

Walla Walla Statesman.

FRIDAY EVENING, March 26, 1869.

GREEN peas and rhubarb have made their appearance in San Francisco, and are selling at fifty cents per pound.

THE democrats have re-nominated W. H. Barnum for Congress from the 4th Congressional District of Connecticut.

A FIFTY DOLLAR counterfeit greenback has been detected, in which old Benjamin Franklin has too many buttons on his vest.

SMALL POX.—A case of small pox is reported at Vancouver. The party thus afflicted is a soldier who had just arrived at that post.

THE DALLES MINT.—The corner stone of the Mint building, at the Dalles, was laid on Monday last, with appropriate ceremonies. A correspondent writes us that the laying of the corner stone was made the occasion of great rejoicing.

THE snow-heds erected over the track of the Central Pacific Railroad is 22 miles in length by 16 feet in width and 16 feet high. 40,000,000 feet of lumber was used in its construction, and it covers an area of nearly 43 acres.

ONE of the Mormon bishops who works a contract on the Pacific Railroad lately undertook to deduct tithes from the pay of his men, who are 'Gentiles.' The latter brought the bishop to terms, however, by threats of suspending him to the nearest tree.

LADIES' PAPER.—We have received several issues of the 'El Dorado,' a paper published in San Francisco, and managed and edited by ladies. The 'El Dorado' advocates female suffrage, and generally goes in strong for what is known as women's rights.

SIMEON WALKERS, charged with the murder of J. L. Bacon, has been tried at Idaho City, and convicted of murder in the first degree. The trial occupied four days, and throughout the whole time, according to the 'World,' the prisoner maintained wonderful composure.

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY FOR MARCH, like all its predecessors, contains a large amount of reading matter of peculiar interest to residents on the Pacific coast. Persons who desire to secure this best of the monthlies, should send their orders to A. Rowan & Co., publisher, San Francisco.

MORE SPUNKY THAN WISE.—The Oakland Transcript relates that the wife of one of the candidates for a municipal office in that burg, said to her husband that if he did not spend $10,000 and take every shingle off the house to be elected, she did not want to stop with him any more. That's the sort of a wife for a politician to be to.

INDICTED.—Dr. McAlce, of Salem, Oregon, has been indicted on the charge of murdering his wife. Suspicion grew out of the fact, that his wife died very suddenly, and that within a few weeks after her death he took a second wife. The evidence of poisoning is said to be conclusive, and the general opinion is that the Dr. will have to swing for his crime.

H. L. JUDELL, the man who was employed to edit Anderson Cox's paper, has been committed to jail at the Dalles, on the charge of horse stealing. Judell is one of the 'trouly loil,' and hence regards stealing as perfectly legitimate. Should he be convicted of the crime, Governor Woods will stand ready to grant him a free pardon. The idea of a loyal cuss pining away in the penitentiary is not to be tolerated.

MR. JENCKES, a member of Congress from Rhode Island, lectured a few days ago in New York, on the Civil Service bill. Among other things he stated that owing to the frauds and peculations of the radical office-holders—all, of course, truly loyal—more than $100,000,000 have been diverted during the past year, from the vaults of the Treasury into the pockets of their confederates. Mr. Jenckes said that if the revenue were honestly collected the whole public debt would be paid, so soon as it matures; but it is not collected and cannot be, because the larger portion is annually stolen. By whom? Not the rebels—nor the copperheads—but by the representatives of radicalism itself—the chosen and elected officials. That is right—let us have the truth Mr. Jenckes! Your statement cannot be whisked away as a 'treble lie'—a 'copperhead slander.'

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.—We cannot too strongly impress upon the members of the Democratic County Convention, to meet to-morrow, the importance of selecting good men to represent the county in the Territorial Convention. Hitherto we have suffered in the estimation of our fellow-citizens in other parts of the Territory, by having men to represent us, who had little character at home, and still less abroad. The time for this has gone by, and with the general improvement it is proper that we should adopt a higher standard in selecting those who are to represent us in nominating conventions. The high character of the gentlemen who compose the County Convention gives assurance that only men of character and respectability will be selected to represent the county in the Territorial Convention. By pursuing this course Walla Walla county will secure a full recognition of her just claims, and if some one of her citizens fails to secure the nomination it will be for the reason that the interests of the party and Territory forbid.

REFUSING TO TRUST THE PEOPLE.—The proposed amendment to the Constitution, giving the right of suffrage, without regard to race, color, or previous condition, has already been ratified by the States of Kansas and Nevada. When this amendment was up before the Senate, Mr. Dixon, of Connecticut, proposed that it should be ratified or rejected by Conventions of the people of the States, specially chosen for that purpose, instead of by the present Legislatures, which were elected before the amendment was ever proposed, but this was voted down without a wink or a word. How these professors of radicalism do love and confide in the people! None prate more offensively of being the sole servants and representatives of the people, will, and none are more afraid to trust the people when it comes to the case in hand. The refusal to adopt Mr. Dixon's very proper and really democratic provision, needs no more comment than it carries on its simple record. It is an open and bold denial of the people's prerogative of framing and amending the organic law under which they live. It is a deliberate insult to popular sovereignty. It shows the unmistakable determination of this party in power to take from the hands of the people what rights they still hold, and absorb them into that gigantic and dangerous scheme of centralization which, it may cost a revolution to break up. Senator Morton's provision accompanies the Amendment, that Presidential electors shall be chosen by the votes of those qualified to vote for representatives to Congress, and that Congress shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which such electors shall be chosen. If this machinery can be made to work, the radical party evidently counts on retaining power until its last member has quit earthly existence.

WHITE PINE.—A returned White Pinner has been at Walla Walla over a week. He reports the mines as greatly overrated, and states that hundreds who are now there would get away if they had the means. Not one man in fifty can obtain employment, and all the money in the country was taken there, the mines as yet not having yielded anything worth speaking of. The new discoveries on Moose Creek, Perry Creek, and other localities nearer home, offer infinitely greater inducements to working men. Such is the opinion of a man who has been to White Pine, and has seen the elephant. Another party writing from White Pine says, "I have been here ten days, and am thoroughly disgusted with the place. In my opinion, the country is a blank, although others pronounce it good. The Eberhart mine, which occasioned all the excitement, is daily growing poorer. Thousands of claims have been taken up and money expended on them, but I doubt whether they will ever get a cent back. Thousands of idle men are already here, and yet the cry is 'still they come!' The main business of the country is drinking whisky, and as a consequence saloon keepers flourish. Many men arrive here 'flat broke,' and after remaining a few days, finding nothing to do, are obliged to beg their way out. To add to the general distress, small-pox prevails to an alarming extent, and already scores have died from this disease. After surveying this picture, if you think White Pine a desirable place come on! These statements are given as entirely reliable, and serve to show that the White Pine cloud has anything but a 'silver lining.'

APPOINTMENT OF AN EX REBEL.—A notable appointment of the President is that of James Longstreet to be Surveyor of the Port of New Orleans. He was a somewhat famous General in the rebel army, but some year or two since frankly and fully accepted the situation as declared by Congress. It is said that considerable opposition to his appointment has been developed among Congressmen. If Congress is honest in its reconstruction policy, and really desires to establish a union of amity and good feeling, we cannot see why it should object to the appointment of such men as Longstreet. If repentant and reconstructed rebels are not to be trusted and encouraged, there can be no such thing as perfect union in this country. The Union would have been less restored long ago if Congress had been less harsh in its treatment of the people of the South. From the objections urged against Longstreet we infer that the objectors wish all the offices in the South to be filled by Northern carpet baggers and negroes.

TENURE OF OFFICE.—The repeal of the T. nure of Office Act which was passed to tie the hands of President Johnson, is the exciting bill in the U. S. Senate. There is no doubt but that the law violates the spirit of the Constitution and is detrimental to the administration of the Government. It was passed in a mean partisan spirit, not for the public good. It is distasteful to Grant, though he indorsed it when it applied to Johnson. The rads in the House seeking favors of the administration repealed the law with a rush. But the Senate holds on to the power the act confers upon it. The rads in that body do not fully trust the male rider, hence it is extremely doubtful whether the repeal will be effected. Should the Senate persist in refusal to repeal, more or less 'unpleasantness' will result, all of which would be in the interest of the people to the discomfort of the Jacobins.

JAS. GRAHAM, formerly of Walla Walla, but more recently of Silver City, has gone to White Pine.

DULL TIMES.—This is not a very brisk season of the year for mercantile trade. The people are generally clothed and shod sufficient of the necessary apparel to last up to the spring change in the weather. Hence you hear the remark that business is dull. Our friends should consult the STATESMAN'S advertising columns when they wish to purchase anything. For it is the liberal business men who invite you to give his house a call, that succeeds and does justice to his customers. The fact of his advertisement appearing is evidence of enterprise and life. Such business men always deal frankly, promptly and at bargain, one price for all, and little ceremony. Their extensive trade enables them to prosper at fair rates of profit. They will sell $50 or $100 worth of goods, while the skin-flint who does business "under a bushel," remains stationary, wearing out the seat of his breeches waiting for a customer, and should a straggler happen to come in near the close of the idle day, he attempts to make up for the lack of business by charging double price. We know this to be literally true. And a little intelligent reflection upon the subject will convince any one of the plausibility of the assertion. We refer with pride to the character and standing of the business firms whose advertisements appear in the STATESMAN, and recommend the public to deal with them, as we believe it to be to their advantage to do so. We do not deem it necessary to refer to and name firms individually, but request the reader to look over our advertising columns. We can, without reserve, recommend each and all. This is saying a good deal, and more than the price of advertising would induce us to write, did we not know whereof we speak. We lay it down as a principle that will hold good in nine cases out of ten, that the firm who cannot afford to advertise does too small a business to live upon the legal and ordinary profits, hence it must take more as opportunity offers, else go under.

MUST DIE.—The New York Evening Post, (radical) says that "if the republican party is to live, it must be the party of economy, the party of equal taxation, the party of fair play." If these are the only conditions upon which it can live, says the New Hampshire Patriot, it will surely die. The leopard cannot change his spots nor the Ethiopian his skin; and equally impossible is it for radicalism to change its whole nature, and live. To expect it to practice economy is folly. Its idea of equal taxation is to tax the laboring class and exempt the wealth of the landholders from taxation; and it manifests fair play by giving the seats for conservative members of Congress, elected by sweeping majorities, to their radical constituents.

RADICAL POLICY IN REGARD TO THE SOUTH.—The developments in Washington are that the radicals have commenced the prosecution of a new policy with regard to the South. Coercion, carpet-bagging and negro suffrage having failed to establish a durable State government in the South, an extension of sealawg influence is resolved upon. Southerners who will cooperate with Grant's Administration are to have all disabilities removed, given large shares in the railroad and other robberies now going on, and then be elevated to a high office, while those who will not are to be subject to persecution and proscription.

BUZZING.—Just at this time the Delegateship is the all-absorbing theme, and to hear the "small fry" politicians talk it would seem that any aspirant who by fair means or foul manages to "jump" the democratic nomination is sure of an election to Congress. These witless tyros in politics forget that in a period of ten years the Territory has been carried on but a single occasion by the democracy, and then partially owing to the fact that the republicans had placed a crazy parson in nomination as their candidate. Let wise counsels prevail, and we are confident the Territory can be carried for the democracy, but lacking cool, steady men at the helm, disaster is to be apprehended. Thus understanding the danger, let all true democrats labor for union and harmony, and frown down the counsels of the rash and indiscreet.

TRICKERY may for the moment win, but in the end those who resort to double-dealing are sure to go under. We commend this fact to the attention of a brace of individuals who, having more impudence than brains, seek to figure prominently in local politics.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Our town has narrowly escaped a serious disaster. On last Monday morning, flames of fire were discovered issuing from the roof of the War Eagle Hotel, which were promptly and with difficulty extinguished by parties who were fortunately present at the time, and who observed the fire before it had made much progress. It originated from the stove pipe, which was imperfectly guarded, and this ought to serve as a warning to others whose houses are graced with imperfect flues and pipes. This town is perfectly at the mercy of the devouring element, and let a fire once get a fair start and every vestige of it will be laid in ashes in a few hours. As there is no other remedy in case of fire citizens ought at least guard well their stove pipes.—Owyhee Avalanche.

THE tramp Jacobins have manifested their hatred of foreigners and the democratic party in a most contemptible manner. They have passed through the House an Act prohibiting the State Courts of New York to naturalize. This is because the city votes democratic. They know it will be impossible for the Federal Courts, unless they are constantly in session and devote all their time to that one business, to attend to all the applicants for citizenship in that vast and crowded hive of humanity. Such a law, then, is a practical denial of citizenship to a large number of European emigrants.—Examiner.

CRANE & DRAGON.—An assessment of $12 per share was levied upon the capital stock of the above Gold and Silver Mining Company, payable on the 10th inst., at Portland. This mine is located on War Eagle Mountain, near the Golden Chariot. It was formerly worked by the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, and abandoned for some cause. There is a shaft sunk on the mine 200 feet deep, and it is said to have produced some very rich ore. The prospects are that work will be resumed this spring.—Owyhee Avalanche.

Walla Walla Road.

WALLULA, March 22, 1869. EDITOR STATESMAN:—The time is coming, and now is, when the road from Wallula to Walla Walla should be completed, but such, I am sorry to say, is not the case, although we have had lovely weather for two months past for working on the roads. Not a tick has been struck this year, and the business of 1869 has opened. Is it possible that we are never to have a good road from the Columbia River to Walla Walla city? Nine years experience has taught me that at the rate we have progressed thus far, we may safely predict that some time about the year 1875 we may realize this fond hope. Why it is that this great thoroughfare has been so shamefully neglected, I cannot conceive. It is the main artery of the Walla Walla Valley. It is a road in which all the people of Walla Walla Valley are alike interested. I may say, in fact, that people living in and around Walla Walla city—merchants and farmers, are more interested in this being a good wagon road, than the people living along the proposed improvement. The road is good enough for their simple wants, but it is not, in its present condition, such a road as the commerce of the Valley demands and actually needs. Good improvements have been made over Mill Creek and Dry Creek, but the road in the immediate vicinity of each of these bridges is far from what it should be. The approach to the Mill Creek bridge from the west, and that of Dry Creek bridge from the east, wants fixing badly, and but very little work will do it. The improvement made last fall by Frank Leobr, Road Supervisor, at the east end of the Pambrun grade, is a good one as far as it goes, but it is not finished. The other dugway, from Grant Canyon west, as reported on by the road viewers, and adopted by the County Commissioners, has not been touched, for what reason I cannot tell. I see by the reports of the proceedings of last meeting of the County Commissioners that new roads have been ordered opened, and new ones proposed; this being the case, it don't look like the delay on the Wallula road was caused by lack of funds, but by the lack of an advocate in or before the Commissioners. The fact is, we have never had a County Commissioner from this end of the county; that may, in a certain measure, account for lack of road improvements in this section. The Walla Walla and Wallula wagon road is just as nature laid it out—so far as the Commissioners are concerned—with the exception of the improvements on Mill Creek and Dry Creek, and the short dugway made by Leobr last fall. Both the bridges over the Touchet were built by private individuals. I supposed we had no legislation on the road tax that we would have a good road made by this time, and then relieve the people of this tax, but I see now that it will take concentrated legislation to bring it.

BOISE BASIN.—Items from the World of the 11th: From Mr. Mesick, who has worked in the Elk Horn mine and mill for several years, we learn that the Company have already about 400 tons of good ore out of the ledge this winter. The mill will commence crushing in a week or two. The quantity of snow on the mountain about the mill is not so large as was promised from weather indications a month ago, but yet good heads of water will be supplied to the ditches over on that side of the Basin for a fair season of mining.

Warm, melting weather continues at day-time, with slight frosts at night. Joseph Guinn, a light colored old man who has lived here for several years, died last Sunday evening, and his remains were respectfully interred by his colored brethren about here. By a letter shown to us, written by his wife on January 8th, we learn he was from Leavenworth City, Kansas. He was 65 years of age.

On last Friday night, while the owners were over in the city, the cabin of Dan Calahan and Dan Buckley, on Buena Vista Bar, was entered, and robbed of $80 in dust which Calahan and Buckley had that day washed out from a week's work of rocking in their claim. A few nights before, the cabin of P. Donahue, up Elk creek, was likewise broken into, his bedding cut into shreds, and his provisions taken away.

MINING DIFFICULTY.—The rich placers of Calaveras Flat appear at present to be a huge bone of contention. Work is suspended and the vicinity is in a state of siege. We have not visited the seat of war, but have been informed that fortifications are erected and strongly garrisoned; and it is extremely unhealthy to be lying around there loose. A difference of opinion as to who has the best title, was the origin of the difficulty. The Henry Brothers, who have worked the claims for two or three seasons, are in possession, which, as the proverb goes, is 'nine points.' Messrs. Curlew, Brown, Woodward and others contend that the Henrys have not complied with the mining laws, and have, therefore, forfeited their tenure. We know nothing of the merits of the matter, or which party has the better right, but we do know that there has been a great deal of powder consumed and very little execution done as yet. Several shots have been fired in the vicinity of the fortifications, and about 10 o'clock Monday night, Slaughter-house Gulch was made to reverberate with the bang and clatter of small arms, which we learn was altogether a one-sided affair, the shotists having been only experimenting with the evening breeze. Things continue to wear a belligerent aspect, and the Oregoner's service may yet be required.—Owyhee Avalanche.

An English steamer at New York brought thirty Jersey cows; the cost of the herd was $9,000. The Jersey is the fancy cow—a nice little animal. It has all its value, as do all cows, from care in breeding and care in keeping. In a mild climate, with rich pastures, and attention that exceeds what half the children of the world have, it is one of the best and most valuable of animals.

NORTH CAROLINA negroes have the superstition that by carrying a portion of pulverized human bones about their person they can commit any crime with impunity. That is what those five negroes were after who were recently lynched for violating a grave.

The latest from Tennessee is a fight between two parties of negroes, one determined to lynch a poor fellow, and the other swearing that he should go free. The lynchers would have been successful but for the breaking of the rope.

The remains of Mrs. Surratt were on Tuesday taken to Mount Oliver Cemetery, about two miles northeast of Washington, and placed in a vault. They had been transferred from the rough pine box in which they were deposited by government authorities, and placed in a walnut coffin which was enclosed in a pine box. The remains were in a rather good state of preservation, the dress, gaiters and other articles of apparel being entirely whole. The workmen lifted the body from the box on three spades and laid it in the coffin entire, with the exception of the head, which had become disconnected from the body. When the carriage had arrived, the small circle of friends repaired to the little chapel in the cemetery where stood the coffin. Rev. Father Walter, assisted by Father Kane, performed the funeral service of the Catholic Church, after which half a dozen of the workmen employed at the Cemetery acted as pallbearers and carried the coffin to the extreme northeast corner of the grounds, where the grave had already been prepared. The mourners followed, some riding and some walking. The Cemetery Board had presented to Miss Annie Surratt an entire lot, in the vicinity of the grave of the late Col. J. P. Garasche. When the mourners were assembled around the grave Fathers Walter and Kane read the burial service, and the remains were lowered into the grave. The sad party remained until the earth had been hanked up over the grave, after which a bouquet of lasting flowers, made in the form of a cross, was laid upon the mound. Miss Surratt was deeply affected.—Washington Chronicle.

Mrs. JOHNSON, a confirmed invalid, has never appeared in society in Washington. Her very existence is a myth to almost every one. She was last seen at a party given to her grandchildren. She was seated in one of the republican Court chairs, a dainty affair of satin and ebony. She did not raise when the children, or older guests, were presented to her; she simply said, "My dears I am an invalid," and her sad, pale face and sunken eyes fully proved the expression. Mrs. Johnson looks much older than the President, and her age does exceed his by a few swings of the scythe of Time. She was never beautiful, but an observer would say contemplating her, "A noble woman—God's first, best gift to man. None but a wise and good mother could have reared such daughters as Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Stover."—Washington Correspondence.

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR, in reply to a resolution of the Senate, says the aggregate quantity of lands certified under existing laws for railroads and wagon roads to states, territories and corporations up to January 30 1867, is 21,561,000 acres; for canals, nearly 4,500,000 acres. The quantity certified to the following named states since that date is as follows: Minnesota, for railroads, 670,000 acres; California, railroads, 26,000 acres; Wisconsin, wagon roads 72,000 acres; Oregon, wagon roads, 19,000 acres; Michigan, canals, 280,000; making a grand total of 27,000,000 acres.

It is supposed by learned theologians, such as Petrus Camper, that Adam entered the Garden of Eden in the Spring. However that may be, it is certain he came out in the Fall.

S. H. McCORMACK is still in arrears to this office. We fear we shall have to write the word "talk" after his name.

District Judge.—It is rumored that H. Parker is likely to receive the appointment of U. S. District Judge for the First Judicial District.

LARGE FUNERAL.—An unusually large funeral procession attended the remains of Capt. P. B. Johnson's son to their final resting place, on Sunday last.

COMING BACK.—A private note from Hon. Frank Henry announces the intention of that gentleman to return to Walla Walla, where he proposes to make his permanent home.

PAY UP.—Persons knowing themselves indebted to the STATESMAN office, are requested to pay up. This notice is more especially intended for those who are over two years in arrears.

No STEAMER.—The low stage of water continues to prevent the steamers ascending the river as far as Walla. Several trips have been made to Emmitt Landing, where the boats discharge their cargoes.

FOR WHITE PINE.—A note from Hon. H. A. Gehr brings the announcement that our friend has left for White Pine, in search of a fortune. We trust that he will reap an abundant harvest of "filthy lucre."

BROOD STOCK.—Read the advertisement of "Bullfounder," the finest trotting horse ever brought to this Valley. This is a chance for owners of good brood mares to improve the character of their stock.

T. S. MARSHALL, who for several months has been clerk at the "Oriental Hotel," is about to leave Walla Walla for the purpose of trying his luck in the mines. Mr. M. has many friends who wish him abundant success.

FOR GARFIELD.—The radical convention of Thurston county elected three delegates to the Clatsop Convention, and instructed them to vote for Garfield. It looks as though the "great war" has the inside of the track.

SAW MILL.—Messrs. Drumheller, Reynolds and Johnson, have bought the "Star Saw Mill," and are now engaged in removing the same to this Valley, where they propose to engage in the business of manufacturing lumber.

MOOSE CREEK MINES.—In the early part of the week we noticed quite a large pack train fitting out for the Moose Creek mines. The train was owned by miners, who took with them provisions, tools, etc., to last them the summer.

AT HOME.—Dr. D. S. Baker, after an absence of several weeks in the Willamette Valley, is again at home, and proposes at once to go into training for the Congressional race. In the fight between Garfield and Baker, most persons will wish success to the ex-pull maker.

FURNITURE.—Families about refitting their homes will find an excellent stock of furniture, and everything in the house furnishing line at the store of Messrs. Everts & Able, at the upper end of Main street, which they sell at lower figures than the same articles can be laid down for from below.

Col. W. H. JOHNSON, Paymaster U. S. A., passed through Walla Walla, in the early part of the week, on his return from Fort Lupton, whither he has been to pay off the troops stationed at that post. Col. J. is an old newspaper man, and as a matter of course is an efficient, courteous officer.

BLOOD MARKS.—Mr. W. A. Bigham, the owner of some of the finest stock in Walla Walla Valley, has just returned from below with a herd of 75 blood mares, the best animals he could obtain. What with the enterprise of Mr. Bigham and Dr. Mack, Walla Walla promises in a few years to turn out a very superior breed of horses.

NEW INVENTION.—Mr. Deunshitt, the watch maker, has invented a machine designed for cleaning lamp chimneys, which will certainly prove a great convenience in every household. It is gotten up on the principle of a glove-stretcher, and does the work well. Dr. F. W. Coleman, the druggist, has them for sale.

NAVIGATION RESUMED.—One of the U. S. N. Company's boats has succeeded in reaching the landing at Walla. This was on Thursday last and so we have the pleasure to announce that after a long intermission, navigation is resumed. This will be good news for business men, packers, teamsters and all who are interested in the trade of the upper country.

SHORT TERM.—In accordance with the provisions of the law passed by Congress, the county officials elected at the coming June election will hold but one year. The law, as we understand it, provides that the general election shall be held on the first Monday June, 1870, and every second year thereafter. The parties who are clamoring so furiously after these offices will see by this that the game is scarcely worth the powder.

WALLA WALLA PRECINCT.—Messrs. J. Drumheller, T. G. Lee, D. Stewart, H. Howard, M. A. Evans, Jos. Helmuth, F. Stine, A. Kyger, Thomas Tierney, and J. F. Abbott, are the delegates from Walla Walla precinct to the Democratic County Convention. These gentlemen were elected by a majority of about two to one over what was known as the Mix Lister ticket. The names of the delegates from the different precincts in the county we have been unable to obtain.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Democratic County Convention meets at the Court House, on tomorrow, (Saturday.) In several of the precincts as we are informed, no election was held, and but little interest was taken in the choice of delegates. In Walla Walla precinct less than two hundred votes were polled, and in the county precincts even less interest was manifested. By a little sharp practice the election of a number of delegates in favor of a candidate who was never named before the people was secured, but it is scarcely to be supposed that trickery like this will win.

A FROVING OLD SCOUNDREL.—Brownlow, says the Sacramento Reporter, the ancient secessionist, but at present one of the most loyal of the loyal, is possessed of a very forgiving spirit. He pardoned thirty convicts out of the Tennessee Penitentiary during the month of January, and over three hundred during the past year.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to March 26th.

(COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.)

CONGRESSIONAL.

Washington, March 18.—In the Senate, Raussey reported back the bill authorizing the American and French Atlantic Cable Company to take any route for laying the cable to Europe.

Conkling introduced a bill to regulate naturalization. Kellogg introduced a bill to provide for the construction of the thirty-second parallel railroad line to the Pacific. It grants twenty sections per mile on each side of the road and guarantees the interest on $32,000 in bonds per mile. Referred to the Committee on Pacific Railroads.

The supplemental national currency bill was discussed until the expiration of the morning hour, when the bill to repeal the tenure-of-office act came up.

Morton resumed his argument in favor of repeal. Davis followed, favoring unconditional repeal. Brownlow obtained the floor, but being too feeble to read his remarks, they were read by the Secretary. He said the tenure-of-office act was long needed as a check upon the Executive, which ought on no account to be yielded up. He was therefore opposed to the repeal of the law, though willing it should be modified as follows:

Scott took the floor, but gave way for a motion to adjourn. Trumbull said he would press the Senate to a vote before it adjourned to-morrow.

In the House, Hooper, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill to amend the whisky and tobacco tax. It was order printed, and recommitted.

Farnsworth, from the committee on Reconstruction, reported a substitute for the Senate joint resolution, extending the time for removals of civil officers in Virginia and Texas.

Burke reported the substitute, as having the effect to re-habilitate disqualified officers. Maynard inquired whether the resolution was republican or democratic.

Farnsworth replied that it was labelled a republican measure. The joint resolution for the relief of Blanton Duncan was debated and amended so as to provide that Duncan shall release all claim for rent for the use of his property. It then passed.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Washington, March 18.—The President has signed the bill to strengthen the public credit, this being the first bill he has signed.

William A. Richardson, of Boston, has accepted the appointment of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. The Reconstruction Committee have agreed to report the Senate bill extending the time for the removal of ineligible civil officers in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas.

The rush of office seekers to-day on Secretary Boutwell is the greatest since his appointment. Chicago, March 18.—A Washington special says the Senate Committee has decided to report Longstreet's nomination to the Senate without recommendation.

The House Military Committee have agreed to report a bill abolishing the office of chief of staff to the General of the Army General Sherman stating that he does not need the office; also prohibiting the assignment of retired officers to duty under full pay.

The Post's special says the House Committee on Elections reported in favor of Covode, who was invited to a seat, thus ending the contest. Washington, March 18.—It has transpired that arms and ammunition have been sent from New York, to be transferred for the use of the Cuban Revolution. The Administration don't appear to be doing anything to stop these movements.

The Supreme Court to-day decided not to render a decision at this term on the constitutionality of the greenback issue. Washington, March 19.—The reports that Gen. Dana is to be Collector of the Port of San Francisco is unfounded.

The President is withholding action on the Pacific appointments for the repeal of the tenure-of-office bill. Gen. Dana, of the Russian Ice Company, protests against the Senate bill to protect Alaska fur seals which Hatchinson & Kohl are strenuously urging.

Chicago, March 19.—The Republican's special says it is understood that the majority of the Senate committee are opposed to Longstreet's confirmation, not specially because Longstreet was a leading rebel, but on the ground that there are many loyal men who ought to have the preference in such appointments. The committee, however, reported back the nomination without recommendation.

The same special says the next statement of the public debt will show the precise condition of the treasury books at the close of business on the 31st inst., instead of being withheld for several days to await returns from New York.

The Tribune's special thinks the repeal of the tenure-of-office law is probable, though the movement has lost strength by the manner in which the repeal party attempted to force things. At the utmost a majority is expected by the friends of repeal of four or five.

Land grant bills have already been proposed for this session, which call for 80,000,000 acres, besides guarantees of bonds. The rush for foreign appointments exceeds anything ever before known. As an example, there are over one hundred applicants for the Consulship to Frankfurt.

NEW YORK NEWS.

New York, March 19.—A small boat containing 12 boxes of nitro glycerine was discovered under the wharf at the foot of White Hall street yesterday, enough to blow that part of the city and Brooklyn to atoms. The stuff was taken beyond the city limits by the police.

A Havana letter says that the steamer Henry Burden, which left Jacksonville, Florida, with arms for the Cuban insurgents, was compelled to put in to one of the Bahama Islands by an accident to her machinery. She discharged her cargo into two schooners, one of which ran the blockade, the other was captured by a Spanish frigate.

WALTHAM WATCHES!

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, it is to decide the question as to the real value of these time keepers.

More than 400,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices than ever before. Waltham watches are the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every country in the world, only those who are really adopted which were tested by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the jewels in the case of a fall, is original with the American Watch Company, and having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps protecting the movement from dust, and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public.

To CALIFORNIA and other living in portions of the United States where watches are scarce do not attempt to purchase watches with the above mentioned improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch bearing the trade mark of Waltham is guaranteed to be a thoroughly reliable timekeeper.

To prevent imposition, buyers should invariably demand a certificate of genuineness.

The trade supplied by Messrs. E. B. Gray & Co., San Francisco, Cal., and generally for sale at retail by all respectable dealers.

PAIN KILLER.

At this season, when coughs and colds are so prevalent, an efficient remedy, and one easily obtained, is "Ferry's Great Peppermint Cure." It is a new, non-toxic, remedy, by unknown agents, but has stood the test of over twenty years, and those who use this article, internally or externally, will connect with its grateful recollections of its worthy inventor, "Hasting's" Chronicle, C. W.

"PAIN KILLER." The testimonials begin to the effect of this valuable medicine are sufficient to warrant its introduction every where. One or two bottles are not sufficient to be without a bottle of it for a single hour. In flesh wounds, sores, pains, sore throats, etc., it is the most effective remedy.

It is a safe and reliable remedy for a very long time, and its low price places it within the reach of all.—St. John News.

We are glad to learn that the "Pain Killer" is having a large sale in our city. We have every reason to believe it to be an almost never failing cure for all ailments, and that no family should be without.—Hastings' Chronicle, C. W.

THE GRECIAN BEND.

Let's have the old bend, and not have the new; Let's have the bend that our grandmothers knew; Over the washstand and over the chair;

Let's have the old bend instead of the new; Let's have the old hearts, so faithful and true! Away with all fashions that lower and degrade!

Outwitting His Neighbors.

Not a great while ago, an Irishman was employed in a village, where he was well known, to dig a well, pro bono publico.

The contract was made that he was to be paid a certain sum per foot, and warrant a free supply of water.

At it he went with a will, and his daily progress was intently watched by interested parties.

Early and late he delved away faithfully deep down in the earth, full of confidence in the speedy completion of his labors.

He had reached the depth of about twenty-five feet, and soon to 'strike water.'

Early one morning Pat repaired to the scene of his labor, and horrible to relate, it was caved in, and was very nearly full.

He gazed with rueful visage upon the wreck, and thought of the additional labor the accident would cause him.

After a moment's reflection, he looked anxiously around, and saw that no one was stirring; then, quickly divesting himself of hat and coat, he carefully hung them on the windlass, and speedily made tracks for a neighboring eminence which overlooked the village.

Here, hiding amid the undergrowth, he quietly awaited for the progress of events.

As the morning wore on, the inhabitants began to arouse and stir about.

Several were attracted to the well, thinking that, as Pat's hat and coat were there, he was, of course, below at work.

Soon the alarm was raised that the well had caved in, and that Pat was in it.

The crowd collected, and stood horrified at the fate of poor Pat.

A brief consultation was held, and spades and other implements were brought with which to dig out the unfortunate man.

To work they went with a will. When one set became weary with unusual labor, a dozen other ready hands grasped the implements and dug lustily.

Pat quietly looked on from his retreat on the eminence, while the whole village stood round the well and watched, with breathless suspense, the work going bravely on.

As the diggers approached the bottom, the excitement of the bystanders grew intense, and they collected as near as safety would admit, gazing fearfully down the well.

With great precaution the dirt was dug away, and when the bottom was at length reached, no Pat was to be found.

The crowd, before so anxious, gradually relaxed into a broad grin, which broke forth in uproarious merriment, when the veritable Pat walked up, with a smiling countenance, and addressed the crestfallen diggers, who now stood weary, and soiled with their labor.

'Be jabbers, gentlemen, and it's Pat Fagan sure that is much obliged to ye for doin' of that nice little job of work.'

The fact can be better imagined than described, as the most active of the young men slunk off; several low breathed mutterings broke forth that sounded very much like sold.

Through the kindly aid of his fellowtownsfolk, Pat soon finished the well, and it remains among the monuments of his genius to this day.

ENCOURAGE THE YOUNG.—If a young man deserves praise, be sure to give it to him, else you not only run a chance of driving him from the right road by want of encouragement, but deprive yourself of the happiest privilege you will ever have of rewarding his labor.

For it is only the young who can receive much reward from men's praise; the old, when they are great, get too far beyond and above what you may think of them.

You may urge them with sympathy and surround them with acclamation, but they will doubt your pleasure and despise your praise.

You might have cheered them in their race through the asphodel meadows of their youth; you might have brought the proud, bright scarlet to their faces, if you had cried but once, 'Well done!' as they dashed up the first goal of their early ambition.

But now their pleasure is in memory, and their ambition in heaven. They can be kind to you, you can never more be kind to them.

SMALL VS. LARGE FARMS.—Colman's Rural World, of St. Louis, in discussing Small vs. Large Farms, says: Our landed estates are too large—that is, a great many of them—for the force employed upon them; and hence, the constant trouble, failure and dissatisfaction, of their owners.

Some men have a perfect mania, not only for land, but for labor; they drudge and toil; they dig and delve, making all the family labor as hard as their horses and mules; and some day they lay down never to rise on earth, and those that come after them, not appreciating labor like their sires, spend what has been accumulated; or, if they themselves are blessed with iron frames and constitutions, those for whose welfare and interest they are left to tend the weary round of life alone.

'Better is a little and contentment therewith.'

TAKE pleasure in business and it becomes a recreation.

A QUEER BIGAMY CASE.—Mr. August Rechter is being tried in Saline county, Kansas, for bigamy.

The most interesting part of the story is that the second marriage was suggested by the first wife! Seeing that she was destined to die childless, and desiring that one of the firm should be represented in posterity, she advised her liege lord to try another helpmeet, and as Barkis was willing, and the other woman was right there, the matter was soon settled to the satisfaction of all concerned.

But now just as the prospects of the affair began to appear quite flattering, and all parties are in high hopes that the transaction is about to culminate in the most complete success, the officers of the law step in with their injunction, and propose to put a stop to further proceedings.

A HUNDRED years ago fast men used to drink bumpers to the health of a lady out of her shoe. The custom has fallen into disuse; but a correspondent of a London paper says that less than twenty years ago he was present at a dinner of Irish squire, when the health of a beautiful girl, whose feet were as pretty as her face, was drunk in champagne from one of her satin shoes, which an admirer of the lady had contrived to obtain possession of.

TEST FOR WINE.—According to a German chemist, a very simple test to determine whether wine has been colored artificially or not, is furnished by adding powdered superoxide of manganese to the suspected liquor, shaking them together for a quarter of an hour, and then filtering. If the liquid be then light colored and transparent, the color is natural; if darkened, the contrary is the case.

SINCE the Patent Office was first established its business has had a rapid growth in amount and in importance. In 1886 eight or ten persons were enough to transact all its business. Now between three and four hundred are required.

A YOUNG boy, about starting down to New Orleans, proposed to purchase a life-preserver. 'Oh, you'll not want it,' suggested the clerk; 'bags of wind don't sink.'

TAYLOR & CO., Bankers, No. 16 Wall street, N. Y.

French Medical Office.

DR. JULIEN PERRAULT, Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Hospitaller Society of San Francisco.

Dr. Perrault has pleasure in informing patients and others seeking medical advice, that he can be consulted daily at his office, Army 311 building, North-East corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. Rooms No. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

Dr. Perrault's studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injudicious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, &c., have their source in cause, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit lasted long afterwards: patients laboring under this condition will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urinary organs on going to stool or making water, Intellectual Faculties are weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even reading, writing or the society of friends, &c. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and the sight and hearing are weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and itching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediately to Dr. Perrault, either in person, or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emission and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Bubo Ulcers, Chancres, Eruptions, &c., will be treated anatomically, and in six to eight weeks entirely removed from the system.
