The Last Hours of Mrs. Sickles.

Mrs. Stowe, it seems is not the only female scandal-monger we have in this country. It would seem from the story of a lady friend of the late Mrs. Daniel E. Sickles, that that lady allowed herself to be scandalized and to die of grief, in order to save the Honorable Daniel from being hung for the murder of Philip Barton Key. The seduction story was concocted by the valorous Dan after he had killed Key in a drunken fit. A correspondent of the New York World does not believe Mrs. Sickles was guilty of the l'aiton with Key, and says:

"I for one do not believe Mrs. Sickles guilty of the charge made against her. I believe Sickles to have been as vile in his treatment of his wife as he was in every other respect; perhaps more vile, because he could wrong her with impunity, and sweep from the earth, covered with odium, a man whose graces created envy in his own mind, and whose manly sense of honor was a reproach to his own villainy, and whose intellect and culture were far beyond his own reach, and whose only sin was in his sympathy for and kindness to a neglected, ill used wife. I admit that it is dangerous ground, this sympathy for a married woman, who had better be content to suffer, endure and die than touch the tempting cup. Let this suffice on this head.

That Mrs. Sickles was lovely in person, simple and childlike in character, all admit. Such characters are not easily degraded. Were she the degraded creature he has led the world to believe, her sensibilities would not have remained so acute that she died in less than two hours of a broken heart.

She was weak and cowardly, I admit. Alas! these defects would have made her sacred in the eyes of a manly man, and he would have done his utmost to shield her from evil.

Let me depict the few last years in the life of this injured woman.

Strung, it may be, by an irremediable feeling of remorse, he pretends in the eyes of the world to have restored her to favor. I will not discuss the propriety of this kind of klopstock sentiment; I speak of the fact.

She was placed in a handsome house, with the ordinary appliances of wealth. Of the secret history of the two at this time nothing need be said. She was ruined in character, broken in health, utterly lost to the world—as only woman can be lost—left without sympathy, except from those who were related to her, and who loved and pitied her. She had long intervals of nervous prostration, when she would for hours act like a dying person. She sat day after day, with her head leaning upon her wasted hand, and eyes listless, seeing and caring for little in a world whose sunshine had been so darkly eclipsed. She sighed faintly, but said little or nothing. She was a sad wreck. She knew she was dying, and expressed no thought or interest in anything but her absent daughter.

One day she turned suddenly to a young friend and asked: "Do you think me a guilty woman?" and without waiting for an answer she went on. "I wish to speak now while I can. I was so shocked and terrified at that horrible time that I did not know what I said. But I am not guilty of any sin. Mr. Sickles was very violent—I was afraid of him—he brought me a paper, which he said I must sign—he said he should be hung if I did not sign it. I never read one word of that paper; I did not know one word written in it. I put my name where he told me, and to save his life."

She was sinking rapidly, and was carried to her bed from a long fainting turn. As she opened her eyes, reviving slowly they fell upon the face of Daniel E. Sickles, painted and framed, hanging before her. Lifting her pale hand she said: "Take it away."

Those about her remonstrated; but the second and third time she murmured: "Take it away."

The picture was removed. "Now place my daughter's face there," she said, with a sad smile. This was done, and she gazed with a longing, wistful look upon the young face, and sighed heavily. The poor weary eyes closed, and she was gone to Him unto whom is open the secrets of the heart. Of such is Grant's minister to Spain. What say you, "loil milk lions?"

The yanks are always on the look out for speculation. One up in Boston is preparing for the coming of the Chinese. He has started a variety.

Horatio Seymour invites interviewing reporters to dig potatoes with him on his farm.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

There is a favorite field of speculation for certain writers to ask what would have happened if something had happened which didn't happen. If Robespierre's stockings, said one profound reasoner, had or had not been splashed on a certain occasion, the French Revolution would not have happened. If Caesar's boat had gone down with all his fortunes, there would have been no Roman Empire. If William the Conqueror had met with bad weather, Englishmen would have still been nothing better than bear-swilling Saxons. All these, or some of these, facts may be true; and it is pleasant to some minds to repeat the old adage about great events and trifling causes, and to reckon up the wonderfully small events which, if they had happened otherwise, would have changed the whole history of the world. I will not say that it is not so; but I think it gives us a better ground for faith in the future, if we persuade ourselves that the world's progress does not depend on the turn of a die or the flight of a bullet; and that, somehow or other, we shall scramble on in a similar path, though it may be well to make a few detours, and lose some valuable time; even if our favorite idols were converted into firewood, and we had to swear by the great John Brown instead of the mighty Thomas Smith. Heroes are excellent things in their way; but, to my mind, the more strins we have to our bow the more secure we shall feel; and I hold that there is generally a fish or two in sea, besides the big ones that happen to have come to the surface—blabbery.

The Chicago Times is in favor of removing the National Capitol, but General Sherman is not. In a recent speech at Washington on the occasion of dedicating an art gallery, the General said: "I trust there will never be a hand to remove a stone from that building in which were heard the voices of Clay, Webster, and Calhoun."

The Chicago Times, alluding to the above, says:

"It is true that the voices of these men were heard in the capitol, and yet it should not be forgotten that in the same building have been heard the vulgarities of Chandler, the maudlin fanaticism of Yates, the shrill clamor for vengeance of Thad. Stevens, the demagoguery of Butler, the insinuations of Mullins—who announced upon the slaughter of a carpet-bagger, that he 'died in the soliloquy of his own blood,'—and scores of other voices which have assisted to make the American Congress a synonym of brutality, fanaticism, ignorance and demagoguery. Now, if the removal of this capitol depends at all upon the voices which have been heard in it of late years, the sooner there remains not one stone on another, the sooner will the nation have effaced a monument of the weakness and credulity of the people, and the venality of rulers.

PROGRESS OF RAILROADS.—Forty-three years ago the first train of cars commenced running between Darling and Stockton. Thirty-eight years ago the Manchester and Liverpool line came into operation. Before 1845 the principal lines in England were successful, paying 10 to 15 per cent. and shares selling at 100 per cent. premium. In 1845-6-7 Parliament authorized the construction of 8,598 miles in addition to what was already authorized—2,148 miles. France, at first slow in her railroad operations, had in 1851 2,124 miles opened against 889 in Great Britain. In the United States in 1830 there were forty-one miles; and in 1865 35,189 miles, not including those in Kansas, Nebraska, and the Pacific Coast. Of these 24,883 miles were in the Northern States. In Europe India, and the United States there are now in operation 82,495 miles.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.—So lately dead; so soon forgotten! 'Tis the way of the world. Men take us by the hand, and are anxious about the health of our bodies, and laugh at our jokes, and we really think, like the fly on the wheel, that we have something to do with the turning of the earth. Some day we die and are buried. The sun does not stay for our funeral; everything goes on as usual; we are not missed on the street; men laugh at jokes; one or two hearts feel the wounds of affection; or two or three memories hold our names and forms; but the crowd moves in the daily circle, and in three days the great way of time sweeps over our daily steps and washes out the last vestige of our lives.

A Mr. Robert Davidson, in Mary land, picked up what he supposed was a pebble to throw at a bird. Astonished at the weight of the seeming pebble he examined and found it to be a gold nugget weighing nine ounces and worth $150. The entire population of that county is walking out now and picking up pebbles, not to throw at birds.

A JURY REBUKEN.

After the acquittal of Griffin, the engineer on the Erie Railroad, through whose carelessness the horrible Mast Hope disaster, last July, was occasioned, the Judge before whom he was tried administered the following terrible rebuke to the jury:

GENTLEMEN: You last night returned into court, after a hearing of two days, with a verdict of not guilty in the case of the Commonwealth against James Griffin. This was not expected, and your verdict was against law, against justice, and an outrage against humanity. You violated the obligations of your oath—a plain, simple obligation to render a verdict according to the evidence. Instead of that, you have rendered a verdict against every particle of evidence. The cause of the defendant was abandoned by his counsel. Drowning men will catch at straws. The theory for the defense is unknown to the law, and the counsel for the defendant did not believe it themselves. I was, and still am, astonished at your verdict. I am astonished that you should in this way set aside the law and violate your oaths; and I trust that the spirits of the dead, dying, bleeding and burnt victims of Mast Hope will rebuke you as long as you live. You have no power to cure the great wrong which you have inflicted on the community. In future, I hope you will feel a proper regard for your oaths. You are now discharged from any further duty in this court. You are not fit to sit as jurymen. I will not try causes before such a jury.

TOM KING.—The New York Tribune says: "It gives us the greatest joy to inform the American world that Tom King, late of the London prize ring, is now the Rev. Thomas King, of Wales; that instead of pounding he preaches, and that he only wrestles in prayer. Notice is made in one of the Welsh newspapers of Thomas's exhortations and as we should presuppose, his style is stated to be 'very forcible, bold and earnest.' He will engage hereafter, only in knocking down sin, getting the head of the devil in chancery, letting his right fly at iniquity and his left at hardness of heart, thus keeping the ring against all evil doers and sending sinners generally to grass. It is pleasant to read of this beautiful ending of an ill-spent life, and for a retired pugilist it is decidedly more creditable than the usual resource of opening a liquor shop, keeping a gambling saloon, or becoming a Congressman."

WIFE MURDER.—The murder of Mrs. Woods at Roundout, by her husband, was a terrible butchery. The murderer was a drunkard. He went to all of his creditors and paid his bills Saturday afternoon, then wrote, intimating that he suspected his wife of infidelity. He was perfectly sober. Shortly after he entered the house, his wife was heard screaming, and a neighbor went to the house, whom Woods admitted. He had struck his victim eleven times with a small hatchet, which was covered with hair and blood, brains and pieces of flesh. Woods then attempted to murder the neighbor, who fled, whereupon Woods cut his own throat from ear to ear, dying almost instantly. Mrs. Woods was esteemed as an upright and good wife.

MORTALITY AMONG MORMONS.—As might be expected, the mortality among Mormon children is frightful. The Polygamists are like the old woman who lived in a shoe, and did not know what to do with their many children; at any rate they do not properly care for them. Of sixty deaths in Salt Lake City in a month, forty-four were children. Heber Kimball is reported to have buried forty-eight children out of sixty-three in his collections; one bishop had lost twenty children; another, twenty-eight; another seventeen. Joseph Smith had six wives, but left only two sons. The death rate among Mormons of all ages is said to be greater than that of this city or New Orleans, and even twice that of Oregon.—N. Y. Post.

ONE OF THE THROWS of the New York Observer is thrown into ecstasies on hearing the celebrated "Bells of Moscow." This is the holy city of the Greek Church as Jerusalem was the sacred city of the Jews. Pilgrims go thither at a distance of thousands of miles on foot, and sometimes without shoes. When they are near enough to hear for the first time the four hundred bells of the city, sounding in glorious harmony, full, grand, and all pervading, "like the voice of many waters," they fall upon their faces and devoutly offer prayer and thanksgiving to God. The writer declares that all the music he ever heard was tame and trifling compared with the wonderful effect of these bells.

Punch acknowledges the receipt of three hundred and eighty-nine jokes on "Mrs. Beecher's 8-100 putting her foot in it."

SIX and a quarter miles of the Mount Cenis Tunnel have been bored, and but one mile remains.

BIOGRAPHY OF AN OX.

I was born in Nebraska. The farmer to whom I belonged paid a tax on me as a part of his income during my youth. He sold me when I was three years old, and paid an income tax on what I brought. I was nicely fattened until I weighed nearly a ton, by a democrat on Weeping Water who paid the Government eighteen cents for the privilege of selling me to a butcher, who paid tax, for the privilege of selling meat to the public. The butcher sold my tallow to a Chandler who made me, by paying license as a manufacturer, into candles for the poor people, who pay a five per cent. tax on candles to read by. My horns and hoofs are made into combs and glue, and pay another tax. My hide goes to the tanner, who pays as a manufacturer's license, and is made into leather, upon which is an ad valorem tax of five per cent. The tanner will sell the leather to a wholesale dealer, who pays a mercantile license and an income tax, and he will sell it to the shoemaker, and the shoemaker will make boots for the laborer, farmer and mechanic, and charge enough for them to cover all the taxes enumerated together with his own manufacturer's license.

HYMEN IN A SHOWER BATH.—Corn Mowatt, who is writing foreign letters for the San Francisco Chronicle, tells a story of a bridal pair, making the tour to Switzerland, who recently came to a crowded hotel, and were informed by the landlord that there was one unoccupied room in the house, the bath-room, and that a couple of beds might be made in the two baths which it contained. The youthful couple were well pleased to secure even this shelter after a fatiguing journey, and retired to rest. An hour or two later the stillness of the night was suddenly broken by shrieks of distress issuing from the bath room. The lady wishing to summon a servant, had pulled what she presumed was a bell-rope suspended over her head in the bath when, suddenly, she was inundated by a shower of cold water. The gentleman, aroused by the cries, and not quite comprehending the position pulled a supposed bell-rope which he felt dangling over his bath-bed, to bring him a domestic, but brought instead, a shower of hot water over himself. It was quite dark, and neither bride nor bridegroom could grope their way to the door. By the time success came they were up to their knees in water.

It has heretofore been pretty generally the impression that, while the citizens of the South might be able to control the negro vote in the country, the blacks in and about the towns and cities would be beyond their influence. At the late municipal election in Nashville, however, the negroes deserted the radicals for the first time and voted heavily with the citizens, so that the entire Conservative ticket was elected by a large majority. As there is no reason why this should not be made to occur in the other municipalities of the South, it is not at all impossible but that we may yet see the negroes vote as steadily with their old masters as they once worked for them.

POOR RULE THAT WONT WORK BOTH WAYS.—The Treasury officials have been compelled to abandon the docking system. It was too much to have the democratic press of the country inquiring why Grant, and Boutwell, and all the others were not cut off in their salaries for absence from duty, as well as the poor clerks. It was a poor rule that wouldn't work just as well with one element of the Government as another, and it is not to the credit of those who instigated it that they did not sooner discover it.

At a spiritual seance in Hartford, recently, the following conversation took place between a disconsolate widow and the spirit of the departed spouse: Widow—Are you in the spirit world? The lamented—I am. Widow—How long have you been there? The lamented—Oh, some time. Widow—Don't you want to come back and be with your lonely wife? The lamented—Not if I know myself. It's hot enough around here.

TRENTON, N. J., is on a broad grin over a huge joke which has unintentionally been perpetrated upon some of its highly respectable citizens. An enterprising colored man devised a petition to the Common Council of that city, asking for an enlargement of the schoolhouse for colored children. It occurred to him that the signatures of certain white folks might be serviceable, and he applied for and obtained a large number. The petition commences, "We, the parents of the colored children"

RAILROAD PROSPECTS.

The people both East and West are almost universally becoming sanguine of the early commencement of work upon the Northern Pacific Railroad, and property all along the proposed line is enhancing in value on account of this prevailing sentiment. In our own locality, instead of the unsettled feeling that existed among the people a few years ago, we hear no one talking of "going home in the spring," but every one seems satisfied now to feel at home here and to talk only of "visiting friends in the East" after the completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad. It will be recollected by the "old settlers" that only three years ago it was seldom one met with a person here who considered himself permanently located in the country; but now we may go among the same class of people and as seldom find one who does not consider himself settled for life. At no time since the settlement of the valley has property, both in town and country, been held so firmly or commanded a better price than now, and the tendency seems to be gradually upward. We have undoubted evidence that this feeling is not confined to our own people, in the fact that speculators and their agents from the East, have for some time past been out along the proposed line of the road looking at the lands, with a view to entering and settling upon them as soon as work upon the road is begun.

IRISH IMMIGRATION.

Through the kindness of Frank P. Dugan, Esq., of this city, now in the States, we have been furnished with a full report of the proceedings of the Irish Immigration Convention, which assembled at St. Louis on the 8th ult. Mr. Dugan represented Washington Territory in the Convention, which was composed of distinguished Irishmen from nearly all the States and Territories in the Union.

The object of the Convention is to establish an association, to be called the "Irish Immigration Aid Association," to aid Irish immigrants to become land-holders in the United States; the capital stock not to exceed $2,000,000, to be created by subscriptions of stock at five dollars per share; every State or Territory on the payment of 500 shares to be entitled to a director, and an additional director for every additional 2,000 shares subscribed and paid in; the Association to cease at the termination of twenty years, and the capital stock to be refunded to the original stockholders, or their heirs or assigns, upon a surrender of the stock certificates; the capital stock to be invested in United States bonds—and in case of the redemption of such bonds before the expiration of the twenty years, then in other securities, of the value or validity of which the Association shall have no doubt; the original and total capital to be preserved inviolate under all circumstances, as well as all donations and bequests, and only the interest, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be used for immigrant aid purposes.

The deliberations of the Convention were of the most harmonious character, and should its objects be fully carried out great good must necessarily result to the immigrant who, fleeing from the oppression of English rule, in the future shall seek a home in the United States. Mr. Dugan was appointed by the Convention an incorporator for this Territory.

Northern Railroad Convention.

The Northern Railroad Convention, recently in session at Oswego, New York, has made an elaborate report, in which it is stated that the chief cities of China are from 500 to 800 miles nearer Puget Sound, the proposed western terminus of the Northern Pacific Railroad, than San Francisco; and since vessels coming from China to San Francisco first make the American shore opposite Puget Sound, and then run down the coast, it will be seen that the traffic from China by way of Puget Sound and the Northern Pacific Railroad will effect a saving of 1,500 miles or more of ocean navigation, thus bringing Europe from 2,000 to 2,500 miles nearer China than she is or can be by any existing route.

DIVISION OF THE COUNTY.

A very numerous signed remonstrance against the division of the county was forwarded from this city to Olympia this week. The signers included men from all parts of the county, among whom are a large number of residents of the Touchet, in the limits of the proposed new county. The commotion about this division question seems to us to be somewhat of the "tempest in a teapot" order; for it is understood that all our representatives at Olympia are opposed to it. We know the people of this vicinity to be unanimously opposed to it; and judging from the sentiments we have heard expressed by residents of Watsburg and the Touchet, a corporal's guard would sum the number of those who favor it there. Under these circumstances it seems strange to us that there should be any fears of our legislature dividing the county. Matters of this kind, affecting the interests of counties, have heretofore always been left by our legislatures to the representatives of such counties, and we incline to the opinion that this will be done in the present instance.

"A CABAL OF TREACHERY."

Under the above caption the Oregonian of the 27th ult. thus treats the doings of the Republican members of the Washington Legislature, now in session at Olympia. If, as the Oregonian asserts, their actions have been such as to cast a reflection upon the administration of President Grant, then indeed must they be guilty of a degree of political turpitude sufficient to justify its strictures.

"From Olympia we hear that the bolters and disorganizers of the Federal clique who have been trying for several months to weaken and overthrow the Republican party of Washington Territory, are still at their treacherous work,—evincing, if possible, more shamelessness and malignancy than ever. With the abjuration of party fealty they seem also to have renounced truth and honor, and for the sake of gaining their revenge are ready to do anything their copperhead allies may require. * * * It would be difficult to guess what the Republicans over there have done, that such a base set of political marauders should be placed in positions where they can do so much harm. * * * They should abandon positions in which they have wronged the whole Republican party of the Territory and scandalized the honest and true Republican administration of President Grant. * * * When the props that sustain such factious greatness as that of Planders and his set, are torn away, such political varlets will quickly sink back to the ignoble condition from which lucky circumstances—lucky for them but untoward for the people—have raised them."

The democracy, when the proper time shall have arrived, will attend to knocking the props from under this faction, so the Oregonian may rest easy on that assurance.

ASTOUNDING REVELATIONS.

PRESIDENT GRANT IN LEAGUE WITH THE GOLD GAMBLERS.

The last and worst revelation, says the Harrisburg Patriot, in regard to the recent gold gambling scandal in New York has been made. It is now well ascertained that the transactions which have brought thousands to financial ruin were the result of a deliberate conspiracy among certain reckless stock gamblers, at the head of whom was Mr. A. R. Corbin, of New York, the brother-in-law of General Grant. Since the terrible storm in Wall street, which threatened to end in a financial crisis like that of 1857, and which has excited indignation and alarm throughout the whole country, Mr. Corbin has seen fit to deny his connection, and even his acquaintance with James Fisk Jr., and the crowd of gold gamblers, of whom Fisk was the ostensible leader. This denial on the part of the President's brother-in-law has brought out a reply from Fisk in which he makes a very clear and strong statement over his own signature, accompanying the document with affidavits from a number of well-known brokers, who substantiate every allegation which Fisk makes. The substance of the statement by Fisk, and of the accompanying affidavits is contained in the following extracts:

It is proper for me to say that Mr. Corbin has been a party in interest with us, and others whose names it is not now necessary to mention, in the recent gold speculation, and that he has constantly communicated with me respecting this gold speculation. In fact, Mr. Corbin was in this speculation long before I was. It had been organized and carried on by him and other gentlemen for some weeks before I knew of its existence. He is entitled to almost the entire credit of originating the grand scheme for advancing the price of gold, and I willingly disclaim in his favor the honor—so kindly imputed to me by the press in general—of having devised this bold and brilliant operation. It was the fruit of Mr. Corbin's own suggestive mind, and long before I knew anything of it. Mr. Corbin's representations concerning the powerful influence which he could bring to bear in favor of the speculation had enlisted in his support other gentlemen of means and capacity; and it is only just to say that Mr. Corbin's assurance on this point were fully carried out up to the 23d of September. No man can read the above extract and the accompanying affidavits without being fully convinced of the complicity of the brother-in-law of President Grant with those who were engaged in the gigantic gold gambling scheme which convulsed the country. That Mr. Corbin would have risked all he had, and have induced others to engage with him in such a scheme, without first obtaining assurance from General Grant that there should be no interference with the plot, must be equally clear to every one. In more than one way he has a guilty knowledge of this infamous scheme been brought home to the President. Without the direct and unequivocal statement of James Fisk, and the sworn affidavits which accompanied it, there was evidence enough before the public to confirm a belief in the reports which were made by the best informed newspapers of the country, and especially those of New York city.

The gold gamblers made no reckless adventure when they boldly bulled the market up to 162. The whole operation was based upon the representations made by Grant's brother-in-law. That he had good reason to believe that there would be no interference from Washington is proven by the recklessness with which he risked his money, when to all appearance nothing but financial ruin could be the result. It was well known the government could burst the bubble in a moment, but the positive assurance made by Grant to Corbin, and by him conveyed to his co-conspirators gave confidence to those who boldly engaged in the most gigantic gambling scheme the world has ever seen.

Had General Grant's conduct in other respects been different it might be hard to believe that he would engage in such a conspiracy. But his whole course has been calculated to render credence to this last and gravest charge easy. The public officer who feels no hesitancy about accepting every present which can be offered to him cannot possess a very nice sense of honor. The president who so notoriously makes use of his official position to reward those who conferred pecuniary benefits upon him, and who has appointed a crowd of needy relatives to positions they are unfit for, would not hesitate to aid his favorite brother-in-law in such a scheme as the recent gold gambling speculation. That Gen. Grant was largely responsible there can no longer be any doubt. Let him be held to answer for it by the people.

AN EXPENSIVE FLIRTATION.

The Chicago Tribune of October 9th has the following: Flirting is generally considered harmless. It may be, but many a man and woman have bitterly regretted that they ever indulged in it. If young men and ladies are guilty of shaking their handkerchiefs, and throwing kisses at each other, it can hardly be expected that older persons, although they are supposed to have thrown aside such a silly practice, will be exempt. To show what it costs a fully grown man to flirt, an instance occurring at the St. James Hotel on Thursday is a good illustration. About noon on Wednesday, a tall and very prepossessing woman, about thirty-five years of age, arrived at the hotel in question and registered her name as Mrs. Carr. She appeared to be respectable, and in order that she might avoid running up and down several flights of stairs, was accommodated with a room on the second floor. A gentleman, whose name is well known in Chicago, connected with a large firm on Lake street, boards at the St. James. He is married, but his wife is at present in an Eastern city. This gentleman sat down to the supper table on Thursday evening. Near him was seated Mrs. Carr. He admired her stately appearance, and determined, if possible, to get up a flirtation. By shaking his napkin he attracted her attention. She looked at him sweetly, and he shook the napkin again. She gave him so much encouragement that when supper was over he followed her into the parlor. After a brief conversation an arrangement was made to meet on the second floor. The Second Quarter of tuition at St. Vincent's Academy will commence on Monday next, the 6th inst.

George Patterson is giving readings from Dickens to crowded houses in Waitsburg.

The Board of County Commissioners has been in session during the week. A full report of their proceedings will be published next week.

Shocking Accident.—On Friday last a little son of Mr. Richardson, about three years old, who lives on the Upper Touchet, fell into a vat of boiling water and was badly scalded that he died on the following day. The vat was used for scalding wheat for feeding purposes. All the little fellow's body, excepting his head, was literally cooked before he could be taken out.

Another Accident.—A son of Mr. Lundquist, of Connel, aged ten years, on Saturday last, from a wagon loaded with rails, the wheels passing over his body, causing internal injuries from which it was supposed the boy would not recover when our informant left.

Our readers are directed to the advertisement of Jacobson Bros., successors to N. and E. Brown. These gentlemen have experience in their line of business, and knowing the wants of this community are prepared to sell at figures that defy competition.

RECEIVED A CALL.—Mr. O. T. Potter, who has for some time past been teaching the upper district school in this city, has been elected by the Directors to take charge of the district school at Waitsburg, and will enter upon the duties of his new station in about ten days.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. E. B. Whitman and W. A. Ball, merchants and quartz miners at Warren, are in town and intend to remain here during the winter. Dr. Robert Newell, of Lewiston, has been in town this week. The Doctor informs us that he will probably become a resident of our county in a short time.

ALL BUSY.—There is not a carpenter in the city or vicinity but is constantly employed in building or repairing, with a prospect of work for months ahead. The planing mills are kept at work day and night in furnishing dressed lumber, sash, doors, etc., for the various building improvements going on both in town and country.

LAND SALES.—Messrs. Jacobs and Green have sold their valuable farm two and a half miles south of this city, to Mr. Frank Shelton. Mr. S. has sold his place near the foot of the mountains, to the same gentleman, and has moved on to his new farm. Messrs. Jacobs and Green will in a short time become residents of our city.

ARREST.—On Saturday last Sheriff McAuliffe arrested a fugitive from justice, from Baker county, Oregon, named Win. Cochran. He was indicted by the grand jury of that county for resisting the Deputy Sheriff in the exercise of his duty. He was arrested at the State Penitentiary, and after being held a hard out, which fact was demonstrated by his drawing a derringer on Mac, but it didn't save him.

DOING WELL.—Notwithstanding the drought of the past season, which greatly cut short the crops, the farmers of the valley appear to be doing as well as usual. Everything they have for market commands high prices. Wheat is selling at 80 cents; oats and barley at 75 cents; and corn at 60 cents. Stock of all kinds is also in active demand, at prices not below the figures that have prevailed for the past three years.

TO THE FARMERS AND PUBLIC IN GENERAL.—Your attention is called to the new and complete stock lately received from San Francisco, consisting of the finest and best heaver and cassimere business suits, overcoats, Gaiters, French black heaver and doekskin pants, and dress coats, a fine and complete stock of coats, underwear and cassimere over shirts. Our stock of boots are from the first Eastern and San Francisco manufacturers. A full assortment of blankets for family use. Our stock of Ladies' dress goods, consisting of the newest patterns and latest European importations, together with a full stock of Ladies', Misses', children's and infants' shoes. A full assortment of groceries and crockery. We call the particular attention of Farmers to the fact that we are prepared to sell our stock in exchange for their produce, butter and eggs. Give us a call before you go elsewhere, and examine our stock.

FALL BACKS.—For future reference we give below a summary of the late races: First Day—Purse of $50 for two-year-old single dash. Brisbrow's b. h. Walla Walla Baby, Rexford's b. h. White Stocking, Ireland's Whitebone. Won by Walla Walla Baby—time, 2:25. Purse of $25 for saddle horse; single dash. U. S. Grant, French Fillet, Ireland's b. h. Silver Tail, Boyle's b. h. Johnny, McCooma's b. h. Buck. Won by Silver Tail—time, 1:56. Second Day—Purse of $50 for three-year-old; 1 mile and repeat. Steele's g. h. Wilkes, Garrett's s. Zephyr, Hubbs' b. h. Flora Temple. Won by Zephyr—time, 2:25. Third Day—Purse of $100 free for all—mile heats. Garrett's b. h. Hummingbird, Bomar's b. h. Jerry, Bunker's b. h. Swindling Dick. Won by Jerry—time, 1:55. Fourth Day—Purse of $40 for three-year-old; mile and repeat. Gladford's George, Boyle's Pilot, Richards' b. h. Barney. Won by Belmont—time, 2:17, 2:5. Fifth Day—Purse of $100, free for all; two miles and repeat. Garrett's s. Zephyr, Wooten's s. Young Dasher, Horty's g. h. Silver Tail. Won by Young Dasher—time, 2:13, 2:17.

NOTICE.

The undersigned having this day sold their entire stock to Jacobson & Bro., return thanks to our former patrons for their custom, and hope they will transfer the same to the new firm.

N. & E. Brown,
Walla Walla, Nov. 1, 1899.

CITY WATCHMAN.—We are requested to state that the City Council, at their next meeting, Tuesday evening next, intend to employ a city watchman, and that parties desiring the situation can leave their bids with Mr. O. P. Lacy, at or before that time.

New Bacon.—Bacon of this year's curing is already coming into market. The high price this article has commanded for the past month—twenty cents per lb., at wholesale—has induced some of our farmers to hurry up the butchering season and be in time with their new bacon to get the benefit of the high prices. Those that can wait until this time next year will be just as fortunate, with the exception, perhaps that their bacon will lose something in weight from keeping; for we are informed that there are a less number of hogs in the valley for butchering this fall than there has been at any time during the past three years. Driving large numbers of hogs out of the valley this year towards Boise, Kootenai and Blackfoot, has caused the scarcity here.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS. Dates to October 26.

Quebec, Oct. 25.—The Treasurer of the Province of Quebec has resigned, and has been appointed Secretary of State in the Dominion Cabinet.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Brewster, formerly Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and one of the majority of the court that decided the election contests in favor of republican contestants, has been tendered by Gov. Geary, the position of Attorney General, now occupied by Benj. Harris.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The Secretary has authorized the payment at once with rebate of the interest, due November first on both registered and coupon bonds.

OPINION ON THE YERGER CASE.

The opinion delivered by Chief Justice Chase, to-day, in the Yerger case, was very elaborate and lengthy. It does not involve the merits of the case, or constitutionality of reconstruction acts; but merely the question of the authority of the Court to issue writ of habeas corpus under its appellate jurisdiction. The case, on its merits, if the Court shall issue the writ and proceed to a hearing thereon will present a question only as to which power, in the State's present condition, shall exercise jurisdiction, and whether the person charged with crime is amenable to the military or civil law.

A number of officers have been assigned to duty in connection with registration and election in Mississippi.

FROM TENNESSEE.

Nashville, Oct. 25.—The Legislature, to-day, postponed the election of Public Printer until November 2d. It is proposed now by Johnson's friends, to run him for State Convention, and if elected, to make him President of that body. The Legislature has not yet called a convention for taking any action on the Fifteenth Amendment.

The first ice of the season formed this morning.

Memphis, Oct. 25.—The Chamber of Commerce passed resolutions this evening to extend aid to the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Poughkeepsie, Oct. 25.—There was a land-slide near Rondout yesterday. It moved three acres of land a considerable distance, covered Brook's yard to the depth of six feet and swept away the engine house and engine. The damage is heavy.

FIRES IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—A series of fires occurred here on Saturday night and Sunday morning. The most serious was the complete destruction of St. Andrew's Church and partial destruction of the Unitarian Church, and the manufactory of Lery & Brothers. The Baptist Church was also considerably damaged. The fires are supposed to have been the work of incendiaries. Loss about $150,000.

CAUSE OF BUTTERFIELD'S RESIGNATION.

New York, Oct. 25.—The Telegram learns that recent complications in regard to the gold speculation connected with a feeling of personal self-respect, pending the investigations upon the point, have impelled Assistant Treasurer Butterfield to send in his resignation to the Secretary of the Treasury, and communication to that effect was despatched to Washington this evening.

The Commercial says it hears the General has expressed himself to the effect that he could not have the thorough and impartial investigation he desired, he preferred to resign, and would forward a letter of resignation immediately. A report also says he has telegraphed to the Secretary of the Treasury to that effect, and will forward a formal letter to-night.

It is understood that the grand jury of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, devoted to-day to the investigation of the gold ring transactions.

The evidence thus far taken by the Congressional committee on the Paraguayan outrages are important. The Erie Railroad strike is ended by the reinstatement of all the displaced men.

CUBAN NEWS.

Havana, Oct. 25.—A decree of the Cortes, establishing unrestricted liberty of religion in Cuba and Porto Rico, to-day promulgated, will go into effect immediately, as the law of the land. One clause of the decree provides that no person be removed from holding office under the Government by reason of his religious belief. Decrees received with general satisfaction. It is probable that a Protestant Church will be established in this city.

REVENUE DECEITFULS PARDONED.

Richmond, Oct. 26.—The President has pardoned Anderson, Patterson and Elam, convicted here in 1868 of conspiracy, to defraud the revenue, and sent to the Albany penitentiary.

The State Fair commences November 2d, and will far exceed those of any fair before the war. The entries from the northern States are five times as great. The President will be invited to attend. The State Journal, a radical organ, asserts that Boutwell and the President believe the moral right to the removal of his disabilities, which should not be impaired by undeterred oversight on the part of Congress. Both express the hope that Congress will remove Senator Johnston's disabilities.

MORE THAN 100,000 PERSONS

Bear testimony to the Wonderful Curative Effects Of Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS.

A CURE FOR EVERY DISEASE. DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS. Manufactured from the Native Herbs and Roots of California, is THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and Life-Giving Principle.

PURIFY THE BLOOD and the health of the whole system will follow. Nothing has ever been discovered which can compare with these BITTERS. By their peculiar virtues they stimulate the vital functions, and thus expel the impurities which lurk within the system.

The Life of all Flesh is the Blood Thereof. Cleanse the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood healthy and all is well.

Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, Are a true medicine, placed in the hands of the people for their relief, and no person can take them, according to directions, and remain long unwell. They are a perfect Restorer of the System, as they carry off every particle of poisonous matter.

For Female Complaints. Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a manly improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout. These Bitters have been most successful. They are caused by vitiated blood, which is generally produced by arrangement of the digestive organs.

It is a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic. It is a powerful agent in relieving congestion of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. In this respect, these Bitters have no equal.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms. Lurking in the systems of so many thousands on this Coast are effectually destroyed and removed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. This disease, in a measure, is occasioned by the irregularity and want of action in the Liver, stomach, gall bladder, etc. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Roor Eructations, Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bileous Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Copious Discharges of Urine, Pain in the regions of the Kidney, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the spring of this Dyspepsia.

Morbid Condition of the Blood. This is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Tetter or Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sores, Ulcers, Pimples, and Eruptions of all kinds. For the removal of these affections, which are merely symptoms of a morbid condition of the blood, medical science and skill have not, as yet, discovered a Blood Purifier equal to Walker's Vinegar Bitters.

Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder. It thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor and bad taste, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition. It is perfectly harmless, never producing the slightest injury.

Let it be distinctly borne in mind that Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters is not a gilded pill, to delight the eye or please the fancy; it is a medical preparation, and no beverage; and all its ingredients are the best vegetable ingredients the dispensary of nature furnishes, so far as discovery has yet extended. It may be considered incredible that so many cases, constantly and hopelessly incurable, are so frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully vouch the investigation of the liberal minded and scientific.

Many years ago, the writer of these lines and an invalid physician, while visiting the Island of St. Cruz for their health, experienced and witnessed many surprising and beneficial effects of the Balm there produced upon many of the invalids who were (like ourselves) seeking health; and, upon inquiry and investigation, obtained a full history of its medicinal virtues. He was delighted and surprised, and after his own recovery, which soon occurred, determined, if possible, to procure the sole right to manufacture and sell it in the United States.

The result of his labors was a glorious success for himself and suffering humanity, for the celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS was thus made known to the world. PLANTATION BITTERS being an article of real merit, founded upon new principles, and relying wholly upon the vegetable world for its medicinal effects, worked a rapid revolution in the history of medicine, and became as a household word all over the civilized world.

Notwithstanding the large importation of St. Cruz Balm, made expressly for the compounding of these Bitters, the quantity was inadequate. It therefore became necessary that arrangements upon an extensive scale abroad should at once be made, and an agent was dispatched to St. Thomas for that purpose. He was fortunate in securing and leasing several plantations on some of the largest and most productive estates on the island. Houses, stables and presses were erected as if by magic, which utterly "astonished the natives."

The services of experienced men and natives of the island were procured, and very soon the proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS were in a position to supply their laboratory with all the perfectly pure St. Cruz Balm needed in manufacturing the GREAT DYSPEPTIC TONIC AND INVIGORATOR. The above cut represents the natives crushing the sugar-cane and otherwise preparing it for the stills and presses.

As an antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, Dyspepsia, and other kindred diseases, the use of the PLANTATION BITTERS is unsurpassed in the history of the world. Over five million bottles are disposed of annually. They are adapted to old and young, male and female. They are agreeable in taste, and always produce an immediate beneficial result.

For about twenty years I had used tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years had been an inveterate smoker. Bouncing tobacco had done the extensive use of this narcotic seriously impaired my health, I determined if possible to break myself of the habit. Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for tobacco, I sent to Portland, Maine, for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the first of November. A month has not elapsed, and yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from any craving desire to use tobacco in any form.

DR. JULIEN PERRAULT, Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptist Society of San Francisco.

Dr. Perrault has pleasure to inform patients and others seeking confidential medical advice, that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall building, North-East corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, Rooms No. 3, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

Dr. Perrault's studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently injure the system, and the general treatment of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the system, and consequent infirmity, is the result of the view of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc. have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit lasted long afterward.
