

The News of the Assassination and How it was Received in Walla Walla.

On Saturday afternoon last the dead news was flashed over the telegraph wire to the STATESMAN office that the nation's chief had been laid prostrate by the hand of an assassin and that his death could be expected at any moment.

Voters, Look Before You Leap.

Although the water question, in itself considered, may be in the last extremity so far as the bringing of the dirty waters of Mill creek to this city is concerned, the STATESMAN never considers an object attained until the subject found is dead beyond the possibility of resurrection.

Now, then, the question is this: Our city fathers are men of unquestioned integrity, they have established a name for honesty and straightforward conduct that gives them good reason to be proud of the reputation they so well deserve.

All the opposition to the STATESMAN on this most important question has originated from bought and paid for interested parties on the Ohio principle of "you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours."

It is strange, passing strange, how the Standard managers are wedded to their idols. Portland is a field where a live independent democratic newspaper could live and flourish, but it seems that the present editor prefers to work for a lot of nose black political fossils rather than for the people at large.

Hope for the Best.

If an intense wish, as Herbert Spencer says, is nine-tenths of the power required to attain an object, then the president of the United States may be looked upon as a well man, for never in the history of this great Nation has there been such wide spread and heart felt wishes for the recovery of one of her sons when stricken.

A Subterranean River.

During the past twelve years the city of Akron, Ohio, has been agitated over a water supply. Unlike this city, the agitation has been to secure water for domestic use, and not to curb the exactions of a monopoly which controlled it.

Not Suffering.

The President has not suffered in the slightest degree from nausea during the night. His sleep was refreshing, and has had the effect of giving him a fresh acquisition of strength.

WORK WAS STOPPED.

At a depth of twenty eight feet, and then the water was flowing at the rate of 100,000 gallons an hour, and seems to increase every day. The reservoir, on the top of an adjacent hill, half a mile away, was then completed, and steam pipes were prepared to pump the water into it.

The City Election.

The election for officers for the succeeding year will take place on Monday next, and the voters will be called upon to elect men for an office in which there are no thanks and much responsibility.

WHEN Gutten, the assassin of the president, was taken to jail he was requested to take off his shoes, that being the custom in hot weather. He said: "If I go in my naked feet over the stone floor I'll catch my death of cold."

The Oregonian is a strong plagiarist; its recent "editorial" on "Ironiques" wining the Derby promoting the cause of religion was first printed in the New York Graphic.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—2 A. M.—The condition of the President has remained substantially unchanged since midnight.

Dr. Byington will devote himself to Mrs. Garfield, who it is feared cannot stand the excitement much longer, although she has borne up nobly.

The President is now more cheerful than at any time since he was stricken. He is now more cheerful than at any time since he was stricken.

Dr. Byington says that the doctors agree that the danger of "Peritonitis" is past and separation is chiefly feared.

Secretary Blaine spent an hour with Vice President Arthur to-day. The Vice President receives regular bulletins of the President's condition.

The Principles we Live By! THE SYSTEM WE HAVE ERECTED! One Price.

Everything Marked in Plain Figures.

Goods Sold only for Cash!

These principles require no explanation—they exist as they read—simple, emphatic and plain—They stand in need of no silvered language to engrave their truths on the people's mind.

The inevitable revolution of the world's progress imperatively demands business ideas founded on principles that can enlist and sustain public confidence—principles that can radically remove from the public mind the existence of doubt or misrepresentation.

The system we present has been before the public for months—the public are the judges they can best understand by comparison with other establishments whether the methods we have adopted are deserving of their confidence or otherwise.

Summer Goods!

We have now on hand every novelty to be found in the Eastern Markets suitable for Summer wear, and purchasing our goods direct from the manufacturers we are enabled to offer them at prices which cannot possibly be surpassed in San Francisco.

They are marked in plain Figures at Cash Prices and no Human Consideration can prevail upon us to make the slightest deviation, either higher or lower, from the prices marked.

Newest Designs in Dress Goods.

Fresh Novelties in Summer Calicoes and Lawns? An Immense Assortment of Piques and White Goods? Seersuckers and Fancy Gingham in endless variety Choice uses of Table Linens, Napkins and Lace Curtains? A Magnificent selection of Dolmans and Linen Dusters? Latest Summer jewelry just received from New York? The latest designs in Lace Goods and Lisle Gloves?

There is no instance of Modern Civilization in which Merchants did not advertise "Low Prices" when describing their goods and people have grown so familiar with that expression that they pay no attention to it whatever. In this age of intelligence the Public want facts—they want to know the reason why one House can sell cheaper than another. Our reason is this—In the first place, it is absolutely indispensable that Goods must be bought cheap to be sold cheap—We purchase our goods direct from the Eastern Manufacturers for Cash—other houses may do the same—perhaps.

WE SELL ALTOGETHER FOR CASH

That's the Pillar upon which all business calculations rest. We mark our goods in plain figures at the lowest living rate of profit, because we sell for cash. We prefer to Sell One Thousand Dollars worth of goods at a small profit than Five Hundred Dollars worth at a large profit. We run no risk because we sell for cash. When we sell goods to a customer cheaper than they ever bought them before we consider it our greatest advertisement—that's our aim—we want to convince the public by the stern logic of existing facts that we are ABLE to sell goods as low as any house in San Francisco.

If we gave credit, how could we have one price? How could we mark our Goods in plain figures? It stands to reason that we should make provisions for doubtful and Bad Book debts by getting EXTRA HIGH prices from Cash Customers. Common understanding will readily point out that, that would be the only way to keep even. But those considerations we take no notice of whatever—they don't belong to our system—we have no Book Debts to drag along from year to year nor do we propose to have any. Our system is entirely CASH and one price to all whether Man, Woman or Child.

OUR COUNTRY ORDERS.

We furnish free on application samples of any goods in our establishment at the same prices and guarantee the same satisfaction in the execution of all orders entrusted to us, as if the customers were personally present to make their own selection. We know its our interest to do so; we know that if a lady has her order faithfully executed we gain her confidence, that's what we want. We want to gain the confidence of ladies residing in the country, that would be the only way to direct from the Eastern Manufacturers for Cash—other houses may do the same—perhaps.

ONLY ONE PRICE!

THE OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

To be Married.—Mr. Wiley Laster and Miss Reimold are to be joined in the holy bonds of wedlock on Sunday next.

Laid Over.—The argument for a new trial in the case of Dr. Southerland, found guilty of poisoning Miss Log, has been continued over for the term.

New Hotel.—Piedmont, the City of Hotels, is understood to have another hotel to be known as the Railroad House.

A Feature.—Gambrian's car of state, by the employees of Stahl's brewery was one of the features of the procession.

Over the Mountains.—Mr. Oakes will follow along the line of the Northern Pacific over the great continental divide until he reaches Mr. Starbuck, who is on a tour of inspection from the East.

Good Work.—Mayor McAdill's lumber mill closed down on Saturday last after a three months' run.

Persons.—Considerable of our space this week is devoted to a most important article which we clip from the San Francisco Bulletin regarding the poisonous adulteration of baking powders.

Slow Line.—On the 1st of July Mr. McLaughlin started a daily stage line from Helena to Wagnersville via the Warm Springs.

West Shore.—The West Shore of the present month is one of the best numbers yet issued. It is devoted to a great extent to Virginia and British Columbia and the magazines are the best that ever appeared.

Libertarian.—Mr. Uffam is always a gentleman, and the Statesman office returns thanks to him for his thoughtfulness in sending down the dispatch received on Tuesday evening by Gen. Grover, giving us the encouraging news of the probable recovery of the president.

Not Necessarily.—Agnes Malloy, a niece of Mr. Cullen, who was representing one of the states in the car of liberty, was struck by a wire while the procession was moving across Palace street, cutting a gash in her scalp.

Basilizer.—Active arrangements for the production of "Basilizer" is being made. The people may well expect to see the grandest musical concert ever given in this city.

Thanks.—To E. W. Mitchell, Esq., for his kindness in returning to us the report and statement of the short hand report and statement of the press of the oration of Hon. T. H. Burke, delivered here July 3d.

Prize.—Vigilant Hook & Ladder Company's prize was not the success anticipated. The day was clouded and chilly, and the people did not give the reported assistance.

Old Charles.—Yes, there is no doubt that the exercise of a little out of the city would allow you a car, tag and two horses for the benefit of your health.

Mistake will occur.—The Statesman's sold in blunders, therefore we hope that our patrons will excuse the mistake of its columns being in mourning on Saturday evening when the news of the President's death arrived here.

Daily Times.—This is a daily paper started at Spokane Falls, and if the initial number by any criterion it will be a success, for it is ably edited and contains a good assortment of local news and a fair advertising patronage.

Extras.—From the minute the news was received here of the dastardly attempt on the life of our President the Statesman office has issued four extras in order to reach the mind of the public whose anxiety was most intense.

Property List of Walla Walla County.—By returns just received we find the number of acres of decided land in this county to be 134,861; with a cash value of $1,336,060.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

A Cold-Blooded Attempt at Murder by a Crazy Office-Seeker.

The Physicians Now Have Hope for the President's Ultimate Recovery.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—This morning witnessed a scene unparalleled in the history of the country. The assassination of Lincoln, coming as it did, at the close of a long and desperate war, and as the last expiring throes of that war—here in hate and passion—was an infinitely more logical event than this horror. A dumb horror seems to have taken possession of every body, and few appear to realize the present situation, much less to forecast the future. A great crowd gathered about the depot in which the president was shot. A hundred different and conflicting stories of the manner of the shooting and of its effect spread like wild fire throughout the city. By common consent business was suspended in the shops and stores as well as in the public offices, and the population of Washington emptied itself into the streets and gathered at every corner to listen to the newest tales told of the tragedy. An account of the shooting given by Secretary Blaine to Judge Shellbarger this afternoon is probably as accurate as any that can be obtained.

The president and Mr. Blaine rode to the depot this morning in a carriage together. Mr. Blaine says that President Garfield was in an unusually joyous mood and several times expressed his keen gratification that the relations between himself and the members of his cabinet were so harmonious, and that the administration was a unit. When the carriage arrived in front of the depot the president and Mr. Blaine left it and entered the ladies' waiting room, through which they passed arm in arm. Mr. Blaine says he dropped the president's arm as they were passing through the door into the main room at which instant two shots were fired. Mr. Blaine saw a man running and started towards him, but turned almost immediately and saw that the president had fallen. It was then that he first realized that the shots had been fired at the president. He sprang toward him, as did several others, and raised his head from the floor. As the president fell he exclaimed "My God!" At this time Postmaster General James, Secretary Windom and Secretary Lincoln, who had arrived earlier at the train, were promenade on the platform outside. General James says that Col. Jamison of the postoffice department rushed out of the depot immediately after the shots were fired and exclaimed, "The president is shot!" Either the secretary or another gentleman of the party exclaimed "Oh, nonsense," Col. Jamison said "I saw it!" The party then rushed back and found Blaine, who appeared to be the only cool man in the crowd, bending over the president and keeping the people back. Physicians were hastily summoned and Drs. Bliss, Ryburn and several others were soon in attendance. The president was removed to a room in the second story and a preliminary examination of his wound was made, but the wound, which had entered the right side of the back, near the spinal column and immediately over the hip bone, could not be found, although its course was traced for about three inches.

As soon as he fired the shot the assassin was seized by Officer Carney and immediately hurried away to police headquarters. This was fortunate for him, for as soon as the dazed crowd ascertained that the murderer was in custody, there was talk of lynching him; and if the excited crowd could have had hands on him, his fate would have been a sudden and tragic one. Guitteau was locked up and physicians summoned. On the arrival of the prisoner at the headquarters he was at once locked up, and word having been sent in every direction for physicians, Dr. Townsend, health officer, responded, and subsequently Dr. J. H. Baxter, of the army, Dr. Tell, of the navy and Dr. D. W. Bliss responded. Guitteau did not throw the pistol away, but had it in his hand when arrested. The crowd outside the depot seemed at a loss whether to go to police headquarters and lynch the party, but about 9:45 word came out of the room in which the president was taken that the wound on the body was not necessarily fatal, but that the ball could not be probed for until after, and that one ball had wounded him in the right arm just below the shoulder. This seemed to relieve the crowd somewhat, and while it became more and more dense it quietly awaited further news.

At about 10 o'clock A. M. the chief of police having, after consultation with Gen. Sherman, ordered out a large detail of the police force, a police ambulance was driven to the front door of the depot. The president appeared to be sleeping and was deathly pale. Just as he was placed in the ambulance he opened his eyes. The streets in the neighborhood of the depot were thronged with people as also was the avenue. Everything was very quiet. As the president was being placed in the ambulance somebody called out, "Hurrah for the man who shot him," but the indignant crowd could not discover the guilty person.

News from Various Points. CINCINNATI, July 2.—There are inquiries from all parts of the country for news. Every news center is thronged. Intense sorrow is manifested. This city is deeply stirred by profound grief and indignation. LITTLE ROCK.—The news created intense excitement. There is universal sorrow at the atrocious deed. A citizens meeting has been called. DETROIT.—There are deep excoriations mingled with excitement and greatest solicitude for the president. PITTSBURGH.—Intense excitement on the streets. NEW YORK.—Stocks show an increased excitement and depression. BROOKLYN.—Business suspended. BALTIMORE.—Excitement in the city is intense. THE Feeling in New York. NEW YORK, July 3.—At the sub-treasury and custom house there is great concern, and messages are constantly being given intelligence. Collector Merritt is much agitated and remarked, when asked as to the political significance of the event: "When Garfield dies, Arthur is president." The mayor had the flag at half mast early, but took it down when he learned Gen. Sherman was not dead.

A Starting Theory. WASHINGTON, July 2.—There is a theory which has many adherents that the attempted assassination was not the work of lunatics but the result of a plot much deeper and darker than has been supposed. It is stated in support of this theory that Guitteau arrived beforehand with a hackman so as to be ready for the president when he arrived at the depot. Guitteau's Defense. CHICAGO, July 3.—Henry Norris says there is no way of punishing the assassin, who is surely a lunatic to his personal knowledge. The only thing possible is to shut him up in the asylum for the dangerous and insane. The Murder of Blaine sought. Benson, ex-chief of secret service, who happened to be standing near, heard the shot, rushed to the assassin and just as he was about to raise the pistol with three chambers will loaded, to shoot Blaine, it is thought, throttled him and threw him to the ground. Who the Wretch Is. WASHINGTON.—Charles Guitteau, who would be assassin, is a foreigner by birth, and has been a very persistent applicant for a consular position. He has haunted the executive mansion for several weeks, and his disappointment at not getting what he wanted has caused temporary aberration of mind. The Dastard's Host. After the shooting and after Scott and Carney got hold of the assassin, he taking him to the police headquarters, he said voluntarily to them, "I did it and will go to jail for it. I am a stalwart and Arthur will be president." He had a letter in his hands and wanted the officers to take it to Gen. Sherman, saying would be all right. The prisoner made no resistance, saying he had contemplated the killing of the president and it was for the good of the country. About 9 o'clock this morning the assassin went to a hack stand adjoining the station and engaged a hack. He told the driver he wanted to go to Greenwood cemetery in a short time, and wanted to be driven very fast when he should get into the hack, and agreed to pay two dollars for the hack on condition that the hackman would drive fast. When stopped the assassin was going to the hack he had engaged, and he insisted that it was important for him to get and deliver a message to Gen. Sherman, and when the officers refused to let him go he begged them to take the letter he had to Gen. Sherman, of which the following is a copy: WHITE HORSE, July 2. The president's death was a sad necessity, but it will unite the republican party and save the republic. Life is a flimsy dream, and it matters little when he goes. A human life is of small value. During the war thousands of brave boys went down without a tear. I presume the president was a Christian and that he will be happy in paradise here. It will be no wonder if Mr. Garfield, dear soul, to part with her husband this way than by natural death. He is liable to go at any time. The papers referred to in Guitteau's letter to Gen. Sherman have not yet been given out for publication. Byron Andrews, who is the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, says that while it is true that a package of papers are in the hands of the police, accompanied by a note addressed to him (Andrews) he has no personal acquaintance with Guitteau and never heard of his existence until this morning. The following letter was found on the streets shortly after Guitteau's arrest in an envelope unsealed and addressed, "Please deliver at once to Gen. Sherman or his first assistant in charge of the war department."

GENERAL SHERMAN:—I have just shot the president. I shot him several times as I wished him to go as easily as possible. I am a lawyer, theologian and politician, and am a stalwart of the stalwarts. I was with Gen. Grant and the rest of our men in New York during the canvass. I am going to jail. Yours respectfully, CHARLES GUITTEAU. On receiving the above Gen. Sherman gave it the following endorsement: HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Washington, July 2, 1881—11:35 A. M. This letter was handed to me this minute by Maj. William B. Twining, U. S. engineers, commissioner of District of Columbia, and Major Wm. G. Breck and chief of police. I don't know the writer, nor heard of or saw him to my knowledge, and hereby return to the keeper of the above named parties as testimony in the case. W. T. SHERMAN, General.

THE ASSASSINATION too serious to subject to be talked of in a moment and the hallway rear his room a few minutes after, and when asked his opinion of the shooting begged to be excused. He said, "The news has found me so unprepared and overwhelmed with personal cares that it has almost stunned me. May God grant that it may not be true. It is the most terrible incident in our history since that of Lincoln's assassination, but if it is true may heaven help the country." Coupling then turned away and went to his room.

DISMISSED PROMOTION.—C. H. Prescott, Eq., late controller of the O. R. & N. Co., is to be general manager of the company, vice T. F. Oakes who will hereafter have his office in New York. We congratulate Mr. Prescott upon this well-earned promotion. FURTHER DRIVERS.—Great interest is being taken in the fruit drying business. H. M. Prier & Co. have already sold what Zimmerman Fruit Dryers they had on hand and have a fresh invoice on the way, they are superior to all others. NEW FIRM.—Drs. Mack and Clow the new firm dentists have hitched traces and are now to be found in Dr. Clow's old quarters. We are sure that these gentlemen will do the business their ability deserves.

MEAT MARKET.—Mr. Henry Scholl has now taken the Opera House market and he will run a free delivery wagon. THE FEELING IN NEW YORK. NEW YORK, July 3.—At the sub-treasury and custom house there is great concern, and messages are constantly being given intelligence. Collector Merritt is much agitated and remarked, when asked as to the political significance of the event: "When Garfield dies, Arthur is president." The mayor had the flag at half mast early, but took it down when he learned Gen. Sherman was not dead.

OFFICE OF THE PACIFIC MUTUAL Life Insurance Company.

OF CALIFORNIA. SACRAMENTO, July 1, 1880.

TO ALL MEMBERS OF SECURING THE BENEFITS OF LIFE INSURANCE:—The first consideration for applicants for life insurance is, or at least should be, SAFETY. Will the money paid out for the Policy be prudently invested? Are the affairs of the Company honestly and efficiently administered? When the Policy becomes a Claim, will it be promptly paid, and thus the object which induced the payment of the premiums be fully attained? There are queries naturally suggested and the character of the answers determines the course of the questioner and the selection of his Company. In this connection, the Managers of the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY respectfully beg leave to submit the following facts and statements concerning their Company:

1. Since its organization, A. D. 1868, it has paid 553 death losses on policies amounting in the aggregate to $202,575. 2. It has paid to Policy Holders, for Matured Endowments, Dividends, and Surrender Values, in Round Numbers, $1,000,000. 3. Its losses have been paid PROMPTLY and WITHOUT LITIGATION. No judgment arising from a policy claim has ever been rendered against it, and it has no suits of this character pending. 4. It has repeatedly been examined by SWORN EXPERTS, and most thorough and searching investigations made of its condition and business, and in every case its solvency and trustworthiness have been demonstrated. 5. Its Stockholders and Directors are widely known as among the most capable business men and ablest financiers of the State of California, and the integrity of their management is unquestioned. 6. The laws of the State, including the constitutional provisions affecting corporations, are of the most right character, such as to make the company one of the safest institutions of its kind.

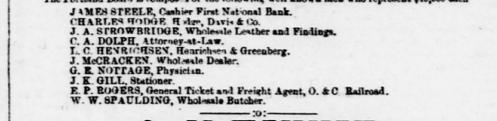

Section 3 of Article XII of the New Constitution of the State of California, is as follows: Sec. 3. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder, as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association, during the term of office of such Director or Trustee. 7. Its policy contracts contain no restrictions upon residence or travel, and its forms of insurance are unusually attractive. The Low Rate, Deposit Endowment, and Mutual Investment Policies, are peculiar to this Company, and offer advantages to the insured which are not surpassed, if equaled by those of any other Company. 8. When desired, Policies can be registered by the Insurance Commissioners of California, in the payment of a moderate fee; and a policy holder in the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA has then the absolute guarantee of the State of California that the money held by this company against the contingency of his death is secured by bonds and mortgages deposited in the State Treasury. With December 31st, 1879, the Company closed its eleventh year, and in so doing affords the only instance on record in which a life insurance company in the eleventh year of its existence was enabled to pay its death losses from interest receipts; not only was this done but in addition thereby a considerable surplus remained. Believing ourselves entitled to the confidence and business of such as properly affecting insurance upon human life, we solicit their patronage, and pledge ourselves to discharge to the best of our ability the important and sacred trust devolved upon us.
