The Voiceless.

We count the broken lyres that rest Where the sweetest singing singers slumber, But o'er their silent sister's breast The wild flowers who will stoop to number? A few may touch the magic string, And noisy fame be proud to win them; Alas for those who never sing, But die with all their music in them!

Nay, grieve not for the dead alone, Where song has told their heart's sad story. Weep for the voiceless who have known The cross without the crown of glory! Not where Lucanid breezes sweep, O'er Sappho's memory-bathed pillow, But where the glistering night dew weeps, O'er nameless sorrow's church-yard willow.

O hearts that break and give no sign, Save whitening lip and fading tresses, Till death pours out his cordial wine, Slow-dropped from misery's crushing presser, If sighing breath or echoing chord, Or any hidden pang were given, What endless melodies were poured As sad as earth, as sweet as heaven!

The Lemhi Reaction.

For good reasons we have all expressed the belief that the reported new gold discoveries, in what are known as the Lemhi or Salmon diggings, would prove to be of small importance in a substantial point of view. This belief was not a thing of fancy or prejudice. It had foundation in the information we had from time to time gathered from the reports and inquiries of men of probity and much experience in mining, who had visited that region within the past three or four years, and diligently and laboriously prospected there for gold. They all agreed in saying that it was almost impossible to find a spot there in which the "color" could not be met, but it was equally impossible, they believed, to find any place of any extent in which gold could be found in sufficient quantity to pay average wages. That there were pockets, or circumscribed spots which would yield richly they did not hesitate to believe; but they were very sure that no large area of really good, rich diggings could be found there.

It was, we say, from the statements of the many who had prospected that region, that we have predicted the failure of the Lemhi or Salmon country as a rich or lasting gold bearing region. At last the proof of our belief is being developed. During the past month, ever since the mining season opened there, and the quantity of the diggings has been demonstrable, we have been in the receipt of information from a variety of sources, by letters to our own citizens, and others published in contemporary journals in the Territory, written by miners, traders, speculators, and all sorts of people, and the great body of letters which have been received, have been to the effect that there was much more of the sensational than the substantial in the Lemhi excitement. Facts have verified our predictions. Since our issue of Saturday the reaction has, we may say, fairly set in. Word came on that day of the return from Lemhi of Doc Noble, one of the most reliable and sterling among our citizens, and that accompanying him were, on the road back, Messrs. Lav. Lindsey, Ben. White, Sank Owens, Johnny Crowe, and others who had left here for Leeburg a short time ago. There was no evidence of the failure of the Lemhi mines that these gentlemen came back, for only Doc Noble had been there, but it was evident by his return that the mines of Lemhi were not proven to be anything like so good as the mines of this Basin, because he certainly enjoyed superior advantages of ascertaining the character of the mines during his sojourn there. The strongest evidence, however, against the Lemhi region, was the information brought that the mines had been very diligently worked this season since the snow permitted labor in them, and that in almost every instance either great disappointment or absolute failure resulted after weeks of work.

There also came back from Leeburg, Mr. J. G. Bryant, a prominent merchant of this city, who went there early with a stock of goods which he disposed of, and he has been so long engaged in business in mining sections, that he has formed some conclusions with regard to mines, and of placer mines especially. His opinion is that the diggings in that region will not prove extensive or rich. There are a few rich spots, in gulches or on bars, perhaps, but take the great mass of the country, and it will by no means bear comparison, in gold wealth, with this Basin. Where wages may be made there, but even this much not so certainly or uniformly as in the oldest diggings in this region, to say nothing of the better class of gold fields about here.

Mr. A. Miller, former partner of Mr. Chas. J. Bernstiel of this city, who is a well informed merchant of sound experience in mining camps, writes to Mr. Bernstiel, from Leeburg, that that country is already very much over-worked; that there is very little to sustain it, so far as known; that many are prospecting, and but few are mining, and that business is rapidly declining. He advises people not to go there. Instead of Leeburg being as large as Idaho City, it contains really about one hundred houses, of which one-third are stores, another third saloons and restaurants, and the remainder are cabins for miners and others. In every feature—the wealth and extent of the mines, the size of the town, the amount of trade transacted there, and the general boasted prosperity, present and future, of that whole region—it now appears the grossest exaggeration has been resorted to. Stripped of all display and fancy the Lemhi mines are really little better than "Chinese diggings," and Leeburg is a place of unsubstantial consequence.

The reaction has commenced. We hear of vast crowds pouring back to this place and to Montana from there. The returning tide will continue until this Basin will be again filled with men glad to get back to certain good paying diggings, and we hope, better contented to remain here; who will not again be so easily led off by an "excitement," to seek mines in regions where mines are not—or where they yield but poorly. Let them on their return here apply their energies and their labor in developing fresh diggings in this Basin, and they will find that they have at last "struck" the richest placers on the coast—the richest, we believe, in the world.—Idaho World.

SLOBBERING HORSES.—A correspondent of the Boston Cultivator says that this is a disease in horses. Saltpeter, a tablespoonful for a dose, he has found to cure the worst case he ever had, and has not found it necessary ever to give a fourth dose. He gives a tablespoonful in the morning, and in three days, if the horse is not free from it, he repeats the dose.

TIMES of general calamity and confusion have ever been productive of the greatest minds. The purest ore is produced from the hottest furnace, and the brightest thunder-bolt is elicited from the darkest storm.

California Democratic State Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The Democratic State Convention met at Turn Yerin Hall, at noon to-day, for the purpose of nominating a State ticket. The total number of delegates elected to the Convention is 273, the apportionment being based on the vote cast for McClellan and Pendleton at the last Presidential election. The delegates were all chosen from the clubs, without a primary election.

The test adopted by the Democratic State Committee is as follows: All voters opposed to the radical policy of Congress and in favor of a constitutional administration of the Government of this Union, shall be entitled to vote for delegates.

Eugene Caserly was unanimously chosen temporary Chairman, and A. O. Bradford was chosen temporary Secretary. After appointing a Committee on credentials and permanent organization, the Convention adjourned until this morning.

It is understood that the secession element will take a back seat for the good of the party, believing that by waiving their claims a ticket can be nominated which will secure a large number of milk and water Union men. Great enthusiasm prevailed thus far. It is generally believed that H. H. Haight will be made till to-morrow. No nominations will be made till to-morrow. It is a noticeable fact that four-fifths of the Convention is composed of time-worn Copperheads, and secesses. John Bigler is prominent among the delegates.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—The Democratic State Convention reassembled to-day, at 11 o'clock. The platform adopted embraces sixteen resolutions, five of which are as follows:

Resolved, That the questions involved in the late rebellion have been practically settled by the war, and it is the duty of all to acquiesce in this settlement, and endeavor to restore friendly relations between the different sections of the country, and reestablish the Government in its constitutional authority throughout the Union.

Resolved, That in order that our national difficulties may be speedily adjusted, and the Union restored on a permanent and satisfactory basis, the States lately in rebellion should be dealt with in a spirit of kindness and forbearance, and declared the course of Congress in what are known as the Reconstruction measures of that body as harsh, illiberal, and oppressive, and more likely to result in a hollow truce than enduring peace.

Resolved, That the only way in which peace and concord can be re-established is by conforming to the requirements of the Constitution, and repudiating the radical party, who spurn its provisions and imperil the Union by their mad and seditious course.

Resolved, That the power to regulate foreign immigration being vested in Congress, it is the duty of that body to protect the Pacific States and Territories from an undue influx of Chinese and Mongolians, and it is the duty of the Legislature of this State to petition Congress to endeavor to obtain the adoption of such regulations as shall accomplish this object, and the Legislature should use all its power to prevent the introduction of Mongolian laborers.

Resolved, That we regard the right of suffrage as belonging exclusively to the several States in this Union.

After the adoption of the platform the Convention proceeded with the nomination for Governor. Col. Crockett nominated H. H. Haight, of San Francisco. General Wm. nominated P. B. Reading, who stated that he was not a candidate. Oliver, of Tuolumne, nominated Gen. Rosecrank. Judge Barner stated that Rosecrank had positively declined to run upon the ticket, whereupon Haight was nominated by acclamation. After the adoption of the platform the Convention adjourned to meet to-morrow, at 10 A. M.—Portland Herald.

A CASE OF HABEAS CORPUS.—Peter Hennessey petitioned his Honor, Judge Pratt, of the Twelfth District Court, for a writ of habeas corpus, to release Catherine Higgins from the Magdalen Asylum, where she was restrained of her liberty. The writ was granted, and the woman brought into the presence of the Court, when she declared that she was not held in dress, and therefore the writ was dismissed. Mr. Hennessey made a statement in substance as follows, when the matter was brought up: Six or seven years ago, he came to California, leaving his wife in New York, having had domestic difficulties. Shortly after his arrival here, he met Catherine Higgins, who was his second cousin. They loved each other, and as the living wife in the States prevented a marriage, they agreed to live together as man and wife. The result of this cohabitation is three children, the oldest not more than five years old, and the youngest scarcely a year. Some time since, some of the clergy discovered the facts of the case, and calling upon Catherine, told her she would be eternally damned unless she altered her mode of life; that her only hope of future salvation was to abandon her companion and children, and seek refuge in the Magdalen Asylum, where, by a life of penitence, she could atone for her sins, and wipe out the sins that she had been guilty of. The advice had its effect, and she forsok her children and protector, and followed the advice given her. Hennessey, in the meantime, learned that his wife had died, and proposed to marry Catherine, but her religious advisers informed her that, being his second cousin, she could not marry him without violating the laws of God. When the woman was brought into Court, the children and their father were present, and in answer to questions propounded by his Honor, the woman answered that she was greatly attached to her children, and loved her cousin to desperation, but that she had to choose between eternal damnation and present peace, and she could not hesitate in her choice. After the case had been dismissed, this woman started to leave the room, when Mr. Hennessey approached her, and said: "Catherine, will you forsake your little ones?" The depths of a mother's love were stirred, and she was upon the point of casting herself into his arms, when her religious friends approached, and led her sobbing away.—S. F. Call.

INJURIES accompanied by insults are never forgotten. All men, on these occasions, are good haters, and lay out their revenge on compound interest.

Row in the Union Party.

Our California neighbors are just now in the midst of a political tempest which threatens destruction to the Union party of that State. The excitement grows out of the nomination of George C. Gorham, a small-beer politician, for the office of Governor, and the balance of the ticket made up of equally objectionable material. The Sacramento Union, leads off in denouncing the nominations, and says: "The nomination of George C. Gorham by the Union State Convention, for the high office of Governor of California, encounters the protest of thousands who have hitherto acted with the Union party from considerations of patriotic duty and love of principle, and without regard to the spoils of office. As a citizen, aside from his association with a gang of plunder-seekers, Gorham is socially clever, and is known to possess fair capacity. He has chosen to identify himself with a league of bad characters, who have followed the Union party, like the camp-followers of an army, with a greedy eye for booty, to become their candidate and representative man, to adopt their peculiar tactics for preventing a free expression of the will of the people, and to give the State the most flagrant illustration of the power of such a crowd to wrest a nomination from an unwilling party that has been witnessed for years. Beginning with the State Central Committee, Gorham and his friends deprived the Union men of the interior of their proper representation in the Convention." Thence they proceeded to secure the County Committees, and prescribe minor programmes of fraud, to get up primary elections which were palpable mockeries of free choice, and, with the money of scheming corporations, to buy up delegates who were selected by interior constituencies to vote for a rival candidate. And when the Convention, thus fraudulently planned, had assembled, and it was found that a nomination depended upon the twenty-one votes of Sacramento county, the league determined to admit a delegation from that county which they knew did not represent five hundred legitimate votes out of forty-three hundred. A convention thus made up can have no valid title to be regarded as an exponent of the wishes of the Union party, and the nomination of Gorham must be looked upon as a fraud, from its inception in San Francisco until it was consummated at the Capital. And now in what position does this action place these honest citizens who have hitherto affiliated with the Union organizations? They are not only asked to indorse with their votes the means by which the nomination of Gorham was procured, but to place in power at the State Capital, for four years, the whole league of spoliators, schemers and corruptionists with which he has chosen to identify himself, and for which he has been an active lobby agent. We need not gain do more than refer to the Western Pacific Railroad swindle, for which Gorham undertook to secure the sanction of the Governor, as a fair sample of the sort of legislation which he would approve. Gorham's strength in seeking a nomination has consisted largely of the knowledge or belief that he would affix his signature to all similar bills, and they have many such, involving millions, at the Bay. Now, elect Gorham and let a Legislature as pliant as the last one be obtained—and that is, of course, the next object of the combination—and the State will be led to bankruptcy within two years, while the pressure of taxation upon every interest will become intolerable to the people. * * * * * As a last consolation, there is such a thing as dying with decency, leaving an honorable name. In any event, however, and whatever course partisans and their organs may see fit to pursue, the duty of the Independent Press, in such emergencies as this, is to look after the interests of the State and the people. Protesting against the nomination of Gorham before it was consummated, we stated the considerations which would render the nomination a calamity to the party now dominant in the State. As the same reasons would make his election disastrous to the people, we repeat our protest, now that the Convention has done its work. We find no pleasure in the performance of this task. It is, indeed, sorrowful to be compelled to witness the wreck of a party which has a bright record of service, and, if properly guided, might still lend potential aid to the cause of true progress and good government. But if the machinery of the organization is to be intrusted to wicked engineers, and the Union party is to be run for the mere benefit of corrupt schemers, though we may regret the consequent blighting of many cheering hopes, we must expect to see the people who don't want to go to ruin, take passage in a safer political conveyance.

Home—Mother—Heaven.

The three words, Home, Mother, Heaven, are the sweetest in our language. The heart has memories that can never die. It makes no difference how we may be tossed about upon life's turbid and tempestuous stream, these memories still live with us. They are memories of home—early home! Dear, halcyon spot! What magic in the sound—Home! It has attractions for every true heart—is the center of every social tie! And as our mind wanders back far over the misty past, how many tender reminiscences of that early home come crowding upon us! There is the old tree, under which the light-hearted school-boy swung in many a summer day; there the home in which he knew a parent's love and a parent's protection; and hard by is the church, and even the old school-house, with its dark, old walls, which in former days impressed him with such awe—associated as they were with thoughts of ferule and tasks—comes back to bring pleasant remembrances of the far long ago!

Home! the dearest spot on earth, around which my young affections cling into the sweetest, holiest tie of love—the place where are cradled the scenes of my

First of the Season.

Mr. Able Hawkins will accept our thanks for a beautiful supply of spring potatoes, the first of the season.

Cooling.

Our friend Coon took pity on us last Wednesday, when the thermometer was standing at 108°, and sent to our sanctum a whole can of ice-cream.

Father Bouclette.

An early missionary in this country, and highly distinguished Catholic divine, lately returned from Washington, is at present sojourning at Walla Walla, where he has very many warm and devoted friends.

Fire Works.

We are requested to state that the ordinance prohibiting the discharge of fireworks within the limits of the city of Walla Walla, will be rigidly enforced on the Fourth of July.

Intense Heat.

Wednesday last was fairly entitled to the credit of being the warmest day of the season. At 1 p. m., on that day, the thermometer stood at 108° in the shade, and when exposed in front of a brick building, ran up to 136°. Pretty good for a commencement.

Nuisance.

We are requested to call attention to a nuisance in the rear of the City Hotel. Filth, slop, and grease have been allowed to accumulate in that vicinity until the stench has become intolerable.

Fourth of July Ball.

Our friend Hartman, of the "Oriental Hotel," proposes to aid in a patriotic celebration of the Fourth of July, and to that end announces a grand ball, to come off in the evening of the Fourth.

The Fourth.

The settlers living on Mill Creek, have arranged for a celebration of the Fourth of July, and invite their neighbors to unite with them in honoring the national anniversary.

Magic.

The Fakir de Bordeaux has been giving a series of entertainments at Walla Walla, much to the delight of those who are fond of the wonderful. Many of his tricks are new, and all of them well executed.

Camp Meeting.

The camp meeting, held in Sitson's grove, under the direction of the M. E. Church, was brought to a close on Thursday last, having been kept up six days.

St. Vincent's Academy.

The annual examination of the pupils attending St. Vincent's Academy was held on Friday, the 21st.

Reported Gold Discovery.

For over a week a report has been current, that certain parties had discovered paying mines within two days' drive of Walla Walla.

From the Lemhi Mines.

R. Jacobs, Esq., kindly permits us to take the following extract from a letter written by his brother, and dated "Salmon City, June 11th."

From Jefferson City.

Mr. Merriman, one of the pioneers of the Jefferson silver mines, and who holds extensive interests in the famous Gregory lode, was in town yesterday and to-day, and informs us that the development of several of the prominent lodes of that camp are being pushed forward with zeal and confidence.

From the West.

Another well laden pack train from Walla Walla arrived in town yesterday, with a new stock for Gans and Klein, dealers in clothing and furnishing goods, on Main street.

Hog, Em, Cheat, Em, and Rob Em Gulches.

These are the titles to three small, but productive placer discoveries, made near Indian Creek this spring, and since the late introduction of water, they have each and severally yielded a regular return of from $25 to $30 per day to the hand.

PERRY DAVIS' Vegetable Pain Killer.

The Great Family Medicine of the Age.

Taken Internally, Cures Sudden Colds, coughs, &c., weak stomach, general debility, nursing sore mouth, canker, liver complaint, dyspepsia or indigestion, cramp or pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, painters colic, Asiatic cholera, diarrhea, and dysentery.

Taken Externally, Cures Felons, Boils and all sores, severe burns and scalds, cuts, bruises and sprains, swelling of the joints, ringworm and tetter, broken breasts, frosted feet and chilblains, tooth-ache, pain in the face, neuralgia and rheumatism.

The PAIN KILLER is by universal consent allowed to have won for itself a reputation unsurpassed in the history of medicinal preparations. Its instantaneous effect in the entire eradication and extinction of pain in all its various forms incidental to the human family, and the unobscured written and verbal testimony of the masses in its favor, are its own best advertisements.

The ingredients which enter into the PAIN KILLER, being purely vegetable render it a perfectly safe and efficacious remedy internally as well as for external application, when used according to directions. The slight stain upon linen from its use in external applications, is readily removed by washing in a little alcohol.

This Medicine, justly celebrated for the cure of so many of the afflictions incident to the human family, has now been before the public over twenty years, and has found its way into almost every advanced stage of the disease.

The same opinion is expressed of its real medical properties.

In any attack where prompt action upon the system is required the PAIN KILLER is invaluable. Its almost instantaneous effect in relieving pain is truly wonderful; and when used according to directions, is true to its name.

A PAIN KILLER

It is, in truth, a Family Medicine, and should be kept in every family for immediate use. Persons traveling should always have a bottle of this remedy with them. It is not unfrequently the case that persons are attacked with disease and before medical aid can be procured the patient is beyond the hope of recovery. Captains of vessels should always have a supply of this remedy on board, and when used according to directions, it is never failed in a single case, where it was thoroughly applied on the first appearance of the symptoms.

To those who have so long used and proved the merits of our article, we will say that we will continue to prepare our PAIN KILLER of the best and purest materials, and that it shall be in every way worthy of their approbation as a FAMILY MEDICINE.

Notice to Creditors.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE UNDERSIGNED Administrator of the estate of JOSEPH REMOND, deceased, to the creditors of, and all persons having claims against the deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within twelve months after the first publication of this notice, to the said Administrator, at his place of business, in Walla Walla City, W. T. FRANK STONE, Administrator. June 13, 1867. (21-4f)

Notice to Creditors.

Notice is hereby given to the creditors of the late J. C. and Diamond H. celebrated brands at BROWN, BROS. & CO.

S. 1-860-X.

A GREAT many hits are being made at the Plantation Bitters, by a score or two of disinterested friends who have endeavored to imitate or counterfeit the same. The people won't be imposed upon long. The Plantation Bitters are increasing in use and popularity every day, and it is that what's the matter? They are in the same sized bottles and made just the same at first, and will continue to be, or we shall stop making them. The Plantation Bitters purify, strengthen and invigorate.

They create a healthy appetite. They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent indigestion and intestinal fever. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Constipation and Dyspepsia. They cure Diarrhea, Cholera, and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver complaint and Nervous headache. They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant and an exhausted nature's great restorer. The recipe and full directions around each bottle. Clergymen, merchants and other persons whose sedentary habits induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, liver complaint, constipation, &c., will find immediate and permanent relief in these Bitters. But above all they are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers.

They are sold by all respectable merchants. See that each bottle has our private United States stamp over the cork and steel plate side label. Beware! Manufacturers who have tampered with the Plantation Bitters by the gallon in order to sell them at a profit, should be immediately reported to us. P. H. DRAKE & CO., 21 Park Row, New York.

BARNES MAGNOLIA WATER.

A toilet delight! The ladies' treasure and the gentleman's boon! The "sweetest thing" and largest quantity of Florida Water ever prepared. Used for bathing the face and person, to render the skin soft and fresh, to prevent eruptions, to perfume clothing, &c.

It removes the unpleasant odor of perspiration. It cures nervous headache and allays inflammation. It cures neuralgia and allays the skin. It cures itching and itching eruptions. It cures mosquito bites and stings of insects. It contains no material injurious to the skin. It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere. Try the Magnolia Water once, and you will use no other Cologne, Perfumery, or Toilet Water after.

DEMAS BARNES & CO., Props. Exclusive Agents, N. Y. Sold by druggists and dealers on the Pacific Coast.

Mustang Lintment.

Have you a hurt child or a lame horse? Use the Mexican Mustang Lintment. For cuts, sprain, lacerations, swellings and caked breasts, the Mexican Mustang Lintment is a certain cure.

For rheumatism, neuralgia, stiff joints, stings and bites, there is nothing like the Mexican Mustang Lintment.

For sprained horses, the poll evil, ring bone, and swellings, the Mexican Mustang Lintment never fails. For wind galls, scratches, leg head and splints, the Mexican Mustang Lintment is worth its weight in gold.

Cuts, bruises, sprains and swellings, are so common and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Lintment is the best investment that can be made.

It is more certain than the doctor—it saves time in sending for the doctor—it is cheaper than the doctor, and should never be dispensed with.

"In hitting the kettle from fire, it tipped over and scalded my hands terribly." * * * The Mustang Lintment extracted the pain, and caused the sore to heal rapidly, and left a very little scar. Cuts, Frost-bites, &c.

Mrs. S. Litch, of Hyde Park, Vt., writes: "My horse was considerably worked, (sprain) and the doctor, after using the Mustang Lintment, has sold him for $150. Your Lintment is doing wonders up here. All genuine is wrapped in steel plate engravings, signed by the proprietor, Charles Barnes, and bears the private U. S. stamp of Demas Barnes & Co., over the top. Look closely. Sold by all druggists, 25, 50 cts., and $1.00.

LYON'S FLEA POWDER.

DEATH TO FLEAS!—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Flea Powder will perfectly destroy every variety of flea, dog flea, bed-bug, tick, and all other insects that infest the human species and domestic animals. The genuine has the signature of E. T. Lyon on its wrapper, and is sold by all druggists. Beware of cheap imitations. Take no other. Any druggist will procure the genuine, if you insist you will have no other.

LYON'S EXTRACT GINGER.—For Indigestion, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, Flatulency, &c., where a warming and entire purgative is required, a small preparation and entire purgative make it a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold everywhere at 50 cts. per bottle. Ask for "LYON'S" Pure Extract. Take no other. Beware of cheap imitations. The private U. S. stamp of Demas Barnes & Co. is over the cork of each bottle. None other is genuine. 48-ly.

Lyon's Katharon.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing. It eradicates scurf and dandruff. It keeps the hair cool and clean. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy. It prevents hair turning gray and falling out. It restores hair prematurely lost. It is just what Lyon's Katharon will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is literally sold by the car load, and yet its almost incredible demand is daily increasing, until there is hardly a man's hair store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it. E. T. LYON, Chemist, N. Y.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

SO WIDE IS THE FIELD OF ITS USEFULNESS and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons who can testify to its efficacy. It is a safe and reliable remedy in all cases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. With many inferior remedies that are given upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted that can never be forgotten, and produced cures too numerous to be remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is as well as its name, and that it is a safe and reliable remedy in all cases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary.

616 KEARNEY STREET, corner Commercial, San Francisco, established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc.

DOCTOR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among those of Dublin, London and Paris.

DOCTOR GIBBON has also visited Victoria, of London, Paris, Lyons, England, and the principal physicians and surgeons in the world, and whose testimony is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Diseases.

DOCTOR GIBBON has obtained from them their new mode of treatment, which cannot be surpassed.

DOCTOR GIBBON has spent neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, but has returned with new facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering with terrible
