

PUGET SOUND HERALD.

STELLACOOM, W. T., Thursday Evening, Feb. 5, 1863.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 17.

The Washington Intelligence publishes eight columns of intercepted rebel dispatches. The first is a letter dated in September from Secretary Benjamin to Sillid, exaggerating all the rebel victories, and running up the Federal losses to that time to 350,000. The most important part of the correspondence relates to a movement of the French Consuls at Galveston and Richmond, supposed to have originated in Paris, to induce Texas to secede from the Southern Confederacy and establish an independent Government. The result of this discovery was an order to Magruder to send the Consul at Galveston to Mexico as soon as possible. The Richmond Consul was ordered to leave forthwith. This latter order, however, was rescinded. It further appears that Earl Russell's reception to Commissioner Sillid was not such as comports with the latter's sense of propriety, or with the expectations of the Confederates in Richmond. Mason is, however, complimented for self-abnegation in consenting to remain notwithstanding the annoyances to which he is subjected by the coolness of the British Secretary.

Another portion of the correspondence relates to the European operations of the Confederate Treasury Department. Meminger explains his scheme for raising money in England by purchasing the cotton in the Confederate States, and the modus operandi by which this cotton is to be transmitted in British vessels from the blockaded ports. The utility of iron clad vessels and the means by which they are to be procured in England form the burden of this part of the interesting correspondence.

New York, Jan. 17.

A special Nashville dispatch says, in regard to the burning of the steamer by Forrest, that several boats contained wounded soldiers, who, in jumping from the burning boats, were stripped of their clothing, tied to trees, coarced and left to starve. Officers and soldiers were stripped of their clothing, placed ashore and paroled. Reliable information has been received from scouts that efforts are making by the rebels to cut off Rosecrans's supplies and line of retreat, and then to crush him. It is said that Longstreet will attack him next week with his entire force, which, it is thought, will number 75,000. Rosecrans is fully prepared, but will not move until a certain expedition can capture the rebels now interfering with his transports, or drive them off.

An entire rebel regiment deserted recently and came into our lines near Murfreesboro.

CAIRO, Jan. 17.

The steamer Rain Storm arrived to-day direct from Arkansas Post, which point she left on Monday, Jan. 12th. By her we have the following additional news: The attack was made on Friday evening, Jan. 9th, by the gunboats; the land force disembarking below and marching to the rear of the fortifications. The rebels had earthworks two miles below the main fort, from which they were shelled on Sunday. The fort, built of square timber, covered with railroad iron, and pronounced very strong, was captured on Sunday; balls from one gun having knocked off the shooting off, dismounted the guns and demolished the gun carriages. The officers of the Rain Storm say we captured six regiments, and that at daylight on Monday, two regiments of Texas Rangers, not knowing the place had surrendered, came to reinforce it, and did not discover their position until too late. It is said that large gunboats and transports carrying several hundred men, are on the river, in consequence of this direction. Our loss was not so great as was at first reported.

The attack by gunboats on Arkansas Post continued from Friday evening until Sunday afternoon, at which time the land forces stormed the works.

Jan. 18.—Gen. Aboth has assumed command at Columbus, Kentucky. Report says that Gen. Davis is placed under arrest, and that his conduct in the late affair with Forrest at Island No. 10 and New Madrid is to be investigated.

Matters at Memphis are represented in a rather chaotic condition. The opening of the Mississippi must not be looked for inside of a month.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.

It is known to Gen. Rosecrans that Longstreet has been largely reinforced and has an effective force of 60,000 men. The enemy are already in motion, and Rosecrans expects an attack on his left flank. The rebels will make an attack immediately, before it becomes necessary to reinforce from Grant. A battle between Tullahoma and Murfreesboro may be expected this week.

CAIRO, Jan. 18.

The loss on our side at Arkansas Post was 300 to 500. The rebel loss was 300 killed, wounded and missing, and 5000 prisoners; among the latter was Gen. Churchill, commanding the post. One thousand two hundred rebels were reported on the sick list.

New York, Jan. 19.

The Tribune publishes a letter of one of its correspondents with the Army of the Potomac, announcing that another forward movement was about to be made, and says that such particulars as we have received of the intention of Burnside gives us reason to believe that the army is across the river.

The correspondence from Key West is to the 19th inst. The U. S. gunboat Saganora returned from a cruise on the 10th, having succeeded during her absence in capturing two English sloops from Nassau with valuable cargoes.

The General-in-Chief has issued orders to several corps commanders in the field, not to release rebel officers on parole. The cause of this order is that a number of Union officers now prisoners at Richmond are kept in close confinement and not allowed to be paroled. Our Government has failed to effect an arrangement for the release of Union citizens imprisoned in Southern jails, the rebel authorities declining to recognize them in any system of exchange that has been proposed. It is understood that enough of known rebels in the loyal States are to be arrested to furnish exchanges for every one of the Union men now held as prisoners in the South.

New York, Jan. 19.

News from Havana says the Alabama was off that port on the 5th.

A special Washington dispatch to the Post says that the House Committee on Territories have agreed to the admission of Nevada, Colorado and Nebraska, into the Union, as States.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.

The President sent a message to Congress to-day announcing that he had signed a joint resolution for the immediate payment of the army and navy of the United States, the sum of twenty million dollars for the purpose of being $100,000,000. He expresses a regret that so much will be required. He favors a reasonable taxation of the bank circulation, and declares that a uniform currency is almost, if not quite indispensable. So soon as the Secretary of the Treasury learned that the President had signed the resolution, he placed to the credit of several of the paymasters sufficient funds to pay the whole army and navy of the United States. Fifty-three were supplied with sums ranging from $50,000 to $7,000,000. This last sum was sent to the paymaster at Louisville, and $670,000 to San Francisco.

The Senate in Executive session to-day confirmed the nomination of Harrison of Oregon, as Superintendent of Indian Affairs in that State.

New York, Jan. 20.

A letter from the Army of the Potomac to the Tribune says that the report from Nashville that Longstreet's corps had removed westward to reinforce Bragg is unfounded. Longstreet himself was here two days ago, with his command. It is believed that no entire corps has been withdrawn from our front, but we have information from deserters that some divisions and batteries have been detached and sent to Tennessee.

A Washington special dispatch says that the Committee on Ways and Means yesterday morning on a report of the sub-committee, and by a nearly unanimous vote gave to the Secretary of the Treasury power to sell bonds at the best price he could obtain. They also took away from the holders of legal tenders the right to invest at pleasure in 20 years' bonds. The bill will probably be reported to-day. That satisfies both the Committee and the Secretary of the Treasury.

Carl Shurz has received a command in Sigel's corps, Sigel being placed in command of the reserves.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.

The bark Achilles is expected to sail to-day with 5000 barrels of flour, a part of the contributions of Philadelphia to the relief of suffering operatives in England.

New York, Jan. 20.

Washington dispatches announce the capture within our lines of J. W. Boyd and Chas. Powell, of the rebel Stuart's command, both liable to execution as spies.

A Key West letter of the 13th states that 2500 men accompanied the fleet to recapture Galveston. J. R. Doolittle was re-elected U. S. Senator of Wisconsin to-day.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22d.

Gen. Burnside has issued an order, dated the 20th, announcing "to the Army of the Potomac that we are about to meet the enemy once more. Our brilliant victories in North Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansas have divided and weakened the enemy on the Rappahannock, and the auspicious moment seems to have arrived to strike a great and mortal blow to the rebellion, and gain a decisive victory that is due to our country. Let the gallant soldiers of this army, by their noble deeds accomplish this achievement, and fame the most glorious awaits them."

The official report of the losses at the battle of Murfreesboro is 1474 killed, 6874 wounded, and 2000 taken prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22d.

The verdict of the Court Martial in Gen. Fitz John Porter's case was approved yesterday by the President, contrary to former reports. The Court found him guilty of the charges preferred, and he was accordingly cashiered and dismissed the service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23d.

The Navy Department has information of the safety of the Alabama and Wachacha. Eighty-nine military nominations were sent to the Senate yesterday, including Heintzelman, Hooker and Sumner, for promotion for meritorious services, by dating their commissions back, embracing all the different battles in which they distinguished themselves.

New York, Jan. 27th.

A special Washington dispatch to the Times says that Gen. Couch succeeds Sumner, and Gen. W. F. Smith succeeds Gen. Franklin.

Boston, Jan. 27th.

Private advices from Newbern, N. C., to Tuesday last, say that no mails had left there for two weeks. One, however, was about leaving. The main expedition of which so much has been said had not started, but a land force was sent for ward on the 17th towards the railroads, which outnumbered 1,300 rebels at Pollockville, drove them from the town, and took possession. The general health of the troops is good.

A letter in the New Orleans Delta from Berwick Bay, dated the 15th, gives the particulars of the action that took place between the Federal gunboat and the rebels, in which Commodore Buchanan was killed, thirty rebels were captured and six killed.

The Tribune's correspondent says that upon General Butler's arrival at New Orleans to resume command of the Department of the Gulf, he found the city in a state of anarchy, and a sufficient force for the purpose of assisting the Union men in that State and restore it to the Union as a free commonwealth.

A Key West letter states that the British neutral blockade runner, Antonio, with a cargo of powder from England, has been captured by the United States steamer Lookout, off Mobile.

COMMONS REPORT.—COURT, February Term, 1863.—Feb. 4th.—ORDERED by the Court, That the Auditor cause notice to be published in the "Puget Sound Herald" to the effect that no bills or accounts will be allowed, or ordered paid, by the Board of County Commissioners, unless all such bills or accounts are filed in the office of the County Auditor ten days prior to the first day of the term of Court as which such accounts will be presented for payment.

I hereby certify that the above is a full, true and correct copy of the record.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20th.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says that as one of the results of the recent Republican caucus, it is intimated that a demand for a reconstruction of the Cabinet will be urged with permanency, and that if a change should not be made before the 4th of March, Congress, in imitation of the British Parliament, will pass resolutions declaring a want of confidence in the present Cabinet.

A dispatch says that a very important report, said to be founded on good authority, in reference to the army of the Potomac, reached here to-day. It is to the effect that the Army of the Potomac is to be virtually abandoned, and the greater portion of it sent to the West to co-operate in the grand campaign soon to be inaugurated. A small portion of it, just sufficient for the protection of the Capital, will be detained near Washington. So runs the report.

Headquarters, Camp near Falmouth, Jan. 20th. By direction of the President of the United States, the Commanding-General this day transfers the command of this army to Maj.-General Hooker. The short time that he has directed your movements has not been fruitful of victory, nor of any considerable advancement of our lines, but it has demonstrated an amount of courage, patience and endurance that, under more favorable circumstances, would have accomplished great results. Continue the exercise of these virtues! Be true in your devotion to your country and the principles you have sworn to maintain, and give to the brave and skillful General who has long been identified with your organization, and who is now to command you, your full and cordial support, and co-operation, and you will deserve success. Your General's prayers are that God may be with you, and grant you continued success until the rebellion is crushed.

It is understood that Major-General's Franklin and Sumner have been relieved from their commands of the right and 1st Grand Divisions of the Army of the Potomac, but the names of their successors have not yet been divulged; nor is it known who has been appointed to take Gen. Hooker's place. Gen. Burnside and most of his staff have been allowed 30 days absence.

Mr. Stevens reported a bill authorizing the President to raise and equip 150,000 soldiers of African descent, for five years. A motion to postpone the bill until the 2d of March was not carried, the vote being 45 against 80. Mr. Stevens's motion to postpone it until to-morrow was agreed to.

The bill for the better protection of emigrants to the Pacific coast passed the Senate to-day.

New York, Jan. 26th.

On the night of the 19th December, a severe shock of an earthquake was felt throughout Guatemala. Antigua suffered severely, and Atilan was destroyed. The earthquake was also felt at Salvador, and much damage was done to public buildings, churches and private residences. The loss of life was not large.

The steamer Boardman, from New Orleans, on the 9th, the 11th, and 13th, was fired upon by six other Federal steamers, whilst off Galveston, and a steamer in the offing and the steamer Hatteras got under way to overtake her, and when within hailing distance asked who she was, and received as an answer: "Her majesty's sloop-of-war Spilfire." The commander of the Hatteras then lowered a boat with an officer and crew to go on board, when the stranger fired a broadside into the Hatteras. The Spilfire got under way and started in pursuit, but night coming on, she lost sight of her and was compelled to give up the chase. On returning, she found the Hatteras sunk in spite of her water. The officers of the Boardman are unable to give further particulars, although it was supposed that the steamer was the pirate Alabama.
