caprices, and assumptions of seven hundred young ladies. Forty married men go with Mr. Mercer, and twenty young men will be his allies; but this body is as a handful, in contrast with the overwhelming numbers of ladies, and might be swept into the sea in a single tempest of passion. His trust, therefore, during the voyage, must be in them, as theirs, at its end, is in him; and we believe neither will have cause of disappointment.

From our shores, many expeditions, involving great hopes and high purposes, have departed before now; but the world has had no worthier object of anxiety than this; and many curious doubts, as well as sympathizing expectations, must follow this exodus of good women on their voyage around the Antarctic cape, and up the long western shore of the continent to the distant land of promise. May the seas be held aloof from harming them on their way, but fail

NOTES.

not to engulf the evil that would pursue.
May they find cordial welcome in their new home; and may there grow from their happiness and love on that uncontaminated shore, a populous civilization, full of religion, industry and peace.—N. Y. Tribune, Oct. 7th.

JAMES WATT'S WORKSHOP.—An Edinburgh gentleman, attending the British Association, at Birmingham, thus describes a visit to the house of the famous discoverer of the steam engine:

A friend of Mr. —, lives in James Watt's house. We were admitted into his workroom—a garret at the top of the house.
It appears he had a scolding wife, who did not like the messes and the noises he made, so he was sent to the attic. The room is exactly as Watt left it. The very ashes are still in the grate; his little lathe has a bit of unfinished work in it; tools lie about; books and drawings are stowed away in an old drawer, and strewn here and there.— It is a miserable little place. Only four of us could get in at one time. In fact, the daughter of the occupant of the house, who went with us, had to tuck herself up in all manner of shapes to prevent her crinoline from sweeping all the letters into the corners. The house is a very good one; he was rich when he died there; but it is clear his wife kept him and his little workroom in the back-ground. The room has been only recently opened. By the will of Watt's son, it was ordered to be left forever as the old man left it, when he last went out at its door. It was not looked into for over thirty years.

EVIL COMPANY.—The following beautiful allegory is translated from the German: Sophorus, a wise teacher, would not suffer his grown-up sons and daughters to associate with those whose conduct was not pure and upright.

"Dear father," said the gentle Eulalia to him one day, when he forbade her, in company with her brother, to visit the vicious Lucinda, "dear father, you must think as very childish if you imagine we should be exposed to danger by it."

The father took, in silence, a dead coal from the hearth and reached it to his daughter.

"It will not burn you, my child; take it." Eulalia did so, and behold her beautiful white hand was soiled and blackened, and, as it chanced, her white dress also.

"We cannot be too careful in handling coals," said Eulalia in vexation.

"Yes, truly, said the father. "You see, my child, that coals, even if they do not burn, blacken. So it is with the company of the vicious."

SPECULATING IN YANKEE DOODLE.—Some Arabs at the pyramids in Egypt, relates a traveler, attacked our American sympathies thus:

"You want me to carry you up the pyramid, eh? All gentlemen pay me for help them. You pay me to run up the pyramid and down again in five minutes, eh? I do that many time." A long pause. "You American? Yankee Doodle come to town, he bring a little pony. You know that?"
This was carrying the war into Africa by Africans. They evidently felt that they had as on our own ground; and observing that we were amused at their merriment, they began shouting "hip, hip, hurrah."

FEET AS IS FEET.—The Copperopolis Courier tells the following:

Antone Wetz is now at work on a pair of boots for a gentleman who lives near town, and will finish them sometime next week.— The length of the boot is thirteen inches, the sole is seven inches wide. His instep is seventeen inches around. Such feet must certainly be dangerous to everything that crawls.

QUIN, the actor, once had a trifling quarrel with Foot, but they made it up, when the latter said deprecatingly: "Jimmy, you should not have said that I had but one shirt, and that I lay in bed while it was washed." "Sammy," replied the actor, "I never could have said so, for I never knew that you had a shirt to wash."

STERNE, who used his wife very ill, was one day talking to Garrick, in a fine, sentimental manner, in praise of conjugal love and fidelity. "The husband," says Sterne, "who behaves unkindly to his wife, deserves to have his house burnt over his head." "If you think so," said Garrick, "I hope your house is insured."

Railway official (very kindly)—"Nice child, that, man. How old might it be?" Delighted mamma—"Only three years and two months."

Railway official (sternly)—"Two months over three. Then I shall require a ticket for it, please."

A robust countryman, meeting a physician in the street, ran to hide behind a wall, being asked the cause, he replied: "It is so long since I have been sick, that I am ashamed to look a physician in the face."

LITERARY SOCIETY.

We received the following note last Saturday, but too late for insertion in the issue of that day. The Literary Society, which has just been formed by the students of the University, through its exercises and the lectures to be delivered before it, will be a means of improvement to the students and a pleasant evening's entertainment to citizens who shall attend its meetings. The encouragement of educational institutions is an important duty, and we have no doubt the lectures will be well attended. Several speakers of ability have been engaged to deliver lectures, and we will, probably, be furnished the name of the lecturer and the subject of the lecture, from time to time, for announcement:

It may be an item of local interest to state that the students of the University have organized a Literary Society, and in connection, maintain a public debate weekly, on each Friday evening, at the University. A course of Public Lectures to be delivered before the Society during the winter, is contemplated. Several distinguished gentlemen of the Territory having consented to contribute their abilities to the promotion of this object. There will be an admission fee to each lecture, and the proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of a Library for the Society. W. E. BARNARD.

LIST OF MEMBERS.—The following is a list of the members of the Legislative Assembly which convened on Monday last. The Democrats are printed in italics:

COUNCIL.

Anderson-Cox, Stevens, Walla Walla and Yakima; Levi Farnsworth, Clarke, Klickitat and Skamania; Harvey K. Hines, Clarke, Cowitz, Wahkiakum, Pacific and Chehalis; Sidney Ford, Sr., Thurston and Lewis; E. C. Ferguson; Whatcom, Island and Snohomish; J. J. H. Van Bokkelen, Jefferson and Clallam; John Denny, King and Kitsap; Frank Clarke, Pierce and Mason; W. G. Langford, Walla Walla.

HOUSE.

E. Eldridge, Whatcom; James Bushby, Island; W. B. Grenell, Clallam; A. Briggs, Clallam and Jefferson; Henry Morgan and Samuel Wicks, Jefferson; H. C. Rowe, A. Miller, Kitsap; L. B. Andrews, King and Snohomish; C. Olympe, King; Samuel McCann, W. R. Downey, Pierce; Gies Ford, Mason and Okanogan; Wm. McLane, Geo. W. Miller, S. Riddle, Thurston; James Urquhart, Lewis, Thompson Dray, Cowitz and Wahkiakum; W. C. Doan, Pacific; A. G. Tripp, A. Clark, M. R. Hathaway, Clarke; J. M. Sycula, Walla Walla, Klickitat and Skamania; J. D. Via, J. Modaff, T. G. Lee, A. G. Loyd, B. N. Sexton, Walla Walla; J. W. Brazee, Klickitat; H. F. Smith, Stevens and Spokane.

ALMOST a fatal result occurred, in this place, on Wednesday last, from taking chloroform. Miss Lottie Sires, who was suffering from the toothache, desired to have it extracted, and in order to do so without being sensible of the pain attending the operation, took chloroform. Inexplicably, and almost insensitively, she collapsed, and for several hours it was extremely doubtful whether the utmost skill of the physicians attending could prevent a sad and fatal termination. Happily, through skillful treatment, the effects of the chloroform were counteracted, and the young lady slowly recovered and is now freed from its deleterious effects.

DEFICIT FOR 1866.—The interest on the public debt now amounts to one hundred and sixty-five millions annually. The expenses of the Navy Department for the next year are estimated at no more than twenty-three millions. It is thought that if the War Department can succeed in reducing its expenditures to a proportionately low figure, the entire outlay of money for the next fiscal year will not exceed one hundred million dollars, exclusive of the interest on the public debt.

ALARM OF FIRE.—On Thursday evening last, an alarm of fire was given at the residence of Mrs. L. V. Wyckoff. Assistance was soon on the spot, and the fire extinguished, only burning some bedclothing. It appears that the infant son of Mr. W. had been alone in the room, playing with matches, and thus set fire to the bedding.

TWO Sisters of Charity paid our town a visit this week, to solicit donations to assist in building a hospital at Steilacoom, where indigent and unfortunate sufferers may be cared for. We have not heard how much money was contributed, but, for so charitable an object, we hope they succeeded in raising a handsome sum.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company has fifteen steamers on the Atlantic side and ten on the Pacific. In addition to these the Company has two steamers of 4,000 tons, building for the China mail service. The total tonnage of the whole fleet amounts to 58,965.

Thanksgiving day was pretty generally observed in this place, by attending church, eating roast ducks, geese, etc., in which we cordially concurred, especially the eating part.

THE NORTHERN ROUTE.

On repeated occasions we have spoken of the great advantages and entire feasibility of the Northern Pacific Railroad route. The New York Tribune of a recent date, in remarking upon the late visit of English capitalists to the United States, says:

"Our Pacific Railroads are peculiarly inviting to moneyed men. It is the purpose of the British Government to open a path to the Pacific Ocean. They must see that their Atlantic and Great Western, rich as it now is, will become far more valuable when its freight trains are burdened with teas of China and the spices of the occidental nations. England has long desired a road to the Pacific, and her engineers have time and again, endeavored to find a way through British America. The favorite scheme has been to continue the Grand Trunk Railway to Lake Superior, and thence by way of rivers and lakes and branch roads to Puget Sound. The difficulty with this plan lies in the climate. For six months in the year, the route would not be useful. Accordingly, British enterprise will probably be compelled reluctantly to abandon the project of a British railroad. If Sir Morton Peto and his friends have much money to spend, let them go to work and do for British America, and indeed for the British Empire, what its own engineers have failed to do."

The proper line for the road, as the Tribune remarks a little further on, is not so far north as the route proposed through British America, but lies through Minnesota, Montana and Idaho. It is suggested that this line have its eastern terminus at an eligible point on the western shore of Lake Superior, and that it follow the route already explored and partially surveyed through the mountain passes to Puget Sound. From Lake Superior to Puget Sound the distance is computed at 1,413 miles. By the central route from Chicago to San Francisco, the line will be 1,783 miles in length. Here is a considerable difference in favor of the northern route. Should the navigable waters of the Columbia be made use of, and the road be built from Lake Superior to a point within easy reach on that river, the difference in favor of the Northern route would appear still more considerable.

The observations of science, as well as experimental proofs, show that no more snow falls on this northern route than on the one which lies much further to the South. Indeed there would be no more obstruction from snow on this line than is encountered in our Northern States.

By a computation which we have seen, it is made to appear that if this northern road were built, it would be possible to reach the shores of China and Japan in twenty-five days from New York. Could this be done, it would produce results of incalculable value for the western shores.

The gold mines of Montana in extent and richness, bid fair to surpass all others known. This fact may have much to do with determining the location of the first railroad to the Pacific. The Columbia river region contains the money to build the road, and the business of that country will soon demand that the great work be done.—Oregonian.

"EPISODE IN THE TREASURY."—Under this head, the New York Herald of the 13th, publishes the following dispatch from Washington:

"An interesting, suggestive and lively episode in Treasury life occurred on Saturday. Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, who was sauntering through the Treasury building, called upon Hon. Freeman Clarke, Controller of the Currency. In the course of conversation about the currency, national debt, etc., Governor Pierpont asked Mr. Clarke if he thought the people of the South would be required to help pay the national debt. In reply to this idiotic query, Mr. Clarke said he thought they would. Governor Pierpont wanted him to understand that the Southern people would not stand such damned nonsense. As the Governor was evidently in earnest, and is generally reliable, Mr. Clarke, who is a mild and extremely affable man, did nothing more than show him the door.

NEW DIGGINGS.—Last summer, while the disappointed prospectors at Cour d'Alene were rushing wildly on to Blackfoot, certain miners thought that they were passing over as good diggings as they were apt to find at any place ahead. They tried the gulches and creeks on the St. Regis Borgia without success, but after crossing the Missoula, or Clark's Fork, they followed along the bars of the stream, and about thirty miles below Hellgate, and in sight of the Mullen road, found fine river gold in quantities which induced them to locate and go to work. Up to October they had done so well that the big stories about Blackfoot, which is but a little over one hundred miles from them, failed to induce them to go further. About twenty-five men were preparing to winter there, at our latest advices.—Mountaineer.

A FAITHFUL OFFICER.—About every human being in the United States, of the years of discretion, has probably seen the name of F. E. Spinner printed on the national currency, with the official title of Treasurer of the United States. The man that answers to that name has been in many important financial offices in the course of his life, and served three terms in Congress on the Committee of Accounts, and one of these terms was Chairman of that Committee. For five years he has never been absent from his post a day, and like a good man mourning for his country's misfortunes, never entered a place of amusement during the war, although often imported to do so. He has paid out all the moneys of the most gigantic war on record, and his accounts balance to a dollar.

Lizzie Reed has started a paper in Iowa which advocates the right of women to vote.

Miscellaneous Items.

A Missouri man went to the wars, leaving a wife and two children. He was given up for dead, and his supposed widow became a wife and a mother again. The first husband lately returned safe and sound; the two husbands and the double wife talked the matter over, and it was left for the woman to decide whose wife she would be. She chose her first love, and her "Philip Ray" took his children, bade his wife good-bye, and started for the South. No romance in that, but a good deal of reality.

A great stir amongst the Germans at Nashville has been caused by a bill providing for immigration agencies and bureau, which has been proposed in the Senate by Hon. Frazer. The bill provides for a bureau at Nashville, with the Governor as head, creates agencies at New York, and several of the principal places of Germany, and provides an appropriation for the purpose of providing suitable buildings at the first cities of the State, to be established as immigrant's home, after the fashion of Castle Garden in New York.

A vein of rock about eight inches wide, containing great quantities of gold, has been discovered at Owyhee, at a distance of about one thousand feet from the celebrated "Poorman" ledge. The rock is richer than any yet found in that district. It is not known how extensive the vein is. The inference is strong that it is not a regular ledge, but that it comes from larger lodes and was thrown into its present position by a slide from the mountain.

The Star, an influential paper writes: "If a war should break out between this country and America, and if such a thing were possible as the landing of an American expedition, under any renowned General, on the Irish coast, then we believe that General might march from Cork to Dublin without one Irish hand being raised to stay his progress."

General Bidwell, in an address before the Agricultural Association of the Northern District of California, at their late Fair, said that on his farm at Chico, Butte county, "In thirty six and a quarter days, forty thousand six hundred and eighteen, bushels of wheat was threshed and cleaned, being over eleven hundred bushels per day.

Geauga county, Ohio, is probably the greatest cheese emporium in the world. The Char-don Democrat says that the factory of Budlong & Stokes, at that place, receives the milk of one thousand cows, and manufactures from it a ton of cheese per day.

Fifty men are at work opening a road leading from Umatilla to La Grande and Boise. Work has been going on for the past two months, and it is calculated that the work will be completed by the first of December, or sooner.

The pirate Shenandoah arrived in the Mersey on the 6th, and surrendered to the guardship Donegal. Captain Waddell says he received no news of the close of the rebellion until he fell in with the British ship Barcoona, on the 30th of August. He immediately consigned his guns to the hold of the vessel and steered for Liverpool.

It is stated that the Captain of the Shenandoah sent a letter to Earl Russell, but its contents are as yet unknown. The Captain and crew are remaining on board the ship, which is in possession of the naval authorities.

GEN. LOGAN ON SLAVERY AND EDUCATION.

We look in vain through the Southern States for public schools. Ignorance sits enthroned where the flowers bloom in mid-winter and "waste their fragrance on the desert air." Why is this so? The riddle is easily read. The educated will think, and if his heart is educated he will feel; and out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. Surely, then, that same law that made it a legal crime to educate a slave must, in the inexorable spirit of the theory, oppose every body who, per possibility, may become the friend of the slave; the people of the South have resolved to perpetually persist in holding on to this institution, pursued a political plan to prevent the spread of education. Can any man fail to see or fail to feel that any institution, the interest of which must make such exertions, is bound to be a country's curse? Lycurgus who was a great and good lawgiver, in his day and generation, insisted that children are the property of the State. There is but one use to which the State can put children, that is to educate them. Intelligence is Heaven's rarest gift to earth; it is the attribute that gives man a claim to affinity with angels; and that is false to its most sacred truth, that fails to develop all of his moral resources. Had a wise system of popular education been adopted at the South at the same time it was at the North, that section might not have been to-day, as it really is, without the light of a single great mind to guide it through the wilderness of its troubles. Attribute, if you please, the degradation in which is found buried the Southern mind, either to a jealousy of education or the selfishness of affluence, and still it is the institution of slavery that causes it.

FREAKS OF ELECTRICITY.

The Scientific Review says: A very strange property has recently been observed in the bodies of persons, etc., struck by lightning—the power of giving a strong electric shock when touched. It might be supposed that the electricity would be completely carried off by the conducting power of the human body, and especially if that power were rendered more complete by the presence of moisture. Such, however, is not the case, and it is not possible to explain the anomaly by means of any principle furnished by the present state of knowledge. The facts, however, are indisputable, the two following cases have been brought before the Academy of Sciences, at its sitting on the 10th of July, by M. Boudin: On the 30th of June, 1864, a man was killed by lightning in the Jardin des Plantes at Paris, and the body remained exposed for some time to a very heavy rain. When the storm was over two soldiers, who attempted to take the dead body away, received a violent shock the moment they touched it. Two artillerymen, charged with the removal of telegraph posts, which had been thrown down at Zara, in Dalmatia, by a storm, on the 8th of September, 1858, at the first, on laying hold of the telegraph wire, two hours after the lightning had ceased, experienced slight shocks, and then were suddenly thrown down, one of them having his hand severely burned, and the other remaining without any signs of life. A comrade who attempted to render assistance, was attacked with nervous symptoms, and had his arm burned.

YIELDING TO THE PRESSURE.—A pregnant "sign of the times" is to be found in the important manifesto of the Emperor of Austria to his people, bearing date September 21st. According to a correspondent:

"The manifesto solemnly guarantees and irrevocably establishes the rights of the people of the empire to participate through their representatives in legislation, and in the conduct of the finances, and is declared to be a part of the constitution of the empire. It also points out that the constant wish of the Emperor, viz: the foundation of a durable and constitutional charter of rights for the Empire, which would receive strength and importance from the free participation of all the subjects of the Empire, has up to the present time remained unfulfilled, and cannot be realized so long as the first condition of bringing all its component parts into clear and unmistakable harmony remains unfulfilled.

"The manifesto goes on to state that in order to redeem his word, and not to sacrifice the sense of the letter, the Emperor has determined first to enter upon the way leading to an understanding with the legal representatives of his people in the eastern portions of the monarchy, and to lay, for acceptance, before the Hungarian and Croatian Diets [the October diploma of fundamental law promulgated by the February patent concerning the representation of the Empire]."

The profitability of the express business was newly illustrated last week by the declaration of a handsome extra dividend, over which the lucky shareholders of the American Express Company's stock are rejoicing considerably. This company paid in 1864, dividends on a capital of two million dollars, amounting to thirty-eight per cent. in cash, and fifty per cent. in paid up stock. On its capital that increased to three millions of dollars, it has already declared, in 1865, cash dividends of twenty-six per cent., and twenty-five per cent. in stock, with every reasonable prospect of an additional twenty-five per cent. within the coming few months. What wonder then, that the stock of this institution is now marketable at three times its par value.—New York paper.

CONSIDERATE.

The Idaho Statesman of a late date says: "In the absence of more interesting matter, we indulge our editor in a few lines this morning from Ruby City."

MONTANA ITEMS.—Mr James McNutt shot and wounded Thomas J. Johnson, it is thought mortally, the latter having avowed his intention to entice McNutt's wife away. Johnson is a Justice of the Peace—a very pretty justice.

The dead body of Ed. Wall was lately found in the water, near cañon ferry.

A new, rich gulch, called "One Eye," had been discovered in the vicinity of Jacko Mission.

Apprehensions are entertained of the fate of nine prospectors, operating on the Yellowstone. They were last seen by Mr. J. H. Haynes and party, one hundred miles from Bozeman City, both parties having "lost their reckoning." The Haynes party, however, had safely reached Virginia.

END OF THE EXPERIMENT.—Under this caption the Sacramento Union of the 15th November says:

The President's experiment may be said to have completed its circle, ending where it began. The disappointment at Washington must be great. The President has reckoned too confidently upon the emancipation of the poor whites from the political serfdom in which they were trained before the war. Upon a basis of ignorance, military pride and savage prejudice against the negro, the architects of the "Confederacy" are building a fabric of sovereignty to-day with as much confidence and certainty as they exhibited when they assembled at Montgomery and banished the national flag from the sacred soil.

A schoolmaster, who, whilst poor himself, had given gratuitous instruction to poor scholars, but when increased in worldly goods began to think that he could not afford to give his services for nothing: "Oh, James, do not say the like of that," said the good-hearted woman, "don't; a poor scholar never came into the house that I didn't feel as if he brought the fresh air of heaven with him; I never miss the bit I give them; my heart warms to the soft and homely sound of the barfoot on the floor; and the door almost opens of itself to receive them in."

As an evidence of the rapidity with which commerce in the South is reconstructing itself, we see it stated that the St. Louis and New Orleans tonnage—now over forty thousand tons—is thirty-three per cent. in excess of the tonnage of 1859. The Ohio river tonnage has increased fifty per cent., and the Missouri river, fifty per cent. since that time.

FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon, we were startled by an alarm of fire in the Fashion Saloon. The fire-place was not in use, and being boarded up in front, had collected soot and cinders, which took fire from sparks falling down the chimney from stovepipes. No serious damage was done.

Work on all the claims in Cariboo has stopped, and everything is ice-bound. The wagon road below Lytton is in a bad state, and one of the bridges on the Douglas Lillooet route has been carried away.

SHOOTING.—Frank Clark and Dr. Webber indulged in a street fight, with revolvers, at Stellacom, on Thursday last. Several shots were exchanged, but neither party was hurt.

BEHIND TIME.—The steamer Eliza Anderson did not arrive from Victoria until this morning, at six o'clock. She has been undergoing repairs.

It is said there is a prospect of sharp competition in Fraser river steamboating next season, and that freight and passage will be materially reduced.

The steamer Labouchere, it is said, will be placed on the route from Victoria to San Francisco direct about the beginning of the new year.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Great Relief.—All gony and rheumatic affections, weakness and swelling of the limbs, stiff joints and contracted sinews, can be treated with the certainty of success by the diligent friction of this excellent Ointment upon the affected part, after it has been patiently fomented with warm brine. Holloway's Pills should be taken by the sufferer who fairly tries this treatment, because they purify the blood, invigorate the stomach, regulate the liver, stimulate the kidneys, act as mild aperients on the bowels, and as tonics on the nerves. In skin diseases and glandular complaints Holloway's remedies are earnestly recommended on account of their gentle, yet effective, action, when a long chain of scrofulous evils surround a victim.

HOLLOWAYS PILLS.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT
 THE EFFECT OF THE OINTMENT ON THE SYSTEM.
 To the very core and centre of all diseases which affect the human body, this remarkable preparation penetrates. It disappears under the friction of the hand as salt disappears when rubbed upon meat.
 The uncleanest performs its healing errand rapidly, safely, and without pain. Simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumours, scrofulous developments of all kinds, abscesses, cancers, old wounds, and in fact, every species of inflammation or suppuration, in whatever part of the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, can be arrested in its destructive course and permanently cured without danger, by rubbing in this inestimable Ointment.
BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, SORES AND ULCERS.
 In many Hospitals in Europe this celebrated remedy is now used for the cure of old wounds, sores and ulcers: in Spain and Portugal, and in many parts of Italy, the first Physicians regularly prescribe its use.
 It is a sovereign remedy for bad breasts and bad legs: and likewise for all skin diseases. It is to be found in the chest of nearly every sailor, soldier and emigrant.
PILES, FISTULAS, STRUCTURES.
 The above class of complaints is surely removed by slightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in this Ointment.
 Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress.
 It should be understood that it is not sufficient to merely smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be rubbed in for some considerable time, two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though it were palpable to the eye. Bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only proper treatment for females in cases of cancer in the stomach, or for those who suffer from a general tearing down.
IMPRUDENCIES OF YOUTH—SORES AND ULCERS.
 Blisters, as also swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way these complaints only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humor from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time, aided by the use of the Pills, to insure a lasting cure.
DIPHTHERIA, BRONCHITIS, SORE THROATS, COUGHS AND COLDS.
 Any of the above class of diseases may be cured by first rubbing the Ointment three times a day upon the skin covering the throat, chest and neck of the patient. The uncleanest will soon penetrate the pores and give immediate relief. To allay the fever and prevent inflammation, eight or ten Pills should be taken night and morning. The Ointment should be produced which is essential for removing fevers, sore throats, and those inflammations of the chest which arise from Asthma, Bronchitis, and other causes.

BOTH THE OINTMENT AND PILLS SHOULD BE USED IN THE FOLLOWING CASES: Bad Legs, Corns, (Soft.) Rheumatism, Bad Breasts, Cancers, Scalds, Burns, Contracted and Sore Throats, Bruises, Ruff Joints, Sore Nipples, Bite of Mosquit, Elephantiasis, Skin Diseases, Trees and Sand Fistulas, Scurvy, Files, Gout, Sore Heads, Green-sney, Glandular Swel. Tumours, Chigo-foot, Rings, Ulcers,
