

Senators.

We learn that several newspaper ventures, that have been particularly fortunate so far, are now preparing to concentrate as strong anti-monopoly organs, and out as strong anti-monopoly organs, and out as strong anti-monopoly organs...

George Knaggs, one of the oldest of the old pioneers of this upper country, who is known to every man, woman and child...

Several Daytonites, J. K. Rutherford, E. B. Kimball, Simon Witkind and Wm. Matzger, are doing the Mechanics' Fair at Portland.

Very few Stewards have such a well earned reputation for civility and attention to the passengers than Dave F. Smith, of the "R. R. Thompson."

Chris. Ennis and Pat Russell are in Portland doing the grand, and nothing appears to be too high toned for them.

Every boat, scow, steamer and barge on the Columbia river is loaded with wheat. It is the best advertisement the Great Interior can have.

The following from the S. F. Call are our views to a dot, as frequently expressed in the columns of the STATESMAN heretofore.

DOHENY & MARUM'S COLUMN. FULLY COMPLETE!

OUR ARRAY OF THE FABRICS OF FASHION

FULLY PREPARED TO PRESENT TO THE PUBLIC THE ACCUMULATED RESULTS OF ARDUOUS SEARCH AND OF EXPERIENCED TASTE.

After months of extensive preparation, we are now prepared to lay before the public our importations of this season's novelties, received direct from the fabric centers of the country.

Nothing that foresight, judgment and energy could accomplish has been left untried to enable us to place before our patrons a selection of the choicest novelties unexcelled by any establishment on the coast.

RESUME: New York novelties in Dress Goods, such as Seranger Suitings, Roman Combinations, Ombre Plaids and stripes, Himalaya Suitings, Rangoon Cloth, Green Stripes, Sultana Suitings, etc.

OUR SYSTEM: ONE PRICE -- CASH ONLY.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES. These rules were inaugurated by us a year ago and the people of this Territory are now aware that we have carried them out with the most rigid and scrupulous exactness.

ONE PRICE ONLY! Consult your own judgment whether you prefer trading in an establishment that simply asks you one price for all goods or not. Do not be misled by the idea of just and equitable trading; this method is the only method you can have confidence in.

GOODS SOLD ONLY FOR CASH. Carefully consider the fact whether it is possible for a house giving credit to sell goods at low prices. The merchant who sells on credit has always a doubt and percentage to cover the loss which he must ultimately and inevitably lose in the credit system.

OUR COUNTRY ORDERS. We are now prepared to send on application, free of charge, complete lines of samples of the very choicest Fall Novelties, and we guarantee promptly the same advantages in any order entrusted to us as if the purchases were present to make their selections.

NEWS NOTIONS.

Taken into the hands of "Statesman" Reporters while waiting for something to Turn Up.

And Deal Out Just as They are Received.

A great deal of new advertising has been crowded out to-day, owing to the fact that it came in too late.

Another Portland newspaper is advertised for sale. It would be a good thing for the progress of the country if such old grannies as the Standard and Oregonian both went the same way.

Ueda John Ward, one of the pioneers of this great interior, and who has represented South Idaho, to its credit, in the legislature, and an old time friend that the editor of the STATESMAN thinks so much of, is in the city.

Paul D. Henry has taken editorial charge of The Dalles Mountain and is making a new paper out of that mountain quiet-going, unobtrusive sheet.

Building and improvements to property are still the order of the day in this city, and yet the cry is continually heard, "Where can I find a vacant house?"

There was a nice little piece of blacksmithing done at John Lutz's shop by Joe Smith on Saturday last, in the shape of a hinge for Miller's bulldozer.

Whitehouse & Falconer are building a $3,000 house for M. F. Jones on Egan Avenue in Babcock's addition.

J. R. Addison is fitting up two cottages of four rooms each on Sumac street between Palouse and Toucanon streets.

T. S. Mabry did a nice little job last week in moving the house from the corner of Rose and Colville streets.

The residence and grounds of Wm. Kirkman, Esq., on Colville street, when completed, will be second to none in the Territory for beauty and convenience.

We were shown a very elegant watch encased in a frame, Saturday night last. The watch was made by Alvey M. Fulton, of this city, and it certainly is a credit to him.

Red Handed Mike certainly is the Spokane Chronicle that he can dig deeper in one day for $500 than any other man in Washington Territory.

A piece of petrified wood has been found in Olympia. The people up there don't appear to be familiar with hard tack.

No wonder England has to import beef. Ironous has won $53,400 in "stakes" there this season.

The Ohio sea: What is too high. And now the astronomers are talking loud about discovering that red spot on the face of Jupiter.

Col. F. J. Parker, editor-in-chief of this paper, left on yesterday evening's train for Portland and the Sound.

We glean the following from the Palouse Gazette: "The Tiger Engine still stands on the bank of the creek and the hose is used to convey water from the Palouse to a mortar mixing box."

The engine spoken of was built in Massachusetts years and years ago and has been used in a great many places on the slope.

Walla Walla was once proud of the old thing. It ought to be taken care of, and preserved as a relic.

The advertisement of the Washington Brewery Depot will be found in this issue. Mr. Rae, the proprietor, has one of the neatest beer depots in the city, and he keeps a very quiet and orderly place, and solicits the patronage of everybody.

Reuben:—We understand that policeman Robinson has sent in his resignation to Marshal Justice, on the ground that the salary paid does not warrant him in sitting up all night and half the day, the pay being $60 per month.

LET DOSS DELIGHT, &c.—We are sorry to see our neighbors of the Palladium Tribune and East Oregonian fighting through their columns.

GRAIN.—As a specimen of what this country does we will make a note of the fact that Hon. Philip Ritz brought into the editorial rooms of the STATESMAN Sunday night a bunch of wheat seven inches high, a whole field of which is now growing on his farm.

DAYTON LEITER.

DEAR DOCTOR:—Having noticed in the Daily Union of the 15th and 16th inst., the articles of Dr. Boyd regarding the chicken and small-pox in Dayton, I thought that some facts about these mentioned diseases here would be welcome to you and others.

Dr. Boyd, in order to strengthen his diagnosis of the Walla Walla cases, mentions in his first article only three cases in Dayton— all children who had some eruptive fever some time ago. I am not prepared with these cases were, not having seen them myself, and as I am informed no qualified practitioner having attended them.
