

From the Upper Columbia. Judge Wyche, who is just down from Colville, where he has been holding a term of Court, furnishes us the following items of interest from the Upper Columbia.

There were only about a dozen cases on the docket, but the people generally seemed interested in Court proceedings, and it is supposed the business will increase. It was generally thought that the establishment of a Court in that region would have a wholesome influence.

Is settling up, though not very rapidly, and is one of the most inviting valleys to the eye to be seen on the coast. It is probably about fifty miles in length and from two to three miles in width, and on the rich lands now unoccupied in the valley and on Mad Lake and along on different points on the Columbia river, there are now the finest opportunities for settlements and happy and prosperous homes of any part of this upper coast.

Letter from Spokane. Ed. STATESMAN:—I should like to inform the public through your columns that the WALLULA CORRESPONDENCE. WALLULA, May 28th, 1866. EDITOR STATESMAN:—We must surely have been annexed to Oregon by our never-to-be-forgotten Congress. We have no direct communication with the seat of Government, but there is one thing sure, Oregon weather has crossed the line and seems to have taken possession of this country in the name of Oregon.

Letter from Farmer. Ed. STATESMAN:—The subject of bean culture is of so much importance to the farmers of Walla Walla that a short article is not sufficient to present the matter to those interested; therefore, I propose to continue, with your permission, to let you know the quantity per acre, and the probable profits, and also the kind of bean to meet the demands of the market, and this is of the first importance in the business.

Letter from Kootenai. KOOTENAI, May 13, 1866. Ed. STATESMAN:—I wrote in the middle of winter. Perhaps the cold made me severe; but the rains coming in, and every person here appearing to be prosperous and happy, has had a tendency to make me feel better.

CHINESE MINERS. We have now quite a number of Chinamen in the camp, and they are doing well. The first of the race that arrived here were See Yang and Doo Tsei, who gave such a favorable report to their brethren that it brought in the lot spoken of.

INDIAN MATTERS. We had a "wa wa" with G. A. Page, the Indian Agent at Colville, and gathered the following facts about the number of Indians under his charge and the country occupied by them:

Upper Spokane, 400; Lower Spokane, 400; Couer d'Alene, 60; Lower Pen d'Oreille, 470; Okinakanas, 483; Colvilles, 430; Remnants of bands living on Columbia river between Old Ft. Colville and the mouth of Okinakanas, 520; Total, 2863.

REPUTATES WHITE BLUFFS.—We have the very best authority for saying that Mr. Moody, the projector and principal owner of the Pen d'Oreille boat, repudiates the White Bluff route, and declares that the use of his name as endorsing the humbug is unauthorized. Comment is unnecessary.

Letter from Colville. This place is generally called Colville and is adjoining the Reservation. It has a population of some two hundred and is improving.

FOR NESMITH.—We notice that the candidates of both parties in Wasco county, Oregon, are out in favor of the re-election of General Nesmith to the U. S. Senate. On the stump, the democratic nominees have declared him their first choice, and the republican candidates are equally emphatic in declaring in his favor.

WHITE BLUFFS.—We notice that our friend Odell, Agent of the Montana Transportation Company, advertises to take freight from White Bluffs to the upper end of navigation on Pen d'Oreille Lake, at the rate of $140 per ton.

NEW QUARTZ DISCOVERIES. JACKSON'S RANGE, SPRING VALLEY, 130 MILES FROM WALLA WALLA. May 23d, 1866.

THE LITTLE DALLES AND STRAKER "49". We made a visit to the "Little Dalles," a new town established on the Columbia, some 28 or 30 miles from Colville. This is the shipping point for the Big Bend mines, and there is an excellent road both for wagons and pack trains from Colville to that place.

OREGON ELECTION.—The election for State and county officers in Oregon comes off on Monday next, June 4th.

WALLA WALLA DOMESTIC MARKET. FRIDAY, June 1, 1866. We have still to notice a quiet market. The only movement we hear of is in Flour, a large lot having been freighted to Boise, at prices which have not transpired.
