PUGET SOUND HERALD.

STEILACOOM, W. T., FRIDAY, FEB. 3, 1860.

THE MESSAGE.

We publish on our first page so much of the Message of the President as we could find room for in this issue; omitting such portions of it as have least interest for our readers.

Our limited space compelled us reluctantly to pass over the remarks relative to the Pacific Railroad and other matters of interest to readers on this side of the world; some of which, however, we shall probably publish in our next or subsequent issues.

We have neither the space, time, nor inclination to examine the Message critically, and shall be content to leave that task to the organs of the party to which the President belongs, which, of course, will adopt with astonishing unanimity the stereotyped phrases of "the ablest public document that ever emanated from the White House," "the most able state paper of the times," &c.

Which is right?—The Herald, some weeks since, in noticing that part of Gov. Gholson's message which censured Gen. Scott's course relative to San Juan, stated that the old soldier had only acted in accordance with instructions. The Pioneer, in reply, authoritatively said he did not act according to instructions; he had performed no part of his duties as directed. Now President Buchanan steps in and says he fulfilled his instructions to the letter, and compliments him for the manner in which he performed the responsible duty assigned to him.

Which is right, the Herald or the Pioneer? We hope that, in making up his next message, our worthy Governor will consult more sagacious heads than those which led him so sadly astray before.

STAGE LINE FROM STEILACOOM TO COWLITZ LAKE.—The traveling public of the Territory will be gratified to learn that from and after Thursday, (yesterday) Feb. 24, there will be a regular line of stages connecting Steilacoom with Cowlitz Landing. By these stages the mail will be taken twice a week (Tuesday and Friday, as heretofore) from Steilacoom. An extra stage, however, will leave Steilacoom on Sunday; making three trips each week. These stages, in addition to the mail and passengers, will take express matter to all intermediate points between the Sound and Columbia River. Everything that can contribute to the comfort of passengers will be done by the spirited proprietors of this line; coverings and other articles necessary for this purpose having already been sent for. Messrs. Henry Winsor and J. D. Laman are the proprietors of the line, than whom it would be difficult to find two men possessing more energy.

SURDEN DEATH.—On Tuesday last, a soldier named Eli Henson, belonging to Co. A, 4th Infantry, Capt. Malony, died suddenly in town, without any apparent cause. He left Fort Steilacoom only the day before, evidently sound in health, with his company, for Gray's Harbor, but on reaching Olympia, was taken ill, and sent back to the hospital, which he unhappily was not permitted to reach; death overtaking him soon after landing from the steamer. It is somewhat remarkable that, during the whole period of service of deceased, (nearly five years) he was never in the hospital from sickness.

PUBLIC PAINTER.—We are authorized to state that T. M. Reed, Esq., of Olympia, requested the withdrawal of his name, as candidate for Public Printer, some days prior to the election of that officer by the Legislature. The other opposition candidates also abandoned the field in favor of Mr. Brock. This statement is called for to place those gentlemen right before the public; to place before having intimated that their names were withdrawn without their knowledge or consent.

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE.—The Message of the President was telegraphed and expressed from St. Louis exclusively for the San Francisco Herald, to which paper the entire press of the Pacific coast is indebted for it several days in advance of the mail. This is an enterprise unmatched on the Pacific, and cost that journal many hundreds of dollars; the telegraph on both sides of the mountains being brought into requisition for the purpose.

MOVEMENT OF TOADS.—On last Monday evening, Co. A, 4th Infantry, Capt. Malony, left Steilacoom on the steamer Eliza Anderson for Olympia, en route for Gray's Harbor, whither they have been ordered by Gen. Harney on a requisition from Gov. Gholson. This movement is occasioned by the report of Indian troubles in that neighborhood, published by us some weeks since.

Mechanics and Inventors Pocket Almanac.—This is a very useful little book for Mechanics and Inventors, published by Fowler & Wells, 208 Broadway, New York. It contains a variety of tables, interesting to mechanics, showing the composition of metals, their specific gravities, weight for given dimensions, &c., &c.

Mr. Wm. R. Olden, the gentlemanly Purser of the steamer Panama, has our thanks for polite attention to this office. We are indebted to Mr. Olden for a copy of the President's Message, together with a number of San Francisco papers, memoranda, &c.

Mr. D. W. Lowell, Purser of the Anderson, has our thanks for favors.

VOX POPULI, VOX DEI.

To the Editor of the Puget Sound Herald:

What do you think, Mr. Editor, of this oft-quoted saying, applied practically to the events of the last six months, and admitting that that detestable sheet, the Pioneer and Democrat, and those dignified, high-toned organs of public opinion published in Oregon, really represent the general sentiment of their readers? Look at the facts.

A frontier commander, for reasons best known to himself and his wire-pulling advisers, but which every intelligent man comprehends perfectly, suddenly takes it upon himself to hurry up the settlement of a question which nobody cared a fig about, by the very short cut of military action, usurping the powers of the civil functionary who had the matter in hand, and ignoring whatever authority in the case the officials of Washington Territory might claim. Let us put aside for a moment the bunkum clap-trap of patriotic brawlers, and consider seriously how it came to pass that this military officer presumed to step out of his proper path and intermeddle in a matter which concerned him not; that he dared, upon his own responsibility, to hazard a measure which (had Baines been Hope) might have led to collision, bloodshed, the serious damage, and, in some cases, destruction, of the industrial interests of fifty millions of people of the same race; our own good people on the Sound being the very first to feel the shock. It is too late in the day to reply that it was "on account of the outrages and indignities offered to American citizens." The history of the Pike that killed the pig that rooted in the 'tater ground is now pretty well understood. Some are inclined to think that political considerations, having a very close connection with his own personal advancement, were acting upon the mind of the General; others indignantly deny the soft impeachment, and affirm that professional motives were at the bottom; that he was tired of those "weak, piping times of peace," in which the old soldier could "find no delight to pass away the time;" in short, that there was fully as much truth as poetry in the cause assigned by the Bard of Puget Sound, the renowned Sitkum Sitwah—

"Thou General Harney came along, With glory all a billin'; Says he, since I have licked the Sioux, I for a fight am spilin'."

"If Harp strait should all run dry, And San Rosario follow, I'm bound to raise a muss, I am, And beat the British hollow."

Well, whatever may have been the moving cause, in the result the old General seems to have gained the popular approval, at least in this corner of the country. Governor, legislators, editors, have found their cue; as bullwhackers of the flock, they lead off, and along run the silly sheep. Vox Populi, vox Dei? Perhaps so in the long, long run.

The Administration, perplexed and at their wit's end, hit upon the expedient of sending out Gen. Scott to disentangle somewhat the snarl into which our little Puget Sound affairs had been got. A hero of the true metal, soldier, statesman, diplomatist, whose long life has illustrated and shed glory upon the annals of his country, it might be supposed that even the pot-house politicians, the greasy crew of party decisions. He came, saw, and ventured to turn the wheel back a little. But "the democracy never go backward." For a time the bellwethers are held in awe by the great name of Winfield Scott; but, gradually "taking heart of grace," as day by day he was removed further from their presence, they at length give the cue to the faithful. The Governor suddenly wakes up to the terror of martial law, and snuffs military usurpation in every breeze; the Solons of the Legislature consider resolutions, (such resolutions!) Editors follow suit.

"The little dogs, and all, Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart, they bark at him." Fortunately, the old General is tough. Windy resolutions and messages can have little effect upon one who was giving and taking hard knocks with John Bull when his detractors were "muling and puking in their nurses' arms." If these resolutions, &c., by chance come to his knowledge, he will probably survive the shock.

Leaving our little difficulties on this side of the mountains, we find that the enterprising spirit of General John Brown has convulsed our Atlantic brethren, and set them all by the ears. Old Ossawatimie is a "blessed martyr" in the North—a demon incarnate at the South. The Vox Populi is, as usual, wrong in both cases.

We will return to this subject hereafter.

SCATTERVILLE, Jan. 30, 1860.

THE RURAL ANNUAL AND HORTICULTURAL DICTIONARY FOR 1860.—The publisher of the Genesee Farmer gets out each year a handsome little volume of 120 pages, expressly designed as a handbook for the farmer and fruit-grower. We have received the volume for 1860. It is filled to overflowing with useful and interesting information, just such matter as the farmer and gardener needs. It is illustrated with one hundred and seven beautiful pictures of fruit, evergreen and deciduous trees, insects, pigeons, &c. The book is a gem, and would be an ornament to any farmer's library or parlor table. Among its contents we may mention, treatises on the Planting and Management of Fruit Trees; on Insects Injurious and Beneficial to Farmers and Fruit-Growers; on Dwarf Trees—including Apples, Pears, Plums and Cherries; on the American Black Raspberry; on the Composition of Fruits, Trees, &c.; on the Management and Varieties of Pigeons; on Planting Evergreens; on the Diseases of Horses, Cattle, Sheep, and Swine—Remedies, &c.; on Ornamental Deciduous Trees; Domestic Receipts, &c., &c. We would advise every one of our readers, interested in the culture of the soil or the improvement of the country, to send for a copy. Price only twenty-five cents. The publisher will send it, pre-paid by return mail, on the receipt of twenty-five cents in three cent postage stamps. Address Joseph H. Sears, publisher Genesee Farmer, Rochester, N. Y.

MALE AND FEMALE ORPHAN ASYLUM OF OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

The object of the Association is to provide a permanent fund to be applied to the support and maintenance of such destitute Male and Female Orphans within the State of Oregon and the Territory of Washington, as may be committed to the care and protection of the Sisters of Charity, established at Vancouver, W. T.

Any person of good character, by contributing annually the sum of three dollars, has the right to an annual membership. Life membership may be obtained upon the payment of fifty dollars.

Persons of any age can become members of the Association, but those members only who are above the age of twenty can have a voice in the management of the affairs of the Association—can be eligible to office and can vote for the election of officers.

A list shall be kept of all the members, and shall be published with the annual report of the managers.

The direction of the affairs of the Association shall be placed in the hands of a board of Managers composed of nine members, viz: 1 President of the Association; 2 Vice Presidents; 1 Treasurer; 1 Secretary, and 4 Assistants, to be elected annually.

It shall be agreed between the Board of Managers and the Sisters as to the amount to be appropriated for the care and maintenance of each destitute orphan placed in their charge.

The Association will be responsible to the Sisters for the maintenance of those orphans only who will be received with the approbation of its President or substitute.

The orphans having been then entrusted to the charge of the Sisters, and their support properly provided for, the duties of the Association will be accomplished; the remaining grave and onerous duties of the Orphan Asylum shall devolve exclusively upon the Sisters.

The above prospectus was received some two weeks since from J. B. A. Broutlet, V. G., Vancouver. We not only cheerfully give it a place in our columns, but earnestly recommend it to the attention of our readers as a valuable institution, and one much needed here.

Asylums of the same character, gotten up and conducted under the same auspices, have long existed in all the large cities of the States, and their usefulness has been demonstrated by years of experience. In New York, New Orleans and San Francisco they are justly among the most popular institutions; people of all denominations sending orphan children to be cared for by the Sisters of Charity. The projects of this Association have our best wishes for success in their laudable undertaking.

THIEVES IN OLYMPIA. To the Editor of the Puget Sound Herald: OLYMPIA, W. T., Feb. 1st, 1860.

Olympia is not only the seat of our territorial government, but is also the seat and den of a band of "forty thieves."

The number of thefts committed here within the last month, or during the sitting of the Legislative Assembly, is truly alarming and incredible. Mr. William Tidd, a resident of Pierce county, was the first subject; whilst slumbering upon his bed in the Washington Hotel, a wily and certainly an expert thief entered his room, cut from his pantaloons the watch fob, in which was deposited seventy-five dollars in cash. Mr. Woodson, a nephew of our Governor, was relieved of $300 in cash. Hon. C. C. Phillips was robbed of $115. Hon. S. S. Woodard, the next sufferer, lost some $10 or $20. Hon. James Biles was robbed of some $70. A gentleman, whose name I do not now remember, a resident in Swan town, was robbed of $300. Hon. D. F. Brownfield was relieved of $60 in cash. Hon. John Webster had his trunk broken open, whilst absent from his room, and a very fine gold watch was taken therefrom. Mr. Guerin, of this place, was robbed of jewelry to the amount of $60 or $80. Besides the robberies enumerated above, several gentlemen were large sufferers in the loss of their wardrobes, or portions thereof. There is scarce a night passes by without a theft being perpetrated; and notwithstanding this serious state of affairs, but one thief has as yet been arrested, who is now incarcerated in the county jail, awaiting trial.

It is to be hoped, however, that the "city fathers" of the town will adopt such stringent measures as will soon cleanse Olympia of this insalubrious and noxious element, and tend materially to retard the prosperity and progress of the city.

These are the views of one that is not a CITY FATHER.

DIVORCES. For the Puget Sound Herald:—The following is a list of the several parties that have been divorced by the present Legislative Assembly: William W. Davis and Alice Davis; Jacob Hans and Caroline Hans; Samuel Wilson and Esther Wilson; Crowell H. Sylvester and Harriet P. Sylvester; Amos B. Pierce and Elizabeth Pierce; F. Lindner and Angelina Lindner; William Donnelly and Bridget M. Donnelly; L. M. Collins and Dinah Collins; R. Keller and Almira Keller; Sydney S. Ford, Jr., and Josephine Ford; Charles Green and Catharine Green; G. O. Merritt and Lucinda Merritt; John Taylor and Jane Taylor; John Cantwell and Ann Cantwell; Morris H. Frost and his wife; making fifteen in all.

The last bill is not as yet passed, nor is it likely that it will pass, as the old hombre is known to be a man whose veracity cannot be relied on in any respect, and as he is desirous to be divorced from a wife (by which he has several children grown) only to prevent her from coming in for an equal share of the property that he has acquired since he became Collector of Customs for the District of Puget Sound. ATLANTIC NEWS.

St. Louis, Dec. 26, 1859.

Nothing has yet been done in Congress, and the news of the country is remarkably dull. In the House of Representatives on the 24th December a ballot for Speaker was taken with the following result, viz:—Sherman 102, Scott 85, Gilmer 14, scattering 11. Adjourned till Tuesday, 27th December.

Our dates from Brownsville are to Dec. 20th, Cortina's band were defeated on the 14th. Over 300 troops and rangers met a portion of the band and after a cannonade on both sides the Americans charged, but fell into an ambuscade, and the Mexicans saved their artillery. On the 20th Cortina's band were defeated, his whole force above Brownsville. The Americans went out to meet him and after a severe fight defeated him, and at last accounts were pursuing him in rapid retreat.

The National Union Committee met at Washington last night and the necessary steps were taken to organize a Union party throughout the whole country.

A great fire occurred at New York on Thursday, which raged from 9 o'clock in the morning until noon, in Beekman and Gold streets. It originated in the looking-glass factory of Black, Crane & Co. The paper warehouses of C. W. Field & Co., C. Duncan, West & Co., Buckley & Co., the drug establishment of H. R. Haylocks, the lithographic establishment of Endicott & Co., and the apparatus manufactory of Mason & Dodge were entirely destroyed. Between twenty and thirty warehouses and other buildings were damaged and consumed. Among the sufferers were John Parrott, H. Henkle, J. O. Smith, J. Kipand, Isaac Ayres, George Wade, Edward Black, Lewis & Henchman, Elder Bros., and Aldett, McKesson & Co. The fire extended to Fulton and Ann streets. Several firms were injured. The loss is estimated at $300,000—probably covered by insurance.

The steamship Granada, from Havana, was cut through by ice in New York harbor on Thursday last, and sunk in the dock to her guards. Her cargo of cotton is a total loss.

This morning, part of the Union Railroad Depot at Utica fell in. Loss, $18,000.

The proceedings in Congress yesterday were unimportant. No vote was taken on the Speech.

The President's Message was delivered in Congress to-day.

On Saturday last (24th December) Gov. Wise forwarded to James D. Gibbons of Philadelphia, concurrent resolutions passed by the General Assembly of Virginia on 23d December, acknowledging the presentation to the Commonwealth of a beautiful flag by a number of patriotic citizens of Philadelphia, inscribed with an expression of their loyal devotion to the Union—and the Constitution as construed by the Fathers of the Republic. Agriculture. The Voice of the Grass. Here I am, creeping, creeping everywhere; By the sunny hill-side, road, On the sunny hill-side, road, Close by the noisy brook, In every shady nook, I come creeping, creeping, everywhere.

Feeding Hogs. The hog fattens most readily in such a state of atmosphere as is most congenial to his comfort—not too hot or too cold; hence the fall months are the best for making pork.

When hogs are confined in close quarters, in order to facilitate the process of fattening, they should be provided with a good house, made reasonably tight, with a good floor and troughs, with the sleeping apartment separate from where they are fed.

Many will say they have not time to build houses, grind their grain, steam their vegetables, &c., saying at the same time they don't believe it will pay. Let us examine their premises.

Now let us look at his neighbor with the same amount of hogs and corn. He has a good hog house, worth fifty dollars—say it will last ten years, with five dollars repair for each year—making fifty dollars more; a cooking apparatus, worth fifty dollars, that will last ten years; making $150 in all—divided, makes fifteen dollars annually for each hog pen and cooking apparatus.

Colony. There are probably many lovers of celery who are deterred from the culture of it by the fact that generally a large amount of skill and labor is necessary to produce a good article.

for the care of celery comes in the most busy season of the year, will account for the scarcity of this fine relish among farmers, and even those who would be glad to cultivate it if they could.

We have a little experience in raising celery which may not be new to some of our readers, and may be of value to others. In the spring of 1858 we planted a large bed of celery in moist alluvial ground, for the purpose of raising plants for transplanting.

The Time to Prune. It was in pursuance of a desire to ascertain whether we were doing the best we could for our orchards, as to the time of the pruning, that some ten years ago I commenced a series of experiments in a small way at other seasons of the year—in early winter, in March, April and May.

The writer cannot doubt that he has injured two of his orchards very much by a long-continued course of winter and spring pruning. It has been found impossible in some instances to prevent the wounds then made from flowing sap—it would burst off paint, shellac, and anything else I have ever known to be tried to prevent its escape.

TAN BARK FOR POTATOES.—This subject is brought before the farmers of England by a communication in the Mark Lane Express. Mr. R. B. Bamford claims thirty-five years' practice and experience in this matter; and has issued a pamphlet giving his method of using it, which is briefly as follows:—He does not cut his potatoes for setting, but sets them whole, and the largest he can select.

KYANIZING WOOD.—The following mode of rendering wood durable and impervious to the action of moisture, is contained in the New York Observer: One pound of blue vitriol to twenty quarts of water. Dissolve the vitriol with a little boiling water and then add the remainder.

DELICIOUS EFFERVESCENT DRAGHTS.—Take one quart of the juice of either raspberries, strawberries, currants or oranges; filter it, and boil it into syrup with one pound of powdered loaf sugar. To this add one ounce and a half of tartaric acid.

The Earl and the Farmer.

A farmer once called on the late Earl Fitzwilliam to represent that his crop of wheat had been seriously injured in a field adjoining a certain wood, where his lordship's hounds had, during the winter, frequently met to hunt.

"Well, my friend," said his lordship, "I am aware that we have done considerable injury; and if you can produce an estimate of the loss you have sustained, I will repay you."

The farmer replied, that anticipating his lordship's consideration and kindness, he had requested a friend to assist him in estimating the damage, and they thought, as the crop seemed quite destroyed, £50 would not more than repay him.

"I am come, my lord, respecting the field of wheat adjoining such a wood." His lordship immediately recollected the circumstance. "Well, my friend, did I not allow you sufficient to remunerate you for your loss?"

PUTTING DOWN CUCUMBERS.—Take the cucumbers from the vines, wash them clean, and throw them into a kettle of boiling water; let them stand until the water is cold and the cucumbers change color; put a large handful of salt into the water; take them out of the water to drain, and having your stand ready, put down a layer of salt and a layer of cucumbers. When you pickle them, throw in a lump of alum.

FORN MEAT BALLS.—Take two pound of veal, half a pound of beef suet from the strings, chopped fine; put in half a pound of bread crumbs, some sweet herbs, pepper and salt, and beat it well together; add the yolks of two eggs, and with a little flower make them into balls; brown them in a pan of butter, and add them to your soup.
