The Future Motor Power.
In the opinion of most of the scientists of Great Britain electricity is to take the place of steam in driving machinery and moving cars, and is to be generated by the action of tides, wind and falling water. They predict that it will be utilized to a greater extent than any person in a previous age believed it would. Wind will generate electricity for moving machinery, for lighting the streets, and warming dwellings in Ireland, Belgium, Denmark, and other countries, where there are few streams that afford water power. The movement of tides will produce the same effect in most countries that have an extensive sea coast, while the fall of water in rivers and streams will generate electricity in all mountain regions.
The great electrical exhibition at Paris is doing much to draw attention to what is called the motor power of the future. There is a picture called "The Queen of the Nineteenth Century" hanging in many shops. It is a female figure surrounded with a halo, and cutting rays of light from the hands, which are poised as if to enable the being to fly. The light gives the arms the appearance of wings. The artist is an enthusiast, and is regarded by many as a prophet. We all hope that his fair predictions may be realized. The steam engine is a good thing, but we are ready for something better. Now, the attention is drawn to electricity; great results may be expected.—Chicago Tribune.

What may be Mailed.
Merchants who send out samples of goods by mail are interested in a recent decision by the post office department. Assistant Postmaster General Hutton writes: "It is intended that the matter printed shall be treated as third-class matter, and be inclosed with merchandise subject to the higher rate, and that the merchant may also write upon the 'package' his own name and address, preceded by the word 'from,' and there may also be written or printed the number and names of the articles inclosed, and the sender thereof may write or print or attach to any such articles, by tag or tablet, a mark, number, name or letter for purposes of identification. You will observe that what may be written upon the tag is simply a mark, number, name, number or letter, not to tell the width of the piece, but to identify the article. If the full liberty to inclose printed matter with the samples will not enable merchants to avail themselves of the mail, when they can thus identify the articles described in part by a mark, number, &c., the department can only regret that further aid cannot be afforded under the law as it now stands.

A Husband's Love.
BILL NYE'S BOOMERANG.
It is easy enough to win a husband. Most any attractive little dumpling with a bright eye and cooing voice can gather in a noble husband, but it is pretty difficult to retain him. Noble husbands are thicker than hair on a dog, but the grand difficulty is to draw out their true nobility and to cure it at home. If the wife only understands her business she can introduce the soothing racket in her new field of operation and walk away with the whole business. Most men like to be loved and soothed. There is something in the man's great, rough earnest nature that can be won easier and quicker with gentleness and pity than by the logic of the iron-handled and a billious course of reasoning with bread and milk. We have seen a girl who understood her business take a reformed road agent by the nose so to speak, and lead him through life in such a way that he wouldn't know but he was boss of the ranch. So perfect was the delusion that when she asked him to bring in a scuttle of coal, or get up in his night shirt and kill a burglar that he knew was nothing but a bottled-up four block ass, he always went and he felt as though he counted it a mark of special favor that a poor unworthy worm of dust, like him, should be sought out and delegated to go and chase an old cow across nine vacant lots with an old barrel stave and clothed in nothing but a little brief authority and a knit undershirt. We cannot exactly describe this magic power of a devoted wife over a husband, and we do not intend to try. It is an unspoken, nameless leverage that makes the husband get up in the dead hour of the night and set the pancake batter near the parlor stove. A man need think because he gets up and looks for burglars in the night and is otherwise obedient that it is because he has no backbone; it is simply because he is the husband of a woman of whom he ought to be proud of.

The Spokan Times

Edited by Francis H. Cook

SPOKAN FALLS, TUESDAY, Dec. 6

The Guiteau trial is progressing as fast as the peculiar mental condition of the prisoner, and the extreme leniency of Judge Cox will allow. Every day's evidence indicates more clearly that the assassin was sane enough to be responsible for the deed which took the president's life. He will be hung, or will die a sudden death.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Masonic Lodge meets every third Saturday night of each month.

From Wednesday's Daily. More snow and sleighing can now be said to be very good.

Mr. Ike Oppenheimer started for Colville a few days ago.

The great snow storm of last winter which hid the ground for just three months began one year ago to-day.

Dr. J. H. Masterson and wife left for Pend d'Oreille last evening, where they will probably spend the winter.

Sergeant Moore informs us that the quarantine has been raised at Dayton, and that the train arrived there to-day on schedule time.

Gov. Newell informs the legislature by special message that he is authorized by President Arthur to call an extra session for the proper revision of laws.

Francis Tarbell, incumbent of the office of Territorial Treasurer during the past four years, and recently appointed for two more years, has notified Gov. Newell that he cannot continue in the position, and Thomas N. Ford has been appointed in his stead.

Religious Notice.—The services of the Baptist Church will be held at the City Hall, instead of at the Schoolhouse as heretofore announced, at 11 A. M. next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Anderson, of the M. E. Church will preach in the evening at the usual hour. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. L. W. Myers, of Colville valley arrived in this city yesterday and took the train for Westwood last night. He is on his way to Walla Walla to-day. His mode of traveling and the distance accomplished in one day are quite different from those many years ago when he brought his family into this new country.

Escape Felled. Yesterday morning Sheriff Thompson discovered that the prisoners had been making preparations to get out. They had a hole partly dug through the wall of one of the cells.

Western Hotel Spokan Falls, doing a good business, for sale furnished. Call or address A. Warner. D. S. Herren, mail carrier, boarding house keeper and general hauler, of Spokane Bridge, is in our city to-day. Mr. Guy Haines, we are glad to know, has recovered from his recent illness, and is now in our city, accompanied by his son George.

A meeting of the members of the Congregational church was held at the residence of Francis H. Cook to-day, when it was agreed that the new and commanding edifice should be dedicated whenever it was paid for. But a comparatively small sum will now have to be raised say $150 aside from that guaranteed by Rev. Mr. Clark. It is possible that the dedication may take place Jan. 1, of which due notice will be given.

Correspondence of The Times. FORT COLVILLE, W.T., Nov. 8. Editor SPOKAN TIMES: The execution of the Indian murderer at Fort Colville on the 15th inst. elicited comments, editorial and otherwise, seemingly at variance with the accepted opinions of those familiar with the facts.

The slight apprehension of interference from the Indians existing in the minds of some originated in the misinterpretation of threats indulged in by friends of the prisoner, to the effect that should he be hung and his brother's murderer not brought to justice, they would kill the latter themselves. A satisfactory explanation having been made to the sheriff some time prior to the execution that no allusion to the officers in charge, or to the whites, was intended, not the slightest necessity remained for any precautionary measures. The few Indians in the vicinity preferring, through unfeigned sorrow, to witness the death struggle of their friend, needed no injunction from those in charge to remain away from the place upon that day.

The Indian, Andrew Shilla-hoo-lah, whose father's name was Tuepa Shilla-hoo-lah, was a man of about thirty years of age, the father of four children, two of whom are now living with their mother, his wife, the other two having died while quite young. He expressed himself, as did many of relatives and friends, as satisfied with the justice of his sentence; that he had done wrong and deserved punishment; that he was willing to die for his crime, and he did in the bravest possible manner.

If, as has been stated, he became reconciled to this Indian who so cruelly and without provocation murdered his half-brother, Louis Pierre.

This is the first county named after the late president.

The holidays are approaching, and the little folks will want candies and nuts. Will Raney, at the Pioneer fruit store has anticipated their wants with a fresh invoice. He has also received a large lot of fine eating and cooking apples. Call and see him.

Every recent order of the Northern Pacific management is that work must go ahead with all possible expedition, and all contractors on the west are notified that their obligations must be complied with within date, indicating the road will be completed to the summit of the Rocky Mountains in 1883.

The N. P. Co. is shipping iron constantly by water to Portland and thence over its road to Pen d'Oreille Lake. The steamer Henry Villard is carrying this iron to Cabinet Landing, and by the time the road is completed around the north of the lake it is anticipated a division of 25 or 30 miles east of Cabinet Landing will have been built ahead of the construction.

Francis H. Cook received instructions from the assistant postmaster general last night, informing him that he had been appointed messenger to carry the U. S. mail between the postoffice and the N. P. railroad station in this city. Service was begun to-day by Wm. Cruger. This young man will also drive an express (platform spring) wagon, and carry passengers, baggage and parcels at very reasonable rates. Any business offered him will be performed promptly and correctly.

This is Villard's idea of "pushing things." It will be seen that it is contemplated to have the grade built to Silver Bow or Butte by Oct., 1883, and Engineer Weeks, of the Clark's Fork Division, asserts that the track will be laid to Missoula by that date with a probability of its reaching Deer Lodge by December. If the work from the east is pushed with corresponding energy the road can be completed to Bozeman by the same date. The company desires to complete the road through from Lake to Ocean by July, 1883. The road from Silver Bow to Bozeman via Deer Lodge or Pipestone Passes can be built in six months.

Caught Napping. The Union says: Parties from above report that the sheriff of the newly organized county in Idaho went to the new railroad town of Ventnor, the other day, arrested a man charged with murder, and started with him on the cars for Westwood, the county seat. On the way down the sheriff went to sleep, when his prisoner hid him a seat and robbed him of his revolver, watch and money, and made good his escape. That sheriff will be heard from.

From Friday's Daily. Western Hotel Spokan Falls, doing a good business, for sale furnished. Call or address A. Warner. D. S. Herren, mail carrier, boarding house keeper and general hauler, of Spokane Bridge, is in our city to-day. Mr. Guy Haines, we are glad to know, has recovered from his recent illness, and is now in our city, accompanied by his son George.

and made a dying request to his friends to bury all animosity against him, it must indeed have been at the last moment, and to insure pardon from the church, whose indifference to him during his long confinement was the subject of complaint by the prisoner and of comment by the public, who attributed it to his poverty and want of influential friends. To the kind, Christian treatment of the sheriff, and the timely and judicious advice given to him and the Indians who visited him no doubt were due the peaceful termination of the affair.

In regard to the extravagance and tendency to squander the public money, a word, perhaps, to the public is due our officials. The erection of the scaffold, the enclosure around the same, the removing and storing away after use, the required amount—2000 feet or more, at $15 per 1000 at the mill, with additional cost of hauling and all expenses connected therewith, were awarded to the lowest bidder by contract for the sum of $210 in county scrip at 90c. The only other expense in connection with the hanging which we are aware of was the sheriff's own fee, which, according to law, is $50, and as the lumber—which is needed to build a fence around the jail—became the property of the county, it certainly cannot be considered quite so extravagant an affair as has been represented, even should it be "added upon the county," which is doubtful.

From Saturday's Daily. Mr. Harvermale is receiving more new machinery.

Mr. Kellogg, of the Cheney Tribune, is spending the day in our city, looking after his business interests.

The council defeated the bill to re-submit to a vote of the people of Spokan county the permanent location of the county seat.

The excellence of flax grown in Oregon and Washington Territory has been so well demonstrated by several invoices sent to Belfast, that a movement is making to extend its cultivation by Irish linen men, who propose to manufacture linen on Puget Sound.

A fire recently occurred at the Cascades which consumed among other property about $4,500 worth of goods belonging to Mr. Cameron, who was preparing to move his effects to this city. His family barely escaped with their night clothes. Mr. Cameron will locate here, and open up in business.

The claim that Northern Dakota will be a wine producing district is starting, but not unreasonable. It is based on the quality of its wild grape. Its aroma is delicious, and its flavor finer and higher than that of any of the wild fox grape, the Catawba, Concord and others. It bears abundantly, is hardy, and ripens its fruit regularly. There are intelligent gardeners in the Territory who have already published their belief that in the improvement of this wild grape by cultivation and breeding, Dakota has a future of profitable wine making.

From Monday's Daily. The wife and child of Mr. Hedges, freight agent at the depot building, arrived last night and will take up their abode in this city.

It is a fact that with the exception of the first cases of small-pox in this city, more suffering has been occasioned by vaccination than by the disease itself. Spokan Falls may now be said to be free from small-pox.

About six inches of snow fell yesterday in this vicinity, making the total depth about ten inches. A slight rain-fall occurred this morning. If a freeze should soon follow, the beginning of this will be more severe than that of last winter on stock.

Mr. Washburne, for some time past telegraph operator at the W. U. office in this city, will soon take his departure for Portland. He has gained many friends since his arrival who will miss his genial presence. He is succeeded by Mr. Aldrich, who is also a good telegraph operator, if we are to judge of the manner in which the telegrams reach THE TIMES office.

ed that on and after the 7th day of January, 1882, it shall be unlawful for any person not a graduate of a legally chartered medical college or university having the authority to confer the degree of Doctor of Medicine, to enter upon or engage in the practice of medicine or surgery, or any of its branches in Washington Territory; provided that a person who is engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery in this Territory at the time of passage of this act, shall be allowed to continue his practice, but shall be required to appear before the auditor of the county in which he resides and shall present to him a settlement in writing of the fact. Thereupon the auditor shall enter the following in the register, to-wit: The name in full of the practitioner, his written statement, place of activity, his place of residence, the time of continuous practice in this Territory, and the place or places where such practice was pursued, together with any facts bearing upon his qualifications as a practitioner which he may choose to present, to all of which the practitioner shall likewise make affidavit, and the auditor shall place said certified statement on file in his office for inspection by the public. Other portions of the law provide for the registration with the county auditor, before the first of January next, of the diplomas awarded to physicians by Medical Colleges.

Violations of this law, which is entitled "an act to provide for the regulation of the practice of medicine, and for the registration of all practitioners of medicine and surgery," shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished for each and every offense by a fine of one hundred dollars, one half to be paid to be paid to the county for the use of public schools, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding one year, or both, or at the discretion of the court.

Tariff Convention.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—About 200 delegates to the tariff convention arrived to-day. Convention met, 900 delegates being present. George B. Loring, U. S. Commissioner of Agriculture, was in the chair, and made a brief speech.

Intends to Retire.
It is reported that John Kelly has an intention of retiring from political life.

A Schooner Seized.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—U. S. Consul Burchard at Ruton has informed Dominique Cefalu & Son, of this city, of the seizure of their schooner Mary Ebeline at Uvilla by Honduras soldiers and the arrest of the captain and crew, and that a new captain and crew were shipped and the vessel taken to Ruton, where the captain was imprisoned, bond for his release being refused. The matter will be called to the attention of the authorities at Washington. The cause of arrest is alleged informality in the schooner's manifest of merchandise. During September the vessel had gone to Uvilla twice before, but was not molested till Nov. 8.

Will Continue Business.

BOSTON, Nov. 29.—The directors of the Pacific Bank, in a long session to-night, concluded that in a few weeks securities would realize $500,000, and that they could get $300,000 from the stockholders and continue business.

P. C. S. S. Affairs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—It is rumored that at the next annual meeting of the shareholders of the Pacific Coast Steamship Co. a new board of directors will be elected in the interest of the Villard combination. It is also stated that a segregation of property belonging to the company is possible, and that the southern route, with the steamers running on it, the San Luis Obispo & San Maria railroad, docks, etc., will be disposed of, and that Goodall, Perkins & Co. may become the purchasers. It is believed Villard will not care to hold the route south of San Francisco, as it forms no part of his great northern combination scheme.

The New Telegraph Co.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—City council last night, by a vote of 22 to 18, voted to allow the Mutual Union Telegraph Co. to string its wires over poles through the streets, and to maintain them above ground as long as the present ordinance, or ordinances yet to be passed, shall permit. Under the existing law it would be two years before they will be compelled to bury them.

mail-pox in Chicago.

Twenty-eight deaths from small-pox in this city last week.

Corn.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—The largest single sale for cash of grain ever made in this city was consummated on Saturday, E. M. Sannel & Son selling to a New Orleans exporting firm 450,000 bushels of No. 2 mixed corn, 100,000 bushels of which were inspected to-day.

O. R. & N. Co's Stock.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The O. R. & N. Co's stock is strong to-day at an increase of three per cent.

Keene's Name Dropped.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—James H. Keene, who has not attended a single meeting of the board of directors of the Erie railway since his election last year, was dropped at the election of the new board to-day.

Mrs. Lincoln.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 30.—Mrs. Lincoln is expected in this city some time during December. She will remain the greater portion of this winter, making her home with her sister, Mrs. Niman Edwards. Her health is not much improved since she went to New York. It is believed Mrs. Lincoln will obtain an increase of her pension.

Garfield's Picture.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Secretary Blaine yesterday transmitted to London a very fine cabinet photograph of the late President Garfield. It is handsomely mounted and enclosed in a satin covered frame, which was placed in a beautiful mahogany box. It is the gift of Mrs. Garfield to Queen Victoria, in response to a request of the latter some weeks ago for a photograph of the late president. The photograph was selected from a large number, and is regarded as an excellent likeness of the deceased president.

Financial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The secretary of the treasury has called in twenty million dollars of extended sixes registered.

Another Crank.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Another crank named Elias Flitts, alias P. Paul Neistling, from Sadoiga, was arrested here to-night. He said he came to save Guiteau. This makes nine cranks arrested here since Garfield was shot.

In the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—M. C. George, of Portland, Oregon, was admitted to practice in the supreme court to-day.

Irish Affairs.

DUBLIN, Nov. 30.—A farmer named O. R. Coranish has been found beaten to death near Dromore, county Down. One arrest was made.

Frictions on the estate of Lord Bantay at Castle Down are proceeding quietly. Tenants were two years in arrears, and most of them offered to pay a year's rent, which in some instances was accepted on account. All tenants were evicted but eight, who were reinstated conditionally.

Killan, barrister, on the staff of the Irishman, who was arrested in 1879 with Davitt and Daly for uttering seditious language, has been rearrested under the coercion act on charge of inciting people not to pay rents, and conveyed to Dundalk.

Michael Boyton was released from Kilmanham jail on account of ill health, and was immediately conveyed to a hospital.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Three tenants on Lord Kinmore's estate, Mill street, county Cork, were fired at last evening and wounded in the legs. These tenants had paid their rents. Opposition to rent paying is especially marked in the county Limerick.

Wheat Market.

PORTLAND, Nov. 30.—Wheat market is very dull; quotations are unchanged. Wooden vessels have chartered for 775 6d to the United Kingdom, being on a basis of 80s for iron vessels.

South American Affairs.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The World's Washington special says: A letter of instructions of all articles have been sent to the deputy in Chili and Peru. The ground covered by these instructions has been since referred by him in letter on the Panama canal question, and have reason to believe it will be maintained in all its scope and extent by the administration of Arthur. No matter into whose hands the portfolio of the state department may eventually pass, it will be distinctly made known to the Chilean government that refusal of us to prevent interference in South American affairs by European governments cannot be abused or misinterpreted by any South American state to cover a policy of spoliation and violence towards other South American states, which would speedily attract European interference with us, or be allowed to pass unnoticed.

The Speakership.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—A report has been in circulation to the effect that Belford, of Colorado, would stand as the candidate of the greenbackers, and make an attempt to hold the balance of power in the speakership contest. Belford has arrived, and pronounces the story to be absolutely without foundation. He is announced by a friend, who is a member of the house, and professes to speak authoritatively, as a Keifer man, with a leaning to Hesson. The gentleman who gives the information had it in writing in reply to a letter asking his vote for himself. The Pennsylvania delegation to-morrow decides on the speakership question. If the delegates favor Hiseock, as they probably will, they will make the fight one of the east against the west, and the latter will probably concentrate on Keifer or Kasson and win. These gentlemen are trying hard to get the necessary support for the emergency. President Arthur refuses to express an opinion on the speakership question to gentlemen trying to commit him in saying Hiseock was distasteful to him. The president said: "I want these discussions in the republican party healed. There is no sense in keeping up this political fight. I regret to see the factional spirit obtruding into the speakership race. Select a good man and elect him. Have nothing to say about the leaning of candidates."

Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The debt statement shows a decrease of the public debt during November to be $7,249,126; cash in treasury, $245,042,860; gold certificates, $5,207,920; silver certificates, $6,666,380; refunding certificates, $579,330; legal tenders outstanding, $346,681,096; fractional currency outstanding, $7,093,128; decrease of debt since June 30, 1881, $6,237,471.

Another Avenger.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Another President Garfield avenger writes from Milwaukee to Guiteau, Judge Cox, and the jury, that if Guiteau is not adjudged guilty and hung, all of them will be assassinated. He declares the organization numbers 20,000 from New York alone. Judge Cox says he has received other epistles at the rate of a dozen a day.

N. P. R. R.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Herald's Fort Keogh, Montana, special says the Northern Pacific railway yesterday crossed Tongue river on a temporary bridge, and to-day the track was laid to Fort Keogh. On arriving there the last rail was laid amid the firing of cannon, music by the band, and great rejoicing. A permanent bridge over Tongue river has been begun, and will be completed in ten days. Weather mild, and men work with their coats off. Two miles of track per day are being laid.

A Grave Subject.

BUFFALO, Dec. 1.—A case of graveyard insurance is in the courts to-day. The body of old man was found in the graveyard with arsenic in his stomach, supposed to be one E. G. Burnham, who was reported dead. Four thousand dollars of insurance were collected. Burnham now turns up alive, and O. C. Thomas and a physician named Colton are being tried for putting up a job for murdering the old man.

Bad Blood.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—A French woman of bad repute, named Louise Had, had her throat cut from ear to ear last night by a man named Whalen, who claimed he gave her a $100 bill and a gold watch for safe keeping, and that she tried to rob him. She is still alive and may recover. Whalen is under arrest.

Criminal Refused.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Collector Robertson to-day notified the captain of the steamer St. Germain that Benjamin Kendal, a confirmed criminal, shipped by his vessel to America by the authorities of Botheinger, Switzerland, would be refused permission to land, and that if landed, clearance would be refused the vessel. Robertson acted under the statute forbidding the landing of criminals.

Frauds.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—The question of the tax receiver frauds before the city council was the cause of great excitement, and finally an investigation ordered. Sam T. Irwin, pleading guilty of making fraudulent election returns, got nine months in prison and a fine of $100, and disqualified for office for seven years.

Huntington's Vessel.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—Huntington, of Pacific railroad fame, is having built here the pioneer vessel of a fleet for passenger service on the Pacific coast.

Strike.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—A Joliet special says laborers in the steel works struck yesterday in consequence of a notice of Superintendent Smith that wages of all common laborers would be reduced to 12 1/2c per hour. The entire work was compelled to shut down. The result was 2,500 men were thrown out of employment.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Hiseock has gained a little to-day, but nobody has a sure thing. Congressman Dummell is actively pushing his own candidacy. A Pennsylvania congressman says the delegation stands 14 for McPiereson and 4 for Keene for clerk of the house. This indicates the nomination of McPiereson.

Hooker seems to be ahead for sergeant-at-arms and Corwin for postmaster. Folger had appointed James T. Butler, late U. S. attorney of Idaho, special agent of the treasury department for one month, and has detailed him to run the appointment bureau, vice Lalpher resigned.

The speakership fight has taken a new and most interesting phase since the stalwart element of the republican party, led by Senator Cameron, is now hotly engaged trying to make a combination of Keifer. Cameron went to New York and consulted the stalwart leaders there. He is working with all his influence for Keifer here. The anti-stalwarts are aware of this, and have concentrated on Hiseock. This leaves Kasson a bad third. Keifer, if elected, will be claimed as a stalwart victory.

One of the first things to be brought before congress will be the settling of Garfield's doctor bill. Drs. Agnew, Hamilton and Bliss, it is expected, will consider about $25,000 apiece fair compensation for their work. Drs. Barnes and Woodward are officers of the government, so they suffered no pecuniary loss from attendance in the case. The physicians hope the matter will be settled before the holidays. Gen. Garfield's friends desire this settled before eulogies are pronounced.

Stocks Depressed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Stocks are depressed on account of the unconfirmed rumor of the illness of Vanderbilt.

Mayor of Portland.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 2.—The majority case was decided to-day in favor of D. P. Thompson, the supreme court holding that the decision of the common council of Portland was final and conclusive.

Husband Poisoner.

Mrs. G. W. Teller, of Polk county, was arrested to-day, charged with poisoning her husband last Tuesday. Mr. Teller left a note dated the 27th or 28th, saying his wife had poisoned him, and other circumstances point to her guilt.

Not Dead.

PORTLAND, Dec. 3.—The French woman who had her throat cut is still alive. It is thought she will recover.

Dr. Thomas' Case.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 2.—The Methodist judicial conference to-night refused to entertain Dr. H. A. Thomas' appeal on the ground that Thomas has gone out of the church since the trial, and the church had no jurisdiction in any case except those of its members. This settles the case so far as the Methodist church is concerned.

Comfort for Star Route Men.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Tribune's Washington special says the Star route ring men think they have assurance from some quarter that ex-Senator Chaffee, of Colorado, is to be the next postmaster general. They are for some reason drawing much comfort from this fact.

Minister to Russia.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—It is understood that ex-Governor Rout, of Colorado, who believed himself Grant's favorite candidate for a cabinet position, has been told he will be made minister to Russia.

Small-Pox in Portland.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—Another case of small-pox was discovered yesterday, that of J. Zequest, a young man of 17 years. It is a very light case of varioloid.

Condition of a Bank.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The directors of the Mechanics' National Bank have agreed to contribute one million dollars towards paying the creditors and reviving the bank. The directors will publicly announce their willingness to pay the creditors a per centage on their dues.

Railroad Meeting.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Western railroad men at a meeting to-day organized a system of inspection of packages offered for shipment, and for locked carloads, the purpose being to ascertain how much shippers are given to misrepresenting the character of goods transported.

Healy and O'Connor.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—A reception was tendered to-night to Messrs. Healy and O'Connor by a number of prominent Irish-Americans. The affair was semi-private, but very cordial.

Suicides.

ASTORIA, Dec. 4.—Dr. Jennings, who shot himself here yesterday, died this morning. In his office a note was found under his pillow, and on it was written: "Please bury me in Astoria without delay."

DEAR MOTHER, SISTERS AND FRIENDS.

I wish I could know at this moment that you will all take a philosophical view of my deed. It will soon be far better with me than it has ever been. (Signed) M. D. JENNINGS.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—In the house of representatives members elect assembled in the hall of the house of representatives for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various elective offices: Jay Hubbell, of Michigan, called the caucus to order. Robeson, of New Jersey, was elected chairman of the caucus; Miller, of Pennsylvania, secretary; McCook, of New York, Updegraff, of Iowa, and McClure, of Ohio, assistant secretaries and tellers. After roll was called, in which the full republican membership of 146 members answered nomination for speakership was declared in order: Candidates were placed in nomination as follows: Frank Hiseock, of New York, by Camp; James Keifer, of Ohio, by Hazleton; John A. Kasson, of Iowa, by Cannon; Mark H. Dummell, of Minnesota, by Stuart Godlove; S. Orth, of Indiana, by Collins; J. C. Burrows, of Michigan, by Hoar, and T. B. Read, of Maine, by Lindsay. Keifer was elected on the sixteenth ballot, which was: Keifer 93, Hiseock 18, Kasson 10, Reed 11, Burrows 1, Orth 9, Dummell 3, total 145. Hiseock moved to make the nomination unanimous, which was agreed to, and when Keifer was summoned to the chair he was greeted with long and continued applause. Keifer feelingly expressed his thanks for the honor conferred on him, and congratulated the members upon the spirit of kindness and good will which characterized the canvass. His nomination was partisan only in the sense of his being a strong advocate of the true principles of the republican party, because he believed the best interests of the country are bound up in the ascendancy of these principles. If the choice made here to-day should be ratified by the house of representatives, endeavor to discharge the duties of the high office of speaker unflinched by partisan consideration, and would do justice alike to all parties. (Great applause.)

Guiteau's Trial.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The crowd in and about the court room this morning was greater than ever before. Immediately upon opening the court, Guiteau was called to the witness stand. He took his place, closely watched and guarded by the police and court officers. He was asked by Scoville to give some incidents from his earliest recollection of his mother. Guiteau replied: "Am I to be put on as a regular witness to-day, or only to identify some letters? I supposed the latter. I am not feeling at all well to-day, but shall be much better in a week or so." After much discussion, Guiteau was removed from the stand, and Scoville proceeded to read the letters, which were all written by Guiteau to his father and other members of his family, and covered a period of 15 or 20 years. As the reading of the letters progressed, Guiteau occasionally commented upon or suggested a proper word.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Tribune's Washington special regarding the testimony of Guiteau's brother, say it has made a very marked impression, and will have no small effect. It was the main subject of talk during the recess, and is regarded by all as a matter of great importance. No doubt the prosecution will use it with telling effect in their closing argument, and will urge the jury to accept his life-long opinion as to his brother's mental responsibility against any theory which he may have formed when his brother was arraigned on a criminal charge, and when nature asserted itself, and he was bending every energy to save his brother's life and the family fame.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The appearance of Guiteau on the stand to-day as a witness in his own defense of course made a great stir. He had a scared look, but seemed to be quite well. He frequently cast timid glances around the room, as if conscious that he sat in a conspicuous place, where he could be easily made a target for avengers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Despite rain, the anxious crowd was as great today as yesterday. Upon opening the court Guiteau was taken directly to the witness box. Witness was then asked by his attorney, Mr. Scoville, to identify some papers. The first shown him was a handbill announcing his proposed lecture at Evanston, Ill.

"Yes," said Guiteau, turning it around to the jury with a flourish, "that was the announcement of my lectures. Shall I read it?" Scoville—"No; I will put the papers in as evidence."

Guiteau then gave his ideas concerning the religious tenets of the Oneida community.

Witness was asked to identify book handed him, and said: "Oh, yes! That's my revised work called Truth, a companion book to the Bible. I have not seen it since it was taken from me when I was arrested."

Witness then described his condition, read a passage, and read a page or two descriptive of the trials of the Apostle Paul for endeavoring to introduce Christianity. "That was just my case," said Guiteau, striking his fist on the desk. "I strove to enlighten the world just as Paul did. I had no money and no friends, and had just about as rough times as Paul had." He continued to give an account of many hardships experienced, and his testimony was very lengthy. He was severely cross-examined by Judge Porter, but nothing new was elicited.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Guiteau's trial was resumed this morning in the presence of the usual throng. Upon entering the witness box, Guiteau decried before resuming evidence to make a personal statement, and being permitted to do so, addressed himself to the audience, saying: "Two weeks ago sent an appeal for money. I did it on my own account. Afterward Scoville publicly announced: Without his authority, I again invite any of my friends to send me money in the interest of the cause of justice, and for my defense. They can send ten or fifteen or a thousand dollars if they wish. If they don't want it to be known, they can send it without their names to Scoville.

Judge Porter began a rapid fire of interrogatives, eliciting from the prisoner in this style of questioning several replies showing that physically he was a coward, and always kept away from danger, but morally he was as brave as a lion when he thought the deity back of him. In his opinion the doctors killed the president. The action of Mason and Jones in attempting to kill him were wrong and ought to be punished, unless they can show they were inspired by the deity. Witness soon showed signs of impatience and excitement, striking his open hand upon the desk, emphasizing every sentence he uttered. When the prisoner was pressed for answers he finally became obstinate and shouted to Judge Porter: I know you well. I know bigger men than you are. I have seen you shake your finger at witnesses in New York, but you can't scare me.

The examination of Guiteau took the whole day, and he was completely demoralized by the strict cross-examination of Judge Porter, and finally refused to answer any more questions on the ground that he was fatigued, being unused to speaking five hours at a time.
