Good Night and Good Morning.
A fair little girl sat under a tree
Sewing as long as her eyes could see;
Then smoothed her work and folded it right,
And said, "Dear work! good night, good night!"
Such a number of rooks came over her head,
Crying "caw! caw!" on their way to bed.
She said, as she watched their curious flight,
"Little black things! good night, good night!"
The horses neighed and the oxen lowed;
The sheep's "bleat bleat" came over the road;
"Good little girl! good night, good night!"
She did not say to the sun, "Good night!"
Though she saw him there like a ball of light;
For she knew he had God's time to keep,
All over the world, and never could sleep.

The tall pink flossie bowed his head,
The violet curtsied and went to bed,
And good little Lucy tied up her hair,
And said on her knees her favorite prayer.
And while on her pillow she softly lay,
She knew nothing more till again it was day;
And all things said to the beautiful sun,
"Good morning, good morning, our work is begun!"

LAW OF THE UNITED STATES,
Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-Ninth Congress.
[Public-No. 91.]
AN ACT to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States.

Sec. 42. And be it further enacted, That if at the first meeting of creditors, or at any meeting of creditors to be specially called for that purpose, and of which previous notice shall have been given for such length of time and in such manner as the court may direct, three-fourths in value of the creditors whose claims have been verified and allowed, or a majority of the creditors, or a majority of the creditors whose claims have been verified and allowed, shall concur in the appointment of one or more trustees to take and hold and distribute the estate, upon the direction of such committee. If it shall appear to the court, after hearing the bankrupt and such creditors as may desire to be heard, that the resolution was duly passed and that the interest of the creditors will be promoted thereby, it shall confer the same; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled, and distribution made among the creditors by trustees, under the inspection and direction of a committee of the creditors, it shall be lawful for the creditors to verify and report such resolution to the court, and to nominate one or more trustees to take and hold and distribute the estate, upon the direction of such committee. If it shall appear to the court, after hearing the bankrupt and such creditors as may desire to be heard, that the resolution was duly passed and that the interest of the creditors will be promoted thereby, it shall confer the same; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the bankrupt shall have the like right to apply for and obtain a discharge after the passage of such resolution and the appointment of such trustees as if such resolution had not been passed, and as if all the proceedings under the provisions of this section had been made as if no proceedings of the kind had been made; and the court may, in its discretion, direct that the estate of the bankrupt be wound up and settled by said trustees according to the terms of such resolution, the bankrupt, or his assignee in bankruptcy, if appointed, as the case may be, shall, under the direction of the court, and in the oath, inventory, and deliver all the property and estate of the bankrupt to the said trustees or trustee, who shall, upon such conveyance and transfer, have and hold the same in the same manner, and with the same powers and rights, in all respects, as the bankrupt would have had and the creditors of the bankrupt would have had, had the estate of the bankrupt not been so transferred; and such consent and the proceedings thereunder shall be as binding as in all respects on any creditor, whose debts are provable, who has not signed the same, as if he had signed it, and the creditor whose debt is not so proved, as if he had proved it; and the court, by order, shall direct all acts and things needful to be done to carry into effect such resolution of the creditors, and the said trustees shall proceed to wind up and settle the estate under the direction and inspection of such committee of the creditors, and shall, in the manner provided in this act, under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be proceedings in bankruptcy under this act; and the said trustees shall have all the rights and powers of assignees in bankruptcy. The court, on the application of such trustees, shall have power to summon and examine any creditor, and any person indebted to the estate, or known or suspected of having any of the estate in his possession, or any other person whose examination may be material or necessary to aid the trustees in the execution of their trust, and to compel the attendance of such persons, and the court may make all necessary orders in the same manner as in other proceedings

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—The announcement that Messrs. Clark, Flanders, and Garfield, would speak on Saturday last, had the effect to draw out an immense crowd.

The attendance from the country was very large, persons, in many instances, having come thirty and forty miles to hear the speaking. The committee of arrangements had the stand erected in the grove in the rear of Mr. A. Kyger's warehouse, where under the shade of the trees, the speakers kept the audience for nearly four hours in rapt attention.

On the first section of the country from Puget Sound, there are two routes, both practicable; one via the Columbia river, to the mouth of Snake river; the other via Snoqualmie Pass and Yakima river, to the same point. On either route there will not be much heavy grading.

On the second section lying between the Columbia river and the Bitter Root mountains, a distance of about 220 miles, is over a rolling prairie country, with splendid grazing, and fine timber on the Spokane river, a distance of about 100 miles.

On the third section, which includes the mountainous part, a distance of 200 miles, and lying between the 116th and 124th degrees of longitude, the grading will, in places, be heavy, and will require three or four short tunnels.

This extends from the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains to Lake Superior, a distance of about 1010 miles. The route here passes over a rolling prairie, susceptible of settlement the entire distance.

The North Pacific Railroad.

WALLA WALLA, May 29, 1887. EDITOR STATESMAN.—Having spent most of the last year in traveling through Washington, Idaho and Montana Territories, and having crossed the continent in mid winter, partly on both of the great railroad routes, and at the earnest request of Ex-Governor Smith, of Mass., who is President of the North Pacific Railroad Co., and of some members of Congress, I compiled, while in Washington, the following statistics, on the practicability of the Northern route:

FIRST DIVISION. On the first section of the country from Puget Sound, there are two routes, both practicable; one via the Columbia river, to the mouth of Snake river; the other via Snoqualmie Pass and Yakima river, to the same point.

SECOND DIVISION. The second section lying between the Columbia river and the Bitter Root mountains, a distance of about 220 miles, is over a rolling prairie country, with splendid grazing, and fine timber on the Spokane river, a distance of about 100 miles.

THIRD DIVISION. On the third section, which includes the mountainous part, a distance of 200 miles, and lying between the 116th and 124th degrees of longitude, the grading will, in places, be heavy, and will require three or four short tunnels.

FOURTH DIVISION. This extends from the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains to Lake Superior, a distance of about 1010 miles. The route here passes over a rolling prairie, susceptible of settlement the entire distance.

It will be seen that the entire distance on this route, between the head of Lake Superior and Puget Sound, is about 1810 miles, and that there is scarcely a mile of the entire country but will eventually be settled. It is much shorter than any other route across the continent, connecting navigable waters. The mountains are much lower and the country much more fertile. It is really the only easy pass across the American Continent, for it is the only part of the continent where two large rivers rise immediately together and flow in opposite directions—the Columbia cutting its way entirely through the mountains on a water level to the Pacific; and the Missouri connecting with the great plains bordering on the Lakes. The Rocky Mountains at this point are really so low that the miners, last summer actually took large streams in ditches from the waters of the Missouri, over the divide to the Pacific side for mining purposes.

In consequence of the low passes through to the Pacific, the climate is warmer than it is in the mountains in the latitude of Salt Lake City, 400 miles due south. I crossed the summit of the Rocky Mountains near Deer Lodge valley, in Montana, on the 17th of Dec. There was no snow; the roads dry and dusty, and the weather mild and pleasant, and none of the streams frozen over. When I reached Salt Lake City, the snow on the Wasatch and Rocky Mountain ranges, was 26 inches deep, and the night we crossed the Wasatch range, the thermometer stood at 10° below zero, and Green river and all those streams in the mountains had been frozen over six weeks, so that the stage rolled over on the ice. Such was the difference in the climate on the two routes. The differences in the real wealth and resources of the two routes is perhaps even greater than that of climate.

The central route, after it leaves the mining country of Nevada, around Virginia City, passes up the Humboldt country towards Salt Lake, for a distance of 500 or 600 miles over the most desolate and barren country on the American continent. The country has neither mines, timber nor any other redeemable quality about it. Salt Lake valley is a small and rather fertile valley; the only fertile spot for hundreds of miles. From Salt Lake City to Denver, a distance of six hundred and fifty miles, the route lies over an alkali and sage plain. On the other hand, there is not one mile on the northern route that does not either furnish timber, grazing, agricultural lands or minerals, and in some instances all together. Montana is just in its infancy; its mines scarcely prospected, and yet last season, according to the report of the Treasury Department, Montana stood second on the list in the amount of gold produced; California producing $25,000,000; Montana, $18,000,000; Idaho and Colorado, $17,000,000 each, and Nevada $16,000,000.

The mountains of Montana are a perfect net work of quartz ledges, immensely rich in gold and silver. Five years from this time, I believe there will be as much as $40,000,000 of gold and silver taken from the mines of Montana per year; more than one-fourth enough to build and equip the Northern Pacific Road, ready for use. There are also immense mines of coal, iron, copper, and lead in the country. The northern route crosses but one range of mountains, and that at a point which, so far as the experience of white men have gone, is known to be as passable in winter as the Michigan Central Railroad. In deciding the question of relative distance, we must consider the entire distance between Liverpool and Canton. Say the mean latitude of the North Pacific route is 46°, and of the central 37°, a difference of nine degrees exists. Now a degree of longitude (longitude contracting as we approach the poles) is about six miles shorter on the former than the latter. There are 240 degrees of longitude between Liverpool and Canton; this makes the navigator's distance, on the line of the North Pacific, 1440 miles less than the central. This longitudinal difference is quite an item. This difference in distance is not the only item in favor of the northern route. It is an established fact that every sailing vessel, bound directly from San Francisco to Hong Kong, comes up to, and even beyond the latitude of Puget Sound, before striking directly west, in order to take advantage of the wind currents of the Pacific Ocean. Time, these days being an important consideration in commercial transactions. The argument would still be in

A Reply to Sheriff Seitel's Card.

EDITOR STATESMAN.—My attention has been called to A. Seitel's card, in which that gentleman attempts to vindicate his own misconduct at the expense of the County Auditor and Board of County Commissioners. In justice to the officials thus assailed, I briefly reply to this tissue of misrepresentations: And first, I have to say, that Seitel, ever since he has held the office of Sheriff, has steadily avoided a settlement. As early as September, 1886, the Commissioners endeavored to bring him to a settlement, but were unsuccessful. He then promised to settle and square up everything before the meeting of the next Grand Jury. In the month of October, we called a special meeting, and on going over his accounts we found him debtor to the county in the sum of three hundred dollars, which amount he promised to pay previous to the next meeting of the Board; but again he failed to come to time. At the May term, he was notified that he must settle, and after offering every excuse to have the same put off, a day for settlement was finally agreed upon. When the day thus agreed upon came around, it was found that Seitel had made no preparation whatever for a settlement. He had not even made out the delinquent tax list, and it was only through the kindness of James McAuliff that the list was finally furnished. This, notwithstanding the gentleman asserts that he was ready at any time for a settlement. Other statements in Seitel's card can be shown to be untrue, but I pass them over. I am free to admit that the Board of County Commissioners have dealt leniently with Seitel in the matter of settling his accounts. At all times we were anxious to screen his official delinquency, and hence the failure to bring him to time. That he is incompetent to discharge the duties of Sheriff, is evidenced by the delinquent tax list, now on file in the Auditor's office. On that list will be found the names of some of the wealthiest men in the county, and yet he returns them as delinquent, and assigns for reason, that he can find no property, and this, too, whilst it is notorious that they are entirely responsible. I have every desire to do Mr. Seitel justice, and only regret that he has endeavored to hold others accountable for his own incompetency. Trusting that my fellow citizens, at the June election, will elect a Sheriff, possessing the energy to collect the taxes, and the honesty to pay the money over, I here take leave of Mr. Seitel and his short-comings.

Yours, D. M. JESSEE.

A Card from Alvan Flanders.

WALLA WALLA, May 30, 1887. EDITOR STATESMAN.—You will much oblige me by publishing the enclosed letter, received by me a few days since. I presume the letter spoken of by Mr. Burbank, has been shown by Mr. Clark in this county, although I do not know this to be the fact. I have only to say that the statement made by Mr. Vansyckle, in regard to Mrs. Flanders, is wholly and entirely false. I am certain that Mrs. Flanders never used the language there attributed to her; and even if she had, I do not see what that had to do with this canvass; and I am at a loss to know which is the most desecrating of contempt, the one who wrote the libel, or the man who would retail the slander.

Yours truly, ALVAN FLANDERS.

A CARDE.

MR. EDITOR.—In personal vindication to myself I am bound to let the voters of Walla Walla County know that I am on east over body Noss I am on east Mau But sir have you ever published that fac in your Paper, Oh no Narry once. You was afraid to do that cause why? it mite elect me. now sir you are an ole kittel b—ly, and you cant have I show I am on east, I will state a fu fac: I owed a store keeper up town sum money what an other feller went my security fur, the storekeeper he axed me to pay. Mr. storeman ses I No you are on east but I want my money, then I went to that feller what went my security and I told him they wanted to injer my election. he ses it shant be did and went and paid the store keeper and tuck a recete. now ses he'll give you a certificate that you are on east Man Ses I were got on now (ma he i sint got you too that idee i kep to Myself) and it cum out in a card before the public to vindicate My onesty, if you cant see the pint, then you must be orful blind Yours til after the election. A PERSECUTED MAN.

DISTRICT COURT.—The United States District Court for the First Judicial District closed on Saturday evening last, after a session of three weeks. In that time one hundred and seven civil cases, and thirty-three criminal cases were disposed of. The Grand Jury found twenty-two "True Bills" and one "not a True Bill." There were fourteen indictments found against various parties for selling liquor without a license. All of the defendants in these cases were fined ten dollars each and costs, except two in which a nolle prosequi was entered. Four divorce cases were heard and decrees entered, and two insolvents were released from their debts. The Court was in session each week day from nine in the morning until six in the evening. The Judge and officers of the Court were frequently compelled to work until late in the night. Take it all in all, it was a very lively term of Court.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—A meeting will be held at Waitaburg, on to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, when an opportunity will be afforded to candidates on the county tickets to define their positions on local questions. Messrs. Mix, Sharpstein, Cox, and Newell are expected to be present, and will address the meeting. A general invitation is extended to members of all parties.

VIEW OF SALT LAKE CITY.—The publisher, Mr. Philip Ritz, has placed on our table, an exceedingly well executed view of Salt Lake City. Those who would learn something of the chief city of the Mormons, will obtain a copy of the picture. To be had at the Post Office and at Parker's Book-store.

SEMI-WEEKLY.—The Idaho World has changed from a weekly to a semi weekly issue. The World, in its new dress, presents a neat appearance, and is one of the best of our exchanges.

Personal Vindication.

REGISTER'S OFFICE, Vancouver, W. T. April 14th, 1884. H. PARKER, Esq., Sir:—I have received yours of the 9th inst. I inclose herewith the usual receipt. I have filed the declaratory statement of Simon G. Fields, as follows: March 1, 1884, the N. W. 1/4 of section 26-7-37, filed April 14th, 1884. Yours, J. M. FLETCHER, Register.

REGISTER'S OFFICE, Vancouver, W. T. June 22d, 1884. H. PARKER, Esq., Sir:—I have received your letter of the 18th inst. By referring to your plat you will find that the N. E. 1/4 of 26-7-37 has not been offered at public sale, or even surveyed, hence it cannot be sold at private entry. I filed the statement of Mr. E. J. on the N. E. 1/4 of said section, in order to bring the matter before the Commissioner. I wrote him on the subject, April 14th, 1884, and expect to hear from him soon. I have marked the names of Rohn and Falls on the plat, but can do no more until I hear from the Commissioner. Yours, J. M. FLETCHER.

REGISTER'S OFFICE, Vancouver, W. T. June 30th, 1884. H. PARKER, Esq., Sir:—I have received yours of June 23d and 27th, with declaratory statement of Mr. Clancy, and homestead papers of Messrs. Langley and King, also declaratory statement of Isaac Harrington. With reference to Mr. Clancy's statement, see my last letter. J. M. FLETCHER.

REGISTER'S OFFICE, Vancouver, W. T. July 12th, 1884. H. PARKER, Esq., Sir:—I have received yours of the 8th inst., and herewith enclose certificate for Mr. Lefevre—his homestead receipt came duly to hand. I also enclose Mr. Wilson's receipt, corrected. I have received a letter from the Commissioner at Washington, in relation to sections 25 and 26, in township No. 7-37. As I expected, he directs that if the parties desire to settle on said lands, they will be required to have it surveyed by authority of the Surveyor General. To do this, it is necessary that they forward a written application to the Surveyor General, and he will delegate some suitable person to make the survey, which must be at the expense of the parties. Field notes must be forwarded to the Surveyor General, who will, if he approve the survey, return it to this office, and the parties can then take the land by legal subdivisions, either under the Homestead or Pre-emption laws. J. M. FLETCHER.

REGISTER'S OFFICE, Vancouver, W. T. May 22d, 1887. H. PARKER, Esq.—Your letter of the 10th inst., in reference to the declaratory statements of Simon G. Fields, J. J. Rohn, John N. Fall, and Cornelius Clancy is at hand. I have to say in reply, in reference to the map of the township N. 7-37 E. that I did not make it myself, it was made by a draftsman employed by me. I certified that the claims thereon were correctly represented. The plat you have sent me to inspect represents sections Nos. 25 and 26, as surveyed, which is not true. When you sent me Mr. Fields' Statement, I knew the land was not surveyed, but as it was in the same township with, and adjoining land that was surveyed, and could readily be described, I thought it right to file it, and I did so. Afterward I received the declaratory statements of the other parties named above, with the fees. I then wrote to the Commissioner stating the facts in the case, and I also stated that in my opinion a settler ought not to be debarred because the Surveyor thought the land not worth settlement, especially so, when the settler proposed to back his claim by paying for the land. The Commissioner answered, instructing me not to file the papers until the settlers had had the land surveyed at their own expense; therefore I could not file the papers, but I find the names of the settlers are upon my plat yet. Here the matter ended, so far as I am concerned. The papers I have laid aside as useless, and I really do not understand why I should look for them, as after I had found them, they would be of no use to any one. Your action in the matter was fair enough. I have before stated, in answer to others, that I have nothing to do with your arrangements with those who employ you; that is solely a matter between you and them; but as you have always acted fairly and promptly, I do not mean by this to say, that you have acted more fairly than others, but I do mean to say that you have never, to my knowledge, acted unfairly towards those for whom you have done business at this office. J. M. FLETCHER.

Prosecuting Attorney.

EDITOR STATESMAN.—I understand that the Union Central Committee have thought proper to remove the name of J. W. Stevens from the Union ticket, as candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, and have substituted the name of S. B. Fargo. This action is sought to be justified on the ground that Fargo received the endorsement of the delegates from the First Judicial District. The Committee forget that the action of said delegates was submitted to the Union County Convention for approval or rejection, when the nomination of Fargo was rejected by a very decided vote. Subsequently Messrs. Stevens and Fargo appeared before the County Convention as candidates, when Mr. Stevens received the unanimous endorsement of the convention, as the Union candidate for Prosecuting Attorney. The removal of Mr. Stevens' name was opposed by at least two of the most influential members of the Central Committee, and under all the circumstances, can only be regarded as an abuse of power. Union voters, bear these facts in mind, and cast your suffrages for J. W. Stevens, the Regular Union Candidate for the office of Prosecuting Attorney.

UNION VOTER.

CLOSE OF THE CANVASS.—The canvass will close at Walla Walla, on to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, when addresses will be delivered by Hon. Alvan Flanders, the Union nominee for Congress, and J. H. Lasater, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee. A full attendance is desired.

THE RETURNS.—The judges and clerks of election in the various precincts will confer a great favor by sending us full returns at the earliest moment. Courtesies of this kind will be suitably acknowledged.

WOOD.—Several cords of wood will be taken in payment for subscriptions, if delivered immediately.

To the Public.

An article over the signature of "Tax Payer" having appeared in the last issue of the Walla Walla Statesman, I consider a reply to the same due both to myself and to my friends. This anonymous scribbler, I am informed, is Frank P. Dugan, nominee on the Democratic ticket for District Attorney. The charges preferred by Dugan are, as he well knew at the time he penned them, unmitigated lies, and I now brand him as a willful liar. These are the simple facts: Last December, I gave to Mr. D. M. Jesse an order on the Territorial Treasurer for two hundred dollars, with instructions to send the money to me by Express. Shortly after, and before I heard from Mr. Jesse, I started for San Francisco, on business, and expected to intercept a remittance of my money at Portland, and on my arrival at Portland, the money not having arrived, I requested Mr. Mills to open the package if it came there and take out the amount due Mr. Arrigoni and Mr. Currier. I then left for San Francisco, supposing, as I had every reason to do, that the affair would be settled satisfactorily. Mr. Jesse, however, instead of sending my money by Express, brought it with him and, in my absence, paid it over to my friend, Judge Mix, for me, and in this way the drafts were not honored as I had provided they should. I knew nothing of what had been done in the matter until after my return from San Francisco, in the spring. The stories about Jack Cooke, who is my warm friend, and the note at the Hotel in San Francisco, I brand as lies from the whole cloth and totally without office of any kind. As I have filed the office of District Attorney of this District, for three years, I point to my record, and the records of this office, as the most ample vindication of my conduct as a public officer. And now, my fellow citizens, let me introduce to you the Honorable (!) Frank P. Dugan.

About four years ago, there wandered into the streets of Walla Walla this smooth-faced and unscrupulous individual, who started the landable trade of tinkering watches. Money coming in too slow to suit his greed of this hungry leech, he confiscated two of the watches entrusted to him for repair, and soaked them at a gambling table, in a public gambling saloon in this town, but from sympathy for his family, he was then suffered to escape the just punishment of his crime. He was next elected to the Legislature, and while in attendance on the body, he presented for their consideration, until his name became a by word and reproach. While Speaker of the Assembly, he was charged with having purloined bills from the file, and the charge was generally believed to be true. He borrowed a considerable sum from a gentleman in this place, and for security gave him a bill of sale for a buggy, but as soon as the lender had turned his back, sold the buggy to another man and pocketed the proceeds, and the debt of the borrowed money is yet unpaid. (By a few such schemes as these, the Honorable (!) Frank P. Dugan has justly earned for himself the reputation of a Jeremy Diddler, a bawk, and a scoundrel, and as such, my fellow citizens, I am prepared, at any time, to prove him by affidavits and credible testimony, and as such I recommend him to your consideration at the next election. Your county has no watches to confiscate, but perhaps you have other valuables that "Tax Payer" may appropriate. S. B. FARGO.

TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON, § 88.

County of Walla Walla, § 88. D. M. Jesse being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that when I left Walla Walla for Olympia, to attend the Legislative Assembly, in December last, S. B. Fargo gave me his account for one quarter's salary as Prosecuting Attorney, amounting to two hundred dollars, with the instruction that I should forward the same by Express, and that I collected the said two hundred dollars for Fargo, from the Territorial Treasurer, but concluded to bring the same myself to Walla Walla, which I did, and gave the same to Judge J. D. Mix. Fargo being then absent from the Territory. Under the circumstances, Mr. Fargo had every reason to believe, at the time he drew the order, that he had money in his credit in the house of Wells, Fargo & Co. Anything that Dugan may say to the contrary, notwithstanding, I deem it due to Mr. Fargo to make this sworn statement. D. M. JESSEE. Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 27th day of May, 1887. J. E. WYNN, Judge.

Council Proceedings—May 28, 1887.

Council met at the usual hour. Present, Mayor McAuliff, Councilmen Wineset, Abbott, Kohlhauff, and Brown. Minutes read and approved. Finance Committee reported in favor of allowing bill of Mr. Kohlhauff, for oil, &c., $9.75. On motion, report adopted and warrant ordered. Ordinance No. 32 was read for the third time, and passed. The following claims were allowed and warrants ordered: A. Seitel, rent of jail from Dec. 15th, 1886, to May 15th, 1887, $75 l. t. Wm. Russell, labor and material on Second street bridge, $7 coin. A. Reid, for repairs on Engine House, $11 coin. B. L. Sharpstein, for legal services, $50 l. t. L. Kerr, gravel on Second street bridge, $7 coin. Bill of E. Sheil for balance due on flume, $10. On motion, referred to Finance Committee. Clerk reported that he had received the sum of $85 l. t. from the sureties of A. L. Roberts, as a compromise, and released them from further liabilities. On motion, report adopted. On motion, J. H. Short was employed as extra-policeman, for no special term, to be paid at the rate of $25 per month, coin, from this date. On motion, the Treasurer was instructed to retain tax-list until June 10th.

To the Union Voters of Walla Walla.

At a regular meeting of the Union County Central Committee, held on the 25th of May, it was resolved that the action of the Judicial District Convention, in nominating a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney be sustained, and that in printing the regular Union ticket for Walla Walla county, the name of S. B. Fargo should be used as the regular candidate for that office. P. B. JOHNSON, J. D. COOK, Secretary, Chairman.

ST-10. A GREAT many hits are being made at the Plantation Bitters, by a score or two of disinterested friends who have endeavored to imitate or counterfeits them. It is all of no use. The people won't be imposed upon long. The Plantation Bitters are increasing in use and popularity every day, and it is that which is the matter. They are in the same dear old bottle and are just as they were at first, and will continue to be, or we shall stop making them. The Plantation Bitters purify, strengthen and invigorate. They create a healthy appetite. They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Constipation and Dyspepsia. They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver complaints and Nervous Headache. They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The recipe and full circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, merchants and other persons who sell Plantation Bitters induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, liver complaint, constipation, &c., will find immediate and permanent relief in these Bitters. They are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers. They are sold by all respectable merchants. See that each bottle has on our patent United States stamp over the cork and steel cap side label. Beware of re-filled bottles. See that the stamp has not been tampered with. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is a swindler and impostor, should be immediately reported to us. P. H. DRAKE & CO., 21 Park Row, New York. Smith & Davis, Portland, Gen'l Ag'ts for Oregon.

MUSTANG LINIMENT. Have you a hurt child or a lame horse? Use the Mexican Mustang Liniment. For cuts, sprain, lumps, swellings and caked breasts, the Mexican Mustang Liniment is a certain cure. For Rheumatism, neuralgia, stiff joints, stings and bites, there is nothing like the Mexican Mustang Liniment. For sprained horses, the poll evil, ring bone, and swellings, the Mexican Mustang Liniment never fails. For wind gallop, scratches, big head and splint, the Mexican Mustang Liniment is worth its weight in gold. Cuts, bruises, sprains and swellings, are so common and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Liniment is the best investment that can be made. It is more certain than the doctor—it saves time in sending for the doctor—it is cheaper than the doctor, and should never be dispensed with. "In hitting the kettle from fire, it tipped over and scalded my hands terribly." "The Mustang Liniment extracted the pain, and caused the sore to heal rapidly, and left a very little scar." CHAS. FOSTER, 429 Broad street, Philadelphia. Mrs. S. Litch, of Hyde Park, Va., writes: "My horse was considerably troubled with the 'griping' since the use of the Mustang Liniment. I have sold him for $150. My Liniment is doing wonders up here. All genuine is wrapped in steel plate coverings, signed W. W. Westcott, Chemist, and also has the private U. S. stamp of Demas Barnes & Co. over the top. Look closely. Sell by all druggists, 25, 50 cents, and 41 00.

LYON'S FLEA POWDER. DEATH TO FLIES!—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Flea Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of flies, ticks, bed-bugs, roaches, &c., that it is perfect poison to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to the human species. The genuine has the signature of E. Lyon and the private stamp of Demas Barnes & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation or counterfeit. Any one who has used the genuine, if you insist you will have no other. E. T. LYON, Chemist, N. Y.

LYON'S KATHAIRON. It is the most delightful Hair Dressing. It is a delicate scrub and cleanser of the scalp. It keeps the hair cool and clean. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy. It prevents hair turning gray and falling off. It restores hair upon prematurely bald heads. This is just what Lyon's Kathairon will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is literally sold by the car load, and yet its almost incredible demand is not met. Sold everywhere, in every country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it. E. T. LYON, Chemist, N. Y.

Walla Walla Statesman. FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 31, 1867.

Personal Vindication.

W. PARKER, Esq., being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he has resided in the Territory of Washington for fourteen years last past. That he has been a resident of Walla Walla county in said Territory for nearly three years last past. That in the month of November, A. D. 1865, he was present at a certain conversation and concerning H. Parker, of which the following is the substance: In said conversation, in response to a question from me, said Arriason stated that he, Arriason, did in the spring of 1864, present a Land Warrant to said H. Parker, and desired said Parker to locate the same upon 120 acres of land, adjoining the land upon which said Arriason stated he was then living, and that Parker replied to him, said Arriason, that the said Land Warrant was valueless, as it was not properly transferred. That in the conversation aforesaid Arriason further stated to this affiant, that then he, Arriason, asked Parker, if he, Parker, would loan him, Arriason, the money to enter said land, and that Parker replied he would not loan him, Arriason, the money, but agreed with said Arriason to enter the land in his, Parker's, own name, so as to secure himself (Parker) until he, Arriason, could pay Parker, that time were so hard that he, Arriason, could not get the money at the time, and upon which said Arriason replied he had not. That this affiant then asked said Arriason if he, Parker, had done or transacted any other business for him, Arriason, besides that already spoken of, to which the said Arriason replied he had. That this affiant then asked said Arriason if he, Arriason, had paid Parker for that business, to which said Arriason replied he had not. That this affiant then asked said Arriason if he, Arriason, had at any time offered to pay Parker for the said 120 acres of land, to which said Arriason replied he had not. That in the aforesaid conversation said Arriason further stated to this affiant, that he, Arriason, surrendered and gave the said Land Warrant spoken of by me, to said H. Parker, and that he, Parker, would allow any thing what said Land Warrant was worth, if any thing was ascertained, and that said Parker stated to said Arriason that said Land Warrant had to be forwarded to the States and back, before any thing could be done with reference to it.

French Medical Office.

DR. JULIEN PERRAULT, Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptist Society of San Francisco. DR. PERRAULT has pleasure in informing patients and others seeking competent medical advice, that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall building, North-East corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. Rooms No. 9, 10, 11, first floor, stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets. Dr. Perrault's studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Excess, the result of various habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. When a secret affinity exists involving the happiness of life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, and every single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the latter fruit lasted long afterward: patients laboring under this complaint will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nervous Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urinary going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are weakened, Loss of Memory, Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even reading, writing and the duties of domestic life. The patient usually complains of Dizziness, Vertigo, and the sight and hearing are weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, and a general feeling of debility. The patient usually has rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and itching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediately to Dr. Perrault, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Nervous Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks. A course of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given, if required. Patients suffering under chronic diseases can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation, and we do not claim that in all cases, such a treatment will fulfill our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctrine, and that advertising physicians till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering with any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor with the assurance of relief.

Female Monthly Pills.

DR. PERRAULT is the only agent in California for Dr. Boer's Female Monthly Pills. Their immense sale, and the high reputation they have acquired, unapproached, and far in advance of every other remedy for suppressions and irregularities, and other obstructions in females. On the receipt of five dollars, he will send them by express, or by mail, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage. Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to Dr. Perrault, corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 372, P. O. San Francisco, stating the case as fully as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc. All communications confidential. July 7, 1866. 2917

Notice to L. Jay S. Turney.

I SHALL, on the 24th day of June, 1867, at the hour of 9 o'clock A. M., proceed to take the depositions of witnesses before the Clerk of the U. S. District Court, 1st Judicial District, at Walla Walla, in the City and County of Walla Walla, W. T., to be submitted to the proper Land Office on the 5th day of July, 1867, that it may be shown that you have abandoned the homestead of the Act of Congress approved May 20, 1862. The following is a description of said land: NE 1/4 of NE 1/4 of SW 1/4 of Section 7, and SW 1/4 of NW 1/4 of SW 1/4 of Section 8, all in Township 35 N., Range 26 E., 36 East. May 10, 1867.
