Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30, 1877. EDITOR STATESMAN:—Arrangements for the next political trip of Mr. Hayes are perfected.

Worse than Slavery.

Southern journals have from time to time stated that the abolition agitation which finally produced war between the states is mainly responsible for freeing negroes in order that white men might not be enslaved.

Beating His Mother-in-Law.

The prisoner was charged with beating his mother-in-law, and when he was called upon to answer at the Tombs Police Court the magistrate gave him a scathing glance.

HAUNTED RAILROAD.

The employees of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific road, on the southwestern division, are having a little sensation of their own which is creating no inconsiderable excitement.

THE AMERICAN FEMALE VOICE.

The old dispute about the harshness of voice said to be characteristic of American women is again revived with vigor, and the charge is repeated with increased force and ferocity.

NEGRO EATING MATCH.

An eating match took place between two negroes named respectively Bill Jackson and Sam Post, at the latter's residence, in Brooklyn, to decide the relative capacity of the two men for containing solid and liquid cargo.

HEALTH AND SLOW PULSE.

Some interesting statements are reported to have been made at a meeting of the Clinical Society, London, showing that a slow pulse may in nowise interfere with health.

OLD TYPE!!

500 POUNDS OF OLD TYPE FOR SALE IN lots to suit purchasers. This type is an excellent substitute for Rabbit Metal—pronounced by those who have used it better—and is sold at one-half the price. Apply at the STATESMAN OFFICE.

SOME OF THE CHARGES AGAINST PINNEY, San Francisco's defaulting naval paymaster's clerk, have been thrown out by the grand jury...

FRANK B. CARPENTER, the artist, has sold his picture of "Signing the Proclamation of Emancipation" to a wealthy lady...

IRELAND, at least the national patriotic portion of it, cordially endorses the course of its representatives who are so abused and ridiculed by the English press...

A DARK RECORD.—In time to come the canvass of 1876 will be quoted as the darkest chapter in the career of the culminating point in the career of the most corrupt set of politicians that ever disgraced a country...

JUSTICE BRADLEY enters a plea of not guilty to the Son's indictment. He declares that there is no truth in the charge, and says that he decided the electoral vote honestly and free from political bias.

WE illustrate another feature of the proposed amendment in the case of children: One-half to the wife, and the other half to the children. Now we suppose the wife, after the death of her husband, marries again...

CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—Full returns show that the democrats will have large majorities in both branches of the California legislature. The senate stands 28 democrats to 12 republicans.

Democratic majority 42. Sargent will not take a back seat and an honest man will have the privilege of representing California in the U. S. Senate.

A STANDING ARMY.—The cry for a great army is not to keep it standing for foreign foes. Let us frankly understand why we want the splendid possession. It has been considered in cabinet and with it was considered also the proposition to build harbor gun-boats and put the government buildings by the margins of the great waters.

CHICAGO'S LATEST TROUBLE.—No event since her great fire—not even the whiskey ring exposures—has occasioned a more profound sensation or a greater excitement than the failure of the State Savings Bank of that city, and its attendant circumstances. This institution carried nearly $3,000,000, and had twelve thousand depositors.

HOW TO START A NATIONAL BANK.—The New York Holl gives the subjoined account of how National Banks were started. It says that an association of gentlemen in an Eastern State raised $300,000 in currency. They went to the office of the Register of the Treasury and exchanged their currency for three hundred thousand dollars in six per cent gold bearing bonds.

THE GREENBACK PARTY in Massachusetts, want the repeal of the specie resumption act, the restoration of the silver dollar as a full legal tender, the abolition of taxation on mortgaged property, the stoppage of further issue of gold bonds for sale in foreign markets, and a reduction of public expenditures.

The Law of Distribution. The law of distribution concerning the community property, as it now stands upon our statutes, is at this time severely criticised with a view to effect renewed legislation thereon.

The change proposed is to give one-half of the community property to the survivor, and the other half to his or her heirs. While the present law would seem unjust to the children of different parents, the proposed alteration of the law would be infinitely worse.

We illustrate another feature of the proposed amendment in the case of children: One-half to the wife, and the other half to the children. Now we suppose the wife, after the death of her husband, marries again...

THE INDIAN FAMINE.—The present famine in India threatens to be very destructive of life, notwithstanding the most energetic efforts of the government to relieve the sufferers. It affects an enormous area in the Presidencies of Madras and Bombay, and prevails throughout a country the population of which is not less than twenty-five millions.

A TEST CASE.—Navy Officer Cornell is occupying considerable space in the public eye at the present time. Not having the fear of the Presidential order to abstain from meddling actively in politics before his mind, he presided a few days ago over the state republican committee of New York.

AN INDICATION.—It is an encouraging indication for the success of the republican cause in France at the October elections, that no candidate for the assembly has been put up by the republicans against the 363 members who voted a want of confidence in the McMahon government, and that out of 166 other constituencies to be contested, there are but 5 in which more than one candidate of the same party is running.

IMMIGRATION.—The following table shows the number of arrivals at the various ports of the United States during each of the last ten years:

THE GREENBACK PARTY in Massachusetts, want the repeal of the specie resumption act, the restoration of the silver dollar as a full legal tender, the abolition of taxation on mortgaged property, the stoppage of further issue of gold bonds for sale in foreign markets, and a reduction of public expenditures.

A GROWL at California. SAN JOSE, Sept. 4, 1877. EDITOR STATESMAN.—I have now been in San Jose valley five months, and wish to give your people my views of California. I came seeking relief from an affection of the throat. I have not been free from coughing and spitting ten days out of one hundred and fifty.

THE heat of this country is fearful. It overpowers me almost daily. The water to a Walla Wallian is almost undrinkable. Renters are so high and crops so uncertain that tenants have a sure and unmistakable road to poverty. During the last twenty years some renters in this valley have paid in the way of rents $150 per acre for land, and yet they have neither land nor money.

Others may see a bright and glorious future for California, but I do not. I think no state or territory in the Union can offer so few inducements to emigration. A farmer in Walla Walla, with his little homestead, a span of horses and a wagon, is a lord in comparison with many here who "own an acre of land."

One thing here is worthy of our best attention and study: The school system. I am frequently visiting the Normal school here. Whatever advantages it may possess I hope at no distant day to turn to the advantage of our schools in Walla Walla. I am making a particular study of districts, schools and teachers. Being compelled on account of throat troubles to abandon the regular work of the ministry, I am fitting up for something else. I hope our people will feel settled and satisfied.

THE CHINESE PEET.—Queensland is even worse afflicted with the evil of Chinese immigration than the Pacific coast. The colony threatens to be completely overrun with these people, and in consequence the head of the government has sent a dispatch to the Premier of the Australian colonies, invoking co-operation to get rid of the difficulty.

THE RUSSIANS have won great victory at Plevna, having succeeded in capturing that place, after a persistent assault of three days. The Russians are displaying unprovoked activity, and evidently now are prepared to strike heavy and continuous blows. Additional reverses on the side of the Turks will no doubt induce intervention to put an end to the war.

A RELIEF.—California has done a good thing in relegating Senator Sargent back to the walks of private life. For years Sargent has been a stench in the nostrils of all honest men, and his reputation is a rebuke to whatever is corrupt and knavish in public life.

NEVADA COUNTY, Sargent's own home, defeated him in the late election. Thus one by one by the traitors who defeated the will of the people at the last presidential election are repudiated and turned adrift. It will be Mitchell's turn next.

Mother—"If Mrs. Jones comes, Jenny, say I'm not at home." "Jenny—"Oh, I dare say! And then you'll give me a whacking for telling a story."

"I never felt so frightened in my life," she said to her lover; "I turned as white as your shirt front—no"—on inspection—"very much whiter."

In the picture gallery.—Young girl: "Say, mamma, when shall we come to another of those pictures where I must shut my eyes."

A Threading Subject. EDITOR STATESMAN.—The Portland Scout criticises the closing paragraph of the "Adieu to Father Duffy," as published in your paper. The strong language no doubt hurt, but we have known bishops who were not saints, and priests who were not perfect, and because they were not what they claimed to be, were liable to err. It is proper that their errors should be pointed out. Now, what was the real cause of this change? Is it true, as the Scout says, that Father Duffy's valuable services were needed in the parish presided over by Father Brondel? We think not. This sort of reasoning throws a slur upon Father Brondel. The true cause is to be found in a misrepresentation, not to say calumny, of a priest, whom the bishop, although unwilling, was subsequently compelled to disrobe. Much inconvenience has been wrought by this change of priests, as for example, the body of a lady, who died on the 30th pending the change, had to be conveyed a distance of some 60 miles in order to obtain the assistance of a priest in her final hour; and at this place, it is not at all unlikely, that at least one soul might have had the consolations of religion, had the priest here been better acquainted with the lukewarm Catholics. Such mismanagement should not be allowed to go unrebuked. We offer up prayers that a more rational policy may hereafter prevail. AMICA JUSTITIA.

REMOVED.—New York dispatches state that the collector of the port of New York and his two principal officers are to be removed. This is a somewhat important step, and is taken, it is said after a full consideration in the cabinet. In a political point of view, the result of the removal will be to widen the breach between Conkling and the president. The New York senator has asked nothing of the present administration, but has rather stood on his dignity, as if to see if his friends in New York could be attacked. The collector of New York is Conkling's most trusted lieutenant, and it remains to be seen with what equanimity the great New York senator will view his best friend going about with his political head under his arm.

Special Notice.

WE WOULD NOTIFY THE PUBLIC THAT we will have our STORE CLOSED SATURDAY, September 8, and on MONDAY, September 17, On account of our ANNUAL HOLIDAYS.

DR. PAUL M. BRENNAN THE RENOWNED MEDICAL LECTURER AND PRACTITIONER.

Would respectfully inform the Public that he can be consulted FREE OF CHARGE upon all Chronic and Difficult Diseases, At the State House, from 10 to 12 A. M., and from 2 to 5, and from 7 to 8 P. M.

DR. BRENNAN CAN TELL THE PATIENTS' Manner of moment he comes in contact with them. This accounts in part for his wonderful success in the treatment of chronic and difficult diseases. His perfect knowledge of Physiognomy and human character, which he reads at a glance, enables him to understand the wants of each individual with whom he comes in contact, and his perfect medical knowledge enables him to prescribe the proper remedy with unerring certainty.

DR. BRENNAN has come in contact with so many people by means of his lectures both in Europe and America that he has become a perfect master in his line of business. The laws of life and health and the physical wants of men and women have been his constant study. Few men in the profession have had his broad experience, and fewer still possess his keen and liberal mind to dive into the mysteries of human nature and search out her individual wants. To attempt to treat diseases without being able to tell what the matter is with the patient is like looking into the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky for the best arts of Egypt. A timely call upon the Doctor will cost you nothing, and may be the means of saving you weeks and months of pain and suffering, a broken-down constitution and early death.

DR. BRENNAN has lectured to ladies for years, and thoroughly understands the delicate and refined organization of women, and how liable she is to suffering and disease, that many seem to know so little about. Thousands of ladies, young and old, who scarcely see a well day in the year, and thousands more who fill a premature grave might be made healthy and happy by calling in time on the Doctor. WHAT ARE YOU BENT UPON FOR? Dr. Brennan can tell your disposition, what you are best adapted for and what you will best succeed in; describe a proper partner for life, one whom you can love and be happy with, and in fact will point you the true path of life which leads to Health, Happiness and Prosperity.

YOUNG MEN. Will remember that Dr. Brennan has lectured on Manhood for years, and is perfectly familiar with the wants of all, both young and middle aged, who are troubled with Nervous Debility or premature breaking down of the constitution. Many who are weak and debilitated wait too long and let their system break down before seeking for relief. Dr. Brennan never fails to restore youthful vigor and build up the body and mind to its natural condition. Everything strictly confidential and honorable with the Doctor, and five minutes interview will convince any intelligent person that he thoroughly understands his profession. You will always find him social and glad to receive you. Catarrh and all Diseases of the Throat Cured Without Pain.

By an entirely new and pleasant system of treatment hitherto unknown to the medical profession. Also, All Disenews and Eruptions of the Skin. Pimples on the Face Removed—Complexion Beautified by the use of DR. BRENNAN'S LIQUID-BUTTE.

STEELE'S PAIN ERADICATOR.

The Most Wonderful Discovery of the Age.

IN OFFERING THIS MEDICINE IT IS NOT intended to deprive the people of a cure for every complaint on earth; but a really scientific article of the greatest merit, which will prove a boon to suffering humanity—both on account of its adaptability to both man and beast, its readiness of application, and the price being within the reach of all. It will actually cure:

- Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Gout, Swellings, Sprains, Dislocations, Burns, Scalds, Inflammation of the Kidneys, and all Nervous and Inflammatory Aches and Pains.

DR. STEELE, who has for years been in the Proprietary Medicine business, and who has traveled in various parts of the world in search of information, has great confidence in the ERADICATOR as the "Vital Force" of safe, sure and reliable remedy for general use as a Family Doctor. Provide yourself with a bottle without delay, and you will always keep it in the family and save money. Don't be lulled off with some other preparation. Take only STEELE'S PAIN ERADICATOR. We can produce thousands of testimonials as to cures made, but a trial will prove to the most skeptical that it is truly an Eradicator of Pains, Aches and Inflammations. It has been, and is now, constantly used by horse-men as a Liniment, and has saved more valuable property of that kind than any other preparation. Take pains to see that you get the genuine.

Put in large bottles, and for sale by druggists and dealers. If you happen to be in a locality where STEELE'S PAIN ERADICATOR cannot be obtained, send to the nearest wholesale druggist, or to the Agents, CRANE & BRIGHAM, Wholesale Druggists, 520 and 532 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal. Price $1 per Large Bottle, Six bottles $5.

GEN. ALFRED SULLY, of Vancouver, is at Walla Walla on military business. He has quarters at O'Brien's House.

Col. H. CLAY WOOD, a member of the Terry court of inquiry, reports that the court adjourned without completing the investigation of the charges preferred against Col. Terry.

NEW RESTAURANT.—Early the coming week Mr. Lucks will open his new restaurant, which the lovers of good living will have an opportunity of testing his merits as a cook, in which line he has an established reputation.

GEN. SHERMAN, commander-in-chief of the armies of the United States, is expected to arrive at Walla Walla in the course of the coming week. Our informant, an officer of high rank, says that he is liable to arrive here at any moment.

GLASFORD'S FERRY is now finished, and with its completion he gains 13 feet additional fall. This adds greatly to the power of his mill, and will enable him to dress lumber and mill orders with greater dispatch than heretofore.

THANKS.—The STATESMAN office is indebted to E. M. Waite, secretary of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, for a complimentary ticket to the fair, which commences at Salem, October 8th, and continues six days. If possible, the editor will put in an appearance.

RISE.—The farmers in the upper part of Lincoln county, Oregon, complain that they will lose one-third their wheat crop from rust. It principally affects the grain planted late in the spring. In the Walla Walla county farmers escape the pests that so trouble producers in less favored localities.

HON. C. C. CRAM is about to remove his family to Colfax, where he has purchased a residence. The family will reside at Colfax, but Mr. Cram will make his headquarters at the Panaway Ferry. We regret to lose the society of Mr. Cram and his estimable family, and trust that after a brief absence they will return to Walla Walla.

SEASONABLE GOODS.—Dusenbery Bros. have now in store a full stock of goods suited to the fall trade. As is their rule, their goods were bought in San Francisco and the Eastern markets for cash, and can be sold much lower than the usual rates. Our country friends will always find at Dusenbery's a full line of goods suited to their wants, and at low prices.

WELLS DRYING UP.—From some unaccountable reason nearly all the wells on the south side of Main street, and as far down as the lower district school, have gone dry. Wells that have never before been known to fail are now dry as powder houses, and in some neighborhoods great inconvenience is experienced from the scarcity of water. Just now the city water works come into play, and take the place of the dried up wells.

CHANGE IN THE WEATHER.—From the extreme heat of summer we have at once drifted into chilly winds, with the thermometer down to 50, and all the indications of an early winter. Thursday last was a particularly disagreeable day: cold winds driving the dust into everybody's eyes, and closed doors and fires being in order. Such a sudden change from extreme heat is trying on the human system, and suggests the importance of guarding against taking colds.

PEACHES AND GRAPES.—The STATESMAN office is indebted to Frank Orselli for a lot of extra fine peaches, also sundry bunches of grapes, grown in his own garden, a short distance below town. Persons who desire choice fruit will always find a full supply at Frank Orselli's, who is now prepared to fill orders to any extent. Frank has been peculiarly unfortunate of late, and hence it is more important than ever that his friends should patronize him.

OREGON STATE FAIR.—An advertisement in this week's issue will give our readers all the useful information in regard to the Oregon State Fair. The coming exhibition is expected to eclipse all previous efforts in the same direction, and with improved attractions it is thought that there will be a very large attendance of visitors from abroad. Already we hear of a large number of persons in this valley who expect to attend the exhibition. Half rates for fare will enable all who are so disposed to attend.

A FAILURE.—Capt. Stump's trial trip with his new steamer last week proved a failure. He ascended the Snake river for the distance of about five miles, when he was obliged to return. There seems to be a defect about the machinery of his boat whereby he is unable to make sufficient steam. Certain improvements and changes will be made, when it is hoped the boat will be able to make the trip. The failure is a great disappointment to the farmers along the Snake river, who looked to this boat as a means of getting their produce to market.

FALL STOCK.—Adams Bros. are now receiving and opening their fall stock of goods, and as one of the brothers expresses it, they can "cover acres and acres, if they had room to spread out." The store and both warehouses are crammed with goods, and if there is any article in the line of merchandise that they haven't got we would like to hear it named. These goods were all selected by Mr. W. P. Adams, and of course are just suited to the local trade. Now is the time for our country friends to roll in and make selections from the new stock. The goods are to be sold at the lowest rates, and those who buy from Adams Bros. will "put their money where it will do the most good."

SHOW BEEF.—Mr. Kirkman, of the "Pioneer Market," is now slaughtering a lot of beef cattle, bought from Mr. Jos. L. Miller, that are of very superior quality. Mr. Miller was one of the very first stock men in this valley to invest in a thoroughbred Durham bull, one of the lot brought here by the Saxe Bros., and from this start he has graded up his stock until now he has one of the finest bands of cattle in the country. Mr. Kirkman is always on the lookout for fine beef, and has secured all the Durham cattle ready to be put on the market. If you want an extra roset, or a juicy steak, go to the "Pioneer Market," and the ever accommodating Chris will give you just what you want.

THE TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE meets two weeks from next Monday, and already we hear that members from this county are preparing to start for the territorial capital. Hon. A. J. Gregory and Hon. W. T. Barnes probably will start in the course of the coming week. Hon. Dan Stewart, of the council, is now in the Palouse country, but is expected to return in a day or two, and most likely will at once start for Olympia. Messrs. Martin and Vausyckle, of the house, we have not heard from, but presume they will be present at the opening of the session. Both branches of the legislature show republican majorities, and without doubt will have republican presiding officers. As a matter of course the usual bills for opening roads on the Sound will be presented, and as in duty bound the Eastern members will oppose all such bills. Joe Foster will be on hand with a bill appropriating money toward opening the Snoqualmie Pass, and if persistent lying will accomplish anything, Joe will get his steal through. The question of regulating freights and fares is sure to come up, and if the Grange influence is in the ascendant we may expect to find a measure of the kind incorporated in our statute book. Heretofore much of the legislation has been of a character to reflect but little credit upon our law-makers. Let us hope that the legislature now to meet will show an improvement upon its predecessors.

EX-SENATOR KELLY, of Oregon, arrived at Walla Walla by last Sunday's train, and during his stay here was the guest of Gen. Grover. The ex-Senator was looking well and seemed to be in excellent health. He spoke of his last visit to this valley in 1863, and of the wonderful progress made since that time. He also referred to the Indian war of 1855, when he commanded the Oregon volunteers and fought the Indians for three days this side of the Touchet. The graves of the volunteers who fell in that battle can still be seen on top of a high hill, a short distance this side of the Touchet river. It was exceedingly pleasant to hear the Senator tell of early days in this valley, and of the estimate placed upon its productiveness. He says that the opinion at that time was that "this would be a good stock country, but as soon as the grass was cut off it was expected that settlers would have to abandon the valley." How greatly the early pioneers were mistaken in their estimate is proven by the tons and tons of grain that are now stacked up along the railroad awaiting shipment. Senator Kelly left by Thursday's train on his return to Portland, where he now makes his home. We trust that he may again visit our valley and partake of the hospitality of our people.

A GLUT OF GRAIN.—All the warehouses in the neighborhood of the railroad are filled with grain, and the open lots immediately adjoining are packed eight and ten sacks deep. Schwabacher Bros. have in their warehouse over eight hundred tons of wheat. Hawley, Dold & Co. have six hundred tons in their warehouse, and as much more stacked up in an adjoining lot. Adams Bros. have their warehouse packed with grain, and Johnson, Rees & Winters are in the same condition. The facilities for shipping fall short of the demand, and it is now a question whether the railroad and steamboats will be able to get the wheat out of the country before the close of the season. It is computed that there are fifteen thousand tons of grain now at the railroad awaiting shipment, and it continues to come in much faster than it is taken away. The fault, as we are informed, is with the steamboats, their average being less than two hundred tons a day. It is a great misfortune to have the wheat left in the country, and it is to be hoped that the O. S. N. Company will yet make provision for moving all the grain that offers.

HEPNER.—A lady correspondent furnishes a description of this little town that has recently sprung up at the foot of the Blue Mountains. She says: "The road from Pendleton to Heppner passes through a beautiful country, made up of hills and valleys, where the sheep, horses and cattle range at will, and grow fat on the rich bunch grass. Heppner is a small town, numbering two dry goods stores, a blacksmith shop, drug store, whisky mill, butcher shop, two feed stables, two hotels, a school house, and about twenty families. The town is situated upon the banks of Willow creek, and is surrounded by a chain of hills that serve in a measure to break the force of the terrific winds that occasionally prevail. Altogether it is a lovely site for a town, and in the near future it must become a place of no inconsiderable importance."

DR. J. W. HUNTER, whose illness we noticed in our issue of last week, died at his residence in this city, at a late hour on Sunday night last. He was taken with spasms on Thursday night, and with occasional moments of relief, gradually grew worse until death came to his relief. Deceased was widely known, and at one time had a very extensive medical practice. He leaves a devoted wife and large family of children to mourn his death. Dr. Hunter was a native of Louisiana, but came to this coast when quite a boy, and first settled at Stockton, California. He removed to Oregon in the early part of 1861, and settled at Walla Walla in 1865. He was in his 42d year.

ENLARGING THEIR PREMISES.—Messrs. Everts and Abel have leased the turning shop attached to Mr. Glasford's planing mill, and will at once remove their workshop so as to connect with the water power. The furniture store will remain at the old place on Main street, and with the change they will have more room and greater facilities for exhibiting their stock of furniture. They have leased the water power for a term of five years, and in their new quarters will be able to manufacture furniture at such rates as to undersell others engaged in the same line of business.

G. A. STEEL, U. S. Postal Agent, was at Walla Walla, Thursday last, on official business. Mr. Steel is an active and efficient officer, and is always ready to look up the failures of mail contractors or the short comings of postmasters.

STOPPED BUYING.—Mr. H. P. Isaacs, a large operator, informs us that owing to the difficulties and delays attending shipments, he is compelled to stop buying wheat. The failure to move the crop has already greatly damaged the producing classes.

HON. DAN STEWART has returned from his trip to the upper country.

SPECIMENS OF WHEAT.—The grain yield of Eastern Washington and Oregon for the current year is something remarkable, and suggests the idea that measures ought to be taken to perpetuate the memory of what may fairly be termed the great wheat year. It is proposed that the farmers in Walla Walla and Umatilla counties bring to the annual fair, to commence on Tuesday next, specimens of wheat, say a peck each of all kinds that averaged not less than forty bushels to the acre, with the name and address of the party exhibiting the same. All specimens thus exhibited will be placed upon the records of the Society, and these records must prove useful for future reference. After the close of the fair, these specimens can be forwarded to Washington, and there exhibited to the different Congressional committees. Hon. Philip Fitz is going to Washington, and will take pleasure in taking charge of the specimens and placing them on exhibition. They can be placed in charge of the Agricultural Bureau at Washington, and they will then come under the notice of persons who are seeking information in regard to the character and resources of this section of country. If not too late, we suggest this idea to the consideration of our farmer friends in Walla Walla and Umatilla counties.

LACK OF TRANSPORTATION.—Elsewhere we have referred to the glut of grain at the railroad depot, and the probability that with the present facilities for moving the crop it is more than probable that much of the grain will remain over to another season. This, at a time when the farmers are anxious to realize on their crops, is unfortunate, and suggests the question whether there is any remedy. The railroad officials say that they can take all the wheat that offers, to the landing; but are restricted by the O. S. N. Company, which Company refuses to receive more than two hundred tons of grain in any one day. The railroad, as we understand, can take down if necessary double the amount, but are restricted as above stated. Early in the season, we were assured by the steamboat owners that if necessary they would run a double line of boats each day. Now is the time for the steamboat men to come to the front and show that they have facilities for moving the crop. A failure to get the grain out of the country will depress the farmers and lead them, the coming year, to limit the amount of their productions. The gentlemen who control the navigation of the Columbia river have a duty to discharge in this matter, and we hope to see them prove equal to the emergency.

LEG BROKEN.—On last Wednesday afternoon a little son of Mr. White, an immigrant camped at the Grove, while endeavoring to climb into a wagon, had his leg caught in the wheel and his thigh broken above the knee. The family were driven away from their home by the Indians, and this with their other misfortunes, makes their condition truly pitiable. We hope some of our christian ladies will look after them, for while they possess the necessities of life and are not subjects for public charity, they lack many things to make the condition of their boy as comfortable as it should be. The injured boy is doing well, under the care of Dr. Bingham.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—A San Francisco publishing house is now engaged in getting up a directory of the Pacific states and territories which promises from the prospectus now before us to be a useful publication. It will give sketches of all the more important towns on the coast, and otherwise contain much information that will be of use to business men. The book will contain 700 pages, and will be published at the low price of $2. Mr. Fred Bagot, the agent, is now canvassing this town for subscriptions, and we trust that he will obtain a goodly list of names.

DR. PAUL M. BRENNAN still occupies his suite of rooms at O'Brien's Hotel, and is daily consulted by scores of persons who are suffering from diseases and have hitherto been unable to obtain relief. In all such cases the Doctor's treatment is satisfactory, and his patients leave him with hearts overflowing with gratitude. His stay here will be limited, and hence persons who desire to avail themselves of his skill should make early application.

WHEAT MARKET.—Our merchants and traders are offering 75 cents a bushel for wheat, but the demand is limited, owing to the difficulty about making shipments. With fifteen or twenty thousand tons of grain stacked up around the railroad depot, it is not strange that dealers are slow about increasing their stock. This failure to move the crop is likely to occasion our farmers very considerable inconvenience.

RIVER TRANSPORTATION.—But two steamers are now on the river between Wallula and Celilo, and these steamers take down about 1000 tons of grain weekly. To meet the demands of the country the boats should take away at the lowest calculation 2000 tons a week. There would then be a reasonable prospect of getting the crop out of the country.

PURE LIQUORS.—Persons desiring pure wines or liquors will read the card of Tatros & Co. These gentlemen have just opened a very neat establishment at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, where they will be pleased to see their friends.

A SMASH UP.—A couple of "fast ladies" went out for a ride last Sunday, and came home with a badly smashed buggy. In the general wreck one of the ladies sustained a number of bruises, while her companion escaped without damage.

EMERSON'S MINSTRELS, now exhibiting at Portland, are anxious to visit Walla Walla, but are unable to secure the use of a hall. This is unfortunate, as the Emersons are the best company of performers now traveling on the coast.

JAMES H. MCCOY, son of the late Thomas K. McCoy, left by yesterday's train on a trip to Illinois, where his father left an estate that requires looking after. We wish our young friend a pleasant trip and speedy return.

HON. WM. MARTIN, member elect of the legislature, informs us that he will start for Olympia, Monday next.

IN CAMP.—A number of immigrant families are now in camp on Mill creek, a short distance above town.

DR. J. N. DAY has returned from his business trip to San Francisco.

AN ARMY OF WAGONS.—Wednesday last, about noon, the writer visited the railroad, and counted 93 wagons either unloading grain or waiting for their turn. We were told that the number would have been greater, but many teams had been drawn off owing to the inability of the steamers to take away the grain.

RAINS yesterday and the day before have laid the dust and made the air pleasant.

O'BRIEN'S HOTEL is crowded to overflowing. Good grub is what fetches 'em.

GUY FRUIT, son of Col. Jas. H. Fruit, is up from California on a visit.

ODE ON THE INDIAN WAR.

John Brown's name—a soldier bold In the U. S. Cavalry; I carry my sword beneath the flag Of the bravest of the free; I fought "mit Sige!" in the fight Between the blue and the grey. Now I'm after "Jo"—with Howard A hundred miles away!

MARRIAGES IN SERBIA.—The fathers of two houses concerned meet and settle the matter together, exchanging presents which sometimes amount to a considerable value. Thus, by a sort of purchase, is as usual a member of a household as a grown up man, surrounded by one to another.

WHICH WAS RIGHT.—A party of grammarians in a Cincinnati restaurant were arguing for half an hour over the question: "Is it right to say six and seven is eleven, or six and seven are eleven?"

"Do you mean to say six," said one distinguished grammarian, very much excited, to another distinguished grammarian, "that six and seven are eleven?"

AN EPIGRAM ON KING WILLIAM.—The Emperor William's favorite mare which he rode at the battle of Sedowa, died a short time ago, and in connection with the event this story is related: During the battle the King, accompanied by Prince Bismarck, repeatedly placed himself in great danger from the shells whizzing around.

"Don't show my letters," wrote a Rockland young man to a young lady whom he adored. "Don't be afraid," was the reply. "I'm just as much ashamed of them as you are."

CAUGHT IN A CYCLONE.

THE GREAT MISSOURI RIVER BRIDGE PARTIALLY DESTROYED. OMAHA, Neb., August 25.—Two spans of the great bridge, which since 1872 has stretched across the Missouri river at this point and afforded means of railway communication between eastern trunk lines and the Union Pacific railroad, lie buried beneath the waters of the river or scattered up and down the southern embankment. The accident occurred at an early hour this morning, and was occasioned by one of the most terrific tornadoes or cyclones that has for many years swept across this section of the country.

This devastation occurred shortly before daylight, and when the accident became reported about the city, between seven and eight o'clock, people could hardly believe it until they had gone and viewed the ruins. A great portion of the span which had rested on the Iowa approach lay on the embankment on the south side like a rail fence that had been blown flat over. The other span had fallen into the river and could not be seen.

SINGULAR CONDUCT.—Near Northport, Deer Lodge, These Nez Perces have achieved renown for intrepid courage and indomitable purpose, that goes as far as aught in the world can do to atone their butcheries, and ranks them among the first warriors in the world, while he who leads them should be called Moses instead of Joseph. Their warfare since they entered Montana has been almost universally marked so far by the highest characteristics recognized by civilized nations; the only deviation being killing the wounded or isolated parties. They perpetrated no murders in Missoula county, and their slight pillaging was less than that of the stragglers of a civilized army in the enemy's country; while succeeding the battle of Big Hole, they committed no outrages upon those they killed, but crossed their hands and wrapped them decently in their garments or blankets.

RUSSIAN LOVE OF TEA.—The Russian soldiers are said to live and fight almost wholly upon tea. The Cossacks often carry it about in the shape of bricks, or rather tiles, which, before hardening, are soaked in sheep's blood and boiled in milk, with the addition of flour, butter and salt, so as to constitute a kind of soup. The passion of the Russian for this beverage is simply astonishing. In the depth of winter he will empty twenty cups in succession, at nearly boiling point, until he perspires at every pore, and then in a state of intense excitement, rush out, roll in the snow, get up and go on to the next similar place of entertainment. So with the army. With every group or circle of tents travels the invariable teacard, suspended from a tripod; and it would be vain to think of computing how many times each soldier's pannikin is filled upon a halt. It is his first idea. Frequently he carries it cold in a copper case, as a salace upon the march.

HAD A STRIKE.—They had a strike up at Mr. Middleler's last night. The baby struck for six hours walking every night instead of four, which it has been getting. The family at first refused to accede to this preposterous and unreasonable demand, but the baby being a monopoly, there being no others to supply the place of the striker, it was able to enforce its demands, as all sleep was shut off until a settlement was effected. The only show of violence was the threat on the part of the baby to make it warm for the household when it was about four years old and green apple time came around.

A little girl was suffering from the mumps, and declared that she "felt as though a headache had slipped down into her neck."

Business Prospects.

The New York Times prints six solid columns of communications from and interviews with prominent men engaged in many different departments of business, in which opinions are freely expressed in regard to prospects for the fall trade. The paper then reviews these statements, and summing up pronounces the verdict favorable. There are two elements in these opinions which have been wanting in years past, and these are hopefulness and confidence. The substantial indications are not very great, but in the absence of these a general feeling of confidence is the next best thing, if not even better than results which may be temporary. Confidence unlocks capital and inaugurates new enterprises. It sends money into the currents of business. It checks the depreciation of property, and in time causes it to rise in the scale.

There are two things in the way of legislation which the country now needs to inspire a confidence which will lead to permanent results. These are, the revision of the tariff, which is inevitable sooner or later, on a plan that may continue through a term of years; and the re-organization of silver. So long as the country is threatened with resumption on a gold basis, capital will not transform itself into property. It will lend itself out on bond and mortgage, to be returned dollar for dollar, but it will not go into real estate nor manufacturing enterprises. The reason why it will not is plain. If resumption ensues on a gold basis, dollars will be worth more and property less than now. Dollars will be worth more, because there will be fewer of them in the world, and property less, because its value will be measured by this appreciated money.

The proposition to resume specie payments on a gold basis was a stroke of policy on the part of bondholders, mostly in England and Germany, to enhance the value of their possessions. American speculators in finance fell in with it. We cannot expect owners of money to put it in business, that is, transform it into property, while legislation is impending which may cause money to appreciate in value and property to depreciate. They prefer to leave it at low rates of interest, with property as security sufficiently below its real value to cover any possible depreciation. This is the reason why money is a drug in the market, while no one is willing to buy property or embark in business.

Currency and silver are now within five per cent. of gold, but this relation would not be maintained two days after an authoritative declaration by Congress that gold was to be the sole standard. Property and merchandise have now but to depreciate four per cent. to stand on a gold valuation; but what we term a gold valuation is now determined in a measure by the probabilities in regard to the re-organization of silver. At present in the expectation that silver will be re-organized, gold and silver are approximating to their old relation to each other. Should Congress disappoint these expectations, gold would rise and silver fall. Property would go with silver because, as we have said, henceforth everything would be measured in value by the dearer article of gold.

A MOTHER-IN-LAW SPEAKS FOR HERSELF.—The Chicago Tribune prints a communication from a lady residing in Davenport, Iowa, who writes to the following purport: "I have a few words to say in regard to daughters-in-law. I have seen several articles in the paper against mothers-in-law, but it is very seldom you see one against daughters-in-law. Now, I am a persecuted mother-in-law. My house was a little paradise till my daughter-in-law was brought home. I think where a son takes a wife to his mother's home, it is his right to get along. We are not yet married and go to live with their husband's folks, and if they live like cats and dogs it is laid to the poor mother-in-law, when they are the evil ones. For my part I have a great deal of sympathy for mothers-in-law, and I think you would, too, if you were in my place. There is one advice I would like to give to young men. Don't marry until you have a home of your own to take a wife to. Don't give your poor mother, who has nursed you in your infancy—idolized you—any cause for trouble; let her go to her grave in peace. How many families there are whose homes was a little Eden till a daughter-in-law was taken into the family."

VALENTINE BAKER, formerly colonel in the British army, now one of the Turkish Pashas, is proving as dangerous a man for the Russians as the Porte has in his employ. He is teaching the turbaned Turk not only the arts of fortification, but how to conduct himself in the field. The advantage gained in the valley of the Lonia owing to his brilliant leadership. His railway experience, and his sojourn in jail, do not seem to have hurt his fighting qualities. A man fighting for glory with which to hide a soiled reputation is apt, at close quarters, to prove a dangerous opponent.

A lady living near Baltimore, who is very deaf, stopped a milkman as he was passing the house the other day and asked him how much he charged for a quart of milk, and then put up her trumpet to catch the reply. The man drew a quart of milk and emptied it into the trumpet, and the result has been that he has to go three miles out of his way to keep out of sight of the lady's son, who sits on the front porch with a shot gun waiting for him to pass.

"I am very particular about my bathing-dress, for there is everything in a bath suit," remarked a spare but beautiful belle to an admirer at Atlantic City. "Yes," was the dry reply, "and very little sometimes." [Tabouca.]

"Blessed are the peacemakers." So thought a practical woman at Rochdale, England, recently, who broke up a fight by turning scalding water down the back of one of the combatants.

Educational Methods in Europe.

The American school system is often proclaimed the most perfect by those village Solons who have no experience beyond the geographical boundaries of their own particular township. In order to show how fairly the Catholics of Europe treat Protestant children in the matter of education we condense the following from a contemporary: The Austrian Empire has a population of about 36,000,000, four-fifths of whom are Catholics. The rest consists of Calvinists, Lutherans, and Jews. The system of education is gratuitously open to all, from the village school to the university. It was not compulsory in 1870, but the laws required a certificate of school attendance and educational proficiency, to be given on leaving school, which was necessary before learning a trade; being employed as a workman, or in the service of the State in any capacity, or to be married. Since then, direct compulsory laws have been enacted. The Catholics have the entire control of the schools for their own children, as have the Calvinists, Lutherans and Jews of theirs; the government treating all alike with perfect impartiality. When children of different creeds attend the same school those not numerous enough to have a school of their own are dismissed one hour before the others, morning and evening, so that the majority may receive religious instruction, but where the number of non-Catholics is large enough to form a school of their own the minister of that persuasion, whatever it may be, is charged with the care of the school. Catholics, Calvinists, Lutherans, and Jews, have their respective teachers, but they can have no teacher who has not obtained a certificate of qualification from the normal school at which he studied. The teachers are paid by the State, provided with residences near the school-houses, and are allowed superannuation pensions, which, if they have served ten years, are extended to their widows and orphans under fourteen.

THE HOME OF SALMON.—It seems strange to us that there should be so many varieties of salmon in the same general body of water, each kind, however, separating itself by imaginary lines from the other, and keeping year after year within its own bounds. For instance, the salmon of Muckito are by no means the same as those of the Skagit, nor are those of the Fraser, nor of the Fraser to those north. The Columbia river salmon are a distinct species, and differ from those of the Rogue river or Ruinault, and yet Columbia river salmon go out in the ocean, and enter the other rivers and come to the Sound. Our own salmon are caught in all parts, and seem to move freely wherever they choose, but when it comes to running and to their homes, as said before, they are as separate as can be. We would naturally imagine that the fish of the sea were as free as the birds of the air, and that the salmon to-day on Puget Sound, like the sea gull or crow, may be a hundred or a thousand miles distant a month hence.—Seattle Tribune.

"Papa," asked a boy, "what is meant by Paradise?" "Paradise, my son," replied the father, "is the latter part of Summer, when your mother goes on a visit to your grandfather."
