

Reconstruction and the Elective Franchise.

The question which at the present time seems to be engaging the attention of the Union party, more than any other in the political calendar, is the one relating to negro suffrage. It is claimed that a considerable majority of the members who will occupy seats in the next Congress, and who were elected by the Union party, are in favor of extending the right of suffrage to the Negroes, and will probably succeed in the legislation of next session to carry this measure through. The States, it is true, have the right to regulate this matter and determine what the qualifications of an elector shall be, but the Constitutions of nearly all the Southern States, in express terms, do not disqualify the negro from voting, and the presumption is that the negroes will be allowed to vote at least in those States whose Constitutions do not expressly forbid it. The Abolitionists contend that the Union party cannot perpetuate its power without extending the right of suffrage to the emancipated negroes of the South, and with them, the perpetuation of power towers above every other consideration, country and liberty are insignificant things in comparison. The negro vote is not wholly dependent upon to carry the Southern States for the Union party, for there are besides, a small part of the white population that will vote with any party which disturbs the Government patronage. Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, the present Executive of that State, was elected it is claimed by receiving about four hundred votes. The votes that elected him are supposed to have been cast by loyal men. It is claimed that these loyal men in the Southern States, no matter how small the number may be, should control the State governments and be protected in that control by the military power of the General Government, if that should become necessary. But, in order to protect this sprinkling of loyalty in the South, without the aid of such large standing armies as it would inevitably take to keep the large and disaffected majority of whites in subjection, it is proposed to enfranchise the negroes who are certain to vote with and for the loyal minority. The execution of this plan of reconstruction it may well be supposed, would convert the southern portion of this great republic into a perfect pandemonium, sickening to contemplate and revolting to the spirit of democratic institutions. But there are only two modes of procedure that would perpetuate the power of the Union party, and one mode is to control the Southern States by military power, and the other is to give the blacks the right of citizenship. The latter is the policy which is most likely to be carried out, as it promises the longest lease of power and it is thought would be less expensive. To keep a standing army of from two to four hundred thousand men to hold the South in subjection, would be a luxury that this government, now on the verge of bankruptcy, could not stand. But the other luxury of having the government conducted upon pure African principles, involves no outlay or drain upon the national treasury, and besides the felicity of the thing is more in consonance with abolition ideas of republican government. We are speaking only of the manner in which the government can bind up the national wounds. Reconstruction, and everything that pertains to government is in the hands of the Union party, and it is for that party to propose and dispose of public questions. The opposition party is in the minority, respectable in numbers, but without influence in respect to the legislation of the country, and of as little importance practically as if it had no existence in fact. So that all questions and measures which are to be met and disposed of for the next year or two of any national importance, will be dealt with exclusively by the Union party, and that party alone will have to bear whatever odium or glory attaches to its conduct of public affairs.

The Marysville Appeal, one among the journals on the Pacific slope which have "arose superior to the prejudice against color," favors negro suffrage. It still confesses to a slight prejudice—just enough to advocate negro suffrage with a hearty good will, as a matter of necessity to control the politics of the Southern States. In its issue of May 6th, in a long article upon the elective franchise, it maintains the doctrine openly that the blacks should be enfranchised. We make a few extracts from the article:

"No one denies but that the black soldiers have fought bravely in support of the Government, but many think they would not vote intelligently if enfranchised. We have strong evidence that the majority of them would so vote by the manner the rights exercised where enjoyed by a few. The negro vote of New York's defeated Horatio Seymour for Governor and gave the State to Lincoln. Though we have sat on the same bench at schools with colored boys, and voted at the same polls with colored men, we still confess a prejudice against color. The fact, however, that the colored people defeated that infernal traitor, Horatio Seymour, removes a load of prejudice.

The Appeal after thus admitting that New York would have gone for the Democracy had it not been for the colored vote, goes on to give its reasons why the elective privilege should be extended to the darkeys of the South:

"Unless the elective franchise is extended to the intelligent blacks in the seceded States, we fear the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery will be lost. On this point a speech of M. B. Lowry, in the Pennsylvania Senate, hits the question. He says: 'I consider this matter of the enfranchisement of the negro to lie at the very foundation of the whole question of the reconstruction of the rebellious States. The colored people of the South are universally the true friends of the Government. Their loyalty can never be questioned; their fidelity to the flag can always be relied on. THEY ARE THE ONLY LOYAL CLASS, AS A CLASS, NORTH OR SOUTH.' But we say that the time is not far distant when it will be necessary to extend the elective franchise to all loyal men to counteract the Southern rebel and Northern disloyal FOREIGN VOTE. The elective franchise is extended to the most ignorant foreigner as soon as he touches our shores, and a majority of these voters exercise this great privilege against the Government that grants it. There may be a time when the people of this country will be forced to give the ballot to the colored man to offset and over balance imported ignorance, infidelity and secessionism."

The general drift of the whole matter seems to be to establish beyond the possibility of a doubt the proposition that the negroes are the only loyal and patriotic people in the United States, and the only class that are entitled to our especial consideration and admiration.

"For him we watch, for him we pray,
"The colored cuss from Africa"—
That is, provided his 'individual' vote is certain to be cast for our ticket on all occasions, and that it will be a "dead sure thing."

The municipal election of San Francisco was held on the 10th inst. The People's ticket, and the Regular Republican ticket were the contestants for the honors. The Republicans recognized the Unionism of the People's Party, and addressed them a note, offering to fuse with them and place but one ticket in the field. The proposition to fuse was declined by the People's Party, and their papers denounced the proposition as an "unholy alliance!" The Republican papers retorted by saying that fusions of the same kind were all right a year ago, and that the People's party did not then regard alliances "unholy." The People's party probably considered itself strong enough to elect without Republican aid, and were unwilling to throw away the spoils of the unholy party when it could be of no service more than to increase the People's inevitable majority at the polls.—If the parties had been considered equal, or nearly so, of course the fusion would have been sanctioned as altogether proper and holy. The result of the election has not yet been given.

It is charged by the San Francisco papers, those that are not in the ring, that the Associated Press of California are in the habit of surrendering the telegraph to the brokers whenever any important changes in the value of greenbacks occur in the East. At such times, it is charged that the Associated Press announce to the public that "The Eastern line is out of order." While the line is supposed to be out of order, the brokers are at work buying or selling greenbacks, etc., according as to the profits to be made in either case, and when they have manipulated sufficiently to satisfy their immediate desire for gain, the telegraph begins to regularly transmit the news until another rise or fall of the currency occurs. The speculators it may be judged are doing a thriving business in this way. The Continental Telegraph is evidently a "big thing," a much bigger thing than people have generally thought it to be.

The Irwins.—The Irwin Theatrical Troupe left this City on Sunday, for Idaho City. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin were well liked here by those who appreciate dramatic talent. They are indeed very clever performers and this is not our opinion alone, but it is the opinion of most of those who had the pleasure of witnessing their entertainments during their stay here. Mrs. Irwin was the greatest share of applause, as she seemed perfectly at home in the various delineations of character rendered. Whether she personated the boy from the Emerald Isle, the Scottish girl, the French, German, or the maid from the happy land of pumpkin pies and wooden nutmegs, her parts were well played and life like. She appeared rather the best, we thought, in personating the Irish character, and the "rich Irish brogue" she is master of a little above perfection. Her "German accent" is also said to be very good, but we did not see her attempt the German character. In singing and dancing she is better than average, and upon the whole is an accomplished actress. Mrs. Irwin will have to look to her laurels in Idaho or Mrs. Irwin will eclipse her. Mr. Irwin is a good general actor and a gentleman without. The troupe, as a whole, is a good one, and no doubt will receive a liberal patronage in the Basin.

Muddled.—The San Francisco Spectator, a newly established daily paper, evinces an abundance of ignorance when speaking of affairs northward from that city. In its issue of May 1st, it muddles the geography and political matters of Oregon and Washington, admirably, as the following paragraphs taken therefrom plainly show:

"The Falter theatrical troupe are at Walla Walla, Oregon."
"The Congressional canvass in Oregon is exciting some interest."
"A. A. Denny is the Republican nominee for Congress in Oregon."
The editor of the Spectator is probably a newly imported celebrity.

Speaking.—Secretary Evans and J. H. Lester, Esq., addressed a large audience at the theatre hall, in this city, on Thursday, 8th inst., upon the political issues of the day. The speaking was listened to with marked attention and the audience appeared well satisfied with the efforts of the orators. Mr. Evans, we thought, had the advantage in eloquence and style of delivery, while Mr. Lester had altogether the advantage in argument and logic. This is simply an opinion, and we are not at all particular whether any body who heard the speeches endorsed the opinion or not. Mr. Evans started for Walla Walla on Friday morning, where he had an engagement to speak in the evening.

The Idaho Statesman says that Alex. Stewart, one of the persons who emigrated from Payette valley last winter, has commenced suit in the Boise District Court against the Payette Vigilantes, twenty in number, for expelling him from the Territory. He claims thirty thousand dollars damages. The Statesman says it is an attempt to avenge the prosecutions of last winter at Salt Lake City.

The N. Y. correspondent of the Alta California, says that among the most singular of the mutations of fortune, is the fact that a daughter of old John Brown is now teaching a school for negro children in the old mansion of Henry A. Wise, in Virginia.

Thirty persons are now confined at the Provo prison at San Francisco for using expressions of joy at the assassination of President Lincoln.

Ben. Holladay's new steamship "Del Norte" intended for the Northern Pacific coast trade, is now making regular trips from the port of San Francisco.

Strawberries are plentiful in the San Francisco market and selling at 75 cents per pound.

And many others.

Walla Walla, May 19th, 1865.
MESSRS. A. KYGER, L. A. MULLAN, I. T. REESE, and others—
Gentlemen:—Your note of above date, inviting me to canvass Walla Walla County with Mr. Garfield, has been received, and in reply permit me to thank you for the compliment extended and the confidence manifested in your invitation, and to say that I cheerfully accept the task of vindicating the principles of the Democratic party, and will meet Mr. Garfield at such times and places in the county as we may agree upon on his arrival.

With respect,
Yours Truly,
FRANK P. DUGAN.

Wool.—Messrs. A. Frank & Co., of this City, have shipped below of this Spring's Clip, 15,000 pounds of Wool. Mr. Frank informs us that the firm are constantly shipping wool below, and that there is a considerable quantity yet in the county for shipment. By rights there should be a woolen manufactory established at Walla Walla. It is the best location on the Pacific slope for an establishment of this kind. At some future time we shall endeavor to prove the assertion well founded.

Horse Thieves.—The Idaho Statesman, of a late date, has the following in relation to the horse and cattle thieves and their depredations on Payette and Burnt rivers:

"Cattle and Horse thieves have lately been exercising their vocation along Burnt river.—We heard of one entire pack-train being stolen, and a part of another. They had probably not heard of the vigorous manner in which their kind was getting cleaned out along the road towards Unatilla."

"The Payette and Burnt river horse thieves are said to keep in their camps a complete Indian outfit consisting of moccasins, skins, scalp, implements of warfare, etc., which they put to use in different ways. For instance: when they borrow a part of a pack-train they take good care to leave behind them numerous moccasins tracks, which will then show that Indians made the raid on the stock. Great many ways to steal a horse!"

The Oregonian learns that parties who have tried the Red Bluff route to the Owyhee mines this spring and failed to get through, returned to San Francisco, and by taking the Columbia river route have reached the Owyhee.

News of May 10th.
EMIGRATION FOR MEXICO UNDER ROSENBERG.
New York, May 10.—The Herald says: The Mexican emigration excitement increases. The office for enrollment is unable to accommodate applicants. Two more offices will be opened. There is a great rush of discharged army officers. General Ortega is at the head of the enterprise and is highly delighted with the prospect. It is said the West has subscribed large sums of money to the enterprise, and that twenty-five thousand men will be raised there to be commanded by Rosenberg. The office in Washington for the registry of the names of those desiring to join was opened on Monday morning, the 8th, and was crowded all day. Most of the volunteers in this movement are veterans who have served four years in the Union army. It is understood that common emigrants are guaranteed 180 acres of land. Land bounties to those receiving commissions as officers will be much larger. All the emigrants go fully supplied with weapons of defence. Such arrangements have been made as allow this to be done without a breach of international law.

Washington, May 9.—President Juarez, of the Mexican republic, has issued letters of marque and reprisal against the French commerce.

Philadelphia, May 10.—Subscriptions to a one hundred thousand dollar, single subscription ranging from one to three millions, nearly twelve hundred thousand of fifty to one hundred dollars each.

Poultice News.
New York, May 10.—An London meeting was held at St. James' Hall, London, on Saturday evening, for the expression of feelings of sympathy with the U. S. Government. The galleries of the hall were draped in black, and a part of another. They had probably not heard of the vigorous manner in which their kind was getting cleaned out along the road towards Unatilla."

California News.
San Francisco, May 13.—It has recently come to the knowledge of the committee appointed to supervise the collection of money for a testimonial to Mrs. Lincoln, that irresponsible parties have taken money from the pockets of the public mind by collecting subscriptions under the pretense that they were fully authorized to do so. Several hundred dollars have probably been obtained in this manner from stores and the like, and the money has been paid over to the committee. No one is authorized to make collections for this purpose unless they can show a printed authorization from the committee and can furnish a lithograph receipt therefor.

News of May 11th.
THE CONSPIRATORS ON TRIAL.
New York, May 11.—Harold was arraigned yesterday. Considerable testimony was taken in the case and gratifying progress made. Testimony has been, or will be offered, showing that Harold went to Canada, and conferred with rebel Commissioners about the assassination of Lincoln since. Both returned from there. Mr. Saratt, who seems to have been one of the chief instigators and participants, is kept closely guarded, but is very defiant and unrepentant. Her daughters do not seem to have been implicated. They will be retained and called as witnesses. One is very sick and is reported to have poisoned herself. It is positively known that Saratt is in Canada, and there is little doubt but that he will soon be taken.

The Commission sits with closed doors, but it is believed the Secretary of War will publish an abstract of the trials after the manner of usual reports.

New York, May 11.—The Herald says: The Mexican Emigrant force will be disbanded. Officers have been opened in the City of Brooklyn.

Washington, May 11.—The return of General Ortega from Washington to Philadelphia is anxiously looked for, as he is expected to bring the programme of proceedings.

TROOPS TO BE DISCHARGED.
Washington, May 10.—An order has been issued to muster out of service all soldiers whose term of service expires on or before the 31st of May.

New York, May 11.—All volunteer cavalry in service, whose terms expire prior to Oct. 1st, will be mustered out. The Paymaster General is ordered to make immediate payment to the men discharged. It has been ascertained that prisoners in the Old Capitol prisons have been released by subordinate officers. This will be stopped and none released except upon the order of the General commanding the Department.

The Commercial's special dispatch says:—Secretary Seward proposes to present the new treaty at public auction, on Monday, the 19th day of June, 1865, the individual half of said property to the highest bidder, for cash or currency of the United States. Lots one, two, three and four, Block L, together with the Door and Sash Factory and all the improvements thereunto belonging, and T. W. Sec. 9. The City of Walla Walla hereby agrees to pay all claims and demands for necessary repairs of engine or other property of said company, which may be ordered by a vote of the company, and certified as such to the City Council.

CLOSING STORES ON SUNDAY.—By a mutual understanding, all the principal business men in town have decided to close their stores on Sundays after 10 o'clock A. M.

We are glad that our business men have at last come to an understanding upon this subject. Aside from the religious motives which should actuate all in this country to remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy, every man should have at least one day in the week on which to "rest from his labors."

FROM KOOTENAI.—Mr. Waldron, of the Kootenai Express, arrived here yesterday. He reports there were no provisions in the mines when he left, and many were dependent solely upon fishing and hunting for subsistence, and compelled to go hungry for days at a time.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The Fire Company met on Monday night, accepted the charter [which see in another column] granted them by the city, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Foreman—F. P. Allen.

DAVID D. CHAMBERLAIN, formerly of Lewiston, was shot and killed at Central City, Montana Territory, on the 11th of April, by John Thornburn. Chamberlain had been celebrating his 27th birthday day, and in a fit of intoxication took offense at Thornburn (an old man about 60 years of age) and assaulted him—foreverly entering his house in a third attack—when the latter shot and inflicted a wound from the effects of which Chamberlain died in twenty hours.

TO BE RE-OPENED.—The road across the mountains, via Linkton's old mill site, is to be re-opened in a short time. This road is the one in which Walla Walla is most interested, and hereafter it will most likely be kept open. Packers going from this place Boiswards prefer it, and all with whom we have conversed upon the subject say that as soon as the road is open they will travel it.

FOSSIL REMAINS.—Mr. Odell, in surveying just south of the line between Oregon and Washington, discovered the remains of an animal supposed to be those of a Mastodon. The portions found were a part of the socket of the hip joint in the pelvis, some of the smaller bones, and some of the incisor teeth.

NEW MINES.—Messrs. Higgins and Stone, just arrived from the Bitter Root Valley, report that considerable excitement existed there at the time of their departure in regard to the discovery of gold mines on the head of Deer Lodge Creek, and in the vicinity of Fort Owen.

FIREMEN'S BENEFIT.—The Benefit given to Washington Engine Company on Saturday night last netted the Company $128.50.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.—Mr. W. M. Ward, of the Slough House, on Powder River gives us the following particulars of the shooting of Sheriff Frank Maddock, of Unadilla county, Mr. O. J. Hart, of this city, and two horse thieves, named Henry Vaughn and Daniel Burns, at the Express Ranch, Burnt river, on Sunday night last: Sheriff Maddock had been advertised from the Dalles that the two thieves named were on their way to Boise, with stolen horses. He started in pursuit of them, and while on the way he got Mr. Hart to go along. They followed to Express Ranch, where they arrived after night, and learned that the two men were encamped near by. They chose to go to the camp alone, only taking one man along to show them the camp. On their arrival there, they found the men in bed. They raised the blankets off them, and as they did so the men arose and began to shoot. Mr. Hart received a ball through his side, which disabled him, at the first shot. Mr. Maddock shot Vaughn through the head, killing him instantly, and Burns through the head and body, and received himself a shot, from Burns' pistol, which entered his face just below the right eye, and passed out the back of his head. The alarm was given at the house by the man who went out as guide, and a party went out and took Mr. Maddock and Mr. Hart to the house. Both are probably mortally wounded, and both have families, who have been sent for and are now on their way to them. On the following morning a party went out and found Vaughn lying dead where he was shot. Burns was still alive, but had wandered off some distance. He was considered mortally wounded, and it was thought that if he did not die of his wounds he would be "lynched." Both Vaughn and Burns were young men—22 or 23 years of age. Vaughn was raised near Eugene City, Oregon. He shot a man last summer at Canyon City. Both he and Burns were known to have been guilty of stealing horses and money at the Dalles.

ONE OF "ALECK'S" DECISIONS.—Wm. Kirby, charged with the crime of murder in Nez Perce county, I. T., in the summer of 1862, was taken from the Dalles to Lewiston three weeks ago, upon a requisition of the Governor, to answer to the charge. The case was brought up before Judge "Aleck" Smith, and the counsel for defense set up the plea that the alleged crime was committed when Nez Perce county was a portion of Washington Territory; that defendant had violated no law of Idaho Territory, and that the crime, if any, was committed against the laws of Washington. Aleck was convinced, and upon those grounds he ordered the prisoner's release from custody. The Radiator animadverted upon the decision rather severely, and, in concluding an article upon the subject, says: "We know something about the sentiment of this community. Ominous events that have recently occurred in a neighboring section should not be professed. Laxity in the courts, more than anything else, tends to undermine public confidence, breed a spirit of lawlessness, and precipitate anarchy."

POST TAX.—The voters of Walla Walla County should bear in mind that the law of the Territory requires the poll tax to be paid in prior to the June election. Failure to comply with the provisions of the law will disfranchise persons otherwise legally entitled to vote. You who desire to cast ballots at the coming election, had better pay in your poll tax to J. H. Blevett, Assessor, at the earliest convenience. The tax will have to be paid whether you vote or not.

GOOSEBERRIES.—We are informed that Mr. John Oelrichs will supply the demand for brick this season. He will burn a kiln about a mile below this city. All who intend to build hereabouts this spring and summer will set Mr. Cairns down for a "brick."

GOOSEBERRIES.—A wild goose has been selling in the market for the past week or two at from one 1/2 to 25c per quart. These berries grow in abundance along the creeks in the valley.

THE latest news from the Eagle Creek mines, is to the effect that the miners have got fairly at work and the diggings are yielding splendidly. Water is plenty in the mines and the roads leading thither are rapidly improving.

A twelve pound cannon ball was recently found in a ravine, about eight miles above the upper ferry, on Snake river. The Boise people are at a loss to know how the ball got there, as it is thought no cannons carrying that sized shot have ever been in that section of country.

Public Speaking.—Hon. ARTHUR A. DENNY, Union Candidate for Delegate to Congress, and Mr. GARIBOLDI will address the Citizens of Walla Walla County, at the following places: Walla Walla, May 25th, at 1 o'clock, P. M.; Walla's Mill, May 27th, 1 o'clock, P. M.; Schreiber's Place, Upper Touchet, May 29th, at 1 o'clock, P. M.; Walla's Mill, May 31st, at 1 o'clock, P. M. L. J. KERRON, Chairman Union Cen. Com. W. W. LILLIE'S LOCK OPENED

In One Minute.

New York, September 2, 1864.

F. TILLMAN, Esq., 131st Street, New York.

Bel. Commercial and Clay, San Francisco.

DEAR SIR: We notice an advertisement in your daily paper respecting the "Security" of the "Lillie" lock. We are aware that you will understand this lock, and, of course, will not allow yourself to be annoyed by such representations. We have just sent for one of our men at the factory, and he is in our presence, opened one of Lillie's best safe locks

after it had been locked and the combination turned on.

By one Blow of the Hammer

Against the knob on the outside, and thereby breaking the cast iron bolt inside.

The whole time occupied in opening the lock was about ONE MINUTE. We send you this lock that your friends may not be deceived by false representations, etc. Respectfully, etc.

Wm. McFARLAND.

NO PRACTICAL

Lock Picker or Thimble Rigger

Required to OPERATE THE SAID LILLIE LOCK.

Any parties desiring of seeing the above mentioned lock, its mode of opening, and the mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

GLOUCESTER, March 26, 1864.

Messrs. Tilton & McFarland,

Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

From your advertisement in the "Walla Walla" of the 11th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and with the rest, we traced our lock, having the entire to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed Messrs. McKenry & Hardy still possessing their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make), and its contents were found to be in Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the moment of combustion the safe was not touched, and such as lard, pork, etc., their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the building which was destroyed. It is quite a singular fact that the safe was not subjected to the same fire, having, however, no other cause than the fire in the building.

Yours truly,

GEORGE L. CHESBRO, C. B.
