Leaf by Leaf the Roses Fall.

Leaf by leaf the roses fall,
Drop by drop the springs run down;
One by one, beyond recall, Summer beauties fade and die;
But the roses bloom again,
And the springs will gush anew,
In the pleasant April rain,
And the Summer's sun and dew.

So, in hours of deepest gloom, When the springs in gladness fall,
And the roses in the bloom, Droop like maidens, wan and pale,
We shall find some hope that lies Like a silent gem apart, Hidden far from careless eyes,
In the garden of the heart.

Some sweet hope to gladness wed, When grief's winter shall have fled, Giving place to rain and dew—Some sweet hope that breathes of Spring, Through the weary, weary time, Budding for its blissful bloom—
In the spirit's glorious clime.

PROSTITUTION IN NEW YORK CITY.

The daily report of the "New York House of the Fallen" says there are about four thousand of the professional demimonde in that city who have no other means of support. The number of girls who work in the day time and walk the pike at night will fully equal this number. There is at least as many more "mistresses"—in all about twelve thousand women and girls belonging to this wretched class. The institution for the fallen has remained seventy-five during the past seven months. The loss of their own self-respect induces these females to believe that they never can gain the respect of others. But lift them from this slough of self-degradation—show them that an upright life will bring its proper reward, and then they are easily restored to paths of virtue.

A glance at the cause of this great social evil appears to be, in a very great degree, want of employment by these women. The report says:

More than one-half of the demi-monde are driven to adopt the life by Christian parents —that is to say, the iron hand of home rule, the wrong teachings, the misconception by parents of the character of their children, the deprivations of reasonable enjoyment and amusement, drives young girls to seek a life of greater freedom. One quarter more are the victims of men who delight in the ruin of all that is good. The remainder is composed of those girls who are compelled to work in shops and factories for their living.

This latter class is the most difficult to reclaim. From their lowly life of toil, where they are compelled to live in a tenement house or a hotel with four or five persons crowded into a small room, poorly clad, poorly fed, working from ten to twelve hours a day for a few shillings, surrounded by drunken and degraded associates, they step to the elegant mansion of sin, where they are clad in rich stuffs, fed upon all the dainties of the season, and have no work to do; their associates comprising the fashionable men of the city who would not have spoken to the working girl.

Institutions for reclaiming these unfortunate creatures are springing up all over the country, doing good in every community where they exist, and all are fit concerns for the philanthropist and all benevolent and Christian people.—Mo. Republican.

HIGHLAND GULCH.

The news from this region is very encouraging, and many parties are starting for it day and night. Nearly 500 men are searching for its hidden riches, and many have been very successful. Bill Fairweather, (of course, it is needless to say that he discovered Alder Gulch,) was in town last Saturday and claims that it is ten miles long, and equal in richness to his discovery.
The bedrock appears to be composed of white sandstone which resembles that of Australia.

The dust is coarse, and many nuggets have been picked up, although none of them are of great value, the largest being worth $40.

The diggings are shallow and it is only five or eight feet from the surface to the bed rock.

The miners have not been disturbed by water.

We have been told that a descendant of Ham, who owns desirable ground, has refused $5,000 for it. There is quite a stampede for this gulch and its merits will be clearly known within a few days.—Montana Post.

AN EXODUS.

Upon Sunday, the 9th inst., the streets of Virginia were crowded with people, and upon the following day, two hundred and fifty persons, from the grandfather with hoary locks down to the suckling in its mother's arms, under the leadership of a "Moses," Captain Singleton, departed for the Yellowstone. American is the land of promise for which they are journeying. About twenty-five boats will leave the Yellowstone canon on the 15th inst., and about four hundred and fifty passengers will descend the Missouri. For the benefit of our Indian subscribers upon the Plains, we will say that many of these parties carry rifles and guns, which they are prepared to use without asking any questions. They have presents of bullets for them which they will give them internally by means of a civilizing agent called gunpowder.—Montana Post.

As a healthful drink in place of tea, Dr.

Thompson recommends the use of dried leaves of the Red Raspberry. They cleanse the system of cancer, and thus act beneficially to the health.
The leaves should be gathered on a dry day, and may be spread in a good airy chamber, on clean boards or paper, to dry. When sufficiently dry, they may be kept in sacks. A small handful is sufficient for several persons. This tea does not require the addition of milk or sugar, and is quite as pleasant as other tea, and much cheaper and healthful.

A PRUSSIAN fellow had wandered into Sunday School and had taken his seat among a number of prim scholars, when the teacher accosted him with: "Why, James, do you know in what condition you now are?" To which he replied, "Yes, in the gall of bitterness, in the bonds of iniquity. Ask me some more hard questions."

SHOOTING AFFRAY!

JOHN J. RYAN SHOT AND KILLED!

The Killing Held to be Justified!

Full Report of the Testimony, &c., &c.

Persons in the neighborhood of Main street, were aroused on Saturday night, about 10 1/2 o'clock, by the discharge of fire-arms. On hap-ping in the direction from which the sound proceeded, we found a crowd gathered in front of Cosgrove's Saloon, and on entering the first object that met the eye was the body of a man lying on the ground.

John Lynch, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I was present when the affair happened, my attention was called to a game of cards between Ryan and Barney, paid attention to the game.

Ryan remarked, Barney if I break you I'll give you money for a meal, Barney replying that he did not think he would do so; the game proceeded, Barney breaking Ryan, who offered his watch for some money, left the saloon and returned with $40, played again and quarreled, both agreed to stop talking and quarreling and shook hands. Ryan commencing to quarrel again, took up his money and ordered the bar-keeper to clear the doors and insisted on fighting Barney, who did not wish to fight, Ryan remarking you shall fight, you have not got the best of me, see Barney fire first, do not know of a second shot. Ryan seemed to be under the influence of liquor, while Barney was not.

S. W. JONES.

Thomas Low being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I was present and saw Ryan and Barney play poker, seen Ryan going for more money and returning offered to play for all he had, that he would let Barney have money for a meal if he should break him a quarrel springing up above half a dollar. Seen Barney fire the first shot, believe that Lynch put out the lights, saw that Ryan had a derringer, seen him dripping freely, Barney but once, heard Ryan say that he would lick Barney, saw him slap Barney's face.

THOMAS LOW.

The Coroners' Jury returned a verdict to the effect that deceased came to his death by a pistol shot fired by Kinney, and that there was not sufficient cause for the killing.

THE PRISONER.

After firing the fatal shot, Barney succeeded in making his escape by the rear door of the saloon, and remained concealed until an early hour on Sunday morning, when he came forward and gave himself up. He was at once committed to the county jail, and subsequently through his counsel, Judge Mix, applied for an examination. The application was made to Justice Lacy, and Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, fixed as the time for

THE EXAMINATION.

At the hour fixed, Justice Lacy took his place on the bench in the District Court room, and called Judge Horton to his assistance. Sheriff Seitel then brought the prisoner into Court, and the examination was proceeded with. Throughout the examination of the witnesses the Court room was densely crowded by a throng of eager listeners.

TESTIMONY AT THE EXAMINATION.

Territory vs. Wm. Kenny, charged with the murder of J. J. Ryan, on the 29th day of October, 1866.

W. D. G. QUIGLEY duly sworn and says: I reside in Montana Territory. I was in the saloon of M. C. Cosgrove Saturday evening; I went in behind the deceased, he (Ryan) took a seat at the card table with defendant, and went to playing cards for money. Deceased said to defendant, "I am going to break you, if I do I will give you $500 to get you breakfast with; I don't intend you shall win a pot." Defendant replied "I don't know whether you will or not." Deceased then said, "Barney when did I ever refuse you?" Defendant replied, "you refused me last winter." Deceased talked as if he had never refused him, and wanted defendant to take back what he had said about refusing him.

About this time defendant had won all the money deceased had in sight. Deceased asked Mr.
Lynch to loan him $40 on a gold watch he took out of his pocket; Lynch told him he had no money in the house; Mr. Ryan then gave the watch to a man and told him to go and pawn it "Tex" for $40; the man refused to do so. Deceased then said, "you have said what you have I will go and get the money myself," and went out with the watch. He soon came back with $40 and set down to the table and commenced playing, also to talking about the half dollar to get a meal with, defendant and him both talking. Deceased then spoke about some blankets he had laid out for defendant, defendant and finally deceased acknowledged that he never did pay for the blankets; then they both agreed to drop it and say no more about it. Mr. Ryan soon brought the subject up again, and they both commenced to talk about it again, defendant then says "Johnny you agreed to say no more about it." During this conversation they had off and on been talking about their card game; at any rate, they finally agreed to say no more about it and shook hands. After this agreement had been entered into, Mr. Ryan then made a gesture with his hand, saying to defendant, "Barney if you bring this up again I'll kill you," and repeated it several times, and in the mean time saying to defendant, now you have the advantage of me. Saying to Barney, "now you have the advantage of me, as I have said I'll kill you." About this time defendant took his money and put it in his pocket, saying to deceased that he did not want to play any more; deceased then said you have got to play, or shall play, or something to that effect; defendant then said, "if I want to quit I have a right to do so." Deceased then finally acknowledged that it was his right to quit if he wanted to.
Mr. Ryan about this time got up from where he set and went round the table to where Barney sat; I then stepped out of doors and looked in at the window. I saw Mr. Ryan strike defendant with his right hand, (I think it was his right hand but am not positive) and at the same time draw a revolver or derringer out of his pocket, I saw his hand; defendant was sitting in his chair with one leg upon the back of a chair, leaning back when deceased struck him.

John Lynch sworn and says: I am bar-keeper at Cosgrove's saloon; on Saturday night last deceased and defendant sat down at the table to play cards for money. (here the testimony agreed with former witness until after Ryan had struck defendant.) Defendant, after he was struck, retreated until he got near door, he then turned round and drew his pistol and fired; I did not know that but one pistol had fired; deceased had his pistol drawn all the time during the game; deceased had been out of the house some 15 or 20 minutes; he left some man to play his hand; deceased was intoxicated; deceased came in
turned round and drew his pistol and fired; I

Partisan Malignancy.

A startling sign of the times, says the S. F. Call, and one which presages serious political evils in the future, is the bitter and malignant spirit of partisanship manifested on every hand.

A startling sign of the times, says the S. F. Call, and one which presages serious political evils in the future, is the bitter and malignant spirit of partisanship manifested on every hand. The fierce and unrelenting spirit engendered by the war seems to increase and intensify in all quarters as the period of peace extends.

On Tuesday last, Messrs. Brown Brothers & Co., discovered that their porter, Charles Hubert, had been perpetrating a series of robberies, which had extended over several months. It seems that the porter had made the acquaintance of a family named Shattuck, and conceiving an affection for one of the girls of the family, a grass widow, sought to propitiate his suit by making her all manner of presents.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES! Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary.

617 KEARNY STREET, San Francisco, established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Stricture, Syphilis, etc.

Dr. Gibbon has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris.

Dr. Gibbon has also visited Doctor Acton, of London, Parker of Birmingham, and Riccio of Paris, who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world, and whose authority is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Gibbon has obtained from them their new mode of treatment, which cannot be surpassed. Dr. Gibbon has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned from his travels with the most valuable facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases. How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering from an ailment induced by the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system.

Seminal Weakness. Seminal emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, this solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless counteracted by scientific medical measures.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has existed, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use.

Prevention Better than Cure. The newly invented patent French Sperm, a sure Preventive against Diseases and Pregnancy, sent by mail. Price $2. Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 617 Kearny Street, near Commercial, San Francisco.

Caution to the Unfortunate. Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn certificates, duped the unwary.
