THROUGH THE WORLD.

Some hearts go hunting through the world
And never find the love they seek;

Some lips with pride or scorn are curled
To hide the pain they may not speak.

The eyes may flash, the mouth may smile,
The voice in gladdest music thrill,

And yet beneath them all the while
The hungry heart be pining still.

These know their doom and walk their way
With level steps and steadfast eye;

Nor strive with Fate, nor weep, nor pray—
While others, not so sadly wise,
Are mocked by phantoms evermore,
And lured by seemings of delight,
Fair to the eye, but at the cost
Of holding but a bitter dust and blight.

I see them gaze from wistful eyes,
I mark their sign on fading cheeks;

I hear them breathe in smothered sighs,
And note the grief that never speaks;

For them no night redresses wrong,
No eye with pity is impared.

O misconstrued and suffering long,
O hearts that hunger through the world!

For you do life a dull desert hold Noisy and was marching to the grave fair,
No gush of waters, clear and cold,
But sandy reaches wide and bare.

The foot may fail, the soul may faint,
And weigh to earth the weary frame,
Yet still ye make no weak complaint,
And speak no word of grief or blame.

O eager eyes which gaze afar!
O arms which clasp in empty air!

Not all unmarked your sorrow are,
Not all unpitied your despair.

Smile, patient lips, so proudly dumb—
When life's frail tent at last is furled
Your glorious recompense shall come,
O hearts that hunger through the world!

HOW OUR EASTERN NEWS IS MANUFACTURED.—
Yesterday was prolific in some of the wildest rumors that have circulated here since the war.

First, it was positively asserted that the renowned Mosby was on the "war path" again, and had collected a thousand men at Leesburg on Sunday, and was marching to Washington to offer his services to the President. Next, it was said that Gen. Grant had ordered a battery from Fort McHenry, and that it arrived this morning before daybreak, and had been ordered across the Potomac to occupy one of the abandoned forts on the Virginia side, to intercept Mosby in his march to the capital. The last story gained some credence from the fact that one of Gen. Grant's messengers came hurriedly into the War Department, and happening to meet a newspaper reporter—being the first man in his way—the messenger inquired where the reporter was going, and he replied that he was going to the Baltimore and Ohio road way.
The messenger then said, "I have just been sent by General Grant. The reporter at once jumped to the conclusion that Grant wanted to see the transportation agent to make arrangements for bringing troops here. He hastened forthwith, to the railroad depot, and there found the transportation agent who was as calm as summer's morning. The reporter inquired, "Did any troops come over your road this morning?"
"None," replied the agent, "why do you ask?"
"Why," said the reporter, "I learned that General Grant wanted to see you, and I supposed it was in relation to bringing troops here, as there is talk of Mosby coming in and taking possession."
The agent laughed, and said "General Grant did not want to see me, and sent for me, but it was to ascertain if I could send two horses for him out to St. Louis, that's all."—Washington Cor. Dollar Times.

DAMASCUS, THE ETERNAL.—Damascus dates back anterior to the oldest city in the world. It was founded by Uz, the grandson of Noah.

The early history of Damascus is shrouded in the boomy mists of antiquity. Leave the matter written of in the first eleven chapters of the Old Testament out, and no recorded event has occurred in the whole but Damascus was in existence to receive it. Go back so far as you will into the vague Past, there was always a Damascus in the writing of every century for more than four thousand years, its name has been mentioned, and its praise sung. To Damascus, years are only moments, decades are only flitting trifles of time. She measures time not by days and months and years, but by the empires she has seen rise and prosper, and crumble to ruin.
She is a type of immortality. She saw the constitutions of Balbec, and Thebes, and Ephesus laid; she saw them grow into mighty cities and amaze the world with their grandeur—and she has lived to see them desolate, deserted, and given up to the owls and the bats. She saw the Israelitish empire exalted, and she saw the conquering of Greece rise and flourish for two thousand years, and die. In her old age she saw Rome built; she saw it overshadow the world with its power; she saw it perish. The hundreds of years of Genoese and Venetian rule and splendor were, to grave old Damascus, only a trifling scintillation, hardly worth remembering. Damascus has seen all that has occurred on earth, and still she lives. She has looked upon the dry bones of a thousand empires, and she will see the tombs of a thousand more before she dies. Though another claims the name, old Damascus is by right the Eternal City.

PRINTING IN CHINA.—The Chinese have a great strength for all the nations of the West. It is difficult to get the art of printing was first introduced. It is known to have been practised in China from plates of wood at the end of the sixth century of the Christian era. In A. D.
598 there is a decree for the collection of "old designs" and "text," and for their cutting into blocks for publication, but it is not then spoken of as a novel invention. In 932 the canonical books were ordered to be engraved on wood and printed for general sale; and in 982 the work was completed, and the books "were circulated all over the empire." Movable types were first employed in the middle of the eleventh century.
The imperial arrangements for printing have been carried out in China of the most magnificent scale. The Emperor Khanghi, whose reign began in 1662, had 250,000 movable types engraved in copper, and printed no less than 6,000 volumes.
Kienlung, in 1773, ordered 10,412 works to be published, covering the whole field of Chinese literature.

CURIOUS.—The New York Times (republican) in alluding to the rejection of negro suffrage by 30,000 majority, says it is a little singular that in spite of the strong determination of the Northern States to impose universal suffrage upon the South, not one of them has voted as yet to accept it themselves. That they may be educated to do so in time is quite likely, but it is clear that considerable training will be required. It is still more singular that despite the fact that every State in the Union, North or South, East or West, is opposed to negro suffrage, Congress should endeavor to force upon all the people this odious measure.

GEN. GRANT'S NAME WAS "HIRAM" UP till the time he was sent to the West Point academy, when by a blunder of the member of Congress who got him appointed, his name was put on record as "Ulysses," and the War Department, although repeatedly solicited to do so, refused to make a correction.

The Influence of Women a Means of Moral Advancement.

The influence of enlightened and virtuous associates is one of the most efficient aids we can employ if we aspire either to elegant and refined manners, or to a high state of moral perfection. By the mysterious law of communion, man gradually acquires the moral qualities of those with whom he has the most intercourse.

If his communion is with the intelligent and virtuous, he will be inspired by their example, and profited by their conversation, and encouraged by their kindness, until their perfections are imaged in himself, and his habits of virtue become the supreme law of his being.

But no social influence is so salutary, in its results, as that of accomplished and amiable women. Ever since Mary was installed, in the person of the Virgin Mary, in a kind of divinity, the sex has exercised a most beneficial influence over all of life. We mean no flattery, we most earnestly assure our fair readers, when we say that woman is elevated far above man, as it regards all the noble instincts, and moral perceptions. Being more sensitive, she recoils with deeper horror from the touch of vice; and "nothing is better calculated to excite one than she does the last to come forth, she lives in pure atmosphere, and from her very nature, exercises an influence, which harmonizes the temper, reforms the habits, refines the manners, and purifies the moral sentiments of the other sex.

To City Subscribers. On and after this date, the STATESMAN will be served to City subscribers at 50 cents a month, payable to the carrier.

The Tribune says New York has a population of one million.

SAN FRANCISCO pays more internal revenue than New York.

The oil wells of Pennsylvania produce, daily, 9,000 barrels of oil.

CHEYENNE is to have a hotel equal to the first-class hotels of New York.

The Mormons expect to bring at least 10,000 immigrants from Europe this season.

Indiana punishes miscegenation with $5,000 fine and imprisonment.

HARD TIMES.—Stock cattle brought 25 cents a head at a recent sheriff's sale in Texas.

BOISE CITY has thus far raised $4,300 for the purpose of bringing the telegraph to that city.

THAT "NATIONAL BLESSING."—The amount of interest paid May 1st, on the 5-20 bonds was $28,000,000.

SCARCITY OF EMPLOYMENT.—The Revolution says: "There are 60,000 people in New York, and 200,000 in the United States out of employment."

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—In every State where the radicals have gone before the people on the question of negro suffrage, they have invariably met with defeat.

REBUKED.—The republicans in nominating Colfax over Wade, literally say to the burly Ohio Senator, that he has been "weighed in the balance and found wanting."

AN EXTENSIVE BRIDGE.—The railway bridge over the Missouri, at Omaha, will be 2,500 feet long, to be composed of iron. Its cost will be nearly two million dollars.

HON. COLUMBIA LANCASTER, of Clark county, W. T., has taken the stump in Oregon on behalf of the democratic ticket.

A PIOUS WISH.—Forney's Chronicle hopes that Johnson is the last of the Presidents who have been too "constitutional."

DEMOCRATIC GAINS.—The New York World gives the following as the gains made by the democrats in Ohio since the vote of last year: Cincinnati, 2,000; Toledo, 116; Hamilton, 100; Mansfield, 108; Urbana, 100; Lima, 64; Delaware, 200; Sandusky County, 300—but the pen tires to recapitulate the scores of other towns with equal gains.

THE DEAD DUCK.—Throughout the whole of the impeachment trial the "dead duck," Forney, has been clamorous for the deposition of the President.

COOLLY RECEIVED.—In these parts the nomination of Grant and Colfax has been coolly received. For some reason or other, there is nothing in Grant's character to excite enthusiasm; and as to Colfax, he is regarded as a very small cat to the radical kite.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The net earnings of this road on 383 miles, from the 1st of May to January last, was the magnificent sum of one million dollars.

MONTANA FEARS.—From the Montana Post we take the following extracts: The Post's information from Clearwater is to the effect that placer diggings, although discovered, have not as yet proved rich.

THE ISRAELITE VOTE.—The Israelite, an influential organ of the Jews of this country, published in Cincinnati, recently received a circular from a Grant organization in New York, urging it to work for the nomination and election of Gen. Grant as President of the United States.

THE CAPITAL.—The cost of the original capital at Washington City was $1,400,000. The two wings, now completed, cost twelve million dollars.

The Chicago Platform.

Elsewhere we give place to a full report of the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, including the platform upon which the radicals propose to make their canvass. On the two great issues which now divide the public sentiment of the country, there can be no mistake as to the meaning of the framers of the platform. Their position is unquestionably in favor of negro suffrage, and just as unquestionably in favor of exempting the bondholders from contributing their due proportion toward bearing the public burden.

Political Speaking.—The announcement that Messrs. Smith and Logan, the democratic and republican candidates to represent Oregon in Congress, would speak at Ireland's Station, on Tuesday last, drew out a very large attendance.

At Walla Walla, stages, carriages, and every other means of locomotion were brought into requisition, and thus the crowd was greatly swelled by accessions from this quarter. One of Abbott's stages was chartered by a party of democrats, who unfurled from its top the American flag. Not to be outdone, the republicans also chartered a stage, from the top of which they displayed a flag, with the name of "David Logan" emblazoned on its folds.

Shipment of Flour.

EDITOR STATESMAN:—I here give you a statement of the history of fifty barrels of flour, shipped by me to New York last fall. It may be interesting to some of your readers to know what may be done with flour at this place. In October, I put up 50 barrels of flour, just ground from wheat raised in 1867, and stored at the Phoenix Mills, in gunnies, half a barrel in a gunny, and shipped via San Francisco and Cape Horn to New York, at the following bills of charges and sales: 50 bbls Phoenix flour, $ 75 75 cts bbl $187 50

The Canvass in Oregon.

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—The announcement that Messrs. Smith and Logan, the democratic and republican candidates to represent Oregon in Congress, would speak at Ireland's Station, on Tuesday last, drew out a very large attendance. At Walla Walla, stages, carriages, and every other means of locomotion were brought into requisition, and thus the crowd was greatly swelled by accessions from this quarter.

Murder and Suicide.

One of those terrible tragedies which occasionally startle and astonish mankind, occurred on Tuesday last. The principal actor in the tragedy was a man named J. D. Kinchele, who has always borne the reputation of being a quiet and industrious citizen.

CONCORD'S INQUEST.

Dr. Goodwin, County Coroner, held an inquest on the remains on Tuesday afternoon, when the following witnesses were examined: Mrs. Morris testified that she knew the deceased; Mr. Kinchele had resided here since February last; Mrs. Kinchele and brother came here this morning to see her children, and seated herself on the side of the bed; soon after Mr. Kinchele came in and asked his wife what she had for him; she answered that she had a minute or so; as soon as I could, I returned and found Mrs. K. lying on her back in the last agonies of death; put some clothing under her head; whilst engaged with the woman I noticed Mr. K. lift up his arms; he was only a few feet distant; during the time Mr. K. was not intoxicated, but calm and talked of his business; he alluded to the separation from his wife, and said he would rather be dead than alive, because of the disgrace to himself and children.

COLD WEATHER.

Our eastern exchanges speak of remarkably cold weather for the last of April, and mention is made of a district in Ohio where the ground was frozen the first week in May. In this Valley the temperature is lower than has ever before been known at a corresponding period of the year. We have already stated that the cold nights and heavy frosts have caused sad havoc to the fruit crop. We are not apprised as to whether the fruit crop has suffered elsewhere, but with the cold weather extending over such a wide scope of country it is most likely that the destruction has been general.

CAMP MEETING.

There will be a camp meeting about seven miles up Mill Creek, to commence on Thursday next, at 2 o'clock, and continue over Sunday. All are respectfully invited to attend.

INDIAN OUTRAGE.

A correspondent writes that one of Hill Beachey's stages had been attacked by Indians, on the road beyond Owyhee, and the driver killed; two of the passengers were badly wounded.

THE OREGON ELECTION COMES OFF NEXT MONDAY.

The democracy are sanguine of carrying the State by a decided majority.

A Boston match manufacturer paid the Government, last year, $700,000 for one cent stamps.

It is estimated that 7,000 emigrants left Germany last week for American ports.

PLANTATION BITTERS.

This splendid Tonic is now used by all classes of people for every symptom of a "Stomach out of order." The secret of it is this: Plantation Bitters are certain to correct the juices of the Stomach, set all its machinery at work, and enable it to resist and throw off the approaching danger. The tendency of the operations of Nature is always towards a cure; all she needs is a little assistance at the proper time. How much more reasonable and sensible it is to help her along with a gentle, yet powerful Tonic, that delays and weakens and defeat her curative processes with poisonous drugs and fiery mixtures, which only stupefy and plant the seeds of disease and death.

Important Certificates.

"I owe much to you, for I firmly believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life." Rev. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y. "Thon will send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use." Thy friend, ASA CURRIE, Philadelphia, Pa. "I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and had to abandon proffering." The Plantation Bitters have cured me. Rev. J. S. CATRON, Rochester, N. Y.

Important Certificates.

"I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect." Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O. "The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted Nature's great restorer." The public may rest assured that in no case will the perfectly pure standard of the PLANTATION BITTERS be departed from. Every bottle bears the fac-simile of our signature on a steel plate engraving, or it cannot be genuine. Any person pretending to sell PLANTATION BITTERS in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. Beware of re-filled bottles. See that our Private Stamp is UNREPLICATED on every cork. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and dealers throughout the world. P. H. DRAKE & Co., New York, Sole Proprietors. REDINGTON & CO., 415 and 418 Front St. San Francisco. Agents for California and N. Y.

THE WALLA WALLA RAILROAD IN CONGRESS.

The Congressional Globe, of May 8th, has the following report of the proceedings had on the introduction of the bill providing for the charter of the Walla Walla Railroad Company.

Mr. Flanders, by unanimous consent, introduced a bill (H. R. No. 1041) granting the right of way to the Walla Walla and Columbia River Railroad Company, and for other purposes.

Mr. Flanders. I move that the bill be referred to the Committee on the Territories.

Mr. Julian. I move to amend the motion so as to have the bill referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Flanders. This bill does not call for a grant of public lands, only for the right of way through the public lands.

Mr. Julian. The principle is the same.

Mr. Flanders. There is one other matter embraced in the bill, and I would not object to its going to the Committee on the public lands.

Mr. Julian. I will withdraw my amendment.

The motion to refer to the Committee on the Territories was then agreed to.

Mr. Flanders, by unanimous consent, also introduced a bill (H. R. No. 1042) to aid in the construction of a railroad from Walla Walla to the Columbia river.

Mr. Flanders. I move that the bill be referred to the Committee on the public lands.

Mr. Julian. I would prefer that the bill should go to the Committee on the Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Flanders. I move that the bill be printed.

The motion was agreed to.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to May 21.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Chicago, May 20.—The National Republican Convention met at noon, in Crosby's Opera House. Gov. Marcus L. Ward, Chairman of the National Committee, called the convention to order. He alluded in a brief speech to the circumstances under which they were assembled and the work for the convention to do.

Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. Church, opened the proceedings with prayer; whereupon, Gov. Ward nominated Gen. Carl Schurz, of Missouri, temporary chairman, which was carried unanimously amid vociferous cheering. Upon being conducted to the chair, Gen. Schurz addressed the convention expressing thanks for the high honor conferred. He reviewed the history of the republican party briefly to the conclusion of war which resulted in the extinction of slavery.

At the close of his speech, he advocated the exercise of the right of a conciliatory spirit toward all. "In this hour," he said, "let not the passions be inflamed by stinging disappointment, however keen, or a sense of wrong carry us beyond the bounds of wisdom and self-respect. The things we have to accomplish are so great that what- ever the provocation may be, we can certainly not afford to let personal excitement seduce us into compromising our high dignity. Whoever may become our friend, whoever may become our enemy, let us steadily march on with unflinching determination to fulfill all the duties that rest upon us to secure justice to the soldier who fought our battles, justice to the Southern men who fought for the Union cause, justice to the colored race, to whom we have promised true and eternal freedom, and justice to the national creditor, who has staked his credit; let us faithfully strive to restore the honor of the Government, to crush corruption inside of the party as well as outside of the party, and to place honest, true and capable men in public stations."

On motion of Gen. Van Zant, the report of the Committee was so amended as to declare the name of the republican party to be National Union republican. In the Committee and report it was simply the National Union party. The report was adopted.

Mr. Thompson, of Indiana, Chairman of the Committee, ascended the platform and read the resolutions as follows:

1st. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evidenced by the adoption in a majority of States lately in rebellion, of Constitutions securing equal, civil and political rights to all, and we regard it as the duty of the government to sustain these constitutions, and prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy or military rule.

2d. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South, was demanded by every consideration of public safety, gratitude and justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage in all loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

3d. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime, and national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to our creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

4th. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

5th. The national debt, contracted as it has been for preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period, and it is our duty to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.

6th. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit that capitalists will seek to lead money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

7th. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy. The corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson, call loudly for radical reform.

8th. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the succession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidential chair, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support, who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions, has refused to execute the laws, has used his high office to induce other officers to violate the laws, has employed his Executive power to render insecure the lives, property, peace and liberty of citizens, has abused the pardoning power, has denounced the national legislature as unconstitutional, has persistently and habitually resisted by every means in his power, every attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion, has prevented public patronage into an engine for wholesale corruption, has justly been impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and has been pronounced guilty thereof by the votes of 35 Senators.

9th. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers that, because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States as a relic of feudal times not authorized by the law of nations and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born. No citizen of the United States or naturalized must be liable to arrest or imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country, and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf.

10th. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none more faithful for special honor than brave soldiers and seamen who endured hardships of camp and sea and imperiled their lives in the service of their country. The bounties and pensions appropriated by law for these brave defenders of the Union, are obligations never to be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are wards of the people, a sacred legacy bequeathed to the United States for protecting care.

11th. Foreign immigration in the past has added so much to the wealth and increased resources of this nation, the asylum of all nations, that it should be fostered by a liberal and just policy.

12. This Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

The following additional resolutions were offered and adopted, by Mr. Thompson:

Resolved, That the adjournment of this convention shall not work dissolution of the same, but it shall remain as organized, subject to be called together at any time or place that the republican Executive Committee shall designate.

By Carl Schurz: Resolved, We highly commend in a spirit of magnanimity and forgiveness the men who have served the rebellion and who are frankly and honestly cooperating with us in restoring peace to the country and in the reconstruction of Southern States on the basis of impartial justice and equal rights, and are received back into the communion of loyal people, and that we are in favor of the removal of the disqualifications or restrictions imposed on the late rebels in the same measure as the spirit of disloyalty disappears, as may be consistent with the safety of loyal people.

Resolved, That we recognize the great principles laid down in the Declaration of Independence, as the true foundation of democratic government, and we hail with gladness every effort towards making these principles the living reality on every inch of American soil.

THE NOMINATIONS.

The Chairman announced that nominations were in order.

Mr. Logan said: "In the name of loyal citizens and soldiers and sailors of this great republic, in the name of loyalty, liberty, humanity and justice, in the name of the National Union republican party, I nominate as candidate for Chief Magistrate of this nation, Ulysses S. Grant."

Nominations for Vice President were in order. Virginia nominated Senator Wilson Indiana nominated Ben Wade. New York nominated Fenton. Maryland nominated ex-Senator Cresswell. Pennsylvania nominated Curtin. Iowa nominated Harlin. Kansas nominated Pomeroy. Kentucky nominated Jas. S. Speed.

The first ballot resulted, Wade 149, Fenton 125, Wilson 119, Colfax 112, Curtin 51, Harlin 28, Harlan 16, Speed 22, Cresswell 14. The second ballot, Wade received 170, Fenton 140, Wilson 112, Colfax 145, Curtin 40, Harlin 30, California voted for Wade 5, Fenton 2, Wilson 1, Colfax 2. On the fifth ballot a break occurred in favor of Colfax, Iowa leading off, followed by Pennsylvania and others falling rapidly into line until the nomination was made unanimous. Wade's strength had gradually increased until it became evident that the contest was between these two. The convention very soon adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Chicago, May 19.—The Republican's Washington special says that recent developments give the strongest encouragement that when another vote is taken, the necessary number of Senators will vote for conviction on the second and some other articles.

Chicago, May 21.—The Tribune's special says the impeachment Managers have continued the examination of witnesses in regard to alleged improper means used to influence the votes of Senators on the impeachment. The testimony was given that Ross stated that he believed the President clearly guilty as charged in the 11th article. Boutwell and Wilson express disbelief that conviction will be secured on any other articles than the 1st, 3d and 11th.

Washington, May 21.—Senator Henderson was examined by the Impeachment Managers yesterday. He said the Missouri delegation called on him and urged impeachment from a party point of view. He informed them that his duties were judicial and not political. Fears arose when Henderson, under the excitement of the moment, said he would resign his seat. After reflection, he concluded that this course would be wholly inadmissible and so informed a member. He said he did not believe that members intended corruptly to influence the vote. He thought that they had taken a false and erroneous view of the subject, and were at first disposed to pursue it with too much zeal. He was asked about dining with the Chief Justice. He said he was only one of the fourteen Senators reported who really dined with him. He had no communication with the Chief Justice with reference to the reported new party. Never had the Chief Justice ever attempted to influence his mind on the subject of impeachment, nor did he believe the Chief Justice tried to influence the mind of any Senator. Henderson said in his judgment too much controversy between Johnson and Congress springs from the advice of an incompetent Cabinet. A selection of more able and less selfish men from either or both parties would tend to give peace to the country and restore confidence to business. He stated that no assurance of any character whatever has been made directly or indirectly to him by the President or to any one else so far as he knew. After giving his evidence, he protested against the right of the committee to examine him in matters relating to Senators. He said he would not attend again until he had laid the case before the Senate.

In the Senate Henderson said he had been required to attend before the board of impeachment Managers to testify in regard to the subject of their investigation. He read his answer declining to comply with their request because their action was calculated to deprive the Senate of the proper control over its own affairs. He now submitted the question to the Senate.

Pomeroy said he had received a similar notice and had testified, not supposing that he had compromised the dignity of the Senate.

Summer, following in the same strain, said it was possible another article might be filed on the evidence now being taken.

Davis' resolution was then taken up. It refers to the action by certain parties reflecting on the integrity of members of the Senate, and calls for the appointment of a committee to investigate. A long discussion ensued, during which the Senate went into Executive session.

CONGRESSIONAL SPEECHES.—Miss Cady Stanton, who has been canvassing among Congressmen at Washington for her new paper, says she is surprised to learn, on the best authority, that probably two thirds of the set speeches read from manuscript, are not the productions of those who deliver them, but are prepared by newspaper reporters, and the literary gentlemen at Washington.

ANIMAL GRAFTING.—Mr. Best, a French naturalist, cut off a rat's tail and joined it on to the freshly cut tail of another rat; the parts grew together and waggled like any other tail; in four months it was found that all the proper vessels, veins, arteries, and nerves were supplied.

EGGS ONE THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED YEARS OLD.—The Paris correspondent of the Nation, states that the guinea of the Abbe Denis, curate of the Parish of St. Eloi, in the Fougere St. Antoine, dined a few days ago on fowls whose immediate ancestors figured, he says, on the table of the great Frankish King Dagobert.

AMERICAN EXTRAVAGANCE.—A Paris correspondent of the New York Express says: It is a noticeable fact that Americans come here to spend the winter, and generally remain altogether.

GRAFTING WAX.—Grafting wax may be made by melting together resin, tallow, and beeswax, in such proportions as to be properly softened by warmth, but never to melt and run in the sun's rays.

JEW.—Shakespeare's Shylock and Walter Scott's Isaac, though too often accepted as types of the Jewish character, hardly comport with their characteristic benevolence towards their poor people.

BUTLER AND GRANT.—The recent dispatch in relation to the reconciliation of these two gentlemen proves to be incorrect. Butler in a late letter, says he has professedly sacrificed, to show that Grant sacrificed three hundred thousand men, after he had crossed the Rapidan in order to capture Lee.

THE oldest business in the world—the piquery business.

EARLY TYING UP OF GRAPE VINES ON THE TRELLIS.—The Horticulturist says: If there is anything in the theory that great injury is often caused by extraction of moisture and evaporation when in contact with the cold, drying winds of March have passed.

WHITENESS.—As the house-cleaning time will soon be here, it may not be amiss to say a few words in regard to whiteness. There are many receipts published, but we believe the following to be the best that can be used.

SOMETHING FOR THE SICK.—A correspondent writes: "Frequently we find sick people whose stomachs reject all kind of nourishment until conditions follow that in many instances terminate fatally."

THE TEETH OF THE HORSE.—A horse has 40 teeth—24 double teeth, or grinders; four tushes, or single file teeth, and 12 front teeth, called gatherers.

FROM SHASTA.—We learn by private letter from Shasta that a fatal affray occurred at Clark's creek, in Baker county, on the 12th instant.

GRAFTING WAX.—Grafting wax may be made by melting together resin, tallow, and beeswax, in such proportions as to be properly softened by warmth, but never to melt and run in the sun's rays.
