Advertisements to insure insertion without delay, should be handed in on or before Wednesday of each week.

Legal Tender Notes received at par for Subscriptions and Advertisements.

PUGET SOUND HERALD.

STEILACOOM, W. T., Thursday Evening, April 30, 1863.

A New Sloop.—The new sloop, noticed some weeks since as being built at Fort Madison for Capt. Berry, of this county, made her appearance at this place on Sunday last.

THE LEVIATHAN.—Many of our readers on the Sound still remember the appearance here of the little steamer Leviathan, hardly as big as some of our canoes, about four years ago.

A Patriotic Governor.—On more than one occasion has Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, manifested his loyalty to the Union since the war broke out.

THE FAST DAY.—The telegraph committed a blunder in regard to the day of fasting and prayer appointed by the President, and there is a difference of opinion as to the day designed for it.

HEAVY ROBERT.—The events of Monday last gives the particulars of a heavy robbery that was perpetrated in Portland at an early hour on Sunday morning.

THE UNIVERSITY.—The Territorial University, we learn from the Press, is soon to be opened for the reception of students.

THE WEATHER.—The rains having ceased, we are now in the enjoyment of the delightful sunny weather for which this latitude is celebrated.

YACHTS.—This name appears in the list of passengers detained at Nicaragua by that government. He, with about 160 others, left New York on the 14th of March, for San Francisco via Nicaragua.

BOONDOCK MOUNTAIN.—The Marysville Appeal of the 10th says the Broderick Monument is now finished and ready for the stone.

ARRIVALS.—Marion J. Sargent has been appointed Postmaster of Olympia, vice Samuel Williams, deceased.

UNION CONVENTION OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

The undersigned, members of both political parties as heretofore existing, would respectfully and earnestly recommend to the Union and Loyal People of Washington Territory to meet in Conventions in their respective counties, at an early day, to select delegates to represent them in a UNION CONVENTION.

to be held at Vancouver, W. T., on the fourth Monday (the 25th day) of May, 1863, for the purpose of NOMINATING A UNION CANDIDATE to represent this Territory in the next Congress, and to take such other steps towards perfecting a Union organization in this Territory as the dangers now threatening our free institutions may demand; each county to send to said Convention two delegates for each representative it has in the lower house of the Legislature.

This call to the loyal people of the Territory is made irrespective of all political parties and cliques, and the only test required by the Convention in its standard-bearer will be integrity and capacity, an unconditional devotion to the Union of the States, a cordial and earnest support of the Government in its efforts to suppress the present wicked rebellion, and a full and steadfast determination to prosecute the war till the authority of the Government is recognized in all our borders.

In the dangers and perils now surrounding our country, it is believed the partisan should be buried in the patriot; that we should not waste our strength in wrangling over the merits of "Democracy" and "Republicanism" while the torch is being applied to the edifice erected by the great arm of Washington! In this belief and in this spirit this call is made.

Fellow citizens of the Union! you who are determined to preserve the nation with all its States and Territories, with all the rights of the States and the People given them by the Constitution, let us not despair of the Republic. Let our purest and ablest men meet together in Convention, to take counsel together, and to send from this distant shore a cheering word to the Government at Washington, and to the brave soldier on the field, who has left his home to fight and to fall in the battles of our beloved country.

- Leader Holmes, Gilmore Hayes, Benjamin Harned, Warren Gore, Frederic A. Clarke, Thacher Hunt, Albert Hill, John Webster, Frederic A. Wilson, William McLean, E. S. Dyer, U. G. Washburn, John W. Anderson, Charles H. Spinning, Walter T. Weed, H. Cochran, Chas. Proch, and others.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

By both mail and express we received, last week, bundles of papers from Stratman & Co., San Francisco news agents. Some of the papers were duplicated, but all were acceptable.

The list comprised the London Weekly Dispatch, Missouri Republican, Louisville Journal, Baltimore Sun, Boston Journal, New York Herald, Tribune, and Times, Forney's War Press, New York True Delta of Feb. 14th, 21st, and 28th, Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, three dates, and the New York Illustrated News of two dates.

To J. W. Sullivan we are indebted for two copies of Harper's Weekly, three copies of Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, two copies of the Waverly Magazine, the Louisville Journal and the Boston Weekly Journal. Sullivan also receives, by each steamer from the States and Europe, papers and periodicals without stint.

To the gentlemanly and obliging Purser of the Eliza Anderson we are again indebted for Victoria and California papers; also for the prompt delivery of express packages. Mr. Finch, we are pleased to learn, is becoming deservedly popular in his present position on the steamer. His connection with the Anderson is the redeeming feature of that boat as it was of the Enterprise.

Mr. Philip Keach has again laid us under obligations for late Eastern news, brought from Portland in advance of the mail.

DESPAIR.—Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, seems at times inclined to despair of the success of the Government in its attempt to crush the rebellion. Hear him: "Even if the great effort to crush the rebellion is destined to fail, we cannot regret that it has been made."

ERRORS OF THE WAR.—A man in Lowell, Mass. recently bought a barrel of flour, for which he tendered a twenty dollar gold piece, and from which $10.50 were to be taken. He received back, in bills, the balance of his twenty dollar gold piece and the premium it brought, the whole amounting to $21.50! This is one of the most novel operations we have ever heard of.

PROFANE RANTON.—The Pacific coast is a truly wonderful region. What it cannot produce, naturally and artificially, is not worth producing. A California paper states that a miner in the Humboldt region, while running a tunnel, struck a lead of a substance that looks like onion-baking, and states that ship loads of it can be prepared. This is a fact. Another paper mentions a rumor that a starch mine has been found in Alameda county. Stock is held at stiff rates.

ENCOURAGED BY THIS, the discoverer is prospecting for shirt buttons, and had already found indications of a clothes line lead!

INTERESTING TO DESERTERS.

Intelligence was published some weeks since that the President had, by proclamation, pardoned all deserters who would return voluntarily to their respective regiments within a specified time. This step proved very judicious; for thousands of deserters, who were deterred by fear of the prescribed punishment from returning to duty, emerged from their places of concealment and rejoined the commands to which they belonged.

A Bill has been introduced into the Canadian Parliament to provide for the return of deserters to the United States army. Several copperheads have been indicted for treason by the Grand Jury of the United States sitting at Indianapolis.

A copperhead Lieutenant in the United States army was arrested last month in Massachusetts for "diffusing sound political information."

Captain Van Vorst, of the U. S. Army, has been appointed Provost Marshal of San Francisco in place of Col. Leonard, ordered to the East.

The Bulletin thinks that Charleston is a strongly fortified as Sebastopol, and intimates that it will take about as long to reduce it.

Lieut. Winchell, with 35 troops, recently made a raid on an Indian camp, near Eureka, and killed 38 "bucks" and captured 40 squaws and children.

The Hebrew organ (the Gleaner) mentions the names of seventy-nine Hebrews who were killed at the battle of Fredericksburg while fighting for this country.

Under the Congressional Stamp Act it cost the Executors of Nicholas Longworth four hundred and thirty dollars to purchase a stamp to put upon the will.

Gen. Scott is President of the Union League recently formed in New York city. We notice the names of John Van Buren and James T. Brady in the list of Vice Presidents.

A subscription has been started in San Francisco, by some of the leading French residents, for the relief of the suffering operatives in the manufacturing districts of France. Nearly $5,000 had been raised up to the 10th inst.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Universal patronage.—Let all sufferers from general or local disease take heart, and follow in the wake of thousands who ascribe their restoration of health to the use of these noble remedies.

DEED.—At the residence of his father, Stephen Guthrie, of Thurston county, W. T., April 29, 1863, Mr. Elias Guthrie, aged 36 years, of California papers please copy.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS.

New York, April 18.

The steamer Peabody, Capt. Atwill, with dates from Key West to the 6th instant, reports that at Hilton Head, on the 9th, he saw the Monitor Nahant repairing. She had 300 shots fired at her by the rebel batteries at Charleston harbor, but she was not seriously injured. Some rivets had started from the turret, which prevented her guns working to advantage. She was within 200 yards of Fort Sumter in the action. She received a shot at the junction of the turret with the deck, which prevented the turret from revolving, rendering her useless for the time. The Ironsides received 30 shots, and sustained no damage, further than starting a few bolts. The rest of the fleet were unharmed. They hauled off, the object of the reconnaissance being accomplished, which was to ascertain the locality of the obstructions. Our entire loss was 3 killed and 13 wounded.

On Wednesday the squadron remained at anchor in the main ship channel. It is said that the number of men in our fleet is only about 1,100, with 30 guns; while the enemy, it is reported, have at least 300 guns, the best in the world. The injuries to our vessels, extending the Keokuk, are represented to be of such a character as will require but a short time for repairs. The casualties among our men are remarkably few, including 1 killed and 5 wounded on the Nahant. None of the batteries fired upon our vessels until they reached the vicinity of the main fort.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12. Passengers here to Nashville were captured at South Antioch on Friday afternoon, by 500 rebels. Nine cars were burned. The mails and nearly 150 passengers, including a dozen or twenty officers, 30 or 40 soldiers, and some of the 10th Michigan, were captured.

LOUISVILLE, April 14. Late on Monday night's squad of rebel cavalry dashed into Franklin, Ky., broke open a number of trunks at the depot, and carried off the contents. 3000 rebels are in the vicinity of Glasgow, advancing on that place. Morgan, with a considerable force, is in Smith county, preparing for another raid on the Nashville and Louisville railroad. Persons from below report that a considerable force is crossing the Cumberland, near Lebanon, seemingly with the intention of making another raid into Kentucky.

A cavalry expedition under Gen. Stanley arrived from Knoxville on the way over they burned several houses belonging to wealthy secession farmers. Upwards of $100,000 worth of property was destroyed.

NEW YORK, April 15. The Times's New Orleans letter says that Gen. Banks is fortifying all the approaches to the city. The enemy, it is believed, have 75,000 men who can be concentrated near the city in 12 hours. There are some apprehensions of a raid from Mobile against Ship Island.

CHICAGO, April 15. A Des Moines, Iowa, telegram says that emigration through there to California and the Western Territories exceeds anything since the days of '48 and '49.

WASHINGTON, April 15. Private advices from N. where, the 12th, state that a communication had been received from Gen. Foster to the effect that he had plenty of supplies and believed he could withstand all the force the rebels could bring against him for three weeks, if necessary.

Erierson publishes a letter, saying the imperfections of the Monitors are not of a serious character, and will be readily obviated. Everything worked precisely as expected, and no change in the plans of the vessels will be necessary. There is no class of vessels in the navy that obey the helm more readily than the Monitors. In strong currents and shallow water like Charleston harbor, no vessel can be so readily maneuvered.

The following has been received from rebel sources: John Minor Botts, from personal interposition, has had permission to reside on his estate. No election for Governor of Tennessee will be held this year. (Harris is to hold until a successor is elected.)

The Yankee cavalry entered Carthage, on the Louisiana shore, below Vicksburg, last week, and are still in possession of the place.

A Washington special dispatch says: The case of the Ango rebel steamer Peterhoff continues to engage the Administration as well as diplomatic circles here. It is understood that Lord Lyons has refused the British mail found on board, unless it be returned to him unopened, and that the State Department is ready to accede to his wishes. Secretary Welles, however, is of opinion that whatever the abstract right or wrong of the question may be, the District Court, which has the case before it for adjudgment, can alone decide; the statute being peremptory that all papers and writings found on board the captured vessel shall be transmitted unopened to the court before which such vessel is proceeded against. Judge Betts last week invited Mr. Archibald, the British Consul, to be present while the mail was being opened, but he did not appear.

Jeff Davis has issued an address to the people of the Southern Confederacy, urging them to devote agricultural labor to the production of food. He says that though his soldiers are on half rations of meat, there is plenty in the Confederacy, but that a difficulty exists in the transportation, which is now about to be remedied.

Advices from Suffolk, of the 14th, give accounts of considerable skirmishing, without loss on our side, in the vicinity. Deserters say the rebel force there numbers 25,000, with eighty pieces of artillery.

A special dispatch says evidence has been received that the enemy on the Rappahannock is being rapidly reinforced. Army deserters say the number of troops there is less than at any previous time since Lee commanded.

The new Supreme Court here [Washington] has issued writs for the return of negroes to slavery claimed by loyal owners.

SMITHFIELD, Va., April 15. At 4 o'clock this morning, the enemy, some 800 strong, attacked us on our left. They were shot from Fort Dix and retreated about five miles. At the same time a faint was made to cross the Nanamond river, but our gunboats drove the rebels back into the woods. Gen. Peck is confident that he can repulse the enemy.

NEW YORK, April 17. The Herald's correspondent at Bermuda, writing under date of April 6th, says: The schooner Legate, which arrived from Cuba on the 30th March, reported that the British war-ship Cygnet, when entering Port Cuba, from a cruise, was fired on by two United States vessels. At the same moment the captain of the Legate heard the commander of the Cygnet demanding an explanation, and was informed that they had mistaken his vessel for the Alabama, the Florida, or some other rebel privateer.

A letter from Suffolk, of the 15th, says three detachments of infantry, with a small force of cavalry and artillery, went out on the 15th to road this morning at daylight, and attacked the enemy in his position. Our troops met a Virginia regiment and drove it back, which it was reinforced by a brigade, which also fell back after some heavy skirmishing, and did not make a move again.

April 18.—The Catalpa, from Port Royal the 15th, reports that all the monitors had returned to Port Royal. Rebel dispatches state that large Federal reinforcements had reached Grenada, Miss., and the new plan is to send a large force to each of the three rivers running southward from Grant to join Rosecrans by water. Kirby Smith assumes command of the rebel forces of the Mississippi.

The Herald's dispatch says a report is prevalent to-day that the rebel cavalry which have been hovering around Ball Run mountain and Culpeper have been surrounded by an expedition sent out by Stahl, and their capture is almost certain. Rich papers notice the arrest and return on Monday of nearly four hundred rebel officers.

The Charleston Mercury of April 18th says Fort Sumter, which was somewhat battered, is to-day believed to be as strong as when the fight began. We deem it certain that if the attack be renewed again as before, and there is reason to believe it will, the monitor ironclads will come out the defeated parties with worse results than before.

Washington dispatches say those who are in possession of all that is known of the subject of our relations with Great Britain say we have reason to hope that the difficulty will be adjusted, and that England is beginning to see the error of her ways.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20. A leader in the Atlanta (Georgia) Intelligence of the 17th says that Rosecrans is being reinforced by Grant, and that a great battle will come off within sixty days.

A resolution passed the Georgia Legislature that a tax of one per cent, on one-third of all provisions in the State should be levied for the benefit of the public schools.

LOUISVILLE, April 21. Col. Graha attacked the rebels near Galena, on Saturday, killing 17 and destroying their camp. The next day he crossed the Cumberland and attacked another rebel encampment, killing 80 and routing the remainder, and is now in pursuit. Our loss was one killed.

CHICAGO, April 21. In the rebel attack on Fayetteville, Ark., they took 40 prisoners during a charge of 1st Arkansas cavalry, but finally retired, leaving their dead on the field. Additional particulars from Fayetteville say the fight lasted four hours. The rebels were commanded by Gen. Cubal, and retreated in disorder towards Meark. Our troops were new recruits, poorly equipped, and without artillery.

WASHINGTON, April 21. Official dispatches received from Gen. Peck, dated Saturday evening, say Gen. Beatty captured six guns and 17 men of the 4th Alabama regiment.

Advices from Newbern, 16th, say Gen. Foster ran rebel batteries in broad daylight. His pilot was killed at the wheel. Over 200 shot and shell were fired at the vessel, besides the volleys of small arms. Sixteen cannon shot took effect on the vessel.

CHICAGO, April 21. Reports from Cairo say that on Thursday night six gunboats and three transports left Yoting's Point and ran by the Vicksburg batteries. All got through safely but one transport, which took fire opposite the city and was consumed.

The gunboat Zenon was the only one struck. The time of starting until the last shot was fired by the rebels was one hour and a quarter, by which time nearly all had got safely ashore. A brilliant light was seen on shore, which illuminated the river for two miles, but soon died out. Five hundred shots were fired on both sides, with what result is not known. Each gunboat and transport had a coal barge in tow.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20. A telegram from Hurlbut, at Memphis, reports Gen. Dodge, commanding at Corinth, had attacked the enemy and drove them from Bear river with heavy loss. Our loss was 100 killed and wounded. We had one piece of artillery dismantled but saved it. The enemy has been largely reinforced at Tusculum.

NEW YORK, April 20. Suffolk letters report that our forces held the Nanamond river for sixteen miles, and have defeated every attempt of the rebels to get in our rear. The rebels expect to bring against us, including reinforcements from Gen. Hill, 60,000 men. The delay of the enemy in making the attack is as good as reinforcements.

A Norfolk letter expresses the opinion that there will be no great battles at Suffolk, as we outnumber the enemy there and have the advantage of strong intrenchments, unless Gen. Peck takes the initiative.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 19. Yesterday the enemy drove back our skirmishers from the Nanamond river, which is Gen. Corcoran's front; they opened with two pieces of artillery; our force replied and drove them back. Our skirmishers on the south drove the enemy back some miles from our lines. Deserters say that the enemy intend making an attack this week.

NEW YORK, April 20. The Herald's dispatches, dated 18th, from the Army of the Potomac, say a large force of the enemy have collected in the vicinity of the Rappahannock, though no attempt has been made to cross.

To-night's reports say the Federals have been massing troops in the vicinity of the United States Ford for several days. Yesterday and to-day considerable bodies of cavalry, and immense wagon trains had been moving up the river.
