

COT. JOHNSON, Paymaster U. S. Army, is at Walla Walla on his way to Fort Lapwai to pay off the troops stationed at that post.

NEWSPAPER BIKK.—M. A. Murray, living at La Grande, Oregon, is endeavoring to "bikk" this office out of $15—three years' subscription. Newspaper publishers should look out for the swindler.

REMY.—On visiting the Court room yesterday, we found the Clerk and Sheriff busily engaged in making out papers preparatory to the October term of the District Court. Judging from appearances, the lawyers are likely to have a busy time.

FOR SEYMOUR AND BLAIR.—At the invitation of the Democratic Central Committee, N. T. Caton, Esq., of Walla Walla, will take the stump in Franklin county on behalf of the democratic ticket. Mr. C. is an able and eloquent speaker and will render valuable service in aid of the good cause.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Our friends Summers and Butler, of the N. Y. Mutual Life Insurance Company, are sojourning at Walla Walla, and will be pleased to give information in regard to the merits of life insurance. We commend these gentlemen to those of our readers who would "take a bond against fate."

PRAIRIE CHICKENS.—The prairies adjoining town are literally alive with prairie chickens, which at this season of the year are almost equal to the "yellow leg chickens" of the yards. Our young Nimrods have now a chance to enjoy the sports of the field, and in a few hours can bag their six and eight dozen chickens.

EMIGRANTS.—Quite a number of immigrants have come into this Valley within the last week. Those of them that passed through town looked well, and are of a class that will make valuable citizens. One company, camped on the outskirts of town, hail from Minnesota, and came through under the guidance of Dr. W. C. Lo Dow, who will be recollecting as a pioneer settler in Walla Walla. This company made the journey in 2 1/2 months, and describe it as little more than a pleasure trip.

PROMOTED.—W. C. Child, for a year or more the courteous and popular agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., at Walla Walla, has received orders to take charge of the express office at Winnemucca, a new town that has sprung up on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad. This town will be the distributing point for merchandise intended for the Owyhee country, and from its location must become a place of considerable commercial importance. We congratulate our young friend on his promotion.

BOISE MAIL ROBBERIES.—Four men who were implicated in the late mail robbery were arrested at Boise City in the early part of the week. The officer started to take them to Portland, but on the way down two of the robbers managed to slip their irons and made their escape. One of the men who thus got off is named John Wheeler, who is described as the worst villain in the gang. This fellow Wheeler was deputy U. S. Marshal for Idaho Territory. The other man who got away is named George Savage, who formerly kept a saloon at Sumnerville, Oregon. A large reward is offered for the arrest of these men.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—Patrick McNamara has brought suit in the District Court against S. M. Watt, County Commissioner, for $5,000 damages. The statement of the complainant is, that in altercation with the defendant the latter beat him over the head with a pick handle, and that in endeavoring to ward off the blows his right arm was broken. A criminal suit is also instituted on the same charge. The difficulty occurred at Walla Walla, in this county, on the 21st ult. The circumstances that led to the affray, as we learn from them, are as follows: McNamara was very drunk, and whilst in that condition visited Mr. Watt's premises. He was ordered to leave, but instead of doing so, he used vile and insulting language. He was finally induced to go away, but returned a second time and renewed his abuse, when Mr. W. used the violence which led to the suit for the damages. This is the statement given by the defendant's friends, and as such we give it to the public. Messrs. Caton & Ross appear as attorneys for the complainant.

BOISE CORRESPONDENCE.—BOISE CITY, August 29, 1868. EDITOR STATESMAN.—The elections have been held, and ere this you have doubtless heard that victory has again perched itself upon the banners of democracy of the Territory of Idaho. All hail the "Gem of the Mountains."

GRASSHOPPERS.—This plague, almost equalling the plague of the locusts of ancient Egypt, still hangs with a demoralizing effect upon Boise Valley, destroying everything in the shape of vegetation within their reach. The fields, (especially those planted in corn) present a somewhat forlorn picture. During my rambling around I noticed several fields where the blades, ears and part of the stalk were eaten off. This article will be scarce in this market this fall, and we look for the people of Walla Walla to relieve us in our distress.

THE MILITARY.—Are kept quite busy looking after the "brave boys in blue," they showing a disposition to seek a more genuine game than that which immediately surrounds Fort Boise. Last night, the force of one of our citizens was entered, and a search instituted for one of the "leg-bail" gentlemen, but to no purpose (the bird had flown). A citizen was arrested to-day by the military authorities for harboring deserters from the army of the United States, but as to the result of which, I am not informed.

A BET.—A republican, for some time past, has been offering to back his opinion, that Grant would be elected with $1,000, and boasted the democrats would not cover it on Seymour. It is needless to say that he did not hunt very long. A stirring old democrat covered the republican's bet, and is confident he will win.

HARVEST.—The commenced in earnest, and some of the fields are already cut as smooth as a carpet. The grain crops of Boise Valley will be only medium this year, owing to those infernal pests, the grasshoppers.

ACTIVE PREPARATIONS.—Are being made for the meeting of the Legislature, and to renovate and refurnish is the order of the day. Unlike the most of places, Boise City sees its most lively periods during the winter season. From the commencement of the legislative session until its close, everything in the way of trade is very lively and active. It is the general opinion that the Capital of Idaho Territory will present more attractions this season than the visitor, than any one previous, owing to the fact that everybody is prepared to meet the demands in the way of accommodations.

THE FRUIT MARKET.—Is mostly supplied with the productions of my old home, Walla Walla. In this trade the Valley, and is justly entitled to the name of "The Gem of the Mountains." Defines all competitors, Apples, pears and plums from your Valley, and some of much finer flavor than that brought from California. Yours, CACTUS.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS.

[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

AID TO SOUTHERN CIVIL AUTHORITIES BY THE MILITARY.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Instructions have been sent from the Adjutant General's office to the Department Commanders relating to the use of troops in aid of the civil authorities in the South. A letter from the Attorney General has embodied these instructions setting forth the conditions under which Marshals and Sheriffs may command the assistance of the military to execute lawful processes issued by competent authority. The obligations of military individuals, officers and soldiers, in common with all citizens to obey the summons of Marshals and Sheriffs must be held subservient to the paramount duty as members of a permanent military body, since troops can act only in their proper organized capacity under their own officers and in obedience to immediate orders of those officers. An officer commanding troops, summoned to aid any Marshal or Sheriff must also judge for himself, on his own official responsibility, whether the service is lawful, necessary and compatible with a proper discharge of his ordinary military duties, and must limit his action absolutely to proper aid in the execution of lawful process exhibited to him by a marshal or sheriff. If time will permit, every demand from a civil officer for military aid, whether for the execution of civil process or to suppress insurrection, should be forwarded to the President, with all the material facts of the case for his orders, and in all cases the highest commander whose orders can be given in time to meet the emergency, will alone assume the responsibility of action by a military disposition of troops where there is reason to apprehend the necessity for their use. By their passive interposition between the hostile parties the danger of collision may be avoided.

Department commanders, and, in cases of necessity, their subordinates, are expected in this regard to exercise their own responsibility and use discretion to the end that peace may be preserved.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE.—La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 27.—The republicans have renominated C. C. Washburne for Congress.

St. Louis, Aug. 27.—Gen. Wm. A. Pile was unanimously renominated for Congress in this District.

Columbia, Aug. 27.—The Legislature has elected eight Circuit Judges to-day. Governor Orr was one. Philadelphia, Aug. 27.—Hon. Charles Gilpin, the present incumbent, declines to surrender the office of United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania to Hon. Charles O'Neill. The President submitted the case to Attorney General Evans. Judge Caldwell refused to administer the oath of office to O'Neill, on the ground that the appointment is illegal.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 27.—A minority of the committee on privileges presented a report against the eligibility of a negro member. A point of order was made that a minority could not report before the majority. The Speaker overruled the point on the ground that the question had been before the committee six weeks and the majority had failed to make a report. The House sustained the Speaker. The Speaker also decided that one class of members on trial for ineligibility could not be allowed to vote on the eligibility of others. An appeal was taken from this decision and the chair was sustained.

THE CAMPAIGN GETTING ACTIVE.—Chicago, Aug. 26.—The Presidential campaign is becoming very active throughout the North and Northwest. Both parties have a number of speakers in the field. Mass meetings are being held constantly and great earnestness is manifested by both sides, but the canvass is progressing thus far in a most orderly manner.

Hartford, Aug. 25.—The campaign in Connecticut was opened by George H. Pendleton, who addressed a large audience at Allen Hall, to-day.

MRS. SURREAT.—Gen. Hunter publishes a card, stating that he headed the list of the Commission for trying Mrs. Surreat, who petitioned the President for pardon. He says that while his oath and military law prohibit making known the case, he can, with propriety, look with contempt on the execution of a poor woman while excusing some thousands of rebel men, who much more deserved slaughtering.

TENNESSEE AFFAIRS.—Nashville, Aug. 28.—The Senate passed a resolution for the appointment of a joint special committee to wait on the President in person and ask that measures for the protection of the people of the State be adopted. The Legislature desires to exhaust all possible means for protection before calling out the military.

SOUTHERN POLITICS.—White Sulphur Springs, Va., Aug. 28.—Gen. Rosecrans left for Washington, taking with him an address of the Southern representatives here. The General declined to make it known, but in substance a proclamation of the sentiments of the Southern people on the political situation will be made public by Gen. Rosecrans, with an address of his own, through the Central Democratic Conservative Executive Committee at Washington. It is signed by Generals Lee, Beauregard, Echols, Anderson, Stephens, Governor Letcher and Perkins, and all the prominent men here.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 28.—In trying a case to-day by the Circuit Court, an order was received from the military commander directing the case to be dismissed. The counsel for the plaintiff will probably apply to the higher court for a mandamus to compel the Judge to try the case, thus testing the constitutionality of the reconstruction act.

MORTALITY AMONG HORSES.—New York, Aug. 28.—Disease has broken out among the street car horses. Sixteen out of 33 have died since Monday. It is supposed to be a spinal disease, and not contagious.

It is now stated that Gen. Rosecrans addressed a letter to Gen. Lee, requesting a written expression of the latter's view of the best plan for restoring good feeling. Lee replied by expressing his reverence for the Constitution, and desire for the complete union of the States as formerly, and a belief that his desire is shared by the mass of the reflecting people of the South. Lee says the South are anxious for peace and peaceful administration of the Government. They long for privileges of self government. The Southern people will treat the colored people kindly and humanely, if left to themselves. He emphatically deprecates any attempt to commit the political destinies of the South to colored people before they are prepared for such responsibility. He considers such attempts fraught with misfortune, calamity and destruction to the negroes themselves. His letters are endorsed by Beauregard, Stephens and Stuart.

The Crops Throughout the Country.—The telegraph has brought news from all parts of the country in reference to the crops. The intelligence may be considered as highly favorable to the agricultural interests, as may be seen from the following summary:

The wheat crop is, according to locality, from 25 to 50 per cent. larger than it was last year in West Virginia, Indiana, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Utah, Colorado, Montana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and New Hampshire, and the quality is regarded as excellent. In Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, and Texas the reports are not so good, the yield being indifferent. In Louisiana, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Maryland, Southwestern Virginia, Central Tennessee, North Carolina, Delaware, and Vermont the crop has been an average one. The corn crop in all sections of the country is reported to be very large, and the quality remarkably good. The yield this year, it is asserted, will be fully one-third more than last. This especially the case in the Southern States.

The oat crop will be less than usual in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and Maine, on account of the rains. In Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, and the other Southern States it will not be more than an average one. The yield of oats, however, will be larger in Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Indiana, Missouri, Kansas, Ohio, Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Vermont, New York, and Illinois, especially in the latter State.

The hay crop will yield more than the average returns, especially in Pennsylvania, New York, Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey, Delaware, and Maryland, where the hay will be abundant and of excellent quality. The barley crop will not be above the average. The potato crop is reported large and good. The hopes in Pennsylvania, it is stated, have been killed by heavy mildew from the rains and by lice.

The fruit crop, especially in the middle States, is very poor. The peach crop will not be half what it was last year, but in the extreme South it looks better. In New York the apple crop is more promising than in any other State. In the South the sugar crop is said to be very promising, but very few canes were planted this year. Cotton has been injured by the caterpillar in Florida, but in other parts of the country the reports are encouraging.

NATIONAL CREDIT.—England owes $1,000,000,000. We owe $2,500,000,000. England pays $120,000,000 a year interest. We pay $150,000,000. England pays three per cent. We pay six. How about the credit of the two countries? England borrows all she wants at less than half the percentage of interest of the government of the United States pays, and the reason why she does it is, that she holds the correct idea on subject of taxation. The screws have turned as severely as England's wealthy creditors will bear, and the total is $370,000,000 per year. We have had to stand $560,000,000. England has $32,000,000,000 of wealth to tax. We have not half that sum. The back bone of this country was broken in 1866, when we raised that big load of $560,000,000; and we have shown signs of increasing weakness since that period. At this moment "our resources" do not permit us to raise much over half the sum, above mentioned. With all our boasting, the English capitalists know exactly our national calibre. They know exactly our resources. They have a clearer conception of the limit of our credit, a more perfect comprehension of our property creating power, than we ourselves have, for it is their business to study these things, and we have been given a degree in the great national mercantile books of the European capitalists, below that of half a dozen of the old dynasties, which we are pleased to denounce "rotten." It is quite likely that we could not borrow a dollar at six per cent. when Austria could obtain it at half that rate. Our six per cent. bonds are on the market to-day in Frankfurt with no sales, while those of Austria, paying only four per cent, are selling.

GOOD MANNERS.—Young folks should be mannerly, but how is the question. Many good boys and girls feel that they cannot behave to suit themselves in the presence of company. They feel timid, bashful and self-distrustful, the moment they are addressed by a stranger, or appear in company. There is but one way to get over this feeling and acquire easy and graceful manners—that is, do the best they can all the time, at home as well as abroad. Good manners are not learned so much as acquired by habit. We must be courteous, agreeable, civil, kind, gentlemanly and womanly at home, and then it will become a kind of second nature to be so everywhere. A coarse, rough manner at home, begets a roughness which we cannot leave off, if we try, when among strangers. The most agreeable people we have ever known in company, are those who are the most agreeable at home. Home is the school for all the best things.

The editor of the Cynthia (Ky.) News, in making an appeal to his subscribers who are in arrears to pay up, says: "We hope they will settle without delay. Not that we need the money—oh, no! Our ink is given to us, we steal our paper, and we win our printers' wages at seven up." Nevertheless as a matter of accommodation, and to ease their consciences, we will take what they owe us, if they send it in immediately."

A singular freak of Nature was seen in an Arkansas town recently, in the shape of a man with three ears; one on each side of his head, and a third—which belonged to another fellow—between his teeth.

Premiums will be awarded on articles not in the above list if deemed of merit.

Ten per cent. will be charged for entrance fee, to be paid at the time of entering an article for exhibition.

Exhibitors must have their articles for exhibition entered at the Secretary's office, by 2 o'clock, p. m., of the second day of the fair, after which time there will positively be no entering allowed.

No animal or article entered can be removed without the consent of the Executive Committee, until the close of the third day's exercises, under penalty of the forfeiture of the premium.

Animals and articles entered for premiums must have cards attached, showing the class and number, which will be furnished by the Secretary.

All premium animals will be required to exhibit in the sweep-stake ring as above mentioned.

No person will be permitted to interfere with the judges during their examination of articles, verbally or otherwise.

The trials of speed and riding exercise will take place on the last day of the fair, at the Race Course, or some other suitable place to be designated.

Hay will be furnished free of charge for all animals entered for exhibition.

The Executive Committee will use all due diligence for the safe keeping and preservation of all animals and articles offered for exhibition.

Good and comfortable stalls will be provided for animals.

Hay will be respectfully requested to be on hands by 2 o'clock, p. m., of the second day, and sooner if convenient.

Any person may become a member of the society upon the payment of an initiation fee of $3 00.

The Secretary is prepared to furnish certificates of membership.
