Spokane Falls.

From the Palouse Gazette.]
This thriving city is situated on the south side of the Spokan river, the main part of the town being within a stone's throw of the wonderful falls from which it takes its name. It is built on a level plane, and is one of the handsomest town sites in the world. The streets are gravelly and always free from dust and mud. The roads leading in all directions are hard and level, and can be traveled by the heaviest freight teams at all seasons of the year. In most places immediately along the border of the beautiful stream the traveler who has been accustomed to the golden, waving grain, the handwork of agriculture, may look in vain for its evidences. Back from the stream, and that at a very short distance, the results of the hardy ranchman's toil may be seen. But these, however, are the veriest trifles in comparison with the boundless thousands of acres of rich agricultural lands that contribute to the support of Spokane Falls.

The Future Capital.

The first favorable mention made of Yakima City as an eligible point for the future capital of this commonwealth, was that published in the Tacoma Herald, March, 1878. Since that time an occasional editorial has accepted the result as inevitable, and none have disagreed with the facts then published. The following extracts will be of interest to our readers:
From the Walla Walla Town Talk.]
We are in favor of the admittance of Washington Territory into the Union of States, and of Yakima as the capital. The reasons upon which the first proposition is based are of course so obvious to all, that they need not be here discussed. It may not be so readily apparent, however, why a Walla Walla newspaper should be the first to speak out in favor of Yakima as our future seat of government. A moment's reflection is all that is necessary to solve this problem. In the first place, in territorial matters we will act from a territorial point of view and not a local one. The Town Talk is honest and believes in fair dealing. In the second place it must be apparent to every one that the Capital is at present situated in an inconve-

The Boys in Blue.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 8.—The demonstration of the Boys in Blue to-day was the largest political gathering ever witnessed in the city. From early morning the streets were packed with people from all parts of the state and delegations from Michigan, Illinois and Ohio. A parade was formed in three grand divisions and consisted of numerous Garfield and Arthur clubs; Tippecanoe club, Chicago, Ontario club, carriages containing distinguished guests, Washington, Union and Lincoln clubs, Michigan Boys in Blue, Knights of Columbus, 1000 strong. The noticeable features of the procession were an immense hall eighteen feet high, drawn by fifty men, a wagon with 75 farm hands drawn by 30 horses, a large canal boat on wheels, and the gun boat Monitor on wheels.
A number of leading manufacturers and business houses were represented. By actual count there were over 5000 persons in the procession. The streets on the line of march were profusely decorated.
The afternoon was occupied in speaking at the wigwam, court-house and Circle Park by Senator Conkling, Gen. Kilpatrick, Judge J. W. Denny, Gen. Banks and others. To-night has been devoted to a torchlight parade and fireworks. The procession is estimated at 5000 or 6000 and occupied an hour in passing.
The convention of the Boys in Blue re-elected Gen. Grant commander in chief and adopted the following resolution:
Whereas, The union veterans familiarly known as the Boys in Blue, representing and comprising all loyal soldiers and sailors organizations in the United States who in the days of great trial to the nation by the treason of the south who gave themselves as a sacrifice to the cause of the constitution and liberty, which were, as the results of the late war, crystallized into the amendments which have been accepted by the American people as full payment and satisfaction for the lives lost and treasure expended in such service; therefore, in national convention this day assembled, he it

The Oregonian gets off a pretty good one on our friend Larrabee, as follows:

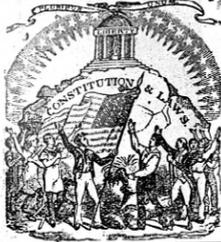

"One Charles Larrabee, who has been making democratic speeches lately throughout Oregon, claims to have been elected of the 5th Wisconsin, and then of the 24th Wisconsin during the war; and on this he is campaigning as a soldier of General Hancock. From a member of the 5th Wisconsin, whose name can be given if called for, we have the statement that he was not a colonel in the field, and that his service as a soldier was such as could do no man any honor. The first year of the war he retired from the field, claiming 'army diarrhea' as the cause. From the history we have of him it very conclusively appears that he was not cut out for a soldier, and that he is better fitted for masquerading as a political soldier after the war than for honorable service as an actual soldier in war. It would seem that about the best thing 'Col.' Larrabee could do just now would be to subsidize a political campaigner after his style of subsidizing as a military campaigner after the first skirmish of the war."

You can train the eye to see all the bright places in your life and so slip over the hard ones with surprising ease. You can also train the eye to rest on the gloomy spots, in utter forgetfulness of all that is bright and beautiful. The former is the better education.

Quitting advertising in dull times is like tearing out a dam because the water is low. Either plan will prevent good times from ever coming.

SPOKAN FALLS, SATURDAY, Oct. 28.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- For Delegate to Congress, THOS. H. BRENTS. For Brig.-Gen., Geo. W. Tibbetts...

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

- For Delegate to Congress, THOS. BURKE. For Brig.-Gen., Jas. McCauley...

THE "QUESTIONABLE TITLE."

Having alluded, in a former editorial, to the expediency of locating county buildings upon town lots in Cheney...

litigation, before the question could be permanently settled. The sentiment of our citizens grows stronger every day, against locating the county seat where the principal gainers are non-residents...

In connection with this article, it is but just to our readers that we should not be misled by the fact that officers of the Government have failed to prevent the promise of these lots by the agents of the N. P. R. R. Co...

Two years ago he took an active part in elections on the Sound. He, a professed Republican, had counterfeit tickets printed and circulated, with the names of the candidates for Congress and the Legislative Council...

And thus it is; the voters of the county are becoming more and more earnest in their convictions that they do not want to experiment by having to erect county buildings in a new town shrouded into existence by non-residents expressly for the purpose...

Messrs. Lewis and Abernethy endeavor to carry the impression that the title to the Cheney lots is as good as the title to lots in Spokane Falls. It is a fact that the railroad addition to Spokane Falls and Cheney are similarly situated...

THE ENCOURAGING NEWS.

Very encouraging are the reports from all over the county regarding the county seat question. Men who were for a while indifferent as to the future location of the county seat, and who, for very slight reasons, were willing to vote for its removal from Spokane Falls, have come to a realization that their own interests can be best served by having the county seat remain in the business center where they are often called during the year...

The inclinations of the settlers along Hangman creek, like the historic stream upon which they live, naturally tend toward Spokane Falls. The Rockford, Spokane, Bridge and Peone precincts, with a very large increase in votes, will go almost solid for Spokane Falls. Heretofore the settlers upon White Bluff Prairie and about Deep Creek Falls, were unsettled between two points—Sprague and Spokane Falls; but the proposed military road between the new camp on the Spokane and Spokane Falls, will effectually unite their interests with the latter place...

It promises to be the duller place in Spokane county after the second day of next November. If there is any one privilege the exercise of which is more dear to American people than another, it is the privilege of voting as best suits one's own interests. The man or set of men are treading on dangerous ground who endeavor to abridge this glorious privilege...

Republicans claim Indiana by 10,000, and eight out of 13 Congressmen. Ohio gives over 25,000 majority. The New York Tribune says "nothing but impossible negligence can prevent Garfield's election." The Times says "the Republicans will carry New York whether the city's majority is against them or not." The World, Democratic, is hopeful. The Sun asks, "Can Hancock carry New York?" The Herald declares the Democracy substantially beaten.

The quietest and most manly canvass for delegate to Congress ever held in this Territory is progressing at the present time. Aside from the series of violent declamation by W. H. White, of Seattle, (a Democrat for the occasion), the political sea is almost a calm. Our readers will have an opportunity to hear both candidates. They will spend as much time in the county as possible.

A PROMISING TOWN.

Of all things agreeable, that which gives most promise is generally most agreeable. Sometimes, however, this rule has exceptions. For example, let us take the town of Cheney. Notwithstanding the fact that this little place is hardly old enough to be possessed of a permanent name, it has the most lofty aspirations of any burg in the county. As a promising town, it is the most promising. In the first place, the section in which the new town is laid out is promised by the U. S. Government to the N. P. R. R. Company.

It promises to get all the from the superior townships of the county. The superior townships of the county are the superior townships of the county. The superior townships of the county are the superior townships of the county.

It promises to be the duller place in Spokane county after the second day of next November. If there is any one privilege the exercise of which is more dear to American people than another, it is the privilege of voting as best suits one's own interests.

Republicans claim Indiana by 10,000, and eight out of 13 Congressmen. Ohio gives over 25,000 majority. The New York Tribune says "nothing but impossible negligence can prevent Garfield's election." The Times says "the Republicans will carry New York whether the city's majority is against them or not." The World, Democratic, is hopeful.

Our artist has faithfully portrayed several noted characters; and no one need be offended at the picture of his own likeness. Every man who can say his soul is his own, will vote for the place where the county seat would be best suited to his own interests.

The Spokan Times

Spokane County Seat

From the Palouse Gazette.

By act of the legislature the county seat of Spokane county was temporarily located at Spokane Falls, and is there to remain until located elsewhere by a majority of the legal electors of said county.

Inasmuch, therefore, as it requires a majority of all the votes cast in favor of a given point to remove the county seat, the probabilities are that the election will leave the question unsettled, unless, indeed, a majority of all the votes cast should be in favor of Spokane Falls, which is not unlikely.

It is true that, owing to the underdeveloped state of the new county, it is a difficult matter for many to decide where its future commercial center will be, but to the best of our belief, the natural advantages of Spokane Falls are greater than those of any of the embryo or speculative towns on the N. P. railroad.

The high and dry roads which lead to it from various directions, together with the immense water power of the Spokane which is destined to operate mammoth manufacturing industries, and the facilities for running saw logs and timber from the extensive forests of Coeur d'Alene, indicate with unerring precision that Spokane Falls, as a thriving town, is a fixed fact, and that the effort of interested parties to build up the town of Cheney by the removal of the county seat, even if successful, will only retard, not prevent, the growth of the pioneer town of Spokane county.

If a majority of the people of Spokane county are not in favor of the permanent location of the county seat at the Falls, they should certainly not be too hasty in fixing upon its new site, before it is known where the division of the county, east and west, will eventually be made, or where the geographical or commercial center, or the center of population will be.

We think it will be Spokane Falls, but possibly it will be Cheney or Medical Lake, or even some point still further west. In the meantime, those who do not positively favor Spokane Falls or Cheney, should, and undoubtedly will, vote for their own town, or for some other location which they favor, and await the rapid developments which the near future will discover.

What a Fiasco of Hancock's Writings.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The Tribune editorially says: The Tribune has been permitted to copy the following extract from a private letter to a friend in Iowa by an army officer in General Hancock's department who for many years past has been near to the person and confidence of Gen. Hancock. We give the text verbatim as it evinces the writer's affection for his commanding officer and bears marks of truth and sincerity.

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, N. Y., September 28.

Gen. Hancock, the dear old man, is just now on the verge of desperation and knows not which way to turn or what to do. The glitter of the presidency has turned his head and the continued deal and turmoil of the campaign with differences between northern and southern dems, (so strongly marked) to equalize and adjust I fear will drive him stark mad. H., my dear boy, Hancock is no more fit for the presidency than a withered henlock. I will be frank with you. It is true he knows nothing of the south except the few polished and crafty leaders that call upon him here, and his brief acquaintance with the same class of men in '67 at New Orleans. He means well enough, God bless him! but he can not comprehend the crookedness of politics and politicians. And now while on the subject I will give you the secret of the Hancock move. It is this; that Indiana disunionist William H. English is to be the real president. Hancock is not expected to live out a fraction of his term, and that expectation, I am sorry to say, is founded on facts. Any digression from his regular habits is liable to bring on an apoplectic stroke. Strong symptoms have twice exhibited themselves since his nomination, and it is the verdict of all around him that his promotion to the presidency will terminate his earthly career, but this fact has been and is most carefully guarded for reasons you can readily discern. And now, dear boy, you have the inside of this presidential business. With English as president, you can readily comprehend what those fellows of the south can accomplish.

The above reads like a family letter. Indeed it comes from a member of General Hancock's military family and one who regards Hancock with something of the same affection a son feels for his father. We have the original letter in our possession with private notes from the receiver of it authorizing its publication, but withholding the name of the writer for personal reasons.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Times says: The Turkish note concludes by demanding the demolition of the Danubian fortress and Turkish occupation of the Balkans. The Times condemns the note as wholly unsatisfactory.

Territorial Democratic Platform.

Resolved, That we endorse the nomination of the soldier-statesman, Winfield Scott Hancock, and his worthy colleague, W. H. English, their letters of acceptance and the platform of the convention which nominated them.

2.—We are in favor of a speedy admission of the Territory of Washington into the Union as a State, and to that end we will lend our united efforts.

3d.—We are opposed to the present policy in the management of the Indian tribes which has been forced upon us by the Republican party, and our Delegate in Congress is especially instructed to use his influence to change this policy for the better.

Territorial Republican Platform.

Resolved, That we unanimously adopt the declaration of principles as embraced in the Chicago platform of the national republican party.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the present administration of the general government, and that we believe that posterity will award to it the honor of being one of the proudest in the history of our country.

Resolved, That we favor the early admission of our Territory into the sisterhood of States, and our delegate is hereby instructed to use all proper means to secure the same.

Resolved, That we regard the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese into this United States as a very grave evil which should receive the prompt attention of congress and the treaty making powers of the United States and we favor the speedy modification of our present treaty with China in order that the said immigration, which works so peculiar a hardship to the people of this coast, may be restrained and limited.

Resolved, That the opening of our rivers and the removal of obstructions to navigation is not only of local but national importance, and our delegate should endeavor to secure liberal congressional appropriations to aid and encourage the same.

Resolved, That we favor the abandonment of our present Indian policy, believing that while some good results therefrom yet "evils do much more abound" and we ask such legislation will place them on the same footing as other citizens secure them in the enjoyment of the same rights and privileges only, and make them amenable to the same laws. (Applause)

National Democratic Platform.

First—We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrines and traditions of the Democratic party as illustrated by the teachings and example of a long line of Democratic statesmen and patriots, and embodied in the platform of the last National Convention of the party.

Second—Opposition to centralization and that dangerous spirit of encroachment which tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create whatever may be the forms of government, a real despotism; no sumptuary laws separation of Church and State for the good of each, common schools to be fostered and protected.

Third—Honest, plain, honest rule honest money, consisting of gold, silver and paper convertible in coin on demand; the strict maintenance of the public faith, State and National, a tariff for revenue only.

Fourth—The subordination of the military to the civil power, and a general and thorough reform of the civil service.

Fifth—Right to a free ballot as the right preservative of all rights, and must not be violated in every part of the United States.

Sixth—The existing administration is so replete with conspiracy only, and its acts are so calculated to surround the ballot boxes with troops and deputy marshals to intimidate and obstruct the election, and the unprecedented use of the veto to maintain its corrupt and despotic power, insults the people and imperils their institutions.

Seventh—The great fraud of 1876, by which upon a false count of the electoral vote of two States, the candidate defeated at the polls was declared to be President, and for the first time in American history the will of the people was set aside under threat of military violence, struck a deadly blow at our system of representative government. The Democratic party, to preserve the country from the horrors of a civil war, submitted for a time to the firm and patriotic faith that the people would punish the crime in 1880. This issue precedes and dwarfs all others. It imposes a more sacred duty upon the people of the Union than was ever addressed to the conscience of a nation of free-men.

Eighth—We execrate the course of this administration in making places for political crims, and demand a reform by statute which shall make it forever impossible for a defeated candidate to bribe his way to the seat of a usurper, by villainous means.

Ninth—The resolution of Samuel J. Tilden not again to be a candidate for election to the exalted place to which he was elected a majority of his countrymen, and from which he was excluded by the leaders of the Republican party, received by the Democrats of the United States with sensibility, and they declare their confidence in his wisdom and patriotism and indignity assailed by the rancors of the common enemy, and they further declare to him that he is followed in retirement he has chosen for himself by the sympathy and respect of his fellow citizens who regard him as one of the elevating the standard of public morality, and purifying the public service, meriting the lasting gratitude of his country and his party.

Tenth—Free and a living chance for American commerce on the sea and on the land; no discrimination in favor of transportation lines, corporations or monopolies.

Eleventh—Amendment of the Burlingame treaty; no more Chinese immigration for travel, education and foreign commerce, and thence carefully guarded.

Twelfth—Public money and public credit for public purposes solely, and public lands for actual settlers.

Thirteenth—The Democratic party is the friend of labor and the laboring man, and pledges itself to protect him alike against the corporations and the common enemy.

Fourteenth—We congratulate the country upon the honesty and thrift of the Democratic Congress which has reduced the public expenditure $40,000,000 a year; upon the continuation of prosperity at home and the national honor abroad, and above all, upon the promise of such a change in the administration of this government as shall insure its genuine lasting reform in every department of the public service.

National Republican Platform.

The following is the platform passed by the Republican convention held at Chicago.

Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis the peace and order of the nation; it has given us a currency absolutely good and legal and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where 6 per cent. bonds sold at 86, to that where 5 per cent. bonds are eagerly sought at a premium. Under its administration railroads have increased from 31,000 miles in 1860, to more than 82,000 miles in 1878. Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,100,000,000 in the same time, and our exports, which were $30,000,000 less than our imports in 1860, were $264,000,000 more than our imports in 1878.

Without resorting to loans it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of the government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and disbursed annually more than $30,000,000 for soldiers' pensions. It has paid $300,000,000 of the public debt, and by placing the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charges from nearly $151,000,000 to less than $80,000,000. All the industries of the country have revived, labor is in demand, wages have increased and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican party asks for the continued confidence and support of the people.

First—We affirm that the work of the last 21 years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved should be preserved; that the duties assigned should be cherished; that the dispersed union should happily rest; that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations; that the order established and the peace regained should be preserved; that the debt now reduced should be extinguished by the payment of every dollar thereof; that the reviving industries should be ever promoted, and that the commerce already so great should be encouraged.

Second—The constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and not a mere contract of confederated States. It made a sovereign nation. Some powers are denied to the nation, while others are retained by the states, but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be determined by national and not by state tribunals.

Third—The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several states, but it is the duty of the national government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of intelligence in the several states, and the destiny of the nation must be guided not by the genius of any one state, but by the average genius of all.

Fourth—The constitution wisely forbids congress to make any law respecting an establishment of religion, but it is idle to hope that the nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism while each state is exposed to its particular domination. We therefore recommend that the constitution be so amended as to lay some prohibitions upon the legislation of each state and to forbid the appropriation of the public funds to the support of sectarian schools.

Fifth—We reaffirm the belief avowed in 1850 that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should not discriminate as to favor American labor; that no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railroad or other corporation; that slavery having perished in the states, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the territories; that everywhere that protection accorded to American birth must be secured to citizens by American adoption; that it is the duty of congress to develop and improve our water courses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease; that the obligations to men who preserved its integrity in the day of battle are undiminished by the lapse of 15 years since their final victory; their perpetual honor and shall forever be the grateful privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.

Sixth—Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with the congress of the United States and its treaty-making powers, the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of Chinese as an evil of great magnitude, invokes the exercise of that power to restrain and limit that immigration by the enactment of such just, humane and reasonable provisions as will produce that result.

Seventh—That the purity and patriotism which characterized the earlier career of R. B. Hayes in peace and war, and which elevated the thought of his time, are necessary to him for a presidential career as chief executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due an efficient, just, and courageous fulfillment of the public business, and will honor his interposition between the people and proposed partisan laws.

Eighth—We charge upon the Democratic party the heinous crimes of patriotism and justice to a suspension of all trade and commerce with the national and state governments, and of the control of place and position, they have obstructed all the efforts to preserve purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage, have devised fraudulent returns and certificates, have labored to unseat lawfully elected members of congress to secure at all hazards the vote of the majority of the states in the house of representatives, have endeavored to procure by force and fraud the election of a president, and have endeavored to trust given to others by the people of Maine, and rescued by the courage and action of Maine's patriotic sons, have by methods vicious in principle and tyrannical in practice attached partisan legislation to appropriation bills; have crushed the rights of individuals and vindicated the principle and sought the favor of rebellion against the nation and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memories of our countrymen. At this time good results, freedom and individual equality.

We affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to use all legitimate means of this union to secure the perfect harmony which may be practicable, and we submit to the practical, sensible people of the United States, to say whether it would not be dangerous to the best interests of our country, at this time to surrender the administration of the national government to a party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring destruction and confusion where there is now order and confidence and hope.

How to Reach this Country.

Inquiring letters are so frequently received, as to the best mode of reaching this new country, the rates of fare, the shortest routes, &c., that we have compiled the following facts for the express benefit of those persons who would come among us. These persons who have friends contemplating a visit to this country, either for pleasure or profit, ought secure some extra copies of this week's edition of THE TIMES.

There are three routes which Eastern people may take in coming hither. If a person wants to save time, and desires to bring stock, wagons, &c., the quickest and most direct route would be to come from Omaha to Ogden; thence by wagon road to this new country; traversing the distance from Ogden in two or three weeks, when roads are good—say in the month of June, July or August. Those having neither wagons nor teams, can come by rail to Kelson, at a cost of about $50 in emigrant car; thence by stage to this new country, at an expense of $40, exclusive of meals, and on to Colfax at Spokane Falls, at an additional expense of ten and seven dollars, respectively. The remaining route is via San Francisco, by rail, thence to Portland, Oregon, by ocean steamer, thence to Almolta, and then by stage to Portland, $3 to $30, according to cabin occupied, and the state of opposition to the route to Almolta, $18, exclusive of meals and berth. The overland railroad company makes but little difference in price of through tickets to San Francisco or Kelson. At the present time, the route via San Francisco and Portland is undoubtedly the easiest and cheapest, provided you are not accompanied by your own team, everything being taken into consideration. First class fare from Omaha, St. Joseph or Kansas City to Walla Walla, via Kelson, is $124 24; via San Francisco, $132.

Immigrants from Oregon and California, in the earlier part of the season, when they have the money to spare, often come by water to The Dalles or Almolta; thence overland by teams. Those who travel without teams should come by boat to Penasewa or Almolta, and thence by stage to the comfort and convenience of passengers. Many families make the entire trip overland.

Puget Sounders come by way of Portland and Almolta, unless they want a delightful horseback ride over the Cascade mountains in mid-summer. The Snoqualmie route is the best for horsemen, landings are excellent, and every stage is fitted to the comfort and convenience of passengers. No one who has an opportunity to do so should fail to take a trip either up or down the Columbia river, where the scenery is magnificent and beautiful in the extreme.

THE BEST WAGON ON WHEELS

FISH BROTHERS & CO.,

RACINE, WIS. We make every variety of FARM, FREIGHT AND SPRING WAGONS. And by confining ourselves strictly to one class of work; by employing some of the Best of Workmen, Using nothing but FIRST-CLASS IMPROVED MACHINERY and the VERY BEST OF SELECTED TIMBER. And a THOROUGH KNOWLEDGE of the business, we have justly earned the reputation of making "THE BEST WAGON ON WHEELS." We give the following warranty with each wagon: We HEREBY WARRANT the FISH BROS. WAGON No. 1, to be well made in every particular and of good material, and that the strength of the same is sufficient for all ordinary use. Should any breakage occur within one year from the date of purchase, or any other defect in material, or workmanship, or any other defect, we will be held liable for the cost of repairs, or the price of said wagon, as per owner's price list, with the exception of the purchaser producing a sample of the broken or defective parts as evidence.
