

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1869

AGENTS FOR THE REGISTER: L. P. FISHER, San Francisco; H. P. FISHER, St. Helena; J. H. FISHER, Olympia.

TAKING SITUATION.

We have, heretofore, refrained from taking much part in the canvass between the different Republican aspirants for Congress, but in view of the result of the recent primary elections on Puget Sound, together with the public sentiment, which in this county is rapidly growing and concentrating in favor of Mr. Garfield, we cannot help but express our gratification, that the choice of the Territorial Convention will likely fall upon the man, who, above all others, is peculiarly fitted to ably represent the interests of this Territory in the halls of congress.

His opponents are trying to create the impression, that he is unpopular, and would fail to poll the strength of the party. We can speak with certainty of the feeling existing in this county, and we state it as a fact, that Republicans generally, remember the valuable services he has rendered to the party on former occasions, they recognize his extraordinary abilities and would hail with enthusiasm and joy his nomination at Clatskanie, on the 20th of April next.

Union Republican County Convention.

The Union Republicans of Clark County, W. T., are requested to meet at the voting places in their respective precincts, at two o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, the 10th day of April, A. D., 1869, and then and there elect delegates to the Union Republican County Convention, which is hereby called to assemble at Vancouver, W. T., on Wednesday the 14th day of April, 1869, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to elect four delegates to the Union Republican Territorial Convention which will assemble at Clatskanie, on Tuesday, the 20th day of April, 1869, and to transact such other business as the Convention shall deem proper.

The district precincts of Clark County will be entitled to the following representation in the County Convention, to wit: Vancouver Precinct, 13 delegates; Pollock, 3; Lancaster, 4; Patterson, 3; Lackamas, 4; Preston, 2; Washougal, 2; Fern Prairie, 2; Battleground, 1; Chelatchie, 1.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic and Conservative citizens of Clark County, W. T., are requested to meet at the voting places in their respective precincts, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, the 19th day of April, 1869, and then and there elect delegates to the Democratic Co. Convention, which is called to meet in Vancouver, W. T., on Tuesday, the 20th of April, 1869, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to elect eight delegates to the Territorial Democratic Convention, which will meet in the city of Vancouver, W. T., on the 26th day of April, 1869, and to nominate candidates for the various county offices to be voted for at the coming June election.

Chairman of Clark County Democratic Central Committee. Vancouver, W. T., March 25, 1869.

Maj. Fitzgerald went through the Sound, and he and his wife have turned up in Portland.

Messrs. - Solemn High Mass was celebrated at the Catholic Church on last Thursday.

Subscribers for the Register.

To the Citizens of the Pacific Coast.

The following letter we clip from the Oregonian, of the 23d. Charged derogatory to my character here from time to time appeared in the Oregonian and the Portland Herald, and have been copied and recopied into low, scurrilous sheets like the Vancouver Register and San Francisco Chronicle, and commented upon by and them others of "small caliber" in Washington Territory and Oregon.

The public will understand that the charges all originated by one man, and he a former partner of mine in the Insurance business. I never used the name of Wilson A. Emerson; never knew a lady by the name of Chase in Indiana, as reported; never was but once married and that some eight years ago, to my present wife. And as for being arrested for bigamy, escaping bonds, etc., etc., I can say with a clear conscience that neither warrant or summons was ever served on me to my knowledge—and facts are developing that will prove it to be a most villainous conspiracy concocted by rival insurance agents against an honest competitor whose business success is the only cause of their shameful vindictiveness.

VICTORIA, Feb. 19, 1869. To whom it may concern: This is to certify that the bearer has been duly appointed as Inspector of Customs for a special service in Puget Sound District, and has the honor to search suspected places or persons; make seizures in any manner he may deem expedient to protect the Revenue from fraud.

Mr. ————, Sir: You have been duly appointed Inspector of Customs under the directions of the Special Agent of the Treasury Department. Your compensation will be four dollars per day and expenses, while traveling on official duty.

P. S. My bill for services and expenses has not been paid. Payment was refused, not for neglect of duty, but because it was found out that I had changed my name and was published (the reason for so doing I heretofore explained), but knowing that the Government had perilled my life for four years, I will simply compensate me, not only for my services in aiding unscrupulous goods but showing where a leak can be stopped, now running from the Treasury, I cheerfully transfer my claim to headquarters and will give the Department a pep behind the curtain as to the collection of customs in the Puget Sound District.

San Francisco, Dec. 10th, 1869. WHEREAS, The Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Maine, did on the 15th day of June appoint R. F. Fitzgerald as general agent for California, and the said Fitzgerald proposes to surrender the said contract and his interest therein for the sum of fifty dollars in gold coin, and a release from all obligations at the San Francisco agency; now, therefore, Know all men by these presents, That we, the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, do release and forever discharge the said Fitzgerald from all debts, dues, obligations or sums of money whatsoever; and it is mutually agreed that this is an amicable and satisfactory settlement.

Witness: J. W. G. PEARSON. So falls to the ground the assertion that the above company discharged me, or that I swindled them.

Oregon, California and British Columbia papers please copy. Truly and Respectfully, R. F. FITZGERALD. Portland, March 23, 1869. R. F. Fitzgerald, the writer of the above article, has impudence enough for a whole Army Corps. He classes the Vancouver Register with the San Francisco Chronicle. We thank him for the compliment. The S. F. Chronicle may not belong to the "legitimate" press, as it is not a member of the family of P. O. Le Kate, whose decessate the "legitimate" press so lugubriously bewailed, but, notwithstanding, it is a good paper, and truthful. At least, its circulation shows that the public appreciate it. It appears the public do not appreciate R. F. Fitzgerald.

We have no doubt as to his being a "sharp-shooter," nor are we surprised at the fact that he was a Michi-gander. His defense comes "too late," to use the grammar of the quondam school teacher. See how adroitly he attempts to wriggle out. He says, "I never used the name of Wilson A. Emerson." We stated he had letters come to him marked "Frank Emerson, care of Frank Fitzgerald." This was true, such were delivered to him at the Post Office in this city.

Dr. Wall, a respectable druggist of this city, has a bill against him for school books he authorized purchased when he attempted to teach school on Mill Plain. In the fuss there he drew a pistol on Capt. Ingram, the music teacher.

To avoid showing too often that he adopted an alias on the Sound, in the letter of Mr. Bernard's he omits the name by which he was addressed.

He used language at the dinner table of a highly respectable family on Mill Plain, too indecent to be published in any paper, even as he calls it, a "low, scurrilous sheet like the Vancouver Register." He wished to use that "low, scurrilous sheet," to publish his leucubrations against certain Insurance Companies who chose to dispense with his invaluable services. His vindication is "bad, but the best he can do;" but it comes "too late."

For the facts published about him in Vancouver we have, for witnesses, the very best people in the community. What he has done elsewhere, we know not. We think his adventures would make a very interesting book. Dr. Wall would like to see him about six dollars' worth, and Policeman Hudson might find his case, if it were not "drapped" by the way. We "seek not more his frailties to disclose."

RAILROAD SUBSIDIES.

The omnibus railroad bill appears to be sleeping very quietly in one of the many Congressional Committees. Its slumber is so deep that in all probability it will never be brot. The fact is, as we have repeatedly pointed out, there has been for two or three years a growing opposition throughout the country to the policy of granting any more money or bond subsidies for railroads. The press has been hammering ceaselessly against it. Influential journals have created a public opinion on the subject which Congressmen "are not the courage to face. The enormous profits made in building the Union and Central roads have also powerfully stimulated the opposition against further grants. As an indication of the tone of a large portion of the Eastern press on the subject, we give a brief extract from an article in the Albany, N. Y., Journal: "The man who votes another dollar or acre of land to a Pacific railroad under existing circumstances, will be marked hereafter. There are Congressmen who have grown suddenly rich under circumstances that attract general criticism and create most unfavorable comment. There are other Congressmen who may retire from office with dashing liveries and full bank accounts, if they will subordinate their consciences, their public spirit, and their hopes for the future, to the greed of gain. The people understand these facts; and if any bill making grants or guaranteeing interest, in passed, will not be slow to determine what influences have conspired in bringing about that result." The sentiment of the community responds to that of General Grant, when he declares that subsidies to the Pacific railroads should be stopped altogether. There seems to be little probability that the omnibus bill can overcome the determined and powerful opposition which it has encountered. And if it should pass in Congress, the President would be pretty sure to veto it. The tone of his inaugural address seems to sustain this view.—Oregonian.

We have received the following communication called forth by the above article: ED. REGISTER: We see with grief and indignation the disposition of the Oregonian to throw cold water on Railroad enterprises on the Pacific slope. It gives currency to the districts of the Eastern press in parts of the country that have all the railroads they want, and speaks in such a way that its expressions will be eagerly caught up as an endorsement of those same districts, and heralded through all the land, and Congressmen, hampered by public opinion, wrongfully formed, will feel unwilling to move in the matter, or forward the only plan that can develop this country, and dissipate the eternal stagnation that hangs like a dark pall over the business prospects of this coast. See from the report of the Secretary of the Interior, how few acres of land are appropriated for the benefit of roads of any kind in Oregon and Washington Territory. On the development of this country depends our salvation as a nation. The possession of California and its countless gold mines kept up our credit during the late war. Without it the national credit would have sunk below zero.

Small treasures that underlie this whole coast be forever locked and the key lost, or shall they be brought to the light of day, and liberate the whole nation from taxation and ruin? Railroads are the only means by which the treasure can be unlocked and made available. To shut down upon railroad grants will be committing national suicide, and we do not believe that General Grant will wish to cut the throat of the nation he has fought to preserve. We deny that his inaugural opposes railroad subsidies. The following extract does not appear like it: "Why, it looks as though Providence has bestowed upon us a strong box of the precious metal locked up in the sterile mountains of the far West which we are now forging the key to unlock, to meet the very contingency which is now upon us." He qualifies this somewhat, so as not to raise our hopes too high, but we believe he has too much self sense to go into a false conceit "I will throw the nation, bound hand and foot, into the clutches of foreign capitalists. People in the East have a false idea of the value of land per acre. Land, remote from all means of inter-communication is valueless. Combination of circumstances gives everything its value. Gold, on a wrecked vessel, cheapens below all further depreciation. A few cities on this coast may not hold all the wealth and power, as they do now, if the country is developed; but shall the good of the many be sacrificed for the benefit of the few? These cities will be richer than they are to-day, but the difference between them and other places in point of wealth and power will not be so marked. It seems to me a mean disposition that would desire to be the biggest toad in a puddle instead of a big fish among big fishes in a broad pellucid lake. I believe in a liberal policy, a soul, whose bounds are not the limits of a peck measure. Respectfully Yours, A SUBSCRIBER.

—The Bull of the Commercial says the ordinance against loose cattle running at large in the city limits, did not pass the council. We must feel greatly relieved.

—We learn from the dispatches that Ex-President Johnson died of paralysis, on the 25th inst, at Greenville, Tennessee.

—Next Sunday is Easter.

How THE LAND LIES.—The Secretary of the Interior gives us the figures in regard to the aggregate quantity of lands certified under existing laws for railroads and wagon roads to States, Territories and corporations. Up to January 30, 1867, it is 21,561,000 acres; for canals, nearly 4,500,000 acres. The quantity certified to the following named States since that date is as follows: Minnesota, for railroads, 670,000 acres; California, for railroads, 26,000 acres; Wisconsin, wagon roads, 72,000 acres; Oregon, wagon roads, 12,000 acres; Michigan, canals, 380,000; making a grand total of 27,000,000 acres.

IMPROVEMENTS.—We notice improvements in buildings about the city. Occasionally a new building going up, and old ones repaired.

Local Items.

AMENDS HONORABLE.—We were guilty of a slight error in regard to the Hibernian Benevolent Society of Vancouver. They went to Portland, on the invitation of the H. B. S. of Portland, as their guests. However, on their return they escorted S. J. McCormick and Professor Gans, with the Post Band, discoursing sweet music, to the residence of a gentleman of this city, where a collation was prepared for the orator and musician. The members of the H. B. S. then went with their flags to Metropolitan Hall, and reported thereon. Afterwards they dispersed them in the evening individually attended the lecture. We noticed some of the members on the stage. There, we believe, are the facts in the case. From which it will be seen we were not much out of the way, after all.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Columbus Lancaster is in the city, on Wednesday.

Col. Hodges, U. S. A., came up on the Orilliana to Portland, on Sunday, and arrived in this city on Thursday.

Rev. Mr. Hines left on Thursday for the Sound. During his tour, he will, in all probability, send items of interest to the Register. Mr. E. L. Dale is in from the coal mine on the East Fork of Lewis River. He says the prospects are favorable as ever, and that carpers will find themselves mistaken. He states the petition for a post office at Strong's Battle Ground and at Fern Prairie is receiving the signatures of all the residents of those localities.

THE SMALL POX CASE AT VANCOUVER.—We learn from Vancouver that the excitement about the small pox case still continues. All possible precautions have, however, been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The sick soldier has been placed in a house about a quarter of a mile from any habitation and the other soldiers who came with him by the Orilliana have been quarantined in tents on the river bank, under guard.

The small pox excitement seems dying out, as we hear of no new cases. The population have almost universally resorted to vaccination.

CONCERT.—Miss Octavia B. Mercer will sing in this city Thursday evening next. She will be ably supported by musicians of note. She has appeared twice before a Portland audience and passed triumphantly the ordeal of the severest criticism. Her brilliant genius has dispelled all prejudice against color and caste.

RECOVERING.—We are glad to learn that Mr. Stephen Dunsmuir, who was taken suddenly ill, about a week since, is rapidly regaining his usual health. Mr. D. has a large circle of friends, who have done all they could to make him comfortable, and who will be glad to learn of his speedy recovery.

AUCTORS.—We notice the sale of L. C. Carman's household goods by J. Isaacs & Co., is fixed at 10 o'clock a. m., March 27, 1869. All should be present, as there is a chance to obtain good bargains. We regret to lose Mr. Carman from our midst. He has left, or intends to leave, for the upper country.

PORTLAND PRICES.—Apples, green, per box 75@81 25; Wheat, new, per bushel, 65@70 10; Oats, per bushel, 53@55; Ground Feed, per ton, 30 00@35 00; Bacon, per lb, 10@10 1/2; Ham, 13@14; Shoulders, 6@7; Lard, in tin, 11@11 1/2; Lard, in kegs, 9@10; Eggs, per doz, 20@22; Butter, 40@45; Beans, per cwt, 5 00@6 00; Wool, per lb, 14@18; Hay, from wagons, per ton, 17 00; Flour, per bbl, $5 00.

BOOKS.—We have received a pamphlet giving the history of the Portland Literary Association. This institution is placed upon a permanent basis by the maturing of Ludd, the Banker.

WE receive the Operand Monthly regularly. It is a home production of which the Pacific coast may well be proud.

VETERANS.—We know of three men, residents of Vancouver, James Orr, J. F. Smith, Esq., and P. H. Fox, who were formerly soldiers serving in Grants company when he was a Captain.

COURT.—The District Court will convene on the third Monday in April, Chief Justice Hewitt, presiding. The Sheriff has all the grand and petit jurors for this county summoned. A large number of cases are already docketed.

The following jurors have been summoned for the opening term of Court: GRAND JURORS: Messrs Webster, John Turner, M. B. Bowman, R. F. Lockwood, J. B. Charlton, M. B. Bebbert, and John S. Poley.

RAIN.—The gentle rain has come at last, but not in sufficient quantity to raise the rivers. A rise in the rivers would increase business, and add much to the liveliness of trade.

SOCIABLE.—The ladies of the Industrial Society of the M. E. Church, held a sociable at the residence of T. Sperry, on Wednesday evening. It was a very pleasant time.

CATHOLIC AID SOCIETY.—There was over $100 currency realized by S. J. McCormick's lecture, at Metropolitan Hall, on the night of the 17th of March.

SINGULAR.—It is said there is a certain day in June in which if it is made in a tree, the tree will die.

REWAY.—There was another team run away on Saturday. No great damage was done.

ACCIDENT.—Nicholas Fitzgerald was thrown off his horse on last Saturday, receiving serious injuries. He is limping around the city.

The Cincinnati Jews have erected a granite shaft to the memory of those of their race who fell during the late war.

SPRING.—The gardens below the city look beautifully, the peach trees are in bloom, and all Nature is putting on her vernal robes.

HAIL.—There was a hail-storm of a few minutes' duration on Wednesday.

PLAIN TRUTHS. Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills cure scrofula and old sores. Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills cure tumors and ulcers. Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills cure cancerous disease. Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills cure all skin diseases. Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills cure abscesses. Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills cure bed blood and humors.

PUNGE.—We wish delinquent subscribers would send along the cash for their subscriptions. It is as hard for a paper to be published without money as for a fish to swim without water. The prompter the money comes, the better the paper you will get. A word to the wise is sufficient. Disburse; send in an article to the paper in the shape of three dollars coin. It will meet a ready insertion—in our purse.

HO! FOR WHITE PINE.—Mr. G. W. Miller intends to go to White Pine first of April. J. W. Nichols has gone already. Mr. Samuel Marsh will soon leave for White Pine. He will go from Uniontown in the employ of John Creighton, who intends to run a freight team between Eiko and White Pine.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—Several friends of H. C. Morse in this city received photographs of scenes in Argenti, Nev., and the Central Pacific R. R. They are very interesting, in consequence of the excitement about White Pine.

ACCIDENT.—We are sorry to learn that Mrs. John Maney of this city has a very bad hand from the effect of running a needle in her wrist, while engaged about her household duties.

SICK.—Capt. Davis, on Lake River, lies in a very critical condition. He is an excellent man, and should receive the charity due to great private worth in distress by the visitation of Providence.

ESSENTIAL ARTICLES.—A gentleman in Tillamook sent to a merchant of this city for a tuning fork and dirk-knife. He stated that he wanted them right away as he was a superintendent of the Sunday School.

SOAP.—S. Robinson & Co.'s Soap still maintains the ascendancy in the estimation of the public. Everybody likes it that uses it, and its use is becoming more general every day. Try it.

DR. ELLI'S LECTURE.—The lecture delivered by this gentleman upon "The Physical Differences between Man and the Lower Animals," in Portland, on Tuesday evening last was well attended and is highly spoken of by the press.

NEW AR.—We would call attention to the Ad. of Aug. A. Schaefer. He has a splendid Mill Site in close proximity to Vancouver. Those desiring to purchase such property should not lose so good an opportunity.

POLITICAL. The Republicans of Clarke County hold their County Convention on Wednesday, the 14th of April. The call is simply signed by the Chairman of the County Committee, and the Committee recommend that all persons who will pledge themselves to support the Union Republican ticket, be allowed to participate in the primary elections. This would be called a "fraudulent call" and the pledge "a high-handed outrage" by the members of this locality—but, as there are probably no fault-finding Federal officials in Clarke who, when fairly outnumbered and beaten by the people, are ready to bolt and beat the party, nor crack-brained organizers who have determined to "rule or ruin," it may be reasonably supposed that the deliberations of the Republicans of Clarke will be united and harmonious.—Tr. Republican.

The members of the County Convention in Jefferson are unanimous for Garfield. The Convention met on the 13th, but not agreeing upon Territorial delegates, adjourned till Saturday last. We learn that there were not half a dozen votes against Garfield in all the primary meetings in the county.—B.

A private dispatch from Seattle, dated 5 p. m., Saturday evening says: "Seattle is unanimous for Garfield. Everywhere the people are moving for the 'backwoods orator' who carried California for Grant and Colfax.—B.

A "disfranchised" Flanders man writing in the latter's organ about the Tum Water primary says substantially that one dozen of the Garfield clique out-generated and out-voted fifteen or twenty "Republicans," and forced them to leave the house in disgust. The arithmetic and logic of that "disfranchised" clique are equal to any that "Spuds" ever got off, and must be the same kind by which Prosch a week ago demonstrated the certain defeat of Garfield and certain election of Flanders!—B.

The Radical primaries have in this county generally resulted in the selection of Garfield delegates. This precinct elected 17, the whole ticket, by an average majority of 28 votes. At Tumwater the Flanders men withdrew, so all the delegates are for Garfield. It is claimed that there will not be more than half a dozen Flanders delegates in the County Convention, which meets to-day.—Standard.

RAILROAD INTELLIGENCE. The following telegram was received at the Oregonian office on Thursday: WASHINGTON, March 24, 1869.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—In the Senate, Pomeroy from the Committee on Public Lands, reported with amendments a bill granting the right of way to the Midland Pacific Railroad, which passed.

Colo introduced a bill granting lands in aid of the Sacramento Irrigating and Navigation Company. Referred.

The bill to repeal the Tenure of Office act was called up and postponed.

Drake offered a substitute to the bill amending the judicial system. It is designed to devolve all the duties of Circuit Courts now in existence upon the District Courts, with the District Courts in each circuit. Without action the Senate adjourned.
