A GREAT CHANGE.

Railroads make noticeable changes in a new country. This fact is practically demonstrated in this part of Washington Territory. For years past residents of the Spokane and Colville countries were wont to traverse the great prairies lying between them and Walla Walla, in order to do their trading. Freightings was done, first by pack trains, and afterwards by wagons. Fortunes have heretofore been made in this upper country, and the greater portion of them have been spent in Walla Walla and Portland. But the building of the Northern Pacific railroad has made an entire change in the matter of travel, freights, and the center of trade. When assurances were given that the great road would be built through the Spokane country, the tide of immigration was changed from the southeastern to the northeastern part of Washington Territory. Following closely upon the settlement of the Palouse country, the Spokane region was dotted all over with homes, tents and immigrant wagons. Everybody awaited anxiously the coming of the railroad trains. They are here now—have just arrived. The change is made. The residents of this new, extensive and fair country have already bidden adieu to Walla Walla and Alnuta, and hope never to have occasion in future to travel there for freight. We gladly hail the advent of railroad trains, with quick transit and cheaper freights. Our merchants will now be able to sell dry goods and hardware as cheap as Walla Walla or any other town east of the mountains. Freighters and traders in nearly every section of the Spokane country now look to Spokane Falls as their objective point. All of the Colville and northern mining, lumbering, and stock-raising regions will do their trading at the Falls. Thus the tables are turned. Instead of our going hence to buy and import from inland towns, our merchants will supply goods hereafter to a country one hundred and fifty by two hundred miles in extent.

Beecher on Conkling.

LOUISVILLE, May 30.—A correspondent of the Courier Journal had a talk with the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, of which the following is a brief extract: Correspondent—You are having a ferocious fight in New York just now? Beecher—Yes, it is a disgraceful dog fight. Curr.—Will Conkling be returned do you think now? Beecher—I can answer that better six months from now. I am a splendid prophet backwards. Curr.—Ought Conkling to be sent back to Washington? Beecher—No; he is totally in the wrong, and ought to go down. I have been a great admirer of his abilities, and have stood by him in his support of General Grant, but in this matter he has forfeited any claim to aid and comfort. It will be very hard for him to defeat the Robertson element, as they have two powerful engines at their command—the administration influence and the 1000 custom house appointments. With all these favors in his pocket, Robertson is all-powerful. Moreover Robertson is a good man, and if he succeeds in this issue he will be more powerful than Conkling has been, and will supersede him in state politics. He is a man of character and ability.

Corr.—Conkling is not a corrupt man, is he?

Beecher—He does not hesitate to employ the machine and the juggling appliances of politics, but he is not personally approachable with money.

Corr.—Conkling is overbearing and dictatorial and unforgiving, is he not?

Beecher—He is imperial and implacable. He never forgets an injury nor forgives an enemy. He never looks with any degree of allowance upon a man whom he thinks has betrayed or wronged him.

Corr.—But is it not treason in his eyes to oppose him in any of his purposes?

Beecher—It would appear so. He cannot brook opposition.

Corr.—General Grant will stand by him in the impending contest will he not?

Beecher—Yes; he is hastening on to New York, but he is making the worst move of his life. He is working against his own interests.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mrs. Clem King is visiting her Mother.

Harriston does not now boast of a business house.

Mrs. Hi. Allen of Five Mile prairie has been very sick.

What has become of that mammoth soda fountain we were to have this summer?

The erection of several new buildings has been commenced during the last few days.

Mr. W. L. Turner has bought of Dick Wright the building occupied by Mr. Forbes for a saloon.

Rev. Mr. Clark is regaining health and strength, preparatory to the work of a pioneer minister.

The tooting of the locomotive can be heard from town. The track is completed to Hangman creek.

The new market is now open and will, we are informed, be supplied with the choicest meats in the market.

Mrs. A. Small and Mrs. Sanburn, of Walla Walla, have been at the California House during the past week.

Sprague is improving, and buildings are progressing, as well as springing up on either side of the railroad track.

The festival for the benefit of the town schools last Friday evening was a success and a very pleasant entertainment.

An occasional mess of the fine trout that are being caught now is a rare treat to those who are getting very tired of beef straight.

Turner & Co. have been receiving more drugs, paints, glass and other goods. Their drug store is one of the finest in the Territory.

The water tank at Sprague is fed by a spring which is situated on the hillside, and large enough to supply the wants of a city of considerable size.

A rehearsal of the instruments and voices in preparing music for the Sabbath school, will be had Friday night at the school house. Everybody invited.

The water tank at Cheney is placed below the track and locomotives are supplied with water from the slough level, by a force pump propelled by Chinamen.

In the absence of enough solid ground in front of Cheney on which to construct a Y, the railroad company has resolved to use a turn-table there in its stead.

Horse racing through town is becoming a great nuisance. The proper authorities should put a stop to it. It is at times dangerous for women and children to be on the streets.

Rev. D. J. Pierce, pastor of the Baptist church of Walla Walla, will preach in the school house on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock and Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

Len Curtis, Pete Ross and Matt Downing are conductors on the passenger and freight trains between Spokane Falls and Ainsworth, with Wm. Godfrey Mr. Henderson and Mr. Bellinger as engineers.

L. Bettinger, of Cheney, will soon enlarge the saleroom to his store, by the removal of a partition in the rear end of the building. He will also have constructed there a neat little post-office, with glass front and appropriate letter boxes.

Mr. Cowley, the Indian Missionary, and at times acting as agent, says that Enoch, the Indian who holds a claim south of town, lays no claim whatever to the railroad land that has been withdrawn from market.

Two of our country's oldest citizens, Col. Morgan, at the Western Hotel, and Rev. Mr. Cowley, at his home, are lying on beds of affliction suffering with broken legs. The warm weather has not been to their advantage. During one of Mr. Cowley's short naps he dreamed of forming a contract with his back to stand by him faithfully until his recovery, but the treacherous back soon broke the contract.

McCannon & Whitman keep a full line of stationery and office supplies.

A fine lot of Children's Hats and Caps at McCammon & Whitman's.

McCannon & Whitman have the best stock of clothing, furnishing goods, leathers and shoes that ever came to this market.

FIVE MILE PRAIRIE.—Five Mile prairie, just northwest of town is a beautiful stretch of high, rolling land, with a rich, productive soil, well watered and surrounded with timber.

On account of its high altitude, there is but one route by which a conveyance can ascend to or descend from the prairie, and that pass is on the nearest point of the prairie to Spokane Falls.

Again in her designs Nature forgot Cheney.

DROWNED.—On Wednesday evening June 1, George Pope, the only son of T. A. Pope of Oregon City, and grandchild of Mrs. A. Warner of this place, fell over a high bluff into the Willamette river and was drowned.

ANDERSONVILLE!!

By JOHN H. McELROY, Late of Co. L. 16th Ill. Cav.

"Andersonville" will be a book of 656 large pages, and will contain about three hundred illustrations, drawn under the immediate supervision of the author. It is simply the daily experiences of a soldier, who, captured by the rebels at the beginning of the war, was confined for 15 months in the prison pens of Richmond, Savannah, Andersonville, Milled and Florence.

From out the heart of every loyal man and woman in this broad land goes forth a tender which twines itself around the memory of Andersonville; for that Golgotha, in which lie the whitening bones of 25,000 without young men, represent to them very much of the dearest and costliest sacrifice of the war, or the preservation of our national unity.

Its more than hundred heartombs of dead represent several times that many of their brethren, for whom the prison gates of Belle Isle, Danville, Salisbury, Florence, Columbia, and Cahaba opened only in eternity. There are few families in the north who have not at least one dear relative or friend among these 60,000 whose sad fortune it was to end their service for the Union by lying down and dying for it in a southern prison pen.

The manner of their death, the horrors that clustered thickly around every moment of their existence, the loyal unaltering steadfastness with which they endured all that fate brought them but never been adequately told. Hidden from the view of their friends in the North by the impenetrable veil which the military operations of the Rebels drew around the so-called Confederacy, the people were not aware of their sufferings.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS.

SAN JOSE, Cal., March 14.

FRANCIS H. COOK, Esq.: As I anticipate coming to Washington Territory some time this coming season, and as I am unacquainted, I take this opportunity of writing you a few lines, your name having been given me as a suitable one to address for the information I want. I met a gentleman in San Jose that was at your town last summer, and he spoke of Spokan Falls very favorably; and I thought perhaps it would be the place to go. Please be so kind as to answer each of the following questions, and thus greatly oblige myself as well as others:

GEO. MCGLAULIN.

How many inhabitants have you now, and of what a nationality, mostly?

About 525 inhabitants, mostly Americans. The population of our town will probably be doubled during the next eight months.

Is the Spokan falls convertible into mill power, and if so, by whom is it owned?

As an available and abundant water-power, the great falls of the Spokan are equalled by only four similar powers in the world. The river above the falls divides into four streams, and after a succession of falls, unites in one stream near the point where the waters take the last grand leap of about 60 feet. Total height of the fall, 155 feet. The water power covers an area of about 120 acres, and will afford good locations and abundant power for three good mills on each acre. The principal portion of this water power is owned by Messrs. S. G. Havermale, Glover, Cannon & Brown, F. Post, and D. P. Jenkins.

Will the Northern Pacific railroad go through your town, and if so, how soon?

Yes, the N. P. railroad makes this the most important point on its route in Eastern Washington. Its chief engineer, superintendent of bridge construction, chief of surveyors, and many other employees of the company have already established themselves in this city as general headquarters. The superintendent of this division expects to make Spokan Falls his permanent home as soon as the road is completed to this city. The company has valuable interests in and about Spokan Falls, and as the location is an available one, it is expected the company's machine shops will be established here. The road will reach Spokan Falls about the last of June.

What industries are tributary to your town?

Farming, mining, lumbering, stock-raising, manufacturing and railroad building. Independent of these, immigration, tourists and prospectors always make Spokan Falls their objective point when visiting this new, beautiful, interesting and rapidly developing country.

Have you any churches, schools or library?

We have two schools, one Episcopal chapel, Methodist and Congregational organizations, with plans already perfected for church edifices; one public library, and one literary society.

At what price is land held?

Government lands can still be found and secured under existing laws. The price of farming lands varies according to location and soil. Railroad wild lands are sold in tracts not exceeding 320 acres to actual settlers who will improve the same, for $2.00 per acre.

Are there any military posts near you?

Fort Coeur d'Alene is 30 miles east, Camp Spokan 55 miles west, and Fort Colville 65 miles north of this city, and this depot, as a military necessity, is their base of supplies.

Have business houses prospered in your town?

Our business men have done well in the past, and they are now entering upon an era of unusual activity, with positive promise of increased prosperity.

What is the supply of water and timber in Spokan and Stevens counties?

Very good.

Will a military, toll or free bridge be built over the Spokan river near Spokan Falls?

A free bridge will be constructed from a central street of town to the opposite shore, at a cost of about $6,500, as soon as plans can be submitted and the work performed. Our liberal citizens, aided by a few non-residents, pay for this improvement by voluntary subscriptions.

How is Spokan Falls for location and health?

Our city is most beautifully located on a level, gravelly prairie, partially surrounded by scattering forest trees. The river never overflows its banks, although but a few feet below the level of the town above the falls. Drainage very good. We know of no location in the world more conducive to health. Ladies are especially captivated with the town and its surroundings.

Which is the most important town in your county?

Spokan Falls.

What other towns have you?

Spangle, Medical Lake, Cheney, Spokan Bridge, Rockford, Clifton, Sprague, and others—all on the high road to prosperity.

Is the population of your county increasing?

Yes, very rapidly.

What kinds of business are represented in your principal town?

Spokan Falls has seven general mercantile and clothing establishments, one drug store, two livery stables, one bank, one job printing office, one newspaper, two milliners, four hotels, two restaurants, two hardware and tinware establishments, two bakeries, one harness shop, two breweries, four saloons and two bar-rooms, one gunsmith, two blacksmith shops, one saw mill, one grist mill, two jewelry shops, one telegraph and U. S. signal office, one express and stage office, the N. P. chief engineer's and other offices, one shoe shop, one agricultural implement warehouse, two barber shops, one N. P. warehouse and supply depot, one notion store, one wagon-maker, &c.

How to Reach this Country.

Inquiring letters are so frequently received, as to the best mode of reaching this new country, the rates of fare, the shortest routes, &c., that we have compiled the following facts for the express benefit of those who would come among us. These persons who have friends contemplating a visit to this country, either for pleasure or profit, ought secure some extra copies of this week's edition of THE TIMES:

There are three routes which Eastern people may take in coming hither. If a person wants to save time, and desires to bring stock, wagons, &c., the quickest and most direct route would be to come from Omaha to Ogdon, thence by wagon road to this new country; traversing the distance from Ogdon in two or three weeks, when roads are good—say in the month of June, July or August. There are neither wagons nor teams, can come by rail to Kelton, at a cost of about $50 in emigrant car; thence by stage to Walla Walla, at an expense of $50, exclusive of meals, and on to Colfax or Spokan Falls, at an additional expense of ten and seven dollars, respectively. The remaining route is via San Francisco, by rail thence to Portland, Oregon, by ocean steamer thence to Astoria, by boat. Fare to Portland, $2 to $30, according to cabin occupied, and state of opposition on the route; to Astoria, $18, exclusive of meals and berth. The overland railroad company makes but little difference in price of through tickets to San Francisco or Kelton. At the present time, the route via San Francisco and Portland is undoubtedly the easiest and cheapest, provided you are not accompanied by your own team, everything being taken into consideration. First class fare from Omaha, St. Joseph or Kansas City, to Walla Walla, via Kelton, is $124 25, via San Francisco, $132.

Immigrants from Oregon and California, in the earlier part of the season, when they have the money to spare, often come by water to The Dalles or Astoria, thence by team. Those who travel without teams should come by boat to Penasewa or Astoria, and there take the stage for this upper country via Colfax. Many families make the entire trip overland.

Puget Sounders come by way of Portland and Astoria, unless they want a delightful horseback ride over the Cascade mountains in mid-summer. The Snoqualmie route is the best for horsemen, leading the traveler by way of the Kittitas Valley, Yakima City and Ainsworth. Be sure that your saddle-horse is gentle, sure-footed, strong, and in splendid condition for travel.

The shortest and quickest route from Portland is via the N. P. railroad and stage.

Accommodations on the Columbia river boats are excellent, and every attention is paid to the comfort and convenience of passengers. No one who has an opportunity to do so should fail to take a trip either up or down the Columbia river, where the scenery is magnificent and beautiful in the extreme.

Dissolution of Copartnership

Notice is hereby given that the copartnership heretofore existing between the undersigned under the firm name of Dodge, Palmer & Hange is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued by O. A. Dodge, who assumes all debts and liabilities of the late firm; and to whom all bills due the firm should be paid.

O. A. DODGE, E. PALMER, J. W. HANGE.

Persons asking for any of the above letters will please mention that they are advertised.
