TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR.

STEILACOOM, W. T., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1855.

TO THE PEOPLE: Facts are stronger than fiction. It is an old and oft quoted saying, but quite as true now as ever.

The slavery question is one which patent democracy would use, as their fruitless endeavors have been with that of temperance, to serve their selfish, unholly ends.

WHAT IS THE BOY? In the last number of the Pioneer, the editor of that sheet pitches into us and our articles "To the People," without gloves, and like a thousand of brick.

THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY.—The excitement about the gold mines has been even greater in Oregon than in this territory.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—All our subscribers will please take notice, that we have no agents whatever, except one at San Francisco.

TABLE FAVOR.—Mr. John A. Packard from Nisqually bottom, laid in "our ranch," last Saturday, some of the monstrous productions of his garden.

our country's people. Let, as they now have done, the glorious stars and stripes be insulted with impunity in foreign waters.

Here, however, in our lovely territory we have no slavery existing, and probably no prospects of it. We have a north-west, neither a north nor a south, where we hope to see a land always free, and to have those means extended over, which once made harmony and concord throughout the Union.

THE COAST LIGHT HOUSES.—Our newspapers are in the habit of ridiculing the blunders and delays of red tape routine in England, but we are inclined to think that there is as great official incapacity at Washington, as in London.

ALBANY CULTIVATOR.—A bundle of this splendid agricultural journal has just been received from the publisher, Luther Tucker, of Albany N. Y.

OWING WHEAT.—The farmers are wisely well preparing for the future, by plowing their lands for the sowing of wheat this fall.

OSIORS.—We have been presented with a specimen of this vegetable, by Mr. John Carson, which surpasses anything of the sort, of this year's growth that we have yet seen.

THE SECOND "MUMMUR".—Mr. E. T. Gunn: In the Pioneer of August 31st, I notice a portion of an article laudatory of the official acts of I. Stevens.

Happy is that man who is so highly blessed by Heaven, as to possess a virtuous and intelligent female friend, whether mother, sister, or bosom companion, who is not only deeply interested in the welfare of her family and friends, but also in all that materially affects the happiness of her country, and the whole world.

THE MILITARY ROADS.—We learn from Fort Vancouver, that the funds appropriated by the last congress, for the construction of the military roads in this territory, have not as yet been received in San Francisco, and that a further delay must necessarily take place before the surveys can be proceeded with.

BRITISH RE-PRINTS.—By the last States' mail, we received from the American publishers, Blackwood's magazine for June and July, and also a copy of the London Quarterly Review.

FIRE AND SMOKE.—The recent rains and the coldness of the weather, during the past week, have had the desirable effect of dispelling the clouds of smoke which everywhere filled the air, a short time since.

THE HAWAIIAN MINISTER AT WASHINGTON CITY.—Hon. William L. Lee, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Sandwich Islands to the Government of the United States, was presented, July 16th, says the Washington Union, to the President by the Secretary of State.

til the present, and see the result. Mr. Stevens is in New York or Boston, he wishes to buy these goods—now how does he perform his duty? (and here we will see the economy) he is not the man that will put himself to any trouble in order to carry out the loco-foco doctrine of "buying where you buy the cheapest."

And now you have an example of the economy that has been used by the one, whom the editor of the Pioneer thinks can do no wrong, in whose right hand the sun rises, and in whose left it sets, according as the pretty fawning tool of loco-focoism, would have us believe.

But, my ideas of economy are of a different kind. How much better would it have been had the money appropriated by the government, been brought to this territory? How much more of it would have gone into the hands of those for whom it was originally intended, and through them, into the pockets of our merchants &c., and how much better satisfied would the Indians have been?

FOR THE POOR SIGHT COULDER.

TO THE LADIES OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—Should woman's voice be hushed when woman's heart is bleeding? E. Greeley.

LADIES OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY: At the present time, when each new measure taken for the suppression of drunkenness is resisted by a combination of money, talent and zeal, it behoves us to bring every instrumentality within our reach, to bear on the giant abomination of the liquor traffic.

It has often been remarked in my presence, that "woman rules the world," but I confess that I am scarcely prepared to admit the truth of such an assertion, and I think that a statement of this kind is far from being complimentary to the ladies of America.

OF COURSE there are some men who are so headstrong in their dispositions, or are so entangled in the meshes of party politics, that they would disregard these pleadings, but there are many, very many who would heed them.

LADIES, if any of you have a husband, a brother, son, or father, who is not a friend to this good cause, open your lips in kindness, and dissuade him from the lightest action which will be likely to perpetuate the blighting scourge of intemperance, and encourage him to follow that path which tho't it may seem to conflict with his present interests, will afford him the most agreeable reflections in his last hours.

As a matter of course, you all well know, that it is not by an authoritative tone, or the assumption of masculine airs that you will be able to bring round the heart, which has been unduly influenced by mammon or political ambition, and make it yield to the mandates of moral principle, but by that kind and virtuous solicitude manifested in the flattering language of feminine meekness and the winning looks of female love.

Happy is that man who is so highly blessed by Heaven, as to possess a virtuous and intelligent female friend, whether mother, sister, or bosom companion, who is not only deeply interested in the welfare of her family and friends, but also in all that materially affects the happiness of her country, and the whole world.

knowledge of his own interests as to invite her counsel in every important enterprise, whether financial or political.

It is often said, that the peculiar charm of woman is, her readiness to hear the cry of distress, and succor the afflicted, and I do not think, ladies, that you transcend your sphere when you rally to the rescue of the drunkard's wife and the drunkard's child.

For the present gentle reader, "good bye," and may he whose purpose never falters, Maintain a cause so just.

CLARENCE.

VOTE FOR DELEGATE, AND ON THE PROHIBITORY LAW.—The following items, we clip from the advertising columns of the Pioneer and Democrat:

PROCLAMATION.—Whereas, according to the official returns of the general election, held according to law, in the territory of Washington, on the ninth day of July, eighteen hundred and fifty five, the whole number of votes cast for delegate to congress, were fifteen hundred and eighty-two; and, whereas, J. Patton Anderson received eight hundred and fifty-seven votes, William Strong six hundred and eighty-two votes, Joseph Cushman forty-one votes, Columbia Lancaster one vote, and John Ross one vote; and whereas, J. Patton Anderson has received the highest number of votes cast.

Acting Governor, Washington Territory. Olympia, Aug. 31, 1855.

LATEST NEWS.—THE HAWAIIAN MINISTER AT WASHINGTON CITY.—Hon. William L. Lee, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Sandwich Islands to the Government of the United States, was presented, July 16th, says the Washington Union, to the President by the Secretary of State.

"In presenting my letter of credence to you Excellency, I am happy in having an opportunity to testify the profound gratitude of the King, chiefs and people of the Hawaiian Islands to the chief Magistrate, Government and people of the United States, for the lively interest and tender care they have manifested for their happiness and welfare. It is to the noble philanthropy of the United States that those Islands are indebted for the blessings of Christianity and civilization; it is to the warm sympathy and generous support of the United States they owe their present prosperity and independence; and I am instructed to assure your Excellency they are deeply sensible of the obligations these continued favors have imposed on them. The relations existing between the two countries, social, commercial and political, have ever been of the most intimate and friendly nature; and there is nothing nearer the heart of his Majesty the King of those Islands than the desire that the ties which bind them together may be drawn still closer, and ever be such as shall promote their reciprocal advantage!"

In responding, the President expressed the gratification which it afforded him to receive an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Hawaiian Islands, and his appreciation of the kind sentiments on the part of the King, chiefs and people of those islands towards the United States, of which the Envoy had given such an agreeable assurance. He alluded to the establishment of American missions on those islands, to the deep interest with which the United States had regarded the Christianization, prosperity and advancement of that interesting people; and assured the Envoy that that interest had never been more sincere and ardent than at the present time. The United States could desire nothing inconsistent with the progress, elevation and substantial interests of the Hawaiian Islands; and the presence of a gentleman who had earned, and so long pre-eminently enjoyed, the confidence and respect of the King, chiefs and people for whom he had just spoken was very welcome, because the President felt assured that it would tend to promote the interests, commercial and otherwise, of the two countries, and to strengthen the good relations mutually desired.

EXECUTION OF THIRTY-FIVE HUNDRED CHINESE REBELS NEAR CANTON.—Mr. S. F. BURROWS, JR., who has just returned to this city, after an absence of nearly two years, the greatest portion of which time he spent in China, was an eye witness to the execution of thirty-five hundred Chinese Rebels, who were taken prisoners in the battle near Canton in the month of March last. The prisoners were taken to a low marshy island, and there each was compelled to undergo a form of trial before a tribunal of Mandarins, and each was sentenced to death by capitulation. One by one they were led forth to the execution ground, a large space covered with sawdust to the depth of several inches. To give a greater degree of awful effect to the scene, an elevated platform was erected, consisting of a single narrow plank, over which each unhappy victim had to pass in full view of his fellow captives, whose terms of existence, whether of an hour or day, depended entirely upon the will of their captors. The prisoners manifested the most stolid indifference to every thing connected with the scene, apparently as unconscious of their fate as the dumb brutes going to the slambles. Arriving at the execution ground, the captives fell upon their knees, and bending forward, calmly awaited the single stroke of the executioner's sword that severed head and trunk—body and soul. There were no shrieks of terror, no supplications for pardon or mercy. From the moment of capture the captive knew his doom, and sullenly awaited its accomplishment.—S. F. Herald.

BARNUM'S GALLERY OF AMERICAN BEAUTY.—The latest scheme that has emanated from the fertile brain of Barnum is addressed to the ladies. He invites all the women in the United States and the Canadas, who think themselves sufficiently lovely to compete for the prize of beauty, to send their daguerotypes or photographs "of a size not less than a half plate, so as to include the heads of the sitter," with the understanding that the two hundred whose likenesses may be pronounced most charming, are to receive premiums in money, varying in amount from $20 to $1000, and that of these two hundred are to be selected to have their portraits painted and sent to Paris to be engraved for insertion in "The World's Book of Beauty." What next?

THE ALBANY ARGUS says that an attempt is now being made to raise the massive chain which under orders from Washington in 1778, was made—its weight being five hundred tons—and strung across the Hudson at West Point to intercept the passage of British vessels above that place.

Bishop Potter, of Pennsylvania, is suffering from long continued ill-health, to a degree that induces speculations respecting the appointment of an Assistant Bishop. A division of the diocese is also agitated.

The last census reveals the appalling fact that there are nearly three thousand dentists in the United States. It probably costs the people two million of dollars and ten million wrenches of agony per annum to keep their teeth in order.

Boston issues 112 papers, with an annual circulation of 54,000,000; New York 104 papers, circulation 73,000,000; and Philadelphia 51 papers, circulation 48,000,000.

ELECTRO-MAGNETISM.—Electro-Magnetism is announced to be a remedy for cholera, by two eminent physicians, in different parts of Italy. The coincidence is noteworthy. Dr. Rossi, of Florence, was preparing a memoir, the fruit of much study and experience, to show that the malady results from some electro-magnetic disturbance, from which galvanism is the proper remedy, when he was informed that Dr. Concati, of Padua, had conceived and demonstrated the theory within a few days in the restoration of four desperate cholera patients, by means of the electro-magnetic current, and that he was preparing a report, under the direction of the municipal authorities for publication. It will soon be determined whether his is one of "the immortal names"—whether he is to have the grateful remembrance, the enviable satisfaction of having restricted the sphere of ignorance and superstition. The simultaneousness of the conception is, only another indication of the wide diffusion of mental cultivation.

It is said that one of the incidental results of the Japan expedition is the discovery that the Zodiacal light is a belt extending entirely round the earth, after the manner of Saturn's ring. The matter has excited a good deal of interest among astronomers, and Professor Pierce, of Cambridge, considers the fact established by the observations taken.

A great number of persons have been refused land warrants in consequence of not stating the name of the captain under whom the applicant or the ancestor of the applicant served during the war. Only about half the claims examined are allowed.

There is yet no confirmation of the report about 150 immigrants having been killed by the Indians at Devil's Gate, on the Sweetwater river, and we have every reason to believe, from the information we have received through immigrants, that the report is destitute of truth.—Time.

CIRCULAR BY MAIL.—Enclosing circulars or other printed matter in envelopes upon which is printed, "impresso," or written the name, &c., of the person or persons issuing such circular, is decided by the Postmaster General not only to subject the entire package to letter postage, according to the express requirements of the act of 1852, but that such postage must be pre-paid to entitle the packet to be mailed. If unpaid, being under the law treated as letters, they are, of course, returned to the dead letter office.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—In the New Hampshire Legislature, Mr. Tappan, Representative elect to Congress, Chairman of the Committee to whom was referred the resolutions of the State of Maine on the subject of slavery, reported a series of resolutions to the effect that in consideration of the exigencies of the times, it is the duty of the Free States to postpone all differences of opinion upon minor questions, and unite in demanding the immediate restoration of the Missouri compromise, and in resisting the admission of slave States formed out of territory covered by that compromise; that standing upon an issue so clearly right, no threats of a dissolution of the Union shall deter New Hampshire from doing all in her power to restore Kansas and Nebraska to freedom. To this end the following demands are made:

- 1. That no more slave states or territory shall ever be added to this Union.
2. The abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia.
3. The unconditional repeal of the fugitive slave bill, and
4. The protection of the people of the territories from the unlawful invasion of slavery propagandists.

Lieut. Mury is a member of the Board of Navy officers now in session at Washington, pursuant to the law of the last session of Congress, providing for a retired list. The law requires that every officer of every grade in the service, who is not competent to the prompt and efficient discharge of all duties pertaining to the retired list, shall be placed on the retired list. Mury is a cripple, incapable of performing the duties of lieutenant on shipboard. The Board must retire him, or violate the plain provisions of the board. Was not his selection as a member of the board rather extraordinary, in view of his lameness?
